AS WASHINGTON SEES POLITICS.

(Special Correspondence of THE INDEPENDENT, by Charles A. Edwards.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 14:
The political gossip of the National Capitol are just discussing the action of the President in demanding that Secretary George B. Cortelyou, of the Commerce and Labor Department, be made the chairman of the Republican National Committee. In the eyes of the politically wise, this move means nothing less than that the President intends to run his own campaign in his own way, for surely Mr. Cortelyou, while he is personally one of the nicest kinds of fellows, has had no experience whatever in the management of national campaigns. He has been and now is nothing more than a clerk at the head of a bureau and all his political experience has been confined to just such work. While Roosevelt's work in national campaigns has been more extensive, yet he has about as much idea of conducting a campaign as a hog has about navigating a ship. Together they will make a sorry mess of the thing and it is an open secret here that among the leaders of the Republican party they are not breaking their hearts over the thing and do not give a continental how badly Roosevelt is defeated. The truth of the matter, however, is that the President was perfectly satisfied that he had all the old fat-frying Republicans placed in a corner and knocked out to a finish so far as the campaign fund is concerned, because Carnegie has agreed to put up a million dollars and he had further feathered his nest in the Panama canal deal to the extent of several millions for the campaign fund, which gave him all he really needed or at least thinks he needs, and he therefore became very cocky. He now proposes to run things as he pleases and will refuse to take the dying suggestion of that prince of practical politicians, Matthew Stanley Quay, that the selection of Cortelyou for chairman of the Republican National Committee was an egregious blunder. He intends to run things his own way by placing this new and unpledged politician at the head of things, thinking thereby to fool the people into believing that he cares nothing at all for the campaign contributions that could be garnered by the old timers on a high plane and not going to have a money campaign. The truth is that he has all the money he needs from the Panama canal deal and from Carnegie and by placing Cortelyou in command, apparently, he will conduct his own campaign in his own way. He thinks he is fooling the whole people, this same smooth man in the White House, but it is a case of the ostrich sticking his head in the sand and believing he is hidden. Watch his game.

The leaders of the Democratic party here are rejoicing over the situation in the state of Wisconsin. From the advent here of a delegation from the La Follette faction of the Republicans of the Badger state it is learned certainly that there can be no peace in that state unless that faction is recognized as the Republican party of the state. This the President refuses to do. If he had done so, he would immediately embroil himself with Senator Spooner and Quarles and the leaders of the so-called stalwarts of the party in Wisconsin. Therefore, he is between the devil and the deep sea and the chance of the state of Wisconsin sending Democratic electors to the electoral college next winter is increasing daily.

SUCCESSFUL PRINCIPAL.

The Rev F Fitz, principal of Iolani College, deserves commendation for the manner in which he has revived that missionary institution of learning. By close attention to its needs and by hard application to its necessities, through perseverance and toil, he has manfully succeeded in a year or so to again bring it up to its former enviable standard. We dare not say too much in favor of the work so far accomplished, of course not forgetting the assistance offered him by his new Bishop. The writer being an old Iolani boy, our only wish is that Iolani may always flourish in this land and that "Florat Iolani" may hereafter resound as it has resounded in the past and that it may still turn out men that may be men amongst men in the spirit of its Hawaiian motto—"E Hoookanaka."

Should Leave Receipts.

The United States has been amply reimbursed for the assumption of the Hawaiian public debt, and it is about time that the Territory began again to enjoy the benefits of the customs receipts. It is true that the move would be unusual but we believe that it would be fully justified by conditions. Conditions have changed greatly in the past seven years; they have changed in four years. In the iron bound proposition that everything that arrives in the United States must pay duty into the Treasury must be modified to meet these new condition, particularly in the Pacific. The central government get enough from Hawaii in the way of internal revenue to make up this Territory's reasonable proportion of National taxation. It is, then, not asking too much that the customs receipts be expended here.

Watch This Gang.

During the Republican primary recently held, it is said that the Road Department was very active in exerting a great amount of influence over voters in certain precincts, and thereby men favorable to the managers were duly elected. We are informed that in certain voting places employees worked like Trojans to have men come into line, at the same time watching their every movement as cats would rats and they succeeded too at it. This was more particularly in those precincts where many of the road laborers resided and they were worked for a free expression of opinion, which they exerted to the full. Guards were stationed at certain polling places to watch these road makers, and it is reported that these men all went in and did their job well, entirely satisfactory to those over them. From all accounts, the Road Department will be a great political factor in the coming campaign to be reckoned with and must needs be closely watched.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

It is a kind of parody on its platform for the Prohibition Party to name Silas Swallow as its candidate for the office of President.

One reason why Roosevelt will be defeated is that he is wearing scales—Fairbanks'. All that is left is for him to be "weighed in the balances and found wanting."

A concern with fifty per cent of its stock represented by water that can pay a lump dividend of three per cent in six months, after deducting the enormous expense of starting business, is not to be sneezed at.

The concert and entertainment at Iolani College this evening, under the auspices of the Iolani Guild, is worthy of liberal patronage. The object is a good one. At the same time the entertainment will be well worth the price of admission and the time.

If police detectives wish to spy upon saloon men, so as to make cases for the Government, why not turn their attention and practice their art upon club dispensers of liquor? Some of these clubs hold forth in homes and they sell all the way from a drink up to a gallon or so. These Federal permitted clubs should be and are the ones to be looked after.

The nomination by the Republican press of Senator Gray, of Delaware, to Democratic candidate for the Presidency causes any Democrat to wonder how many dead ducks the G. O. P. newspapers have up their sleeves. They have urged Parker and Cleveland and Gorman and Hill and a half dozen other men who are doubtful quantities. Our observation leads us to believe, however, that the nominee of the party will not be a man recommended by Republicans. In Mr Roosevelt we have all the men of that kind that are required for present purposes.

It seems rather strange that an electric road up to Pacific Heights cannot be maintained. The main elevation is only about 300 feet. Pike's Peak has a road that climbs up the mountain to almost 14,000 feet, while in Switzerland even more daring projects are under way. The dangers on the Pacific Heights railway are probably made visible only by the desire of certain men to queer property values up there in the interest of their own in other parts of the city.

On the Atlantic the steamers are now carrying passengers (steerage, of course) distances of more than 3,000 miles for $10. On the Pacific, owing to the steamship trust, the figures are three and four times as much. What is needed out here, especially between Honolulu and San Francisco, is a private steamship line that will keep rates down. Travelling on ocean liners should not be more expensive than living at a hotel. The freight carried by Coast steamers should be depended upon for the bulk of the profit.

Iolani Concert Tonight.

This is the evening of the Iolani Guild concert, to be given in Iolani College hall, beginning at 8 o'clock. A most excellent program has been arranged and an enjoyable time for all who attend is certain. Tickets will be on sale at the door. Following will be the features:

Paralysis

is sometimes caused by overwork, either mental or physical. There are many other exciting causes, such as exposure to cold, excesses, emotional influences, etc. The approach of the disease is generally gradual. Frequently the first warning is a vague feeling of headache, vertigo and muscular weakness.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People

restore the nutrition of the nerves and have cured many cases of paralysis when all other remedies and methods of treatment have failed. The record of this remedy entitles it to a thorough trial.

Perhaps there is no man better known in the city of Lawrence, Kansas, than Mr. G. H. Snyder. To a reporter Mr. Snyder related a wonderful story. He said: "I am now seventy years of age. About three years ago I experienced a coldness or numbness in the feet, then creeping up my legs until it reached my body. I grew very thin in flesh, my appetite was very poor and I did not relish my food. At last I became so bad I was unable to move about. I consulted several distinguished physicians, one telling me that I had locomotor ataxia, another that I had creeping paralysis. I took their medicines but they did me no good and I continued to grow worse. "One day a friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I immediately commenced their use, throwing all other medicines away. Before I had finished my first box I found that they were benefiting me. I used twelve boxes in all and was perfectly cured."
 —From the Journal, Lawrence, Kan.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People contain, in a condensed form, all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after-effects of the grip, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions, all forms of weakness either in male or female.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold by all dealers, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50c. a box or six boxes for $2.50 (they are never sold in bulk or by the 100) by addressing Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.
