Expects to Be an Admiral.

Captain Leon Barnaud, commander of the French cruiser Protet, now in the port of Honolulu, is expecting soon the arrival of his commission as Admiral. It is believed that while the Protet is stationed at Panama, whether the warship goes from here via Acapulco, the commission will reach him, which may possibly mean that he will be recalled to France and given a new assignment. Captain Barnaud was born at Antibes, in the Maritime Alps, in 1817. The district of his birth is directly across from the island of Corsica, where Consul Vizzavona was born. He has seen much duty with the French navy and has had command of the cruiser Lalande, attached to the Mediterranean squadron, and of the battleship Courbet, which formed a part of the Northern fleet. He now commands the naval division of the Pacific. Captain Barnaud has attainments in scientific pursuits as well as in naval matters and is regarded as a savant by Frenchmen. He was once sent to a favorable observation station in Chile to observe the transit of Venus across the sun and made valuable data regarding the phenomenon. Captain Barnaud has orders to sail from Honolulu on Thursday (tomorrow). — P. C. A.

"We'll Paint, or Fight"

MINNEAPOLIS MIDD., Jan. 18. — If the Government insists that the Indians in its charge shall cut off their long hair, abstain from the use of paint and gaudy habiliments of savagery, the aborigines will dig up the hatchet and shed their blood in resisting so sudden a wiping out of racial characteristics.

This is the opinion of J. B. Bottineau, son of Pierre Bottineau, a Northwestern pioneer and scout. Not only is Bottineau connected with the red race by ties of blood, but for years he has been counselor and attorney for the Turtle Mountain band of Indians.

Bottineau says an attempt at a strict enforcement of Commissioner Jones' reported order means revolution, whatever happens. In the Dakotas and Montana the Sioux and Blackfoot Indians generally renew their paint each morning with as much care as a white society belle administers her complexion cream.

Boers Amused at Talk of Peace.

LONDON, Jan. 18. — Dr. Leyds, representative in Europe of the Transvaal, according to a dispatch from Amsterdam to Reuter's Telegram Company, held a conference today with the Boer delegation at The Hague at the house of Wolmeraus. No official statement has been given out, but there is the best authority for asserting that the conference was merely a periodical meeting.

The dispatch says the reports of peace are ridiculed by the Boers themselves, who say such stories are simply fabricated by British agents with a view to British publication, hoping to turn them to advantage in South Africa. The Boers deny that any negotiations are impending. Dr. Leyds left tonight for Utrecht.

Butterfly Breeding a Craze.

LONDON, Jan. 18. — Butterfly breeding seems to be the latest craze that fashionable folk have taken up.

The originator of this pretty pursuit, which is more scientific than fads usually are, is believed to be Miss Baden Powell, the sister of the hero of Mafeking.

Miss Powell, I am told, breeds a large number of butterflies in her drawing room. Mr. Lionel Rothschild is also possessed of this hobby, whose votaries include a number of other well known persons.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

This country can never stand idle and allow it to be turned into a dumping ground for the United States. A strong protest should be made on that score alone and on nothing else. It is of vital concern to all.

What are we coming to with the transition period status, the unconstitutionality of the law in regard to the desertion of husband and wife, and other legal tangles that are always turning up these days. Legal muddles do not seem to be at an end. Troubles and entanglements do not come singly, for the saying is that "it never rains, but pours."

THE INDEPENDENT believes that the idea of the Republicans in attempting to give opposition in mass meeting to Delegate Wilcox's leper bill is a move in the right direction and that the Home Rulers have been caught napping. This is a matter of the utmost importance to this Territory, not only to one party, but to all concerned, and which ought and should be well aired and ventilated in public. But if the Republicans mean that this attempt at a mass meeting as a cat-paw to catch the native electorate, it is safe enough for us to say that they are making a mistake. No dragnet policy is wanted at this time, but only the cool and deliberate judgment in what is necessarily good and proper for all to do in the matter.

Among the five suicides to the credit of the first month of the present year was that of one who looked at the people of this country during the trying days of 1893, who, no doubt, thought that we had no right to live in our own home, but he, a foreigner, had more right than the native born. And still there was another who acted quite friendly towards us and in front of us, but behind our backs played us false by signing the death warrants of those held in prison for safe keeping during the hot revolutionary days of 1895. THE INDEPENDENT was not then in existence, but the writer lives who was one of the many held under suspicion and kept in confinement for 63 days. And what has been their lot—death self inflicted. And so shall their end be, is the will of Him Who rules the universe. "Those whom the gods love, they first make mad." So mote it be.

Circuit Court Notes.

Anton Helgeren has filed a petition for his appointment as administrator of the estate of Annie K. Jack.

George Chalmers has also petitioned to be appointed administrator of the estate of Mary Ann Chalmers.

H. L. Kerr & Co. were given judgment yesterday against the Orpheum Company for $718.94.

Demurrer was overruled by Judge Humphreys in the case of Charles K. Fowt vs. Kona Sugar Co., Ltd., and defendant allowed ten days in which to file an answer.

Demurrer was sustained in the case of Chee Kit vs. Lee Lung Plaintiff was granted leave to amend complaint.

The appeal of Ah Kin, charged with assault and battery, has been dismissed by Judge Gear.

The appeal of Dr. H. E. Winslow, charged with assault, was dismissed, and the bail declared forfeited.

Defendant in the divorce libel of Christine Morgan vs. Henry Victor Morgan, having disappeared, order for publication was made yesterday, and the case continued by Judge Humphreys to the next term.

A discontinuance was filed yesterday in the case of Lovejoy & Co. vs. Waikiki Beach Company.

Mrs. Irsae Holloway yesterday filed a motion to have the case of the Brown minors transferred to Judge Gear, as he heard the matter originally, who refused to allow any one but the minor children to be present at the examination, and consequently he should make the final order as to the disposition of the children. This matter came up for hearing this morning and the Court ordered Mrs. Holloway to have the children ready to go with their father between certain hours of Saturday afternoons.

The case of Mrs. Ah Young was nolle prossed, she having obtained a divorce from her husband.

Mrs. Noel Markle and Antone Garcia were released under the ruling of Judge Gear that the desertion law is unconstitutional.

Judge Humphreys called the civil calendar yesterday morning, and set cases for trial up to number 90, until February 26. Judge Robinson will call the remainder of the docket if his commission arrives by that date.

Brady, Cullen, Geo. Kikila and Sam. Alapa, charged with gambling, were each fined $25. Kikila is one of the most notorious crooked dice men in Honolulu, and it is probable that before long he will land behind the bars.

Taka, a Japanese, was sent down for three hours for contempt of court. He advanced to the middle of the courtroom with his hat on, and when a friend advised him to remove it, shook his head deprecatingly.

Ah Choy and Wing Hong, who drove drays at a faster pace than a walk, were fined $5 and costs each.

Drunks received the usual $2 fines and costs each. And the cases of seventeen Chinamen, charged with gambling, were nolle prossed.

A trunt received a reprimand, a bicycle rider who rode his wheel without a light forfeited his bail, and others were remanded.

Americans Give Praise to France.

PARIS, Jan. 18.—Patriotic sentiment and warm sympathy with France were the keynotes of tonight's annual banquet and meeting of the American Chamber of Commerce in Paris. Francis Kimbel, president of the chamber, emphasized the former in his opening speech, proposing a toast to President Roosevelt and President Loubet and saying that all Americans abroad took pride in declaring, after the ancient Romans, "Civis Americus sum."

Alluding to the Franco-American commercial treaty President Kimbel expressed regret that its advantages were not yet sufficiently understood in the United States, adding that he was convinced its needs would shortly become imperatively felt. The years report of the chamber testified to its flourishing condition. Its increased membership and work necessitated extensive quarters, which, it is expected, will be further increased in the near future. Regret was expressed that the United States Congress had not established the metric system. The chamber is convinced that the adoption of this system will further develop foreign commerce with the United States.

United States Consul General John K. Gowdy paid a tribute to the late President McKinley. He pointed out that the confidence in President Roosevelt is so great that the onward march of prosperity has never slackened. "President Roosevelt's patriotism and staunch principles," declared Gowdy, "will continue to bear us on the great wave of prosperity."

District Court Doings.

Yesterday was a busy day with Judge Wilcox in the District Court, the busiest for a long time.

Joe Rego, a Porto Rican, got four months' for vagrancy. Evidence showed that he has been assisting in the recent pilfering of coal from the Oahu Railway and Land Company's yard.

Willie Pais, charged with larceny in the second degree was committed for trial. He is alleged to have stolen coal from the yards at the depot.

F. Smith, who was caught sleeping in a box car at the Oahu Railway depot on Monday night, was sent to the reef for two months.

Chun Sung, charged with vagrancy, was sentenced to six months imprisonment. He was discovered on premises on Liliha street with three chickens in his possession. Chun is the man who had his arm shot off last year by an Italian whose hen roost he was depleting.

K. Frost and J. Anderson, two sailors, were fined $5 and costs each for disturbing the quiet of the night.

Ah Poi was sentenced to six months' imprisonment at hard labor. He was arrested in a Japanese store on Hotel street on Monday night, while in the act of examining the mechanism of the cash register.

Puhi, charged with gambling, was fined $30 and costs. Twenty-two other natives, charged with the same offense, were fined $5 and costs each. Defendants were arrested while participating in a water-front crap game. Two others were nolle prossed.

Ransom on the Way.

SERES, Macedonia, European Turkey, Jan. 24.—The bearers of the ransom of Miss Ellen M. Stone and Mme. Tsilka, having with them $72,700, reached Demir-Hissar, Roumelia, January 21, and proceeded to the mountains on horseback, accompanied by a strong escort.

Butterflies' Wings.

The First Local Mint.

One of the institutions here which has the special attention of tourists as well as the local people is the Mint, which is established on Nuuanu street, opposite Queen Emma Hall. It is interesting to enter the large main working room, where general manager McDonough and his corps of assistants are at work. The cool and large laai is a proper resting place and the vaults, where the "bars" to be minted and beer are kept present a very tasty spectacle. The Mint is open from 5:30 a. m. to 11:30 p. m. and during those hours the work never ceases. Visitors after looking over the place will find first class refreshments and the purest of liquors.

Stitches Wound with Sack Twine

REDDING, Jan. 18.—Elijah Groom, the aged cattle raiser and horseman of the Gas Point section, is a man of marvelous fortitude. News has reached Redding of a remarkable surgical operation that he performed upon himself with the crudest of instruments and from which he bids fair to recover.

Groom, who is now 75 years old, became widely known as the owner of Johnny Allen, the famous quarter horse. He has a large herd of cattle at his Gas Point ranch. With his dog he was driving the cattle several days ago, when a savage steer charged upon him and caught him in the right thigh with one of its long horns. Groom fought to avoid being tossed and the tip of the horn ripped through the flesh like a knife. Despite his age he is a powerful man and he freed himself from the steer.

Again the enraged animal charged and cut a gash ten inches long near the first wound. Groom had lost much blood when he finally escaped over the fence that surrounds his house.

Groom summoned a neighbor and asked him to remain so that he would not die alone if his wound proved fatal. He curtly declined to have a messenger sent for a doctor. Taking a long curved sack needle and a ball of twine, he removed his torn clothing and commenced to stitch the longer of the gashes. He never flinched while he made twenty deep stitches, drew the edges of the wound together and tied the thread. The neighbor got very nervous, but Groom remained perfectly cool. Though quite weak, the aged man is getting along nicely.

Women Disdain Manless Court.

LONDON, Jan. 18.—The latest news that I have heard about the drawing rooms is that there are to be two in March.

I hear, however, that women are very much depressed at the idea that there is to be no difference from the old order of things, when drawing rooms were held by day, in that there are not likely to be any men present, or, if any, very few.

They don't think that a manless court by night at Buckingham Palace will be a very cheerful function. Undoubtedly, however, there will be many very brilliant dinner parties in connection with these functions. It is expected that the courts will begin about ten o'clock.

Another point which is exercising the minds of the debutantes and the ladies who present them is whether each will be presented separately to the King and Queen, or whether their Majesties will merely walk round the room, as is the custom at foreign capitals. While this would be a much quicker operation, it would not be so satisfactory to the ladies present.

The Collision Case.

The case of the collision between the schooner Malolo and the steamer J. A. Cummins, which occurred some time ago, came up before the Federal Inspectors of Hulls and Boilers Monday. The evidence of the captain, mate and chief engineer on each vessel was taken. One of the most interesting pieces of testimony was that Captain Moke, master of the Malolo, was unlicensed to command such a vessel. This rendered the master and the owner, Henry Macfarlane, liable to fines. The inspectors, after a thorough investigation of the facts of the collision, deferred giving their decision for a week or so. Collector of Customs Stackable has imposed a fine of one hundred dollars each on Capt Moke and Owner Macfarlane. The inspectors left on the Kinau yesterday for Hilo on a tour of inspection and examination. They expect to return Saturday, after which they will make a trip to Kahului.

Norman Halstead has purchased the Locomobile formerly owned by the late Joseph Heleluhe. After trying it for the last few days, he accepted and paid for it this morning. The transaction was made through this office.

Handball at Y. M. C. A. Courts.

Physical Director Young of the Young Men's Christian Association has arranged a handball tournament, which will commence this week. The draw for the first round resulted as follows: Chas. Marques vs. A. E. Lutz, Joe Dollinger vs. Olaf Oss, W. M. Larue vs. W. E. Kerr, A. M. Keoho vs. A. J. Shue, Alfred Blackman vs. Howard Pierce, W. W. Crook vs. Carl Taylor, R. J. Allan vs. Frank Darling, F. J. Merry vs. Wm. Hart, H. Mieth vs. Tom Dolan, Tom Evans vs. F. B. Lubeck, Chas. Gilliland vs. Harry Batchelor, E. S. Muckley vs. K. M. Gitt, Chas. Hottel vs. A. Lubeck.

The other rounds will be drawn as soon as the preceding round is completed.

The first round must be finished by Saturday, February 15. Contestants are expected to arrange the time of their matches with each other. The players must provide their own referee. Matches played without referee will be invalid.

The court in the gymnasium is available for matches on Mondays and Thursdays from 6 to 7:15 p. m., on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays until 7:30 p. m., and on Wednesdays and Saturdays in the afternoon and Wednesday evenings.

As we go to press the Hongkong Maru was signalled off Koko Head at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.
