Dear Mr. Crandall:

Your recent letter addressed to the President on the subject of utilizing the Japanese Americans in this country, and on other subjects, has been referred to the War Department for acknowledgment and reply.

The War Department appreciates your views on the subject of employing the Japanese and informs you that there is a policy to utilize these people in the war effort when it can be determined that they are loyal to the United States.

Sincerely,

(SIGNED)

WILLIAM P. SCOBEEY
Colonel, General Staff
