Redwood and Cedar POSTS

7 FEET LONG, for sale in any quantities, by Planters' Convention.

At the afternoon meeting yester-day, the Planters' Association,—as had been foreseen would probably be the case-was merged in the recently chartered, "Planters' Labor and Supply Company," and consequently the former, as a separate organization, ceased to exist. The remainder of the session of yesterday was occupied in turning over Port Gamble on the 2nd inst. for the Committees of the Association to the Company, and they continue their original functions.

> The S. F. Bulletin of March 1st, thus comments on the chartering of the C. R. Bishop at this port to load sugar for New York: "This movement will have the effect to stir up increased opposition to the treaty at the East, where there is already considerable feeling in the matter. The result of the movement will be watched with interest by both foes and friends of the treaty." In another place it says that three vessels instead of one have been laid on, and adds, "It is not likely that this much below the price of duty paid sugar of corresponding grades, so that the Southern planters will have little cause for complaint."

It appears that our former Honolulu boy, E. C. Macfarlane, now of San Francisco, has had a scrimmage, growing out of some allusion in the Wasp, to one Hunt, to which the latter took exceptions and attacked Eddie in the street with a cane. The News Letter of March 4th, thus alludes to the affair: "The fellow Hunt, who so brutally assaulted Mr. Macfarlane the other day, proved himself to be a coward of the most thoroughbred quality. It is comfor ing, however, to know that, al-though armed with a stick, he took his plucky little adversary by surprise; yet he came off with such a sound thrashing that he is not likely to 'hunt' another, editor for a fight."

Speaking of the late elections in these Islands, the S. F. Chronicle arrives at the following singular conclusions: "Of twenty-seven members reported as elected, only three are whites; twenty four are natives; and the sugar monopoly influence henceforth takes the place of the missionaries. Sir Claus Spreckels may name the Prime Minister and the Cabinet if he chooses."
