

STANDARD OIL AGAIN IN THE FIGHT

Torchlight Parade On Monday Night

Republican managers are planning to make the torchlight parade and rally at Aala Park Monday night one that will be long remembered for the fine showing of party strength and enthusiasm. The parade will begin at 7:30, march through the downtown streets and end up at Aala Park, where there will be a monster rally at which the finest speakers of the party will make addresses.

The parade itself will be novel and striking, and will prove to be well worth coming down town to see. All the best bands in Honolulu have been engaged for the evening, and stirring music, red fire, cheers, enthusiasm and party spirit, fun, joshes and stunts by local men will keep the crowds in good spirits. There will be floats which have been contributed by business houses, which will be decorated with clever hits and party slogans. The parade will begin at 7:30 and the rally at Aala Park at 8:30.

The Republicans will hold two meetings in town tonight, one at Panoa Valley, and the other at Niolopa. At Panoa, the candidates for Representatives from the Fourth District will make addresses, while the Niolopa meeting will be in charge of Republican party workers.

BIDS ON BIG JOB

QUARTERMASTER'S WAREHOUSE TO BE BUILT AT THE FOOT OF FORT STREET.

There were but two bidders for the work of constructing the new warehouse which the Army quartermaster's department is to have built on the lower end of Fort street. The local bids were opened this morning at nine o'clock at the office of Captain Humphreys, the local depot quartermaster. Hustace-Peck and Company and Lucas Brothers were the only bidders, the latter being under the former on all points.

Lucas, if he gets the work, will handle the plumbing through E. W. Quinn and the electrical wiring through the Hawaiian Electric Company.

The bids were as follows:
Lucas Bros. Hustace-Peck
Construction $55,812 $63,095
Plumbing 1,652 2,915
Wiring 1,384 1,980

Total work $58,848 $67,990

The Hawaiian Electric submitted a separate bid of $1384 for wiring alone.

Bids were opened for the same work in San Francisco at noon today and until news of these is received, it will be impossible to say to whom the contract will be awarded.

THREE-RINGED RALLY.
At the noon powwow of Republican committeemen and candidates, a suggestion of Chairman Atkinson was received favorably, being to have a speaker's stand at each of the near corners of Aala Park on Monday night. Mr. Atkinson had seen several overflow meetings from a grand rally at Madison Square Gardens conducted successfully, adding greatly to the interest of the crowd. His theory is that the speakers on the main stand can reach not more than a thousand

Witnessed The Betting

Charles S. Deaky, who returned home in the Lurline yesterday, said this morning:

"I went as far as New York. There I was shown into the poolrooms—which are privately conducted now owing to the law—and saw the betting on the election.

"It was three to one that Taft would be elected, even that Hughes would be elected governor and five to one that Taft would carry New York.

"New York is the place for business. Real estate is not a drug there as it is here. I cannot conceive why people here are not awake to the approaching great future of Honolulu.

"No, I do not say I should like to live in New York, but that is the place to make money."

MARY ATCHERLY ROUSES CROWD

Mary Atcherly took the platform at the corner of Bethel and King streets this afternoon and talked some forty minutes, rousing the Board of Health and numerous candidates for that, as she alleged, they had done all in their power to hinder the relief of settlement people on Molokai. She was listened to with great interest and frequently cheered. Some of her allegations were more sensational than politic. Some in the crowd endeavored to answer her but were quickly suppressed by the others. One or two fights started, but were swiftly squelched by the police.

Of the four or five thousand people likely to be at the rally.

Margaret R. Hoogs, widow and executrix of the late Frank L. Hoogs, has filed her final accounts, charging herself with $11,456.20.

ROASTED KUHIO,--- REPLY CAME IN EGGS

(Special Correspondence.)

HILO, Oct. 27.—The Democratic orators, notwithstanding the confidence they profess in the outlook, are finding some voters who emphatically disagree with them.

News has just been received that Harry Irwin, David Ewaliko and others who are touring the island for the Democracy, were the recipients of a volley of antiquated eggs, and other tokens of non-appeal, while one of their number was engaged in an impassioned outburst at Hookena.

It is stated that the cause of their offending lay in an unduly vigorous denunciation of Cupid, Desha and other opposing candidates.

CHEAP ICE FOR CITY IN SIGHT

BARNHART HAS CUT PRICES OF HAWAIIAN ELECTRIC COMPANY IN HALVES—OAHU COMPANY MEETS CUT AND NEW BREWERY RUMOR IS AFLOAT AS SCHEME OF RETALIATION.

A war between the various ice-making propositions is one which may long and selling concerns in this city, turn out later on.

The war was started by William O. Barnhart, the drayman on Merchant part of the rumor which is flying street, who has been handling a small amount of the ice business for some time, buying his war goes that is already on and how supply at wholesale from the Honolulu price of the congealed water may go is hard to say at present. KAHUKU TYPHOID

ONE OF SEVERAL IMPORTANT MATERS DEALT WITH BY THE BOARD OF HEALTH.

The most important matter taken up at the meeting of the Board of Health yesterday was in reference to typhoid at the Kahuku plantation. This matter is an old one which has been brought up at intervals for several years, but in which there has been little improvement made. An extended report was made by Dr. Pratt yesterday accompanied by photographs showing the bad sanitary conditions which exist. President Robinson will make a second trip to the plantation personally and see if he can force the management to do more sanitary work before the board has to step in with arbitrary action. One of the labor camps, Dr. Pratt states, should be moved entirely from its present location to where better drainage and a pure water supply may be obtained.

Dr. Pratt also made recommendations in regard to sanitary improvements which are needed at Waiwala. Dr. Archer Irwin reported on the same subject in regard to typhoid at Kamakee, Honohina and Papaaloa, attributing the infection to filth from human excrement, with flies as the carriers of disease.

The report of Drs. Hoffmann and McDonald on the leper patient who was supposed to have been cured by the nasine treatment at the Kailih detention camp was submitted, stating that from both bacteriological and from physical examinations they found the patient to be still affected with the disease. The man wishes to be sent to the Settlement and that his wife may be allowed to go with him. This will be taken up by President Robinson and Superintendent McVeigh.

An application from a Japanese concern for a license to open a fishmarket at the Independence Hall building on King street was granted, providing that building and sanitary conditions are complied with. It was decided to ask Food Commissioner Duncan to visit the islands occasionally to take samples of the various food stuffs being imported through other ports of entry than Honolulu, for examination

FAME FOR FARMER

ONLY SURVIVOR OF BORDER IMMIGRATION INVESTIGATION—BRINGS HOME BRIDE.

On the waterfront, and elsewhere, too, they all say it is mighty good to see Edwin Farmer back again. He's a little heavier and the change of climate while away has put a little more gray on his temples, but he's a greater Farmer than when he went away, for he brought back a bride and he brought back a record that reflects great credit not only to himself but to the customs service here with which he was for a considerable time identified and with which he is now again identified.

Farmer returned from the mainland in the Lurline. About fifteen months ago he left Honolulu to accept a position with the immigration service, on the Mexican border. The Coast papers have been full, recently, of alleged Chinese smuggling scandals in connection with the border authorities and at the end of September and the beginning of October the investigations of a special government commission resulted in everybody in the service in that particular district, with the exception of Farmer and a stenographer, being summarily removed from office. Farmer and the stenographer, at the San Diego headquarters at the time, were in no way involved, Farmer returning to Honolulu, to fill a vacancy in the local customs, with an enviable record and the recommendations of his superiors and the endorsement of the investigators.

Farmer was at the gangway of the Hongkong Maru this morning, returning to local duty immediately upon his arrival here from San Francisco. He thinks there's no place like Honolulu.

A report was submitted by Dr. Pratt in response to the complaint from the citizens of the Pihiki district that mosquitoes were breeding in the catch basins. It was stated that the Road Supervisors would take the matter up at once and see that the basins were cleaned regularly.

DESPOILED BY ACHI

ANOTHER VICTIM OF THE MAYORALTY ASPIRANT BRINGS HIS WOE TO COURT.

The manner in which W. C. Achi the Home Rule candidate for Mayor, has treated the Hawaiian race may well be seen from the tale told this morning by Apaki Manuwai, a native living in Kewalo, who charges, and has the proofs at hand to show, that Achi did him out of $1350 on a real estate deal. The matter may be taken into the courts in the very near future, but there appears to be no manner in which the Home Rule candidate for Mayor can be reached under the criminal laws of the Territory.

Achi, as the head of the Hul Hawaii, bought the property in Kewalo known as the King street tract from George Wilcox in about 1900 and proceeded to divide it into lots, one of which Apaki Manuwai bought, paying $1350 for it. Achi gave him a deed for the land which he has, showing that it was purchased on January 31, 1902, and was free from all encumbrances. As a matter of fact the entire tract purchased from Wilcox was mortgaged to C. M. Cooke, and in order to obtain a partial release for the lot sold Manuwai, Achi should have paid Cooke $500. This was not done and a year later Cooke foreclosed the mortgage, the property was sold at auction and Manuwai lost not only his land, which Cooke got, but also his $1350 which Achi had and held on to.

The only remedy which Manuwai has is in an equity suit. In this way he could without doubt get a judgment against Achi for the full amount of $1350 and interest, but the judgment would be worthless, for Achi has no property which can be seized on an execution. There are judgments pending against him for well over $50,000, in the hands of a single firm of attorneys in this city, according to a statement made this morning, but there is no hope of satisfying any of them. There are dozens of other cases exactly like the one told of above and in almost every case Achi has selected Hawaiians as the one from whom he has got money for nothing returned.

LIBEL SUIT ONCE MORE

A fifth suit for $20,000 was filed this morning by County Attorney Cathcart against Walter G. Smith and the Hawaiian Gazette Company. Cathcart alleges that he was libeled by the action of the defendants in "contriving and maliciously intending to injure" him by the publication on Tuesday, Oct. 29, of certain articles charging him with pocketing a retaining fee of $50 from William R. Chilton. The article which is alleged to be libelous is given as is also a short editorial comment on it which appeared the same day. A. G. M. Robertson and F. W. Milverton appear as attorneys for Cathcart.

TO CELEBRATE NAVAL STATION OPENING IN 1912

The following is from Promotion Secretary Wood's report for the week: Chairman and Members of the Hawaii Promotion Committee:

Gentlemen:—By the "Alameda" we received a very large mail from the Coast, letters from tourists, home-seekers, investors, etc. To all of these, replies went forward yesterday. Altogether, we forwarded by the "Alameda," upwards of 3000 pieces of matter, including letters, pamphlets, papers and circulars.

A great man acknowledgments of the receipt of our map, "The Cross Roads of the Pacific" are to hand.

All speak in warmest terms of praise of the map and state that they will give it either wall or window space.

As one prominent railway man writes, "Honolulu certainly seems to dominate the Pacific."

While the work of the Hawaii Promotion Committee in advertising the advantages and attractions of Hawaii is meeting with gratifying success, yet there remains much to be done and upon reading the letters above referred to and the statements of Rear Admiral Hollyday, as appearing in recent California papers, that Pearl Harbor Naval Station would be completed early in 1912, it occurred to me that an effort should be made to fittingly celebrate this most important event and I would suggest, at this time, that the Hawaii Promotion Committee recommend to the citizens of the Territory, that through their different organizations, commercial and other, they urge upon Governor Frear the appointment of a thoroughly representative committee to give consideration to this matter.

If the suggestion is deemed feasible and desirable, an organization should be effected as soon as possible and the work of preparation commenced. A fund of at least Five Hundred Thousand Dollars should be provided, of which amount, the Federal government might well be asked to furnish one half.

No general exposition should be attempted, though a thorough exploitation should be made of our products in a special building; an auditorium would also be needed. The time should be, say, July 1st to 15th, 1912, July 4th being set as Naval Day. It should be possible to have the entire Pacific fleet in our waters at that time, together with a large number of foreign men of war. The President and Secretary of the Navy should be invited as well as all of the members of the Senate and House committees on Military affairs.

Our consular service could also be called upon and representatives from commercial bodies of every city and port interested in Pacific Ocean traffic would be present.

During the time of the celebration, special inter island excursions could be run so as to give our visitors an opportunity to see every part of the Territory. A hundred other ideas will occur to you as to ways and means of making such a celebration attractive and effective. I am thoroughly convinced that such an undertaking can be carried out successfully and hope that the committee may give the matter careful consideration.

By the last mail, we received from Frank C. Clark, folders descriptive of his "Around the World Cruises," together with cabin plans of the "Arabic," which are now on file in our office.

Mr. Clark writes that on the westward cruise, the "Arabic" is scheduled to leave San Francisco, February 5th, 1910, arriving at Honolulu, February 13th and remaining at least two days in port. We hope to be able to get this time extended. At our request, Mr. Clark has kindly consented to send us the names of passengers as they book in order that we may send them folders descriptive of Hawaii. We have made the same arrangement with Thos. Cook & Son, Raymond & Whitcomb, Colver's and other general tourist agencies.

Mr. H. G. Richey, Superintendent of Construction of U. S. Public Building, writes us from Spokane, asking for folders descriptive of Hawaii. Mr. Richey is now superintending the construction of the Federal Building at Spokane which he hopes to have completed next May when he may come to Hawaii to start work on our Federal building.

Rev. A. O. Hushaw writes from Woodbine, Iowa, under date of October 6th, stating that, during the last month, he had given his illustrated lecture on Hawaii in Minneapolis, St. Paul, Duluth, Redwood Falls, Mankato, Winona, Watertown, South Dakota and in Logan and Woodbine, Iowa, the lecturer being well received everywhere.

Mr. C. B. Vandell, Secretary of the Seattle Chamber of Commerce, writes: "I am giving serious consideration to the suggestion contained in your recent letter that we again attempt an excursion to the Islands this winter. I will advise definitely on the subject a little later."

Mr. P. L. Sinclair, Secretary of the

WEIRD LETTER TO GOVERNOR

PENNSYLVANIA WOMAN WRITES INCOHERENT LETTER OF APPEAL TO EXECUTIVE.

The mail from the Coast which comes to Governor Frear is often full of strange missives. One of these which came by the Lurline yesterday is evidently from a demented woman who appeals to the "Governor of the Sandwich Islands" as follows:

October 15, 1908. Our authorities are carrying on unlawful business and disturbing me with it. They have robbed and ruined me, my property, health and life. Indeed it is the boldest robbery and murder I ever knew. I ask help to get them settled. They have busied themselves to hunt up my life. For eighteen years they have kept up their carousal in my home. They bummed around twenty-eight months before I knew it. I have been trying ever

Tacoma Chamber of Commerce writes: "Relative to proposition of organizing an excursion to the islands, I will lay the matter before the Board of Trustees at their first meeting early next week. It is possible that during the winter season we will be able to arrange for a trip. This proposition came up, at your request, last year but on account of the general financial conditions prevailing throughout the country at that time, it was abandoned. We are all more hopeful for the future and I know that a large number of our people here are interested in the trip and we will make an effort to organize a party. I will take the matter up with the Chamber's of Commerce of Seattle, Portland and the other cities of the Northwest and will advise the result."

Mr. L. G. Monroe, Secretary of the Spokane Chamber of Commerce writes: "I believe that an excursion to Honolulu from Spokane can be pulled off during the coming winter providing a sufficiently low rate can be secured. I took 226 people to Southern California last February and at that time took occasion to suggest a trip to Honolulu. The plan met with a great deal of favor and I am confident that, if satisfactory rates can be arranged, a successful excursion can be run, at least, I am willing to undertake it."

We have been trying to pull off an excursion from the Sound country for two years now and even if our present efforts fail, shall keep on trying. We are securing good advertising, making friends and will eventually win. Respectfully submitted, H. P. WOOD, Secretary.

since to get it settled, I am now appealing to other nations for help. I want you to come and see it for yourselves for the lying that is done is dreadful. They carry on under masks, thinking that I won't know them and by way of illustration thinking I won't understand them. I am cruelly treated. I ask for the help of other nations. Come and see me.

Miss ——— Lancaster County, Pa. P. S.—They treat me worse than a brute. It is a hidden work of dishonesty. I am trying to expose it. I ask protection from you. Come and see me.

FRIDAY.....OCTOBER 30, 1908.

THE MUNICIPAL TICKET.

For the people of Oahu there is not a more important issue in this election than that of the character of the municipal government to hold sway for the first term under the charter that creates the City and County of Honolulu. This embraces the entire island, now the County of Oahu, and instead of district representation as now in the county board there will be omnibus representation in the municipal council. Instead of a chairman of the board for moderator there will be a salaried mayor, who must devote his whole time to municipal affairs and not engage in private business. It is therefore eminently desirable that the legislative body of the municipality should be not only competent but fairly and fully representative of the constituency. The Republican platform contains a pledge of honest, economical and efficient government for the municipality.

It is submitted to the judgment of the electorate that, taken as whole, the rival tickets in the field show the Republican one supreme with regard both to competency and representative capacity. It contains both young and old Hawaiians in years, besides which four out of the five native candidates, including the one for Mayor, have creditable records as public servants. Mr. Lane, aspirant for the mayoralty, has done good and honest service in the Senate, and Mr. Aylett, of the supervisory contingent, the same in the House of Representatives. Mr. Cox has served the county faithfully and well in the Board of Supervisors ever since county government was inaugurated. Mr. Kane has been a deputy sheriff of Ewa and Waianae, and those who know him best speak of him in highest terms as an officer and a man. He and Mr. Ahia, a Kamehameha School graduate, whose sensible addresses have been a feature of the campaign, would most fitly represent the younger element of their race at the municipal council board.

As to the three white candidates for the board, Messrs. Logan, Quinn and Watkins in alphabetical order, they are all permanent residents of many years' standing whose entire possessive stakes are in this Territory. Mr. Watkins is manager of a large fertilizer manufacturing industry here which sells its product to the sugar plantations throughout the islands. Having married the daughter of one of Honolulu's best citizens he has settled here for life. He occupies a recognized position among the leading business men of the city. Mr. Quinn is his own master in a prosperous automobile and carriage transit business, the owner of considerable real estate and, partly on account of his business, is an enthusiastic promoter of good roads—the principal thing with which the municipal council has as yet to deal. Mr. Logan has been strictly practical from his youth, having thoroughly learned the printing trade in all its branches, and then rapidly passed through a foremanship to become an editor and proprietor more than thirty-three years ago, since when, elsewhere and here, he has made a specialty of advocating local improvements and good roads. Many times he has held and sometimes refused positions that called for the handling of men or the disbursement of money and has never failed to win the confidence of his employers. Here in Honolulu a majority of his now mature family were born, and living in his own house his interests are identical with those of the taxpayers at large.

Another thing that makes the election of a Republican municipal government highly important is consideration of the desirability of extending the scope of Honolulu's self-government. There are many public services which elsewhere are held as strictly municipal in character which are not included in the charter about to be put into effect. It depends altogether, with a Republican governor and legislature in power, upon the record made the first term whether new responsibilities may safely be entrusted to the municipal body. As one of the prime elements of success is harmony of action, it will never do to thrust an element of factional opposition into the council. The safe course lies in voting the Republican ticket.

WHY SHOULD VOTERS HAVE CHANGED.

Laying aside rumors based upon alleged reports of "runners," what solid reason is there to expect anything but a Republican victory here next Tuesday? The rumors of each party usually come to headquarters with the kind of reports headquarters wants. But viewing the matter from a reasonable standpoint, what argument has been brought forward in this campaign that should change intelligent citizens from the convictions that they have expressed at the polls before? There is plenty of Democratic noise, much excellent organization and enthusiasm, but where are the reasons why a man who voted for Kuhio and the Republican ticket last time should change to McCandless and the Democratic this time? What has happened, or been said, to give reason for such a change?

The Democrats have made the land question their main issue. It is a topic in which Hawaiians are specially interested. The Democrats have charged, and the Republicans long ago admitted, grave imperfections in the local land laws. But long before the Democrats made the charge the Republicans had provided for a special commission to study the subject and bring forward a plan of revision, and even while the Democrats were making their wordy agitation, a Republican administration brought here America's greatest expert in the science of reclamation, studying at national expense, the means of solving our land problems. These two facts are sufficient answer in the land issue but there is another even more effective. The Democratic plan, contrary to the traditions of historic Democracy, proposes to have the Washington government take hold and amend our land laws and even administer them. The Republican plan is to ask Congress to give the legislature of Hawaii—the people of Hawaii,—power to make their own land laws. As between these two programmes, Hawaiians especially should be quick to choose the Republican.

For the rest of the campaign, there are comparisons of men and the Republicans do not suffer. Hence, it may again be asked, what has happened, what argument has been used, to change the votes of reasonable men who voted Republican last time? There is nothing, and on the other hand there is much to strengthen former convictions. In the face of national tariff revision which vitally affects Hawaii, she should be on the side which will protect her in the nation. In local affairs, the Republican party has plenty of grounds to claim support. It was a Republican administration that gave free suffrage to the people of these islands, a Republican legislature extended that power of suffrage to local affairs, first in a county government and now in city and county government, and it is the Republican party which naturally stands, as shown by its history since its foundation, in favor of preserving the right of suffrage and against government by commission. A stronger evidence of this constant Republican tendency could not be found than is shown in the recent history of the Philippines. Here, the Republican administration, though forced by warfare to govern with a firm hand for a time, did not wait even until peace had been completely restored before it began plans to carry out the traditional Republican policy, and give the Filipinos a vote and a legislature of their own. The party that did this is the party that will protect Hawaiian suffrage. On the other hand, the Democratic party ever since the Civil War, has been opposed to giving free suffrage rights to peoples other than whites.

One of the best things that can be said about the political campaign is that it will soon be over.

"The foxes of the ground have holes," as may be observed by those who watch the inimitable Achi burrowing away in the Fifth.

The crimes and follies that are committed in the name of reform might be a match for those committed in the name of patriotism.

Hawaii citizens who are abroad next year will not be heard to boast about having had a campaign of education in the islands this year.

It is understood in some quarters that John W. Cathcart is really the man who assaulted Bode. He is also suspected of having forged the Pigott letters and a charge is soon to be brought against him of having induced Bulgarian grafters to put up a scheme to loot the Sultan.

By way of getting the votes of citizens who do not think him competent to be county attorney, Long has promised to appoint Olson a deputy. It is significant that Olson is away and cannot be heard to refuse the job. As a matter of fact he retired last time because he didn't feel disposed to give his time to the work, and his friends say he would not accept the job again.

Iaukea is making a lot of nonsensical boasts about closing Iwilei. He has never closed it. Iwilei closed is easier to describe than Iwilei open and The Star declines to use its columns for either, especially for Iwilei open, wherefore the scenes of the fleet visit must be left with those whose duty it is to be informed. Suffice it to say that the situation presented was about the worst, from every point of view, yet presented.

The Advertiser began the campaign with some stuff about eliminating buncombe. This morning it says Cathcart's defeat is "admitted by the majority of the Republican party leaders." The statement comes near being worse than buncombe. The party leaders do not admit anything of the kind. They predict his election and some of them even go so far as to predict that he is likely to be one of two or three who will lead the ticket. The Advertiser has a right to make its own predictions, but in putting them in the mouths of "a majority of the Republican leaders" it is guilty of misrepresentation.

HAD PITY FOR KALUA

LARNACH TELLS TALE OF TRIAL OF MAUI COUNTY ATTORNEY ON PERJURY CHARGE.

According to the reports received from Maui this morning by the Claudine, County Attorney Kalua escaped conviction on a charge of perjury more through pity than anything else. It is stated that for nearly two hours the jury stood eight for conviction and four for acquittal, but that then they suddenly switched and shortly after brought in a verdict of not guilty. Attorney General Larnach, who returned from conducting the Kalua case this morning, states that he took entire charge of the matter, feeling that he was representing the Territory and that to have the outside assistance of Lightfoot would make the trial a factionary affair, which would not be for the best interests of the Territory. One of the interesting little matters which came up during the trial was that after the jury had been selected Larnach found one man on it who had come over from Lahaina and was staying at Kalua's house. He had the jury examination reopened at once and the juror dismissed for cause. Attorneys Case and Quarles defended Kalua and put up a hard fight all the way through and the County Attorney, who is an old man, and very well known through Maui, had the general sympathy of the people. Mr. Larnach states that even those who were against him in the matter felt that it would be too hard to send him to jail.

PRESCRIBES A SUBSIDY PILL

Under the top head as above "Shipping" Illustrated of October 17, which was quoted in this paper some months ago in a strong article on behalf of suspension of the coastwise law for Hawaii, contains the following free trade and anti-subsidy jibe at Jas. F. Morgan, president of the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce:

"Some physicians are better handicapped at diagnosing a patient's disease than they are in finding the remedy, though most medicos agree that nature if given half a chance will do all that is required to restore the patient to health. President Morgan, of the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce, who is now in this country, after examining the patient's tongue and feeling his pulse, says very sadly:

"The present steamship service between Hawaii and the States is very inadequate and at times we have almost no service. We are prevented by heavy penalties from making use of the vessels flying a foreign flag, and the islands are in sore need of more steamship lines. Opportunities on the Atlantic Ocean are practically closed. Most of the great European powers have monopolized the ocean travel on the Atlantic to the exclusion of the United States, and it is almost useless for this country to attempt to duplicate foreign investments. Such a condition does not exist on the Pacific. That ocean is practically open to competition, and we shall advocate a subsidy for American vessels on the Pacific irrespective of the needs of the Atlantic, as we believe that in no other way can the American merchant marine be restored.

"Drugging the patient with subsidy pills is to make him a 'charity patient' in the first place, and in the second place will only artificially and temporarily 'restore' him. The victim's maritime system is almost in extremis because of our tariff and navigation law restrictions. Loosen, if not entirely remove them, and the patient will soon do better. In the meantime a 'free ship' tonic gently administered will work wonders. John Bull had a grave attack of the same trouble until 60 years ago, when he took several bottles of the 'freedom' cure here suggested, and now he is about the huskiest chap afloat. It made a well man of him, Doctor Morgan, and he 'wouldn't keep house without it.' He has never taken the American brand of subsidy pills, assertions to the contrary notwithstanding. Get a few bottles of his celebrated remedy, which is in general use abroad, and give it a fair trial. Call Doctor Robert Dollar, of San Francisco, in consultation in the case and let others less wise use the subsidy pills—a nostrum which breeds a habit worse than that caused by morphine, cocaine or opium."

CHEAP ICE

(Continued from Page One.) Inlu Brewery. About a week ago he cut the price of ice in halves. Instead of keeping up to the rate of fifty cents per hundred pounds, which has been the regular price here for a long time, he dropped to selling a twenty pound cake for five cents, which naturally brought him many customers. His trade lies principally through Chinatown. Here he has had things all his own way and has decided to branch out. It is stated that on November 1, he will start wagons through the residence district and will meet the Hawaiian Electric Company, which handles the bulk of the ice business for private consumers, on its own field.

The Oahu Ice Company, which is one of the August Dreier concerns, will meet Barnhart's prices it is stated, and will fight him down to the ground. He has already cut into their trade severely and they may go ahead to force him out of business.

With the Hawaiian Electric, however, it is understood that the fight will be pressed in another direction. The officials of the company are said to feel very angry at the Brewery for coming into their field through Barnhart and are planning for retaliation. The proposition is understood to be the erection of a brewery at which "steam beer," so popular in California, will be brewed. With a complete ice plant already working and refrigerating apparatus sufficient for all its needs, the cost of such a plant would be comparatively small to the Hawaiian Electric company. A proposition to purchase large electric dryers for the hauling of ice is another matter which the electric company is said to be considering.

One thing is certain, at any rate, that for a while at least the ice consumers will reap the benefit of the fight between the ice companies of the city.

SAW HUGE SPECTACLE

PEOPLE OF S. S. HONGKONG MARU WITNESSED NAVAL SHOW OF PEACE.

"We can make port by midnight." Such was the wireless about ten o'clock last night from the Toyo Kisen Kaisha S. S. Hongkong Maru, from the Orient.

And the wireless message that was returned to the radiotelegrapher of the Hongkong was to the effect that, inasmuch as the vessel could not enter the harbor at midnight, she had better hang around (ill daylight).

So the Oriental liner slowed down and was off port with sunrise. Then, when she came to up-anchor her wheel broke and she had to buoy an anchor outside to pick up on her return from San Francisco.

The Hongkong Maru docked at the Hackfeld wharf at 10:15 o'clock this morning, later than usual. She brought nine hundred tons of general Far East freight for Honolulu and will not sail for San Francisco before 10 o'clock this evening. There were no passengers for Honolulu.

Among the few passengers in the cabin for San Francisco, eleven in all, is W. W. Melvor, formerly American Consul General at Tokyo, en route to Washington and accompanied by his two daughters. He was met here by James Wilder who is entertaining the Melvors during their very brief stay in this city.

The Hongkong Maru witnessed the magnificent naval display at Yokohama when the combined American and Japanese fleets gave an exhibition such as is seldom seen anywhere. The Japanese entertainment of the American men-of-war-men, say the officers of the Hongkong, was lavish and enthusiastic and the Japanese "spread themselves" to the limit to be hospitable, their reception being most highly appreciated by the Americans.

WARRANTS WERE BOTH IGNORED

CIRCUIT COURT FINDS THAT POLITICS HAS PREFERENCE WITH POLITICS JUST NOW.

There was some trouble in Judge Robinson's court this morning when the cases of Ah Loy and Ahana, both of whom were indicted by the Territorial Grand Jury, were called. The warrants for the arrest of the two, who are charged with assault with a deadly weapon, were sent down to the police station on Wednesday afternoon. They were returnable before Judge Robinson this morning, but neither police nor prisoners were to be found.

Inquiries were naturally made, and the only solution seems to be that the police department has been too busy doing politics, for the warrants have been lying unheeded in the office at the police station for two days. This morning they were turned over to an officer for service and if the men wanted have not left the country and the officer is not compelled to make too many political speeches in the meantime the men should be in court by tomorrow morning.

WYNNE'S CASE IS ON AGAIN

MURDER TRIAL IN FEDERAL COURT RESUMED AFTER TWO DAY'S DELAY.

The trial of John Wynne, charged with the murder of Archibald McKinnon, the third assistant engineer of the Rosecrans was taken up against in the Federal Court this morning after a two days delay while W. T. Rawlins, assistant U. S. District Attorney has been recovering from an attack of pneumonia poisoning. The testimony produced was not of any very great importance, though it tended toward strengthening the case being made against Wynne by the government.

Officer Espinda was the first witness placed on the stand to give testimony in regard to the behavior of Wynne after his arrest. He did not arrive on the scene (ill some time after the murder had been committed, so his testimony was mainly in regard to the statements made by the alleged murderer directly after the crime had been committed.

BERETANIA COURTS SEE FINE TENNIS

There was more excitement in the match started yesterday for the finals in tennis doubles than has been seen on the local courts for some time. Sonny Cunha and Billy Warren were pitted against Al Castle and Dick Cooke, and after two long deuce sets, in one of which each team came out ahead, Umpire Beckus was forced to call time on account of approaching darkness. The match should have gone to Warren and Cunha, when fast tennis is considered, and they lost through their own wildness at critical moments. Castle and Cooke, on the other hand, while failing to show the same brilliancy which their opponents did, played a much steadier game, and did comparatively little driving out of court.

Both Castle and Warren showed up finely on their service, the latter picking up towards the end of the first set and driving out of court. Both Castle and Warren showed up finely on their service, the latter picking up towards the end of the first set and driving in straight hard balls which were impossible to return with any great amount of accuracy.

Cunha did his work at the net and made some of his old style drives which were too much for any one to stop. He was a little weak on lobbing, but in this Warren was strong. The latter also did some fine work in smashing lobs from the middle of the court, though when he needed the points most he fell down a couple of times.

Poor work was done on the outside by the linesmen, Foster Davis and J. W. W. Brewster. On both sides foot faults were continuous. Warren and Cooke being the worst offenders in this regard.

Cooke failed to play as strong a game as he does on the Pacific courts, the chop stroke, which he uses continually, bouncing high enough to give his opponents a good chance at it. There were some beautiful rallies in which Cooke and Warren distinguished themselves in particular but each ended in the same manner. Cunha would stand still at the net while Warren handled everything in the back court, till finally a lob fell short. There Sonny would land on it in a manner which settled the point at once.

In the first set it looked as though Warren and Cunha would run away with the match. They had their opponents 4-2, when they began to drive wild and lost the next two games. Then the score seesawed, with each winning his serve, till it stood 6-6. Castle served and Warren began to play real tennis. His work for the next two games was clean and hard. Fine placing with plenty of speed won out on the first game and his own pretty service assisted materially in the next, ending the set 8-6.

In the second set Castle and Cooke ran the score up to 5-2 and it looked all to the bad for their opponents. Castle doing great work in his service. At this point Warren and Cunha took a brace, the former winning his service easily and then taking that of Castle. They brought things out finely and had their opponents 7-6 when Cunha, who seemed tired, made a poor effort at service. Cooke got in good work then, making several returns which seemed impossible. Castle won his service by hard driving balls which were not handled at all. Then Warren served. For the first time in the match he fell down, losing a love game with a double fault on the deciding point. The score stood at 9-7 in favor of Castle and Cooke.

Two more games were played in the next set, each side taking one, when it was decided that the match could not be completed and it was called off. Play will be recommenced this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Beretania courts. One of the pleasant features of the play yesterday was the large attendance of spectators, many ladies being among those who came to see the match.

FIFTH CAVALRY BRINGS SPORTS

The announcement that two squadrons of the Fifth Cavalry will come to this city has created the most intense interest among the local sporting fraternity. Polo is the game which will come back into its own and with the arrival of the Fifth one may expect to find the Moanalua grounds a scene of activity from one year's end to the next. The cavalry officers all play the game and many of them are experts, while this city can boast of players who will give them as hard a game as they desire.

Local interest in polo is something hard to gauge, for whenever the inter-island matches are pulled off the local society people are ready to attend in great numbers and see the fast clean work which is done by both players and ponies. With the bad defeat which Honolulu received on Maui early in the summer, interest in the game here dropped, for it was plainly shown that a lack of practice was too much for Oahu, when playing against old timers like the Baldwins and the other men on the Maui team.

When the cavalry squadrons come here there will be a change, for the addition of a dozen or more good polo players to the local contingent will mean that the local players will get out to practice oftener and will get into first class shape. With the perfect polo field at Moanalua, which cannot be equalled for beauty anywhere in the United States, there should be a great spurt given the local game.

RICH TURFMAN WILL NOT DESERT

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—The recent announcements that Harry Payne Whitney and Herbert B. Duryea would send many of their racehorses to England to compete for the rich stakes abroad caused the widespread report among racegoers that they had deserted the turf in this country. But this impression is not correct. The young turfman will have thoroughbreds at the local tracks next year. The change of base for some of the Whitney and Duryea racehorses is purely an experimental one.

SPORTING SPOUTS

Everything is going ahead to make the cruise to Waianae one of the greatest yachting events in the history of the Hawaii Yacht Club. In a day or so invitations will be issued to the members and friends; every yacht is being prepared and it is thought that two or more launch parties will accompany the yachtsmen. Arrangements will be made to have a luau on shore at Waianae. This cruise is intended to sail in fleet form and keep as close together as possible all the way down. The yachtsmen are hoping to get favorable weather to carry out this their last club cruise for the season.

WELCH WINS WITHOUT TROUBLE

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 16.—That English lad, Freddie Welsh, is sure getting that knock-them-cold habit. It took him no time to get this Tremdall boy from St. Louis just where he wanted his point and then slammed it with his right and the Easterner dropped off to sleep with a thud. After Welsh looked his man over in the opening selection and took an inventory of what he had, the English champion started to rough it and threw away his cleverness and swapped them with his man until he had him bleeding like a butchered sheep. Freddie put Tremdall down for the count in the third after a very messy slugging bee. When Tremdall went to his corner in the fifth, covered with gore, the end was in sight and it did not take long for it to arrive in the next, when the Britisher started the rocky going. A left swing to the victual case and a snappy right cross did the trick and the gang climbed on the cars.

BRAZIL FAILS IN COFFEE CORNER

NEW YORK, October 16.—After having sustained a loss of $15,000,000, Brazil has abandoned its attempt to corner the world's coffee market. For two years the Government of Sao Paulo, the chief state of Brazil, has been purchasing coffee from its planters to keep up the price, and now, having on its hands 8,000,000 bags of coffee, the valorization scheme, as the attempted corner is called, is to be renounced. According to advices received today in New York, a loan of $75,000,000, which is necessary to take care of the present huge accumulation will soon be offered for public subscription.

This corner is regarded as one of the most interesting but foolhardy financial experiments ever attempted. Six years ago an enormous Brazilian coffee crop sent prices down below the cost of production and Sao Paulo imposed a prohibitive tax to prevent the planting of new trees, but bumper crops followed one another, and in 1905 the harvest returned 20,000,000 bags, a surplus over the entire world's requirements of 3,000,000 bags.

BIG RALLY LAST NIGHT

GOOD REPUBLICAN SPEECHES ARE HEARD BY IMMENSE CROWD AT EMMA SQUARE.

One of the largest rallies of the campaign was that held by the Republicans at Emma Square last night. All nationalities were represented in the crowd of 2000 or 3000 and there were hundreds of voters present. As Wm. H. Hoogs, presiding, was opening the meeting at 7:30 the Portuguese band marched up to the square playing. It played once or twice between speeches. Kaa's orchestra furnished the platform music. The band stand, as many times before, was the rostrum. It looked election strongly last night from having the voting stalls for next Tuesday in place at the back.

John W. Cathcart was the first speaker. He denounced the Advertiser and assailed its editor by name, finally making a distinct issue between the morning paper and himself. In conclusion he advocated the Republican ticket in all its parts, both for its superiority by comparison with the two opposition tickets and because the Republican party was the party of the people and the party with which the interests of Hawaii were identified.

John C. Lane, in soliciting votes for himself, promised that if elected Mayor he would consult leading financiers and bankers on municipal loans and financing of the municipality.

H. M. von Holt advocated his claims to custody of the municipal safe combination in English and Hawaiian, with a dash of Portuguese at the finish. He kept the assemblage in good humor throughout and made a decided hit.

Delegate Kalaniana'ole gave a fine address in English, with remarks added in his native tongue. He told of his mode of operation in Washington, which was not in making hot air speeches to spread in the Congressional Record but in the enlisting the leadership of legislation as his friends and the friends of Hawaii. With regard to the assertion that he made a trump card on the Democratic stump, that to Senate Perkins of California and not himself was due the credit for the large Hawaiian appropriations, he pointed out that financial legislation originates in the House. At the same time he uttered grateful appreciation of the assistance of Senator Perkins, among the other friends he had made, in the Senate. Taking up the Punchbowl homesteads matter he related what he had done to ensure that the Portuguese tenants should have preferential terms when the lands came to be sold. In conclusion he advocated the election of the entire Republican legislative ticket, telling the voters to knife the Delegate if they would but elect a Republican legislature.

A. G. M. Robertson, Republican National Committeeman, spoke at considerable length to show that Taft was a sure winner in the Presidential race. He strongly presented the wisdom of electing a Republican legislature and municipal government so as to have Territorial and municipal affairs conducted in harmony with the Federal and Territorial administrations.

A. L. C. Atkinson, chairman of the Republican Territorial Committee, dealt at length with McCandless as a land grabber—a man who liked the natives so well that he worshipped the land they lived on, and one whom the Supreme Court declared tried to deprive a poor woman of her home by sharp and unscrupulous methods.

Joel C. Cohen delivered a set speech on promotion work.

John Kamanouli and A. D. Castro delivered short addresses which were well received.

Others scheduled to speak were frozen out by the prolixity of some of the addresses, Chairman Hoogs dismissing the meeting about 11 o'clock.

YOU WANT The News First.

You Want Your Ads Read

Here Is Some Advice

Honolulu more than any other city in the World, is a place where the Evening Paper gets the news first. The clock here is over two hours behind the clock at San Francisco, four hours behind Chicago, five hours behind New York and ten to eleven hours behind the clocks in the European capitals.

This means that when The Star is going to press THE DAY IS CLOSED in Washington, Chicago, New York and Europe and almost over in San Francisco. The news of the day is here for The Star.

Under modern conditions it takes practically no time to prepare and transmit news and THE STAR gets every evening the cable dispatches giving

The News Of All the World

For the Day Just Ended--

Here are some of the features that go to make the evening paper the predominating factor in an advertising campaign:

It is delivered at the home each night when the whole family has plenty of time to read it.

It is carried home by the business man when his day's work is done and it stays there. A morning paper is usually carried down town by the head of the family and hurriedly read.

The evening paper is not read hurriedly, but thoroughly, so that all the advertisements receive their share of attention.

It presents the store news a little ahead, giving the prospective purchaser time to plan a shopping tour for the next morning.

The evening paper presents the news the day it happens. The morning paper the day after.

The evening paper presents the news first. The morning paper merely elaborates it.

The evening paper prints daylight news. The morning paper takes what is left.

NOT FOR OLSON

LONG IF ELECTED WILL NOT BE ABLE TO HIRE HIM FOR HIS DEPUTY.

Should Carlos Long become county attorney, a supposition which is scoffed at by almost everyone who is familiar with the manner in which political affairs are drifting, he will be forced to look farther than C. H. Olson for a deputy county attorney who will be able to handle the work for which Long will draw the salary. From a statement made by Judge Stanley, of the firm of Holmes & Stanley, in which Olson is a junior partner, it is apparent that there is very little chance that Olson would accept any offer made by Long in the remote contingency of the latter's election. Olson is in Washington at present, looking after cases before the United States Supreme Court, and while Judge Stanley stated that he could not speak directly for him he made the following statement:

"Mr. Olson could not accept the position of deputy county attorney under the plan which has been mapped out for him and for Mr. Long by the Advertiser without leaving this firm and I am quite sure that he would not care to do this. When he was with Mr. Cathcart he was only taking up the work of writing opinions, not of handling the regular county attorney's work, and he would hardly be able to do even this under the present circumstances, as Mr. Holmes expects to go away next year for a considerable period, which will keep Mr. Olson very busy here.

"I doubt very much if Mr. Olson would care to leave this firm to take up the county attorney's work, for the are the most popular in the world and no home should be without one. These sweepers make sweeping so easy that this task becomes a pleasant recreation instead of a positive drudgery—with no stooping—no dust—no noise—and no backaches or blistered hands.

Ask to see them. Prices from $3 to $6.
