An agent for a New York grocery house has a route to Pennsylvania, and last spring he was put out to discover that the agent for a Boston house had taken one of his best customers.

"Did he offer you better figures?" he asked in explanation.

"No."

"Better terms?"

"No."

"Goods any better?"

"No."

"Then why did you leave our house?"

"Well, to tell the truth," replied the merchant, "we both belong to the Odd Fellows and have a fraternal feeling, you know."

The agent had no more to say, but there was business in his eye as he withdrew. Next time he came over the route he called upon the merchant and said:

"Well, I am also an Odd Fellow now, and hope to secure your orders again."

"Have you joined?"

"Yes."

"How sorry I am!" sighed the merchant, with a look of distress on his face. "Only last week the Boston man and myself were bounced from the order for being drunk at a funeral, and now, of course, we don't feel like having anything to do with any member in good standing! Under the circumstances I couldn't possibly patronize you.—Wall Street News."

A wise woman will not light the fire with kerosene, but will invite the servant girl to whom she owes three months' wages to do the same.

If a man smites thee on the right cheek, turn also to him thy left cheek; and peradventure thou canst with great ease plant a kick that will cause him to become discouraged and repent of his folly.

The young man who drinketh too copiously of firewater and trieth to "run a town," will surely come to grief, when in the fullness of time he hath everlastingly hammered the stubborn limestone.

Experience is a high-grade school—course thorough, tuition free—but incidental expenses enormous.

The foolish man sayeth to himself: "I will blow in the muzzle of this empty gun," and the wise coroner will say in his report: "Accidentally blowed to hereafter."—Det. Free Press.

THE EVILS OF PAINTING
And their Remedy.
"It has been said with much truth, too, that house painting might, with study and acquirement of taste, resume its rank as a liberal art."—Painters' Manual.
Believing the above to be true, A. B. KERR has now re-organized his system of working the business in Honolulu. In the first place he has secured the services of that celebrated artist, Mr. Max Koux, formerly of San Francisco, whose work in the line of plain and decorative paper-hanging, frescoing, &c., is up to the present time unsurpassed, and on these Islands has never been equalled. For house painting jobs first-class mechanics only will be employed. In future patrons can depend upon my filling every order on the most scientific basis known to the trade.
The Sign Painting and Lettering department will be permanently presided over by Mr. GEO. STRATMEYER, (further comment unnecessary.)

THIS DAY'S DOINGS.

Excelsior Lodge, I.O.O.F., 7:30. Bible Class at Lyceum at 7:30. Musical Society, Practice, 7:30.

THE FEAR OF SMALL-POX.

We feel that the whole population of these islands dread the re-introduction of small-pox into Honolulu and for this reason would be led to take strong steps to prevent the landing of any passengers from the Madras. But, while we not only sympathize in, but share, this feeling we think that in our dread of the consequences to ourselves and friends that we may possibly be doing a wrong to those unfortunates now on board the vessel.

And this feeling, which now arises in many breasts, urges us to ask that a friendly suit be instituted between the vessel's agents or representatives and the Board of Health, before the Supreme Court, that this matter may be decided, and that we may know, for certain, whether we are pursuing a right course or not.

A SLANDER.

The Daily Advertiser, of Saturday, says, in a leading article commenting on a letter from Mr. T. H. Davies, contradicting some of their statements about the Madras,

"He appeals to the Government to undertake the risk of allowing to enter upon our shores a fearful contagious malady the recent cause of so much woe; and bases his plea upon the claims of humanity. We trust he makes the plea unconscious of the influence upon his mind of the interest that might accrue to him as an agent in consequence of lengthened detention of the vessel and people in quarantine."

Nothing in the letter or in any other way, that we can find, warrants the latter insinuation. And all those who know Mr. Davies will at once recognize the hand that has framed this falsehood by insinuation.

SHIPPING NOTES.

The Likelike brought 2126 bags of sugar, 116 bbls. molasses and 149 bales of wool.

The Jas. Makee brought 2,503 bags sugar.

The Wailele brought 1,800 bags sugar.

The Waimanalo brought 800 bags sugar, and 9 bbls molasses.

The Jennie brought 800 bags sugar and 200 bags paddy.

The O. S. S. Suez Capt. Dodd leaves to-day for San Francisco.

The Jas. Makee sailed yesterday morning for Waianae for Sugar, and will be due to-day.

The Manukawai brought 348 bgs paddy and 50 bgs rice.

The Kilauea Hou sails to-day for Kahului at 3 p.m.

The City of Sydney arrived yesterday, 6 1/2 days from San Francisco. She passed the Consuelo outside S. F. Heads, bound for Honolulu.

LOCAL & GENERAL ITEMS.

The Gleaners will give their annual entertainment, sale of gifts and Ice-cream festival on Thursday. Be ready.

Mr. W. O. Smith, stock-broker, of Merchant street, reports the sale of 10 shares of Kohala Plantation Stock at $485 each.

No Gospel Temperance Meeting will be held next Saturday evening in consequence of the dedication of the Y. M. C. A. building.

Those views of Mahukona Railroad are now on view at Williams & Co's, photographers, on Fort street. Some have been added to the former lot.

Yesterday morning His Majesty visited the Leipsic. The men-of-war in the harbor were decked out with flags from stem to stern, and fired Royal Salutes.

We again call public attention to the selfishness of those who leave their horses and carriages standing on the footpaths so that pedestrians have to walk out in the middle of the street to avoid them.

THE Y. M. C. A. will hold its annual meeting in the Bethel Vestry on Thursday evening at 7:30. On Saturday the new building will be dedicated. An excellent programme is being prepared.

No less than 479 Chinese were placed in the Immigration Depot after 9 o'clock Saturday morning, and by 9 p.m. of the same day, all were shipped except 14—Quick work for the Secretary.

Mr. J. E. Wiseman's office has been re-decorated and arranged in such a manner as to add greatly to its appearance. The same proprietor still smiles at you from his office chair, however.

YESTERDAY morning the Band from H. I. G. M's man-of-war Leipsic paid the graceful compliment of a serenade to Her Majesty the Queen Dowager, at her residence on Nuanuu street.

CAPTAIN Herbig of the Leipsic, and Mr. J. C. Glade, consul for Germany, will go by the strmr C. R. Bishop to Kauai this afternoon, to see the island and its plantations, returning at the end of the week.

On Sunday morning a large number of our German residents attended Divine Service on board the Leipsic. In the afternoon the Band on board gave quite a little concert for the entertainment of the numerous visitors.

By yesterday's mail we learn that the steamship Abergeldie left St. Michaels, Azores, March 2nd, with 264 men, 195 women, 119 children above 12 years of age, 329 from 1 to 12 years, and 36 infants. She is due the 1st May.

MEMBERS of the Athletic Association need to attend a little more regularly, as the benefit derived from gymnastic exercises is not great unless they are regularly performed. Saturday night was, however, better than usual.

To show that the BULLETIN is read largely, a gentleman told us yesterday morning that he had better take out a little advertisement he had inserted, as over twenty people had been to see about it, and yet it was of a nature that everybody would not require.

MERCHANTS and others have great cause to be thankful that we have two lines of steamers between here and Frisco. The last two steamers from Frisco have just arrived in time to allow answers to letters by them to be sent by the up-going steamers.

WILLIAMS & Co. are showing a series of views of Lunalilo Home, which give an excellent idea of this immense building. One of these views would form a most interesting and attractive present for friends abroad, for it is the best sample in the Kingdom of what can be done in the way of building here. Go and see them.

LYCAN & Johnson are now showing some very fine perambulators which are really models in that line. The wicker-work is light and stylish, and the upholstery would, if shown 10 or 15 years ago, have been deemed far too fine for such uses. It will now be in order to go there when you are necessitated to sing, "Bye, baby, bye, oh!"

LADIES are always anxious to know where they can get the latest styles, especially at the beginning of a new season. We would recommend them to go upstairs in No. 10 Fort street and see what will be shown them there in the newest styles of hats, millinery, etc., in white and cream color, ecru, lace, figured satin, pearl beads, passementerie, and all the "dreamy creations of the fanciful fingers of taste and art" that can be thought of. Elegant Dolmans are also to be found ready made or made to order in any style desired. While for children the latest idea in straw hats of red, green, and blue tints are to be found, worn to contrast strongly and beautifully with white or light clothing.

LAST night Her Majesty the Queen Dowager gave a very pleasant party at the residence of H. H. Keckikoi in honor of Dr. R. McKibbin, prior to his departure.

Latest Foreign News.

A threatening Nihilist proclamation says they are ready for the Coronation. It will probably be postponed.—The Queen's knee is no better. Complete rest is needed.—Gas explosion, Palace Hotel, April 4th, 29 injured.—An immense and widespread dynamite plot, for the destruction of public buildings, has been discovered in England. Fresh arrests and more dynamite discovered daily.

New York, April 7th.—The Times says: R. M. Daggett, Minister to Hawaii, makes short work of one of Belmont's charges concerning the illegal importation of sugar. He says: "The improbability of these reports was evident to any person familiar with the business of the Sandwich Islands. Every man and child in the Islands is interested directly or indirectly in the sugar producing industry. The commerce of the Islands is small. To suppose that cargoes could be landed in Honolulu and transhipped to American ports under false pretenses, would imply that a little army of officials must be bribed and that an alert and gossipy population must be asleep."
