RAW AND REFINED SUGAR.
NEW YORK, May 12.—Dun's Review says: "Nothing new has developed in the sugar markets, prices ruling quiet and steady, with little interest among purchasers. The withdrawals of refined continue moderate on old orders, but little new business is noted."

SQUATTERS IN KAKAOKO

SEVENTEEN FAMILIES OF HAWAIIANS WHO HAVE USURPED A PRIVATE FISHERY.

Acting Governor Atkinson and Superintendent of Public Works Holloway had a meeting this morning with the representatives of seventeen families of Hawaiians who have "squatted" on land in Kakaoko and who were served with notices of eviction at the instance of Mrs. Ward, owner of the property. It appears that the Hawaiians were living principally by fishing in the private fishing right adjoining the land. As a result, it was impossible to lease the fishery.

The Hawaiians are all poor people and arrangements are being made to find them homes elsewhere. "We hope to place them on lands in Kailhi where they will be all right," said the Acting Governor, "and thus all parties will be satisfied."

Aside from the fishery proposition complaints were made that the colony of squatters was a somewhat noisy one.

OUR OWN EMIL NEY IN 'FRISCO

By James C. Crawford in The Call.

Emile Ney, putative Deputy Sheriff and erstwhile custodian of Attorney George D. Collins, was among the many whom the recent calamity deprived of habitation, and when he sought lodging at the home of J. Raymond Smith and wife, 2148 Sutter street, he was taken in on condition that he pay a rental of $7.50 a month for exclusive occupancy of the kitchen, which a debilitated chimney and deprivation of gas had incapacitated for culinary service. Although the apartment was not equipped for use as a bed chamber Mr. Ney gratefully paid $5 in advance, improvised a couch and settled down to abide there until such time as the city's phoenix-like ascent would enable him to secure more comfortable quarters.

He enjoyed undisturbed possession of the kitchen until a few days ago, when Mr. Smith, with a volubility acquired and kept in smooth-running order by excessive experience as a seller of pianofortes informed him that he would oblige the household by vacating the premises, inasmuch as a return of gas and official permission to use the chimney had fired Mrs. Smith with irrepresible yearning to resume her cooking operations indoors instead of pursuing them on the street, where even a windbreak that was architecturally a model could not reconcile her to the annoyance of being stared at by passers-by as she transformed the canned corned beef of commerce into succulent hash or pilled on faggots to bring rebellious beans to boil.

Mr. Ney declared that he did not wonder at Mrs. Smith's desire, but at the same time he declined to humor it, because his month's occupancy of the kitchen had not expired, to say nothing of the fact that he had nowhere else to lay his head.

Mr. Smith said something in protest and Mr. Ney said something in reply and the outcome of the altercation was Mr. Ney's arrest on the charge of having battered Mr. Smith.

"He told me," said Mr. Smith to Police Judge Cabanis, "that he was descended from Marshall Field."

"I did nothing of the sort," Mr. Ney interrupted. "I told you I could trace my family back to Field Marshal Ney."

"Well, there was a 'marsh' and a 'field' in it anyway," Mr. Smith exclaimed, and his tone denoted both defiance and triumph.

At the court's suggestion Mr. Ney paid to Mr. Smith the $2.50 required to clear his monthly rental in full, and then his Honor advised him to move his lodging ere any further rental is incurred.

"I'm paid up to May 24," said Mr. Ney "and now I demand that the landlord fix up that kitchen so that I can be comfortable in it until I leave."

Emphatic refusal by both Mr. and Mrs. Smith to comply with the unexpected demand was approved by the judge. "As for the charge of battery," was his concluding remark, "it is continued till May 25, and my decision may be influenced to some extent by the defendant's conduct toward the complainant ad interim."

SPIRIT OF PEOPLE IS WONDERFUL

CLINTON J. HUTCHINS THINKS THAT THE SPIRIT SHOWN BY THE PEOPLE IS MARVELOUS.

"The most remarkable thing about the whole thing," said Clinton J. Hutchins who returned from San Francisco this morning, "is the spirit of the people of San Francisco. They are not wanting pity but rather they are pitying the people who are not able to be in San Francisco and have a share of the fun."

"Everywhere I went I found people with a jest or smile. All over in the midst of the most terrible of calamities there was to be found such a spirit of courage and good fellowship that one marveled at the fact. San Francisco will rebuild and it will not be long about it either."

"One firm of architects in San Francisco had over $25,000,000 worth of business in their office within two weeks after the disaster. During the few days I was out of the city in Los Angeles thousands of temporary structures were built and thousands of yards of debris cleared away. The spirit is nothing short of the marvelous. If one should ask a resident of San Francisco if he thought the city would be rebuilt he would look at you in the utmost astonishment."

"However that report about my saying anything detrimental to the islands got into the papers in San Francisco I do not know. I certainly did not know anything of the matter. No one was ever more astounded than I when I read the article in the Advertiser by my wife saying that the report was not true. I worked for the islands trying to induce people to come here to recover their health lost during the fire and in one case that I know of I succeeded. I think that Hawaii is as near to Heaven as one can get on this earth and you may rest assured that I will do nothing to hurt the country."

The Alameda brought back from San Francisco numerous returns from commercial orders sent from here to the wholesalers there, showing by the commissions in the invoices the utter demoralization of supply systems. A sample order was that of the Chambers Drug Company, which had placed an order of several hundred different items fully a third of the things asked for are reported unobtainable, and there will probably be a shortage in these lines for some weeks.

IMPORTANT RULING BY JUDGE DOLE IN A PENDING BIGAMY CASE.

In the bigamy case of Dai Fook Tai, United States Judge Dole has given a ruling which means, it is stated, that "contract marriages" are good in Hawaii. The ruling, aside from its general importance, will have an important effect on prosecutions in the federal court under various statutes and District Attorney Breckons asked that the court give a written opinion on the subject. Dole's ruling was in part based upon the Supreme court decision here in the case of Goffrey vs Rowland, and he sustained the district attorney's contention that common law marriages here are valid.

The question was raised by J. O. Lightfoot in defense of Dai Fook Tai. The first marriage alleged to have been contracted by her here was according to Chinese customs and ceremonies. The second marriage was under the provisions of the statutes of Hawaii. Lightfoot objected to testimony to prove the first ceremony on the ground that it was not a valid ceremony and as the whole charge of bigamy practically depended upon whether both marriages were valid—aside from the bigamous nature of the second one—the jury was excused while the question was argued.

The court's ruling was in favor of the validity of the first marriage. Though it was not performed in accordance with the laws of the Territory and was without either a license, minister or other requisites of the laws here, it was a complete marriage within the common law, and the judge held that proof of it was allowable.

Breckons proceeded to introduce Chinese testimony as to the ceremony. Witnesses were called to show the usual Chinese rites of ancestor-worship making of gifts, etc., and the court is expected to instruct the jury that those various ceremonies, followed by the couple living as husband and wife, make the marriage valid, even though it was not a legal marriage ceremony according to law here. Dai Fook Tai's second marriage, it is alleged, was in the regular way provided by Hawaiian statutes.

REPORT TO CONGRESS ON LABOR IN HAWAII

COPIES RECEIVED BY THE ALAMEDA OF THE LAST REPORT ON LABOR IN HAWAII—WHAT IT SAYS OF THE PLANTERS' ASSOCIATION AND THE NEW BOARD OF IMMIGRATION AND THE WHITE SETTLERS POLICY.

Copies of the third report of the Commissioner of Labor on Hawaii, were received here by the Alameda. The report is based on materials collected by Dr. Victor S. Clark, who was here a year ago, and is largely written by him. It is a volume of about 300 pages of which about half is composed of statistical tables. Among the interesting things in the report is the following, on pages 63 and following:

"It must be remembered that the Planters' Association includes a very strong element composed of men who are citizens of other countries than America, who regard tropical countries as colonial possessions to be exploited for the benefit of citizens of the home country. They have little appreciation of the American spirit and little sympathy with any effort to develop a democratic commonwealth in Hawaii—if such development interferes with the present system of sugar planting. There are others interested in plantation development who are of American descent and even of American birth, but whose long residence in the islands has blunted their appreciation of fundamental American political conceptions. Their one demand is for legislation that will assure them Chinese labor, and at one stroke simplify plantation administration and increase profits. They are impatient of any viewpoint that would sacrifice in any degree commercial interests to civic ideals. Both these groups regard such a viewpoint as sentimental and consequently indefensible. So insistent have been the representatives of this element of the plantation interests for the admission of Chinese, that they have seriously discussed the proposition that the Territory ask Congress to diminish its status as a political community and change the islands from a Territory of the United States to a colony dependency, in order that its special industry might more easily secure special legislation permitting importation of Asiatic labor, and the re-establishment of some form of contract system. They do not appreciate the full force of the obstacles in the way of such a proposal, nor realize that an agitation looking to the disestablishment of an existing Territory of the United States in favor of a form of government receiving no recognition in our organic law, might rouse the popular democratic spirit of the nation, not only in opposition to this specific proposal, but to an extent that might insist upon changes in Hawaii quite the reverse of those sought by existing industries. "There are now very few in the islands who seriously entertain the hope of securing the admission of Chinese coolies to the Territory of Hawaii. Any proposal to admit Chinese without restricting them to agriculture labor and domestic service would arouse the unqualified opposition of all the interests in the islands other than the plantation interests; and the only basis on which plantation interests could hope to secure the support of the mercantile and the labor interests of the islands was the plan to admit Chinese coolies, restricting them by law to field labor and domestic service, and making expulsion from the islands the penalty for any attempt to go into other lines of work than these. For a long time a large element of the plantation interests seriously believed that this provision to create what was practically a servile class under the Chinese would commend the proposal to the opposition, both in the islands and on the mainland. But within the past year very direct and forceful expressions of views with regard to this proposition from authoritative sources have forced upon Hawaii a realization of the futility of any hope that an American Congress could be induced to pass a law creating on American territory a status of legalized servility.

THE BOARD OF IMMIGRATION.

"As a result, all the elements of the plantation interests have agreed to cooperate with the other interests of the islands in a strong effort to induce white immigration into the Territory. The Federal immigration laws against assisted immigration have heretofore seemed to stand in the way of successful efforts by individuals or corporations to stimulate white immigration to Hawaii. To obviate this difficulty, the legislature in April, 1905, passed an act creating a local board of immigration for the Territory. Under this act a board has recently been organized and has been assured both of the moral and financial support for the Territory. It is yet too early to judge what policy the board will adopt in carrying out its objects, or how successful it will be in accomplishing them.

"The ostensible and doubtless the primary purpose of the immigration board is to promote white settlement in the Territory, especially from the Azores and those countries of southern Europe likely to supply labor that can compete successfully with the Japanese."

Flying Fish Attack Boat

SEARCH LIGHT ON CLAUDINE CAUSES THEM TO FLY UP ON THE TOP BRIDGE.

A school of flying fish attacked the steamer Claudine last Monday morning in the Hawaii channel. The vessel was crossing in the early morning. She was throwing her searchlight. The light evidently attracted and scared the fish, for suddenly a swarm of them rose out of the water and flew over the bow of the vessel.

It seemed as if a silver cloud was rising from the sea. One very large fish measuring twelve inches in length flew square against the searchlight, broke the glass, and put the machine out of commission.

COURSE OF TEBLOR PLANS TO ENTERTAIN SHOWN ON FLOOR CALIFORNIA EDITORS

WEIGHTED TABLE MOVED ABOUT BY QUAKE LEAVES IMPRINT ON SOFT SURFACE.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—By mere chance the great tremor that caused so much havoc in San Francisco in the morning of April 18, registered its vibrations at the home of George Osbourne, the comedian of the Alcazar Theater. On the wax parquette flooring of his drawing room at 3379 Clay street, the exact movements of the shock were cut by a table that was heavily weighted. On the table was a Carrara marble group of Love and Psyche by Canova, weighing more than 300 pounds and throughout the disturbance the group remained unmoved from its position on the table.

Measured by a straight line the table moved in a southwesterly direction twenty-three inches. The actual circumferential measurement, including all jumps and turns, measures seventy-seven inches. The record of zigzags is clearly delineated on the waxed floor and the force of the vibrations is shown by light and heavy markings.

Beginning with light zigzag lines the temblor's force increased as shown by the deeper indentations, accompanied by a twisting motion, the record showing a semicircle with one loop and measuring in length forty-five inches. The quake record then took a jump of one inch, landing heavily and indenting the floor, and was followed by nine successive jumps, the first five being one inch apart, the next one and a quarter of an inch further away and the last three one-eighth of an inch apart. The jumps follow one another in an almost perfect circle, which measures seven inches in length.

The jumps then ceased, while the table continued on its erratic course. For fifteen inches the twisting motion continued and included three more loops. Then for the remaining ten inches the peculiar zigzag lines shown at the beginning of the record continue to the present resting place of the table, which has not been moved since the earthquake. All subsequent quakes have failed to move the table from its position. The general course of the record is from northeast to southwest.

Army officers and scientists who have visited Osbourne's house declare the seismic record perfect, with the exception of the measurement of the shock's duration.

ANOTHER BISHOP TO COME.

Bishop Libert of the Catholic church of this place is to return from San Francisco by the Manchuria, sailing today. He will be accompanied by Bishop Verrier of Tahiti. The visiting bishop will remain over here for some time.

COMMITTEE MET YESTERDAY AFTERNOON TO ARRANGE FOR ENTERTAINING THE ASSOCIATION.

Sometime this fall the Editorial Association of Southern California will visit Hawaii. That they might be entertained while here in a suitable manner the Promotion Committee called a meeting of the editors of the town to prepare for a reception.

A. Gartley presided and others in attendance were Secretary H. P. Wood, E. L. Spalding, Fred C. Smith, L. A. Johnson, Fred L. Waldron, W. R. Farrington of the Bulletin, Walter G. Smith of the Advertiser and W. M. Langston of the Paradise. Charles L. Rhodes of The Star was prevented from attending by another engagement.

The Hawaiian hotels have all offered special rates and the O. R. & L. Company has placed a special train at the disposal of the committee to be used in taking the editors to view the country. A luau is another thing that was definitely settled by the committee. This will either be held in the grounds of the residence of Delegate Kuhio's place in Waikiki or in the old fish market if the weather be rainy. A number of important details have not been settled such as the trip to the volcano. This trip will be taken if the editors are here long enough and if a low rate can be obtained. A trip to the volcano would do much in the minds of the men of the Promotion Committee to dispel any doubts the editors may have about the safety of the islands.

It is not known exactly when the editors are coming but it is thought that it will be in November sometime.

An effort will be made to have Mrs. Weathered come when the editors do. She was the chaperone of the Oregon party. She could act much in the capacity of a guide.

The party will be loaded up with literature at San Francisco which they will read on the way down. In this way they will have a fair idea of what they are coming to. If Mrs. Weathered is in the party she will do much to tell them about the place they are nearing.

The committee is to draw up a program for a ten days stayover and will meet again next Tuesday afternoon.

SUGAR DIVIDENDS

SAN FRANCISCO, May 11.—In accordance with announcement some days ago the Hawaiian Commercial and Sugar Plantation and the Paauhau Sugar Company paid their usual monthly dividends yesterday, the amount disbursed aggregating $92,500. The shares being quite widely distributed, the preparation of the dividend roll and filling out the checks was a work of considerable extent, occupying the entire night, but when the offices at 2023 California street opened yesterday everything was in readiness. The checks were handed to shareholders, and as the banks were closed the officers of the companies were well supplied with coin to cash the checks. Many availed themselves of the offer, and as ready money is generally needed at this time the payments were very acceptable.

The next company to pay a dividend will be the Makaweli, which will disburse about $18,000 on the 15th inst. This will make $110,500 paid out in Sugar dividends for the month. The advances from the islands concerning crop prospects are so favorable that these dividends will doubtless be continued for months.

The Kilauea Sugar Company has rescinded the assessments of $2 per share levied several weeks ago, partly because of inability of many stockholders to meet it just now, and partly because of improved crop conditions in the islands.

Points to the Cause

How many women are troubled with insomnia! How few, alas, habitually sleep the night through and rise refreshed.

If you can't sleep it is because your nerves will not let your body rest. Women's nervous troubles come from female diseases. Their delicate organism is a network of intricate nerves. cures all female troubles and restores nerve equilibrium and brings sound, restful, healthful, natural sleep. Thus does this wonderful remedy operate to bring health to suffering women.

Wakefulness and Nervousness Cured

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—Last spring, I lost my appetite, had headaches, and bearing down pains with cramps so that I was in perfect misery. I became wakeful and extremely nervous.

I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and am pleased to state that I derived immediate benefit and soon enjoyed permanent relief.

Within eight weeks I was restored to normal health and felt refreshed and strengthened as though I had enjoyed a lengthy vacation.

Since that time I have recommended your Compound to a number of my lady friends suffering with female irregularities, and those who have used it report great benefit from its use.

Japan And Our Ships

Congress is being repeatedly told that a failure to pass the ship subsidy bill means that the Japanese will take the Pacific Mail and Oceanic vessels, not to run them on the Pacific, but to transfer them to lines between Japan and Australia and Japan and Europe, to the utter destruction of San Francisco's oriental commerce. It is easy to see the harm that would come to Hawaii from such developments. If there is any such danger as is pointed out, Honolulu is the most vitally interested of all American ports. The following remarks by Hon. Charles H. Grosvenor in the House of Representatives is a sample of the statements being made on the subject:

"The Congress of the United States has been given ample warning that if the shipping bill is not immediately passed by the House of Representatives this Japanese effort will succeed, and the Stars and Stripes will be hauled down from the masthead of the two oldest American steamship lines crossing the Pacific Ocean.

"This would be a calamity for the United States, but it would be a still more terrible calamity for San Francisco. When the Japanese flag went up every American officer, every American sailor would have to go over the side. It is the pride of the Japanese to man their ships throughout with their own people. That would mean the blotting out of most of our meager resources in the way of a naval reserve on the Pacific. It would mean the transfer of the headquarters of these American lines from San Francisco to Yokohama.

"It might mean more than this. For there can be no guaranty that if the Japanese flag is hoisted over these American ships they will continue to run in the trade of San Francisco. Once under Japanese control, they can be sent, and most certainly will be sent, wherever they will best serve Japanese interests. There are no ships so fine as some of these American ships in the whole Japanese merchant fleet. The great pride of Japanese shipowners is their subsidized line from Japan to Europe—subsidized at the rate of more than a million dollars a year. If the Japanese Government took it into its head to order the transfer of these American liners to the European line it could do so, and in that event San Francisco would be left entirely without any communication with China or the Philippines, and our main line of oriental commerce would be paralyzed.

"So, too, with the Oceanic Line to Australia. This is now operating under a mail contract with the United States Government, which requires the steamers to run via Samoa to Auckland and Sydney, and nowhere else. But the contract would necessarily terminate if these ships were purchased by the Japanese. They could then be taken wherever their new owners pleased. And where that would be it is not difficult to conjecture. The Japanese Government has been endeavoring to build up a competing line from Yokohama to Australia. Thus far it has not secured any satisfactory steamers. Its vessels are inferior to American ships, and there can be no question whatever that one motive of the Japanese in securing the Oceanic steamers would be to take them out of San Francisco and transfer them to their own Japanese-Australian line, thus paralyzing our best route of communication with the Australian markets, to which our exports have increased of late years from $12,000,000 to $27,000,000 a year, and turning this market over to the merchants of Japan, Europe, and Canada."

Aliens And Licenses

There is no plan to bar Asiatics from the saloon business, "simply because they are Asiatics." The proposition which The Star advanced yesterday as one having legal support is that the business can be restricted to citizens by police regulation. Not only Asiatics, but all non-citizens, British, German or of any other nationality, would be barred by this sort of a regulation. The only way to make it legal if there is a way, under the existing treaties, is to make it apply to all aliens alike. Such a regulation, we repeat, is sustained by excellent legal authority. With regard to the saloon business the Territory has a right to impose many arbitrary police regulations which the courts would overthrow as unreasonable if applied to the hack business, or any other business. Of course no one will dispute the Advertiser's proposition that "if the Territory should pass a law excluding Japanese from the saloon business, the victims of that statute could get immediate relief from the United States court." If, however, the Territory should pass a law providing that only citizens of the United States should be granted saloon licenses, the proposition would be a very different one. As a matter of police regulation such a law might go farther. It might declare that only citizens of the Territory should engage in the business and it might limit the number of such citizens allowed in it.

San Francisco Chinatown

The tone of the San Francisco papers toward the proposition to rebuild Chinatown in its old locality, does not seem quite so truculent as it was the first few days after the earthquake and fire. Then the announcement was joyously made that Chinatown would be located somewhere else. There was exultation in the announcement, and not the slightest suggestion of a doubt. It was going to be done, and that was all there was about it. But this was only for a few days. Then there began to be suggestions of difficulties in the way. The Chinese themselves had not consented to be summarily removed. So far as the Chinese owned land in the old Chinatown, they claimed the right to rebuild. As to other owners of property there they claimed the right to rebuild and to rent to whomever they pleased. In fact the removal of Chinatown began to look as though it was not quite so easy a thing as it had been jauntily assumed to be.

The next step in the process was suggestions that after all there was no reason why Chinatown should not be rebuilt where it was. As sentiment seems now to be crystallizing itself there does not seem to be any very strong objections, or at least none that are making themselves felt, to the rebuilding of Chinatown where it was before.

The truth is that the first announcement was probably the effervescence of the old and hot antagonism to the Chinese. The present feeling is doubtless due to a number of considerations, among them the fact that Chinatown was really a great municipal asset. It was a tourist asset. It attracted more people, and aroused more curiosity and interest among strangers and visitors than anything else in San Francisco. And unlike other attractions, there was no expense for maintenance. The Hopkins Art Institute, Golden Gate Park, and pretty nearly everything else the city had to offer cost money to create and money to maintain. But Chinatown was self supporting. Of course, it would be bad business policy to destroy such a valuable asset, or to remove it to some part of the city not readily accessible and thereby destroy its value. Besides, it is argued, old Chinatown is on the side of a hill, easily drained, and readily adapted to excellent sanitary arrangements. Built anew under proper building and Board of Health regulations there can be no objection to it on the score of insanitariness. So there you are, and it seems probable now that Chinatown will be rebuilt on the old site, and that there is strong hope that it will become and remain as valuable a tourist asset in the future as it has proved in the past.

The letter published in part yesterday in The Star regarding the Farnham-Butler story, was discovered in the archives, by R. A. Lydecker, within the week.

Commissioner Garfield seems to have made Standard Oil more uncomfortable by his report on their secret rebates and other privileges, than he did the Beef Trust magnates by his report on their business.

By some of the expressions used to convey opinion of prohibition, one would imagine there are some who would hate to see the use of intoxicants banished.

Some months ago complaint was made of the administration of our criminal law because alleged murderers were too well defended. Now complaint is made because they are not defended well enough.

We may yet have to abolish the death penalty to protect the race from the danger of being badly defended.

Congress seems to be in an amiable mood toward Hawaii just now. If we really want it to fix up our pre-empt boundaries for us, now would be a good time to ask it to.

Isn't it a little dangerous to let these Southern California editors know we have a volcano on these islands? Oughtn't we to try and hide it from them?

CIRCUIT COURT SUSTAINED

SUIT OVER A TIME PURCHASE OF LAND DECIDED THIS MORNING BY SUPREME COURT.

The Supreme Court this morning decided the case of A. N. Campbell vs. Charles and Mary Lucas, sustaining a verdict for defendants. The suit is thus described in the syllabus:

"In an action by a vendee under a time purchase of land to recover from the vendors the only two installments paid on account of the purchase price, no deed to be delivered until full payment, and time being of the essence of the contract, the jury being instructed that under the contract the vendee was entitled to the immediate possession of the land and that he could recover if the vendors failed or refused upon request by the vendee to put him in possession, and the evidence being conflicting whether the vendee requested the vendors to put him in possession, a verdict for defendants cannot be disturbed."

SUCCESSFUL ENTERTAINMENT

The entertainment given last evening at St. Louis College for the benefit of the poor last evening was very successful. It was given under the auspices of the Catholic Benevolent Union. It was both musical and literary, and included moving pictures of Japanese war scenes. One of the pleasing numbers was a saxophone solo by Father Valentin.

BEGIN DISCHARGING VESSEL TOO SOON

SHIP MANGA REVA HAS STOPPED PUTTING NAVAL COAL OUT PENDING ADJUSTMENT.

The work of discharging cargo from the ship Manga Reva has been discontinued. The vessel began to discharge 1,000 tons of coal for the Naval Station day before yesterday, but the discharging has been stopped owing to what may be a technical infringement of the customs laws.

The master of the vessel says, however, that the coal is not foreign material but was shipped from Philadelphia direct for Honolulu. The original cargo amount to about 3,000 tons but all but 1,000 tons were taken out at at Cavite by the Navy Department. Under such condition it would seem that there had been no practical violation of the customs regulations, for a permit is supposed to be issued even without formal application on the part of the master or agents, in the case of domestic goods.

MANGA REVA LIBELLED TOO

SAILOR SAYS THE CAPTAIN REDUCED HIS WAGES WITHOUT AUTHORITY.

The ship Manga Reva has also been libelled. A suit against her was filed in the Federal Court last night by George A. Davis with Hugo Nordick as libellant, claiming about $70 more wages than the captain of the vessel is said to have offered to pay. According to the libel the captain distracted Nordick during the voyage, cutting down his wages without authority. The sailor claims that the sum of $163.25 is due him in wages and that the captain is only willing to pay him $93.91, and he asks the court to order payment of the full amount.

This morning Davis made a motion for a summary hearing of the case, and Judge Dole made an order that the hearing proceed at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

THE BURNED CITY.

"Poor old Frisco. I would not advise any one to go and see her for it is a sad sight. Everything is gone. At first the novelty of the ruins lent an attraction, but now there are signs up all over telling of where the firms are doing business. Signs are numerous and some of them funny. One for instance will read, 'Busted but not broke,' or 'This address was burned, see us at—' 'The places where the people are cooking on the streets are covered with signs such as 'The whole Green family lives here,' or 'Palace Cafe,' and the like. The rich people are the ones who suffered for they lost their servants and they can not cook for themselves. The poor people who are used to hustling are doing the work of getting the city cleaned up.

THE LA PALOMA LOG

The friends of Mr. Macfarlane were more than amused at the receipt of what purported to be the log of La Paloma on her voyage from here to San Francisco. There were certain entries in it that reminded them that the genial Clarence momentarily lost some of his good temper. He kept a record of the daily run up to the 17th day, at least he sent here the run for that number of days, and there was a notation on the log on the eighteenth day that the mercury registered 35 deg. and it is supposed that he got cold feet and forgot to notify his friends of the runs after that day.

The United States Circuit Court of Appeals, at San Francisco, in which appeals from Hawaii are heard, has sent the following notice to W. B. Malng, clerk of the Federal Court here:

"The United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit continued the May calendar and adjourned on the 15th instant to June eighteenth next at 10:30 o'clock a. m., the Presiding Judge stating that the Court will take up and dispose of the unsubmitted cases of the May calendar during the period between June eighteenth and June thirtieth next in its Court room in the new U. Ruberoid on Floors

Ruberoid roofing makes a splendid floor covering for an office or workroom. It is almost impossible to wear it out. It lays as smooth as linoleum and costs only one-fourth as much. As a roofing, it has no equal. It is absolutely waterproof, acid-proof and fire-resisting. It will last longer than tin, iron or shingles, and costs far less. No skill required to lay it.

EMBARRASSING.
That recent decision of the United States Supreme Court relating to certain classes of divorce is creating considerable consternation among some people who have required two or more trials before making a success of matrimony. It must certainly be embarrassing for a man to suddenly discover that his family is not his family but belongs to another man, who, in turn, is living in the blissful belief that he is married to some woman who is really another man's wife.—Topeka State Journal.

ESKIMO AS IT IS WRITTEN.
Eskimo has the reputation of being a difficult tongue to understand, even more than to speak. All manner of parts of speech may become joined to verbal roots and the whole may be conjugated like a simple verb—which is puzzling to a foreigner. One missionary brought back a word which, when written on the blackboard, was quite two-and-a-half yards long—Boston Evening Transcript.

TENT SCHOOL OPENS MONDAY

HUCOLIC EDUCATION UNDER CANVAS TO START IN THE PARK—STUFFY TOMES DISCARDED.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—The first tent school will be opened next Monday in Golden Gate Park, and 500 little refugees are already enrolled. Major McIvor will furnish the equipment. This will consist of twenty big 18x22 tents. They will be oiled and will have benches.

A. M. Armstrong, formerly in charge of the Parental School, has been appointed principal of the tent school and he promises many features new to school life. The work will be adapted to the conditions, and on the whole will be bucolic to a large degree.

For instance, no effort will be made to keep to the prescribed courses of study. Children will not pore over books and slates. The work will be largely in nature study, and the high school teachers proficient in natural sciences will be employed. The tent schools will resemble the open-air academies of old Greece and Rome.

For the first time the cooking school, according to Principal Armstrong's idea, will be given practical work. The cooking teachers of the department will teach the children to cook, and the results of the lessons will be consumed forthwith at lunch. Uncle Sam, represented by Major McIvor, will furnish the provisions. Bad boys who cook bad meals will have to eat them, while good little girls will lick their lips over the delectable products of their industry.

Principal Armstrong is a strong believer in physical exercise and in bathing. He has a scheme to turn Stow Lake into a swimming pond for the school. Major McIvor has volunteered the services of one of his grizzled old sergeants to act as drill master and the boys and girls of the tent school will evolve like the United States army itself.

As soon as the Park School is well established at the Presidio camp and then wherever they may be needed, Parents all over the city are already clamoring for the admission of their children to the Golden Gate Park School.

MURDER IN FIRST DEGREE

YOUNG HAWAIIAN IS FOUND GUILTY OF A CAPITAL OFFENSE.

Murder in the first degree was the verdict rendered yesterday afternoon by the jury in the Kaliko Kaawaloa case. The jurors were out a little over four hours and came into court at 4:45, finding the defendant guilty as charged.

Kaliko's crime was the killing of a woman named Virginia Moeluhl, in Kakaako, December 2. There was no eyewitness to the deed, but the evidence showed that he assaulted her in their room banging her head upon the floor till she died from hemorrhage of the brain.

Deputy Attorney General W. S. Fleming, assisted by Chester Doyle, prosecuted the case and A. H. Crook defended. The verdict means a sentence of death. Kaliko is a Hawaiian, quite young.

WEDDING OF ALBERT AFONG

CEREMONY PERFORMED ON MAY THIRD IN GRACE CATHEDRAL AT DAVENPORT.

The Daily Times of Davenport, Iowa, May 3, has the following account of the wedding of Albert F. Afong of this city and Miss Bessie Whiting, a niece of Admiral Whiting.

At Grace Cathedral, Davenport, at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, in the presence of only the immediate family, was quietly solemnized the marriage of Miss Anna Elizabeth Whiting, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Beverly Whiting of 1322 Perry street, Davenport, to Albert Fayerweather Afong of Honolulu, H. I. Rev. William Love, rector of the cathedral spoke the service impressively. The bridal couple was unattended and the wedding was simple and unostentatious. The bride was gowned in a traveling costume of checked novelty cloth in black and white with hat to match. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party returned to the home of the bride's parents where an elegant wedding breakfast was served.

The nuptials which came as a surprise to the many friends are among the most notable of the year in the triticities, on account of the prominence of both families, and come as the culmination of a pretty romance begun in Honolulu during the bride's visit with relatives there a year ago. The bride is a niece of Admiral Whiting, U. S. N. who has just retired from active service. She is a charming young woman and has a wide circle of friends whose good wishes will follow her to her distant home. The groom is a young stock broker of Honolulu and a son of one of the wealthiest and most influential merchant princes of the islands. He was educated in this country, graduating from Harvard college. Mr. and Mrs. Afong departed on the noon train for an extended wedding tour through the east, and the honeymoon will be spent at the principal cities and resorts. They will visit with relatives in Davenport before sailing the latter part of June for Honolulu, where the groom has a handsome home already prepared for his bride.

THE BAND

The Call of May 19 says: The Royal Hawaiian Band of Honolulu is to sail from the Hawaiian Islands next Tuesday on the Pacific Mail Steamship Korea and will arrive in San Francisco on May 28. The managers of the band and the Hawaiian Government have arranged for the organization to give a series of concerts at the Greek Theater, University of California and at the Piedmont Springs park at Piedmont during the week commencing May 29 and ending on June 4.

The band will give afternoon concerts at the Greek theater at Berkeley, while in the evening it will play at the Piedmont Springs Park, which is being put into shape for the accommodation of the large attendance expected.

In addition to giving the public much needed recreation at the present time the managers of the band will help to raise money that is sadly needed for the relief of the sufferers from the recent disaster in San Francisco.

Professor William D. Armes of the State University is representing President Wheeler in the presenting of the Hawaiian band at the Greek Theater, and 50 per cent of the proceeds of the afternoon concerts will be apportioned by President Wheeler among the various relief funds of San Francisco and Oakland.

The profits of the evening concerts at the Piedmont Springs Park will be donated to the Alameda County Maternity Hospital, which is under the patronage of the leading members of society of the bay cities.

Special arrangements will be made by the Oakland Traction Company for handling the crowds. Special electric cars will be run.

ALAMEDA TAKES NEXT MAIL.

The S. S. Alameda will take the next mail to San Francisco next Wednesday.

CARGO OF FLIES.

One of the strangest cargoes a vessel could possibly have was unloaded at the London docks toward the close of March. It consisted of several sacks filled with dried flies, consigned to a large firm of grain merchants. These flies, exported from Brazil, have been purchased for use in the manufacture of food for poultry, cage birds and the like. They were caught on the River Amazon by Brazilians who travel up the river in flat-bottomed boats and who are provided with gauze nets with which they capture these insects in millions, as flies hover in dense clouds over many of the swampy reaches of the Amazon. The flies thus caught are killed and dried in the sun.

SHE WAS IN FAVOR.

A woman canvasser in a recent British election campaign asked a laborer if he was in favor of protection and he replied by inquiring what it was. The question embarrassed the woman somewhat. She replied: "I cannot go into precise details at the moment, but it is a subject of vital importance to all who care for wild birds."

CARTER WRITES ABOUT FRISCO

THE GOVERNOR DESCRIBES WHAT HE SAW ON A VISIT TO THE RUINS.

Dr. Judd received a letter from Mrs. Carter yesterday, stating that the governor was in much improved health and would return by the Manchuria, which is to leave San Francisco tomorrow. A letter from the governor was also received, by J. R. Galt of the Hawaiian Trust Company, telling of experiences in San Francisco. Carter was at Monterey during the earthquake. His letter says:

"On the 20th I went up to the city of San Francisco, with a friend from Tacoma. It was the second day after visitors were allowed in the city. No description can give any idea of the destruction. You would expect that there would be piles of black, charred ruins. Not a bit of it. Nothing as far as you could see from Nob Hill but squares of masses of bricks with an occasional chimney upright. Outside of a few buildings at the center there was nothing standing. You could take in the contour of the land, its hills and swales, blocked off in squares.

"The heat was so intense that it burned everything that was combustible. Glass was melted and on Third street we saw places where it had run on the street. Cobblestones all cracked off above ground. Nothing but tangled, warped iron, plaster and bricks; iron lamp posts melted and bent over like overheated candles. One funny thing was that all over Nob Hill were feathers. These we figured had been carried up into the air by the heat and had settled down on everything.

"Outside the Flood residence there were the remnants of a few things taken out into the yard, a gold chair, some bronze statuary, an Italian gold and glass cabinet, and there were bits of broken fancy china.

"We walked from the depot to Market, then climbed over piles of bricks up to the St. Francis. Next up Nob Hill, then down California to the Ferry. From the Ferry we walked up Mission or Folsom, I don't know which, to Fourth and Townsend, the depot. It was fortunate that neither railroad nor waterfront were injured, the fire stopping short of each. We saw men with food, evidently dealt out to them. One had a cooked ham, another bread, and everywhere were cooking shacks in the street as no lights or fires were allowed in any house. There were funny signs over the shacks, such as, 'Hotel de Shacks,' 'Delmonico's' and 'Dew Drop Inn.' Some of the business locations were already marked with temporary addresses, with statements that they were 'Crashed but not crushed,' 'Bumped but not busted.'

"Well, I am just back from a horseback ride and have played 27 holes at golf today, so you see I am fairly well."

MYSTERIOUS POISONING

EIGHT MEN A TWILDER WHARF STRICKEN WITH SICKNESS RESEMBLING POISONING.

A very peculiar case of poisoning occurred at the Wilder wharf last Tuesday morning, in which eight men were suddenly stricken down with severe cramps, following by vomiting and diarrhoea. Dr. J. T. McDonald was called to attend the men. None of the cases appeared to be especially dangerous.

out but the men suffered very acutely for a time. Some had recovered in time to sail with the steamer Helene in the evening. Others went to their homes. George Fern suffered perhaps, more than any one else, for where the average recovered within seven or eight hours, he was ill for several days. Dr. McDonald did not attend him.

It was at first thought that the men might have been suffering from ptomaine poisoning from having eaten something aboard the steamer Helene, and such indeed, was the report that was first circulated. But an investigation disclosed the fact that nothing of the kind had occurred. A fact that made the case very mystifying. None of the men had eaten any thing aboard the vessel. None had eaten anything since early in the morning and then they had eaten at their homes which were in different sections of the city. The fact that eight men should so suddenly be attacked with the same sickness, caused a great deal of comment.

Dr. McDonald said that the only thing the men could, so far as he was able to ascertain, have partaken of in common was the drinking water at the wharf but there were other men who drank from the same source, yet they were not taken ill.

ANOTHER DEADLY FAKE

THE STRANGE DOINGS OF A SUBTERRANEAN VOLCANO OF OAHU.

The Examiner of May 19 says:

For nearly 200 miles large pieces of floating pumice stone were passed by the bark St. Katherine, which arrived at this port last Friday from the Hawaiian Islands. They were seen on April 20th, about 400 miles from the island of Oahu. Captain Saunders of the St. Katherine is under the impression that the pumice stone was from a subterranean volcano which was in action at the time of the earthquake here. It was undoubtedly of recent occurrence, as the pumice stone was massed together. On many of the large pieces deep sea crabs were seen clinging. Captain Saunders brought several samples of the pumice stone and will present them to the Academy of Science.

Three Months Became Seven Years

ESCAPED PRISONER LOPEZ WAS JUST ABOUT TO BE GRANTED A PAROLE.

A Lopez, who escaped from a prison gang here about three weeks ago and is still at large, has a unique prison record in that he has served between six and seven years in jail as a result of a sentence for only three months and escaped just as final arrangements were being made to give him parole. Lopez' long term was all due to his efforts to escape. He has had a hard time of it in serving his three months and High Sheriff Henry had interested himself to the extent of arranging a parole when Lopez skipped out from a misdemeanor gang at work on Nuuanu park.

While serving his original three months in Hilo Lopez skipped out. He was recaptured and given a year for attempting to escape. For a time he was kept with a ball and chain. Added to his sentence for escaping was another for having possession of a knife with which he is said to have intended to hunt food and still a third sentence was on account of a disappearance of a sheep, which he was charged with stealing. The Hilo method of dealing with escaped prisoners appears to have been very severe.

Lopez was one of those brought to Honolulu recently when Hilo jail was criticized as insanitary. He was serving with other misdemeanor prisoners in public parks and one day he ran away and disappeared. The guards on these small offenders in public parks are not supplied with firearms, so that the escape was attended with little risk.

"I thought he had had a pretty hard time," said High Sheriff Henry "and a parole was being arranged, under which he could have got work on a plantation, for he is an expert stone cutter and ordinarily a peaceable workman. I think he is still on this island and we shall eventually get him. But for the maintenance of prison discipline I should not feel much concerned about whether we got him or not, for he has had a pretty hard deal. However, the watch will be maintained and eventually he will be caught."

and will be larger and better than ever. Over a year will be required to rebuild Mr. Irwin for the removal of the debris from the streets of San Francisco. He says that the work of rebuilding is going ahead very rapidly.

MORGAN'S DAY TO CLOSE UP

The Hawaiian headquarters for relief at San Francisco were closed today, it is supposed, from advices received from J. F. Morgan, and there is a considerable sum of money left over to be disposed of by other organizations. Another letter was received from Morgan this morning by Acting Governor Atkinson, but it contains little that is new.

Morgan wrote under date of the 19th, the day the Alameda left San Francisco. He stated that during the coming week he proposed to call upon all the Hawaii people in San Francisco and Oakland and see that they were all right. After that he would consult with the various authorities as to what should be done with the money he had left, apart from such sum as he left for the aid of those Hawaii persons who need assistance. He would write fully on this matter by the mail of the 25th, and proposed to leave for the East on May 31.

SOME MORE "GIRLS" HERE

Some more "Girls" arrived by the S. S. Alameda this morning. They are not Oregon girls, but they are just as nice as the Oregon girls. The visitors are "Southern California Girls." But the party is not so large as was the Oregon Journal's crowd. There are only four women in the crowd that arrived this morning. They are Mrs. G. F. Moore, nee Miss G. Halstead, and Miss Jean Johnson, of San Bernardino; Miss Maud Medlin of Needles, and Miss Grace Smith of Ontario. The party is accompanied by G. F. Moore, the husband of one of the crowd.

The party is sent here as the guests of the Sun Bernardino Times Index. The competition was conducted along lines similar to that of the Oregon Journal, the personnel of the guests being determined by popular vote. The personnel of the party was determined last year and after the guests had been named the marriage of one of them to Moore occurred.

There seemed a disposition on the part of the crowd to keep rather incog, but their identity was learned by fellow passengers on the Alameda. The party is stopping at the Hawaiian Hotel. They will probably remain until the next homeward trip of the Alameda. They have no very definite plans for their stay in Honolulu. They may not make the volcano trip.
