The President's Message on Cuba.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The President to-day sent the following message to Congress:

The Senate and the House: I deem it important before adjournment of the present session of Congress to call attention to the following expressions in the message, which in the discharge of the duty imposed upon me by the Constitution, I sent to Congress the first Tuesday of December last:

"Elsewhere I have discussed the question of reciprocity. In the case of Cuba, however, there are weighty reasons of morality and of national interest why the policy should be held to have a peculiar application, and I most earnestly ask your attention to the wisdom, indeed, to the vital need, of providing for a substantial reduction in the tariff duties on Cuban imports into the United States. Cuba has in her constitution affirmed what we desired—that she should stand in international matters, in closer and more friendly relations with us than with any other power; and we are bound by every consideration of honor and expediency to pass commercial measures in the interest of her well-being."

This recommendation was merely giving practical effect to President McKinley's words, when in his message of December 5, 1898, and December 5, 1899, he wrote:

"It is important that our relations with this people (of Cuba) shall be of the most friendly character and our commercial relations close and reciprocal. . . . We have accepted a trust, the fulfillment of which calls for the sternest integrity of purpose and exercise of the highest wisdom. The new Cuba yet to arise from the ashes of the past must needs be bound to us by ties of singular intimacy and strength if its enduring welfare is to be assured. The greatest blessing which can come to Cuba is the restoration of her agricultural and industrial prosperity."

Yesterday, June 12th, I received by cable from the American Minister in Cuba, a most earnest appeal from President Palma for "legislative relief before it is too late and his country financially ruined." The granting of reciprocity with Cuba is a proposition which stands entirely alone. The reasons for it far outweigh those for granting reciprocity with any other nation and are entirely consistent with preserving intact the protective system under which this country has thriven so marvellously. The present tariff law was designed to promote the adoption of such a reciprocity treaty and expressly provided for a reduction not to exceed 20 per cent upon goods coming from a particular country, leaving the tariff rates on the same articles unchanged as regards all other countries.

Objection has been made to the granting of the reduction on the ground that the substantial benefit would not go to the agricultural producer of sugar, but would inure to the American sugar refiners. In my judgment provision can and should be made which will guarantee us against this possibility, without having recourse to doubtful policy, such as a bounty in the form of a rebate.

The question as to which, if any, of

The First Local Mint.

One of the institutions here which has the special attention of tourists as well as the local people is the Mint, which is established on Nuuanu street, opposite Queen Emma Hall. It is interesting to enter the large main working room where general manager McDonough and his corps of assistants are at work. The cool and large laund is a proper resting place and the vaults, where the "bars" to be minted and beer are kept present a very tasty spectacle. The Mint is open from 5:30 a. m. to 11:30 p. m. and during those hours the work never ceases. Visitors after looking over the place will find first class refreshments and the purest of liquors.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

It is a piece of news to us to know that the Rev. Jno. Osborne is a Canon. When was he made such and by whom? Probably the Advertiser is the only one that knows.

When a local mail steamer is a few hours late, a heavy penalty is imposed upon her owners by the Postal Authorities. What is the penalty for postoffice officials who deliver Hilo mail 48 hours after it has reached the postoffice?

In its issue of the 14th instant, The Spokesman published a picture supposedly of F. H. Hayselden, which it resembles very much like one of Darwin's missing links. Mr. Hayselden should institute libel proceedings against its editor. The picture looks no more like the original than the man in the moon, and is a travesty upon decency and propriety.

The recent political explosion of our bombastic Chief Executive is very much like unto the Governor himself. "It is neither fish, flesh nor good red herring." Officials may do as they please as they've heretofore done, and don't it be forgotten either. It was only a blast from a red hot furnace and nothing more.

At the last meeting of the Executive Council it was decided that hereafter all applications for saloon licenses will be referred to the Anti-Saloon League for investigation. What is the Anti-Saloon League any way? Is it an official or judicial body, or is it solely one of the many branches of Central Union Church? Why not refer the applications to the Brewery or to Cama-rinco, or to a committee composed of the editors of the Advertiser and the Spokesman? They are citizens and voters and have just as much to say on public matters as the Anti-Saloon League.

Yes, we are going to take a trip over to San Diego. If we cannot get a steamer to take us over there to be in time for a certain event, we are going to swim over and walk back. How would that do? It will be quite a feat. Otherwise, we will float over and back, for we believe our corporosity and ponderosity will greatly assist us and be to our advantage.

The Kinsu arrived from Hawaii ports at 11:30 Saturday morning. The mail reached the Post Office by noon. The INDEPENDENT went to the Post Office for its mail at 10 a. m. Sunday morning and found the Maui News in its P. O. box. Hilo letters were found in the box on Monday morning. What is the matter with the management of the local postoffice? Does it take forty-eight hours now to distribute the "heavy" Hilo mail? There must be something wrong somewhere.

THE INDEPENDENT would like to know what has the Anti-Saloon League got to do with the granting of liquor saloon licenses. Is the League a part of the Territorial Government that it should receive such unbounded consideration from the Executive? Does the League run the government or is it paying something for being noticed and taken cognizance of by the powers that are? Has it paid for any license that it should be so considered before the issuance of any liquor license?

We feel very grateful to the Wardens and Vestry of St. Paul's Parish, San Diego, Cal., for being remembered. But we are most sorry that we cannot attend the consecration of our new Bishop to be, for we would very much like to have lent our presence to the auspicious occasion, which it is hoped may bode much for the future of our Church here. We hope that when consecrated and after arrival here, the new Bishop may have a much brighter future and a much easier row to hoe than what has been the lot of the retired prelate, the grand old man of the Anglican Church, and that he will find his task much lightened.

"It has never been my pleasure to see a jury, composed largely of Hawaiians, as is our present jury, so fair and impartial in every way." D. H. Case, acting assistant Attorney General, in an address to the jury of the Second Circuit.

Has Mr. Case ever known a Hawaiian jury to be otherwise? Does the secretary of the Bar Association, better known as the thirty seven immortals, and present acting Assistant Attorney General mean to infer that previous Hawaiian jurors with whom he has come in contact, were not fair and impartial in every way? We would like to hear Mr. Case on the subject, and the columns of THE INDEPENDENT are at his disposal so to do.

A "by authority" notice is published this morning in the missionary organ, ordering all the government offices to be closed at noon tomorrow, in honor of the coronation of His Britannic Majesty King Edward VII. Miss Kate Kelley being otherwise engaged the governor's proclamation is signed by Henry E. Cooper.

THE CORONATION SERVICE.

How It Will Be Observed Here in St. Andrew's Cathedral.

(WRITTEN FOR THE INDEPENDENT)

The Coronation Service as it will be used in Westminster Abbey is a lengthy office and would be inappropriate for use in any other church. The Archbishop of Canterbury has therefore issued an abbreviated form for use throughout the British Empire. This is the Service which will be used in St. Andrew's Cathedral, with the exception of such verbal changes as use in America naturally requires, under the sanction of the American Bishop in charge of the District of Honolulu.

It will be a source of satisfaction to many to feel that the service though abbreviated is identical, so far as it goes, with that which will be used in the Abbey. It opens with the Anthem "I was glad" sung in the Abbey as the King and Queen enter from the West Door. This is followed by the Litany which is sung as a preparatory office to the Holy Communion. In it are contained petitions for "Edward, King of Great Britain and Ireland and the Dominions thereto belonging," for "Her Britannic Majesty Queen Alexandra, George, Prince of Wales, the Princess of Wales and all the Royal Family." Then follows the Introit—Veni Creator—set to music by Attwood.

The Communion Service succeeds in the usual order till after the Sermon, which will be preached by the Rev. Canon Mackintosh. Then after the singing of "O King of Kings," music by Sir Arthur Sullivan, comes the Reading of the Proclamation, which will announce to the British people throughout the Empire the Title of His Majesty.

The Proclamation takes the place which, in the Abbey Service, is occupied by the various rites and ceremonies by which Uction and Coronation are accomplished. Then follow some prayers, taken as the marginal reading in the Order informs us "From the Anointing," "The presenting of the Sword," "The putting on of the Crown," "The Benediction," and the "Coronation of the Queen"—these titles bearing reference to the various sections into which the Original Service is divided. Expressions in these prayers and anthems—"Princesly virtues and grace;" "Be so merciful that you be not too remiss; so execute justice that you forget not mercy;" "Be strong; and play the man;" "Stand firm, and hold fast the Seat and State of Royal and Imperial Dignity," are indicative of the character that is looked for in the Sovereign. Then will be sung the British National Anthem which, with a Thanksgiving for the Restoration of Peace in South Africa, a prayer for the President of the United States, for Congress, and for the Church, will bring the service to a close.

The musical arrangements are in the hands of Mr. Wray Taylor, the Cathedral Organist, who will have under his direction the Choirs of the Cathedral and St. Clement's Parish. A large gathering of Clergy will be present, including those from Wailuku and Lahaina as well as all the Episcopal Churches in Honolulu. The service will begin at 9:15 a. m.

We doubt not that our readers of whatever nationality will gladly unite with the people of Great Britain as they shout in their ancient Abbey:

"God save King Edward,"
"Long live King Edward,"
"May the King live for ever."

Concert at Pacific Heights.

In honor of Coronation Day, the Catholic Mission Band will give a public concert at Pacific Heights from 3 to 5 tomorrow afternoon.

According to S. F. newspapers the transports now leaving the Coast for Manila will not call at Honolulu, but will stop at Nagasaki for coal and provisions.

The Kamehameha Schools Alumni will meet at the school at 6:30 o'clock this evening and dinner will begin at 7. Speeches and music will be in order at 7:30.

Captain Pohaku, the popular junior police captain who had a disagreement with captain Parker some time ago has been restored to his position by High Sheriff Brown.

The barkentine S. N. Castle sailed for San Francisco Monday afternoon with 14,000 bags of sugar, 1150 sacks of empty beer bottles and about eight tons of iron fittings.

The schooner Alice Cooke arrived from Port Townsend Monday, after a monotonous voyage of 83 days. She brought 960,000 feet of lumber consigned to Lewers and Cooke.

The Damon oratorical contest in connection with the closing exercises of Oahu College took place last evening at Paushi Hall, in presence of a large audience. Miss Mary Elizabeth Paty was awarded the first prize and the second honors went to William Haehae Huen.

Dancing Exhibition.

The dancing exhibition given last Saturday night in the Op-ra House by the children of Mrs. Guan's dancing class was admirable and very creditable to say the least. It clearly showed the painstaking care taken by Mrs. Guan to educate her charges in the art of grace culture.

Every number on the program was creditably executed by the wee-tots up to the bigger and larger tots. Special mention must be made of the Hornpipe, gracefully executed by Gertrude Tra phagen, Camille Raas and Ernest Raas.

The Irish was very much in evidence and carried the palm in point of rendition and execution from our way of thinking. The "Deutcher Girl," song and dance, was well done by little 7 year old Thelma Murphy, our little friend who was born under the Hawaiian flag. Her pronunciation was clear and sounded very Dutchy, and her dancing was grand. But the Highland Fling, danced by 11-year old Louise McCarthy, completely took us for gracefulness and neatness. And so was the Serpentine dance by Lydia Wagner, a combination of German and Irish.

A full house greeted the juvenile dancers. Mrs. Alice Brown was at the piano, assisted by Herr Rye n on the violin.

(The publication of the above which was intended for Monday's issue has been unfortunately delayed until today. Ed.)

And Yet Another.

This forenoon Jno. C. Lane, a member of the Republican Territorial Executive Committee, tendered his resignation from service in that dictatorial and autocratic body. Next!

NO CHURCH TRANSFER.

The Star's American Church Story Nothing But Sensational Yarn.

(WRITTEN FOR THE INDEPENDENT)

The issue of the Hawaiian Star of yesterday afternoon contains a yarn, which, if read between the lines, will show several points of similarity to the beginning of the campaign made in this city by alleged Anglicans, a few years ago, to transfer their church to the American jurisdiction.

The story although a long one has no foundations whatever. Bishop Gulstan's visit to California is not made for the purpose of arranging for the transfer of the Roman Catholic Church in Hawaii to an American jurisdiction. His Lordship went to the coast, as published in THE INDEPENDENT some time ago, partly for his health and partly on business.

The local Roman Catholic Mission, some time ago, was made the heir to a piece of property situated in the best district of the city of Los Angeles. A real estate agent a while ago wrote to Bishop Gulstan offering to sell the property to a third person, of course for a consideration. His Lordship broken down in health as a result of his hard labors, decided that he could do no better than go to California himself sell the property, and incidentally devote the money he would have to pay to the real estate agent towards paying the expenses of his voyage, which it is expected will benefit his health materially. That is the "only" purpose of Bishop Gulstan's visit to California.

But admitting, for the sake of argument, that the Star's story was well founded what would, then, be the situation of the Catholic Church in these Islands? The priests who have labored so conscientiously and so faithfully here for these many years would have to go as they belong to an order over which the Archbishop of California has no jurisdiction. Secondly, the church properties here do not belong to the members of that faith, but belong to the order of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary. They have built the churches now flourishing all over the Islands and the history of a Second Congregation of St. Andrew's Cathedral wanting an "American Jurisdiction" will not be repeated by the brethren of the Roman Catholic Faith. Their church is one and universal and they don't recognize no other authority but Rome. There is no Anglican or American faction among them, and if American Catholics (which is denied) want an American Church, they will have to build and support one of their own. There are between 20 and 25,000 Portuguese Roman Catholics in these Islands, several thousand Hawaiians, and where will they come in the transfer proposition? Will they transfer to a Portuguese or a Hawaiian jurisdiction also?

The whole story may be resumed in one word: "Rot." The Catholic Church as in the past will remain in charge of the devoted fathers who have consecrated their lives to work among the humble, the poor and the lowly.

When the church is self-supporting, that is, when the American membership of the church here is self-supporting, then the question of transfer to an American jurisdiction may be broached with any chance of success.

Bands Backing Out.

The St. Louis College, Kamehameha and Concordia Bands will not turn out on the Fourth of July as previously announced. The two former are disbanded, as the boys have gone for their summer's vacation, and the latter for some reason or another will be unable to attend. The Hawaiian and Catholic Mission Bands will be the only two in line.

Out at Kamehameha.

The Kamehameha Manual School closing exercises were held yesterday in the open air, near the Bishop Memorial Chapel. The salutatory and class history by David Kamaooha and the address by principal Dyke being the most interesting features. The scenes from "A Midsummer's night dream" were well presented and caused much merriment.

A Modified Rule.

Governor Dole, yesterday sent the following circular to the heads of official departments, which explains itself:

"Executive Chamber, Territory of Hawaii, Honolulu, June 23, 1902.

"Mr. J. H. Boyd, Superintendent of Public Works, Territory of Hawaii.

"Sir:—In relation to the recent discussion in the executive meeting on the subject of the political activity of officials, my opinion is that while it is not expected that officials shall forego their civil rights as citizens in political affairs, they should not use their official authority for the purpose of dominating the political party with which they are connected, or of controlling the result of elections.

"A just sense of official propriety should be the best guide in a matter of this kind, which from its very nature does not admit of hard and fast definitions.

"I recommend that the above be substituted for the instructions on this subject previously issued.

"Very respectfully,
"SANFORD B. DOLE."

Lost, Strayed or Stolen.

Lost, or stolen in the rear room of a restaurant, a police officer's uniform, badge, and hat number. Reward or a term in the lock up if returned to, or captured by, Tom Abe, policeman and detective Abe means business, and besides it was a dirty trick, anyway. Saturday afternoon, the diminutive Japanese police officer, went into a rear room of a restaurant to change his uniform to go to the baseball field. While absent for a few minutes some one got away with them and Tom is in the throes of remorse, regret and humiliation. If he finds the thief, there will certainly be something doing. Come on gentlemen, give up those clothes and oblige a uniformless officer.

Closing Exercises.

The Sisters of St. Andrew's Priory will bring their labours to a close on Friday. An entertainment will be given in the afternoon at 2:30 to which the younger people are especially invited. In the evening at 7:50, admission will be by ticket only, price fifty cents each. The children will give a Musical Play entitled "The Waxwork Carnival" published by Novello & Co. of London. This will close the School year.

The President's Message on Cuba.

the different schedules of tariff ought most properly to be revised does not enter into this matter in any way or shape. We are concerned with getting a friendly reciprocal agreement with Cuba. This arrangement applies to all the articles that Cuba grows or produces. It is not in our power to determine what these articles shall be, and any discussion of the tariff as it affects special schedules, or countries other than Cuba, is wholly aside from the subject matter to which I now call your attention. Some of our citizens oppose the lowering of the tariff products, just as three years ago they opposed the admission of the Hawaiian Islands, lest free trade with them might ruin certain of our interests here. In the actual event their fears proved baseless as regards Hawaii, and their apprehensions as to the damage to any industry of our own because of the proposed measure of reciprocity with Cuba seem to me equally baseless. In my judgment no American industry will be hurt, and many industries will be benefitted by the proposed action. It is to our advantage as a nation that the growing Cuban market should be controlled by American producers.

The events following the war with Spain and the prospective building of the Isthmian canal, render it certain that we must take in the future a far greater interest than hitherto in what happens throughout the West Indies, Central America and the adjacent coasts and waters. We expect Cuba to treat us on an exceptional footing politically, and we should put her in the same exceptional position economically. The proposed action is in line with the course we have pursued as regards all the islands with which we have been brought into relations of varying intimacy by the Spanish war. Porto Rico and Hawaii have been included within our tariff lines, to their great benefit, as well as ours, and without any of the feared detriment to our own industries. The Philippines, which stand in a different relation, have been granted substantial tariff concessions.

Cuba is an independent republic, but a republic which has assumed certain special obligations as regards her international position in compliance with our request. I ask for her certain special economic concessions to benefit us as well as her. There are few brighter pages in American history than the page which tells of our dealings with Cuba during the last four years. On her behalf we waged a war, of which the mainspring was generous indignation against oppression, and we have kept faith absolutely. It is earnestly to be hoped that we will complete in the same spirit the record so well begun, and show in our dealings with Cuba that steady continuity of policy which it is essential in foreign affairs if we desire to play well our part as a world power.

We are a wealthy and powerful nation; Cuba is a young republic, still weak, who owes to us her birth, whose whole future, whose very life must depend on our attitude toward her. I ask that we help her as she struggles upward along the painful and difficult road of self-government and independence. I ask this aid for her because she is weak, because she needs it, because we have already aided her. I ask that open-handed help, of a kind which a self-respecting people can accept, be given to Cuba, for the very reason that we have given her such help in the past. Our soldiers fought to give her freedom, and for three years our representatives, civil and military, have toiled unceasingly, facing a disease of a peculiarly sinister and fatal type with patient and uncomplaining fortitude, to teach her how to use aright her new freedom. Never in history has any alien country been thus administered, with such high integrity of purpose, such wise judgment and such a single-handed devotion to the country's interests. Now I ask that the Cubans be given all possible chance to use the best advantage the freedom of which Americans have such right to be proud and for which so many American lives have been sacrificed.
