PEARY REFUSES POLE PROOFS

CASH DIVIDED FOR BIG WORK

$25,000 FOR MAPS OF TERRITORY—$2,500 EXTRA FOR EXPERIMENT STATION—$20,000 FOR PLANTING AND FENCING KOHALA FOREST RESERVE—RESOLUTION ADOPTED TODAY BY THE SPECIAL COMMISSION AS PER NEW LAW.

At a meeting this morning of the commission appointed by the governor to divide the portion of the special income tax fund coming to the Board of Agriculture and Forestry, Chairman J. P. Cooke, Marston Campbell, and E. V. Wilcox being present, resolutions were adopted whereby the last legislature's conservation of natural resources enactments will be brought to realization.

It was resolved:

"That the action of the board of August 6, last year, authorizing expenditure in accordance with Act 87, Laws of 1909, be rescinded; that $3,500 per month, beginning January 1, this year, be allotted out of the proceeds of the one-fourth of the special fund provided by Act 33, Laws of 1909, for the use of the Board of Agriculture and Forestry; $3,500 being allotted in planting and fencing the Pupukea forest reserve and the Pupukea-Paumalu water reserves; $10,000 is allotted, in addition to the $15,000 appropriation already made by this board on November 10, 1909, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, for a hydrographic and topographic survey of the territory of Hawaii; $2,500 is allotted for the U. S. experiment station, in addition to appropriation already made; $20,000 being allotted in planting and fencing the Kohala forest reserve, available December 1, 1910.

CONTRACTS CLEAR AND WORK DONE BY JUNE

The Department of Public Works has already contracted for, and the work will be completed and payment made by June 30, this year:

Wells, $7,200; high lift pump, $9,600; Kaimuki reservoir, $18,900; Ewa pipe line, $3,200.

Thus it is shown that the turning over of their revenues, to the waterworks and sewer systems, is working out successfully.

Improvements are going on at the rate of $40,000 a year.

It is estimated by Marston Campbell, however, that, with increased revenues expected, $50,000 will be spent next year.

Since January 1 sewer collections have been $16,772 40.

Waterworks collections to date since June 30, last year, have been $117,226.96 of which $65,419.67 had been paid in by January 1.

Estimated receipts for waterworks up to June 30, 1910, will be $67,500.

Figures are proving the business success and economy of the late law making the sewers and waterworks self-maintaining.

CONTRACT WITH PUBLISHER HOLDS UP INQUIRY

(Associated Press Cable to The Star.)

WASHINGTON, March 7.—Commander Peary has formally declined to submit to the House naval committee any proofs of his discovery of the north pole, declaring, by way of explanation that his contract with a publisher, who is issuing Peary's story of the exploration, makes it impossible for him to submit documents of data for public investigation.

STRIKERS ATTACK CARS; TWO HURT

(Associated Press Cable to The Star.)

PHILADELPHIA, March 7.—Strikers and their sympathizers, leaving a meeting today, made an attack on a number of street cars. Before the mob was dispersed by the police two men had been seriously injured.

Great industrial plants, employing non-union labor, are unaffected by the strike.

TOUGH CONTINGENCY FUND FOR NEW LAW

As commissioner of public lands Marston Campbell, who is also superintendent of public works and government surveyor, will have to call on the government for a large sum of money from the contingency fund, to expenses and otherwise handling the Territory's various properties in the event of Hawaii's recommended Organic Act amendments becoming law.

The opening of Punchbowl, for example, will cost a pretty penny, what with surveys and other costs of allotment of lands to those already abiding there and who want to remain on their homelands, and to others.

Under the "trinity" system, whereby Marston Campbell is surveyor, land commissioner and public works superintendent, present allowances could not be drawn on for such work. In executive salaries alone, the present monthly saving to the Territory under the "trinity" system is $400.

CHOLERA ABOARD

A case of serious disease which the Quarantine officials have been unable to decide upon has developed on board the Tarmon Maru which arrived off port this morning.

Some days ago the body of one of the crew was buried at sea, and another man was stricken with the disease which previously had proved fatal. All the doctors who are connected with the Federal quarantine service are busy on the case, and a decision will no doubt be arrived at today. The sick man was brought ashore this afternoon in one of the Maru's boats in tow of the Oahu, the launch used in the quarantine service.

GOOD PEOPLE A POSSIBLE NUISANCE

"I am interested in seeing that we get the right kind of people to help build up this community," said Governor Frear this afternoon, speaking generally of the recently arrived Russian immigrants.

"Of course, if newcomers are to be involved in trouble such as we have just had, it will become a nuisance. As I understand, there are no other Russians on the way here, except those aboard the Korea outside the harbor."

The governor had seen the recent arrivals and they had impressed him as a good lot.

GIRL CANNOT ENTER HERE

Umeno Shigematsu, some time ago ordered deported, was today remanded to the steamship representatives, F. Hackfeld & Co., in the U. S. district court and will end the indent by returning to Japan. She was ordered deported as an undesirable. In this case Attorney Peters shone in habeas corpus proceedings with a view to her freedom.

United States authorities are this afternoon searching the Korea for opium.

QUESTION OF JAIL OR HOSPITAL

A middle aged Hawaiian whose name could not be learned, fell from a Liliha street car near King street shortly after noon, and was picked up unconscious. An officer sent in a hurry cab for the wagon and conveyed him to the Queen's Hospital.

After an examination, the doctors decided that it was a case for the police as the man had been drinking. When he arrived at the station he again lapsed into an unconscious condition.

Doctor Emerson was sent for to see if there are any internal injuries.

The old, old story, told times without number, and repeated over and over again for the last 37 years, but over again for the last 37 years, but it is always a welcome story to those in search of health—There is nothing in the world that cures coughs and colds as quickly as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For sale by all dealers, Benson, Smith & Co., agents for Hawaii.

RUSSIANS GET WORK ON SHIP

A survey to decide the damage to the foremast of the ship Edward Sewall will probably convene today, consisting of Captain Clarke, Alexander Lyle and Robert Catton.

On her recent voyage from the east the ship caught fire by spontaneous combustion of coal in her lower forward hold, and her foremast buckled.

The unloading of her coal cargo will be completed by Wednesday.

The Edward Sewall is a sister of the ill-fated Arthur Sewall which left the east for Honolulu nearly three years ago and was lost.

A large number of men are now employed on the Edward Sewall chipping paint, among them being a number of the recent Russian arrivals, who seem to be apt hands at the work.

LAYSAN POACHERS EXPECT DELIVERER

It being represented that they expected "help" in the S. S. Korea, arriving from the Orient this afternoon, the United States District court this morning granted a continuance to the twenty-three Laysan and Lisianski Japanese who were captured by the Thetis.

They will be taken to court again on Thursday.

Whether their expected help will materialize in the form of money to fight their case, letters of advice, or in the person of a missionary from the Japanese company for which the bird-poachers are said to have been working; or possibly they look for a diplomat, remains to develop. Such suggestions were launched this morning in the busy corridors of the Federal station of the Judiciary building.

CORPORATION LISTS

Internal Revenue Collector Drake and his energetic staff are finishing corporation lists and getting ready for the special tax campaign.

OCULTISM AT THE ORPHEUM

The Orpheum offers an exceptionally good bill for this week.

Among the many numbers on the program is noticed Prof. Temple Duchene the noted mind reader and hypnotist. His performance is claimed to be a wonderful one. Prof. Duchene is a native of India, ranks high among the exponents of the occult science. His work is entirely on the square and assurance is given that there is no faking in his demonstrations.

Doctors and other men of science are invited to attend his performance free of charge.

HAWAII'S WEALTH

There were seven hundred thousand dollars in cash in the Territorial treasury vaults this morning.

There are thirty-two cases of diphtheria in a light form, among the immigrant Russians now on Quarantine island. It is reported that, in the event of the latest arrivals not coming to an agreement with the plantation representatives, as to going to work, the older arrivals now employed on Maui and Kauai may quit work.

MR. OSBORNE DISCUSSES THE BUILDING ORDINANCE

Editor Star: A few days ago I noticed an article in one of the papers in which it was stated that one or more of the supervisors were holding up the building ordinance at the instigation, or through the influence, of some of the lumber merchants. Now, it may not be so surprising that the lumber merchants should try to knock out such an ordinance, but that a supervisor should be in the same business, or be influenced by them, is something I had not even dreamed of. And if such is the case, which I cannot think possible, there must be a very reprehensible and disgraceful state of things existing here.

For it seems to me that this ordinance question is one of the most vital questions before the public at the present time; for upon this question depends not only the appearance, but the safety of the entire city. What we need in these offices are men who have a vital interest in this city, who are above reproach and who have a pride in it, and a desire to make it one of the finest cities in the world.

THE INFLUENCE OF WOMEN TO CLOSE THE SALOONS

EDITOR STAR:—The women of the Hawaiian Islands have a serious reason for wanting to vote at the polls this year, or they would not beg so hard for that privilege. Their object is a most worthy one. It is very trying to them to see the danger of liquor saloons remaining wide open causing crime and poverty if the women are not allowed to vote. Occasionally one will hear a remark like this in Honolulu "Well, the missionaries years ago used to get my father's land for a bottle of wine. They were glad to make the kanakas drink then. Now they want to make us stop drinking 'booze' because gin and beer and wine are bad for us. Well, if it is bad for us now it must have been bad for these missionaries to have made my father drunk years ago in order to get his land for a bottle of wine or a suit of clothes."

While there may be some truth in this, yet, remember two wrongs never make one right. The so-called "missionaries" of today or the ruling force of Honolulu are not responsible for the wrongs that some of the first missionaries may have done in taking the advantage of the ignorant and indolent years ago. Superior intelligence and energy predominate everywhere and anywhere. If a man does not help himself industrially and economically no sane man is going to give him anything gratis. That law is universal, and the Hawaiian Islands are no exception. We are living in an age of material and to a certain extent, of moral progress.

Those who are anxious to close the saloons do so for the sake of the poor and that of decency. It is no pleasure to them. They do so even at the risk of making enemies. There are serious things to be considered. There are rich families in Honolulu today that are willing to sacrifice far more than people think to close the saloons, not for fashion sake, not for their own welfare, but purely and solely for that of the poor. It is their moral conscience that calls out louder than the most influential voice that ever was heard, and particularly the educated women of the Hawaiian Islands.

With the saloons wide open the poor unfortunate man with wife and children in destitution at home, thinks nothing of spending his days' pay for beer, but with closed saloons he would never think of sending to Frisco for a barrel. Can any one deny this? We are not responsible for the large investments in the brewing of beer.

Let us cut out the word politics in this question. The women of the Hawaiian Islands want a voice only in this one serious question to safeguard the homes of the poor. They do not mean to take part in making the laws of this country. Now is not that fair of them? However, it is not so many years ago when it was considered much out of place for a woman to be a lawyer, a doctor of medicine, a druggist, a platform ora-

ATTACKS SALE OF ISLAND LAND.

WASHINGTON, February 11.—Representative Martin of Colorado today introduced a resolution declaring the recent sales of 55,000 acres of friar lands in the Philippines, which he alleges to have been made to a "representative of the Havemeyer sugar interests," to be a violation of the law, denouncing the Department of Justice for upholding it and demanding an investigation.

"The decision of the Department of Justice upholding the sale will permit of the unlawful monopolization of all friar lands amounting to more than 400,000 acres of the richest and most desirable lands in the Philippines," Martin says, "thereby reducing Filipinos to a state of peonage for the benefit of the sugar trust."

PAINFUL. The cocks have been crowing at all hours of the night of late. Last Monday night, about half-past twelve, a back-load of them crowded all along the road from Makapala to the road leading to Dr. Bond's and the Seminary. They were evidently young cocks that had not learned to crow very well.—Kohala Midget.

PROMISES IN MANCHURIA.

When all the facts and circumstances are sifted out, which they ought to be at next session of the Legislature if not before then by investigation of the Executive, the troubles now being experienced with the Russian immigrants will probably be chargeable more to the distributing arrangements here than to the recruiting operations in Manchuria. Mr. Perelstous brought a small number of Russians here to show what they were like, and they were placed on plantations as an experiment. Generally, good reports came back from the employers about them. Then, on the strength of results, Mr. Atkinson was sent to Manchuria to aid Mr. Perelstous in recruiting the people on a larger scale.

Mr. Atkinson was thoroughly informed respecting the policy of the government of Hawaii—a policy approved repeatedly by the government of the United States under three presidents—which was to procure labor immigration of elements capable of early assimilation into American citizenship, and to give immigrants of that class a stake in the soil which would ensure a permanent supply of agricultural workers from which an intelligent and substantial body of independent settlers, developing varied industries, should naturally emanate. Not only was Mr. Atkinson conversant with the government side of the policy, but he was perfectly cognizant of the part the planters were prepared to play. It was an item in the policy of "manning the land"—to paraphrase a motto often in Mr. Atkinson's mouth when he was lieutenant or acting chief of the Executive—that European labor immigrants were to be domiciled on homesteads at the place of their employment. If, therefore, Mr. Atkinson told the people in Manchuria that they were to have a patch of ground under their feet and elbow room around them in their domiciles upon the plantations, he did not thereby override his commission nor make promises that he had reason to believe were deceptive.

Equally unlikely is it that the Hawaiian agent made any promises about the rate of wages here which were not authorized. At least until facts to justify it are presented, all talk about misrepresentation in Manchuria should be dismissed.

PERFORMANCES IN HAWAII.

It has been shown, under another heading, that the promise of home plots to European labor immigrants might have been, and probably was, made to the Russians in Manchuria, also, if such were the case, that the promise was merely in accord with the declared policy of the government of Hawaii. How has the promise been kept? A staff correspondent of the morning paper, writing about the first arrivals of Russians who were placed on Kauai plantations, says:

As a matter of fact, they are getting the regular wage of $22 a month, and instead of each family having an acre of land, they are crowded so closely together that there is no land for any of them to cultivate. Six or eight cottages are on one acre, instead of only one cottage. As for their acquiring an acre apiece in fee, there is no more chance of that than there is of their being paid $48 a month. Makaweli is not so land rich as all that. In fact, in view of the reversion to the government in about three years of a large portion of the land now planted in cane by Makaweli, the plantation could not afford to carry out any such promise, even if it had been made.

In the same correspondence, Mr. Fairchild, a plantation manager who, as a senator of Hawaii, aided in the legislation formulated to carry out the governmental policy of settling white labor on the land, is quoted as condemning the Russian experiment in its very inception and advocating a reversion to Portuguese immigration, with exclusion of all else. In this advocacy he practically admits that the furnishing of home plots to white labor immigrants is an integral and essential part of Hawaiian public policy. If, then, the Russians first arriving here were rushed into employment on plantations without any arrangement for domiciling their families in houses attached to soil enough to yield a portion of their sustenance, they have a right to be discontented and the Board of Immigration has no reason to complain if they influence the newcomers of their countrymen against taking plantation work until they secure a clear understanding of all the conditions.

Regarding the complaints relative to wages, the cost of necessities and the relative purchasing power of American and Russian money, it is not surprising if the Russians have found that some things here are not up to their expectations, no matter how careful and honest the recruiting agents in Manchuria may have been in representing the conditions. Emigrants no more than tourists can learn everything they would like to know about the lands of their destination until after they have seen and experienced for themselves. Yet right here it is to be feared that efforts on the part of the local authorities to aid the Russians in understanding their new surroundings and arriving at a fair stage of contentment have not been exhausted. In the specific matter of providing for interpreters at this end of the line, the Board of Immigration registered a failure that has been as harmful as anything else to the whole enterprise. Governmental experience here should have caused avoidance of this mistake. One of the things that brought the immigration convention with Japan many years ago into smooth working order was the provision, wisely stipulated by the government of Japan, for Japanese interpreters and inspectors upon each of the islands. While in present circumstances such an international arrangement is not practicable, the principle of just and kindly treatment of aliens invited to the country yet stands good. Any policy based on a different principle will not only discredit Hawaii in the countries to which it may look for desirable acquisitions of population, but it will tend to destroy the confidence in Hawaiian immigration enterprise which has been gratifyingly apparent in Washington ever since annexation. Hawaii has American honor to sustain here in this matter, so that it is doubly a case of noblesse oblige.

It is far from correct to attribute dense ignorance, or even crude unsophistication, to the Russian immigrants, at least in the mass. As a matter of course, they generally lack a knowledge of American ways, but many of them are skilled tradesmen, and some well educated and highly intelligent. The rapidity with which they are picking up acquaintance with the English language, in observed cases, is something remarkable.

If the coastwise law had anything to show in benefit to American shipping for all these years, the zeal of its champions to have it maintained without modification might be somewhat explicable.

Mr. Osborne's fears regarding the attitude of the lumber merchants

Yet all citizens who desire progress and reform in these matters ought to neglect no opportunity of promoting a favorable public opinion for these measures and bringing it to bear in the right place. Wholesome legislation has often been prevented, here as well as elsewhere, through the manifestation of active interest therein only by its opponents.

MERCHANTS SEND CONGRATULATIONS

MR. AND MRS. ALEXANDER YOUNG REMEMBERED ON WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

At the last regular meeting of the Merchants' Association a resolution was unanimously adopted instructing the secretary to transmit on this date to Hon. and Mrs. Alexander Young an engrossed copy of a memorial of congratulations to them on arriving at their Golden Wedding anniversary.

The secretary was unable to have the engrossed copy prepared in time, but transmitted a duplicate of the original and will follow it up with the more elaborate copy later on. Following was the memorial:

"To Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Young, Honolulu, Hawaii.

"The Directors of the Merchants' Association of Honolulu desire to extend their compliments and congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Young, on the occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary, accompanied by their hearty wishes for long continued good health and happiness. The Merchants' Association takes this opportunity to express its appreciation of the valued services of Mr. Young as an enterprising public spirited citizen—at times an honored public official—during nearly half a century of life in the Hawaiian Islands. It recognizes his worth as the organizer, and for long the manager of one of the leading establishments of the Islands, one that has been a most important factor in the development of our main industry. The Territorial community is deeply appreciative of the splendid enterprise he has shown in giving to this port of the Mid-Pacific a great modern hotel that would be a credit to any American metropolis. He has not only anticipated the growth of our city, but has helped such growth to an extent that can hardly be exaggerated.

"The Merchants' Association feels that it expresses the earnest senti-

GOOD DEMAND FOR ACTIVE STOCKS

BIG SALE OF PAAUHAAU AND LARGE BOND DEALS ARE FEATURES OF TODAY.

The session of the Stock Exchange this morning was short but considerable business was done. In general, the market was about the same as on Saturday, slight weakness being shown at some points, to be offset by renewed strength at others. Demand remains vigorous, although there seems more disposition to sell than at the opening of last week. This is traceable to no important cause, and might be changed by the receipt of "good news" or buying orders from any quarter.

A feature this morning was the report on the board of the sale by R. W. Shingle to A. J. Campbell of $80,000 Hawaiian Irrigation six per cent bonds at $102. These bonds were put on the market originally at $93, so that the sale at $102 is extremely gratifying to those interested. On the board this morning $101.75 was bid for more of the bonds, but holders were demanding $102.50.

Another sale on the boards that attracted attention was that of $2,000 Olaa sixes at $94.75—interesting for the reason that the issue was made at $95. On the board $94.50 was bid, while more of the bonds were offered at $94.75.

A third sale of particular moment was that of 500 shares Paauhau at $80.125. It was reported that the stock was for San Francisco, but Mr. Shingle, who purchased it through Halstead & Company, stated that it was for local clients. Another sale of 30 shares was made at the same, following in the wake of the big transaction.

Both of these sales had been preceded by transfers of 10, 20 and 30 shares at $80.25. At the close of the session only $30 was being bid, while holders demanded $30.50—quite a difference.

Hawaiian Commercial sold below the market on the streets, but pulled up again on the board this morning and is now in a fair way to go higher than ever. Street sales were 50, 125, 15 and 15 shares at $41.50, while on 'Change 50 and 50 shares sold at $41.625. Toward the end of the session the advance came, the figure last given being offered for the stock while holders had pulled up to $41.75. The markee is now firm a hose figure.

Quite a few shares of Olaa were sold between boards at $7.125, but there seemed to be a falling away in the period over Sunday, the stock being $7.125 and $7.125 asked this morning. A total of 335 shares changed hands at the figure first given, all the sales being of the street.

Eighty shares of Ewa sold between boards at $35.50, and more can be had for the same. The bid figure on 'Change was $35.25.

A sale of 15 shares McBryde was reported at $7.25 at which the stock seems to be firm. The same is offered for more, but holders this morning were demanding $7.375.

Hutchinson, which has been active lately sold at $18.75, two blocks of 50 shares each changing hands. At the close $18.625 was bid and three quarters asked.

Ten shares Onomea sold between boards at $53.75. For the stock $53.50 was bid, but holders demanded $54.125.

HOW THEY HANDLE STOCKS ON KAUAI

C. H. Cooke and John Waterhouse returned yesterday from Kauai, they having gone over there earlier in the past week to look over homestead and other subjects. The investigations in hand were general in character, and not of public interest at present.

The delegation brought back with them an interesting story of how they buy and sell stocks on Kauai. As in some other well regulated marts, no stocks are actually handled; but the enterprising speculators bet on what such or such stock will be when the next steamer arrives from Honolulu. Big interest is taken in the game, and considerable money is frequently involved.

This information should be highly satisfactory to local stock manipulators for now, when criticized, they can point a finger to the northwest and say: "No, not us; it's Kauai you are thinking about."

UNUSUAL NUMBER OF DEEDS FILED

LARGEST REGISTRATION OF TRANSFERS IN EIGHT YEARS, REPORTS MR. MERRIAM.

Charles H. Merriam, registrar of conveyances, is just now one of the busiest men in Honolulu. For more than a month he has felt called upon to give up his evening hours to business, working up to 9 and 10 o'clock. Even at that it has been a hard matter to handle the flood of papers coming into the office from day to day.

"Up to now," said the Registrar today, "the business of the office has exceeded that of any like period in eight years from one half upward. And of course it exceeds the business of years ago many times over. I am beginning to wonder when the storm of papers arriving for record will abate. If it continues on in this way, the showing for the present year will be something remarkable."

"The surprising thing to me is the large excess of deeds over the same months of past years. It seems to me that this, more than anything else I know of, is proof of the substantial character of business in the community. It shows that the people have the money, and that they are putting it into permanent propositions."

"In past years most of the papers coming into the office were mortgages and papers of a similar nature. Now deeds have the lead. And they are not foreclosure deeds, either. They represent the straight buying and selling of property. Surely the situation is a very gratifying and promising one."

ISLAND RECORDS CLOSEHAULED

With weather conditions, as near perfect as possible, the second inter-scholastic track meet between the High School and Punahou was held on Alexander Field Saturday afternoon before a large body of students.

FIRST YACHTING EVENT.

The first yachting event of the season will be held on Sunday March 20 at which time the different craft will steer for Pearl Harbor were a number of interesting events will be held.

SEASON'S SHOOT.

The first shoot of the season, under the auspices of the Hawaiian Gun Club, was held yesterday on the Ka-naako range, the honors of the day going to J. W. Harvey who won the Selby and E. O. Hall cups, a gold medal and two other prizes which had been hung up for the many events.

N. G. H. IS NOT "N. G."

Again the baseball team of the National Guards have shown that they know something about the national game, as they journeyed down to Schofield Barracks yesterday and defeated the crack 5th Cavalry team by a score of 7 to 3.

TENNIS.

Before a good representation of society, the opening tournament of the new Neighborhood Tennis Club was held on Saturday afternoon on the club's new courts. A number of the crack players of the city who have been out of tennis for a long time made their reappearance and were wildly applauded.

SPORTING NOTES.

Wednesday evening on the hand-ball courts of the Y. M. C. A. the team of McKinley High School will start a tournament which should bring out a number of good players.

Last night at the Princess rink Joe Forrest, the champion skater, proved that he is in a class by himself, defeating five of the best skaters in the Territory in a five mile race by over 20 seconds.

A return game of roller polo between the Marines and the club which holds forth at the rink, is a coming event. In the first game the Marines won, but the Princess team feel confident that they can turn the tables on Camp Very.

The White baseball team which journeyed down to Waipahu on Saturday, defeated the plantation team by the close score of 5-4.

The yacht Hawaii to represent Hawaii in the coming ocean race from San Pedro, on July 4th, is going to make a very much better showing if the members of the club have anything to say about it.

Wall has stated that she is not rigged according to his plans, and, if she had been, a far different result would have been seen in her first race, and in subsequent cruises.

All secretaries of athletic clubs and schools are requested to send in any sporting notes they wish published to the Sporting Editor of The Star, before 9:30 a. m.

OPERATION HER ONLY CHANCE

Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Adrian, Ga. - "I suffered untold misery from a female weakness and disease, and I could not stand more than a minute at a time. My doctor said an operation was the only chance I had, and I dreaded it almost as much as death. One day I was reading how other women had been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and decided to try it. Before I had taken one bottle I was better, and now I am completely cured."

Why will women take chances with an operation or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion, and nervous prostration.

BANKER STIRS TALK OF WAR WITH JAPAN

BLOODY CLASHES IN PHILADELPHIA—SENATOR PLATT DEAD. MILLIONAIRES FIGHT.

(Associated Press Morning Service.)
NEW YORK, March 6.—That war with Japan is not only a possibility but is imminent is the opinion expressed by Jacob Schiff, famous New York banker, and by Mayor Sulzberger, presiding judge of the court of common pleas of Philadelphia.

Jacob Schiff before a Republican club last night declared that Japan has joined hands with Russia to keep the Chinese empire stifled; the far eastern question is the most important problem facing the United States today. He added:

"I regret to say it but there is grave danger of war between the United States and Japan as a result of the tenseness of the Far Eastern problem."

Judge Sulzberger declared that a controversy over the question of the dominance of the Pacific ocean is inevitable and that it is coming soon. He predicted that when the controversy does come up it will have to be settled by brute force.

ARTILLERY SENT FOR.

PHILADELPHIA, March 7.—Yesterday was marked by many bloody clashes between the strikers and the authorities, rioting being general. After dark, police and rioters, to the number of many hundreds, came together in a pitched battle in which the police fired a number of volleys over the heads of the mob and finally poured one into its front. Three men dropped dead and many were wounded. Among the latter is a woman who will die.

Following the shooting, the police charged with their clubs and split the ranks of the rioters.

The authorities are alarmed lest the mob attempt to loot the local branch of the United States mint; artillery has been sent for.

SENATOR PLATT DEAD.

NEW YORK, March 7.—Former United States Senator Thomas C. Pratt died at his home here yesterday from Bright's disease.

Thomas Collier Platt, for years the acknowledged boss of the Republican party of New York, had a remarkable career. He was born in Oswego, in 1833. His health forbidding the completion of his Yale course, he entered business and became president of the Tloga National Bank at its organization, in 1876. He began politics early and served first as clerk of Tioga County. In 1887 he was elected to the senate; being returned as a senator in 1897 and serving until last year. He was implicated in the insurance scandals just before his term expired.

SOCIALIST ROW.

BERLIN, March 7.—Police interfered in a Socialistic demonstration here yesterday, the Socialists attempting to retaliate by attacking the officials. The police charged the demonstrators, thirty of them being wounded.

COULON WINS FIGHT.

NEW ORLEANS, March 7.—Coulon won in his fight here yesterday with Keurick, knocking him out in the nineteenth round.

TELLS LIES SAYS WIFE.

KANSAS CITY, March 7.—"He ruined my home," exclaimed J. P. Cudahy, son of John Cudahy, the millionaire Chicago meat packer, to the police officers who rushed into his home yesterday and found him, with flood stained hands, kneeling over the body of J. F. Lillis, whom he had attacked and nearly killed. Lillis is a millionaire banker, a well known resident of this city, prominent in social and financial circles.

Mrs. Cudahy says that lies have been in circulation connecting her name with that of Lillis, lies which came to the ears of her husband.

POSTAL BILL PASSED.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—The postal savings bank bill passed the senate yesterday. As passed it authorizes the money order departments of the post offices to accept deposits which may in turn be deposited in local banks where they will remain.

drawing interest at the rate of two and a quarter per cent. Of the interest money two per cent will go to the depositor and one-quarter per cent will go to the government to reimburse it for expense.

KNOX MEETS WITH ANOTHER REBUFF

The nature of the British objection cannot yet be learned, but it is believed they are not basic and the way may yet be opened by subsequent negotiations which will clear away certain doubts in the British mind as to the scope of the proposed new court.
