Hilo Notes

[From our Special Correspondent.]

People returning to Hilo after an absence of a few years all ask the same question, "Where are your improvements? Hilo is just the same as it was years ago." There is but one answer to the question. "Honolulu has been built up and improved at the expense of Hilo."

There are however a few new stores which greatly improve the business part of the town. The Spreckels block is occupied by Mr. L. Turner, and is a very handsome store, as large as any in Honolulu. H. Hackfeld & Co. occupy a large two-story building, a branch of their Honolulu house. T. H. Davies & Co. have a branch establishment on Wai-anuene street; so also have W. C. Peacock & Co. F. M. Wakefield is building what will be the handsomest business block in Hilo, to be occupied by three stores on the ground floor, and offices above. Many new private residences are in course of construction both in Hilo and Puueo.

When Hilo has its breakwater, and a wharf where ships can come alongside with safety, there is no doubt but that the town will go ahead. The new wharf recently built by the Superintendent of Public Works, is called "Rowell's folly," and it certainly is a good name for such a useless structure. It is hardly safe for any vessel of deeper draft than a canoe to tie up to.

If we get a Republican form of government for the Islands, and Hilo has a municipal form of government, Honolulu will have to wait a long time before it gets any more money to keep up a band solely for the amusement of Honolulu people, or to pay for its system of sewerage or other extravagances. Those days are past. Attorney Galbraith, in an able speech, pointed out to the Commissioners the many ways in which the government in past years has slighted Hilo, and in an eloquent manner called the attention of those gentlemen to the beautiful harbor, and the vast extent of back country asked them to see that Hilo received fair play in the future.

A few days ago a laborer on the Honomu plantation was arrested for deserting contract service. At his trial the man offered no defense and Judge Hapai, upon hearing that it was the man's first offence, ordered him to return to his work. The man however, refused to do so, preferring to go to gaol rather than return to the plantation. He was accordingly sent to the Hilo gaol. Here is an instance of a man who has committed no crime against God or man being deprived of his liberty and sent to associate with criminals. Just before the trial the man removed his coat and showed a torn shirt sleeve and bruises upon his arm indicative of ill-treatment. It is to be hoped that the laws of the United States will soon put a stop to this form of slavery.

The City of Columbia arrived in Hilo early Tuesday morning, nine and a half days from Seattle. She brought freight and a few passengers for Hilo. This steamer is the first vessel that has come from a foreign port with a mail, freight and passengers direct to Hilo. It is understood that there will be a monthly service of steamers from Seattle to Hilo. Should this continue, other steamship companies will enter into competition and Hilo will become a very important place.

The Chinese Rebellion.

Discontent has been evident in various parts of the Empire for a long time past and it is said to be due to the weakness of the Central Government and the despotism of provincial officials. People of all classes are evincing a nasty disposition and one often hears hard words uttered about the corrupt Manchu dynasty and the way in which it has sacrificed Chinese interests.

It is reported that the Triad Society and the notorious Kaolao Hui (it was the latter that caused so much trouble in the Yangtze Valley in '91) are rejoicing at the golden opportunity which the weakness of the Government and the increased tyranny of the provincial officials has afforded them for fanning the flame of discontent. The Triad and Kaolao societies are said to be working on plans approved by their respective leaders and that is credible, for the signs of the times indicate that plans have been laid for a great upheaval in the south. Possibly the French are not wholly unconnected with the movement, and if not directly concerned have, at least, not taken every precaution possible to prevent arms and munitions of war getting over the Tonkin border into China. It may be too much to say that a huge revolution is underway, but it is certain that great restlessness prevails throughout South China and that every "move" should be noted and carefully investigated. Personally, I am of opinion that serious trouble is brewing and that emissaries of the Black Flags are stirring up revolt in every direction. —Hongkong Telegraph.

THE JUDICIARY OF THE FUTURE.

The Commissioners have invited the members of the legal fraternity to express their views as to a plan for the future judiciary system for this country, and the committee consisting of Hons. Paul Neumann and F. M. Hatch, with Mr. S. M. Ballou, as the choice of the Attorney-General and the existing regime, is perhaps as strong and as representative an one as could have been appointed under the circumstances and their decision will probably be acceptable to the brotherhood, if not to the litigant public.

If, as the more sanguine of us are entitled to hope from the invitation of the Commissioners to the Bar, we are to have some liberal form of territorial government then a system of quasi-home rule in our judiciary will be most gratifying at least to our vanity which most modestly considers ourselves to be the most favored salt of the earth, especially if we happen to belong to the missionary-blue-laws and family compact clique.

We see, however, danger to the best interests of the community ahead if the appointment of all the Supreme and Superior Judges is to be left in the hands of the governor of the territory and the Hawaiian Senate. There is more than the possibility, there is every probability that such a course would perpetuate in power the very ring, the very men, that the community has determined, if ever a franchise is accorded to it, to down and destroy at the polls until every vestige of their past political influence lives in memory alone. Of the Dole-Judd-Smith and Kauai faction the people are heartily tired, and wish to relegate them to private obscurity where they can enjoy their otium cum dignitate with satisfaction to all.

As a prominent man of brains in effect remarked at Thursday's meeting, "litigants don't care about running up against an opposition attorney on the Bench in addition to the opposing counsel," and while, perhaps, the stigma does not attach to present incumbents of the Bench, yet there will be more general satisfaction if the Judges of the Supreme Court are appointed by the President of the United States, and the Superior Judges and District Magistrates and Police Judges are elected by the people, although we do not, on principle, favor elective judges.

If we are not to have elective judges then we might concede the appointment of the Superior and Minor judges to the territorial ruler and his corporation-representing Senate, while the appointment of the Supreme Bench, as with the Federal Judges, is vested in the President of the United States.

It would also put a somewhat different complexion upon the question if we knew who was to be our first local ruler. If he is to be elected by the people we might trust the people, but we fear very much that with our commission of secrecy the wire pulling of the unpopular section in politics will be too strong for the people to anticipate anything like a full mead of justice at the hands of Congress for many years to come. It looks very much as if "popular rights" under the flag of liberty are only being trifled with to disguise the real intent.

The memorial of the Planters published this morning, accords with the views of the fourteen members of the Bar who adopted the resolutions published elsewhere, and discloses a plan of a territorial close corporation regime which will be more unsatisfactory to the people at large than even a government dictated absolutely by the authorities of the Mainland. Either give us the self-government or deprive us of it altogether. We are tired of rings and the control of the Oligarchs.

THE BAR'S DECISION.

The Present System of the Judiciary to be Retained if Congress Will Permit.

The adjourned meeting of members of the Bar was held this morning, the Attorney-General presiding. Messrs. Neumann, Hatch and Ballou presented the following report which after a long and thorough discussion was unanimously adopted and the committee subsequently presented them to the Commissioners in session:

HONOLULU, H. I., Sept 10, 1898.

To the Honorable Members of the Hawaiian Commission.

GENTLEMEN:—Acknowledging the honor of the invitation extended by the Commission to the Hawaiian Bar to express their views on the subject of the judicial system of Hawaii, we beg to submit;

That it is the sense of the Hawaiian Bar that the judicial system of Hawaii should be continued as nearly as possible as it exists at present without any unnecessary change, and we recommend;

First.—That the Supreme Court of Hawaii shall continue to be a court of last resort, excepting only as to such matters as may be within the jurisdiction of a Federal Court.

Second.—That a Federal Court be established in Hawaii with the same jurisdiction as that exercised by Federal Courts in the several States.

Third.—That the present system of a purely appellate Supreme Court and Circuit Courts for each Island, and District Courts for each District be preserved.

Fourth.—That the judges of all courts of record in the Territory other than the Federal Judge be appointed by the Governor of Hawaii, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate of Hawaii, to hold office according to the present tenures, and to receive such compensation from the revenues of the Territory as may be appropriated by the Territorial Legislature.

The Attorney-General having reported the death of Hon. Antone Rosa, a committee consisting of the Attorney-General, Enoch Johnson and Hon. Cecil Brown was appointed to draft memorial resolutions for presentation to the Supreme Court at the opening day of next session.

The Attorney-General having suggested the desirability of organizing a Bar Association, Mr. S. M. Ballou was appointed a committee to ascertain the plan of organization adopted by the American Bar Association, and to report at a special meeting to be called for the purpose of discussing the matter.

Tips on the Race.

Betting on the boat races has been very lively during the past few days although no quotations have been made on 'Change, the boat clubs not yet having listed. Healanis is favorite and 5 to 4 are freely given to the Myrtle men by the Healanis. The Leilani backers are not discouraged by the rush for the money of their competitors. They are confident that their boat will not come in more than two minutes behind the Healanis.

At noon betting was even between the Myrtles and Healanis and just before the races start the Myrtles will follow their old game and give odds to the Healanis. THE INDEPENDENT'S annual tip, which has cost many a sportsman some dollars, is this year to back the Myrtles in the senior race—and do the same in the junior. We ask no commission, even from those who take our "sure thing" tip and wine.

A FATALITY AVOIDED.

From the Democrat, Goshen, Ind.

When neuralgia is accompanied by a dull, heavy pain near the heart, frequently becoming intense, it generally terminates fatally. Mrs. Nancy Flynn, who lives near Goshen, Indiana, survived such an attack and her advice is worth heeding.

"In the fall of '92," she said, "I began to have trouble with my heart. There was a sharp pain in my breast which became rapidly worse. The doctor was puzzled and put me under the influence of opiates. These sharp attacks followed one another at intervals and I became weak and had a haggard look. I was constantly in pain, seldom slept and had no appetite.

"At the end of two years I was confined to my couch most of the time and the doctors agreed that my death was only a matter of a short time.

"One day I noticed in a newspaper an item about a woman having been cured of neuralgia of the heart by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I concluded to try them.

"When I had finished one box I noticed an improvement in my condition, and when I had taken twelve boxes I was completely cured. Those pills have done for you what we could not do," said one of my physicians, "they have saved your life."

"That was five years ago and my heart has not troubled me since. I believe I owe my life to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I take pleasure in telling others about them."

Among the many forms of neuralgia are headache, nervousness, paralysis, apoplexy and locomotor ataxia. Some of these were considered incurable until Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were formulated. To-day thousands testify to having been cured of such diseases by these pills.

THE PERFECT PLOWS

In all agricultural countries it is on a good plow that the tiller of the soil relies for a good crop. We carry all kinds of plows from the large

to the smallest

Rice Plows

But it is on our

Plantation Breaking

AND

that we chiefly pride ourselves. These are in use on nearly every plantation on the Islands. Only within the last three weeks we have sold a number of the large plows to take the place of plows from other firms which had been returned as unsatisfactory.

The great advantage of the Perfect plow is that it requires less animals to draw it, and cuts an excellent furrow without digging down.

Laid at Rest.

The funeral of the late Hon. Antone Rosa took place yesterday afternoon from the Roman Catholic Church, and was attended by a number of prominent citizens, the friends of the deceased. The Bishop of Panopolis officiated in the church and Father Valentine at the grave. The short notice of the death and funeral of Antone Rosa prevented numerous people from attending the last sad rites. Royalty, in the cause of which the late prominent Hawaiian had battled, and which he had so faithfully served, was conspicuous by its absence. There was probably a luau going on somewhere. The Government was represented by the Attorney-General, and the band played at the grave, while the funeral procession was headed by a detachment of police. The interment took place at the Catholic Cemetery on King street in the plot where the mother and aunt of the deceased rest.

SUMA MATSU

A Japanese Nobleman's Daughter on the Steamer A Foster Child of the Gulicks

A Cincinnati dispatch of July 16th said: For several weeks Miss Matsu Honjo (that is her Japanese name) has made her home in Cincinnati. The name she has adopted is Katherine Agnes Gulick. She is the daughter of a Japanese nobleman and an American mother. In 1876 Count Honjo of Japan married Miss Emma Tyler, who was of a branch of President Tyler's family and a Virginian by birth and rearing. The marriage took place in Philadelphia. The only child of the union is the young lady now here. Her mother was a lady of much beauty and brilliancy, and the daughter inherits both. Count Honjo remained in this country until his death, which occurred a few years after his daughter was born. The Count's family never fully forgave him for his alliance with the American lady. When Suma Matsu was 4 years old her mother died. Her Japanese grandparents then sent for her. On board the ship Old Belgic, which conveyed the little lady to Japan, Rev. O. H. Gulick and wife, both missionaries, were returning to Japan from the United States. They formed an attachment for Suma Matsu, and being childless persuaded her grandparents in Japan to allow them to adopt her. Her name was changed to Katherine Agnes Gulick, to which she still holds. She lived ten years in Japan with her foster parents, and then went with them to Honolulu. They remained there eight months, when they came to Oberlin, Ohio, to visit relatives of the Gulicks. Katherine was placed in the Western College at Oxford, Ohio, where she remained one year, and then came to Cincinnati and attended the Walnut Hills Institute for two sessions. While at Oxford she decided to embrace the Catholic faith. This angered and astonished her foster parents, the Gulicks, who are Congregationalists. They gave her the choice of giving up Catholicism or of being disowned by them after she was 18 years old. She clung to her faith, took her first communion on her 18th birthday and was disowned. She still corresponds with them, but for two years they have not assisted her. She still has an affection for them. Realizing that she had to support herself, she taught music and elocution, and for the past two years she has been able to attend the College of Music. Miss Gulick's ambition is for the stage. She wants to sing in comic opera. Some time ago she made her debut at the Pike Opera House in "The Wife," taking the part of a maid. She was a great success, and is to be given a regular gart next season.—Japan Gazette.

Won His Bet.

It is one of the proud boasts of Lord Charles Beresford that he can ride or drive anything. One day he may be seen tooling a four in hand, the next scurrying across country on a hunter or riding a bicycle. Perhaps the most curious ride Lord Charles ever had, however, was on a water cart, and thereby hangs a tale. He had wagered that he would drive down Kotten row in broad daylight, and, as our readers know, vehicles are forbidden in the row. At the appointed time the other party to the wager, with a few friends, took up a position to see if Lord Charles would attempt the feat. While they waited a water cart came along, and some of the party were liberally sprinkled with none too clean water. The victims protested in forcible terms, when, to their unbounded astonishment, the outskirts of the driver were pushed back, revealing the merry features of the popular sailor. "Hand over that hundred, old fellow!" he remarked calmly. Lord Charles had squared the driver of the water cart, and had won his wager.—London Answers.

Hilo Notes

[From our Special Correspondent.]

People returning to Hilo after an absence of a few years all ask the same question, "Where are your improvements? Hilo is just the same as it was years ago." There is but one answer to the question. "Honolulu has been built up and improved at the expense of Hilo."

There are however a few new stores which greatly improve the business part of the town. The Spreckels block is occupied by Mr. L. Turner, and is a very handsome store, as large as any in Honolulu. H. Hackfeld & Co. occupy a large two-story building, a branch of their Honolulu house. T. H. Davies & Co. have a branch establishment on Wai-anuenue street; so also have W. C. Peacock & Co. F. M. Wakefield is building what will be the handsomest business block in Hilo, to be occupied by three stores on the ground floor, and offices above. Many new private residences are in course of construction both in Hilo and Puueo.

When Hilo has its breakwater, and a wharf where ships can come alongside with safety, there is no doubt but that the town will go ahead. The new wharf recently built by the Superintendent of Public Works, is called "Rowell's folly," and it certainly is a good name for such a useless structure. It is hardly safe for any vessel of deeper draft than a canoe to tie up to.

If we get a Republican form of government for the Islands, and Hilo has a municipal form of government, Honolulu will have to wait a long time before it gets any more money to keep up a band solely for the amusement of Honolulu people, or to pay for its system of sewerage or other extravagances. Those days are past. Attorney Galbraith, in an able speech, pointed out to the Commissioners the many ways in which the government in past years has slighted Hilo, and in an eloquent manner called the attention of those gentlemen to the beautiful harbor, and the vast extent of back country asked them to see that Hilo received fair play in the future.

A few days ago a laborer on the Honomu plantation was arrested for deserting contract service. At his trial the man offered no defence and Judge Hapai, upon hearing that it was the man's first offence, ordered him to return to his work. The man however, refused to do so, preferring to go to gaol rather than return to the plantation. He was accordingly sent to the Hilo gaol. Here is an instance of a man who has committed no crime against God or man being deprived of his liberty and sent to associate with criminals. Just before the trial the man removed his coat and showed a torn shirt sleeve and bruises upon his arm indicative of ill-treatment. It is to be hoped that the laws of the United States will soon put a stop to this form of slavery.

The City of Columbia arrived in Hilo early Tuesday morning, nine and a half days from Seattle. She brought freight and a few passengers for Hilo. This steamer is the first vessel that has come from a foreign port with a mail, freight and passengers direct to Hilo. It is understood that there will be a monthly service of steamers from Seattle to Hilo. Should this continue, other steamship companies will enter into competition and Hilo will become a very important place.

The Chinese Rebellion.

Discontent has been evident in various parts of the Empire for a long time past and it is said to be due to the weakness of the Central Government and the despotism of provincial officials. People of all classes are evincing a nasty disposition and one often hears hard words uttered about the corrupt Manchu dynasty and the way in which it has sacrificed Chinese interests.

It is reported that the Triad Society and the notorious Kaolao Hui (it was the latter that caused so much trouble in the Yangtze Valley in '91) are rejoicing at the golden opportunity which the weakness of the Government and the increased tyranny of the provincial officials has afforded them for fanning the flame of discontent. The Triad and Kaolao societies are said to be working on plans approved by their respective leaders and that is credible, for the signs of the times indicate that plans have been laid for a great upheaval in the south. Possibly the French are not wholly unconnected with the movement, and if not directly concerned have, at least, not taken every precaution possible to prevent arms and munitions of war getting over the Tonkin border into China. It may be too much to say that a huge revolution is underway, but it is certain that great restlessness prevails throughout South China and that every "move" should be noted and carefully investigated. Personally, I am of opinion that serious trouble is brewing and that emissaries of the Black Flags are stirring up revolt in every direction. —Hongkong Telegraph.

THE JUDICIARY OF THE FUTURE.

The Commissioners have invited the members of the legal fraternity to express their views as to a plan for the future judiciary system for this country, and the committee consisting of Hons. Paul Neumann and F. M. Hatch, with Mr. S. M. Ballou, as the choice of the Attorney-General and the existing regime, is perhaps as strong and as representative an one as could have been appointed under the circumstances and their decision will probably be acceptable to the brotherhood, if not to the litigant public.

If, as the more sanguine of us are entitled to hope from the invitation of the Commissioners to the Bar, we are to have some liberal form of territorial government then a system of quasi-home rule in our judiciary will be most gratifying at least to our vanity which most modestly considers ourselves to be the most favored salt of the earth, especially if we happen to belong to the missionary-blue-laws and family compact clique.

We see, however, danger to the best interests of the community ahead if the appointment of all the Supreme and Superior Judges is to be left in the hands of the governor of the territory and the Hawaiian Senate. There is more than the possibility, there is every probability that such a course would perpetuate in power the very ring, the very men, that the community has determined, if ever a franchise is accorded to it, to down and destroy at the polls until every vestige of their past political influence lives in memory alone. Of the Dole-Judd-Smith and Kauai faction the people are heartily tired, and wish to relegate them to private obscurity where they can enjoy their otium cum dignitate with satisfaction to all.

As a prominent man of brains in effect remarked at Thursday's meeting, "litigants don't care about running up against an opposition attorney on the Bench in addition to the opposing counsel," and while, perhaps, the stigma does not attach to present incumbents of the Bench, yet there will be more general satisfaction if the Judges of the Supreme Court are appointed by the President of the United States, and the Superior Judges and District Magistrates and Police Judges are elected by the people, although we do not, on principle, favor elective judges.

If we are not to have elective judges then we might concede the appointment of the Superior and Minor judges to the territorial ruler and his corporation-representing Senate, while the appointment of the Supreme Bench, as with the Federal Judges, is vested in the President of the United States.

It would also put a somewhat different complexion upon the question if we knew who was to be our first local ruler. If he is to be elected by the people we might trust the people, but we fear very much that with our commission of secrecy the wire pulling of the unpopular section in politics will be too strong for the people to anticipate anything like a full mead of justice at the hands of Congress for many years to come. It looks very much as if "popular rights" under the flag of liberty are only being trifled with to disguise the real intent.

The memorial of the Planters published this morning, accords with the views of the fourteen members of the Bar who adopted the resolutions published elsewhere, and discloses a plan of a territorial close corporation regime which will be more unsatisfactory to the people at large than even a government dictated absolutely by the authorities of the Mainland. Either give us the self-government or deprive us of it altogether. We are tired of rings and the control of the Oligarchs.

THE BAR'S DECISION.

The Present System of the Judiciary to be Retained if Congress Will Permit.

The adjourned meeting of members of the Bar was held this morning, the Attorney-General presiding. Messrs. Neumann, Hatch and Ballou presented the following report which after a long and thorough discussion was unanimously adopted and the committee subsequently presented them to the Commissioners in session:

HONOLULU, H. I., Sept 10, 1898.

To the Honorable Members of the Hawaiian Commission.

GENTLEMEN:—Acknowledging the honor of the invitation extended by the Commission to the Hawaiian Bar to express their views on the subject of the judicial system of Hawaii, we beg to submit:

That it is the sense of the Hawaiian Bar that the judicial system of Hawaii should be continued as nearly as possible as it exists at present without any unnecessary change, and we recommend:

First.—That the Supreme Court of Hawaii shall continue to be a court of last resort, excepting only as to such matters as may be within the jurisdiction of a Federal Court.

Second.—That a Federal Court be established in Hawaii with the same jurisdiction as that exercised by Federal Courts in the several States.

Third.—That the present system of a purely appellate Supreme Court and Circuit Courts for each Island, and District Courts for each District be preserved.

Fourth.—That the judges of all courts of record in the Territory other than the Federal Judge be appointed by the Governor of Hawaii, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate of Hawaii, to hold office according to the present tenures, and to receive such compensation from the revenues of the Territory as may be appropriated by the Territorial Legislature.

The Attorney-General having reported the death of Hon. Antone Rosa, a committee consisting of the Attorney-General, Enoch Johnson and Hon. Cecil Brown was appointed to draft memorial resolutions for presentation to the Supreme Court at the opening day of next session.

The Attorney-General having suggested the desirability of organizing a Bar Association, Mr. S. M. Ballou was appointed a committee to ascertain the plan of organization adopted by the American Bar Association, and to report at a special meeting to be called for the purpose of discussing the matter.

Tips on the Race.

Betting on the boat races has been very lively during the past few days although no quotations have been made on 'Change, the boat clubs not yet having listed. Healanis is favorite and 5 to 4 are freely given to the Myrtle men by the Healanis. The Leilani backers are not discouraged by the rush for the money of their competitors. They are confident that their boat will not come in more than two minutes behind the Healanis.

At noon betting was even between the Myrtles and Healanis and just before the races start the Myrtles will follow their old game and give odds to the Healanis. THE INDEPENDENT'S annual tip, which has cost many a sportsman some dollars, is this year to back the Myrtles in the senior race—and do the same in the junior. We ask no commission, even from those who take our "sure thing" tip and wine.

A FATALITY AVOIDED.

From the Democrat, Goshen, Ind.
When neuralgia is accompanied by a dull, heavy pain near the heart, frequently becoming intense, it generally terminates fatally. Mrs. Nancy Flynn, who lives near Goshen, Indiana, survived such an attack and her advice is worth heeding.

"In the fall of '92," she said, "I began to have trouble with my heart. There was a sharp pain in my breast which became rapidly worse. The doctor was puzzled and put me under the influence of opiates. These sharp attacks followed one another at intervals and I became weak and had a haggard look. I was constantly in pain, seldom slept and had no appetite.

"At the end of two years I was confined to my couch most of the time and the doctors agreed that my death was only a matter of a short time.

"One day I noticed in a newspaper an item about a woman having been cured of neuralgia of the heart by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I concluded to try them.

"When I had finished one box I noticed an improvement in my condition, and when I had taken twelve boxes I was completely cured. Those pills have done for you what we could not do," said one of my physicians, "they have saved your life."

"That was five years ago and my heart has not troubled me since. I believe I owe my life to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I take pleasure in telling others about them."

Among the many forms of neuralgia are headache, nervousness, paralysis, apoplexy and locomotor ataxia. Some of these were considered incurable until Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were formulated. To-day thousands testify to having been cured of such diseases by these pills.

THE PERFECT PLOWS

In all agricultural countries it is on a good plow that the tiller of the soil relies for a good crop. We carry all kinds of plows from the large

to the smallest

Rice Plows

But it is on our

Plantation Breaking

AND

that we chiefly pride ourselves. These are in use on nearly every plantation on the Islands. Only within the last three weeks we have sold a number of the large plows to take the place of plows from other firms which had been returned as unsatisfactory.

The great advantage of the Perfect plow is that it requires less animals to draw it, and cuts an excellent furrow without digging down.

Laid at Rest.

The funeral of the late Hon. Antone Rosa took place yesterday afternoon from the Roman Catholic Church, and was attended by a number of prominent citizens, the friends of the deceased. The Bishop of Paupolis officiated in the church and Father Valentine at the grave. The short notice of the death and funeral of Antone Rosa prevented numerous people from attending the last sad rites. Royalty, in the cause of which the late prominent Hawaiian had battled, and which he had so faithfully served, was conspicuous by its absence. There was probably a luau going on somewhere. The Government was represented by the Attorney-General, and the band played at the grave, while the funeral procession was headed by a detachment of police. The interment took place at the Catholic Cemetery on King street in the plot where the mother and aunt of the deceased rest.

SUMA MATSU

A Japanese Nobleman's Daughter on the Steamer Foster Child of the Quicks

A Cincinnati dispatch of July 16th said: For several weeks Miss Matsu Honjo (that is her Japanese name) has made her home in Cincinnati. The name she has adopted is Katherine Agnes Gulick. She is the daughter of a Japanese nobleman and an American mother. In 1876 Count Honjo of Japan married Miss Emma Tyler, who was of a branch of President Tyler's family and a Virginian by birth and rearing. The marriage took place in Philadelphia. The only child of the union is the young lady now here. Her mother was a lady of much beauty and brilliancy, and the daughter inherits both. Count Honjo remained in this country until his death, which occurred a few years after his daughter was born. The Count's family never fully forgave him for his alliance with the American lady. When Suma Matsu was 4 years old her mother died. Her Japanese grandparents then sent for her. On board the ship Old Belgic, which conveyed the little lady to Japan, Rev. O. H. Gulick and wife, both missionaries, were returning to Japan from the United States. They formed an attachment for Suma Matsu, and being childless persuaded her grandparents in Japan to allow them to adopt her. Her name was changed to Katherine Agnes Gulick, to which she still holds. She lived ten years in Japan with her foster parents, and then went with them to Honolulu. They remained there eight months, when they came to Oberlin, Ohio, to visit relatives of the Gulicks. Katherine was placed in the Western College at Oxford, Ohio, where she remained one year, and then came to Cincinnati and attended the Walnut Hills Institute for two sessions. While at Oxford she decided to embrace the Catholic faith. This angered and astonished her foster parents, the Gulicks, who are Congregationalists. They gave her the choice of giving up Catholicism or of being disowned by them after she was 18 years old. She clung to her faith, took her first communion on her 18th birthday and was disowned. She still corresponds with them, but for two years they have not assisted her. She still has an affection for them. Realizing that she had to support herself, she taught music and elocution, and for the past two years she has been able to attend the College of Music. Miss Gulick's ambition is for the stage. Some time ago she made her debut at the Pike Opera House in "The Wife," taking the part of a maid. She was a great success, and is to be given a regular part next season.—Japan Gazette.

Won His Bet.

It is one of the proud boasts of Lord Charles Beresford that he can ride or drive anything. One day he may be seen tooling a four in hand, the next scurrying across country on a hunter or riding a bicycle. Perhaps the most curious ride Lord Charles ever had, however, was on a water cart, and thereby hangs a tale. He had wagered that he would drive down Rotten row in broad daylight, and as our readers know, vehicles are forbidden in the row. At the appointed time the other party to the wager, with a few friends, took up a position to see if Lord Charles would attempt the feat. While they waited a water cart came along, and some of the party were liberally sprinkled with none too clean water. The victims protested in forcible terms, when, to their unbounded astonishment, the outskirts of the driver were pushed back, revealing the merry features of the popular sailor. "Hand over that hundred, old fellow!" he remarked calmly. Lord Charles had squared the driver of the water cart, and had won his wager.—London Answers.
