Krueger Quits and Flies.

LONDON, September 14.—The following dispatch has been received at the War Office from Lord Roberts:

MADRAS, September 13.—Krueger has formally resigned the position which he held as President of the South African Republic, thus severing his official connection with the Transvaal.

NEW YORK, September 14.—A San cable from Rome says: A Lorenzo Marquez dispatch to the capital says the Dutch Consul at that place telegraphed to the Consul of the Netherlands at Messina to hire a villa for President Krueger in Sicily.

LONDON, September 12.—The flight of President Krueger from what is now designated as the Vaal River Colony and his arrival last night at Lorenzo Marquez are regarded here as indicative of an early end of the hostilities in South Africa. Another message from Lorenzo Marquez says the Transvaal States officials accompanied President Krueger in Portuguese territory.

LONDON, September 15.—According to the Lorenzo Marquez correspondent of the "Daily Telegraph," Mr. Krueger is virtually a prisoner in the residence of the District Governor. This is at the instance of the British Consul, who protested against Mr. Krueger using Portuguese territory as a base for directing his executive affairs.

LORENZO MARQUES, September 16.—Boers who arrived here yesterday evening aver that the Burgers are fighting among themselves at Hellspruit and are looting and burning outposts.

Galveston Destroyed.

Houston, Texas, Sept. 10.—Richard Spilane has just arrived here and says:

"One of the most awful tragedies of modern times has visited Galveston. The city is in ruins and the dead will probably number a thousand.

"The storm began about 2 o'clock Saturday morning. Previous to that a great storm had been raging in the gulf and the tide was very high. The wind at first came from the north and was in direct opposition to the force from the gulf. While the storm in the gulf piled the water upon the beach side of the city the north wind piled the water from the bay on the bay part of the city. The wind and the water rose steadily from dark until 1:45 o'clock Sunday morning. During all this time the people of Galveston were like rats in traps. The highest portion of the city was four to five feet under water, while in the great majority of cases the streets were submerged to a depth of ten feet. To leave a house was to drown. To remain was to court death in the wreckage.

"Such a night of agony has seldom been equaled. Without apparent reason the water began to subside at 1:45 a. m. Within two minutes it had gone down two feet and before daylight the streets were practically freed of flood waters. In the meantime the wind had veered to the southeast. Very few if any buildings escaped injury. There is hardly a habitable dry house left.

DALLAS (TEX.), Sept. 11.—A horrible story is told by Dallas citizens who returned tonight from Galveston. They declare that negroes and many white persons are hourly committing the most atrocious acts of vandalism. J. N. Griswold, division freight agent of the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe Railroad, who was in that city during the storm and had a narrow escape from death, said:

"Ears and fingers bearing diamonds were hacked off with pocketknives by the vandals. The bodies of women who wore fine clothes were stripped of their last thread and left to fester in the sun.

AUSTIN, (TEX.), September 14.—During the day the Governor received a large number number of subscriptions, and it is estimated that the total subscription lists to date, here and at Galveston, will reach $1300,000

Emperor and Empress.

NEW YORK, September 15.—A despatch to the Herald from Peking says: The Empress Dowager and the Emperor, with 8,000 troops as a guard, are now staying with a Mongol prince in Mongolia, 150 miles northwest of Peking, watching events here. No pursuit of them is intended by the foreign troops.

Coal Strike is Ordered.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 12.—At 5:15 o'clock this morning President Mitchell and Secretary Wilson of the United Mine Workers of America affixed their signatures to the document which will call 132,000 miners of the Pennsylvania anthracite region from their work Monday morning and precipitate one of the most gigantic strikes in the history of the labor world.

David Dayton has been appointed trustee of the estate of Lucy Hayselden, valued at $15,000.

There is no truth in the rumor that the Valcano House, Hawaii, is to be abandoned as a hotel.

About fifty persons took advantage of Judge Estee's presence in Hilo, to become naturalized.

Governor Dole has issued a proclamation fixing the 6th of November as the date of the Territorial election.

The people of Kaui have discarded all party lines and divided nominations among themselves impartially.

It is reported that a railroad is projected from Kau to Kohala, Hawaii, along the leeward side of the Island.

It is quite likely that a Masonic temple will be erected in Hilo, a site for which has been secured on Waiannu street.

Eighty six lots of Olaa land, averaging 49 acres each were sold by the government on the 21st, at prices ranging from $15 to $50 per acre.

Purser George C. Beckley is to be presented with a fitting testimonial of his efforts in rescuing the bargemen on Regatta Day.

George R. and J. O. Carter have filed their accounts as trustees of the estate of the late H. A. Carter, showing the same to be worth $244,978.

The Olaa sugar company has contracted with Honolulu parties to deliver to them large quantities of ohia sawed and rough lumber which is to be shipped to Honolulu.

Mr. Charles L. Wight, president of the Wilder Steamship Co., and Miss Harriet Wilder were married in San Francisco, at the Occidental Hotel. They will return to Honolulu on the next Australia.

Unsuccessful efforts were made last week to communicate by means of wireless telegraphy between Honolulu, Molokai and Lanai. The proposition seems to have temporarily gone "up in a balloon".

Arrangements have been perfected to extend the Hilo Railroad both northward and toward Olaa. The grading of the road to Puna is almost completed, and trains will be running by the first of January.

It has finally been decided that the shrimers, 350 strong, will come down on the Zealandia, Oct. 7, and in March next another detachment will come, accompanied by the Grand Imperial Potentate of the order.

Frank Keyser, Alex Reinhart and Charles Anderson, the three sailors rearrested on suspicion of being implicated in the murder of Chang Jo, the Hilo hack driver, had a preliminary hearing at Hilo on Saturday last.

Walter B. Maling, a republican, and Morris K. Keohokalala, a democrat, have been appointed by Judge Estee as a jury commission to select men for grand and petit juries at the coming term of the United States District Court.

Governor Dole will call for the election of two delegates to congress, one for the short term of the 56th Congress, ending in December, and one for the regular term of the 57th Congress. The same man can be elected to fill both terms.

Life Imprisonment For Bresci.

Bresci, the anarchist, who, July 29, shot and killed King Humbert of Italy at Monza, was pronounced guilty at Milan and sentenced to imprisonment for life. An immense crowd of people gathered about the court from early morning, seeking admission to the court-room, where only a few places were reserved for the ticket-holding public. The hearing began at 9 o'clock. Bresci sat in the dock, calm and almost indifferent. His counsel, Signor Martelli head of the Milan bar, and the anarchist writer, Signor Merlino, made requests on various grounds for adjournment, which were refused. While the indictment, which was very long, was being read, Bresci was apparently unmoved, and scanned the faces of the audience without any signs of fear or effrontery. The indictment showed that the assassin indulged in incessant target practice, and that he prepared bullets so as to render them more dangerous.

The witnesses were then introduced. There were 11 for the prosecution and five for the defense. The examination of Bresci followed. He declared he decided to kill King Humbert after the events in Milan and Sicily, "to avenge the misery of the people and my own." He added, "I acted without advice or accomplices." The prisoner admitted the target practice and the preparation of bullets. He spoke in a low, firm voice, and said he fired three shots at three yards with his revolver. Two wooden targets were placed on the table before the judges.

The public prosecutor demonstrated that Bresci was fully responsible for his acts, and that the latter premeditated the crime and had accomplices. After denouncing the anarchist theories which brought such fearful crimes, the public prosecutor denied that Bresci had misery as an excuse, also asserting that he was not a man of impulse or a fanatic, but had a calm, cynical and obstinate mind, and that his aim was infamous. In conclusion, the public prosecutor asked for a verdict of guilty without extenuating circumstances.

Signor Merlino said he only wished to do his duty. He defended the prisoner on the ground that anarchy had inspired the crime. All parties, he declared, had their rogues, beginning with Judith. He asked that those in whose hands the prisoner's fate lay would not act in a spirit of vengeance, but of justice. He claimed extenuating circumstances for the accused man. Signor Martelli asked that the verdict be tempered with indulgence toward an irresponsible man condemned of a crime committed in a state of exaltation. He spoke of Bresci's previous good conduct and implored pity for the guilty man. Bresci was given an opportunity to speak and said: "Sentence me. I am indifferent. I await the next revolution." The persons who were to deliberate on the verdict then retired.

Bresci escaped with life imprisonment, as that penalty is the most severe which can be imposed under the laws of Italy for murder, on which charge the anarchist was tried. It was at first believed Bresci would be tried on the charge of treason, in which case the penalty would have been death.

The penalty of death has been abolished in Italy, and the regicide will be condemned to perpetual labor, but before beginning his toil he will be confined in a cell for 10 years. It is a fearful punishment! Ten years of solitary confinement. He will be chained to the wall; he will never see, from the depths of his cell, a ray of daylight; he will never hear the sound of a human voice. Truly it is the tomb, with all its horrors!

During those 10 years of solitude not even a priest can visit Bresci, not even the murmur of a prayer can break the stillness, all occupation is prohibited, and no printed matter of any form ever reaches the eyes of the prisoner, who is not even allowed to talk aloud to himself. The guardians are forbidden to make any noise, and this miserable mortal receives his food through a little sliding door in his cell, without even seeing the person who brings it. Time loses its value under such conditions; hours, days, months, years go by without record.

The arguments that are used by salespeople in the store and prove convincing, will be equally so if employed in the newspaper advertisement.
