CRISIS IN VENEZUELA

(Associated Press Special Cable.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The story of the bombardment is officially confirmed and there is a sudden reticence of officials on the Venezuelan situation which is regarded as of serious gravity and tending to delay peace, if not cause international complications of grave import.

Fear Anti-German Feeling

(Associated Press Special Cable.)
BERLIN, Jan. 22.—The officials here state they know nothing officially of the renewed bombardment of the ports at Venezuela, but there is fear of a renewal of the anti-German feeling in the United States. At London no particular excitement has been occasioned by the affair except the growing sentiment that Germany is too aggressive, and it is feared that the bombardment will delay the settlement of the South American affair.

Says Bribe Was Offered

(Associated Press Special Cable.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Congressman Lester of the Sub-committee on Naval Affairs charges that an attempt has been made to bribe him by the offer of $5,000 for his vote for ten submarine boats of the Holland type for Navy instead of five. An investigation has been ordered. No names have been given out of those offering the bribe.

Reduction for Philippine Sugar

(Associated Press Special Cable.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The Senate Committee has reported favorably on the amended Philippine tariff bill which provides that all Philippine products shall be admitted in Mainland markets free of duty except sugar and tobacco, which are allowed on a fifty per cent reduction from the Dingley tariff. Materials used in the construction of railroads are admitted into the Philippines free.

Revolvers On Their Desks

(Associated Press Special Cable.)
DENVER, Jan. 22.—The Legislature met today under remarkable conditions. Nearly every member had a revolver on his desk. No open trouble has yet occurred. The anti-Walcott forces are holding the fort.

Souffriere Violent

(Associated Press Special Cable.)
KINGSTON, Jamaica, Jan. 22.—Reports have been received here that volcano Souffriere is again in violent eruption.

Thousands Leaving Mazatlan

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 22.—A prominent mining man just arrived reports that the plague at Mazatlan is creating a panic among the residents of the place and the surrounding country. Thousands of families are leaving and, with the excitement ruling, the conditions are most deplorable.

Keeping Clean and Cool

(Associated Press Special Cable.)
GUAYMAS, Jan. 22.—The plague conditions here are improving under the influence of strict quarantine and observation of thorough sanitary regulations.

STOCKS IN SAN FRANCISCO.
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 22.—Hawaiian Commercial, $44 3/4; Honokaa, $13 3/4; Makaweli, $27; and Paauhau, $16 3/8.

There was received at the office of the Kaploian Estate this morning a wireless telegram stating that "The boys have been acquitted."
This message, of course, refers to John Wise, Bert Colburn and Everett Richardson, who were arrested recently in connection with the Lanai dispute.
Mr. Colburn further stated in his message that he was bound for Kihel today and that he would be back in Honolulu by the Kinau on Saturday afternoon next.
The three defendants were charged with malicious mischief because they killed some of the cattle on the Island of Lanai to provide the "inner man" with something calculated to preserve life. The case came up before Judge Kahanello at Lahaina on the 12th inst. and was by him continued until yesterday, when the trial took place.
From the delay in the arrival of news it would seem as if the case could not have been finished yesterday and was continued until today or that Judge Kahanello took over night to consider the evidence which had been produced.

Cathcart Wants Peace MORE THAN OFFICE

And Withdraws Candidacy

John W. Cathcart, Deputy Attorney General, this morning withdrew his application to the Governor for the office of Attorney General. His reason appears in his letter of withdrawal printed below. Mr. Cathcart at the same time tendered his resignation of the Deputy Attorney Generalship to the Attorney General, to take effect on the last day of this month.
It is Mr. Cathcart's intention to engage in the practice of law in Honolulu. He has already received several offers of association which he is considering. Privately, Mr. Cathcart expresses his warm appreciation of the work of his friends in connection with his candidacy, also of the support and friendly recognition accorded him while performing his official duties. In this regard he particularly mentions members of the press.
The particulars of Mr. Cathcart's double retirement are partly to be found in the following correspondence: Territory of Hawaii, Office of the Attorney General.
Honolulu, Jan. 22, 1903.
To His Excellency Sanford B. Dole, Governor of the Territory of Hawaii.
Sir:—Last week I had the honor of applying to you for the position of Attorney General of the Territory. The position is one of difficulty, at best, and the work can be done satisfactorily only through the hearty co-operation and good will of all public-spirited citizens. I find that there is a strong opposition to my appointment among those enjoying your confidence, and in view of these facts I respectfully withdraw my application.
I have the honor to remain, Your obedient servant,
(Sgd.) JNO. W. CATHCART, Territory of Hawaii, Office of the Attorney General.
Honolulu, Jan. 21, 1903.
Honorable E. P. Dole, Attorney General of the Territory of Hawaii.
Sir:—I herewith tender my resignation of the office of Deputy Attorney General of the Territory of Hawaii, to take effect on the thirty-first day of January, 1903.
Very respectfully yours,
(Sgd.) JNO. W. CATHCART, Territory of Hawaii, Office of the Attorney General.
Honolulu, Jan. 21, 1903.
Mr. John W. Cathcart, Deputy Attorney General.
Dear Sir:—In accepting your letter of resignation, which it is beyond my power to extend, I wish to express my appreciation of your most diligent, able and conscientious work. The duties which you have performed since you have been Deputy Attorney General have been most trying and you have never failed to perform them with credit. I can only say, for the benefit of the public service, that I trust my successor will have as good a deputy as I have had.
Very cordially yours,
(Sgd.) E. P. DOLE, Attorney General, Territory of Hawaii, Office of the Attorney General.
Honolulu, Jan. 22, 1903.
To Honorable J. P. Cooke, Chairman of Fourth District Committee of the Republican Party, and to the Honorable Committee.
Gentlemen:—I herewith desire to tender you my thanks for your endorsement of my candidacy for the office of Attorney General of the Territory. I have, as you may see in a letter to His Excellency the Governor, withdrawn my application; but I want you to know that I appreciate your good will, just as thoroughly as if I had continued in the field and had been successful. Again thanking you, I remain,
Very respectfully,
(Sgd.) JNO. W. CATHCART.

W. F. Allen introduced the following resolution of condolence, which was unanimously adopted by the Chamber and ordered engrossed for presentation to the parties mentioned:
Whereas, under Divine Providence, our honored and esteemed fellow-citizen, Hon. Paul Isenberg has been removed from this earth; be it Resolved, by the honorable Chamber of Commerce, that by the death of Mr. Isenberg this community has lost a valued member, who was justly held in high esteem for his integrity, firmness in his convictions, and for his spirit of enterprise. The Hawaiian people have lost a true and consistent friend, and the firm of H. Hackfeld & Co., Ltd., one of the charter members of this Chamber, has sustained a most deplorable loss.
Resolved, that this Chamber extends to the bereaved family, and to his business associates in the corporation of which he was the head, its most full and heartfelt sympathy in the irreparable loss which they have sustained.
Resolved, that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this Chamber and copies be sent to the bereaved family and to Messrs. H. Hackfeld & Co., Ltd.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE ON DEATH OF PAUL ISENBERG UNANIMOUSLY ADOPTED.

There was a special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce this forenoon in the rooms of the organization, Hackfeld building, for the purpose of acting on the reports of the committees appointed to draft memorials to the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States, protesting against the control of the public lands and the leper settlement by the Federal Government, as recommended in the report of the Senatorial Commission which investigated the internal affairs of the Islands.
There were present the following: Secretary Jas. G. Spencer, W. F. Allen, S. B. Rose, H. E. Wally, H. A. Parmelee, Clarence L. Cooke, Henry Waterhouse, W. H. Hoogs, J. M. Dowsett, E. D. Tenney, W. W. Dimond, W. Pfenhauer, George W. Smith, F. A. Schaefer, W. M. Giffard, J. P. Cooke, W. W. Hall, T. Clive Davies and P. Muhlenford.
The secretary announced that both the president and vice president were absent from the city and that therefore a presiding officer would have to be chosen. E. D. Tenney was nominated by F. A. Schaefer and unanimously chosen.
Mr. Tenney announced the purpose of the meeting and then asked the secretary to proceed at once with the reading of the memorials which had been prepared by the committees. The first memorial read was the one relating to the public lands of the Territory and next came the reading of the memorial on the Federal control of the leper settlement. Both of these are strong protests against control on the part of the Federal Government, but as they cannot be forwarded for some time yet, it was decided by the Chamber that there should be no publication whatever of even the slightest detail.
The reports were unanimously adopted and on motion, it was agreed that they should be signed by the president and secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and that the same officers of the Merchants' Association should be likewise asked to sign their names.

Political Gossip ARISING FROM Municipal Bill

Considerable speculation has been excited by certain prominent features of the municipal government bill. It is noticed that the office of Superintendent of Public Works is virtually abolished by the bill. Boards of control of public institutions and services are constituted of various heads of presently organized departments, but leaving the Superintendent of Public Works severely unmentioned.
Among other surprises born of the fact just stated is one that Henry E. Cooper will pass from the Public Works to the Treasury, Mr. Kepoikai being given his old position of Judge of the Fourth Circuit in the place of Judge Kalua.
Bloodgood Cutter, the Long Island "farmer-poet," and one of the innovators who accompanied Mark Twain and his brood abroad on the ship Quaker City, has just sold the old house in which he was born in 1817 at Little Neck, L. I.

TO PUSH COUNTY BILL

MEASURE TO GO THROUGH WHETHER VETOED OR NOT POLITICIANS BELIEVE DOLE WILL HARDLY DARE TO OPPOSE WHAT ARE PARTY WANTS.

The talk among the politicians on the streets nowadays all seems to center on the County bill recently completed by the Republican Commission, and yesterday it was suggested that there would probably be a difference between the Senate and the House upon the bill being considered by the Legislature.
One of the Republican Senators said yesterday to a Bulletin reporter that it would probably be the aim of the Legislature or at least the Republican majority thereof, to pass the bill just about as it was presented to the Central Committee of the party the other night. He had talked with various members of the Legislature on the Republican side and had found this to be the prevailing sentiment.
However, this matter would all be settled when the legislators arrived in the city from the other Islands and got down to daily caucuses with the executive committee. If it was seen at that time that there was a tendency to split on some of the provisions of the bill, the Legislature upon bringing the bill up for consideration would have to appoint a conference committee to take the bill under consideration and decide on the amendments to be presented. There would then be no question about a clash upon the bill being brought before the Senate and House for its final consideration.
There is no question that there is a great variation of opinions as to the present draft of the County bill, but as people in general have not yet had a chance to see copies of the draft, a great many of these opinions are rather wild.
At any rate, whatever the outcome of the bill may be, there is a certainty that it will be the very first measure introduced in the Senate when the Legislature meets next month and it will be pushed through as quickly as possible in order that the Governor may have sufficient time to cogitate and the people be shown the integrity of the Republican party in the matter of the introduction of the county form of government into the Territory.
Just along this line of the consideration of the bill by the Governor, considerable speculation is being indulged in as to the attitude Mr. Dole will probably take in the matter during the coming session. It is a moot question among many as to whether his objection to the County bill at the last session of the Legislature was founded on his antagonistic attitude toward the Home Rule legislators or whether he had honest scruples against the introduction of county government in the Territory.
At all events, one of the Republican Senators remarked today that the bill would have to go through, Governor or no Governor, and that one of the reasons for the plan to rush the bill as quickly as possible was to give the Senate time to override the Governor's order.
Helen L. Isenberg, widow of Otto Isenberg, has petitioned that Wm. Pfenhauer and Hermann Schultze be appointed as guardians of the estate of her five minor children, Agnes C. Carl, H. W. Bertha J., Dorothea G. and Paul O. Isenberg. Each of the minors has a 2-27th interest, and after the death of the petitioner will have a 1-9th interest in the following property: Homestead on King street, 730 shares Kakaia Sugar Co., 34 shares I. I. S. N. Co., 454 shares Pioneer Mill Co., life insurance policy for $10,000; 2 notes for $1000 each and bonds to the amount of $27,125 set aside as dowry for two married sisters in Germany.

Mr. Lewis argued all morning and resumed at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

AN AFTERNOON FIRE

At about 2:30 o'clock this afternoon the fire department was called to the foot of Alakea street, where a number of bagsful of coal in the vacant lot just makal of the Inter-Island shops, had caught fire. As there was no danger to surrounding property, the department, with the exception of the chemical engine, was sent back. At about 2:45 o'clock, some two hundred of the bags had caught fire but the firemen had the situation well in hand.
It appears that the coal was put into old saltpetre bags and it is thought by Chief Thurston that this fact, exposed as the bags were to the sun, had something to do with the starting of the fire.

HARTWELL CONSULTED

POSSIBLE CHOICE FOR ATTORNEY GENERALSHIP
CARTER SAID TO BE DICTATING SELECTION—SHERIFF BROWN IS AGAIN SPOKEN OF.

Governor Dole received a number of private counselors today regarding the appointment of an Attorney General. It was ascertained at noon that the choice had been narrowed down to two candidates.
Among the visitors of the Governor were former Judge A. S. Hartwell and High Sheriff Brown. The latter has been mentioned all along as a possibility for the office.
It is generally conceded that George R. Carter has the most influential access to the Governor's ear in this as in other matters of public moment. Whether this is in the capacity of a probable, if not early successor to the Governorship, or otherwise forms a topic of conversation among the curious-minded.
It was said, with some trace of authority, at noon, that neither Lys A. Dickey nor A. F. Judd, whose names had been currently mentioned, were being considered for the position.
Governor Dole said this afternoon that an effort was being made to make a suitable selection for the office of Attorney General. He intimated a probability that an appointment would be announced within a day.

KOREA MAY BE OUT TO MAKE A RECORD

Hackfeld & Co., the local agents of the Pacific Mail Steamship line, received a cablegram from the office at San Francisco this morning to the effect that the Korea would take coal here. The cablegram further instructed the local agents to wire the time made by the Korea to the head office as soon as the steamer arrived at this port.
While the amount of coal which the message states the Korea will need here does not seem to indicate that the new Queen of the Pacific is out for a record, the order to cable the time made by her indicates the contrary. Should the Korea try to make record time she may arrive here on Sunday.

LONDON LICENSE LAW

THREE DRUNKS CONSTITUTE AN HABITUAL DRUNKARD

VICTIM BLACKLISTED—ONE OF HARSHEST TEMPERANCE LAWS EVER ENACTED.

London, Jan. 2.—The greatest feature of the new year is the licensing act, which went into operation on January 1. The newspapers yesterday and today printed columns as to how the new law, which carries terror to the hearts of habitual drunkards, was applied. The law keeps the proprietors of saloons from the opening to the closing hour in a condition of nervous apprehension. It invests the police with power that even Carrie Nation might envy, and promises to overwhelm the police Magistrates with a new class of work.

The principal malcontent now, perhaps, is the habitual drunkard. Formerly the police could not touch a man or woman, no matter how drunk they might be, unless they were also disorderly. Under the new law, any one found drunk in a public place may be arrested, prosecuted and punished. Three convictions within twelve months constitute "an habitual drunkard." Already from all parts of England reports are coming of habitual drunkards being blacklisted for three convictions, the law being retroactive. The following is a typical example of the application of the new law: "You will go to prison for a month," said a Salford Magistrate to a man arraigned for drunkenness yesterday; "you will be placed on the blacklist, and while in prison you will be photographed. A copy of this will be sent to all license holders in Salford and the surrounding district. Any publican serving you with drink in the next three years is liable to a heavy fine."

A London Magistrate, in sentencing a woman drunkard today, said: "If you attempt to get served you will be fined. If any one treats you, he or she will be fined. If you get liquor in the next three years it will be at your peril."

From these expressions of two different Magistrates in the cases of a man and a woman, the fate of any one who may be convicted of drunkenness three times in a year will be understood. The act also protects children. Any one found drunk while in charge of a child is liable to a fine of £2, or a month's imprisonment. Several women in London and the provinces have already been punished under this clause.

The act is causing dismay in the night clubs, which abound in Soho and the East End. They are bogus clubs and are run merely for the purpose of evading the licensing law. Under the old law the punishment was a fine which was cheerfully paid. Now that imprisonment is provided many of the clubs have closed, and scores of others will be closed within a week.

The act applies equally to the social West End clubs, and there are stringent regulations in regard to registering a club and depositing a copy of its rules. Frequent cases of drunkenness on the premises have created such excitement that every club in London and the provinces is overhauling its rules. Clubs of this kind, however, are not aimed at, but any one may get information as to what goes on in a club. Any one in payment of a fee of a shilling, may inspect the rates of a club, which are deposited with the authorities, and every club is taking precautions in this matter.

The honorary secretary and treasurer of the Blackburn Liberal Club resigned yesterday rather than bear the heavy responsibilities entailed on him by the act. The committee having the matter in charge thereupon resolved to discontinue the sale of intoxicating drinks, and forego the profit derived therefrom.

Another clause in the act provides ready means by which husbands may escape drunken wives and wives drunken husbands. Habitual drunkenness is now made a ground for legal separation. Many have already obtained relief from their marital ties through this section, the first two cases in London being Sir C. A. Lawson and a street cleaner, both of whom were afflicted with drunken wives.

The saloonkeepers complain bitterly as to what is to be the test of drunkenness, but their trade society in London has sent a circular to all publicans recommending that they go even beyond the requirements of the act. They suggest that publicans shall not serve even a sober man if he is in company with a drunken man until the latter has left the house. The circular goes on to say that they should not allow any bad language, or drink with any customer at the bar. They must not have any money whatever on any part of their person. Some public house keepers are already hiring men whose special duty is to keep their eyes on suspects who may become intoxicated and also to suppress bad language, betting, etc.

The consumption of whiskey among the upper classes has been, as is well known, on the increase to an enormous extent in recent years. The natural consequence is that there has been a corresponding increase in the number of distillers and dealers. Many of the latter have but a vague conception of the meaning of "malt" and "grain" as applied to whiskey. At the present time there are 160 Scotch distillers who are producing annually about 35,000,000 gallons of spirits which is usually called whiskey. Only half of this is made from malt and is entitled to be so described. The rest being made direct from grain unmalated is merely a grain spirit, the first cost of which is about one-quarter of that of malt whiskey.

Of the enormous quantity of Scotch whiskey consumed, probably 90 per cent is a blend of malted and grain spirits which is much supplied by public houses which are more or less ignorant of malt. Pure malt whiskey of mature age is a very wholesome alcoholic drink, while the grain spirit is a pernicious one.

ALL SAME HONOLULU.

Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 5.—"If you don't pay up," shouted Pat McGwynn through the telephone, "I'll shoot the top of your head off, bogorra."

Somebody talked back to Pat over the wire and he howled with rage: "What's that? You says shoot and so I will, yez son of a gun," and Pat pulled a long revolver from under his coat tail.

McGwynn had gone into a St. Clair street coal office to use the telephone to dun a delinquent debtor. He did not get satisfaction and from Pat's end of the wire the foregoing conversation ensued.

Clerks in the office became frightened and notified the police. An officer nabbed Pat while he was flourishing the gun in one hand and the ear trumpet in the other. In police court today McGwynn was fined $5 and costs for carrying concealed weapons.

DINNER TO DR. OSBORNE

PROMINENT VISITOR GIVEN BANQUET BY DR. GALBRAITH

SPEAKS PLEASANTLY OF IMPRESSIONS AND REFERS TO PERSONAL INTEREST IN ISLANDS.

A very pleasant gathering at the Hawaiian Hotel last evening was the dinner given by Dr. W. J. Galbraith in honor of his old-time friend and present guest, ex-Governor and Dr. J. E. Osborne of Wyoming. The guests at the dinner were largely from the medical profession of the city. The private banquet room of the hotel was very attractively decorated for the occasion and a banquet of first excellence was served. Dr. Galbraith and the guest of the evening were seated at the head of the table with United States District Attorney Breckons, who acted as toastmaster, and United State Judge Estee opposite them.

Following the first courses of the dinner informal toasts were called for, the speakers being happily introduced by Mr. Breckons. Dr. Osborne in responding expressed his gratification at having accepted Dr. Galbraith's invitation to visit the Territory. He liked the city and had a special interest in the islands in consequence of having cast a vote for its annexation. He expressed the belief that Congress intended to deal fairly and liberally with the islands, but the people must make up their minds to drop local political dissension when seeking Congressional favor in the way of appropriations of revenues and Dr. Osborne drew attention to the fact that the annexation of Hawaii came in the midst of the Spanish-American war and there was not perhaps the attention to detail which would otherwise have been given. He believed, however, that the wrinkles would soon be smoothed to the complete satisfaction of Territory and the Nation.

Associate Justice Galbraith and F. E. Thompson made very happy responses to the call of the toastmaster. The speech of the evening was made by Judge Estee, who impressed upon those present the necessity of hearty cooperation and earnest support of all measures proposed by the Federal government for territorial advancement.

Among the other speakers were Dr. H. C. Sloggett, Dr. C. B. Cooper, Dr. E. Wood, Attorney General Dole, Mr. McInerney. Those present were: Judge Estee, Justice Galbraith, District Attorney Breckons, Attorney General Dole, W. B. Maling, F. E. Thompson, W. R. Farrington, Dr. C. B. Cooper, Dr. H. C. Sloggett, Dr. Geo. Herbert, Dr. C. B. Wood, Dr. Mays, Dr. St. G. Walters, Dr. G. W. Burgess, Dr. Maister, Dr. L. F. Alvarez, Dr. Hodgins, Dr. J. T. Wayson, H. Lewis, Francis Gay, of Kauai, Mr. Miller of Wyoming, E. F. Bishop, H. W. Willis, W. H. Hoogs, James McInerney, W. H. Smith.

A very plain man in Glasgow was a very pretty daughter. One day she was sitting on her knee before a looking-glass. She contemplated the reflection of their two faces and then asked: "Papa, did God make me?" "Yes, dear," he replied. "And did he make you?" "Yes."

Looking again in the mirror she drew a long breath and rejoined: "He must be turning out better work lately, isn't he?"—Scottish American.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 22, 1902

No one need worry over whether the Governor will veto the county bill. Leave that to the Governor.

"What is the Board of Education doing?" asks a contemporary. Treating along in the same old-fashioned groove.

The candidate by promotion having got out of the way political aspirants for the Attorney Generalship are free to ride for place with an open field.

John W. Cathcart decides that there are other methods of finding a comfortable and profitable existence than holding down a government job. And John W. Cathcart is just about right.

Associate Justice Galbraith's dissent in the Dole vs. Dole decision suggests that the esteemed Associate Justice believes the honored Chief Justice has lost the scent and gone off on a blind trail.

The new rule of the Officers' Club regarding the supply of liquors will undoubtedly meet the approval of the Legislature and it is to be hoped will not seriously inconvenience the legislators.

Charges and counter charges arising from known and alleged defalcations in government circles are unending. If any ten men spent all the money that has disappeared they must have had a peach of a time.

The powwow at Venezuela, coupled with Minister Bowen's progress in settling the affair, indicates that the navies of the Powers want to get in a final slap at their little antagonist before they leave for home.

The Bulletin has no special candidate for the Attorney Generalship, but would suggest to the Governor that the lack of aggressive candidates does not indicate that the people will be satisfied with a job-lot appointee.

The report made to the Merchants' Association should bring forcibly to popular attention that it pays to spend money for dry statistics. The community that has to guess where it is at and can't stand the expense to find out is very much at sea.

London has a license law that deserves the attention of temperance workers. It strikes at the buyer and makes it so uncomfortable for him that the average man finds a dual advantage in not attempting to consume the world's supply of booze.

One of the first things done by the cable for Hawaii was to arouse the people of every American nook and hamlet reached by a telegraph wire or newspaper, to a realization that Hawaii is on the map. Now that the cable has awakened them up, it is Hawaii's business to get them coming this way.

When contemplating the possibility of Marconi's wonderful invention wiping out telegraphic wires it is well to remember that electricity has yet to supplant steam engines, gas plants or old fashioned kerosene. The new inventions serve a beneficent purpose and the old ones still find a place in promoting comfort and convenience.

The cable has served many good purposes, not the least being the opportunity for the Boston Herald to withdraw from its anti-expansion views based on the non-contiguous territory theory, if its position is to be judged from the following editorial comment: The new Pacific cable makes Hawaii adjacent territory to all practical intents and purposes. None of our insular possessions in the Pacific can be said to have been ultimately annexed until they have been connected with us by cable. Then they are within hailing distance. Now on to Manila!

Honolulu is funny in some things and does other things under the name of official courtesy which, taking into consideration usual Mainland customs, are not appreciated by officials whose feelings are so carefully guarded. The Bulletin does not believe there is an official in the whole scheme of American government who cares a rap of his finger or gives a second thought to whether the memorials passed by Honolulu organizations are published previous to receipt in Washington or not. The American people speak out in meeting and they don't care who hears them; the more who will pay heed the better. Representatives of the people don't stand on diplomatic ceremony.

They are not taught that way in the first place; they wouldn't stand for it if they were taught. No doubt the courteous intention of our citizens is good, but it is lost on the atmosphere of Congress, which gets its first intimations of what's coming in domestic affairs through the medium of the press. Furthermore the chances are that the desired force and effect of memorials will evaporate in some committee-room placid and the major portion of the Mainland people and press will never know that Hawaii spoke

CABLE UP-TO-DATE.

A contemporary speaks of the pleasure and profit accruing from the cable as found solely in "the innate satisfaction of being up-to-date." He who would mark this up as one of the regrets of Hawaii must indeed be devoid of a realization of the forces and the influences that go to make up a loyal, progressive, energetic community. What better immediate return from the cable could be asked than the innate satisfaction of being up-to-date? What better recommendation could Hawaii seek for a place among the top-notchers of progress than a reputation for a natural desire to be up-to-date. This is the spirit that makes towns, Territories, States and Nations move. It builds modern structures, develops modern business and it is what has put our country at the head of the procession among the advancing nations of the world. It makes men more active, increases their comforts and promotes their material welfare. Whatever profit is coming from the cable is shared solely by Hawaii. Certainly the Mackay interests are not vowing a wealth of income from the millions expended on the first link of the first American Pacific cable. Doubtless the innate satisfaction of being up-to-date largely influenced the elder Mackay in starting this project which individuals, corporations and even the Nation have allowed to pass uncompleted for many years, and urged the younger Mackay to fulfill the plans and aspirations of his honored father. They were building for the future, content for the time being, with the gratification that comes from constructing practical monuments to the advancement of the world's progress, confident that the return from their enterprise and foresight would be a source of a fair revenue as a result of binding more closely other equally progressive enterprises.

We are told that for three weeks the cable been open for business and no more tourists, warships, or ships of commerce have made Honolulu a port of call as a result of our closer communication with the main centers of the world's activity. Now isn't that awful? Three weeks, the usual time occupied by a round trip of the steamship to San Francisco and no increase of tourists. Can the people of Honolulu imagine Clarence Mackay sitting in his New York office and sadly commenting, "Three weeks, and no dividend from the Hawaiian cable. Three millions spent and more to follow with only the innate satisfaction of being up-to-date to put on the credit side of the balance sheet."

What does Hawaii exist for if not to be up-to-date? What is the use of living if all surroundings, social, financial, moral and industrial are not up-to-date. Up-to-dateness has furnished the inspiration for making of the insignificant town one of the chief centers of world wide activity. It is an asset that cannot be discounted even by the pessimistic turn of the phrase "What's the use." The up-to-date features of the cable should be and we believe will be made the main spring of such a rapid progress in Hawaii, that it will not know what it is to mark time in the old grooves. It will make of new Hawaii a busy, contented section of the country that will lead men to wonder how they could have been content with old Hawaii. It will create a united, intelligent people who find a most supreme satisfaction in being up-to-date

ENGLAND AND SUGAR.

[New York Sun.] Not only to the British West Indies, but also to Cuba, the declaration made by Mr. Balfour in the House of Commons with regard to the sugar bounty question is a matter of vital interest. The British Premier admitted that in 1880 the Government received from the law advisers of the Crown an opinion to the effect that by discriminating against the sugar imported from any particular country England would lose the benefit derived from the "most favored nation" clause in her commercial treaty with that country. Let us note the bearing of this admission on the agreement reached at the Sugar Conference.

By the Sugar Conference held at Brussels it was agreed that on and after October 1, 1903, the countries represented would grant no bounties on exported sugars, and England on her part covenanted that she would impose countervailing duties upon sugars from Russia after October 1, 1903. That is to say, according to the opinion given by law advisers of the Crown, she will refuse to give sugar imported from Russia the same treatment that she will accord to sugar brought from other countries, and, therefore, having denied to Russia the however, England could hardly refuse (she cannot herself pretend to profit by said provision). It may be said that the British Government need not be bound by an opinion rendered twenty-two years ago, and that, perhaps, a different opinion may be given by the present Crown advisers. Under the circumstances, just few months that certain Cubans a proposal on the part of Russia to refer the question to the Court of Arbitration at The Hague, and, should that tribunal render a decision against her, she would doubtless prefer to refrain from imposing countervailing duties on Russian sugar rather than forfeit the benefit of the "most favored nation" clause in treaties. Such action on her part would put an end to the agreement reached at Brussels, for if Russian sugar is to be exempt from countervailing duties in the British market, other Continental sugar could not compete with it, and the sole consideration for the abolition of bounties, namely, the prospect of supplying the British market, would be lost.

Unless the agreement reached at the Brussels Conference is carried out the fate of the British West Indies is sealed. The British Government will not long continue to pay even the petty subsidy which it has undertaken to furnish during the brief term intervening before the date fixed for the Brussels agreement to become operative. Equally irrevocable would be the doom of Cuba if, like Jamaica and Barbados, it depended exclusively upon the market of the United Kingdom. There have been indications during the last few months that certain Cubans were disposed to underrate the importance of a reciprocity treaty with the United States, on the ground that so soon as the Brussels agreement should become operative Cuban sugar might be exported to Great Britain at a satisfactory profit. There will obviously be no hope for Cuba in that direction if Great Britain refrains from imposing countervailing duties on the product of the Russian beet root. That is to say, those members of the Cuban House of Representatives who have been inclined to minimize the value of a reciprocity treaty with this country have shown themselves ready to give up a bird in the hand for one in the bush.

Fortunately for the welfare of the island, President Palma has evinced more sagacity and foresight and has signed a protocol in pursuance of which a treaty can be promptly framed at Washington. We hope and believe that such a treaty will be approved by two-thirds of our Senators, and there now seems to be no reason to apprehend prolonged opposition to it on the part of the Cuban House of Representatives, in view of the grave doubt touching the execution of England's intention to impose countervailing duties on Russian sugar.

PRICE OF SUGAR STOCKS

There is slight variation in the prices of Hawaiian sugar stocks on the San Francisco market today. Hawaiian Commercial, which was $45 1/2 yesterday, has dropped to $44 1/2, although it sold for $45 on the local exchange. Honokaa remains the same at $13 1/2, and Paauhau has gone from $16 1/2 down to $16. Makaweli, which was $28 yesterday, has suffered the greatest fall, the San Francisco quotation today being $27. On the local market there has been considerable activity today. Sixty-six shares of Oahu sold at $100.50 and another block of twenty-one shares went for $101. A hundred shares of Hawaiian Commercial sold at $45, while twenty-five shares of Kahuku sold for $21. Twenty shares of Hawaiian sugar sold at $26.50.

WILL BE MARRIED.

Maria Santo, Isabella Morale and Elisa, three Porto Rican damsels, and Chas. O. Peters, Delaney and F. G. Barnes, three soldiers, appeared in the Police Court this morning, all charged with fornication. They were arrested last night by Officers Renear and McDuffie at a place back of the Moillili saloon, where they have been hanging out for some time.

Maria Santo, Isabella Morale, Chas. O. Peters and F. G. Barnes all pleaded guilty, but stated that as it was their intention to get married they wished to have their cases continued in order that they could have a chance to do so and thus escape penalty. This request was granted by Judge Wilcox. Delaney and Elisa pleaded not guilty. The Court asked Delaney if he likewise had matrimonial intentions, but the soldier emphatically denied any such idea. The cases of these two defendants were also continued until tomorrow.

CHINESE BANKRUPT FIRM.

H. Hackfeld & Co., Ltd., Washington Mercantile Co., Ltd., and Hyman Brothers have filed a petition in bankruptcy against Wing Sing Lung Co., doing business in Honolulu. The claims are as follows: Hackfeld, $1166; Mercantile, $674.73; Hyman, $128.25. It is alleged, as an act of bankruptcy, that the respondents admitted in writing their inability to pay their debts and their willingness to be adjudged bankrupt. An application will be heard by Judge Estee this afternoon for a restraining order to prevent High Sheriff Brown from disposing of the bankrupt's property by execution.

MISS ELEANOR ROBSON AS AUDREY.

Among the successful plays which have been made out of popular novels and presented this season is "Audrey," a dramatized version of Miss John Stow's romantic story. Miss Robson is playing the title role.

SHORT STORY FOR EVENING HOURS

A MISSOURI COMPROMISE

Old Bud Jackson lived near the source of the "Big Black" in the Ozark mountains of Missouri. Bud had lived there for 65 years. That was just his age. His habitation was rude but comfortable and his daughter Bess tended it with homely care. Bess was Bud's only child. She was a coy mountain maid of 26, and as pretty as one of the wild flowers that peep from the ground in the Big Black valley in March.

Bud had a neighbor, Si Withers. Si lived down the stream a ways, and the holdings of the two men joined. J Si had a son Bill. Between the two mountain farms over in a corner lay a triangular piece of ground not more than two acres in extent. Outside of the woodland this was the only piece of land on the Jackson-Withers holdings that was not cultivated. It was weed-grown and though it would have supported a goodly crop of grain, no seed sown by the hand of man ever fell there. It was known for miles around as the Debatable Ground. Bud and Si both claimed the piece, and had wrangled over it for years before the feud became deadly. At the present status of things if either one set his foot on the strip the other would have shot him.

Bud Jackson had a hobby. He was a collector of birds. Scientists from St. Louis and from the western state colleges came to his place every summer to look at his collection. He never would add a bird to the lot unless it had been killed in the State of Missouri, provided always, of course, that the bird was known to have been seen in the State. Bud didn't expect to get any flamingoes in Missouri, but if he should have heard an Indian tradition that 500 years before a flamingo had been seen on the Big Black, he would not have added the bird to his collection until some one had sent him one with the proper attestation it had been killed inside the limits of his native State.

What a collection that was! There was pretty near everything in it from the ruby-throated hummingbird to the big bronze wild turkey. Bud had to build an addition to his house to store his birds. Some people said that Bud cared more for the birds than he did for Bess, which was a lie. For years Bud had scoured the woods of the Ozarks, extending his trips to the adjoining counties for the purpose of getting one bird, the ivory-billed woodpecker. He knew that the ivory bill was a dweller of the southeast United States, but he also knew that straggling birds had been seen in the deep woods of the mountains of Missouri, and so he kept up his search with his shotgun over his shoulder year after year. He could have purchased an ivory-billed woodpecker, killed somewhere else, for something like $20, but he would have a Missouri bird or none. He slept out nights in the woods and starved and tired on the trail of reports that the big bird had been seen. Generally it turned out that those who told of the appearance of the woodpecker, not knowing much about birds, had seen the big "joe cock" and had taken him for his still bigger brother.

One day in the summer Bud noticed that Bess had something on her mind. She started sudden, whenever he spoke to her and more than once blushed vividly. The old man didn't say much but just thought he'd let the thing come out by itself. But it didn't come out. Bess just kept on acting as though she were way off somewhere in the clouds. One day as the old man was coming back from a collecting trip he could have sworn he saw Bill Withers, old Si's son, making off across the brook from the direction of the Jackson home. Bud gripped his gun tightly and felt a lump come up in his throat. He thought he knew now how to account for Bess' blushing. He kept his own counsel, however. He knew that if old Withers knew of it he would be just as hot about it as he was. Bud eyed Bess curiously when he entered the house and casually asked if there had been any visitors while he had been away.

"No," stammered the girl, and fell to blushing directly. "Humph!" said her father. Two days later Bess went out to pick blackberries. Half an hour after her father followed in her trail. The blackberry patch lay in the direction of the Debatable Ground. Bud came to a rise in the land and looked off toward the triangular bit of ground in dispute. By the Great Ank, what was that he saw? There in the center of the Debatable Ground were Bill Withers and Bess Jackson holding hands, and Bess' sunbonnet was pushed way back. When Bud recovered sufficiently he looked beyond the patch and there stood old Si Withers grasping a gun and looking at the pair of lovers. There couldn't be any shooting that day on either side, and both went home. It was not a pleasant evening that was spent that night in either the Jackson or the Withers households. Bud stormed and fumed and told Bess that she was bringing everlasting disgrace on him by taking up with the son of that old thief, Withers.

Si Withers said a good deal of the same sort to his son, Bill, but Bill being a fellow who thought for himself, held the old fellow pretty well in hand. About a week after this a negro appeared at the Jackson home and reported ivory-billed woodpeckers in the big woods. Bess had been forbidden to leave the house. Bud seized his gun and made for the big patch of timber. The negro had described the bird accurately. Bud reached the edge of the woods, plunged in and had not gone ten yards before he heard a strange, rattling cry. He knew it from the description he had heard. He went in its direction. In a minute he saw a great big scuttle round the hole of a beech. Bud's heart jumped into his throat. It was the first living ivory-billed woodpecker he had ever seen. The tree trunk was between him and the bird. He rounded it cautiously. The woodpecker left the tree with a cry. Bud's shotgun went to his shoulder. There was a report and the bird wavered. Another report and the woodpecker, flying another few yards, fell limp to the ground behind some bushes. Bud dashed forward with a great hurrah in his heart. He reached the spot where the bird had fallen. He knew from the way it went down it was dead—but where as it? Not a feather could he find. To little drops of blood stained the fallen leaves and that was all. Bud searched for three hours and then went home with a sorrow in his heart such as he had not known since his wife died.

The morning of that woodpecker episode Bill Withers was skirting the woods in the hope of getting a glimpse of Bessie. He had a retriever dog with him that was thrashing about in the woods and fields by turns in the nervous way that such dogs have when their owners are not on hunting bent. All at once the retriever burst from the woods and dropped something at his master's feet. Bill picked it up. He knew it was an ivory-billed woodpecker, for he had seen one in a glass case at the capital in Jefferson City. He knew of Bud Jackson's almost insane desire to get hold of a Missouri killed ivory bill. He had heard the two shotgun reports that immediately preceded the bringing of the bird to him by his retriever. He put two and two together and smiled.

"Everyone knows something of the mania of the true collector. The story of the confirmed old bachelor who got married to a sour-visaged old maid because she had a china teacup that would complete his set, unquestionably is true. The stamp collector gives the tenth of his fortune to get a canceled two-cent stamp that happens to be of a color shade peculiar to itself. The true bird collector is perhaps more of an enthusiast than any of the others. Bill Withers managed to get word to Bud Jackson that he would like to meet him at the Debatable Ground the next morning. Bud might come with an armed escort if he chose. Bill would have one. They met the next morning. Two mountaineers with rifles were behind each party to the conference. Bill bowled an invitation to Bud to drop his gun and to come to the center of the disputed land for a conference. Bud agreed. They met. "Mr. Jackson," said Bill, "I want to marry Bessie and she wants to marry me. I'll tend to my old man. He's got so he does pretty much as I say, and he'll even shake hands with you."

"None of your breed can have Bess," said Bud, sour-like. "But Bess wants me." "You can't have her." This in a growl, and the two men turned and separated. When he had gone about three yards Bill Withers turned and called out: "Bud, look here."

Old Bud wheeled about. Bill was standing there with one hand uplifted and holding by one foot the finest specimen of an ivory-billed woodpecker that Bud had ever seen or heard of. "Do you want it, Bud?" said Bill. "It's in the flesh and I'll swear it's Missouri killed."

Bud's eyes popped. His frame shook. In his face was a great joy. "Bill," he said, and his voice trembled. "Bess is yours."—Edward B. Clark in Chicago Record-Herald.

OUR CHINA LETTER.

"It would surprise you," writes our correspondent, "to see the wonderful progress that has been made in sanitary lines since the recent war. The mandarins and taoists of the various sections have completely revolutionized the former sewage and plumbing system of the larger cities. Sewers are being laid and all within convenient proximity to them are ordered to connect. A peculiar feature is, that the DOUGLAS PATENT CLOSET is installed in nearly every residence. The makers of this famous closet, the DOUGLAS, claim and guarantee that it will not leak, and that there is no annoyance of running water."

SAY--"SEND HELP"

AND I'LL SEND IT.

No money is wanted--just a postal. Tell me the book you need. I will mail you an order--good at any drug store--for six bottles Dr. Shoop's Restorative. You may take it a month on trial. If it succeeds, the cost is $5.50. If it fails, I will pay the drug cost myself--and your mere word shall decide it.

Don't think I can't cure because others have failed. I have a way that no other man knows. Let the remedy itself convince you.

At least you know this--If I failed very often the offer would ruin me. No sick one need pay, if he cannot pay gladly; yet 39 out of each 40 pay.

If you need help, don't wrong yourself by waiting. My way is almost sure. It will certainly cure any case that is curable.

I have spent a lifetime in learning how to strengthen weak inside nerves. My Restorative brings back that power which alone operates the vital organs. I treat a weak organ as I would a weak engine, by giving it the power to act. My way always succeeds, save when a cause like cancer makes a cure impossible. And most of these chronic diseases cannot be cured without it.

You'll know this when you read my book.

Simply state which book you want, and address. Dr. Shoop, Box 111, Racine, Wis.

ASSOCIATED CHARITIES

At a meeting of the Associated Charities held yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Berger, the manager, read her report for the previous two months, showing the following: 329 office consultations, 25 new applications, 2 sent to Queen's hospital, 2 sent to Castle Home, 2 sent to Salvation Army Industrial Home, 2 sent to Kona Orphanage, 1 sent to Sailer's Home, and 13 applications for outside relief.

The case of the legless Porto Rican was brought up and it was shown that transportation to the Coast had been offered the boy but the family was unwilling to separate.

Mrs. Berger broached the subject of a poor home, emphasizing the benefit to be derived from such an institution. It was suggested that there might be set apart by the government a portion of the relief camps for the purpose of housing the unfortunate poor.

The suggestion was made by Clarence Cooke that the Legislature be petitioned in the matter of the burning expense to provide for the burning of the form of a motion, and, on being carried, the following committee was appointed to draft a memorial: Mrs. Whitney, Governor Dole and Mrs. Berger.

The treasurer's report showed a balance of $1.50 on hand.

Kodak finishing--If you have a kodak, no doubt you have some pet films you would like to have enlarged. If so, let King Bros. show you what can be done in this line. They have a special camera for the purpose and the work done with it is equal to a contact print, perfect in every detail.

ON CHINESE CENSUS

MERCHANTS OF CITY HEAR FULL REPORT ASSOCIATION DOES NOT THINK CERTAIN INCOME TAX QUESTIONS ARE NECESSARY.

A meeting of the Merchants' Association was held in the Judd building yesterday afternoon with Vice-president Dimond in the chair. The first business was the reading of the following communication by Secretary Harris:

Montgomery, Ala., Dec. 25, 1902. The Merchants' Association, Honolulu, Hawaii. Dear Sirs:--I note in today's "Press Dispatches," a communication from Hon. T. Thoa. Fortune, special labor commissioner sent to your island by Hon. Mr. Shaw, Secretary of Treasury of the United States, in re scarcity of labor with you, for the plantations. If you will place me in touch with the proper parties, who would be willing to advance transportation from this section to your country and in addition allow me a reasonable per capita remuneration for my services in gathering them together, I can furnish from 1000 to 10,000 of our Southern negroes, the best farm laborer in the world. Hoping to hear from you, I am Very truly yours, S. K. WILLIAMSON.

The matter of the income tax blanks sent out by the Tax Collector was brought up by Mr. Dimond who said he saw no reason for the insistence on answers to many questions which so closely affect the business houses and that there were particulars asked for which were unnecessary. After a long discussion on the matter the following committee was appointed to take up the question of the kind of inquiry which is made into the affairs of the various corporations of the Territory.

The census committee of the Association appointed to act in conjunction with other bodies of a like nature, in re the census of Orientals in the city, reported as follows, this report being accepted:

To the Builders and Traders' Exchange, the Merchants' Association and the Honolulu Trades and Labor Council.

The joint committee appointed by your several bodies for the purpose of taking a census of the business and trades of Honolulu, beg leave to report as follows:

Your committee have investigated the cost of taking such a census and believe it is beyond the limit which in your committee's opinion your bodies would be willing to expend. The Hawaiian census of 1896 cost $6.33 per hundred. To be exact, practically a complete census of the city, including 50,000 to 45,000 people, would be necessary. The cost of taking the census of 1896 in Honolulu proper cost 4.87 cents per head. This would mean about $2000. Even if the census were attempted to be taken by your committee, without government authority, it would be incomplete and inaccurate at the best.

Your committee have arranged for compiling statistics from the Internal Revenue office as Chinese, which will be absolutely reliable as far as they

There may be some slight expense attached to this compilation, which your committee ask leave to report later when the statistics are compiled. Your committee therefore recommend that they be discharged and that the several organizations herein represented adopt the following resolution without delay, as the biennial session of the Legislature is almost upon us.

"Resolved, that it is the sense of this organization that the Legislature should make this year an appropriation sufficient to pay the expense of establishing and maintaining a fully equipped permanent statistical bureau whose duty it shall be to compile all existing statistical information regarding the Hawaiian Islands and the taking of a biennial census of the Territory of Hawaii, particularly for the purpose of showing the actual mercantile and industrial conditions therein."

"Resolved that the Legislative Committee of this organization are hereby directed to call this matter to the attention of the Governor and urge his incorporation of such a provision in his recommendations to the Legislature both in his Biennial Message and in his Estimates of Appropriations and said committee are also directed to lay this resolution before the Republican Territorial Central Committee and Legislative Caucus and endeavor to secure their approval thereof."

CRICKET NEXT SATURDAY

A return match of cricket will be played on Saturday afternoon at Punahou, between the cable ship Silvertown and the Honolulu team. Punahou has been chosen as the ground out of courtesy to the visitors. They had never played on a concrete pitch until their first match with the Honolulu a few days ago and desired a turf pitch for the return match. The game will start at 2:30.

Silvertown—E. Rymer Jones, captain, H. A. Roe, A. G. Rutter, B. E. Bumpus, A. P. Lumsden, B. Sangster, R. G. Wood, P. C. Dixon, Mr. Harwood, M. J. R. Barker and E. H. Walker.

The Honolulu team will probably be made of the following: R. Anderson, J. McGill, H. E. Picker (captain), A. Hatfield, Captain Kelley, A. W. T. Bottomly, R. Jordan, D. Anderson, A. G. Miles, D. Glass and A. St. C. Pihaiala.

BUILDERS' MEETING

There was to have been a meeting of the Builders and Traders' Exchange at 12 o'clock noon today for the purpose of starting the balloting for officers to serve during the ensuing year but it was decided that there should be a postponement of this business until one hour later. Notice to this effect was sent to the various members this morning.

At 1 o'clock the members began to gather at the rooms in the Elite building for the purpose of casting their ballots. This will continue until 5 o'clock this afternoon when the box will be closed and the ballots counted. The result will be made known to all the members at the annual meeting tonight, at which time the officers will be installed.

He should the chief executive decide to adopt the same course as he did during the last Legislature. No chance will be given him to "pocket veto" the County bill this time.

It is thought by Republican leaders that the Governor will not dare to veto the bill, no matter what opinions he may hold, since it stands as one of the principal planks of the platform of the Republican party, of which he is supposed to be the head, and if it goes through it will have the full Republican majority behind it. This is considered too much for one man to buck.

GONSALES IS FINED.

In the Police Court this morning Frank Gonsales, alias F. Rosales, the Porto Rican charged with illicit liquor selling, in whose Kakaako dive Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth came near losing his life at the hands of a number of the same race, was fined $150 and costs on the charge.

EDUCATIONAL ESTIMATES

There was an executive session of the Board of Education yesterday to consider the Superintendent's estimates for submission to the Legislature. It was the first executive session of that body since two years ago, when one was held for a precisely similar purpose. For several years past reporters have been admitted to meetings of the Board of Education. They have respected its confidences on occasions the same as they have done with the Board of Health.

HAD JUSTIFICATION.

Henry Sheldon and Francis Johnson, two young Hawaiians, appeared in the Police Court this morning charged with assault and battery on Ah Tai.

It seems that the defendants' small brothers had been teasing the Celestial, a laundryman, by throwing dirt on clothes which he had hanging on the line to dry. The Chinaman got after the small boys and threatened them. The defendants saw the Chinaman belaboring their beloved relatives and in their turn went for the Chinaman, knocking him down.

Other Chinamen soon reinforced their countryman so that the defendants had to flee and thus the battle ended.

Judge Wilcox gave the defendants a lecture, telling them not to take the law into their own hands. He stated that they seemed to have had some justification for acting as they did and discharged them.
