ANDREWS IS AFTER USURIOUS LENDERS OF MONEY

The certain Shylocks in this city who for a long time past have been conducting the most flagrant usury almost openly, are at present having their nefarious methods of accumulating wealth from hard pressed individuals who fall into their clutches investigated by the Attorney General's Department. Hawaii has no criminal usury law, the consequence of which has been that usury has been carried on here to an extreme which it would probably not reach were such a law on the statute books. The only law relating to usury here is a civil statute which prevents the recovery of interest above a certain figure.

The local usurers have easily evaded the effects of this statute in a very simple manner. They collect interest on their loans by making the creditor sign a note for the amount borrowed plus the excessive interest thereon, which is said to amount to ten per cent a month and even over that. For instance, a man borrows $100 for three months, but has to sign a note for $130. Should he bring the matter into court, the note shows the full $130 principal and no excessive interest.

"This sort of a thing has been going on for a long time past," said the Attorney General this morning. "Although we have no criminal usury law, I think that these transactions can be prosecuted under the gross cheat and extortion laws. I am at present making a thorough investigation of the matter. The practice is a most nefarious one and has been practiced especially on the smaller Government officials."

KONDO PLEADS GUILTY

Dowsett made a joint resolution that the Ways and Means Committee of the Senate together with a similar committee from the House, as a joint committee, be empowered to burn all the Hawaiian silver and gold certificates, which are cancelled and withdrawn from circulation. Resolution passed unanimously.

Henry Kapea Believed To Be Living High In London POLICE NOW ON HIS TRAIL

Henry Kapea, the absconding clerk of the Hawaiian Trust Company, has been located in London, and may ere this be in the hands of the police.

At least this is the belief of those who recently received a letter from London regarding the doings of one claiming to be Herbert Kalani Kentwell. The letter enclosed a picture of the young man taking afternoon tea in the luxurious surroundings that were his undoing, and those who saw the picture are convinced that it is none other than Kapea.

It seems that this young Hawaiian ran up a big bill at a London establishment on the money he was about to receive from home. He claimed his father is David Kentwell.

L. K. Kentwell when asked this morning if he knew of any Herbert Kalani Kentwell said:

"I have no relatives in England who could correspond with Henry Kalani Kentwell. All my uncles there are older men, and none have the initials, 'H. K.' Some time ago I was shown a photograph of this H. K. Kentwell, which seems to prove that he has Hawaiian blood in him. I received a cable from Henry Kalani Kentwell from Birmingham, England, addressed to D. Kentwell. Thinking there was a mistake in the initial I opened it. It said: 'Please remit money. Am coming home at once.' The other day I was told on the street that H. K. Kentwell is thought to be Henry Kapea. I do not know what reason he could have for assuming my name."

The following statement sent out with the picture of the young man tells what Kentwell, or it may be Kapea, has been doing:

BOARDING RESIDENCE.
Facing the Pier.
London, January 24th, 1905.

I declare that my father is David Kentwell and that he lives at No. 124 Beretania St., Honolulu, T. H. This number 124 may have been altered and I think the houses were renumbered early last year. My father, David Kentwell, has lived at this above address for more than twenty years, and I was born there. My father, mother and all my family were living there when I left Honolulu in November, 1903, and all my correspondence has been sent to my family at this address and my letters to my family have been answered from this address. My father has cattle ranch at Kona, Hawaii, and sells cattle in the markets.

A bill payable at sight for Two Hundred pounds sterling was at my request drawn on my father in December last and the same was immediately forwarded to him by Mr. Mays, London bankers, for payment. The amount represented my indebtedness to the Brunswick House Hotel. I duly informed my father a fac simile of the endorsement on the bill by the proprietor of the hotel, so he could make no mistake. The proprietor of the hotel, Mr. F. May, also sent to my father by the same mail a registered letter informing him for payment. I am in a very serious position as my father send me a tour around the world and now leaves me thousands of miles from my home without any money. I want to pay my debts and come home to avoid serious trouble. This bill is getting bigger and I want my father to send me enough money to pay my hotel bill and come home to Honolulu. My father is well known in Honolulu. I am not coming home until I pay my bill.

H. K. KENTWELL.
I have given this declaration to Mr. May, proprietor of the hotel.

H. K. K. David Kentwell is English. Kawika Kentwell is Hawaiian and my father is sometimes called Kawika.

H. K. K. Note.—My father's ranch is in Kona, on the Island of Hawaii.

To Wilder's Steamship Co., Honolulu. Kilauea continues active. Party returning from crater at 1 o'clock this morning report large part of flow incandescent, but is at present without fountains or explosions. Pit is full of smoke.

MAYS WILL TESTIFY

Very little progress was made in the Jones case this morning. After the prosecution had finished the cross-examination of Dr. C. B. Wood, the next witness for the defense, Dr. W. H. Mays, was not on hand and at 11:30 a. m. a recess was taken until 1:30 p. m., when Dr. Mays will be on hand to testify.

The signing of the crew for the ship Dirigo was the occasion of a remarkable scene along the waterfront this morning. When it was learned that Captain Goodwin had decided to ship a native crew the news traveled with startling rapidity and in a few minutes a pushing, jostling crowd of young Hawaiians gathered in front of the Shipping Commissioner's office. Captain Goodwin promptly picked up the men he wanted and took them over to the Red Front store to procure the necessary clothing. The crowd followed.

WASHINGTON, February 28th, 1905. (Received at 1:10 p. m.)

To the JAPANESE CONSUL, Honolulu:
Our Manchurian army's report is as follows:
"Our detachment attacked on the 23rd instant the enemy in Chinghocheng 30 miles east of Pensiho. Strong snowstorm, the steep nature of ground and the melting of ice in the Tatzuho greatly hindered our movements, but by noon our first line managed to press closely the enemy's position and deliver fierce attack on the enemy consisting of sixteen battalions with twenty guns. The enemy, holding strong positions with several rows of defensive works, offered stout resistance. At the daybreak of the 24th instant we renewed attack followed by grenade fighting and by the evening Chinghocheng fell into our hands. The enemy routed northward, burning Chinghocheng and leaving afield 150 dead. We captured three machine guns and a number of rifles and ammunition. The enemy's losses are believed to be considerable. There is no case of frostbite in our army."

House Members Not Says Treasurer Preferred Creditors

ELEVENTH DAY.

The Senate's joint resolution creating a joint committee of the Legislature to burn up all paid up warrants of the Government paid before January 1, 1903, was this morning adopted by the House.

Jack's Incidentals.

Territorial Secretary Atkinson sent in a statement of the incidental expenses of his office for the six months ending with December last, as follows: Stationery, office supplies and newspaper subscriptions, $253.05; stamps, $121.25; expenses of Secretary to Hawaii and Maui, $104.75; towels, brooms, mops, soap, cleaning, $94.35; press and seal of Territory, $58.80; telephone, $40; typewriter repairs and supplies, $23.75; hack hire, $10.75; directories, $10; notary license, $9; ice, $8.35; freight, $6.25; distilled water, $4.50; zincographs of Territorial seal, $4.50; repairs to bicycle, $3.15. Total, $752.45.

No Cash for Members.

The House received a communication from Treasurer Campbell, in part as follows:

"Copy of a resolution passed by the House of Representatives on the 25th, duly received. In answer to the request that the Treasurer cash the warrants of the members of the House when they are presented at the Treasury, I submit that the Organic Act does, in Sec. 26, Chap. 2, provide for the payment of members of the Legislature, as to the amount and number of payments into which this amount shall be divided.

It does not, however, provide that the liability thus incurred shall be treated differently from other Territorial obligations. In the administration of the affairs of this office, equal consideration is given to all, and in the payment of warrants no preferred claims are recognized, cash being paid as long as there is cash in the Treasury and warrants registered after that in the order of presentation.

In justice to all who may have claims against the Territory I am unable to see how I can treat warrants of the members of the Legislature in a different manner than other warrants are treated. I must decline to treat warrants of the members of the House as preferred claims.

Rep. Fernandez moved to table the communication from the Treasurer and wanted to talk of his reasons. Speaker Knudsen reminded the member that such a motion was not debatable. Motion put and carried.

On Friday a party of young people on horseback rode to see the Hanakapiai valley, in the near vicinity of the celebrated valley of Kalalau. The scenery on the trip was most beautiful and the day perfect as reported by the party, among whom were E. Devorill and the Misses Mabel Wilcox, Alice Jones, Florence Deverill and Ella Wight.

PATRIOTIC PROGRAM SUNDAY EVENING AT CENTRAL UNION

PRESIDENT HORNE OF KAMEHAMEHA AND T. McCANTS STEWART DELIVER THE ADDRESSES.

A large audience filling Central Union church to overflowing assembled Sunday night and engaged enthusiastically in the patriotic services in memory of George Washington.

The students of Oahu College, Kamehameha Schools and Mills Institute were assembled in a body. The girls of Kamehameha led by Miss Byington, and the boys of Kamehameha led by Mr. Livingston contributed special music to the occasion.

The following program was rendered under the direction of Rev. Dr. W. M. Kincaid, who presided. The hymns were all printed, and the audience sang with special fervor Julia Ward Howe's "Battle Hymn of the Republic," and Hawaii's National Anthem.

Organ Prelude.
Invocation.
Response, "The Lord's Prayer," Quartette.

Hymn, "God Bless Our Native Land," tune: "Italian Hymn."

Chorus, "To Thee O Country," Eichberg; Girls of the Kamehameha School. Responsive Service, Ps. 67.

Anthem, "Fear Not, O Lord," Rogers; Choir.

Solo and Chorus, "The Star Spangled Banner," Key; Mr. Howland, Choir and Congregation.

Offertory, "Andante Religioso," F. Thome; Prof. E. G. d'Albert.

Hymn, "Mine Eyes Have Seen the Glory of the Coming of the Lord," Julia Ward Howe.

Chorus, Kamehameha Boys' Glee Club.

Hawaiian National Hymn, "Hawaii Ponoi."

National Hymn, "America," Smith. Benediction.

Organ Postlude.

President Percy L. Horne, of Kamehameha Schools, made the principal address of the evening, which will be published in a later issue, giving a brief but scholarly summary of the life and work of Washington, and ending with an eloquent exhortation to follow in his foot-steps.

T. McCants Stewart followed with a brief address, speaking substantially, as follows:

"Every nation has its heroes—men and women—who, because of extraordinary elements of character, stand above others in the usefulness and influence of their lives.

"Hawaii has her Princess Pauahi who, because of the dedication of her wealth to public benevolence, will be a heroine forever.

"England has Victoria whose exalted womanhood and splendid work for humanity will make her a heroine to all ages.

"Tonight we are keeping green the memory of America's first hero. Other heroes there are men who have stamped the impress of their genius upon our institutions and have wrought mightily for the good of humanity; but the first fruit of the new world's civilization was George Washington.

"Over forty years ago, I saw a picture of Washington, which I have never forgotten. I have not seen it in years; but it is fresh in my memory today. Underneath the picture were the words, 'Washington at Valley Forge.'

"It was the winter of 1777. The handful of poorly fed, and poorly clad Americans were fighting for their civil and political freedom against the strangest blood and the most powerful Kingdom of Europe, England.

"The American army went into winter quarters at Valley Forge. Ice and snow were everywhere. There was great suffering there, as the men were without sufficient food or clothing. They had no blankets to keep them warm at night. Their bare feet left blood tracks in the snow. Disease and death were everywhere, and Congress and the American people were too poor to give relief.

"There was no human aid to seek; no human hand to grasp. In that dark and dismal hour, and in his bare and cheerless tent, Washington, in this picture, is on his knees at prayer. At prayer! yes, at prayer. In that hour of need, and uncertainty, and darkness, Washington turned to God.

"Into every life there comes a Valley Forge. Some lives are full of Valley Forge. And, our comfort, our relief comes only through prayer, through that trust in God, which has characterized the heroes of all ages.

"Washington at prayer is the thought of this very brief speech.

"I grant the exception; but history shows that the heroes of every nation and of every age, the men who have helped mankind the most, are the men who believed in God, and who worshipped at His altars.

"Club life may develop sociality, and fraternal societies the humanities. They are both good; but the church is founded upon the Rock Eternal, and the men who are either indifferent to her altars, or neglect them, never contribute anything permanent to the welfare of the human race. Washington had profound convictions of religious truth; firm faith in an overruling providence, and reverence for the Christian church, in which he was a communicant. And because of this fact, he lived, not for himself, but for his fellow men.

"When the Caesars triumphed in war and returned to Rome, they reveled in the glory of their success and added to their power. When Washington conquered the English Army and gained independence for the American people, he reported to Congress; surrendered his commission as general in the army, and retired to private life. When the American people wanted him to assume practical Kingship over them, he refused; and the Constitution, under which we now lived was framed. When they wanted him to be president for the third time, he refused, thus, in the last public act of his life, showing that he lived to serve his fellow men, and to promote their welfare.

"Upon the question of slavery, he was ahead of his time. Having seen the valor of a thousand colored men, who fought as regular soldiers under him, he felt that it was wrong to enslave their race. And such was the breadth of his mind, and the excellent qualities of his moral nature, that he lifted his hat in response to the salutation of a slave, saying to a friend, who rebuked him, 'I allow no man to be more polite than I.'

"If we profit by his example, we shall leave our foot-prints on the sands of time for the guidance of the generations following us."

UNSEASONABLY DRY BUT RAIN IN SIGHT

Section Director A. McC. Ashley summarizes last week's weather and crop report for the islands as follows:

During the past week, the days have been warm and sunny, but the nights cool in most sections. Throughout the entire group, the unseasonably dry weather noted in last week's report has continued, but the present week closes with some slight indications of rain.

The drought is becoming serious. Streams, even in the windward districts, are very low, and pumping plants are all in operation. Pastures generally are very dry and poor, and grazing stock is suffering. Young cane needs rain, but is growing fairly well in most sections under the influence of the higher temperatures, and the dry weather has been quite favorable for general field operations on the plantations. The harvesting and grinding of matured cane continues, but there is a general complaint of shortage of water for fluming. The warm days have been beneficial for the ripening of pineapples, but the cool nights have checked the development of fruit buds.

Coffee needs rain to bring out the blossoms, especially in the Kona district of Hawaii. Sisal is growing fairly well in Maui, but is making little or no advance in Oahu. The replanting of rice is about finished, and the young rice is growing well.

A serious forest fire is in progress in the Kaapuna and Kipahoe land sections of South Kona, Hawaii. Kilauea crater, on Hawaii, has been in constant eruption since the night of the 23rd.

NEW TRIAL ORDERED FROM SAN FRANCISCO

The following cablegram from Judge Gear was yesterday received by Clerk Sims:

"San Francisco, Feb. 27, 1905.—To Sims, Honolulu.—In Territory versus Cotton, ordered motion new trial granted. Grounds mailed.—Gear, Judge."

In the suit of the Territory by C. S. Holloway vs. Cotton Bros. & Co., plaintiff got a verdict for $25,000 damages for the loss of a government dredger. Judge Gear when he left took the papers in the case with him. It is not known whether or not the Territory will contest this long range decision.

Bright's Disease and Diabetes News.

1737 Broadway, San Francisco. January 10, 1905.

To the church women of Honolulu: It is so hard for people to believe that Bright's Disease and Diabetes are now curable that I am asked to permit reference to my own case. There are too many dying to remain silent. I had both Bright's Disease and Diabetes for over five years. Was very feeble, had dropsy, and the physicians told us the case was hopeless. I heard that people were being cured in this city and procured the treatment. In a few months the dropsy disappeared and in a year I was well. To show how well, will say that later I stood a capital operation at the Waldeck Sanitarium in the presence of six physicians. Many friends, including Dr. Markell of Cloverdale and Judge E. B. Cutler of Pine street, are fully cognizant of my recovery. In fact, Judge Cutler is himself now recovering under the same treatment. Let the cure be proclaimed to the world.

MRS. S. E. CLINE.

This is entirely correct. E. B. CUTLER.

The above refers to the newly discovered Fulton Compound, the first cure in the world for Bright's Disease and Diabetes.

HONOLULU DRUG CO. is local agent. Ask for pamphlet.

When to suspect Bright's Disease—weakness or loss of weight; puffiness ankles, hands or eyelids; kidney trouble after the third month; urine may show sediment; falling vision; drowsiness. One or more of these.

NEWS NOTES OF MAUI

KIPAHULU DEPUTY SHERIFF APPOINTMENT IS AWAITED

BASEBALL AT WELLS PARK. WITNESSES IN ELECTION CASE—NEW LYONS BABY.

[Special to The Bulletin.]
Wailuku, Maui, Feb. 25.—The year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Sparks of Kipahulu died last evening. The funeral will be held at Wailuku this afternoon, Rev. Wm. Ault conducting the burial services, both at the church and at the cemetery.

Jimmy, the six-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Morris, died at Waihee last Wednesday afternoon. The boy had been suffering with enlargement of the heart for several months. The remains were buried at Waihee beach, Rev. Father Julian conducting services.

Quite a number of chairmen of Election Boards of Maui and Molokai have been subpoenaed to appear before Judge Kepoikai when the Second Circuit term opens in Wailuku on March 1st to answer to questions put to them by attorneys in re the case of C. P. Laukea vs. J. Kalaniainole to invalidate the 1904 general election returns.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Lyons of this city were again blessed this week with the arrival of a baby boy last Thursday. The little fellow was christened the same day and is now known as Auwae Noa Kepoikai Lyons.

J. Kanama Kapoi will likely get the appointment of deputy sheriff of Kipahulu, Maui, in place of Levi Joseph, resigned. The Maui District Committee has not yet met to consider the application, and it is very likely that the appointment will be announced in Honolulu next week. Mr. Kapoi is the choice of Kipahulu precinct executive, but the choice of the appointing authorities is not known.

Father Sylvester is still at Malulani Hospital, Wailuku, under the care of the Catholic sisters. Father Julian and the Brothers. He is reported very much better this morning although not considered out of danger.

The baseball at Wells' Park, Wailuku, tomorrow afternoon, between the Single Men and the Married Men, will bring out a large number of the friends of the participants. The diamond has been reduced in size for it is not feared that any high flies will go beyond the fenders.

WHAT BOSTON THINKS

Jessie MacLachlan and her concert company appear here on April 1st under the auspices of the Scottish Thistle Club. Following is a notice of the Boston appearance:

The simple songs of Scotland were given with infinite feeling, and Miss MacLachlan drew from her audience applause such as falls to the lot of few singers. When she gave the stirring martial air "WI' a Hundred Pipers" the audience went wild. Men jumped on chairs, and waved their arms, shouting like mad, and for seven or eight minutes the applause was absolutely terrific. There were fully 5,000 people present.—Boston Journal.

SUNDAY FIRES.

Lack of water in the Nuuanu reservoirs was the direct cause of the complete destruction by fire of a Chinese store at the corner of Wyllie and Liliha streets Sunday morning.

While Lin Fook and family were attending service in St. Peter's chapel the house in which they live and keep a store took fire and was burned to the ground. Neighbors saw the smoke but as there is no fire alarm box in that vicinity many valuable minutes were lost while a boy ran to the military hospital to telephone to central headquarters. The fire department promptly answered the call, but when the hose wagon arrived upon the scene it proved to be useless, as the fire plug just across the street was dry as a chip. The engine, however, which arrived a little later, was able to pump in a little.

KAIMUKI BEARS.

The two large California bears which arrived by the S. S. Nebraskan were sent out to the Kaimuki Zoo this forenoon, where they will be on exhibition with the monkeys on one side and the Zebu and Mongoose on the other.

One of them is a cinnamon bear and the other is a black bear.

Premiums to be given in The Evening Bulletin $1000, contest are now on display in the windows of the Schuman Carriage Co., Ltd., Young Bldg.

According to the associated perfidy promoters, Grover Cleveland was loved for the lies he enacted. At least Grover will plead not guilty.

Any man who predicted that the high prices for sugar have passed, belongs to the class that refuses to be encouraged when a temporary cloud crosses the sky.

It is not entirely truthful to say of the Japanese never cross a river till they get to it. Once they arrive it is only a matter of a few days and they are on the other side.

Since the Advertiser says the Bulletin is not the people, it is a first class recommendation for the Bulletin and strengthens its position as properly representing the sentiment of the people.

Attorney General Andrews is not likely to be asked for an explanation from Congress of why he dispensed liquor at a political banquet, but it would be interesting to know how he is to explain it to his dear friends of the Anti-Saloon League.

When legislators are urged to betray their constituents it is not far to search for a class in which to place those advocating such a course. Men who strive to break their promises with the people belong to the lowest order of American humanity and the Republican legislators of Hawaii will not put themselves in that class by following the lead of enemies of American local self-government.

THE TRIAL OF MAGOON.

The same old hounding tactics are being revived now that Magoon has been or is about to be brought before the Supreme Court to answer for his personal and professional integrity. It has ceased to become remarkable in this Territory that the courts cannot be allowed to decide cases on the law and the evidence without the interposition of a gang that attempts to shape public opinion for an adverse decision before the Court has heard a word of the prosecution or defense.

President Roosevelt has said that his highest ideal in public and private life is to secure for every citizen of the United States a fair deal. That sentiment certainly carries out the spirit of our institutions, particularly the courts, though in Hawaii it has been noted more in the breach of the faith than the fulfillment. The criminal efforts to add a prejudiced court to carry out the dictates of prejudice or the spite of a gang have more than once disgraced the history of this Territory.

When the Territory was given a Supreme Court whose majority at least possessed the confidence of the people it was hoped that every man would have a fair deal. The scheme of attack on Magoon however, after the complaint against him was filed, and he was fairly before the court, not before, proves that there is still room for improvement in the attitude of a certain element who thinking they have a man down seek to railroad him through to conviction beyond the peradventure of a doubt.

J. A. Magoon has plenty of enemies in this town. That he has numerous friends in his profession was evidenced by the manner in which brother attorneys rushed to his defense some months ago when he was brought before the courts. It is not the Bulletin's intent to attack or defend Mr. Magoon in his present unpleasant position or pass on his testimony in previous disbarment cases. But J. A. Magoon is entitled to a fair trial, unaided and unimpeded by the manufacture of sentiment in favor by friends or against him by enemies.

TEXTS FOR THE LEGISLATORS.

Members of the Legislature, now assembled, made definite promises to the people of these islands in their platform and on the stump. On the basis of these promises the members were elected. Chief among these promises were pledges to pass laws for Local Self-Government, Schools, Homesteads, which represent foundation principles of American government. Members of the Legislature cannot do better than take for their text the following statement made by President Roosevelt in one of his public speeches:

"It is absolutely essential, if we are to have the proper standard of public life, that promise shall be square with performance. A lie is no more to be excused in politics than out of politics. A promise is as binding on the stump as off the stump, and these are two facets of that crystal. In the first place the man who makes a promise which he does not intend to keep and does not try to keep should rightly be adjudged to have forfeited in some degree what should be every man's most precious possession—his honor."

Should Roosevelt's teachings not seem sufficient let them turn to a few words of wisdom from Tom Watson when he said:

"Woe unto leaders who trick the people and then boast of it! Woe unto leaders who forget that the American people have heart and conscience, convictions and a sense of honor! Such men may triumph for a day, but only for the day. Not for them are the greater victories which ennoble the human race."

Numerous Petitions. Petitions were presented as follows: Rep. Mahelona: from Okolaula citizens to remove Haula court house to Lala.

Rep. Coelho: from Third District, Maui, praying for repeal of wide tire Act; for $175 to cut lanterns from the highways; for $150 for road purpose; praying that a law be enacted permitting relatives of lepers to visit the settlement on Molokai; for an appropriation for Deputy Sheriff for Honouliuli, Maui, and for other and miscellaneous matters.

The Police Committee, to whom was referred H. Res. No. 70, by Rep. Mahelona, on appropriation for $10,000 for the extension of the fire alarm system by the establishment of 50 more boxes in Honolulu, reported favorably, recommending the appropriation.

The Committee on Health, to whom was referred certain minor claims, asked time for further investigation. Reference Committee.

Reference Committee reported. Kaloopa's bill relating to internal taxes was recommended referred back to the House and tabled on the ground that two subjects were embraced in the same bill. The same recommendation was made in regard to Rep. Mahikon's bill to amend Act 22, S. L. 1903, as being covered by the present law. Rep. Aylett's Sunday law was similarly treated. Rep. Quinn covering the same subject.

Committee advise discussing Rep. Kanho's exemption from taxation bill on the floor before sending it to the Printing Committee; same recommendation in regard to Rep. Kanho's school library bill; in regard to the same member's distillation measure, the Committee referred back to the House because of a similar Senate bill. An Act to amend law in re illegal manufacture for sale of spirituous liquors, recommended tabled because of similar Senate bill. Report of Committee adopted.

Judiciary Committee. The Judiciary Committee reported, recommending that Rep. Mahikon's resolution in re erecting court house, jail, etc., Hanaole, came more properly within the scope of the Land Committee.

Judiciary Committee reported recommending tabling Rep. Mahelona's resolution in re indictment of misdemeanants, deeming it unnecessary to burden the Congress of the United States with matters and things contained in the resolution.

Rep. Mahelona, of the Committee, did not concur.

Rep. Andrade, chairman, declared that the Judiciary Committee was not attempting to railroad anything through the House, as the Hon. Gentleman from the Fifth seemed to intimate, for Rep. Mahelona had something to say about the Committee's acting when he was not present. "The object of the resolution," said Rep. Andrade, "is that the Attorney General formulate laws to be presented to Congress, laws that will mean that Grand Jurors will no longer indict for misdemeanors. The only way that the objects of the resolution can be attained is to knock out the hard labor in relation to misdemeanors and provide some ward in the prisons for misdemeanants."

The report of the Committee was finally referred back. At noon recess was taken until 2 p. m.

PURE MILK DEMANDS

Editor Evening Bulletin:—I quote from my report of December 31st, 1904: "In the State of New York the importance of pure milk has been deemed so vital the Legislature established state dairies to demonstrate the best practical methods of the producing and distribution of pure milk. "Milk is the food of the most helpless of beings, the baby and the sick, and its purity and quality should have the greatest protection of law."

"Good for Wood" Lacqueret. It makes old, soiled and marred FURNITURE, WOOD-WORK and FLOORS Look Like New. Anybody can apply it. It dries over night and wears wonderfully. Lacqueret is Translucent, Non Fading, Non-Settling, Brilliant, Hard, Drying, Sanitary and Durable.

Color Mixing. It is a belief fostered by those outside the painting trade that if the color is mixed ready for use by a practical man it is easy enough to make a practical job. Although this is far from being a correct view it is nevertheless perfectly true that unless the color is properly mixed no man can make a practical job with it.

BY AUTHORITY. ACT 3. AN ACT TO ENACT THE REVISED LAWS OF HAWAII. Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. Sections one to three thousand two hundred and eight, both inclusive, set forth on pages eighty-three to one thousand one hundred and fifty-five, both inclusive, of the volume prepared by the Commission appointed under the provisions of Act Forty-five of the Session Laws of the year one thousand nine hundred and three, are hereby enacted as law, to take effect on the approval of this Act, and the same shall be designated and cited as the Revised Laws of Hawaii.

SECTION 2. All statutes in force immediately prior to the approval of this Act, which are embraced, with or without change, in the Revised Laws, are hereby repealed, and so much of the Revised Laws as is applicable or corresponds thereto shall be in force in lieu thereof; provided, however, that said repeal shall not apply to or affect any provision which is not subject to repeal, or the part or parts of the Revised Laws applicable or corresponding to which could not be enacted, by the Legislature without the approval of Congress, or any provision of a temporary nature, the functions of which have been fulfilled, or any statute or part thereof, of which no part is embraced in the Revised Laws.

SECTION 3. Said repeal shall not affect any act done, ratified or confirmed, or any right accruing or accrued or established, or any action, suit or proceeding had or commenced in any civil cause, prior to said repeal, but all rights and liabilities under any statute in the Revised Laws or so repealed shall continue, and may be enforced in the same manner and with the same effect as if said repeal had not been made; nor shall said repeal in any manner affect the right to any office or change the term or tenure thereof.

SECTION 4. Said repeal shall not affect any offense committed or any punishment, penalty or forfeiture incurred, prior to said repeal, under any statute embraced in the Revised Laws or so repealed, but every such offense may be prosecuted and punished, and every punishment, penalty or forfeiture imposed and enforced, in the same manner and with the same effect as if said repeal had not been made.

SECTION 5. No statute of limitations, whether applicable to civil causes or proceedings, or to the prosecutions of offenses, or for the recovery of penalties or forfeitures, embraced in the Revised Laws or so repealed, shall be affected thereby, but all suits, proceedings and prosecutions, whether civil or criminal, for causes arising, or acts done or committed prior to said repeal may be commenced and prosecuted with the same effect as if said repeal had not been made.

SECTION 6. Provisions in the Revised Laws shall be construed as continuations or amendments of applicable or corresponding provisions of previously existing laws and not as new enactments; and references in statutes not repealed to provisions which are embraced, with or without change, in the Revised Laws, shall be construed as applying to such provisions in the Revised Laws.

SECTION 7. The enactment of the Revised Laws shall not affect or repeal any Act passed at this session of the Legislature prior to the date of the approval of this Act, but all Acts so passed shall have full effect as if passed after said date, and, so far as such Acts vary from or conflict with any provision contained in the Revised Laws, they shall have the effect as subsequent Acts, and as repealing any portions of the Revised Laws inconsistent therewith.

SECTION 8. This Act shall take effect from and after the date of its approval.

Approved this 27th day of February, A. D. 1905. G. R. CARTER, Governor of the Territory of Hawaii.

MANY VESSELS DUE.

Much speculation is indulged in in shipping quarters as to the probable activity that should prevail this week along the waterfront. Only four vessels are now in the harbor and with the Dirigo sailing today and the Fooling Suey along about the middle of the week, the Robert Lowers and the Chilean ship Othello will be the only ships in port, unless, of course, a good stiff breeze should spring up, which would bring the fleet off the islands into port.

A number of deep water vessels are due to arrive at any time. The American ship Emily Reed is out 25 days from Newcastle, the British ship Senator left the same port 70 days ago. The American schooners W. A. West and Solano and the ship Tillie E. Starbuck are out from Newcastle to Honolulu 67, 54 and 36 days respectively. The American bark Kikikat is 29 days out of Port Gambie, the bark R. P. Ribot 29 days out of San Francisco, and the schooner Olga 18 days from Portland, Ore., all bound to this port.

The steamer Oregonian sailed from New York 55 days ago, the British bark Titania got away from Leith, England, five months past and the German bark Antucot is 116 days out of Hamburg, all for Honolulu.

With a little luck and favorable winds the next few days should be very busy ones along the waterfront.

FOR BETTER ROADS

Editor Evening Bulletin:—As re- trenchment is now to be practiced in all Government undertakings in this Territory, we would suggest that all Government contracts for making roads be done away with, as in most cases these contracts have been too unsatisfactory and too costly. In most cases these contracts have been taken by some rich man who makes a large profit out of it, and then lets to others, who again make a good thing out of it, and in the end the half of the money is never spent on the road at all but goes into the pocket of men who care nothing for the condition of the roads, or scarcely ever see them.

We would suggest that Government road making be done by the Government and that some responsible man be put in charge of the work. We would also say that the money spent on dirt roads is money thrown away. In regard to roads, it is to be hoped that this Legislature will appropriate something for the roads through the homesteads of Hilo and Hamakua districts, which are badly needed.

As at present such as they have are so bad as to be almost impassable, and are not even situated where most needed.

What is wanted is a road constructed that will permit the settlers to go from lot to lot without going a distance of half a dozen miles, when he could, if such a road was made, get there in half a mile.

Unless something of the kind is done, these homesteads will become practically useless.

AS DEMOCRATS SEE IT

Editor Evening Bulletin:—"Before and After." Representative Carl Smith on County Government.

ON THE PLATFORM.
"We reiterate our adherence to the principle of decentralization of power, and demand the immediate establishment by the Legislature of County Government throughout the Territory, and also the passage of a general municipal government act under which cities and towns may be established. We will secure, if necessary, such amendments to our Organic Act as may be required to enable the Legislature to enact such legislation fully and completely, and upon approved modern lines. And in this connection we point with satisfaction to the appointment by the Governor, pursuant to the resolution of the Legislature, or a Commission to draft a new County Act."—Republican Platform adopted in Hilo, Sept. 1st, 1904.

Benings—"They say that Johnson has very bright prospects." Jennings—"Yes, he has gone into the polishing business."

AFTER ELECTION.

"The underlying principle of the whole idea, to my way of thinking, is that a system of county government should come to the people of Hawaii as a steady natural growth. * * * It is my idea that County Government should be established at as early a date as possible and in this connection, I do not think it wise that we should start with the election of County officers. The idea as discussed and approved by the Young Men's Republican Club of Hilo is to introduce a simple bill merely providing for the dividing of the Territory into counties as political corporations."—From Evening Bulletin of Feb. 22d, 1905.

RAILROAD DISCUSSION

BRIEFS ARE SUBMITTED BY PRESENT COMPANIES

OAHU RAILROAD AND RAPID TRANSIT COMPANIES SAY PROPOSED FRANCHISE IS TOO OPEN.

The special railway committee of the Senate last evening gave a hearing to the friends and opponents of the McCandless bill. The O. R. & L. Co. and the H. R. T. & L. Co. appeared as opponents, briefs being filed by both, while a brief was also filed by John Lucas, whose name is mentioned in the proposed franchise. The O. R. & L. Co. brief, prepared by S. M. Ballou, shows that the bill proposes a wide open franchise with few and indefinite and that the portion of the proposed line between the harbor and Diamond Head should be barred for steamer traffic. It is claimed that the bill violates the exclusive privilege of the O. R. & L. Co. in its third route and that the proposed railroad should not be allowed to run through the company's yard, nor should be allowed to condemn the tracks of the existing companies except for purpose of crossing.

The fares in the Kona district are claimed to be exorbitant and the tax exemption and subsidy grants should be stricken out. The O. R. & L. Co. is prepared to extend its lines wherever it believes traffic will pay. There should be a substantial penalty for failure to comply with any and all the provisions of the bill and not for specified parts of it only. The Honolulu Rapid Transit brief by L. Tenney Peck begins by stating that the bill, which ostensibly framed as if relating to an island trunk railway, may very well be for a street railway only under the guise of a railroad. The right purpose of Mr. Lucas should be set forth clearly. Reference is made to the fact that the H. R. T. & L. Co. is prohibited from using steam cars between Kalihi and Diamond Head and to the fact that the specifications are vague and indefinite. Furthermore no penalty is attached to the failure to comply with the construction clauses and a fare of six cents per mile allows as 45 cents between the Pal and Waikiki, while the Rapid Transit is limited to five cent rates.

The brief goes on to say: The privileges sought for are so sweeping and comprehensive that I feel warranted in pointing out to the committee in what manner these rights might be exercised to the great harm, not only of the public, but of the Honolulu Rapid Transit & Land Company, which, in all fairness should not, I submit, be exposed, through special legislation, to competition of this kind, nor, indirectly, through taxation, to the necessity of paying its share of a subsidy to its own undoing. It would seem fitting that the promoters of this scheme now disclose their identity and show to the satisfaction of your committee that they have a fair prospect of building the line, Mr. Lucas having informed me that he had no special interest in the bill and had allowed his name to be used at the request of the Senator who has introduced it, who is the only other person who has appeared before your committee to champion the measure. As per Section 34 of Act 69, Laws of 1898, the Rapid Transit franchise was not made effective until a company was formed with a minimum capital of two hundred thousand dollars to undertake and prosecute construction, to which all of the rights and privileges of the franchise were unreservedly assigned. The brief ends with a reference to the complete work done by the H. R. T. & L. Co. and the injury which would be done to this concern should a franchise as sought for be granted.

The brief of John Lucas is in part as follows: I do not believe that the point made by the Honolulu Rapid Transit and Land Company is well taken for the ground that the public in general generally ride on the cars that carry them the cheapest. The present fare charged by the Honolulu Rapid Transit and Land Company, say from miles, is five cents (5c.), while the fare proposed to be charged by my company for the same trip would be eighteen cents (18c.). Surely the committee will see that people will continue to travel on the cars of the Honolulu Rapid Transit and Land Company at these rates. However, if the committee thinks that the point made by the Honolulu Rapid Transit and Land Company is well taken, I ask that I be allowed to amend my bill so that I may have the right to construct, lay and operate lines on any of the streets of Honolulu between the waterfront and Wylie street, Nuuanu Valley, and Kapiolani Park at Waikiki and Kamehameha IV road at Kalihi, an electric road or roads, in consideration of which the proposed company will agree to charge not more than three cents a trip for adults, and two and one-half cents per trip for school children on week days during school hours and on Sunday during Sunday school hours. A trip to mean any route in any general direction. For instance from Kapiolani Park to the waterfront, to Nuuanu valley, or to Kalihi. As to objections raised by the Oahu Railway and Land Company I realize that the Oahu Railway and Land Company has a franchise giving it a blanket franchise for steam in the Districts of Ewa, Waialua, Koolauloa and Koolapoko, but up to the present time has only taken advantage of portions of its franchise. I therefore come to this Legislature to ask for a franchise that covers nearly all new territory, untouched at present by any road, and if this Legislature desires to promote the industries of this Territory they should grant me the franchise asked for. It will cost between $2,000,000.00 and $3,000,000.00 to build this proposed road, the greater portion of which will be spent for labor and thereby benefit the people of the Territory at large, as well as give many people steady employment as well and open up and tend to develop a new country which will I venture to say increase the taxes of this island. In the districts where this road will run, from $100,000.00 to $150,000.00 per year. The subsidy asked for this railroad will not cause the Territory additional money out of its present revenues from the districts where it is proposed to run this road. The increase in taxes caused by the opening up of new lands, etc., will more than pay for the subsidy asked for.

The visitor to Kapiolani Park after an absence of say a couple of years finds much changed and this state of affairs is emphasized, be he a student of the finned and feathered creatures of nature which have in the past made the reservation their home. Where, however, the great catfish (ooppu pake), the gorgeous golden carp and the lithesome mullet seem to have grievously disappeared, the coot, their ever constant companion, remains, a link connecting the present modernized park with that which existed when the honored name of Kapiolani was first bestowed upon it and it afforded refuge to many species of feathered wanderers whose presence it would be in vain to look for today. Visit the park at any hour of the day and attention will be arrested by a harsh, grating cry that appears to come from the lagoon. Look closely in the direction of the sound and you will see its originator, a slate-colored bird about the size of a teal duck, strutting among the matted mass of water hyacinths in a restless hunt after the myriads of tiny snails and annelidulae with which the vegetation covering the surface of the lagoon abounds. Steal closely toward the edge of the lake, keeping a palm between you and the bird the while, and you may observe it at your ease. The crimson protuberance at the base of the beak, the olive green legs, and the white tail feathers are easily discernible. Bah! There he goes. He has seen you and is scurrying over the surface with feet palling the water in the direction of a clump of bushes, in which he disappears. His mate is undoubtedly hidden there, perhaps guarding a reedy nest in which repose a dozen creamy eggs splashed with brown. Sometimes both may be seen exploring their hunting ground together. A stone's throw away is the keeper's cottage and close at hand the electric car's roar. Still the coot remains, indifferent to the hand of progress and dwelling contented in a world of unmolested, good living.

RAWINS SHOWS MERCY

TRAVELER'S EXPERIENCE WITH HONOLULU SUNDAY

NEEDED CLEAN COLLARS AND HAD TO GET POLICE PERMIT TO BUY THEM—CURI- OUS STORY.

Aboard the Pacific Mail steamship Mongolia, which passed through here on Sunday, from the Orient, en route to San Francisco, were a couple of well-to-do gentlemen, representatives of the Standard Oil Company, going home. Not having had any washing done aboard the steamship, through an oversight on their part, they were very desirous of purchasing in Honolulu a few clean collars and, incidentally, a neck-tie or two.

Arrived in the beautiful city of Honolulu, the capital of the Paradise of the Pacific, the city far famed and justly so for its loveliness and numerous other charms, these gentlemen at once made for the Alexander Young Hotel to establish their quarters until the time of the sailing of the Coast-bound Mongolia. Having refreshed themselves by a change of clothes, with the exception of the badly needed collars, they sallied forth in search of a hack wherein they might see something of the sights of Honolulu, little suspecting that Honolulu, cosmopolitan Honolulu, the mid-Pacific city, the oasis in the watery desert, the happy haunt of globe-trotters at times was a tight-shut, blue-law, stiff-necked little cave of silence on a Sunday. Said they to the driver of a hack of the 290 stand: "Behold! We are weary with the journey and, to our respective collars are wilted and we fain would like to a dispenser of the male adornment and exchange good tourist gold for the wherewithal to circumscribe our necks, necks which we have stretched to great advantage rubbing at the beauties of your most fair city."

And the Jehu, expressing doubts as to the possibility of a gentleman buying a clean collar on Sunday in Honolulu, nevertheless drove the travelers to a clothing store on Hotel street and, behold, the proprietor thereof happened to be in the neighborhood; and the hackman approached the proprietor with due caution and due explanation of the urgency of the occasion, asking, may, plying that he produce collars and neckties for his fares. But the conscientious haberdasher refused most flatly and declared that if he so much as opened his store on the holy day of stupid silence he would be "pinched" by Hatter or the vigilant police for violating a law written large on the back pages of the Hawaiian code. Laughing at the absurdity of the situation, the gentlemen went out to Waikiki to enjoy the delightful weather, returning to the Young Hotel for lunch. Upon arriving again at the hotel they learned that certain ladies known by them were going up to the Coast on the Mongolia and that they would lunch at the Young. Anxious to meet these ladies, the gentlemen suddenly remembered that they had none but badly soiled collars. Once more, therefore, they hunted up the 290 hackman, their friend of the morning, and told him that for love or gold, or both, he must secure for them clean collars. This time the hackman carried his fare to the home residence of the proprietor of the Hotel street clothing house and pleaded most prettily, all his trouble, etc., would be well paid for, to go to town, open his store and hand out a few collars and a couple of neckties, but in vain, until the pious haberdasher suggested that if he had the permission of High Sheriff Henry he would satisfy the demands of the collarless travelers. Taking him at his word, the hackman at once conveyed the two travelers to police headquarters and searched for High Sheriff Henry. This gentleman was not around and Deputy High Sheriff Rawlins was appealed to. The case was plainly stated. Two gentlemen wanted clean collars. They had the money and yet could not purchase them, because in Honolulu now-a-days it is considered better to wear dirty linen on the Lord's day than to purchase the same from an honest man who has his living to make and a family to support on Sundays as well as on week-days. The emotions of the genial Rawlins were necessarily aroused, he is but human and appreciates the joy of a clean collar himself, occasionally. If the gentlemen desired but a clean collar or so to appear respectable in the presence of ladies, why, he thought, there would be no harm in allowing the haberdasher to enter his store for one little minute and hand over the goods. Overjoyed at the prospect of being able to present themselves to the ladies without wearing their coat-collars turned up, the gentlemen warmly thanked Mr. Rawlins and went on their way rejoicing. The collars were purchased, together with a few neckties and six and one-half good American dollars passed over the counter to the glory of free American institutions and the cause of cleanliness. Said one of the travelers: "This will be a rich story to tell on the mainland. I wonder if we can get folks back on the Coast to believe that in an American city of 45,000 people we could not buy a clean collar on Sunday without a permit from police headquarters. We'll give the story to the newspapers, at any rate, and let the world have the benefit of the facts, startling and incredible as they will appear. Honolulu is a lovely city, I'm free to admit, and is doubtless full of attractions, except on Sunday, the one day we happened to be able to visit it. May the Lord bless Hawaii and may the Legislature wipe out all such (here, for the sake of politeness, it is necessary to omit an adjective) foolish rot as a tight Sunday."

HAWAIIAN'S REPORT FOR YEAR 1904 SHOWS PROSPERITY

Prosperous conditions were shown in the reports of the manager and treasurer of the Hawaiian Sugar Company, which held its annual meeting this morning in the offices of Alexander & Baldwin, Ltd. Commenting on the 1904, Manager B. D. Baldwin says: "This crop turned out a little short of the estimate, but considering the very dry weather we had in 1903 during the growth of this crop and the great damage which was done to it by the leaf-hopper, I think we should be satisfied that it has turned out as well as it has and that the balance is on the right side, enabling the company to start out the new year with dividends." Even better results are expected for 1905, whose total is estimated at 17,088 tons. Three thousand four hundred and sixty-three acres have been planted for 1906. The new Olokele ditch is expected to afford plenty of water in the drier season. It cost $345,291.00. The Honolulu Iron Works is now constructing a 12-roller mill for the company, and 6 1/2 miles of railroad will be added. Manager Baldwin closes by saying that Korean labor is satisfactory, and will become more so. Treasurer J. P. Cooke's report shows expenditures for permanent improvements during the year amounting to $179,273.81. Operating expenses for 1904 were $665,824.78. The surplus of receipts over expenditures is $279,445.43. The officers of last year were all re-elected. Fine Job Printing at The Bulletin
