Observations.

The INDEPENDENT gives its employees a full holiday today and will not issue tomorrow.

Residents of Waikiki are complaining loudly because horses are allowed to feed on the road and obstruct public traveling. It is of course very convenient for people to starve their plugs at home and let them enjoy the "long" pasture, but it is dangerous and annoying to anybody who has to pass that road in the night. If the pound master is too lazy to look after the business, let the mounted police take the job. They are doing nothing else.

Colonel McLean, formerly of the United States navy and now commanding the National Guard of Hawaii, under Mr. Dole, the commander-in-chief, intruded himself on the ex-Queen yesterday morning, accompanied by Dr. Cooper, to ascertain the condition of that lady's health. It will take more explanations than the official organs probably are able to offer to justify this most remarkable step. Is Col. McLean in charge of the government? Is the ex-Queen not, according to orders from headquarters, in charge of the Attorney-General? The people will like to know it, because to the ordinary mind the appearance in her presence of Col. McLean seems based on mere curiosity and nothing else.

European Labor.

Among the measures that are expected to be introduced by the Government at the special session is one for a special loan of a half million dollars for the purpose of introducing European labor. The government get the money back from the planters, who are to pay $75 a head for the labor. It is understood that Mr. Thurston, after his European tour, reported that an abundance of labor could be obtained in that quarter. The money to be received from the planters on this account is to form a fund for promoting further labor from Europe. Between six and seven thousand laborers would refund the whole amount of the loan, and the laborers would be of a suitable class either for independent settlers or, after their experience in sugar cane cultivation in three-year contracts, to raise cane on the profit-sharing system. It is understood that much valuable information upon the system just mentioned, which has been obtained by the Labor Commission from Queensland, will be laid before the Legislature.

In this new departure by the government, there is a gleam of coming reform in our labor system. A little bird has whispered in our ear that the policy of the Government was resisted in conference by a representative planter who claimed something like that the Government had promised the Planters' Labor and Supply Company several thousand more Chinese besides as many more Japanese as they might want. Mr. Hatch is said to have told him that no such obligation existed, and that the Government resolved to call a halt on unlimited coolie importation from Asia as being inimical to the fundamental policy of annexation to the United States. In the meantime the planters are allowed, under existing legislation, to introduce 1200 Chinese exclusively for agricultural labors. They must return home after the expiration of their contracts. To this end the planter must deposit $1.50 a month of each labor's wages with the government as a fund to pay his passage home if he do not enter into a new contract.

In the case of the European laborers the reform already indicated comes in. Instead of the obnoxious penal clause in the contract, under which the existing system renders a deserting laborer liable to arrest and prosecution like a criminal, a more humane provision is to be adopted. The laborer is to deposit a certain percentage of his wages for eighteen months, which is to be refunded to him at the end of his contract. If he leave before his term is out, the fund is forfeited to his employer. It is to be hoped that the Government will be able to carry out this reported intention with complete success. All that seems to be doubtful about it is the feasibility of getting a sufficient supply of European laborers. Its success ought to secure to the country a class of laborers suitable for permanent settlers and, even as contract laborers, a class who would be consumers of American and European goods. Under present conditions the trade of the country is tending toward the Orient. Should the Orient get our commerce it will capture our civilization and our government. Then the pear will at last be ripened, not for dropping into Uncle Sam's hat, but upon the outspread banner of the Rising Sun.

At Sequah's lecture, on the lot at Fort and Beretania streets, this evening the chariot will be specially illuminated, in addition to the horseshoe that has been so much admired. There will be about forty colored electric lights about the vehicle. Mr. Bridle will perhaps recite G. K. Sims' poem, "Osler Joe."

KAMEHAMEHA DAY.

Former and Present Horse Racing Compared.

All strangers and many kamaainas connect in their minds horse races with the 11th of June. Why that day is a national, especially celebrated, and cherished day by the Hawaiians is now frequently a puzzle or a forgotten fact to the present generation.

The 11th of June and horse races! Yes, but there were horse races here many years before Kamehameha day was sanctioned as a public holiday by the Legislature. In 1876 the assembled wisdom decided that Kamehameha I. was born on the 11th of June, and the day was set aside as a national holiday in commemoration of the founder of the dynasty which held its own against inward and outward foes alike, against kahunas and foreign plotters.

History doesn't tell us if Kamehameha I. was great on horse racing or sports. The newspapers of that day are luckily a matter of oblivion. They are not sold in the streets or forced upon your unwilling house steps.

But later horse racing became the fad or the pastime in Honolulu and how they did race. There were no blooded horses, no betting, no family races. Imported professional jockeys were unknown. The island boys rode their own horses and they rode to win. Stop watches had never been heard of and the time now given by the "oldest" citizens beats anything reported by the INDEPENDENT sporting editor.

Who were the jockeys? Billy Cornwell, at one time Minister of Finance, elected Noble, colonel, planter, rancher and capitalist, sat his horse as well as any other boy and he got there every time. Fancy "Billy" as a jockey!

Frank Brown, sedate and quiet a member of the Legislature for years, was the boy who saw hats, canes, caps and leis going into the air because he came in as No. 1, in that heavily disputed race. Can you see Geo. W. Macfarlane, the leading financier, the courtier and chamberlain, flying along on the race track as a boy trying to beat the others—and doing it.

Such were horse races in the good old times. The track was at first from Jim Lemon's house on the plains to a point at where C. M. Cooke's house now is, opposite Thomas Square. That is what we now call Beretania Street and the course was considered one mile long—more or less. In the sixties we got more civilized and a half-mile track was made where Hassinger's former residence is, from Makiki to Pensacola Street. And didn't the norses go around.

The horses were mustangs, and they could run. There was no funny business. Every man for himself and the deuce take the hindmost! But things took too free a tone. It became necessary to stop road-racing and the evil spirit of gambling began to crop out. Then the track at Kapiolani Park was made and under the genial patronage of Kalakaua every wealthy horse fancier joined the jockey club and for a period kept that association beyond reproach. The professionals were kept out and only the sportsman who loved sport for the sake of sport was admitted. Noble and high-bred horses were placed on the track and their owners laughed and chaffed each other when they lost or won.

That changed and then came combinations. California methods of gambling, professional jockeying and all the evils of the race tracks of the great world.

Good for Honolulu that she resented the change. It was soon seen that the public, not even the easily led Hawaiians, would take an interest in put-up races and ill concealed jobs. An effort was made. The Jockey Club took a tumble and reorganized itself and today it presents interesting, fair and honest races to the large audience which will meet at the Park and once more celebrate the day of the Kamehamehas.

New Masonic Lodge.

An interesting event in Free Masonry took place in the Masonic Temple last night. It was the institution of Pacific Lodge, A. F. & A. M., under the Grand Lodge of Scotland. For this purpose 12 members of Hawaiian Lodge, F. & A. M., took demits and obtained a charter. Judge Cooper of the Circuit Court is at the head of the new lodge, and Capt. King, Minister of the Interior, in the next highest position. For the present Pacific Lodge is the tenant of Hawaiian Lodge. Its officers are as follows:

Henry E. Cooper, Master.
J. A. King, Depute Master.
C. B. Ripley, Substitute Master.
John Phillips, Senior Warden.
F. B. Auerbach, Junior Warden.
E. D. Tenney, Treasurer.
H. H. Williams, Secretary.
Robert Frederic Lange, Chaplain.

C. L. Dodge, Senior Deacon.
Edwin Hughes, Junior Deacon.
John M. Angus, Tyler.

This new branch of the order, which has been in contemplation for a couple of years, bids fair to have a prosperous career.

Hotel Arrivals.

HAWAIIAN HOTEL.
June 9, 10.—C H Willis, Kauai; Mrs E H McBryde, ADMcBryde, Berkeley, Calif; W Y Horner, Lahaina.

ARLINGTON HOTEL.
June 9, 10.—C H Tuck, H F Hayzelden, Hona; D L Meyer, W T Robinson, Waituku; A Hocking, Makawao; E L Kruss, Hawaii; E E Richards, Hilo; Thomas C Forsyth, Lahaina.

It is reported that J. F. Clay will be elected secretary of the Senate and Dan Lyons sergeant at arms. Both appointments will be acceptable.

A decision in the libens corpus case will hardly be reached this week. Mr. Neumann, who is indisposed, only filed his brief yesterday.

Mr. David Hitchcock, a well known old resident of Hilo, is very ill. The old gentleman has been unable to attend to business for the last six months.

Acting French Counsel and Commissioner W. M. Giffard called on Admiral Beardslee on board the Philadelphia and was accorded the usual salute.

The many friends of G. K. Wilder were pleased to see him around town. Wilder used to be Deputy Marshal and is now a comfortable, sedate lawyer in Hilo. He says he likes Hilo. Ugh!

Timely Topics

June 5, 1895.

A question that will be of great importance at the meeting of the coming Legislature is the Liquor Question. The party now in power is in many ways affiliated with the prohibition party in the country, and there can be no doubt that every effort will be made by the different temperance societies to secure legislation which will prevent or at least diminish the liquor traffic. Many theories in regard to this matter have from time immemorial been advanced and here as elsewhere have people who can only be termed fanatics advocated measures which as a rule have injured their case through their intolerance and harshness. These fanatics class the moderate drinker with the habitual drunkard, and they assign him to the rather played-out drunkard's grave. The liquor question is of vast importance, but it should be discussed calmly and with due consideration to the liberty and rights of the individual citizen. We have now on hand some of the finest cocktail shakers ever introduced here.

We had some of the same pattern but the demand was so great that we soon had to order another lot. A cocktail can't help being excellent when mixed in these shakers. We can also show you some pretty stoppers for bottles in neat design, and of a very practical construction.

Do you know what a jigger is? The name indicates something in the line of high jinks, but it is simply a very pretty and very handy liquor measure which should be used in all first-class bar rooms. All the goods are in excellent Britannic ware and cannot be distinguished from solid silver. In the same ware we have many things suitable for presents, ornamental to the sideboard, and useful in any household. We sell a very pretty orange spoon and knife. They are a delicate pattern and very useful. Our coffee and tea spoons in different patterns and our napkin rings are worthy of inspection. Many other ornamental and useful things in plated ware or in old copper are exhibited in our show cases. We have some tasty smoking sets and match cases which always will be welcomed by any smoker, and other articles too numerous to mention.

THE NEW MINISTER.

W. R. Castle Once an Orator Now a Diplomat.

WILL HE BE PERSONA GRATA?

The republic has in its wisdom selected W. R. Castle to represent Hawaii at Washington in the place of L. A. Thurston, who became persona non grata through his indiscretions and open hostility towards the Cleveland administration. The selection of W. R. Castle has not found favor in many circles in Honolulu. The supporters of the republic even denounce his appointment, and we are inclined to believe that his appearance in Washington will not be hailed with unmingled satisfaction by the government to whom he is accredited.

Mr. Castle has on a previous date shown as long and as unruly a tongue as has Mr. Thurston. Before he entered the diplomatic field he was an ardent stump speaker and his enthusiasm occasionally led him astray. Now when he is going to Washington, carrying with him the hopes and wishes of the true annexationists, it is well worth looking into his previous record to see if he really is the man who can extend a friendly and reconciling hand to Mr. Cleveland and his cabinet, and who can gain the points for which so much local agitation, so much energy and so much sincerity have been displayed during the last two years.

Secretary Gresham is dead, but the policy of that great statesman will last as long as the Democratic party is in power. The name of Gresham is honored by friend and foe alike. It was left to Mr. Castle, the new Hawaiian Minister to Washington, to denounce him, to threaten him with impeachment, to condemn his policy and to use unpardonable and unjustifiable language against the Cleveland administration and more especially against the president and secretary of state.

Will a man whose record shows this be persona grata at Washington?

Is not the comparatively trifling indiscretion of Thurston when led to his recall insignificant in comparison with the indiscretion of Castle?

Do Mr. Dole and his government believe that the past is forgotten and cannot they see the impossibility of sending a man as their representative to a great and friendly nation who spoke and acted as did William R. Castle on the 26th of November, 1893?

A meeting of the supporters of the provisional government took place on that day at the drill shed. Among the speakers were P. C. Jones, Chief Justice Judd, W. C. Wilder, and as the leading orator, W. R. Castle. We publish his speech in full as given by an official paper under the heading "GRESHAM'S INFAMY DENOUNCED."

As a credential from the people of Hawaii the speech may help to place Mr. Castle in the proper light in Washington and give the astute gentleman some opportunity to explain away his sayings:

WM. R. CASTLE'S SPEECH.

Fellow Citizens: We come here tonight to voice our indignant protest (cheers and cries of "Hear, hear"). It is well, upon great occasions, for people to assemble and express their united voice, as this meeting tonight will speak. Great occasions demand great meetings like this. The history of the world gives us many memorable instances. The history of Hawaii has shown us that when a great occasion demanded, a public assembly was called, and the voice of that assembly has been listened to. When the arrogance of the monarch Kalakaua became too great, the mass meeting of 1887 met, and its voice was heard, and the monarch yielded. That monarch proved false. His successor has followed in the same footsteps. The people have been patient; we have waited; we have hoped for better things, but when the attempt was made to sweep our rights from under our feet, to take away the liberties of the subject, the result was the mass meeting of January 16th, 1893, and the voice of that meeting, as expressed, resulted in the downfall of the monarchy and in the establishment of the provisional government. The provisional government, gentlemen, represents you and no one else. As it was said by one of the leading men of the United States recently, a few people went on the ships in Boston harbor and threw some tea overboard. Had the question been submitted to the people of the colonies of that time: "Shall the colonies separate from Great Britain?" a great majority of the people of the united colonies would have said no. They were afraid to step in the dark. I believe the same is true here. We know that the native population of Hawaii was afraid of what seems to them one step in the dark; but the time will come when they will thank God that there were people willing to risk their lives, their property, their all to establish in Hawaii true liberty. Fellow citizens, Hawaii tends towards one goal, and only one; that is, union with its mother across the water. If today the progress of Hawaii is arrested, is delayed, it is simply delay for a short time. We shall go on, and the time will come, and most of us here will see that time, when Hawaii will rest secure in the bosom of its great and good mother. In olden times there was a man whose wisdom led him to declare that the world was round; that the world went round the sun; that the stars revolved in their courses, and he was met by the mighty power of the Roman Catholic Church, which declared that he was wrong. Gentlemen, did that make any difference with the facts; did that make any delay in the revolving of the spheres? Can Secretary Gresham stop the onward progress of Hawaii? You sent a commission to Washington to ask that Hawaii might be admitted to the Union. What was the response of the great heart of that people when we went there? The people welcomed us with a thrill throughout the country from one end to the other. And we went on and were welcomed in Washington. But our enemies, of course, have been alert—they have filled the ear of the present administration in Washington with falsehoods; they have stuffed the ears of Secretary Gresham, perhaps of the President, with lies as to what has taken place here. Do they know the facts? We are bound to believe that Secretary Gresham and the President of the United States are trying to execute justice; are trying to do what is right. Whether they are doing it we know not. They do not know what the facts are, but we know, and now it is proposed to take away from us the liberty which we have gained. It is proposed to restore the tottering throne, the monarchy of Hawaii. Who proposed to do that? The people of the United States? It is proposed by Secretary Gresham; it is proposed by the President; but the people have spoken. What has been their voice? The people of the United States have, with one accord, voiced our sentiments in favor of liberty. Gentlemen, after the remarks of the president of the annexation club, it is perhaps unnecessary to dilate any further on the constitutionality of the proposed proceeding of the President of the United States. In all of my reading I fail to find anywhere that the President of the United States is authorized to begin a war, and this proposition to restore the Queen to the throne of Hawaii, if carried out, will be an act of war. Then let us stand firm in our right, and if such a step is taken let him be impeached before the Senate of his country. Let me call your attention to just one specimen of truthfulness in that report: Mr. Gresham tells the President that the people of Hawaii dare not rise to overthrow the present government because they will meet the armed forces of the United States. The President of the United States sent out here his Commissioner, his "paramount Commissioner," and the first act of that Commissioner was to take down the American flag; then he stood by to see us tumble. Well, gentlemen, we didn't tumble over a cent. That taking down of the flag was an invitation, and it was so understood by the people of this country, to overturn the best government this country ever had. The paramount Commissioner waited to see that result, and no result following, thereupon issued his proclamation, and again invited the people to overthrow this government. Was not the fact of the flag being taken down known to Secretary Gresham? Has not the proclamation that Commissioner Blount issued in Honolulu, inviting rebellion, inviting the overthrow of this Government, threatening the dire vengeance of the United States upon any and all Americans who assisted us—has not that been published broadcast from one end of the United States to another? Has not Secretary Gresham read that proclamation until he knows it by heart? The second invitation by the commissioner of the United States to overturn the government failed in its object, and now the secretary of the United States, blinded, I believe, by false information, again proposes to overturn the government established by the people of this country. He proposes to take that position, and assumes that the people of this country will not oppose it. Gentlemen, the time is coming when we will see that glorious flag, that emblem of the truest liberty the world knows, floating over our heads—the flag of this country. Gentlemen, the people of the United States wish to hear our voice, they wish to hear what we have to say upon this subject, and I hope that the next vessel that goes to the coast will bear an unmistakable voice from us to-night. At the request of the President of this association I will now offer the following resolution which I hope will be adopted without one dissenting voice:

Resolved, That we have read with surprise and regret the recommendation of the Secretary of State of the United States to the President, to restore the Monarchy lately existing in Hawaii;

Resolved, That we condemn the assumption of the Secretary that the right of the Provisional Government to exist was terminated by his refusal to resubmit to the Senate the treaty of union pending between the two countries; and also his assumption that the Provisional Government had at that very time submitted the question of its continued existence to the arbitrament of the President or of any other power;

Resolved, That we support to the best of our ability the Provisional Government in resisting any attack upon it which may be made contrary to the usage of nations.

TO-DAY.

What To Do, And How To Do It.

Everybody must of course go to the race track. The races this year are really straight goods and the officers, from the secretary to the gate keeper, are most intelligent and courteous gentlemen.

When you go to the Park you can choose among the services of a hack, a bus and a tram. All will be found ready at any minute and all will see you home after the races are over. You pay 25 cents entrance fee, and if you go on the grand stand you add one dollar and get a comfortable seat. At lunch time you can go into Chapman's refreshment parlor under the grand stand, and he will furnish you with everything which your palate may need. If you feel like having a rest you can walk or drive over to Sans Souci and for 50 cents indulge in cold turkey, salads and sea breeze. The races will be over at 4 p. m. and before that time everybody ought to have made a fortune. Our subscribers who have asked for tips may accept the following information but with the caution that it would be better not to trust the INDEPENDENT "tips" too much. Professor Leonard is not here and there are no mindreaders on our staff, but the following points have been gleaned by knocking around stables, horses, jockeys and billiard halls. Your informant is not betting that way himself by a long sight:

No. 3-1, Duke Spencer; 2, Minnieola.

No. 4 1, Bert Lee; 2, Fred Mac.

No. 5-1, Billy C.; 2, Antidote.

No. 6-1, Amorino; 2, Lord Brock.

No. 7-1, Creole; 2, Silky.

No. 8-1, Trilby; 2, Queen.

No. 9-1, Magnet; 2, Billy C.

No. 10-1, Billy Button; 2, Little Johnny.

No. 11-1, Senator Stanford; 2, Amorino.

Take these tips carefully and don't run your neck into a sling. It has been agreed that no "bikes" sulky will be used in race No. 4.

Clarence Macfarlane is to be complimented for not withdrawing Fred Mac from the 2:40 race. His horse is Hawaiian bred and is at all times placed against imported horses. No handicap is ever allowed to him, but the owners of his opponents are at all times placing him on equal terms with their imported horses. Macfarlane intended to withdraw his Hawaiian horse against the odds presented to him, but for the sake of the race he staid in and secured the possibility of the most interesting race of the day. However, the results will be everybody can state that the meeting will be a grand success, and that joy and merriment will reign supreme.

The annual picnic of the Central Union Church Sunday school will be held on the grounds of Oahu College today. A general invitation is given to the public. Miss Margaret Hopper is general manager and the committees include: Mrs. Henry Waterhouse, Mrs. J. T. Waterhouse, Mrs. C. M. Cooke, Mrs. F. J. Lowrey, Mrs. C. H. Kluegel, C. M. Cooke, Charles Atherton, F. J. Lowrey, Mrs. A. F. Judd, F. A. Hosmer and A. F. Cooke.

The Salvation Army will have an excursion and day's camp at Pearl City. Train will leave Honolulu at 8:45 a. m. Returning will leave Pearl City at 4:15. Tickets for the round trip 50 cents. Refreshments on the grounds.

A U. S. marine went beyond his depth at the Aloha bath house on Sunday, but was rescued by bystanders. The beach there is safe, but if you go out far enough, well, it may need the Lehu to bring you back.

Tourists.

JUNE 5th, 1895.

It is the object of all good citizens to draw as many tourists to the country as possible. The people who travel for pleasure are, as a rule, well supplied with money, and wherever they go they leave money behind. All classes benefit the more money is set in circulation. But to get tourists here, it is necessary to hold out inducements to them. They must know that they can get first class accommodation, and that they will find a first class table. A good table can be set in every hotel, boarding house and private house if those in charge know what and where to buy. I can recommend choice block butter which I receive by every Australia. It is of an excellent and uniform quality from one creamery. Fresh island butter I get by every W.G. Hall. I can also recommend superior family hams, and I always keep a full assortment of everything in the grocery line. My prices are as low as the lowest, and island orders are promptly attended to.

"THE INDEPENDENT"

MORNING DAILY NEWSPAPER

Which was started on the 1st of May, 1895, ALMOST UNHERALDED.

It is intended by the projectors of THE INDEPENDENT to make it a

THOROUGH NEWSPAPER

in every sense of the word, giving ALL THE LATEST News and timely comments on current events—in short, a First Class Journal of FACT AND OPINION.

"The Independent"

will not be confined to established models in local journalism, but will endeavor to present new features and fresh merits.

"The Independent"

will in policy aim to justify its name. It will be a paper for the People, and not the organ of any sect, party or clique. By fulfilling this purpose, it will answer the objection that there are too many newspapers in Honolulu.
