HAWAII HOLONUA
PROGRESS.

The Love of the Land is Established in Righteousness.

HONOLULU, SEPT. 17, 1894

WHY?

The Advertiser in a very reluctant manner admits that L. A. Thurston has gone as a special labor commissioner. He will spend some days in Washington and then proceed unofficially to Portugal, and then make a tour of Europe.

Why, may we ask, shall the taxpayers of Hawaii pay for the bridal tour of Mr. Thurston? Is it fair that a depressed community shall be taxed to pay for a junketing trip of an impossible official, while a large portion of citizens in Honolulu clamors for water and our friends on the other islands want roads, wharves and bridges. The Republic of Hawaii is cowardly. It did not dare come out openly and tell us that Mr. Thurston left here in a special capacity, although authorized to draw a most luxurious salary and "all expenses paid."

The minister of finance, who is the only honest and decent man in the present cabinet states publicly that retrenchment is absolutely necessary. He tells the councils that the country cannot afford to pay for public works which may be of the greatest importance and we cannot believe that he approves of the expensive journey in search of labor of a man who through his uncouth manners and his pronounced lack of fact is bound to be a failure. Why is Thurston sent to Europe?—Why indeed?

We will not hesitate in answering the question which arises from every throat in this misnamed republic.—

"They want to let him down easy."

Mr. Thurston is impossible in Washington and the executive council knows it—

He is impossible in Hawaii because all hopes of conciliation between the two parties will fall to the ground if the over-rated demagogue is here.—He is impossible as a member of the executive council because Dole and Damon know him of old and the latter realizes the fact that Thurston and he alone, killed the reform party and the 1887 cabinet.

What then could they do with him? As a show of gratitude they decided to let the tax payers of Hawaii put up for a trip around the world.—With a sigh of relief they furnished him with money, letters of credit and letters to all the shop-keepers who call themselves Hawaiian consuls and whose influence is at a par with the one exercised by every peddler in Honolulu.—

We have no objections to get rid of Thurston from Hawaii. But it is a disgrace to find this government squandering its money in supporting a tramps like him in his excursion to countries where he will be ridiculed and where his alleged mission will be more than fruitless.—

We have tried to assist in conciliating the parties now standing at bay against each other.—We should have hailed with pleasure a compromise which honorably could have been accepted by all. We are as always willing to support any staple government in Hawaii which has for its object the progress and true prosperity of our isles.—

But we shall with determination oppose every attempt of the government to rob a treasury already depleted. We shall fight tooth and nail against a legalized swindle that authorizes "Thurstons" mission and we shall beyond doubt frustrate every attempt of the family compact to bring into this country, under vicious and false pretenses men, who even in poverty were happy and to a degree satisfied in their own homes, and who here will find only misery and despair—

The country has a right to ask for an explanation in regard to Thurston's mission. No secrecy is needed or justified. Why did Mr. Dole's republic ship him to those foreign lands? And as the only answer Dole calls "why."

The Oath and the Tiser.

Although we feel somewhat surprised yet we hail the Advertiser editorial of this morning with a deep-felt degree of perfect appreciation. Mr. Armstrong tells us that an oath, and more especially a political oath to a republic, like the one existing under the sway of the present fashionable "Doleres" is of no account whatever and is not a matter of conscience, but of convenience.

The following paragraph proves conclusively the principle under which the government supporting oath-takers work.

"Galileo had a good working conscience when he took, under force, the oath to the church, that the earth was flat, and, at the same time, whispered to his friends, 'It's round, all the same.'"

It is evident that certain foreigners, troubled with a conscience which according to Advertiser ethics is unhealthy have refused to take the oath to the republic and thereby placed the power that be in a sad dilemma.

It is a pity, but it is a fact that three of the most valued teachers of this Fort Street School have refused to be recommissioned on the "swearing" condition. The teachers referred to are women. Among the many blunders of the constitution makers was the demand that women in the employ of the government must take the oath, although no right are granted them besides drawing a paltry salary for which they give value to the utmost limit.

The Advertiser advises these ladies to bury their conscience and take any amount of oaths. Conscience according to Mr. Armstrong is a very elastic affair and the conscience of the majority is far better and of a higher standing than the one of a minority. We adopt his theory. He illustrates it in the following manner:

"It was my conscientious duty to stir up a slave insurrection in Virginia," said old John Brown. "It is my conscientious duty to hang you for it," said the Governor of Virginia. Both consciences were hard at work, but the conscience of the majority had its own way, as it usually does, even if it be quite wrong.

If that is correct then the Advertiser has proven beyond doubt why people troubled with conscientious scruples should not take the oath. The "people" of Hawaii is in the majority. The republic is in the minority. "The conscience of the majority will have its own way," says the Advertiser. "Right you are, Moses," say we, and we are the people.

The concluding lines of the Advertiser editorial is most refreshing as coming from a "Christian" journal. The missionary element must indeed have been eliminated from the editorial room of the Advertiser or the following lines would never have been penned:

If the old martyrs, who were burned at the stake for righteousness sake, were to return to life, some of them would say that the line between conscientiousness and pig-headedness was narrow and very indistinct.

The loss of three teachers from the Fort Street School, will sadly injure the reputation and quality of that establishment. The new brooms of the Board of Education seem to be rotten.

The Chief Justice has ordered the District Magistrate to scan the licenses of the attorneys appearing before them. It is understood that the great Doctor of Yale will refuse a license to practice to every attorney declining to take the oath. The convention settled the question of lawyers in favor of them but Mr. A. F. Judd (the doctor) seems to be above constitutional and legislative measures.

We shall in a near future endeavor to devote sufficient space to the Chief Justice in an attempt of imitating the glowing lines in which our morning contemporary burns triple extracted scum on the altar of Kauka Okolekoleka Opa.

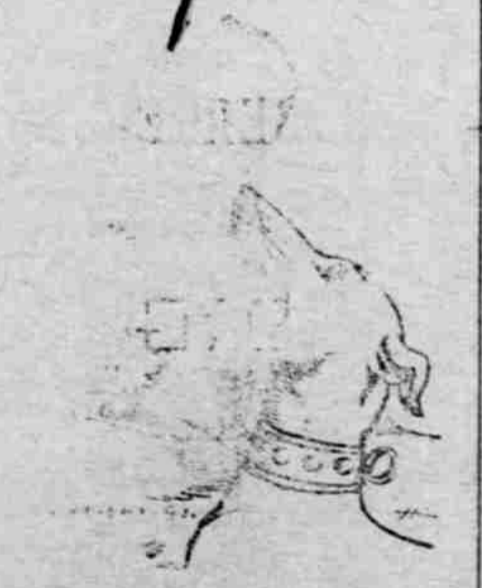

WAIKAPU.

There is a pronounced feeling of pleasure among the kamaainas of Waialua district that the old Waikapu plantation again has become the property of the Cornwell family that for more than 32 years have lived and ruled on the beautiful slopes of Maui's most picturesque mountains. W. H. Cornwell has bought the old plantation, in connection with his brother-in-law F. Macfarlane. The genial colonel will once more tread the old grounds and mase Waikapu his home and no body doubts the good results that will fall to him and his partner. The old mill has been demolished and sold. Arrangements will probably be made which will enable Cornwell to dispense with a mill during the next season and have his cane ground at the mill of Spreckelsville. If, in the mean time, sugar goes "up" and the republic goes "down," it is possible that a first class mill will be erected on the old stand. And that mill will be built in Hawaii. The sincerest welcome and the truest expressions of "Aloha, await Mr. Cornwell upon his return to Maui.

A number of mules and horses were landed this morning from an incoming vessel. Who collected the fee due to the "inspectors of animals" of whom a very small number was present?

There is no truth in the statement that Mr. Rewter of Hana has taken the oath to the republic. The correspondent to the Advertiser is a fool or a liar as he must have known that the gentleman in question has been residing in Kauai for several months and only returned to Honolulu yesterday.

Lieutenant Cordes of the mounted Police made a very clever capture yesterday. He procured the arrest of a villainous chinaman who actually sold ten (10) cents worth of cigars in the afternoon of Mr. Cordes' sabbath. The man who bought and presumably smoked the cigars ought to be punished by furnishing a medal to the gallant officer and unequalled Verein detective.

September 17, 1894.

If we remember correctly the "Charleston" was the first of the "White Squadron" to visit Honolulu. Her arrival on her second voyage is still in the minds of people who were here on January 29, 1891. When with flags at half mast and yards cock-built she entered port with the body of King Kalakaua, the kind attentions shown by the officers to the King during the voyage to the United States and the, almost sacred manner in which the body was guarded while being borne to the Islands, endeared the "Charleston" to the people of Hawaii. As much as it was in the power of the people, their appreciation was shown to the officers during their stay and when sailed they left graven on tablets of love and memory, evidences of their Aloha for Hawaii. Few, if any, of the officers who were here then are on the vessel now; some have reached the age of retirement and others have gone to other vessels but the Charleston is still green in the heart of the Hawaiians. Have you ever used a Pansy Stove? We have been selling them for four or five years and to-day they wear the "Yellow Coat" in the empire of stoves. They are recognized by every one, even dealers in other stoves, as a superior article and one which they do not care to run up against. Of course stoves may be bought from people who are not dealers. We have people running here every day or two for fire bricks and parts belonging to stoves they have bought from other parties, and when they find they cannot get them they discard their stoves and buy a "Pansy." You see there is a disadvantage in buying dear things at low prices. Come to us and get a Pansy at $15.00 and you get full value for your money. You don't get a $75.00 range for fifteen dollars, mind you, but you get a first class stove that is worth thirty dollars to any one.

Our Ready Mited Paints are suited to the wants of people who have a little painting they want to do themselves. The advantage in buying a prepared paint is that you have the benefit of the best mixers in the United States without having to pay for it. The paint is ready for use directly you take the top off the can and if you don't find it cheaper and better than any you can mix yourself we are mistaken in our experience. In California the painters are using the prepared article in preference to buying lead and oils because they find it to their advantage to do so. We believe it is only a question of time when the painters here will fall into line.

Hanging lamps are in as great demand now as ever. People seem to want something for lighting purposes that will give as good light as the sun—they find it in the lamps we are giving away. Our cheap stand lamps are an excellent thing for a servants room and will find a ready sale in the Island stores. We can supply any demand for a single lamp or for a thousand.

There's lots of Hawaiians whose Kuleanas need fencing and we have the wire with which to do it. We have also the material for building a fence that will last until long after the millennium. Instead of paying a high price for posts, or even getting them for the cutting, your fence will cost you less money if you buy steel stays and washers and make a Jones Locked fence.

We have everything you want in the hardware and house furnishing goods line you wish. And we court investigation as to their quality and prices.

"Whene'er I take my walks abroad how many poor I see?"

Dr. Watts was the author of many hymns, but the learned and revered versifier was never in truer tune than when he wrote the lines was quote. He saw the class he described, just as they are seen now, and many of the causes which in those days created poor people, operates in exactly the same manner today—the greatest cause was undoubtedly

CIRCUIT COURT FIRST CIRCUIT

OF THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS. IN PROBATE.

In the matter of the estate of ROSE MURPHY, late of Honolulu, Oahu, deceased, intestate.

It is ordered, that on FRIDAY, the 21st day of SEPTEMBER, A. D. 1894, be and hereby is appointed for hearing said petition, in the courtroom of this Court, at Honolulu, at which time and place all persons concerned may appear and show cause, if any they have, why said petition should not be granted.

Dated Honolulu, H. L. Aug. 25, A. D. 1894. CHARLES F. PETERSON, Clerk.

LOCAL NOTES.

The Amelia, Transit, Matilda and Pele arrived this morning.

Dr. C. L. Stow from Maui is in town.

The band will play at Emma Square this evening.

The W. G. Hall will arrive tomorrow afternoon.

L. J. Levey will sell some fine horses at auction next week.

The "Hyacinth" left this morning for a cruise. She will return in a few days.

Mr. Hoffacker, the manager of Spreckelsville, will leave for Maui tomorrow afternoon.

Don't forget the subscription dance at Independence Hall tonight.

The Claudine and Mikahala were in port yesterday morning before day light.

Messrs Rosa, C. W. Ashford Kaulouk and Robertson have returned from Kauai and Malakia.

Read what Ehlers & Co. have to say to the ladies in the columns specially devoted to the fair shoppers.

There was a big luau at Waipio yesterday. Several weary sportsmen attended—with and without license.

The Daily Company will have a first class season here. Numerous people have secured season tickets at the office of L. J. Levey.

Those interested in Theosophy should be present at the meeting for beginners which takes place tonight on King Street under the rooms of the Pythias Hall.

Miss May Cummins who has been seriously ill for some time is improving and her many friends hope to see her around before many days have gone by.

Wells, Walton and Waiwaiolo have been appointed members of the Wailuku Road Board. It seems to be a "double you" with a vengeance.

There are prospects that the oysters "planted" by Mr. J. F. Colburn at Pearl Harbor will prove a success.—Honolulu will be greatly improved if it becomes a city of the silent bivalve.

The Leilani Boat Club will hold an important meeting at the Hotel to-morrow night at 7:30 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

Mr. H. A. Widemann's departure in the Australia has no political significance whatever. The Judge left on a purely private business.

The officers of the courts and other attendants who have been present at the term of the Circuit Court at Kauai, returned yesterday morning.

Shooting at Makiki was very brisk yesterday. The salvation army made no attack. It was probably afraid of the immaculate powder used by the heroic marksmen.

According to the Advertiser eighteen persons have been converted by the Salvation Army during two days performance. The morning paper fails to state that the "converted" parties were all p. g's.

Mr. McStocker is going to British Columbia by the next steamer. He goes on some mysterious business and as a matter of course at government expense. The Custom house will go on as usual during his absence.

A Regna of the Empire Saloon has made a new deal which will touch the hearts, or at least the palates of many a thirsty wanderer. He keeps "half-and-half" on draught and serves a most delicious and cool beverage, far superior to "plain" beer.

IN THE MUD.

The "Bonnie Dugaree" went astray last Saturday. Dole was at the helm, and the little yacht met the fate of the republic which the Napoleon of the Pacific desires to steer,—she struck in the mud off the cattle-pen, and nice mud it is. Great Britain came to the rescue, and a boat from the "Hyacinth" floated the ship (of state?) The President of the Great Republic of Kuloloia mud, went home a wetter and a wiser man muttering an omen accipio!

INVINCIBLE.

A Cricket match was played last Saturday between the Honolulu Cricket Club and a team from H. B. M. S. Hyacinth. The home team scored another victory.

After the watch was over, A. Hatfield, the bowler of the Honolulu Club was presented with a silk cap for having performed the "bat trick" at the last match.

An official advertisement from the Supreme Court in the Gazette and Kuokoa states that the license to practice law of John Richardson of Wailuku has expired.—Enquiries at head-quarters proved that a mistake had been made and regrets were expressed as to any inconvenience arising to Mr. Richardson or his clients, from the unintentional error.

Don't Buy Second-hand Box Mattresses

imported from the Coast, loaded with vermin and perhaps infection

IF YOU WANT AN UPHOLSTERED MATTRESS

Go to a respectable Dealer and get one made new. If the public knew as much about the construction of BOX Mattresses as they ought, they would not buy them. They are miserable frauds at their best, you cannot tell what they stuffed with. They are cumbersome, unclean and unhealthy, and are at least 30 years behind the age, cannot be purchased in a live go ahead place in the East.
