

A NEW KINK IN THE HOLT MATTER

IS COLBURN LIFE OWNER?

HOLT ESTATE, AFTER NEARLY SIXTY YEARS IN THE COURTS, RUNS UP AGAINST ANOTHER CONTEST—A REPORT STATING THAT COLBURN'S INTEREST IN LANDS HE ASKS TO SELL IS ONLY A MATTER OF LIFE TENANCY.

According to a master's report filed in the circuit court today J. F. Colburn may have only a life interest in the Holt estate land which he yesterday petitioned the circuit court to allow the sale of to J. R. Galt for $108,000. The report is by W. R. Sims, on the accounts of Carlos Long as administrator of the estate, and it expresses the view that Colburn's interest is only for life, and that the Holt heirs are eventually the owners of the property which Colburn asks the court to allow to be sold for $108,000. The matter is for the courts to decide, according to the report, which contains the following: "This life tenancy has been assigned to John F. Colburn who now stands in the place and stead of said James R. and John D. Holt, said Colburn, for the purpose of this account being the present life tenant. "Upon the death of James R. and John D. Holt Mr. Colburn's interest ceases and title to the corpus of the estate will then vest in the heirs of said James R. and John D. Holt, said heirs being present remaindermen with reference to this trust. "There is nothing in the record to show that said J. F. Colburn stands in the place and stead of the remaindermen. "The respective and divergent interests of life tenants and remaindermen in the estate continually present niceties of discrimination to the administrator. "In the matter of this particular estate the Supreme Court in 14th Hawaiian says of the administrator's predecessor "The trustee was trustee for the remaindermen as well as for the life beneficiaries." "And in this connection I have to say that the views of the present life tenant, Mr. Colburn, as expressed to me, do not agree with the foregoing holding that a construction of the will of the testator by the court will be necessary to determine the status of the parties herein." Sims generally approves the accounts of Long. The petition of Colburn, for the sale of the land will serve to bring about a settlement of the question as to who are the real owners. Holt's will may therefore be the subject of another contest. It has been in contests more or less for nearly sixty years and is evidently far from being out of the woods yet.

THE SUPERVISORS

There will be a meeting of the Oahu Board of Supervisors this evening at 7:30 when there will be considerable business for disposal. The question of the blanket warrants will not be brought up as no decision has yet been given by the Supreme Court. Supervisor Moore's report regarding the garbage department is not ready for submission. "I will not make any report until I have seen Sam Johnson, said the Supervisor this afternoon. "I do not think that in fairness I could submit a report until I had heard his side of the story."

BOUGHT GILMAN PLACE

A sale of the residence of J. A. Gilman is said to have been effected, at the price of $28,000. The Gilman place is one of the finest residences in the Makiki district. It is said to have been purchased by a visitor here, who came as a tourist rather than a home-buyer, but liked Honolulu and decided to remain.

WOODBURY PUT BACK TO LAYSAN FOR REPAIRS

CAPT. NIBLACK RETURNED THIS MORNING IN THE U. S. S. IROQUOIS AFTER SEARCHING FOR THE SUPPOSED WRECKED VESSEL—BROUGHT NEWS OF THE LITTLE GUANO CRAFT—WOODBURY SHOULD REACH HONOLULU SOON.

The schooner Charles Levi Woodbury, escaped destruction in the hurricane last July. Fears for her safety were allayed this morning when the U. S. S. Iroquois arrived from a special cruise to Laysan Island and other islands in quest of the missing vessel. Captain Niblack reports that the Woodbury left Laysan safely on August 11 for Honolulu and should arrive here at any time. But the schooner did have a narrow escape from being lost in the storm.

The same storm that caused such havoc aboard the schooner Lavinia struck the Woodbury on July 13. Captain Weisbarth of the Lavinia thought that the Woodbury had been unable to weather the hurricane. So soon after his arrival in Honolulu, Captain Lyon, the naval commandant, dispatched the Iroquois to search for the missing schooner. Captain Niblack with the Iroquois stopped at all of the various islands and reefs lying between Honolulu and Laysan Island, as he thought it possible that the schooner might have been wrecked on some of them or else some survivors of the vessel, if wrecked, might be marooned on some of those islands. Absolutely no trace of the vessel was found nor indeed was anything else of interest noticed about the islands. The Iroquois took in Bird Island.

JOHN D. SPRECKELS DOES NOT BELIEVE THE AUSTRALIA HAS BEEN CAPTURED

AND SAYS HE DOES NOT CARE WHETHER SHE HAS OR NOT AS SHE WAS COVERED WITH A WAR RISK—SAYS SHE TOOK SUPPLIES FOR SEALERS AND HAD NO CONTRABAND ABOARD—SPRECKELS TO LEAVE SOON.

"My present trip to Honolulu has absolutely no business significance whatever," said John D. Spreckels this morning shortly after his arrival by the Alameda "I came down just for the trip and to accompany my people back on the Alameda on her return trip. When will I be here again? Well, that is a hard question to answer but I would like, I always enjoy a trip down here for I like the islands and I am very fond of the sea but I am so tied up with affairs in San Francisco that it is very hard to get away." The news that the S. S. Australia had been captured in the north Pacific by the Japanese had not reached Mr. Spreckels when he left San Francisco and he was skeptical about it when informed. "Personally I don't care whether she's captured or not," he said "we had chartered her to Roth, Blum & Co., of San Francisco and put a war risk on her which the charterers had to pay so it makes no difference to us whether the Japanese got her or whether they didn't. She took a full cargo of provisions and supplies to the Russian sealing stations on Kamachka. I do not know of any contraband that she carried unless the arms and ammunition for the sealers could be construed as contraband. We got word that she had reached her original destination and did not expect her back for about four months.

Has The Cigar Trust Invaded Honolulu?

THE ALAMEDA BRINGS TWO MEN WHO ARE SAID TO BE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED CIGAR STORES COMPANY—HOW THIS ORGANIZATION DOES BUSINESS AND HOW IT IS RECEIVED BY THE TRADE WHERE IT GOES.

Among the arrivals by the Alameda this morning were E. M. Elam and E. D. Marshall of San Francisco. They are cigar men and are said to represent the United Cigar Stores Company which is said to be a trust. Its method of doing business is to establish retail cigar stores at eligible points in all the principal cities and towns of the United States. By reason of having so many stores under one management, purchases can be made in the largest quantities and thus the lowest prices be secured. In the same way and for the same reasons it is claimed other economies of management can be secured. Wherever the United Cigar Stores Company has begun operations, there has been opposition from the independent dealers. The independent dealers of San Francisco when the United Cigar Stores Company invaded that metropolis, organized a sort of union to combat it, and Mose Gunst contributed $100 to the fighting fund. Alfred Henry Lewis in one of the popular magazines a few months ago, described the operations of the United Cigars Stores Company in his own peculiar style.

WANTS TO BUY THE HOLT LANDS

GALT MAKES A BIG OFFER FOR TWO-THIRDS OF THE OLD ESTATE.

A petition was filed in the Circuit Court yesterday by J. F. Colburn, setting forth that J. R. Galt had made an offer of $198,000 for two thirds interest in the lands of the estate of R. W. Holt, and asking that the administrator, Carlos Long, be cited to appear and show cause, if any, why the offer should not be accepted. The lands are under lease to the Wai'alea Agricultural Company, under a lease for twenty-five years from April 1, 1905 at $8,000 per year. Colburn petitions as successor to the title of John D. Holt and James R. Holt. Judge Robinson signed an order directing the administrator to appear on August 28.

Colburn's petition, by Attorney C. W. Ashford, sets forth the history of the estate, which has been before the courts since the death of R. W. Holt, in 1862. The estate was left to four heirs and the two-thirds now sought to be bought fell to the two remaining heirs, whose titles Colburn says he has acquired. The lands aggregate about 14,300 acres of which 1,500 acres are good sugar cane land, it is set forth, and are now planted in sugar by the Wai'alea company.

Colburn's petition sets forth "that no better or greater price than above could be obtained for said undivided interest in the present condition of agriculture and business in this Territory. That said price is adequate and a fair exchange for the property in question and that the interests of all concerned would be subserved by its acceptance. That petitioner is familiar with the business and in industrial conditions which have inspired the above recited offer for said property and he believes that no benefit would accrue to said estate, or to petitioner, or to any other person in interest, from having said interest exposed for sale at auction, but that, on the contrary, the expenses of advertising and selling at auction would not be recouped from any increase over and above said offer, that might be obtained for said interest upon public sale thereof."

SUVA PAPER ON THE BICKNELL CASE

THE CLAIM OF BICKNELL TO THE FANNING AND WASHINGTON ISLANDS DISCUSSED.

The Western Pacific Herald of Suva, Fiji, of different dates contains a number of interesting references to the suit over the possession of Fanning and Washington Islands in which James Bicknell of this city was recently awarded $7,000. Among the items are the following:

"Mr. E. B. McClanahan, a Honolulu solicitor, and a member of Kinney, McClanahan and Cooper, one of the leading firms of solicitors in Hawaii, arrived in Suva by the R. M. S. Miowera on Monday last. Mr. McClanahan is the solicitor in Honolulu for Mr. James Bicknell, the plaintiff in the cases now before the High Commissioner's Court regarding Fanning Island, but has come to Fiji principally on pleasure bent.

His honor the judicial commissioner for the western Pacific sat in the Supreme Court yesterday morning to hear the case of Bicknell vs. Greig and others, a claim for partition or alternately the sale of certain hereditaments situate in Fanning and Washington Islands. Messrs. Lazarus and Ogilvie sat as assessors. The Hon. A. Ehrhardt (Attorney-General) and Humphrey Berkeley, appeared for the plaintiff and Messrs. Herbert Shaw and H. M. Scott appeared for the defendants. E. H. Greig, James Greig and Marion Greig Anderson and A. C. Lewis appeared for the defendants Mr. and Mrs. Reid and Caroline Greig a minor. The Attorney General having opened the case for the plaintiff, called Captain Reid. On the conclusion of his evidence, Mr. Shaw applied for a non-suit and had not finished his argument when the court adjourned till 11 a. m. tomorrow.

"His honor the chief justice delivered judgment in the case of Bicknell vs. Greig and others this morning. This was an action for the sale or partition of Fanning and Washington Islands, and his honor made a decree for the sale of the properties, the exact terms thereof to be decided in Chambers afterwards.

ager, and received a salary of $1200 a year.

(The release by English of all his interest in the islands to Bicknell and Greig was put in evidence and read by the Registrar).

Cross-examined by Mr. Shaw: I have not seen that document before. I did not know there was such a document. The Pacific Cable Board came to Fanning Island of their own free will, without my permission or consent. They pay no rent, either to the firm of Bicknell and Greig, or myself. I do not know what title they have, only that they came.

Cross-examined by Mr. Berkeley: I have not seen any documents from the King. I have been informed by the High Commissioner that there were some in existence. I did not request the Cable Board to come. I did not suggest that anyone could come and squat there. I do not doubt that the document produced is the handwriting document produced in the handwriting of my brother. I do dispute the title of the plaintiff. When the case was tried a few years ago, I did believe that James Bicknell was entitled to a half of Washington Island; the account of the shows James Bicknell indebted to the estate in the sum of $15,000. The accounts have been kept regularly. This is the ledger (ledger produced and handed to witness); the entries are in my handwriting of the Fanning and Washington Islands. The result of the account, folio 152 shows James Bicknell is indebted to the estate in the sum of $18,000. In May last there is an entry that James Bicknell owes the estate $20,000. I believed in March last that Bicknell was owner of half of Washington and Fanning Islands. I have been keeping these books since 1882. I always kept an account for William Greig and George Bicknell. I receive a salary of $4,000.

Edwin Denis Reid, called: I am executor of William Greig, deceased. The Pacific Cable Board were invited by me in 1896. I did so to the different Postmasters General of the Colonies before the meeting. I know there are representatives of the British, Colonial and New Zealand Governments. Mr. Larke, the Canadian Commissioner, interested himself in the matter at my request. I consider the Pacific Cable Board a great advantage to the estate on the stand. I consider the value of the island has increased considerably since the advent of the Cable Board.

Cross-examined by Mr. Shaw: I am the receiver of the estate, appointed

The Wide Waikiki Road

E. H. Harriman's remark that there had been a waste of money in making the Waikiki road too wide recalls a discussion that took place when the widening was done and serves to show how in a more or less careless and sleepy community enterprises of great moment lose the name of action because they are forgotten or because no one comes forward to take the lead.

When the Waikiki road was widened, it was years ago, when James H. Boyd was Superintendent of Public Works, curves were cut out and beautiful palm trees fell under the blows of axes. Even the lily pond now abloom was threatened for a time, and there was a loud local protest against the destruction of landscape beauty.

Such things are neglected here because of the lack of any public organization to take them up. Other communities have local improvement clubs, good government clubs and all sorts of organizations of citizens of different localities, who take the lead in forcing public improvements.

Conger And The Boycott

In an editorial regarding Ambassador Conger, the Star yesterday expressed the belief that his resignation as Ambassador to Mexico was simply the final chapter in his retirement from the diplomatic service of his country.

The news account of the new situation,—the one he may be sent to meet—is thus given in the dispatches from Oyster Bay. As a result of today's conference with the President at Sagamore Hill, Edwin H. Conger, Ambassador to Mexico and former Minister to China, will probably return to China as a special commissioner to solve the serious problem which the boycott and Hankow railroad concession has created.

This appointment of a special commissioner may be taken as an answer to important dispatches recently received from Minister Rockhill and not made public. There is not the slightest doubt that the administration feels that not only Chinese officials, but Japanese influence is behind the astounding anti-American conditions that have suddenly arisen.

For the first time in history Chinese of different provinces are acting together. Japan has a vital interest in the Canton-Hankow railway. She holds a concession for a railway from Swatow to a point in the interior, which will be extended to meet the Canton-Hankow Railway when that road passes out of American hands.

Conger would not disclose his plans after his visit to the President, and would neither deny nor confirm the well grounded report that he was to return to Peking. In reply to a question as to whether he believed Japan was behind the offer of $7,000,000 to J. P. Morgan for the Hankow concession he answered: "I don't know, though I suppose they needed their millions at home just now."

Conger expressed belief that the sale of the Hankow railway would be unquestionably a fatal setback.

Great Britain And Tonga

The purposes of the British Government in its late dealings with Tonga have been somewhat of an enigma, though important enough to attract the attention of the whole world. It will be remembered that in December last the Governor of Fiji, who is also the British High Commissioner for the Western Pacific, swooped down on the little Polynesian Government, arrested and forcibly deported King George II's Prime Minister and his Minister of Police, turned the other members of the cabinet out of office and installed others in their places, reorganized the entire Togan administration, paid off the floating debt, and put the finances of the kingdom on a sound basis.

At the time dispatches giving the most radical and revolutionary aspect to this action were sent to all parts of the world and created much interest. By many it was taken to mean that Great Britain would very shortly annex Tonga to the Empire. By others it was thought that Great Britain would not annex during the lifetime of the present king, but that he would be allowed to remain a figurehead during his lifetime.

The King and those who opposed the action of the British High Commission maintained that this action was in violation of the treaty between Great Britain and Tonga, and the King acting under the advice of some of these, went to Auckland, whence he wrote a letter to King Edward setting out this view.

Society a short time ago, intimated that what the High Commissioner had done had been planned and approved of beforehand. Now comes information by the Aorangi yesterday, not only verifying Dr. Alexander's surmise, but very clearly setting forth the intentions of the British Government regarding Tonga. It is clear that Great Britain proposes now to control the domestic administration of Tonga to the extent of insuring good government, honest administration of the finances, and fair treatment of foreign residents.

MOSQUITOES IN WAIKIKI

DUCK PONDS DO NOT PRODUCE THEM, SAYS DR. PRATT—CAMPAIGN AGAINST THE PESTS HAS BEEN VERY SUCCESSFUL IN KEWALO AND KAKAOKO—RICE FIELDS AND TARO PATCHES NOT BREEDING PLACES.

A dozen or more wagon loads of empty tin cans have been gathered up in Honolulu since the anti-mosquito crusade was resumed by the board of health, and reports from Kewalo and Kakaoko, where the most of the work has been done, are to the effect that the number of mosquitoes has been greatly reduced. A number of those living in the district have expressed their appreciation of the results of the work done.

Waikiki is being given some attention now a dozen prisoners being at work under Dr. J. S. B. Pratt, who is in charge of the work. The first thing to receive attention was the duck ponds, and their outlets are being so arranged as to cause a little more movement in the water, though Dr. Pratt says that experiment has shown that these ponds do not breed mosquitoes to any extent.

"It is a mistake to suppose that mosquitoes are bred in the duck ponds or taro patches," said Dr. Pratt. "We have taken samples of the water from them repeatedly and failed to find any larvae of the mosquito in them. The same is true of the taro patches as well as the rice fields. People think the mosquito campaign is hopeless because of these big patches of water, but this sort of water has nothing to do with the prevalence of mosquitoes, Dr. L. Van Dine of the Federal experiment station has made experiments with us, and found that there were no mosquitoes breeding in these places.

The water of the taro patches and rice fields is moving all the time, and mosquitoes will only breed in still water. The duck ponds have fish in them which would eat the larvae and moreover the water is partly salt and the mosquitoes cannot stand it. As a general sanitary measure it is a good thing to have this water more in motion if possible, and men are doing this now."

Waikiki is at present swarming with mosquitoes and the doctor was asked where the breeding was if not in the duck ponds, which many people credit with producing a lot of them. The doctor said that there were innumerable small breeding places and that these must be suppressed. Another theory is that the insects are born in the valleys and blown down into Honolulu.

The men under Pratt's control will go over the entire city as far as they are able, but claim that without a larger force it is impossible to accomplish very satisfactory results unless residents generally keep in the fight. "Cesspools which have an opening are a great source of the pests," said Dr. Pratt. "It must be remembered that a very small place will give birth to countless mosquitoes."

ROAD BOARDS MAY BE OUT OF OFFICE

ANOTHER LEGAL ENTANGLEMENT GROWING OUT OF THE CHANGE TO COUNTY GOVERNMENT—QUESTION RAISED AS TO WHETHER THE DISTRICT ROAD BOARDS ANY LONGER HAVE A LEGAL EXISTENCE OPENED BY SUPERVISORS' INVESTIGATION.

Another peculiar legal entanglement growing out of the change to county government has developed as a result of the supervisors' investigations, through County Attorney Douthitt, of the matter of rights of the supervisors and the Territorial district road boards. Douthitt's investigations this morning indicated that the road boards had been going on disbursing money after they were legally dead, and that there are no legal road boards left at all. Incidentally, the Honolulu Fire Commissioners appear to be in the same fix.

Under the Organic Act both fire commissioners and road boards are appointees of the governor, subject to the approval of the Senate. "I was informed on inquiry at the secretary's office," said Douthitt, "that no commissions have been issued for either fire commissioners or road supervisors, in this district, since the adjournment of the legislature, and that the appointments as made before the legislature adjourned were not confirmed. All appointments made before the legislature adjourned expired on adjournment unless they were confirmed, so that unless commissions have been issued since the offices are vacant."

The investigation started as a means of ascertaining what shall become of the road funds accumulated in the Treasury before the County Act took effect. It is thought by some that the County should have a right to these funds.

Investigation shows that the Territorial boards have continued to act, whether they were legal or not, and have spent nearly all the money that was on hand. The supervisors may claim that what is left is County money, but this all depends on what they are advised is the law.

In the district of Honolulu on April 26, when the County Act took effect, there were $4,698 in the road fund. If the legal claim that the road boards were out of existence by reason of the failure to confirm appointments is correct, then the expenditure of most of this money, which has taken place since April 26, was illegal. There is now only $425 in the fund. The same state of affairs exists all over the island. The road funds have been spent by the boards. There are balances, however, which the supervisors may claim as county money.

BAND MAKING A GREAT HIT

COHEN TELLS OF BIG BUSINESS WHICH IS BEING DONE BY BERGER AND HIS BOYS.

From letters received in town from Joe Cohen this morning it is plain that the trip of the Royal Hawaiian band to the Coast has been successful beyond expectation. The band played to splendid houses and a repetition of its success is promised on its return to the Golden Gate city. The organization left for Portland Ore., on the 20th Cohen writes:

"I am receiving telegrams from all over the country asking for the band. The people here go daffy over the singing and the newly awakened enthusiasm makes the band boys play as they never played before.

"The boys were treated royally on the boat special quarters and mess were provided and they gave concerts every day. A purse of $250 was made up for them and divided. They are contented and happy."

SUGAR STOCKS AT THE COAST

SAN FRANCISCO, August 18.—Sugar stocks maintained a good strong position. Hutchinson found buyers at a little higher level while Honokaa was a small fraction lower than on the previous day. Panuhau stood steady at $23.75 with scarcely any stock obtainable.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 19.—The sugar stocks are strongly held, and as prices are comparatively low for such steady dividend paying securities holders are satisfied with their possessions. The financial condition of all the dividend paying sugar stocks in this market is, admirable, while the advices from the islands indicate that the crops to be harvested in the coming season will be even greater than for the season just finished.

BARETE HEIRS ASK REDUCTION

ALLEGED OVER-ASSESSMENT OF THEIR ESTATE MAY BE APPEALED FROM TWO LATE.

The heirs of the Barete estate have now made an application through W. C. Achi for a reduction in their tax assessments of last year, basing their claim on a most remarkable difference between the assessment value this year and last year. The property was taxed last year as valued at $24,000 and as no appeal was taken the assessment stood. The tax, however, was not paid by Trustee P. D. Kellett, as is claimed, and since Kellett has been arrested for embezzlement and the affairs of the estate have been investigated, it is claimed that the discovery has been made that the assessment was excessive.

The assessment this year was for only $8,000, instead of $24,000 as last year, and as the last year tax has not been paid yet, the heirs of the estate are trying to find out if there is not some way in which they can have a reduction made, and they have appealed to Attorney General Andrews. The assessment, as it was not appealed from, is thought to be unchangeable, but the attorney general is investigating the matter at the request of the heirs.

REPORT ON THE BISHOP TRUST

The tenth annual accounts in the C. R. Bishop annual trust were filed this morning in the Circuit Court, by the trustees, E. F. Bishop, A. W. Carter, J. O. Carter, S. M. Damon and W. O. Smith. They show receipts of $69,804 and expenditures of $41,725, leaving a balance of $28,079 increase in the estate. The principal expenditures of the year were for support of the Bishop Museum, and for schools and other charitable purposes.

The report shows that the property of the estate is largely in notes and bonds, of which the largest are the following: S. M. Damon, $485,000 at 4 per cent; Oahu Railway & Land Company bonds $23,000 at 6 per cent; McBryde 6 per cent bonds, $22,000; Waiialua 6 per cent bonds, $20,000; note of J. F. Colburn at 6 per cent, $20,000.

BARRY WOULD GO HIGHER YET

DAVE TALKING ABOUT FIGHTING GUS RUIHLIN AFTER HE FINISHES WITH TOMMY BURNS.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 18.—Dave Barry now comes forth with the startling declaration that he will tackle any middle-weight fighter in the world and he will even go as far as to embark with a few of the heavies. Dave says he would be tickled to death to get a chance to meet Gus Ruhlín in the ring. "I would take on in a minute," said the fighting Irishman "and I am just conceited enough to think I can beat him, too. If I defeat Tommy Burns on 51st Inst, and I am sure of that I will take on Ruhlín or any other heavyweight that shows a desire to meet me. I am sincere about this and I am sure I can beat a whole lot of them. You see with big fellows it is hard for them to get out of the way of a punch, and it would be an easy matter for me to hit them, and I can beat any one that I can hit, for I have the punch."

"Now let me tell you something about that fight up at Tacoma," and Dave grew reminiscent. "I had this fellow Burns out in the fifth round and it was a cinch that he would never have got up when I put him down the last time. Just as the referee was counting eight some guy put all the lights in the building out, and it was half an hour before they were turned on and in that time Burns was brought around all right, and he was in good shape when he went at it again. The fight went the full twenty rounds and he was given the decision. I have heard excuses and heard fellows complain about decisions, but on the square that one up there was the bunk proper. The very worst I should have had was a draw, but they handed the whole business to Burns and that is why I am so sore and so anxious to win this battle with him. To show you how confident I am of beating Burns I have insisted on the money being cut $1250 to the winner and $250 to the loser."

If Barry wins his contest with Burns it is likely that some of the local clubs will want Dave to meet Marvin Hart, Bob Fitzsimmons or some of the high-class light heavyweights. Dave is in excellent shape already for the bout with Burns and he was never more confident of winning a contest in all his ring career.

MAY POSTPONE BASEBALL.

It is possible that the baseball games scheduled for September 2 may be postponed until the following Monday, Labor Day, so that they may not conflict with the big polo match which is to be played between Maui and Oahu. The Elks and H. A. C. are scheduled to play the first game, the Kams and Males the second. The baseball men seen have shown a disposition to fall in with the suggestion of the poloists as Labor Day being a public holiday, there will be a big attendance.

WOODBURY PUTS BACK

The vessel did not spring a leak. It was decided to make for Laysan Island and repair. Twenty-seven days were required in which to make Laysan. The vessel reached Lisiansky Island and although that place is only about 100 miles from Laysan, eight days were required in which to beat up to Laysan. There were strong trades prevailing all of the time and the vessel could make but little headway. She finally sighted Laysan on August 5 and after making that place remained in port for a couple of days repairing and finally resumed her voyage to Honolulu on August 11.

She had left for Honolulu some days before Captain Niblack arrived, but from Captain Max Schlemmer were learned all of the details of the Woodbury's experience. Schlemmer decided after his experience on the Woodbury that he would remain at Laysan and he even declined to accompany Captain Niblack back by the Iroquois.

"And you know," Captain Schlemmer said in relating the experience, "when we got back to Laysan, mine wife, she says to me, 'Why, Max, what a quick trip you have made to Honolulu, but you have a lot of supplies in the schooner.' 'Why, my wife, says I, 'we haven't gone there already. We have been in a storm and have put back,' and then I called all of my family around me and we had a little thanksgiving because we all had come back safe from that storm."

Master Mange, who was at Laysan, left by the vessel this month for home. The Woodbury will have to buck a trade all of the way to this port, but she is likely to arrive at any time. No passengers returned from Laysan by the Iroquois today.

CREEDON HAS NOT SEEN THE CHANGE

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARY HAS NOT YET HAD OPPORTUNITY OF BEHOLDING METAMORPHOSIS.

Frank Creedon, private secretary to Governor Carter, returned on the Alameda this morning and will be ready to return to work when his chief arrives.

As far as could be observed Creedon has not allowed the example of the governor in becoming a changed man. It was reported that he had changed from bachelor to benedict but that rumor was a little astray from the facts.

"No, I haven't seen the Governor since the time that he left for the East from San Francisco," said Creedon today. "I know nothing of what has been going on and so can give no information."

Secretary Creedon refused to discuss the advertised "change" in his chief.

A TOWN WITHOUT ANY PLUMBERS

THE REAL PARADISE OF THE PACIFIC IS TO HAVE A GENERAL CLEANING UP.

Dr. J. S. B. Pratt leaves for Lahaina today, to give the old town a cleaning up. At the last meeting of the Board of Health President Pinkham reported that the town was in a terrible condition as far as sanitation is concerned, and the executive officer of the board will enforce cleaning up as far as is possible. Lahaina is a town without a plumber, and sanitary plumbing is out of the question, and the result of this is that every now and then conditions are reported to be dangerous and intolerable and the Board of Health takes a hand.

"It is impossible to order people to put in sanitary plumbing," said Dr. Pratt, "for there isn't a plumber in the town. All that can be done is to order cleaning up, and this I shall do as I have done before in the same place. I shall go through the place thoroughly and wherever I find nuisances they will have to be fixed. Lahaina ought to have a resident sanitary inspector, but was not allowed one, and so the place needs overhauling at intervals."

WILL TEST HACK LICENSE CASE.

E. H. Lewis a livery man, was arraigned before Judge Whitney today on a charge of operating a hack without a license. The case was continued until Tuesday. This is to be a test case of the dispute between the livery men and the hack drivers as the latter claim that the livery men are operating hacks without proper licenses.

THE MAIL THE SIBERIA LEFT BEHIND

SAN FRANCISCO FINALLY WAKES UP OVER THE FAILURE OF THE SIBERIA TO BRING ALL THE MAIL FOR HONOLULU AND ASIATIC PORTS—ACCORDING TO CHRONICLE TROUBLE IS BREWING FOR SOME ONE.

The Call of August 17 has the following in regard to the departure of the Siberia from San Francisco without all of her mail: "The Pacific Mail Company's liner Siberia, Captain J. Tremaine Smith, sailed yesterday for the Orient. She left promptly at 1 o'clock, prepared to make a record run to Honolulu. President E. H. Harriman, with his wife and family, is on board, and Vice-President and General Manager R. P. Schwerin is also a passenger. Mr. Harriman wants to make a longer stay at Honolulu than the liner's schedule provides, and as he does not wish to upset the schedule the Siberia is going to be sent along at full speed. If all records for this run are not broken it will be because the Siberia has not got it in her. To enable her to make the time a great quantity of extra coal was taken and fifteen additional coal passers were shipped.

The Siberia left promptly at 1 o'clock. And thereby hangs a tale of many disappointments. In the first place, two intending passengers who arrived at 1:01 p. m., missed the steamer. But that was their own fault. They were sixty seconds late. Just as the lines were cast off a truck load of United States mail, of the coming of which the company had been notified some time before, reached the wharf. Like the belated passengers, it was left behind. The leaving of this mail means that the letter from home which hundreds of exiles in the Far East are expecting on the Siberia will not reach its destination for a week or so after it should have arrived. It may also mean not a little inconvenience to innumerable business houses. When the office mail is late, and it usually is, Pacific Mail liners wait for it. They have waited several hours. Passengers and the United States mail, however, must be on time or they will get left.

The Chronicle has the following: The Siberia left her ship promptly on time—so promptly, in fact, that a truckload of mail that was delayed arrived too late on the dock to go out on the liner. Chief Officer Arthur O'Neill, who had difficulty with his citizenship papers and surrendered them, went out on the Siberia as a passenger, and may be given a position as chief stevedore for the Pacific Mail Company at Yokohama. O'Neill is well liked by the Pacific Mail Company, and some good billet will be held for him. It is rumored that he may be appointed to command the big freight steamer Alcoa, which is under British registry.

The Chronicle of August 18 has the following: The mail which the Siberia left on the dock Wednesday, when she steamed away for the Orient, is likely to contain packages of trouble for the Pacific Mail Steamship Company. The postal authorities, who have reported the matter to Washington, regard the mishap as the more grave because of the 8000 tons of freight which was stowed away in the hold almost the entire cargo was composed of local shipments; and of the 250 sacks of mail left behind, almost all was from local writers. That is to say, the merchants who should receive their shipments of goods on the Siberia will have to wait another steamer for their bills of lading before they can secure their goods. This, say the Postoffice officials, may entail a loss of many thousands of dollars.

Superintendent of Mails T. J. Ford said yesterday that almost all the mail included in the 250 sacks was local and registered matter. He makes a vigorous complaint against the steamship company, and declares it is responsible for the trouble, because all the mail was ready for the wagons at 10 o'clock in the morning, three hours before the Siberia sailed. Much of the mail (426 sacks) was taken away and placed on board, but the last two wagonloads did not leave the office until about 1 o'clock—the schedule sailing hour. At that hour, Mr. Ford says, some one rang him up claiming to represent Alexander Center, the general agent of the company. Ford was then advised of the mishap and told that Center, for his company, repudiated all responsibility because the wagons containing the mail did not reach the dock until after the Siberia had departed. Ford replied that, on the contrary, the steamship company was directly responsible, and that the delay in reaching the dock was due to insufficiency of wagons and slow loading. These conditions, he said, are not the concern of the Postoffice, whose responsibility ceases when the mail is set in front of the Postoffice in time to permit of loading and transfer to the steamer. He says this is in accordance with a contract between the company and the Government, which contract Ford declares has been violated. The maximum penalty imposed for this offense is a fine of $5000 and imprisonment for one year.

Hints are freely made around the Postoffice that the presence of Harriman and Schwerin, the two highest officials of the steamship company, on board the Siberia may have had something to do with the zeal displayed by the ship's officers in casting off at the exact instant, mail or no mail.

There were ninety-seven sacks for China and Japan left on the dock, besides eighty-three sacks and pouches for Manila, forty-nine for Honolulu and twenty-one for the United States Asiatic station.

THE BICKNELL CASE

by the High Commissioner's Court. I have no books in connection with the estate.

His Honor: The Receiver is the officer of the court, and should be in possession of all the books, etc., in connection with the estate.

Cross-examination continued: I have no book relating to the affairs of the Cable Board, but I know a sum of $9000 was received by the estate of Bicknell and Greig for two contracts of $4500 each. I consider the Cable Board gives a profit of $100 a month to the estate. A sum of about two or three thousand pounds has been earned by the estate from the Cable Board.

Mr. Shaw addressed the Court dealing with the documentary evidence put in, and submitted that the construction of these documents as urged by the Attorney General was erroneous; they did not purport to convey what was here alleged.

His Honor: I would like to know how you intend to meet the Attorney General's point as to estoppel.

Mr. Shaw, continuing, said he referred to a deed of transfer of 10th May, 1880, of the interest in Washington Island by one Owens, who had only been in possession for a month. He submitted that the half of a month's occupation was no interest at all. The learned counsel then came to the transfer of the remaining half of owner's right in Washington Island (15th January, 1881). This document counsel submitted was not sealed according to the certified copy he (counsel) had in his hand, although it stated "signed and sealed," yet he submitted there was no evidence of a seal, and therefore the document could not be taken as "under seal."

His Honor stated that, as the wording in the document said it was signed and sealed and as there was no evidence to the contrary, he would hold, that it was duly sealed. He ought also to say that he did not see what good Mr. Shaw would do gnawing at these documents.

Counsel, continuing, submitted that his clients had lived on the estate all their lives, and that if there was to be a sale they would have to leave the islands—a thing they were very reluctant to do, and therefore he was bound under instructions from his client to use all the means in his power to secure their remaining in undisturbed possession.

The learned counsel resumed his seat and Mr. Lewis closed his case.

His Honor discharged the assessors, stating that the real question at issue were purely dry legal ones, and that on the question as to the plaintiff being the person he represented to be had no difficulty. Judgment would be reserved till a day to be intimated by the Registrar.

Paine Webber & Co. state that Lawson and Burrage cannot now return the 70,000 shares, and therefore they demanded $6,000,000 instead.

Doctor Brigham Says MANY PHYSICIANS PRESCRIBE Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The wonderful power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over the diseases of womanhood is not because it is a stimulant, not because it is a palliative, but simply because it is the most wonderful tonic and reconstructive ever discovered to act directly upon the generative organs, positively curing disease and restoring health and vigor.

Marvelous cures are reported from all parts of the country by women who have been cured, trained nurses who have witnessed cures and physicians who have recognized the virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and are fair enough to give credit where it is due.

If physicians dared to be frank and open, hundreds of them would acknowledge that they constantly prescribe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in severe cases of female ills, as they know by experience it can be relied upon to effect a cure. The following letter proves it.

Dr. S. C. Brigham, of 4 Brigham Park, Fitchburg, Mass., writes: "It gives me great pleasure to say that I have found Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound very efficacious, and often prescribe it in my practice for female difficulties.

"My oldest daughter found it very beneficial for uterine trouble some time ago, and my youngest daughter is now taking it for a female weakness, and is surely gaining in health and strength.

"I freely advocate it as a most reliable specific in all diseases to which women are subject, and give it honest endorsement."

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular menstruation, bloating (or flatulence), leucorrhoea, falling, inflammation or ulceration of the uterus, ovarian troubles, that bearing-down feeling, dizziness, faintness, indigestion, nervous prostration or the blues, should take immediate action to ward off the serious consequences, and be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and then write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for further free advice. No living person has had the benefit of a wider experience in treating female ills. She has guided thousands to health. Every suffering woman should ask for and follow her advice if she wants to be strong and well.

WHEN BERGER ENTERED PARIS

SAN FRANCISCO DISCOVERS THAT HE WAS THE FIRST GERMAN TO TREAD STREETS OF CAPTURED CITY.

Everybody in Hawaii who knows anything at all has long since been aware that Captain Berger is a veteran of three wars, but it has been left for the San Francisco Call to discover various details of his kappelmeister's life which will be news even to the captain himself. The Call says:

"The proud distinction of being the first Prussian soldier to enter Paris after the terrible siege of the French capital by the troops of allied Germany is held by Captain H. Berger, the veteran director of the Royal Hawaiian Band.

"Captain Berger, who is so closely identified with the musical education of the natives of Hawaii, was born in Berlin, Germany, and received his musical education in that city. When a lad he entered the military service, and after a short period he was assigned to one of the crack cavalry bands. Promotion quickly came to him, and when the Franco-Prussian War broke out in 1870 he was director of the Royal and Imperial Uhlan Regiment, the body-guard of Emperor William I of Prussia.

"Captain Berger served with his regiment all through the terrible campaign and was present at the fearful battle of Gravelotte and at the siege of Metz and the surrender of Napoleon III at Sedan.

"When Marshal von Moltke and Prince Bismarck arranged the formation of the victorious Prussian troops for the entry into Paris, after the siege and surrender of that city, it was the Royal and Imperial Uhlan Regiment that led the way. At their head rode Captain Berger, and it was his voice that shouted 'Hoch der Kaiser' as he passed under the Arc de Triomphe in that memorable parade, but it was Captain Berger whose hoarse Prussian voice dismayed the Parisians who heard the shouts of their victors in their belated capital. In the magnificent hall of the Palace of Versailles, when Prince Bismarck made King William of Prussia Emperor of United Germany, Captain Berger led his superb band in a paean of victorious music. Beloved and decorated by his Emperor, Captain Berger was sent to Hawaii after the war to become bandmaster for King Lunalilo, who had requested the German Emperor to help him form a military band. Through all the vicissitudes of the Hawaiian Islands, Captain Berger has remained at the head of the military and musical organization which he formed, and he is beloved by natives and Americans and all who dwell in the dreamy islands of the Pacific, where music holds sway."

EIGHT BEAUTIES OF WEB-FOOT STATE

ACTING GOVERNOR RECEIVES A FURTHER REPORT OF A COMING DANGEROUS INVASION.

Another joyous letter from Oregon, relating to the visit of eight Oregon beauties to Hawaii as guests of a newspaper which has been running an advertising contest, has been received by Acting Governor Atkinson. The Oregon Journal which is running the contest, wants pictures of Governor Jack, by way of naturally aiding in plans for arranging the welcome of the fair maidens from the Northwest. The following are extracts from the latest edition of the Oregon newspaper on the subject:

"Allow me to suggest you send us a photograph, and allow us the privilege of using it regarding the welcome which the fairest daughters of Oregon will receive on their visit to Honolulu. We thank you and your associates most heartily and wish to return a compliment of some kind to show our appreciation of what you are trying to do to entertain these young ladies.

"This trip will be made the latter part of February so that we will arrive in Honolulu with the young ladies about the fore part of March, believing this to be the best part of the year to cross the Pacific. However, we will keep you posted as to the day we leave San Francisco and the boat we leave on, so that you may be in a position to meet us in your city on our arrival. We extend you the invitation to be one of our guests on our arrival, and we will try to make it as pleasant as possible for the acting governor and also the governor of Hawaii."

PROMOTION COMMITTEE WORK.

A meeting of the Promotion Committee was held yesterday afternoon there being present Chairman Smith, Secretary Boyd, J. A. M. Johnson, J. A. Gillman, E. I. Spalding and W. W. Hall. It was decided to offer prizes of $20, $20 and $10 for the three best designs for the cover of a new folder on Hawaii. The contest will be open until September 15.

The services of the committee will be offered to the local Democrats who have in hand the reception to William Jennings Bryan.

In view of the great popularity of motoring here, the committee decided to offer a silver trophy for competition in a floral parade such as was held last year, conditional on there being twenty-five entries. The meeting adjourned after a general discussion of the work of the organization.

WHERE IS THE EVIDENCE?

EDITOR STAR: The interesting article on the Stanford case in the Star of yesterday, leads me to ask the following pertinent questions: What has become of the bottle of bicarbonate of soda, containing strychnine and portions of the organs of Mrs. Stanford, which the local authorities permitted Detective Reynolds to take away with him from Honolulu? If murder was committed, the jurisdiction was here. Why was the most important evidence removed, and the investigation dropped?

A RUBBER INSECT.

It is reported that an insect has been found in large numbers which attacks the seed of the rubber tree after it is planted and destroys its germinating qualities. Its depredations have been successfully met by inoculating the soil. Some specimens of the insect will be sent to Entomologist Kottinsky for examination. The insect is reported from Nahiku.
