WHAT IS THIS DISEASE THAT IS COMING UPON US?

Like a thief at night it steals in upon us unawares. Many persons have pains about the chest and sides, and sometimes in the back. They feel dull and sleepy; the mouth has a bad taste, especially in the morning. A sort of sticky slime collects about the teeth. The appetite is poor. There is a feeling like a heavy load on the stomach; sometimes a faint all-gone sensation at the pit of the stomach which food does not satisfy. The eyes are sunken, the hands and feet become cold and clammy. After a while a cough sets in at first dry, but after a few months it is attended with a greenish coloured expectoration. The afflicted one feels tired all the while, and sleep does not seem to afford any rest. After a time he becomes nervous, irritable, and gloomy, and has evil forebodings. There is a giddiness, a sort of whirling sensation in the head when rising up suddenly. The bowels become constipated; the skin is dry and hot at times; the blood becomes thick and stagnant; the whites of the eyes become tinged with yellow, the urine is scanty and high-colored, depositing a sediment after standing. There is frequently a spitting up of the food, sometimes with a sour taste, and sometimes with a sweetish taste; this is frequently attended with palpitation of the heart; the vision becomes impaired with spots before the eyes; there is a feeling of great prostration and weakness. All of these symptoms are in turn present. It is thought that nearly one-third of our population has this disease in some of its varied forms. It has been found that medical men have mistaken the nature of this disease. Some have treated it for a liver complaint, others for kidney disease, etc., but none of the various kinds of treatment have been attended with success, because the remedy should be such as to act harmoniously upon each one of these organs, and upon the stomach as well. In Dyspepsia (for this is really what the disease is) all of these organs partake of this disease and require a remedy that will act upon all at the same time. Seigel's Curative Syrup acts like a charm in this class of complaints, giving almost immediate relief. The following letters from chemists of standing in the community where they live show in what estimation the article is held.

John Archer, Harthill, near Sheffield:—I can confidently recommend it to all who may be suffering from liver or stomach complaints, having the testimony of my customers, who have derived great benefit from the Syrup and Pills. The sale is increasing wonderfully.

Geo. A. Webb, 141, York Street, Belfast:—I have sold a large quantity, and the parties have testified to its being what you represent it.

J. S. Metcalfe, 55, Highgate, Kendal:—I have always great pleasure in recommending the Curative Syrup, for I have never known a case in which it has not relieved or cured, and I have sold many gross.

Robt. G. Gould, 27, High Street, Andover:—I have always take a great interest in your medicines and I have recommended them, as I have found numerous cases of cure from their use.

Thomas Chapman, West Auckland:—I find that the trade steadily increases. I sell more of your medicines than any other kind.

N. Darroll, Clun, Salop:—All who buy it are pleased, and recommend it.

Joe. Balkwill, A. P. S., Kingsbridge:—The public seem to appreciate their great value.

A. Armstead, Market Street, Dalton-in-Furness:—It is needless for me to say that your valuable medicines have great sale in this district—greater than any other I know of, giving great satisfaction.

Robt. Laine, Melksham:—I can well recommend the Curative Syrup from having proved its efficacy for indigestion myself.

Frickheim, Arbroath, Forfarshire, Sept. 23, 1882. Dear Sir,—Last year I sent you a letter recommending Mother Seigel's Syrup. I have very much pleasure in still bearing testimony to the very satisfactory results of the famed Syrup and Pills. Most patent medicines die out with me, but Mother Seigel's has had a steady sale ever since I commenced, and is still in as great demand as when I first began to sell the medicine. The cures which have come under my notice are chiefly those of liver complaint and general debility.

A certain minister in my neighbourhood says it is the only thing which has benefited him and restored him to his normal condition of health after being unable to preach for a considerable length of time. I could mention also a great many other cases, but space would not allow. A near friend of mine, who is very much addicted to costiveness, or constipation, finds that Mother Seigel's Pills are the only pills which suit his complaint. All other pills cause a reaction which is very annoying. Mother Seigel's Pills do not leave a bad after-effect. I have much pleasure in commending again to suffering humanity Mother Seigel's medicines, which are no sham. If this letter is of any service you can publish it.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) William S. Glass, Chemist.
A. J. White, Esq.

15th August, 1883.

Dear Sir,—I write to tell you that Mr. Henry Hillier, of Yatesbury, Wilts, informs me that he suffered from a severe form of indigestion for upwards of four years, and took no end of doctor's medicine without the slightest benefit, and declares Mother Seigel's Syrup which he got from me has saved his life.

Yours truly,
(Signed) N. Webb,
Mr. J. White, Chemist, Calne.

DEAD-BEAT SUGAR.

The policy of forcing the growth of a nation's industry by taxation laws, commonly called protection, never had its absurdity better illustrated than in the beet sugar business of European countries. Take Germany, for example, where the industry is carried on chiefly by the farmers upon co-operative principles. Each farmer in a joint stock concern binds himself to grow at least three and a half acres of beets for each share of stock he holds, and is subject to a fine if he fails to do so. The result is that most of them grow more than the minimum acreage, so that a production over calculations is assured from the start. Then (we quote from an American paper), "the mills buy up the beets at 22 marks (the equivalent of 22 shillings) a ton; they pay a tax to the German Government of 16 marks a ton, and the cost of manufacture amounts to about 10 marks a ton, making the total cost of production 48 marks per ton. A ton of beets produces two hundredweight of sugar, so that the cost of the sugar is 24 marks (about $6) a hundredweight. The annual product of Germany is about 900,000 tons of sugar. The Government subsidy is given in the form of a rebate of the tax on all sugar that is exported. As this is really a premium on the exportation of sugar, the article is actually much higher priced in Germany than it is in England, and about three-fourths of the product is exported." Sugar was so cheap in England, recently, that it was more economical to feed it to cattle and hogs than oilcake. The German producer must find his profits to be between two fires, which must soon melt them entirely away. If he sends his sugar abroad, he has to almost, if not altogether, give it away; if he sells it at home, the major results go to pay the tax to his paternal Government. This is a state of affairs that cannot possibly last long, and it is to be anticipated that the first tangible improvement in the world's sugar market will be occasioned by the collapse of the European beet-sugar enterprise. The business is even less promising in France than in Germany, on account of the tax in the former country being levied upon the sugar instead of the beet.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Alta California scores rather a neat point at the expense of the Congregational Club, of San Francisco. It charges them with scepticism in divine providence, on account of numerous speeches delivered at their last meeting, to the effect that the moral effect of Cleveland's election would be very bad. It says,—"They have so often preached that Providence overrules everything for the best, and that not a sparrow falls without direct interposition of Divine will, that it is fairly astonishing to find they now think the Lord had no share in so important a transaction as the election of a President of the grandest Republic the world ever saw." One of the features of the recent contest has been the warmth of clerical action on both sides. Mr. Beecher's course would have led one to suppose that Mr. Cleveland was a paragon of all the virtues, while that of the Baptist clergy of Buffalo would have conveyed the impression that he was the incarnation of everything satanic. The battle having been fought and won in a fair field with no favor, by Mr. Cleveland, however, the laity should have a right to expect a good example from their spiritual overseers in the way of mockingly bowing their heads to the resistless logic of events. If Mr. Cleveland were as bad as he is made out to be by his most bitter accusers, the issue of the contest simply indicates that a majority of the nation either want such a man or regard his opponent as a worse man for the chief rulership.

The Advertiser may only mean well to the temperance reformation now being attempted here; but, as a device of opponents of anti-liquor aims, and an apology for shirkers of responsibility in the matter, there is nothing more familiar to all who know anything of the temperance movement here and elsewhere, than the policy of disparaging the efforts and methods of the constant, true and tried temperance people of the community. Our contemporary contradicts itself in advocating the giving over of the work to former drinkers, and at the same time predicting certain failure if "Salvation Army" methods are adopted. The very thing it advocates is what has made the Salvation Army a religious burlesque wherever it has been such.

The Gazette local editor is gracefully magnanimous in complimenting the manager of this paper for having "displayed enterprise by publishing an edition of the paper, containing the news relative to the Presidential election in the United States, within an hour and a half after the arrival of the steamer Alameda, on the 22nd inst." He adds, "When it is considered that the editorial originally written for the occasion had to be 'piled,' the time is more remarkable."

THE DUCK CONTROVERSY.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—I had hoped that the duck controversy was at an end, but as some person has made a direct attack upon me without provocation, I feel myself called upon to make the following reply, wishing it distinctly understood that hereafter I will pay no attention to anonymous or unreliable correspondence. Waianae Sportsman, I notice your foolish communication in the DAILY BULLETIN of Nov. 25th inst., and would advise you kindly, to procure a dictionary and grammar and study the English language. Anyone familiar with shot-guns must certainly know that at twenty-five or thirty yards a good "choke-bore" will not scatter shot over a radius of more than three feet, and plover do not gather together sufficiently close to allow any one to kill from thirty to fifty with the contents of two barrels. No doubt your gun is belled at the muzzle, or you kill your birds with giant powder. Plover do not congregate in large flocks until they are about to migrate, generally in April and May. So far as mallard are concerned I can safely venture that you are not acquainted with the bird and must have confounded it with the goose, as no one doubts that occasionally a specimen of the genus anser may be seen in Hanakuli. I have no more ammunition to waste on such poor game, and I would further advise you to give the suffering public a long rest.

ALEX. J. CARTWRIGHT, JR.

THE DISLOCATED STATE.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—You were pleased to give publicity to my jumbled conceptions of the fundamental requisites of Cabinet Ministers. I acknowledge my obligation. If you do not already regard me as a bore, I am apprehensive that you will ere long. Years ago, in a distant clime, the wandering Arab joined the regiment of a literary chief, and was so highly commended for his initial deeds of valor, that he had hopes of filling up the residue of his days in the service. But mundane expectations were doomed to fade, and the Son of Ishmael was at last repulsed and banished from the halls of intelligence, his plundering propensities having given offence to the wise men of cities. The sedate editor and his respectable readers could not long tolerate the narrow-minded bigotry which admitted the blackness of a pot and objected to call a saucepan a bootjack. History may repeat itself. I see, though, I can't have all my own way. You possess considerable spring in the elbow, and have hit back some hard blows. Thunder away; I can stand it. My hide is tough, and head thick. To convert the heathen from the error of their ways will take time, patience, and much preaching. My mission at the outset will have to struggle against big odds; for it is unlikely that the unsophisticated notions of the tent will consort with the polished ideas of the mansion, or that a wild Arab of the desert, who has a fellow-feeling for everything connected with impudence and plunder, should be of the same mind as a fashionable sugar-bag aristocracy. But then Antishamus looks more to the future than the present for the triumph of his ideas, and confidently expects that when the people have cleared their understandings of dust and cobwebs and outgrown their narrow political prejudices, they will be constrained to admit the wisdom of Arabian philosophy.

Our great misfortune in a political aspect is that we have too many small factions and sung little family arrangements, either of which considers itself entitled to the monopoly of government, and neither of which has any clear understanding of what government on a broad basis of "the greatest good to the greatest number" means. They talk glibly of "good government" and pull faces as long as flag-poles as they utter with peculiar emphasis, "bad government." But I can never get from them a clear idea of what they mean or a definite explanation of what they want. Really, it is hard to avoid the belief that many of those who talk loudest and fiercest are more concerned about the men to rule than the measures to adopt. Moreover, these various little coteries seem to have become the Hawaiian nation, and speak of themselves as "the people," to the exclusion of the aboriginal sons of the soil.

With this disjointed, inharmonious condition of the body politic—everybody having an axe to grind, and each elbowing to get first at the stone and do most grinding while there—a judicious selection of the best men is highly improbable, and the establishment of a stable, efficient, uncorrupt government utterly impossible. The effect is, that when the popular pot begins to boil on the political fire, the scum of sharpers and tuft-hunters which rises to the surface, instead of being scattered in the gutter, is cast into the Ministry. All that is wholesome and profitable sinks out of sight; the people get the froth and rubbish, and then complain that the flavor is superlatively nasty.

To come to the point, I would ask any disinterested and unbiased person, if our method of pitch-forking Smith, Brown, Jones, and Robinson into office, regardless of education, experience, character, or brains, and simply because they belong to a family, a class, or a section of the public, is likely ever to produce a liberal, upright, capable government, who will govern the country on broad and enlightened principles adapted to its peculiar conditions and needs? Just look at our public men. To-day they are in a taro-patch or behind a counter; to-morrow they are in the Cabinet; and Solomon in all his glory was never half such a muff as the lot put together. Occasionally, by accident, we get a man or two less of a wooden-head than the average. But this is in spite of the rule, and not according to it. Now, tell me, Mr. Editor, candidly, do our high officials in general give you the outward idea of men suitable for the positions they occupy, or the inward conviction that nature ever intended them to abandon the field or rise above the shop? Are these men less out of their legitimate sphere where they are than Lord Granville would be selling oranges at a street-corner, or Gladstone delivering his solemn platitudes in an auctioneer's rostrum? Here we have a magnificent little country, with a climate of unsurpassed mildness, and possessing a soil of wonderful productive capabilities. The conditions of prosperity and happiness are placed right in our hands by bounteous nature. If a wise and patriotic paternal government had watched over and guided the nation, from the first introduction of civilized institutions to the present, what would have been the condition of the country and people to-day? I defer the answer. In place of what should have been and might have been, the only growing and flourishing item in the national catalogue is our liabilities. When men are thrust into places of trust and honor, who have risen from nothing, without merit, integrity, or character, they exhibit their natural hatred and objection to everything great, good, and valuable by reducing all that comes within their influence to the same sordid level.

ANTISHAMUS.

Mrs. Leavitt will speak on "Social Drinking" at the Y. M. C. A. Hall, 7.30, this evening.

LOCAL & GENERAL NEWS.

Don't eat too much turkey to-morrow.

SOME editorial and other matter prepared for this issue is crowded out.

IN answer to a correspondent we would say that the distance from Honolulu to San Francisco is 2100 miles.

EXTENSIVE alterations and improvements are being made to the residence of Mr. Henry Waterhouse, Nuuanu Valley.

FRIDAY being the anniversary of the recognition of Hawaiian Independence, all government offices will be closed on that day.

A CHINAMAN confined in the Philadelphia house of correction for a misdemeanor refuses to work because they don't pay. He says: "No payee, no clack stones."

MR. J. Carlisle has been appointed teacher of the government school at Maunaloa, Hamakua, Hawaii. He will commence his duties January 1st.

AN advertisement in one of our contemporaries as to the sailing of the Morning Star is misleading, as she left Boston November 5th for this port.

THE Chinaman who was arrested yesterday morning for counterfeiting coins was named Wong Akau, a machinist on King street, and not Wong Kam as stated.

THE new fence erected in front of Pilot McIntyre's house in Nuuanu Valley is nearly completed, and presents a very neat and attractive appearance.

MOST people will attend the special Thanksgiving services to-morrow. The remainder of the day will be spent in eating Lewis & Co.'s turkeys, and reading the BULLETIN.

THIS noon, by order of the assignees of the bankrupt estate of E. M. Nordberg, Lyons & Levey sold at auction the lease of the Anchor Saloon. Mr. T. E. Krouse was the purchaser at $2,000.

MR. Frank J. Ballinger, of the S. F. Call, left on the brig W. G. Irwin this noon. His health has been much improved by his visit to these islands. After reaching the Coast he will visit Southern California.

Mr. D. D. Baldwin, Inspector-General of Schools, leaves on Friday, on a tour of inspection of the government schools on this Island. He will be absent about three weeks.

GEORGE Markham, who has just received a new single scull shell, says he will row Walter Giffard a match race, for any amount, any distance and any time.

IT is expected that the S. S. Australia, due on Saturday, will bring the decisive news regarding the Presidential election. No change is generally expected.

BRIGADE Major Hayley is hard at work teaching the troops how to stand straight. By the end of next month it is expected they will be able to come to attention in a very satisfactory manner.

A PERSON who for certain reasons is obliged to reside in Fowler's yard, tells us it is a horribly noisy place. The lodgers there get on a racket and keep it up sometimes until two or three o'clock in the morning.

LYONS & Levey will hold their regular cash sale at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning. Dry goods, crockery and glassware, sugar and eight-day clocks are among the things to be offered. At 12 o'clock noon they will sell 5 mules, broken to harness and saddle.

SOMEONE went to the sale near the Fashion stables this morning, and tied their team close up to the fence, consequently everyone who passed by that way were obliged to walk out on the road, instead of the sidewalk. A policeman within a stone's throw of course did not see the obstruction.

LAST Friday evening the P. M. S. S. Zealandia met with an accident to her piston rod, consequently had to slow down to 9 1/2 knots per hour, when she had been making 13 knots since leaving Sydney. It is expected that she will be about nine days making the trip from here to San Francisco.

CHARLEY Dexter believes in the old saying that "the way to a man's heart is through his stomach". He says it comes true ten times out of ten. Charley intends to-morrow to set before his friends and patrons a first class Thanksgiving lunch at the Hotel from 12 until 2 o'clock, and says, Come one, come all, eat all and pocket none.

BUSINESS in the Police Court this morning only occupied about fifteen minutes. Five drunks forfeited bail of $6 each. Halabalakau, for larceny of limu, was remanded until the 17th inst. Wong Kau, for counterfeiting, contrary to Chapter 31, Section 10, Penal Code, was also remanded until the 27th inst. Mr. J. Russell appears for him.

UNDER the Act entitled, "An act to amend Chapter 34 of the Session Laws of 1882, relating to the suppression of disease among animals in the Hawaiian Kingdom," approved August 11th, 1884, the following gentlemen have been appointed as Board of Inspectors for the Island of Oahu: James Brodie, V. S., Executive Inspector, A. Burrell Hayley and John H. Brown.

TO-MORROW is set apart by President Arthur as a day of Thanksgiving for the blessings of the year. At 11 o'clock there will be a union service at Fort Street Church with a sermon by the Rev. E. C. Oggel. At the same hour a full choral service with appropriate hymns will be held at St. Andrews Cathedral. The Rt. Rev. the Bishop will preach the sermon.

IN Messrs. J. M. Oat, Jr., & Co.'s store window may be seen a very handsome photograph of the winning crew of the Myrtle Boat Club in the recent regatta. It is 14x17 and handsomely framed. The top of the frame bears the inscription in gold letters of "Winning Crew," while on the bottom is, "Regatta 1884." It is presented by Mr. J. Williams, the Fort street photographer, and does him the highest credit. The members of the crew are arranged in a group sitting down, with the exception of the coxswain who is standing.

FROM H. R. H. Princess Liliuokalani we have received copies of the songs "Aloha Oe" and "Hooheho." They have been printed in San Francisco by Matthias Gray in sheet music form, and are very neatly gotten up. The words and music of the song "Hooheho" were composed by Her Royal Highness, and it is the first time that music written by a Hawaiian has been published in sheet form. Our readers will remember both songs, as they are frequently played by the band, and very taking.

THE Y. M. C. A. Hall was again filled last evening by Mrs. Leavitt's audience. She showed by incontrovertible proof that prohibition did prohibit wherever given a trial, its success being in proportion to the efforts made to enforce it. In the concluding part of her lecture she vindicated, amid repeated applause, the position taken by the Prohibition party in the recent Presidential election. Her facetious references to some of the peculiarities of the Hawaiian liquor law—which sets a higher value upon women than men, and upon old drunkards than upon the young men who are the hope of the country—were keenly relished. At the close the pledge was circulated with a good deal of success.

To mince matters in anything affecting the happiness of the whole community would be blameworthy. An exception must, however, be made in the case of mincing meat for Thanksgiving and Christmas pies, whereby Mr. Horn, the Hotel street confectioner, has, lo, these many years, proved himself a benefactor to the community. This year he announces a like benevolent service. Nightmares are all exorcised out of his pies by means of an art that is a trade secret to him, so that no one should be frightened out of getting these luxuries by what the funny fiends of the newspapers say about the ordinary mince pie of commerce. Horn's mince pies will not make you dream of being bound prostrate to the Punchbowl flagstaff, with a magenta-haired demon driving goats over your abdomen.

UNION THANKSGIVING SERVICE.

AT Fort St. Church, to-morrow, Thursday, at 11 A. M., there will be a Union Thanksgiving Service. Pastor Cruzan will have charge of the service; Rev. Dr. Damon will read President Arthur's proclamation; Rev. A. O. Forbes will read the scripture lesson; Rev. Dr. Hyde will offer prayer; and Rev. E. C. Oggel will preach the sermon. The music will be furnished by Fort St. Church choir. Mrs. Hampson, the evangelist, arrived by the Zealandia. She is suffering from the effects of over-work, and from a severe accident which she met with in Sandhurst. It has been deemed wise under the circumstances to postpone the series of meetings to be conducted by her until Sunday, Jan. 4th. Mrs. Hampson is the guest of Hon. S. N. Castle, and will remain in the Kingdom until after the close of her meetings.

NOTICE.

ON and after this date, Mr. J. E. Wiseman will take charge of my books, distribute and collect my bills without exception. His receipt will be sufficient. GEORGE TROUSSEAU, M.D. Honolulu, Nov. 21, 1884. 874 1t

LATEST FOREIGN NEWS.

A terrible state of affairs has existed in Panama. The latest is a despatch dated Nov. 5th, which is as follows: Peace has been restored in Cundinamarca and Santandar, owing to the active intervention of the Federal Government. The town of Guaduas was captured by the rebels, who subsequently laid down their arms, when there was a scene of many atrocities. A picket of twenty-five men, who had defended the school-house for five hours, were slaughtered after surrendering. The body of the commander was subsequently exposed to most terrible indignities. On the following day a number of houses were sacked and several were burned. There were numerous assassinations of a fearful and cowardly character perpetrated. The Diario Oficial of San Salvador says a mob of 200 men assaulted the houses of Jesus Parades, Tomas Padilla and Captain Pancho, in Nahuealoo, in the Department of Sonsonate, and murdered them all, together with the wives and children of the first two mentioned. Subsequently they murdered a police captain and several others. The victims who perished number fourteen. The houses of Parades, Padilla and Pancho were burned. The crimes were committed owing to a dispute as to the proprietorship of the lands.

William Coulter, the oldest engineer in the service of the Pennsylvania Railroad, died Nov. 12th. He had charge of the train that took President Lincoln to Washington to be inaugurated in 1861, and it was he who carried Mr. Garfield, while dying, from Washington to Long Branch.

The Franchise Bill has passed its third reading in the British House of Commons.

In the speech delivered by the Governor at the prorogation of the New South Wales Parliament there occurs the following paragraph:—"In consequence of the failure of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company to obtain from the American Government the stipulated contribution towards the subsidy agreed to be paid by this colony and New Zealand for the San Francisco mail service, it has been thought necessary to give notice to terminate the existing contract at the end of November; but no inconvenience will thereby result to correspondents with Europe, as the arrangements entered into with the Orient Company for a fortnightly service via Suez have resulted in an appreciable shortening of the course of post, and have justified the adoption of the new principle of payment by weight of mails carried. It is, moreover, probable that a service between Sydney and San Francisco will be still continued, under somewhat altered conditions."

A Philadelphia despatch of Nov. 14th says:—"The sugar refinery of E. C. Knight & Co. shuts down on Saturday night. Nearly 300 men will be thrown out of employment. The depressed condition of the sugar trade is the cause. The refinery of McKean, Borie & Co. has shut down for the same reason and 200 hands are thrown out of employment."

The health officers of New York expect the cholera there next spring, and are preparing accordingly by arrangements for a general cleansing of the city.

Infancy is the only time when it is natural or right to be exclusively recipient. Between this time and full maturity giving and taking should be wisely alternated until one becomes as essential to the happiness as the other. It is not kindness, but cruelty, to neglect this training in responsibility, to allow youth quietly to appropriate everything and contribute nothing. It is simply a training in selfishness which quickly bears ingratitude as one of its chief fruits. Children who are honored by their parents' confidence, and accustomed to add their quota of assistance, and to bear their share of self-sacrifice whenever the good of the family requires it will rarely be guilty of ingratitude. They are not opposed to, but in quick sympathy with their parents, not because they are gifted with specially sympathetic natures or are in any way superior to ordinary young people, but simply because they have been made sharers with their parents in the cares and hopes, the responsibilities and labors of the family.

Stallions at Marshfield!

"BAZAAR." (Thoroughbred.)

By Jack Malone, he by Lexington, 1st dam, Ivy Leaf, by imported Australian; 2nd dam, Bay Flower, by Lexington; 3rd dam, Bay Leaf, by imported Yorkshire; 4th dam, Imported Maria Black, by Phlo da Putah, etc., etc.

Bazaar was bred at the great Wood-barn Farm, near Lexington, Ky., by the late R. A. Alexander, and was sold to W. L. Pritchard, of Sacramento, Cal., for $5,000. He stands 15 1/2 hands, weighs 1,005 lbs., and is a bright chestnut color. During his racing career he downed many a favorite, and won many a hatful of money for his owners, and proved himself one of the greatest of horses over a distance, most of his races being at two and four miles. He has already sired several colts in California that are winners, among which are Lizzie Dunbar, Young Bazaar, Sophia, and another called the Bazaar Minerva Colt, he being out of Minerva by imported Leamington, the sire of Parole and Iroquois. Lizzie Dunbar greatly distinguished herself last year in her two-year-old form by defeating one of the largest fields of two-year-olds that ever started in California, among which were the two beautiful fillies brought here last Spring by Mr. Agnew, distance 5/8 mile; time, 1:03 1/2, the fastest time on record for two-year-olds at the distance. This year she has won several important events, and has proved herself to be a crack three-year-old.

Bazaar has now been brought back to Honolulu, and will remain here the balance of this year, and breeders, horse owners and stock raisers should avail themselves of the opportunity to obtain his services while they have the chance. Terms, $40. Payable at time of service. The imported Clydesdale Stallion Donald Dinnie, Jr., will stand at the same time and place at $30 for the season. He was bred in Canada, sired by imported Donald Dinnie, and out of an imported Clydesdale mare. He is a beautiful dapple grey, 16 hands high, and weighs 1,400 lbs.; is very active, and as fine a large horse as could be found anywhere.

Also, the fine large imported Kentucky Jack Snapsion. This is one of the largest Jacks that we could find in California, and is an animal of immense bone; is a very sure breeder, and should be liberally patronized, as he is one of the very best animals of his kind. Terms, $30 for the season. The public are cordially invited to call and inspect the above animals.
