TO TURN AND BEND THEM.

That the rushing in of members to the secret organization known as the American League, with the declared object of materially changing the basis and structure of the Provisional Government, a supplementary revolution, the Star does not bode in labored and stilted phraseology tries to make its morning annexation contemporary believe. The Advertiser stands for the integrity of the self-renewing oligarchy, thus showing some slight respect for consistency on the part both of itself and those who gave the Provisional Government its commissions, according to President Dole. It is not yet for gotten by that paper that John L. Stevens, the head and front of the assault on Hawaiian nationality, informed the United States people that this very oligarchy was the best government the islands ever had, and that it was fully representative of all the intelligence, wealth and morality of the country, possessing the implicit confidence of those elements and certain of their physical support to the end. Many of the prime movers in the revolution, including the editor of the Advertiser himself, gave similar information in conversations, letters, interviews and lectures in the United States. Therefore, it would be simply indecent for the Advertiser to countenance any project that could even remotely be construed at home or abroad into a demonstration of want of confidence by the creditors of the P. G. in their creatures.

Although neither of the annexation organs has any right or speaks for any party that has any right to stipulate what the government of this country shall consist of or how it shall be constituted, yet the people at large will be disposed to sympathize with the Advertiser in the fight it is ostensibly making. This country has suffered enough from the rule of the oligarchy such as it is, but so long as it remains an oligarchy, that form is a thousand times preferable to a bastard republic, such as the Star's proposition of nominations of legislators by packed mass meeting implies. Nothing so utterly crude, grotesque, and near to absolute anarchy has ever been mooted for relief from any political situation anywhere. The divulgence of such a scheme is confirmatory of the timeliness of the warning this paper gave to the Provisional Government long ago, to the effect that, by their concessions and pandering to the rough elements composing the greater part of their support, they were casting pearls before swine which would turn again and read them.

While, however, the community at large will side with the Advertiser's contention, it is from far different motives to the unadmitted ones of that paper. The real people of this country oppose tinkering with the Provisional Government in the belief that on the lines of change proposed—the Star-League scheme would be making bad worse. As long as we have to bear with an unconstitutional and irresponsible rule, let us ever pray that the affliction weigh as lightly as possible on our backs. The Advertiser, on the other hand, backs the existing oligarchy because it represents more effectively than any larger junta the particular cliques and clans of which that paper is peculiarly the mouth-piece. That its clientele are up to their old tactics, of trying to beat the devil at his own game, is evident in the very happenings over which the Star indulges in serene congratulations to its particular gang. They are trying to capture the League by joining it, as they tried ineffectually in times past to secure the control of the component bodies of the National Reform party's organization. Their covert encouragement to the Liberals in traitorous schemes before the last election, their alliance with the National Reformers in the election to down the same Liberals, and their coalescing in the Legislature with both those parties in turn, to defeat every Ministry that was not of their stripe or under their domination, are other instances of the same unvarying policy of rule or ruin. While we protest against the giving us a worse government than we have, we must confess there is little hope that the oligarchy can maintain the bars against the anarchy of mob rule for which the Star crowd is striving, and which we long ago told the Provisional Government they were inviting. In this connection the United States nation has a grave responsibility toward this country from the part its representatives had in bringing it to this deplorable pass.

Matters on File—Decisions in the Appellate Court.

Bolobola vs. Maria Keahi Carr and Frank Carr is a case that comes from Hilo to Honolulu under change of venue mutually agreed on. S. K. Kane for plaintiff, C. Creighton for defendant.

Elizabeth Kokaianau Pratt petitions that she be appointed administratrix of the estate of her late husband, Frank S. Pratt, who died intestate. There is real estate valued at $200. The heirs known to petitioner besides herself are one brother and four sisters in Massachusetts.

Another decision has been rendered by the Supreme Court in the separation suit of Kaunimakaole Lazarus vs. Joseph Lazarus. It is by Justice Bickerton. Plaintiff appealed from the decree of Judge Cooper with regard to alimony, holding that the allowance of only $7 a week was an abuse of the Court's discretion. The Supreme Court decides it not so and refuses to disturb alimony on a petition for separation. W. A. Kinney for petitioner, C. W. Ashford for respondent.

The Supreme Court has rendered a unanimous decision, by Justice Frear, in Kamaulele vs. Nagamoto and Kamatsu. Exceptions from Fifth Circuit Court, which rendered judgment for the plaintiff for $110, the whole amount claimed, being two years' rent under a lease. It is decided: "If the plaintiff will remit $50, the amount awarded for the first year's rent, the judgment for the residue will be affirmed, otherwise a new trial will be ordered."

The principles of law declared in the decision are as follows: "To constitute a surrender of a lease by operation of law there must be a change of possession, by consent of the parties, inconsistent with the continued existence of the lease. A tenant may not deny the title of his landlord and attain to another unless he is actually evicted, or at least in imminent danger of eviction."

"Mere knowledge of a landlord that his tenant paid rent to another is not sufficient to show his acquiescence in the tenant's so doing."

"Money once paid as rent but afterwards returned cannot be again recovered as rent."

"Such money having been included in the judgment of the lower court, a new trial is ordered unless the plaintiff remits so much of the judgment."

A Ross for plaintiff, A. S. Hart, well for defendant.

Judge Whiting has confirmed a sale of land by J. A. Magoon, administrator of the estate of Mariano Comacho.

Charles T. Gulick has been appointed administrator of the estate of J. Gomes, one of the crew of the Hawaiian steamer Claudine, who was left in hospital at San Francisco last January and died there.

HONOLULU CRICKET CLUB.

New Officers and New Bylaws The Coming Season.

At the Hawaiian Hotel last night the Honolulu Cricket Club held its annual meeting. Rev. V. H. Kiteat, President, was in the chair. R. L. Auerbach, Secretary, read the minutes of previous meetings, after which business proceeded apace and much was done.

The President read an exhaustive report written by himself, reviewing, on behalf of the Board of Management, the operations of the club for the past year. It showed an active membership of 30, and an honorary roll of 22. Reference was made to the destruction of the club's implements by fire. A canvass for relief among business men, made by W. L. Stanley and others, had resulted in contributions of $122.50 toward restoring the burned property. So thorough and inspiring was the President's report that, besides being accepted, it drew a hearty vote of thanks to its author.

J. Lightfoot, as auditor for the Board, reported on the accounts of the treasurer, who was absent, showing a balance on hand of $9.63. A new code of laws submitted by the Board was so acceptable as to be adopted at once with a few slight changes.

There was a discussion as to grounds, sundry suitable lots being mentioned, and the matter was referred to the Board of Management. The club had spent a goodly sum of money in improving the Makiki recreation ground, but that being devoted to the public no single organization can have any exclusive rights in it.

Officers for the ensuing year were selected as follows: V. H. Kiteat, President; M. Brasch, Vice-President; R. L. Auerbach, Sec'y-Treasurer; T. W. Lishuan, Captain; A. R. Hatfield, Vice-Captain; J. Lightfoot, W. L. Stanley, F. B. Auerbach, Executive Officers. All the officers constitute the Board of Management.

Before adjourning the club passed a vote of thanks to the Hawaiian Hotel management for granting the use of a room for this and other meetings. It was decided to open the next season on Saturday, March 24th.

A Follower of the Grip.

The persistent cough which usually follows an attack of the grip can be permanently cured by taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. W. A. McGuire of McKay, Ohio, says: "La Grippe left me with a severe cough. After using several different medicines without relief, I tried Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which effected a permanent cure. I have also found it to be without an equal for children, when troubled with colds or croup. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., agents for the Hawaiian Islands."

All kinds of Commercial Printing promptly executed at low rates at the Bulletin Office.

P. G. Contradictions to the Claim That the U. S. Forces Weren't In It.

The following from Blount's report is not contradicted by anybody: 1. Admiral Skerrett swore: "The troops were properly located if designed to prevent the movement for the Provisional Government, and very improperly located to protect American citizens and their property."

2. Judge Dole admits in his testimony "that when the troops were first fired, he could not have gotten along with out their aid."

3. Mr. Waterhouse swore: "We knew the Queen's forces were cowardly and that by making them believe the troops would help us out they would surrender."

4. Mr. Damon's vital admissions are well known. Judge Dole denies that Damon had a right to make representations to the Queen.

5. On January 16th (before the troops landed of course) the Committee of Safety requested the troops and said "we are unable to protect ourselves without aid." The troops landed at 5 o'clock the same day.

Next day, the 17th, the Queen surrendered "to the superior forces of the U. S." without the firing of a shot.

7. On January 17th, long after Stevens had recognized the Provisional Government, Judge Dole wrote him (Stevens) exactly the following: "I acknowledge receipt of your valued communication of this day recognizing the Hawaiian Provisional Government, and express deep appreciation of the same. We have conferred with the Ministers of the late government, and have made demand on the Marshal to surrender the station house. We are not yet in possession of the station house; but as night is approaching, and our forces may be insufficient to maintain order, we request the immediate support of the United States forces."

Remarkably Old Woman.

A San Jose, Cal., despatch of January 12 says: There died in Evergreen yesterday a woman who had reached the remarkable age of 142 years, and who was born in this valley and spent her life here. Her name was Ysidra de los Santos. She was twice married, and buried her second husband six years ago, his age being 110 years. She was of Mexican and Indian parentage. Her life was uneventful, except that she sang in the first mission church established here.

192-26 BENJ. B. ZAMAKAOKAHL.

Saturday, Jan. 20, 1894.

The arrival of the "Martha Davis" busted the corner in oil and added goods to our already large stock of plantation implements.

Last week we filled an order from a manager on Hawaii for eight miles of the locked fence and another from a manager on Kauai for three miles. In the first instance the manager guaranteed the owners an increase of thirty three and one-third percent in fat cattle if they would adopt the locked fence for the pasture fields, not that a particular kind of fence would make the grass grow but that the locked fence was strong enough to keep depredatory cattle out while the feed was growing. The three mile order from Kauai was simply a trial trip, and if it is satisfactory we expect to see most of the island girdled with locked wire fence. It is only a question of time when it will be universally used because it has so many points of superiority which commend it to people who use wire fences. Durability, Strength and Economy in price are the three points which make it the best fence in the world. You will understand that while we call it a fence, we do not sell it made up. We simply sell you the wire, stays and washers necessary to make it. If you do not wish to build a new fence but to repair an old one we will sell the stays and washers necessary to make it. If you do not wish to build a new fence but to repair an old one we will sell the stays and washers necessary to make it. If you do not wish to build a new fence but to repair an old one we will sell the stays and washers necessary to make it.

These stays cost you six dollars a hundred and the washers forty-two cents a hundred. In ordering by mail remember that you need a washer wherever your wire joins a stay; if yours is a five wire fence you will require five washers to each stay. It's an easy matter to calculate the saving; anyone who knows that two and two make four will understand that a wire stay which costs six cents is cheaper than a wooden post at sixteen cents. Ordinarily the original cost of an article is the greatest expense. Consider the saving there is in a locked fence, and the first cost is reduced to a minimum.

Carbolinum Avenarius is an article much used by builders for coating wood placed in contact with the ground and where moisture quickly affects it; the object of the preparation is to preserve the wood from decay consequent upon the ravages of ants and underground bugs. We understand that one Honolulu merchant is selling it at $1.25 per gallon. We sell you the same article exactly, for 80 cents a gallon or $30 per barrel. Not much difference, perhaps, but enough for everyone to consider.

This difference in price is about on a par with other articles we sell. We secure the best quality, always, and arrange the price to meet the purses of the people. The result is that our business rapidly outgrew our quarters; first one warehouse was added and then another until now we have three warehouses full of goods besides those in our Fort street store.

The "Wertheim" has jumped from a plebeian to a king among sewing machines. The fact of people getting an article that practically combines three in one is what makes it valuable to every lady in the land. We know of no other machine that will give a lock, chain or embroidery stitch by the simple turning of a thumb screw, and yet that is what the Wertheim does. In addition to its being the best sewing machine it has the finest table we have ever seen.

The porcelain lined bath tubs seem to have caught the people's favor and we've had to send forward orders for duplicates. The one in the store is roomy enough to satisfy anyone whose tastes run to roomy bath tubs. The enamel sinks are infinitely better for the kitchen than the conventional cast iron affair that is impossible to keep clean.

FOR SELLING OPIUM.

A Mongol is Fined $500 With Six Months Additional.

Sheu Tin, an enterprising opium dealer, has at last come to grief. He was arrested on Jan. 18th in the upper story of a house on Beretania street by Captain Andrews with the assistance of a Chinese informer for selling opium. The informer had previous knowledge of Sheu Tin's little money-making scheme and decided to take Captain Andrews into his confidence. Captain Andrews furnished the informer with ten cents with which to purchase opium. Both entered the dwelling of Sheu Tin and while the officer stood near by, the informer was supplied with a liechee nut, passed through a hole in the wall, containing ten cents worth of opium. The officer and Chinaman then burst into the room and found two boxes containing liechee nuts and opium. The identical ten cent piece with which the opium had been bought was found on the bed, where it no doubt had been thrown in the dealer's excitement.

Of course, it was nothing but natural, that Sheu Tin should deny the above story, but notwithstanding his denial he was sentenced to pay a fine of $500 and be imprisoned at hard labor six months. W. R. Castle for defendant noted an appeal.

THE BISHOP MUSEUM.

Sketch of a Year's Doings by Curator Brigham.

There has been filed in the Clerk's office of the Judiciary Department: "A Brief Report of the Work of the Bernice Pauahi Bishop Museum during the Year 1903." It is as follows:

"HONOLULU, Jan. 23, 1904.

"During the past year the resources of the Museum have been largely employed in preparing for the occupation of the new building in course of erection at the cost of Hon. C. R. Bishop, and in this connection the Curator visited the Colonial museums, not only arranging valuable exchanges but also purchasing many objects and photographs illustrating the life of the Pacific region. These will find their place in the new hall.

"The collections have steadily increased in most departments, and most noteworthy is Mr. Bishop's gift of the splendid collection of shells made by the late Andrew Garrett; this is one of the choicest private collections in the world. Mr. G. D. Gilman of Newton has given to the Museum his extensive collection of Hawaiian relics, among them very interesting autographs of Hawaiian ali'i.

"The Government has loaned to the Museum the priceless feather cloaks which have been securely placed in cedar cases, where they can readily be seen by visitors while preserved from insects and ordinary decay.

"Scientific works for reference have been liberally purchased by the Trustees, supplying to that extent a great want in this region so remote from all scientific libraries.

"In the department of ornithology a number of bird skins, mostly and eggs have been given by A. F. Judd, Jr., Mrs. Francis Gay and others.

"Public interest has largely increased in this Museum, if we may judge by the increased attendance during the two exhibition days each week. This increase is especially noteworthy among the Chinese and Hawaiian visitors. The publication of the catalogue (a copy of which is a part of this report) has given rise to a very considerable foreign correspondence in Hawaiian antiquities.

"The staff of the Museum has been limited to the Curator, but the very respectable size of this institution renders it impossible for one man to do much more than preserve the contents of the cases in a climate where so many adverse influences exist. W. T. BRIGHAM, Curator B. P. B. Museum."

ALBU FAREWELL AND BENEFIT.

Rare Musical Event For Saturday Evening.

Elsewhere appears the announcement of the closing concert of the Misses Albu. It is to take place in the Hawaiian Opera House on Saturday evening next. Besides being the farewell appearance of the gifted sisters, it is to be a benefit to the lithe and cheerful manner on the stage captured the being of the community at sight, and with her fine musical powers earned her cordial applause whenever she has come forward since. The program for the farewell and benefit is to be probably the most attractive yet, having besides classical masterpieces a great share of the ballad element in which the Misses Albu are unexcelled. Mr. Wakefield, one of our leading vocalists, will appear amongst local talent on the occasion. Mr. F. A. Voigt, a superior zither player who has lately arrived, will also appear. There will also appear for the first time Mr. Hartman, a solo violinist. Don't be late in securing a good seat. The house plan opens to-morrow morning at Mr. Levy's. The Opera House will be wholly lighted by electricity for the first time, giving peculiar brilliancy to the event.

GOT "FOOLED A BUNCH."

The Waimanalo Lookout Mistakes a Barkentine for the Warrimoo.

At 9:30 o'clock this morning three whistles were blown from the Honolulu Planning Mills as a signal that a foreign mail steamer was off Waimanalo. About half an hour later a report came over the wires that the U. S. S. Warrimoo was off Waimanalo. Everybody in town went on the qui vive for the arrival, and everything was in a bustle, as it was expected the steamer would bring two or three days' later news, including President Cleveland's message to the Senate. Not a few anticipated the arrival of the steamer by going down to the wharf. Judge, however, of the disappointment when, at 10:45 o'clock, Charlie Peterson, the Diamond Head lookout, sent a message to the Central offices that the reported steamer was not a steamer at all. It was a barkentine. One theory as to how the mistake was made is that the skipper of the barkentine was on deck smoking a big Chinese cigar.

Exciting Cricket.

At a cricket dinner a week or two ago, Sir John Astley, in proposing the toast of the evening, "The Australian Eleven," gave some amusing examples of his cricket experiences in the Crimea. In the great match played at the Alma, he said that the Russians sent down some tremendous big balls from the heights, and in front of him was a famous cricketer who was a splendid wicket-keeper. As their ranks opened out to give the deliveries room, a ball made a ricochet to the right, just missing them. "Why didn't you stop that, Duff?" said Sir John. "It had too much pace on for me," replied Duff, "and I thought it was all right with you, Sir John, at long stop!"

POPULAR SAILOR MAN.

He Collects Curios and is a Strong Democrat.

Chief Officer Murphy of the bark Velocity was welcomed by a number of his friends, nearly all seafaring men, on the arrival of the bark on Sunday. Murphy, who is an old stager, was formerly engaged on vessels plying between San Francisco and this port. Several years ago he left for Hongkong, and on the last two trips of the Velocity, was chief officer. Murphy has a fondness for collecting curios, and while at Hongkong amassed quite a collection. One of Murphy's pets is a monkey, which he is very fond of. While at sea the monkey gambols over the rigging, sometimes carrying his owner's hat and placing it on the mainmast top.

Murphy is an out-and-out Democrat. One of the first to shake hands with him on his arrival, after the bark had been set shipshape, was Officer Sheahan, a Republican. Sheahan, who was well aware, through former acquaintance, of Murphy's politics, boasted that he would make a Republican out of him. He broached his intention to Murphy, when the latter replied, "I'm a Democrat, and I'll stay a Democrat; and I've got money to bet that you'll never make a Republican out of me!"

Long and Terrible Illness from Blood Poisoning Completely Cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Mrs. Mary E. O'Fallon, a very intelligent lady of Piqua, Ohio, was poisoned while assisting physicians at an autopsy 5 years ago, and soon veritable ulcers broke out on her head, arms, tongue and throat. Her hair all came out. She weighed but 78 lbs., and saw no prospect of help. At last she began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and at once improved, could soon get out of bed and walk. She says: "I became perfectly cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla and am now a well woman. I weigh 120 lbs., eat well and do the work for a large family. My case shows a wonderful recovery, and physicians look at me in astonishment, as almost like one raised from the dead."

National Cane Shredder

PATENTED UNDER THE LAWS OF THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVE BEEN APPOINTED SOLE AGENTS FOR these SHREDDERS and are now prepared to receive orders. The great advantages to be derived from the use of the NATIONAL CANE SHREDDER are thoroughly established and acknowledged by Planters generally.

The large number of Planters using them in the United States, Cuba, Argentine Republic, Peru, Australia and elsewhere, bear witness to the above claim.

The use of the SHREDDER very largely augments the quantity of cane the mill can grind (25 to 50%), also the extraction of juice (5 to 12%). It is a great safeguard, making known at once the presence of any pieces of iron, stakes from cars, or anything which would be liable to damage the mill, and allowing ample time to remove same before damaging the mill.

The SHREDDER is very strongly made, and from the manner of its operation it cuts or tears these pieces of wood or iron without often breaking the SHREDDER; and if anything breaks, it is simply some of the knives or cutters, which can be quickly and economically replaced. The SHREDDER, as its name indicates, tears the cane into shreds of varying lengths, perfectly opening it and allowing the mill to thoroughly press out the juice without requiring the immense extra power necessary to grind or crush the whole cane. The SHREDDER spreads the shredded cane uniformly and evenly to the mill rolls, and does away with the necessity of spreading the bagasse by hand between the mills, where regrinding is in use. No greater amount of boiler capacity is required to operate the SHREDDER than that which was sufficient for the mill, for the above reasons. We furnish full working drawings for the installation of our SHREDDERS, enabling any competent engineer to successfully install and start them.

In ordering SHREDDERS from us, please send small sketch, showing the diameter and width of the mill rolls, with which SHREDDER is to be connected, also the side (either right or left hand as you face the delivery side of the mill), upon which the mill engine is located, also the height from floor line to center of front mill shaft, and distance center this shaft to front end of bed plate. These SHREDDERS are now being used by the Hilo Sugar Co. and Hilo Mill, Kohala, where they are giving great satisfaction.

Press and further particulars may be had by applying to Wm. G. IRWIN & CO., Ltd., Sole Agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

The Prize Awarded!

Anheuser-Busch Brewing Co. Wins the Prize at the World's Fair with their "EAGLE" Brand Beer.

St. Louis, Oct. 28, 1893. Messrs. MacFarlane & Co., L.P., Honolulu, H. I.

Dear Sir: We have mailed you a copy of the Globe Democrat announcing the great victory won by the Anheuser-Busch Association with their "EAGLE" Brand of Beer.

(Special Dispatch to Globe Democrat.)
 WORLD'S FAIR, CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 28.—No award has ever been made so gratifying to St. Louis people and so justly merited as the one given to-day by the Columbian jury of the World's Fair, consisting of connoisseurs and chemists of the highest rank, to the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association. By methods of unrivalled business enterprise, and by using the best material produced in America and Europe, excluding corn and other adulterants or surrogates, the different kinds of the Anheuser-Busch beer have become the favorite with the American people, and have now conquered the highest award in every particular, which had to be considered by the Columbian jury. The high character of the award given to-day by the jurors will be better understood when it is known that the different beers exhibited by the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association had to compete with hundreds of the most excellent displays of other brewers. The fact that no other concern has received so many points for the various essential qualities of good beer confirms anew the firm's reputation as the leader of all American beers, and Mr. Adolphus Busch can feel proud over this result so justly merited.

The above is a fac-simile of the Label of the "EAGLE" Brand which took the Prize.

In ordering this Beer be sure to ask for the "EAGLE" Brand.

THE TARIFF DEBATE.

Striking Apposal of Congressman Simpson.

In the House of Representatives, Washington, Jan. 12, the Senate amendments to the joint resolution for the appointment of a joint commission to examine into the personnel of the Navy was agreed to.

The Foreign Affairs Committee reported favorably Hitt's resolution, calling on the President for all Hawaiian information received since the special message. Objection was made to its immediate consideration and the House resumed the tariff debate, Brosius of Pennsylvania continuing his argument begun yesterday.

Simpson followed. He said that while he intended to vote for the Wilson bill, there were many provisions in it which he did not approve. He was not one of those who ever believed that the Democratic party, brought to a test, would carry out its pledges, for he knew that while there are honest Democrats, the action of the Democratic party, like that of the Republican, is controlled by the money power.

"The People's party," said he, "stands on a platform pledged, as I interpret it, to the principles of free trade. The intolerable burden put upon the agricultural classes through the indirect system of taxation has been one of the potent causes which produced the present condition of affairs. The farmers in the country in 1850 owned 60 percent of the wealth, 53 percent in 1860, 40 percent in 1880 and 30 percent in 1890.

It was at this juncture that Simpson created great applause and amusement by treating the House to the spectacle of a dilapidated overcoat. He said he proposed to show the House exactly what the poor people of the country did wear. Reaching down under his desk he seized a tattered old overcoat, frayed at the edges and bespangled with great patches. He held it on high while the House and galleries cheered.

"I bought that of a farmer," said he, "who told me he left home at 12 o'clock at night and drove twenty-five miles to sell his product in your boasted home market. There, as Cleveland said, is an object lesson. (Laughter.) There is a sample of what men wear under the beneficent system of protection. It is made of shoddy and rags, see. (Here he ripped it up the back.) Yet," he added, "I can find its duplicate on the backs of a million men in this country."

"Where did he buy it?" asked Cannon (R. of Illinois).

"He bought it a year ago in this city for $8, and I bought him another shoddy coat to take its place for $10.40." (Laughter.)

"Is it American or imported?" asked Cannon.

"I don't know," replied Simpson, "and I don't care. But it is a product of American protection. No one can deny that." (Laughter and applause.)

Simpson concluded with an appeal to the people to "ring out the old and ring in the new" order of things. Many members tendered him personal congratulations when he sat down.

How to Cure La Grippe.

About a year ago I took a violent attack of la grippe. I coughed day and night for about six weeks; my wife then suggested that I try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. At first I could see no difference, but still kept taking it, and soon found that it was what I needed. If I got no relief from one dose I took another, and it was only a few days until I was free from the cough. I think people in general ought to know the value of this remedy, and I take pleasure in acknowledging the benefit I have received from it. The Inducement Sufficient.

Three grain elevators and two maltheuses belonging to the Bemis & Curtis Malting Company were destroyed by fire in Chicago on the 12th inst. The buildings, with 300,000 bushels of grain they contained, represent a loss of $300,000, fully covered by insurance. The origin of the fire is supposed to have been spontaneous combustion.
