BIENNIAL FINANCE REPORT

Synopsis of Minister Damon's Recommendations to the Legislature.

Comparative Review of the Finances of the Republic Since Its Organization—The Loan Fund.

In his report to the Legislature, copies of which were made public yesterday afternoon, Minister Damon says that it has been so arranged that a comparative review of the years in which the Republic has been established can be made with a view of facilitating the study of the financial condition by the Legislature.

The present system of keeping accounts can be materially improved by adopting the suggestions contained in the report of Messrs. T. C. Porter, G. R. Carter and W. A. Bowen to the last Legislature.

The receipts for 1896 and 1897 amounted to $4,164,148.67, and the receipts for the previous biennial period amounted to $3,500,789.04—showing an increase of $663,359.63.

The expenditures for 1896 and 1897 amounted to $3,828,575.51, and the expenditures for the previous biennial period amounted to $3,662,886.66—showing an increase of $165,688.85.

The revenues of the Republic are practically divided under three heads: direct taxes, customs revenue and internal revenue each bearing about one third of the total receipts.

TAXES.

The total taxes collected during 1895 were $592,691.92; during 1896 were $698,843.85 and during 1897 were $759,703.98. This shows a gain in 1896 over 1895 of $60,860.13, and a gain in 1897 over 1895 of $167,012.06.

The total taxes paid by corporations in 1895 were $133,020.38; in 1896 were $207,370.63, and in 1897 were $222,460.77. This shows a gain in 1896 over 1895 of $74,350.25, and a gain in 1897 over 1895 of $89,440.39.

From this it will appear that of the total increase of taxes over 1895; viz: $167,012.06, the corporations have contributed towards this gain $89,440.39, or about 54 per cent.

Under this head the Minister says that the equalizing of assessments as between corporations demands earnest attention. An earnest recommendation is also made for the remission of poll taxes as being a burden on the poorer class of taxpayers.

CUSTOMS BUREAU.

Following in relative importance is the Customs Bureau, which shows an increase of revenue over the preceding period of $293,472.46; the total revenue for 1894-1895 being $1,071,916.41 and the total revenue for 1896-1897, $1,365,388.87.

The countries most affected by this increase are the United States and Great Britain. The value of imports from the United States shows an increase of $3,393,626; and Great Britain represents an increase of $684,979; other countries showing slight increases.

The percentage of imports from the United States was seventy-seven and sixty four one-hundredths per cent.; from Great Briand twenty-one hundredths per cent.; the remaining twelve and twenty-four one-hundredths per cent. being divided fairly equally between Germany, China, Japan and the Colonies.

Since the new law went into effect increasing the duties on wine, the importations of that wine have practically ceased. As so large a portion of our population is accustomed to the use of this wine the Minister recommends that the duty be made to conform to the United States tariff, viz: 60 cents per gallon.

The importation of California wines for 1894 and 1895 was 262,195 gallons and for 1896 and 1897 was 334,232 gallons.

The importation of sake for 1894 and 1895 was 229,725 gallons and for the year 1896 and six months of 1897 was 384,125 gallons.

The exports show a very gratifying increase of $13,922,072 for this period. This increase is naturally in our present principal products, sugar and rice, though coffee is now becoming more of a factor in our exports. In view of the growing importance of this latter industry, a commission of men interested in its promotion and the securing of foreign markets for its sale is advised, this commission to have $500 placed at its disposal for procuring information needed and securing reliable agents in foreign markets.

The transportation of so large an amount of exports and imports has required an increased tonnage, which the United States leads with 64 vessels, Great Britain 50, Hawaii 22, Japan 13 and all others 9. The total number of ships entering in the previous period was 658 and in the present period 813. A revised system of registration of vessels under the Hawaiian flag is suggested, and an increased appropriation for customs inspectors and guards is said to be necessary from the great increase in business.

INTERNAL REVENUE.

Under the head of internal revenues are classed the receipts from the Interior office, the land revenues; the market; water works; registry of deeds; San Francisco consulate fees; revenue stamps; fines, penalties and costs; and Government realizations.

The total of rents received from land leases both from the Interior Department and Land Office in 1897 was $128,602.04, and in 1897, $142,127.50. The land sales were in 1896, $30,432.26, and in 1897, $97,960.20.

As an investment Mr. Damon says that nothing pays the Government better dividends for the sum invested than the Honolulu Market. This has increased from 1894, $6,309 to $8,575 in 1897, not to mention the improved appearance of the building and surroundings.

The water works show an increase from $49,925 in 1894 to $62,414 in 1897. The Registry of Deeds Bureau shows an increase from $3,806 in 1894 to $13,388 in 1897. Revenue stamps show an increase from $23,651 in 1894 to $41,561.50 in 1897, due to large land sales, new incorporations and more vigilant inspection of the stamping of labor contracts. These figures are irrespective of Customs revenue stamps, otherwise accounted for.

Fines, penalties and costs show an increase from $58,993 in 1894 to $61,514 in 1897.

Government realizations show an increase from $8,441 in 1894 to $31,848 in 1897.

EXPENDITURES.

For the year 1894, the total expenditure under the head of Current Account of all kinds was $1,653,772; in 1895, $2,009,114; during which year the insurrection and cholera epidemic occurred; in 1896, $1,904,190; in 1897, $1,924,384.

Though the total expenditures have run so equally for the last three years, there have been

LEGISLATURE IN SESSION

Several Ministerial Bills Already Introduced in Both Houses.

Representatives Indulge in Little Breezes—Committees of the House—Judge Wilcox Elected Interpreter.

THE SENATE.

President Wilder called the Senate to order at 10 a. m. and Chaplain Pearson opened the proceedings with prayer.

The minutes of yesterday's meeting were read and approved. On motion Senators Waterhouse and Lyman were appointed a committee to notify the President that the Senate was organized for business.

Copies of the partial report of the Chief Justice were distributed. Minister Damon presented the President's message, together with copies thereof and the report of the Minister of Foreign Affairs for the biennial period.

Under suspension of the rules Minister Damon introduced the following bills: Senate Bill No. 1—An Act to appropriate money for the expenses of the session.

Senate Bill No. 2—An Act to appropriate additional money for the purpose of building school houses throughout the Republic.

Senate Bill No. 3—An Act making appropriations for the payment of claims, unpaid bills and salaries due prior to December 31, 1897.

Senate Bill No. 4—An Act making special appropriations for the departmental use of the Government during the two years which will end with the 31st day of December in the year 1899.

Senate Bill No. 5—An Act to amend Act 73 of the Laws of the Provisional Government approved the 26th day of April, 1894, entitled "An Act making special appropriations for salaries and pay rolls during the two years which will end with the 31st day of March, A. D. 1896.

On motion Senate Bills No. 1 and 2 were referred to the Committee on Printing and Senate Bills 3, 4 and 5 were laid on the table to await the Hawaiian version.

Senator Holstein introduced a resolution that copies of the Laws of 1896 as well as the Civil and Penal Codes as revised be furnished each member of the Senate. Carried.

On motion the Committee on Printing were authorized to employ a typewriter and translator. At 10:40, on motion of Senator Waterhouse, the Senate adjourned.

THE HOUSE.

Representative Loebenstein rapped for order at 10 o'clock sharp.

Committee on Credentials reported papers of S. K. Kaeo in due form.

Chairman Loebenstein excused Mr. Kaeo until other business had been disposed of.

Attorney General Smith raised the point that the acceptance of members was most important and should precede all other matters.

Chief Justice Judd was summoned and administered the oath to Mr. Kaeo.

Mr. Kaai nominated Mr. Kaulukou for Speaker. He was unanimously elected.

On taking the chair Mr. Kaulukou said he felt the position to be one of great responsibility. Great desire was that the business of the House should be conducted for the best interests of every person residing in the country. The work of the House will be a monument of some kind. Mr. Kaulukou closed by asking for the assistance of the House in conducting the business.

For Vice Speaker S. W. Kaai was nominated and unanimously elected.

On motion of Mr. Achi, James N. K. Keola was unanimously chosen permanent secretary.

On motion of Mr. Kaai, Rev. J. Waiamau was elected chaplain.

Mr. Kaai was appointed a committee of one to notify Rev. Waiamau of his election.

J. D. Tucker was unanimously elected permanent sergeant-at-arms and messenger.

Messrs. Robertson, Pogue and Isenberg were appointed a committee to notify the Acting President that the House was ready for business.

Finally, on motion of Mr. Robertson it was voted the sense of the House that section 14 of the Rules does not apply to the Speaker.

Secretary Keola and Sergeant-at-arms Tucker were then sworn in.

For the Ministers the Attorney General presented copies in English and Hawaiian of the message, reports of Foreign Affairs, Interior, Attorney-General, Board of Health and preliminary of Finance department.

Mr. Richards moved that copies of the Penal and Civil Codes be distributed to members of the House. The Attorney-General stated the codes would soon be ready for distribution.

Mr. Achi moved an amendment to Mr. Richards' motion to include "any books required."

Mr. Richards' motion prevailed. Mr. Achi offered a resolution making the hours of business in the House from 10 to 12 a. m. and 1 to 4 p. m. This was opposed by Mr. Robertson, who thought a meeting hour for each day merely was sufficient to declare in the Rules.

Remarks were made by Messrs. Achi, Kaai, Loebenstein and others. Mr. Achi made the point that Mr. Robertson's motion was out of order. Sustained by the chair.

Mr. Loebenstein contended that Mr. Achi's resolution was not on proper paper and was therefore out of order. Overruled. Mr. Loebenstein then contended that the resolution would have to go over to next session.

Mr. Robertson appealed from the decision of the chair relative to his amendment. Sustained by a vote of 10 to 3. Amended resolution then passed.

The following committees were announced:

1. Foreign Relations—A. G. M. Robertson, A. T. Atkinson, W. F. Pogue.

2. Judiciary—A. G. M. Robertson, W. C. Achi, S. K. Kaeo.

3. Finance—W. F. Pogue, A. V. Gear, J. D. Paris.

2. Judiciary—A. G. M. Robertson, W. C. Achi, S. K. Kaeo.

7. Passed Bills—E. E. Richards, S. G. Wilder and P. R. Isenberg.

Attorney-General Smith gave notice of his intention to introduce several bills. An Act to amend an Act of the last session to reorganize the judiciary and an Act relating to suspension of sentence in certain criminal cases were presented and passed first reading.

Judge W. L. Wilcox was appointed permanent interpreter of the House. The Attorney-General suggested that the District Magistrate could hardly be spared. Mr. Loebenstein insisted, however, that there was a sub-magistrate and the House could not well do without Mr. Wilcox.

Adjourned to 10 a. m. tomorrow.

In the Patsy Vault.

The funeral of Charles W. Day yesterday afternoon was Masonic. At the Temple Mrs. Woodward sang, by request of the family, "Nearer My God to Thee," a favorite hymn of deceased Wray Taylor officiated at the organ. In the Temple the casket was covered with call lilies. The remains were deposited in the Patsy vault to await the return of Dr. Day from the States.

Now It Is Fixed.

The annex to the Bell switchboard in the telephone office was placed this morning. It was practically manufactured by Captain J. W. Pratt, with the assistance of Superintendent Cassidy and Chas. S. Craze. The addition enables the company to make all connections at once. A new modern switchboard will arrive from Chicago in about six weeks.

Great Storm at Waialae.

The greatest rainstorm of years prevailed at Waialae between the hours of 1 and 5 this morning. Stoned fences were washed away and a tremendous freshet swept down the valleys and gulches. In many places the roads were seriously damaged. The storm was accompanied by lightning and thunder.

Bicycle Races Are Off.

On account of the heavy rain of the past 24 hours the race program arranged for Cyclometer park this evening has been postponed until the evening of Saturday, February 26.

Domingo Parker, a Portuguese sailor, was arrested today on a charge of desertion from the ship Diamond Head.

material differences in different bureaus; as for instance, in the Bureau of Water Works, in 1894, the expenditure was $23,651, and in 1897, $207,000.

Distinct progress has been made in the economical management of the Treasury by the gradual reduction of interest on all loans and advances, showing that though the bonded debt of the Government has very materially increased, and the Postal Savings Bank is doing a much larger business than ever, the total amount paid in interest by years, beginning with 1894, has been $211,571; $251,620; $236,459; $243,492, for the years 1894, 1895, 1896 and 1897. This may be better explained by the fact that in the year 1894 the total interest-bearing indebtedness of the Government was $3,585,161., and at the end of 1897 the total interest-bearing indebtedness of the Government was $4,488,881, showing an increase of $903,720. And the actual increase of interest paid by the Government, as between 1894 and 1897, was $31,921. Could the debt have been refunded in 1896, as was contemplated at the time by the Government, the interest actually paid in 1897 would have been less than that paid in 1894.

In view of the demand for and continued importation of small coins, the Minister again recommends that the Legislature authorize him to have coined from the silver 25 cent pieces $20,000 in dimes and $10,000 in nickels.

The old silver certificates to the amount of $262,500 have been called in and new ones issued. As far as is known only $49,500 of the old issue remains to be called for.

THE LOAN FUND.

After recommending that more of the expenditure now classed under the Loan Fund be passed to current account, Minister Damon says the payment of interest is becoming more and more a serious question. As a partial remedy an Act has been prepared and approved by the Executive and will be submitted to the Legislature, with the clear idea that the time may arise when our bonds can be placed in a foreign market, but at present this cannot be recommended. It is to prepare for the future the Act has been drawn. Under this Act all the outstanding indebtedness will be consolidated under one bond issue. These bonds will be offered to bondholders in the Republic first at a rate of discount somewhat in advance of that which might be obtained abroad but the saving of commissions and expenses of placing the loan will compensate the government for the difference. If the bonds are not taken here, it is the Minister's intention to call for public tenders to float the same.

During the period brought to a close the outstanding bonds, treasury notes and Postal Savings Bank amounts due depositors, has increased from $3,811,064.49 to $4,488,881.02, showing an increase of $677,817.13. This represents the total increase, irrespective of the cash on hand at the beginning or the end of the period.

Among the deposits of the Postal Savings Bank are some eight thousand and more accounts of Chinese laborers brought here under the Act regulating Chinese immigration. These deposits are so foreign to the original intention of the Postal Savings Bank Act, and are accumulating so rapidly that the continuance of the system should immigration be resumed is a source of apprehension, and the attention of the Legislature will be specially called to it.

Of the proceeds of land sales by the Commissioners of Public Lands, $34,700 has been applied to the redemption of bonds under the Loan Acts of 1876 and 1882. The sum of $32,130.76 remains on hand until the wishes of the Legislature in regard to refunding are known.

The acquisition of Speaker Reed is very important to the cause of annexation. It means that, in the event of the failure of the treaty, a bill or joint resolution will be put through both houses flying even before such a contingency, however, Mr. Reed's change of base must have a strong influence upon the prospects of the treaty itself.

Spain, the latest news has it, loftily rejects the offer of mediation in Cuban affairs by the United States. It is stated that Premier Sagasta replied to Minister Woodford in "vigorous terms."

It would appear that the question of American naturalization of Japanese is a reality and standing to be settled within the next two years. If it had been trumped up to hurt the annexation scheme, it is strange to see it discussed in a special dispatch to the San Francisco Chronicle—a paper that has been strong for annexation all along.

THE CIRCUIT COURT.

Both Judges are Hearing Jury Cases of the February Term.

Judge Stanley and a mixed jury were engaged today in the trial of an action in ejectment in which C. W. Booth is plaintiff and G. W. Beckley and the Ung Wo Sang Co. are defendants.

In Judge Perry's department the case of F. da Silva Casquilho vs. Kalaniku is on trial. It is an action on a covenant in a warranty deed. Correa for plaintiff; Magoon and Silliman for defendant.

Judge Perry is acting as presiding Judge in chambers this week. At 1:30 p.m. Judge Stanley, the lawyers, stenographer, interpreter and jurymen in the Booth-Beckley suit were taken out in hacks to Moiliili to view the premises in dispute.

In the case of H. N. Mist vs. S. M. W. Kawelo, an action in ejectment, the plaintiff asks leave to file an amended complaint. J. A. Magoon and R. D. Silliman for the plaintiff.

Sheriff Carter of Kauai makes return of service of summons and copy of complaint in the partition suit of Edward Joseph Morgau vs. Wahine Kain.

Deputy Marshal Hitchcock makes a similar return of service of papers in the suit of Manuel Nunes and Domingus Nunes vs. Maria Teixeira, bill to set aside a deed.

In the criminal case of the Republic of Hawaii vs. Kauakahi, commitment for an assault with intent to commit rape, Attorney General Smith has filed a certificate declining to present an indictment against defendant for said crime for the reason that facts coming to light since the hearing of the District Court strongly tend to prove the defendant's innocence.

Argument was had before Judge Stanley yesterday afternoon as to the sufficiency of the plea in bar interposed by defendants in the case of Henry Smith vs. Hamakua Mill Company and took the matter under advisement. L. A. Dickey for plaintiff; Cecil Brown for defendant.

In the matter of the estate of C. Akana, deceased, William F. Wilson files a petition for allowance of accounts and discharge. The account shows total receipts of $8871.30; disbursements $7090.57; balance on hand $1780.73. William A. Henshall is attorney for the administrator.

In the case of Clinton J. Hut chins vs. Wilder's Steamship Company, judgment has been entered for plaintiff of five hundred dollars damages, and $58.50 costs.

Followed Their Advice.

"I broke out with great blotches on my face, and friends told me my blood was out of order and that I ought to take a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I followed their advice and from that time to this I have not had any eruptions on my face. I know Hood's is a good medicine." Mrs. A. E. Radkey, St. Louis, Michigan.

A FAMOUS STORY.

General Francis Marion of South Carolina was one of the heroes of romance of the American Revolution. About no one of the many conspicuous characters who took part in that active drama has more of story and of song been written. Yet he was far from being of a romantic turn himself, for he was one of the plainest and most practical of men.

Our tender is few, but true and tried, Our leader frank and bold. The British soldier trembles When Marion's name is told.

This was literally a fact. Marion was the terror of the whole British army. At one time the very mention of his name put a force of 200 or 300 soldiers to rout. Marion himself had on this occasion not more than a dozen men.

In Summerville, S. C., lives the nearest surviving relative of General Marion, a great-grandfather, Mrs. Frank Fishburne. In her possession are many of the personal articles and other reminders of the famous general. Among them is a large oil painting of Marion in the act of dining the British officer on sweet potatoes, and sweet potatoes alone, under the shade of the mammoth oak. This honary monarch of the Carolina forests is still standing at a spot about nine miles from Summerville and just in the rear of Ingleside, an old colonial home belonging to the Parker family, also distinguished in Revolutionary annals.

After the defeat of the American army and the death of De Kalb, Marion turned upon the enemy with the desperation of a wounded tiger. No one dreamed that he could win. The odds were desperate. How was it possible to bring victory out of such utter demoralization? But it was done, as history shows.

It was during one of Marion's bivouacs in the swamps of the Santee that the incident of the potato dinner occurred. He was awaiting a flag of truce from the British at Georgetown, so as to make arrangements with reference to the exchange of prisoners. The bearer of the flag was a young British officer of note. He came to the conference with the renowned leader, his mind filled with the most vividly colored pictures as to his appearance and surroundings. What, then, was his astonishment on being conducted into the presence of a small, swarthy, thin faced man, not only clad in homespun, but ragged homespun at that. And instead of the magnificent army he had expected to see there was comparatively but a handful of ragged, barefooted, sun tanned men and boys—many of them only 15 and 16 years old.

At the close of the conference the officer arose to depart.

"Oh, no," said Marion hospitably. "Do not leave until you have had dinner. We are about to dine. Will you not share our dinner with us?"

The officer looked around, but saw no preparation for a meal. Where could the dinner be?

"Sit down, sir," said the general again, courteously and made room for him on the same extended bough of the tree where he sat. Then to a negro boy who stood near he said:

"Come, Tom, give us our dinner."

The boy raked from the ashes near by a half dozen sweet potatoes roasted with their jackets on. He pinched them to see if they were done. Then, cleaning them, partly by blowing on them with his breath and partly by wiping them on the sleeve of his shirt, he placed them upon a large piece of bark and set them between the general and his guest.

The young officer stared in astonishment. Could this really be the dinner of the great Marion?

"Come, sir," said the general pleasantly, noting with some amusement the amazed expression upon the face of his guest, "fall to. You do not seem to be hungry."

Recovering his manners, the young officer helped himself to one of the potatoes, but made a very poor attempt at eating.

"I fear such as this doesn't tempt your appetite," said Marion again, "but it is the best we have."

Suddenly, to the general's astonishment, the young officer broke into laughter.

"Why, what amuses you, sir?" "I was thinking, general, how our men would look if they had to sit down to such a dinner as this!"

"It is a first rate dinner, indeed," said the general, hungrily devouring his potato. "But surely, general, you usually have better than this?"

"No," said Marion decidedly, "this is about the best. Generally we have worse."

"But you get good pay?" "Pay, sir? Pay, did you say? Well, sir, that is something we don't get at all."

"No pay, and such a fare as this! Then in heaven's name, sir, for what are you fighting?"

"For what are we fighting?" repeated Marion, his eyes on fire. "Why, sir, for that dearer than life itself—for liberty!"

The conversation between the young officer and Colonel Watson, the British commander at Georgetown, on the return of the former from Marion's camp, has of ten been quoted.

"Why," asked Colonel Watson, "do you look so serious?"

"I have cause, sir."

"What! Has General Marion refused to treat?"

"No, sir."

"Well, has old Washington defeated Clinton and broken up our army?"

"Not that either."

"What, then?"

"Well, sir, it is that I have seen an American general and officers, without pay and almost without clothes, living on roots and drinking water, and all for liberty! What chance have we against such men?"

Yes, what chance did time show them to have? Of such stuff were made the heroes of that struggle which won for us the goodly heritage we enjoy today!

We want to have a talk with you this week on the subject of STOVES.

Owing to the natural dull times, added to the big competition that is now going on in STOVES, we have cut our prices, and are prepared to be in the fight.

The "Pansy" is the first one we will mention. You know this stove. It does not need much mention. It is the best in the market for the price. We have it in three sizes and it burns either wood or coal.

The "New Rocket Stove" is something new here, and we have it in two sizes. It has a deep end ash hearth, which is a strong support for pots, etc. It has also an extension pocket for wood, by which your wood can be thoroughly dried just before using. It will pay you to take a look at this stove.

The "Blue Flame Oil Stoves" we have in stock at all times. They are very handy for getting up a meal quickly. They give out no odor, and are perfectly safe.

FIRE CLAIM ADJUSTED.

The Insurance Companies Were Liable in Any Case.

The insurance companies two days ago adjusted the loss by Saturday morning's fire, to the satisfaction of the Mutual Telephone Company. An erroneous statement in this connection has been published. Whether it was the current of an electric wire or a stroke of lightning which fired the building, does not matter so much as far as the liability of the companies is concerned, for fire ensued and the insurers were liable.

The fire inquest is a police measure under the statute for that purpose. Of course it is of a great deal of interest to the insurers to have the cause of a fire ascertained, therefore on this occasion they were represented at the inquest. The agents of the companies carrying the insurance are H. Lose and J. M. Dowssett, but as these gentlemen are interested in the telephone company they requested Mr. Berg to act for them.

A BAD SKIN.

How to Treat It—Water and Friction the Best Cure.

There is nothing so fatal to a woman's beauty as a skin disease, no matter how admirable her form or how classic the lines of her face and head. Indeed, we might go further and say that with perfect form and features a woman may be a paragon of all the domestic virtues, and despite these gifts and graces she has never been able to command the love we all crave and have an honest right to yearn for if her face is marred by an unsightly skin.

The hideous cases of skin disease which have been the despair of women and girls have in the course of a few months of proper cleansing and friction yielded and given way to beautiful skin complexions, free from every blemish. No simple washing or bathing will do this, although such ablutions be performed six times a day. There is no purification of the skin and no cure for diseases resulting from obstructed pores except soap, water and friction. Enlarged pores and many of the simple skin diseases need no other treatment.

Those who cannot afford to employ a masseuse or to take a course of lessons themselves must remember that the word "masse" is the keynote of the system. The great difficulty is in getting just the right pressure on the face and throat. The kneading should be deep enough to make the blood circulate freely, never sharp or quick enough to hurt. It is of the utmost importance that the face should be quite clean when massage is given, otherwise you knead the dust or face powder into the pores of the skin.

Just Like Gold Coin.

For more than fifty years has PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER stood the test against all remedies prepared to eradicate pain, and today stands at the head of the list among the medicines that are so essential to keep at hand in the home.

It is not a new fangle remedy nor do the proprietors lay claim to any wonderful revelation of the ingredients that enter into the manufacture of this ever popular remedy.

It is perfectly harmless, you need have no fear of becoming habitually inclined to its use.

For Colic, Cramps, Dysentery, Colds, and all painful affections, a few doses will certainly give relief. You cannot afford to be without a bottle in the house.

Your forefathers used it and found it beneficial.

Why experiment with some remedy that is new and its effect on the system unknown?

It has many rivals but no equal.

The new 35c. size contains over double the quantity of the 25c. size.

BRITISH PEOPLE ANXIOUS

Emperor William Helps the Royal Family to Palaces.

Spanish Cabinet Disgusted with Cuban Ministry—Klondikers Leave England—Items from Many Lands.

These foreign items are up to February 7, coming by the steamer Maui yesterday:

A revolution has broken out in Costa Rica.

Arthur Tennyson, brother of Lord Tennyson, is critically ill.

Liberals in Germany are opposed to the retaliatory measures against American fruit.

A party of 300 people bound for the Klondike has sailed with supplies in the steamer Tartar from Southampton.

Italy is getting out of patience with Colombia for payment of the award made by President Cleveland in the Ceruti affair.

It is rumored that the Niger coast protectorate troops, while destroying towns, were overwhelmed and massacred by natives.

The new parliament buildings at Victoria, B. C., were to be opened on Monday. They cost nearly a million dollars and are the finest buildings on the Pacific Coast.

Lord Salisbury is still reticent on affairs in the Far East, and the British public is anxious. Additional assurances have been given that the Government has not backed down.

Germany and Austria oppose Prince George of Greece for governor of Crete. Great Britain is believed to have made a compromise with Russia in giving support to the Prince.

The Spanish Cabinet is reported to be disgusted with the Cuban Ministry under the autonomous plan, for devoting itself solely to its own affairs and ignoring the insurgents in the field.

Professor D'Arcy Thompson's report on the sealing conference conclusions is published in London. It favors pelagic sealing and attributes the deaths among the seals to the parasite uncinaria.

The Prussian Cabinet has approved Emperor William's plan to remove the university, library and scientific institutions from Berlin to Charlottenburg. His object is to use the buildings for residences of members of the royal family. The scheme is bound to arouse popular opposition.

The Duke and Duchess of Fife were to open a new town hall at Hackney. Members of the town ve try kicked against a vote of 200 pounds to entertain the royal couple. Newspaper cuttings reporting the dispute were sent to the Duke and Duchess, whereupon they wrote a letter declining to officiate at the ceremony. When the letter was read at a vestry meeting a great row took place. Some members complained that royalty had been insulted. The chairman resigned and the majority, amid the liveliest scenes, sang "God Save the Queen." The Duke of Fife is a son-in-law of the Prince of Wales.

DEPENDS HIS HOUSE.

EDITOR EVENING BULLETIN:—I wish to state that Harry Evans, the harbor police, did not arrest two deserters from Russian Frank's place yesterday as the morning Advertiser stated. I do not harbor any deserters; nor has any ever been arrested from my place. I would advise the Advertiser to be a little more careful in the future in regard to the location where they claim deserters are kept. I have been in business in Honolulu 15 years, and have always tried to keep as orderly a house as possible.

In the Stomach—Dreadful Head-aches—Face and Neck Covered With Boils—Cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla—Skin is Now Clear.

"I was covered with boils all over my face and neck. I had dreadful headaches and pains in my stomach. I took medicines, but was not much benefited, and I procured six bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla. ### ITEMS FROM HARBOR FRONT

Brigantine W. G. Irwin Towed Into Port from San Francisco.

Ship S. P. Hitchcock Leaking—C. D. Bryant in Trouble—Steamer James Makee from Kapa—Waialeale Arrives.

The Iwalaui is loading sugar at Kukuiahae today.

A big school of sharks were disappearing around the Mauna Ala out in the stream this morning.

Sugar on Kauai: Kilanea 5700 bags, Kapa 6000 bags, Hanamalu 6000 bags, Lihue 2400 bags, Kekaha 6000 bags.

The steamer Keauhou from Honolulu passed the C D Bryant about 15 miles south of Koko Head this morning about 10 o'clock. She was in a dead calm.

The ship S P Hitchcock has sprung a leak on the starboard side just about the fore rigging. She will be taken alongside one of the docks, hove down, recaulked and recoppered.

The brigantine W G Irwin was towed into port about 2 o'clock this afternoon by the steamer Waialeale, 22 days from San Francisco with a general cargo consigned to W G Irwin & Co.

The schooner Transit, barkentine Irmgard and bark Alden Besse were loading for Honolulu at the departure of the Maui. The ship Iroquois was to sail in about a week in ballast to load sugar at this port for New York.

The steamer James Makee, which arrived from Nawiliwili this morning, reports the Kauai at Makaweli discharging freight and the steamer W G Hall at Koloa. Rats squalls along the Kauai coast and across channel.

The U S Flagship Olympia has just returned to Yokohama from Shanghai. It is reported there that the Olympia may be replaced by the Baltimore on the Asiatic Station and the Olympia ordered to San Francisco. The Olympia's three years' service will expire next October, and all in Honolulu remember her passing through here during the cholera epidemic in 1895 enroute to Japan.

A New Wilder Steamer.

The steamer Maui, 9 days and 2 hours from San Francisco, docked at Likelike wharf yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Captain Rodgers reports a rough trip all the way until yesterday, when it grew milder. The Maui is a sister steamer to the Helene and similar in every respect, save a covered deck which the Helene has not. No permanent appointments to the Maui have been made yet, except that of chief engineer, which position will be filled by E V Everett. The Maui will run to Hawaii ports, taking the old Likelike's route.

The C. D. Bryant in Pihikta.

The bark C D Bryant sailed for San Francisco at half-past four o'clock yesterday afternoon with a full load of sugar. The tug Elean being on the marine railway, the steamer Lehua attempted to tow the Bryant out. When nearly at the last buoy in the channel beyond the seawall, a squall from the west proved too strong for the Lehua and the C D Bryant was forced on the sand on the Waikiki side of the channel. With the assistance of a second line attached to the buoy and heaved with the winch, the bark was finally extricated from her perilous position and, no injury having been sustained, she sailed away.

FUR AND FEATHERS.

Ostrich Plumes and Bows—A Green Velvet Hat.

Fur, which was exceedingly fashionable last year, will be equally so this winter. Fur borders and incrustations and applications of fur will be much seen in winter costumes, and natural—so called—heads and animals will also enjoy great favor.

VELVET HAT.

These artificial natural heads are vicious looking enough, with their sharp teeth, open mouths and staring eyes, but they are accepted as the mode and will serve to fasten bodices and wraps.

Feather trimmings are again coming to the fore, both for gowns and millinery. Many of the new winter hats have borders of very fine, small ostrich tips, and this trimming, although not durable for hard service, is usually very becoming, giving a softer look to the features of the wearer than does the ordinary hard, straight edge of the hat or bonnet.

Ostrich plumes are immensely used and are grouped in all sorts of ways and in the utmost profusion for millinery purposes, so saying nothing of the extent to which they enter into evening wraps and neck arrangements.

Feather bows are short, but are growing more elaborate, being often composed of a mixture of down and ostrich plumes or curled coo feathers and dividing into several smaller tails at the ends, forming a sort of tassel. Black, clear gray, drab and white are the favorite colors, brighter tones being seldom seen except for evening wear.

Fur is made into outer garments of various sorts, one new model being of fur and velvet combined, the fur forming a blouse and collar while the basque and sleeves are of velvet. Of course short pile furs only are suitable for this sort of wrap, the long pile varieties being too clumsy and too suggestive of Robinson Crusoe's goatskin attire.

The illustration given today shows a hat of emerald velvet, elaborately draped and puffed. It is lifted on the left side under an immense bow of emerald velvet, consisting of many loops, which pass through a large paste buckle. The wrap worn with this hat has the fashionable tall, flaring collar, edged with black ostrich plume trimming.

Quince Cakes.

From a German school of cookery comes a recipe for "quitten brod," or quince cakes, which sounds very tempting to a lover of this golden lined fruit of autumn. Boil the quinces whole, without peeling them, till quite soft, then peel and core them. Work the pulp through a coarse sieve. Allow a pound of sugar to a pound of fruit, moisten the sugar with a little water and boil it until beads form; then put in the fruit and boil this, with constant stirring, to a stiff, smooth jam. Make little trays of white paper, fill them half an inch thick with the fruit and put them to dry in a cool oven or spread the mass out thin on plates and when somewhat dried set them to get cold. Cut the fruit into any small shapes. These dried on paper are removed by dipping the paper into cold water.

Houses cannot be built without walls and homes cannot be made comfortable without pictures to cover the bare places on the walls. If you have the walls, we have the pictures to cover them. Yours truly, King Bros., 110 Hotel street.
