MR. COOPER'S MISTAKE

The Secretary of the Territory, Mr. H. E. Cooper, who holds the amphibious position of Acting Governor and Secretary of the Territory, is making an egregious ass of himself by attempting to block the work of the Legislature by vetoing items in the Appropriation Bill, and asking the Legislature to remain in session, until it suits this political adventurer, of no standing in this Territory, to consider the merits of the bill.

If this man Cooper had any brains instead of unmitigated gall, he would understand when to quit the policy of obstruction, so far carried on by the Dole outfit. Every veto he chooses to send to the Legislature is an insult to the leader of the Republican party, Senator H. P. Baldwin, and to every member of the conference committee. That committee carefully considered every item in the Appropriation Bill, and the bill, as submitted, was adopted by the Senate as well as by the House.

Does Mr. Cooper really intend to use the privilege of the Governor in thwarting the will of the people as represented by the members of the Legislature? If the law is on his side, and he insists in granting an extension of the session, for the purpose of reconsidering certain portions of the Appropriation Bill, the Legislators will be obliged to summon back to Honolulu, the senators and the representatives who left for their homes on the other islands yesterday? Send for Senators Brown and Kaiue and override the vetoes, which are given for the purpose of insulting the Legislature. The vetoes will not be sustained, because the Republicans feel the Cooper insult more keenly even than do the Home Rulers. Acting Governor Cooper has made a fatal mistake, and he will have to bear the brunt of the trouble now in sight through his lack of diplomacy and political sense. Mr. Cooper has simply been a willing tool of the family compact. If he had studied the character of his allies, he must now know that he is committing political suicide by vetoing appropriations approved of by Mr. Baldwin and the Republican party.

As far as we are concerned, we have no kick coming, even if the session was extended to Christmas, but the business men, the creditors of the government, the claimants and all good citizens are anxious to have stable conditions here and the promises, given at the time of our annexation fulfilled. Gentlemen of the Legislature, do not let the missionaries run away with you, Meziama is coming back.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

The Republican will apparently soon become a "has-been." When the rats leave a sinking ship, the ship is as a rule ready to go under. We understand that Mr. Logan has assumed the editorship, and we extend our best wishes to him for a success. It is proven daily here that it is necessary to know the land in which you live and the people among whom you live before you can write intelligently and to the satisfaction of the patrons of a news paper. Mr. Gill was not only a stranger but he remained a stranger during the months he existed here, and that is probably the cause of the lack of success of the would be rival of the old Advertiser. In that office we are all "on record."

We have the highest respect for the good people who belong to the Salvation Army but after watching the work of the army here for some years we are coming to the conclusion that the local branch is on a field which the good people do not understand at all. There is no "slumming" to be done here and no converts to be made for any length of time. The Salvation Army in London is practical in its methods. There they gain converts and "sav." men by filling their hungry stomachs, getting work for them and teaching them bodily cleanliness. The writer followed the little band of Salvationists last evening, and took down in shorthand every speech made by the professional salvationists, and by the "converts." If we published the words spoken today, every one of the speakers would be dumbfounded at having spoken such arrant nonsense. Words, words, and nothing but words. The Salvation Army should change the constant cry: "Find Jesus," to "Find work." There is plenty of work to be had and the man who is willing to work and finds that by working he finds creature comfort will soon find his Saviour. There ought to be less cant and more practical exhortation in the efforts of the noble army, and then true Christianity will come to the front and the lofty object of the organizer of the Army be accomplished.

Passengers by Ventura.

Among those who arrived by the Ventura to day were Rev. Geo. C. Adams and wife, Fred Bush and family, Geo. P. Cook, H. C. Dillingham, C. A. Hartwell, ex Consul-General W. Haywood, Dr. C. H. Humphreys, C. R. Hyde and family, Mrs. J. Lucas and children, Dr. I. Mori, Geo. H. Paris and family, Miss Alice Ryeroff, and many others well known here. There were altogether 80 cabin passengers for this port.

QUALIFICATION OF APPLICANTS

Must be 18 years of age, a citizen of or have taken out certificate of declaration of becoming a citizen of the United States of America.

CONDITIONS OF RIGHT OF PURCHASE LEASE.

Term:—Twenty-one years.
Rental:—Eight per cent. on the appraised value given in lease payable semi-annually.

The Lessee must from the end of the first to the end of the fifth year continuously maintain his home on the leased premises.

The Lessee must have in cultivation at the end of three years five per cent. and at the end of five years ten per cent. of his holding, and maintain on agricultural land an average of ten trees to the acre.

Pastoral land must be fenced.
Interest in Right of Purchase Lease is not assignable without written consent of the Commissioner of Public Lands, but the lease may be surrendered to the Government.

In case of forfeiture or surrender of Right of Purchase Lease, reappraisal is made of the land and of permanent improvements thereon and if the land is again disposed of, the incoming tenant shall pay for such permanent improvements and the amount when so received by the Government shall be paid to the surrendering lessee.

CONDITION UNDER WHICH PURCHASE MAY BE MADE

At any time after third year of leasehold term, the Lessee is entitled to a Land Patent giving fee simple title, upon his payment of the appraised value set forth in lease, if he has reduced to cultivation twenty-five per cent. of his leased premises, and has substantially performed all other conditions of his lease.

For plan and further particulars apply at the Public Lands Office, Honolulu, or at the Office of J. Kaelemakule, Kailua, North Kona, Hawaii.

THE REFORMER AND THE MAJOR.

A Modern Fable by George Ade—Dedicated to Woolley

Once there was a Town that was having a Total Abstinence Jamboree. The Excitement over Temperance was becoming Intemperate, all on account of a Reclaimed Sot who was conducting a series of Meetings at Central Hall. The Lecturer claimed to have been Ossified for fifteen Years at a Stretch. He had a sudden Past that read like a Session of the Legislature. He had been down in the Gutter, and he told about it every Evening. The Front Rows were filled with horror-stricken Old Ladies and sympathetic young Girls who shuddered when he told how he used to hoist Strong Drink until he would see green Anacondi and polka-dot Lizards peaking out from behind the Morris Chair.

The former Soak took particular Delight in telling what a Brute he had been all during the Time that he was doing Business with the Rum Fiend. According to his own Story he must have enjoyed a Thirst that was a Pippin. He touched up the Black Bottle every five Minutes or so. In the whole fifteen years of continuous Toot he never had been known to Compromise on a Suit or take a Cigar and put it in his Pocket to smoke After a While. Nothing but the Red Eye would do for Oscar when he started on a Bender. He said that he sold a Locket containing his Mother's Picture in order to get his Morning's Morning. Once he broke open the Savings Bank belonging to his little Brother and took out 63 Cents to blow for Alcohol. When his darling Sister remonstrated with him, he chased her with a Poker. He forged his Father's Name to a Check rather than do without his Liquor. In fact he had been an all-round Pup and he wanted everybody to know it.

After each meeting the Ladies would cluster around and offer congratulations. The ordinary man who had never been through the Tremens or assaulted his Folks had to retire to the Background, feeling small and unworthy. Any one whose Lushing had been limited to a few Schwaben Schutzefests and Annual Banquets dropped back into Amateur Class and had nothing to say. The men who attended the Meeting and observed the Popularity of the recent Drunkard began to realize that they had made a serious Mistake in sticking to Sarsaparilla.

The reclaimed Tank was invited somewhere to Tea every Evening, and there the women would hang upon his Words and beg him to tell once more the sweet and simple Story of how he swatted his Sister with the Poker.

The Meetings were a Grand Success. All the people who did not Drink came to the Front and signed the Pledge two or three times a Week. Every Man who was suspected of keeping Beer in his Cellar or taking a Flask with him when he went Fishing was entreated to get on the Water Wagon or it might be a matter of only a few Months until his Children would be crying for Bread and his Wife would have to Sew for a Living and he would be Dead to the World, lying Face down on the Cement Sidewalk.

In this Town there was an Attorney known as The Major. He was regarded with Suspicion, as he was supposed to be High Church, although he never attended Services. His nose had an iridescent Glimmer and he was a little Watery in the Eyes. The Major had been brought up south of the Ohio River in a Household which held that the Side-Board and the Cradle were equally indispensable. He had been taught that when the copper distilled Essence of Joy is more than 12 Years old, Intemperance may be considered a Vitium. He held that a Scholar and a Gentleman never took Water afterwards. It was an Article of Faith with him that the genuine Kentucky Article did not have a Cross word in a Barrel of it, but, on the contrary was a valuable Medicinal Agent, having Curative Properties which could not be justly claimed for Root Beer, Moxie or Hot Chocolate.

So when the Rescue Corps went after the Major, it had a large Contract on hand. The Ladies tried to wrestle him to Earth and pin a Blue Ribbon on him, but he bade them stand back and declared for Personal Liberty. His idea of Personal Liberty was to drink it or leave it alone although he never tried the latter.

The Ladies told him that he would be a hopeless Inebriate in less than a year unless he shunned the Wine-Cup. He replied that the Wine-Cup never could land him, because he went against nothing but the Low Ball, which means a full Jigger and then about another Finger for Luck.

The Landlady of the Boarding House at which the Major lived was one of the Earnest Workers. She was a Good Soul, and she longed to wean the Major away from the Old Stuff and get his Nose bleached. She advised him to take the Gold Cure, but the Major said they never would get a Drink Cure into him unless they hurried it into him while he was Asleep. The Landlady gave him "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" to read, and had a little Girl sing "Father, Dear Father, come home with me now" for his especial Benefit, but it did not seem to do any good. Also she gave him a Chart showing that the Interior of the Moderate Drinker's Stomach resembles a colored Map of Asia Minor. When he came down to Dinner he found at his Plate a Card representing a Snake with a forked Stinger coiled around a Bottle of Rhine Wine, and below it was Printed Matter to the effect that the Intoxicants used in America cost more than the Public Schools.

The Major retorted that this was a clear case of Value Received. The Public Schools had fined his youth with Sorrow, while the distilleries had helped him to forget his Troubles for 30 Years.

After each of these Efforts to save him the Major went to his Room and took a Gentleman's Drink out of a Tumbler just to prove that he retained his Personal Liberty.

There did not seem to be much Chance of pulling in the Major, but the Landlady and her Friends kept after him. At last, just to humor them, he promised to attend one of the Meetings. He slipped into a Back Seat and listened to the Horrible Example. Next Day he requested an Interview with the Lecturer. At this there was much rejoicing. It seemed as though the legal Dipomania was beginning to weaken.

When the renowned Temperance Advocate entered the Major's Room, the Major received him with formal Courtesy.

"I understand that you were the Champion Boxer Fighter at one time," said the Major, pouring a goodly Slug from his private Decanter. "Now I want you to smell of that and tell me whether it is Rye or Bourbon."

The Lecturer began to edge off. "What kind of Bitters are used in Manhattan?" demanded the Major severely.

"I don't know what you mean," said his caller.

"And yet you boast of a Record! What did you drink during all the 15 Years that you were on the Turf?"

"Rum," was the weak Reply.

"Go to!" said the Major, indignantly. "Do you think you can deceive an Expert? Rum is not a Beverage. It is a Remedy for a Bad Cold. No one drinks Rum except in the Nautical Novel or a story by the Rev. Sheldon. Perhaps you can tell me what Sour Mash is?"

"I am afraid not," said the other.

"Then I denounce you as a make-believe Rounder," said the Major. "When I heard you misuse the Terms in your Lecture last Evening, I saw that you did not know the difference between a Remsen Cooler and a Shandy Gaff. And all that Talk about throwing your Sister against the red-hot Stove and trying to choke your old Father did not go with me. Don't you know that when a True Gentleman is Corned he goes Home and gives Money to his Relative?"

"I have always understood that Liquor makes a Brute of a Man," said the Lecturer.

"Not at all. It is a Shortage of Liquor the Morning After that causes one to be Disagreeable. You should have studied up on these Details before you started out to be a Reformed Drunkard. I don't believe you have had any Experience whatever."

"I tried to take a Drink many Years ago, but I made me ill," said the Lecturer. "I discovered, however, that in order to be a Power for Good in Temperance Work I had to tell about being on prolonged Bats around the 5 cent doggeries. The Slums have an abiding Fascination for well-behaved People who never go near them and, of course, there is no Risk in Singing them. But when I strike a Saloon Special list, such as you, my Talk doesn't go. I trust you will not Expose me."

"Certainly not," replied the Major. "We are justified in doing anything to push along a Good Cause. But I am going to ask you to make a quick Jump to the next Town. You have demoralized my Boarding House. The Landlady has been so Busy trying to get a Hammer Lock on the Demon of Strong Drink that we don't get anything to eat."

"I thank you for keeping my Secret," said the Lecturer. "If you were to Squel on me and let it to be known that I have led an Exemplary Life all these years, I would not stand one-two-seven with the Respectable Element."

Next Day the Town settled back to its usual Calm.

MORAL: Any one who is going into Reform Work should get a thorough Technical Education.
