

FROM THE CIVIL SERVICE

EXAMINATIONS BEGIN TODAY AT HIGH SCHOOL.

Over Sixty Put in an Appearance—But More Letter Carriers are Wanted. Can Apply Tomorrow.

The first civil service examination ever held in Hawaii began this morning at the High School building.

The examination is being held in the main room on the main floor of the high school building.

To a casual visitor to the High School building, it would look very much as though a school were in progress.

A number are taking the examination not with any present expectation of entering the civil service.

Among the various branches of the service for which examinations are being taken are for the civil service under the commission in the Philippines.

There is need of ten letter carriers to begin the free delivery system in Honolulu, August 1.

Applicants for examination as stenographers and typewriters will also be received at 8:30 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The organization of the examination proceeded rather slowly at first.

The law requires that the packages of blanks and papers used in the examination, so that the work of sorting out those needed had to be done after the hour set for beginning work.

Chief Examiner Serven has been very careful in his instructions to the applicants.

The examinations for today ended at 1:30.

JUDGE GEAR DECIDES THE IWILEI DEMURRER.

Overrules the Defendants' Demurrer And Gives Them Five Days in Which to Answer the Issue.

Judge Gear this morning made an order continuing the iwilei injunction, overruling the demurrer and giving the defendants five days within which to make answer to the complaint.

The decision was a lengthy one, going into all of the many legal points brought forward by L. A. Andrews, for the defense.

The main contention discussed by the court was that the proceedings in equity were not allowable when demurrers were made.

The court read the section of the penal code relating to the keeping of common nuisances and the keeping of bawdy houses.

Gear held that it was allowable under many decisions, which he quoted, to apply equity laws to such cases as that of iwilei.

He also decided that the penal laws here on the subject of nuisances are applicable only to such nuisances as come within the list of those a board of health might abate by removal.

Many American decisions were quoted to show that the fact that criminal proceedings were possible or had been taken, did not prevent equity proceedings.

All the other technical points, except one relating to an error in one place, in typewriting the title of the action, were decided against the defense.

The court allowed the plaintiffs to make a correction of the error mentioned.

Before Attorney Fitch for the plaintiffs filed a withdrawal of the claim for $5,000 damages.

Andrews asked the court to make an order allowing him to take an appeal on the issue of the injunction and demurrer, without trying the whole case.

The plaintiffs wanted to go ahead and hear the whole matter, and five days was allowed for filing of a general answer.

The case may take a long time if it is tried. Sixty of the inmates of iwilei were named in Axbill's affidavit, which is the basis of the injunction.

Andrews intimated that there may be much testimony about them.

THE MONEY WILL BE USED

NO SCRIP FOR GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES.

The Sum of $235,000 Deposited by Chinese Immigrants Soon to be Transferred to the Public Treasury.

The $235,000 that was deposited by Chinese immigrants as guarantees that they would comply with the conditions of their admittance to this country, under the laws of the Republic of Hawaii, will be applied, in accordance with the opinion of Attorney-General Cooper.

The cash is not immediately available for the government under the terms of the agreement by which it was placed in the local bank, but it will be transferred to the treasury in due time.

Treasurer Wright stated this morning that he had not the money yet and he did not want to state what the plans were for use of the money when it comes.

The matter is now in the hands of Acting Governor Cooper.

The news that the sum of $235,000 is available for the government will be glad tidings to many people who are anxiously wondering when they will be able to cash warrants.

It is probable that the use of this sum will enable the treasurer to handle all salary warrants up to the time when taxes come in, in November.

This would dispose of the necessity of paying government employes in "scrip," or warrants that would have to be discounted.

It is likely that a large part of the $235,000 will become a permanent gift to the public treasury.

The deposits are being called for very slowly, as not many Chinese are returning to China just now.

DEPORTATION OF CHINESE

JUDGE ESTEE TAKES UP THE QUESTION.

Still Another Class of Cases Brought Forward as a Result of Changes in Laws.

Ah See and her relatives, and three other Chinese with their relatives were before United States Judge Estee this morning, ready to prove their right to remain on American soil because they had been born here or had permits to return.

Ah See's case was taken up first, but the lack of an interpreter compelled an adjournment until the afternoon.

Ah See was born in Honolulu eleven years ago, according to testimony that will be offered.

She is a small girl, and appeared to be much frightened when, in taking up her case, Judge Estee ordered all the other Chinese to leave the court room until they were called as witnesses.

A new lot of Chinese exclusion and deportation cases has just arisen, besides those of the 250 who have Stackable's certificates allowing them to return, and those who allege that they were born here, and it seems likely that Estee will have a lot of Chinese business, as a result of the orders to deport all Chinese who have not certificates.

The new cases are those of Chinese given permission to go home by the Republic of Hawaii.

As successor to the republic Uncle Sam is declared to have succeeded to the republic's obligations, and there are a number of Chinese, how many is not known, who will demand that they be allowed to land on the strength of permissions granted by the old government.

In the four cases now before Estee two points will probably be tested. Little Ah See asks admission as a native born under age, while others rely on the certificates they got from the collector of customs.

Deputy Marshal Hendry this morning took the stand to testify as to proceedings with the defendants at the quarantine station, where they were held in custody.

With them through an interpreter, the latter was sent for, a bench summons being issued returnable at 2 this afternoon.

Many Honolulu Chinese are ready to testify in the case. One ruling of Estee's, that he never believes a Chinese witness, is remembered with consternation by the applicants for admission.

TAKES BACK THE CHARGE

THE ACCUSATIONS MADE TOO HASTILY.

Petitioner Da Pallos Suddenly Takes Back His Statements That Silva Estate Was Robbed.

The fraud charges made in connection with the estates of the late Jose A. da Silva were suddenly withdrawn this morning. It was alleged in a petition filed by Tom Fitch as attorney for Antonio d'Aguiar da Pallos, that administrator J. M. Osorio, who was put in charge of the estate on recommendation of Portuguese Consul General, had committed various fraudulent acts to defraud the estate.

Silva was the old Portuguese whose sudden death, supposed to have been due to poison, was followed by the deaths of four men who drank some supposed wine from a bottle which they found in his room.

This morning Attorney Fitch filed the following:

"Petitioner herein by leave of the Court first had and obtained amended his petition on file herein as follows: By striking from the same on page 4 thereof the 2nd paragraph commencing with the words 'And your petitioner further shows that said J. A. M. Osorio contriving to cheat, etc.,' and ending with the words 'were sold by said Osorio for more than $500;' and also by striking from the said petition on page 4 thereof the following concluding words of the 3rd paragraph 'and kept the proceeds thereof for his own use.'"

And now J. M. Osorio is on the war path because he was charged with all sorts of fraud, and a damage suit is talked against Antonio d'Aguiar da Pallos. Osorio says that Da Pallos was a bit too ready with his charges, and now withdraws them because he found after making them that there was no truth in the statements on which they were based.

The application of E. A. Dowthitt, formerly of San Francisco, to be admitted to practice law in the courts of the island, was filed this morning.

LAWYER'S LAST TRIBUTE

SUPREME JUSTICES AND ESTEE SIT TOGETHER.

More Honors to the Memory of the Late Paul Neumann—Resolutions Spread on the Minutes.

The Bar Association this morning in the Supreme Court added its part to the universal chorus of tributes to the late Paul Neumann and regrets at his death. United States Judge Estee occupied the bench with Chief Justice Frear and Justices Perry and Galbraith when the members of the bar association gathered to consider resolutions in honor of the deceased.

Ex-Judge Whiting, one of the committee appointed to frame resolutions, presented the following, giving a short personal address of tribute to the late lawyer:

"Whereas, the Honorable Paul Neumann, the first president of this Association, has been removed from our midst by death;

"Resolved, that deeply deploring our loss, we, as an Association do place on record, in affectionate remembrance of our departed friend, the expression of our appreciation of his genial nature and kindly sympathy for all with whom he came in contact, which made him beloved by all men.

"LAWYER, SCHOLAR, FRIEND. "Resolved That we extend our heartfelt sympathy to the widow and family of Mr. Neumann in their affliction;

"Resolved, That these resolutions be spread on the minutes of the Supreme Court."

Whiting moved the adoption of the resolutions, and that they be spread on the minutes of the court. F. M. Hatch first rose to second the motion.

He was followed by W. O. Smith, attorney general, Dole and General A. S. Hartwell, all of whom spoke feelingly of the loss sustained in the death of Paul Neumann.

Chief Justice Frear made a few remarks in ordering that the motions to spread the resolutions on the minutes of the court be granted.

"It is hardly necessary for me to add to the sentiments expressed, which are common to all," said the chief justice. The late Paul Neumann occupied high positions, he was an old member of the bar, was prominent in the life of the community and was learned and brilliant, but it was not in these things that he attracted attention most, and not for these characteristics that he will live in our memories.

He will be remembered chiefly for what he was as a man and a friend, for the large place he filled in the hearts of those who knew him—a place such as is in the power of few to make and keep.

The courtroom was well filled with attorneys, those present including General Hartwell, ex-judge W. L. Stanley, J. M. Vivas, W. A. Whiting, Attorney-General Dole, F. M. Hatch, J. T. De Bolt, Judge Davidson, J. M. Long, Arthur Wilder, E. B. McClanahan, J. L. Kaulukou, E. R. Dowthitt, A. G. M. Robertson, George A. F. Davis, W. O. Smith, T. McCants Stewart, F. E. Thompson, F. CELEBRATED THE FOURTH

GOT INTO COURT FOR FIRING FIRE CRACKERS.

Five Defendants Who Shot off Fire Crackers in Fort Street Reprimanded By Judge Wilcox.

Evidently those who celebrated the Fourth were so few and far between that when the police saw any they wanted to take them into custody to determine what character of individuals the celebrators were.

Five defendants were before Judge Wilcox this morning to answer to charges of having violated section 229 by shooting off fireworks in a public street.

All of the celebrating had been done in Fort street and each of the defendants said that he had been in ignorance of the law.

T. J. Fitzpatrick admitted that he had been firing off his third bunch of fire crackers when the officer took him into custody.

The court said that the defendant ought to know that the discharging of fire crackers was dangerous and might cause runaways.

Inasmuch as the defendant had been in ignorance of the law however the court would merely reprimand him.

Henry Karel was let off with a reprimand. He claimed that he had been given permission to shoot the fire crackers but the court informed him that the governor and the two district magistrates were the only persons in Honolulu who could give such permission.

He was told to go and sin no more for at least a year.

John Yates had been shooting off fire crackers by the Orpheum. "It seems to me," remarked the court "that there is a lot of people hanging around by the Orpheum. It is getting to be a lawless sort of place. I will have to make an example of some of those offenders. You can go this time though."

W. S. Hughes was another fire cracker firer. The court said that perhaps some people might think it a terrible thing that the Fourth could not be celebrated but the statute was there and it had to be obeyed.

"We gave the Americans a chance to show us how to celebrate a 4th of July yesterday and the result was that we had a very quiet day of it."

The court permitted Hughes to depart without paying a fine and A. Anderson, another offender was also given lenient treatment.

MR. HARTLEY'S MISSION

WILL BEGIN AGGRESSIVE WAR FOR TEMPERANCE.

His League Relies on Existing Laws and Will Formulate Other Laws—The Saloon Must Go.

Rev. L. M. Hartley, the new head of the Temperance League, has taken the house at 1155 Lunallilo street which will be his headquarters for the present.

It is his intention of himself and the League to secure headquarters down town later, from which the important work to be attempted will be carried on.

"The work of our League," says Mr. Hartley, "is distinct from that of the Sons of Temperance, Good Templars and Murphy League. The first two mentioned are largely social, the aim being to reach the young people and to throw around them temperance influences.

The Murphy League is a rescue movement and does an important and invaluable work. Our work is to compel as far as lies in our power the enforcement of temperance laws and to secure the enactment of such temperance laws as are deemed requisite. We are an aggressive body, stopping at nothing when our principles are at stake. We are not fighting the saloon man. Our plan of battle against the saloon is different in different places, according to localities and conditions.

Everywhere, however, we rely on the law. If the laws are not what they should be we begin a campaign to make them so. We had to do that in California.

"I am unable yet to say what our work here will be, except in the general way I have outlined, and conditions different and laws different here. Of course I have only been here a week and have not had time to look thoroughly into the matter. I may say, however, that we will spare no effort in the enforcement of existing laws and in securing such other laws as may be deemed necessary."

Mr. Hartley stated that Dr. Chapman, who was recently here, is one of the leaders of his movement. He is one of the organizers, while Hartley himself is an executive manager or "fighter" in the cause of temperance.

According to Mr. Hartley the league he represents is the most aggressive of temperance organizations, attacking the saloon at its most vulnerable points.

TAKE FOUR MONTHS

In executive session the fire claims commission has passed a resolution providing that it will not finally decide claims until four months after the filing of same have elapsed.

This ruling is supposed to be for the purpose of allowing time for compromises in case such should be desired. The following is the resolution covering the point:

"Be it resolved, That it is the sense of this Commission that no awards be entered on the record of judgments until after the expiration of the four months within which claims shall be filed."

EMILY REED DISMASTED.
The ship Emily Reed completed her second attempt to reach Honolulu yesterday. The first time, the vessel started in January from Sydney but when only a few days out she encountered a terrific storm which partially dismasted her. She was forced to put back into Sydney for repairs and after these were made she proceeded to Newcastle and loaded for this port.

ASSAULTED AT SEA.
Three more ship's officers have been charged in Judge Estee's court with assault and battery on the high sea. They are captain Albert Wallace, first mate John Douglas and second mate Charles Albert, of the bark Sea King. Henry Deer, able seaman, accuses them of assaulting him on May 13, when the vessel was on her way here from Newcastle. United States Commissioner Russell will take evidence in the case.

CLARK-HANNA.
The wedding of Gus N. Hanna and Miss Alice Clark took place at St. Andrew's Cathedral Monday evening, Rev. V. H. Kikat officiating.
The bride is the second daughter of Mrs. Caroline Clark at one time matron of the Kapiolani Maternity Home. Her father was the late Rev. Abel Clark who up to his death in 1888 conducted the Waialua mission of the Anglican church of Hawaii, on the north side of this island. After the ceremony at the church, a few friends called to congratulate the newly married couple at the home of the bride's mother on Fort Lane, where an informal reception was held. Paalua Hatfield's glee club, mostly Lohian school graduates furnished appropriate music while refreshments were passed around.

PUMICE ON DISPLAY.
Prof. Lyons has sent to Wall, Nichols Company the specimens of pumice stones sent down to him from Kealakekani bay, and the concern has placed the pieces on exhibition in their windows. A letter from Hawaii informed Professor Lyons that the water for miles around Kealakekua was strewn with the lava. The pumice resembles burned coal but is very light.

A HOME FOR WOMEN.
The fine, old Hopper residence at the corner of King and Funchbowl streets is to become a rescue home for women. The project is being undertaken by the Salvation Army and the officers to have charge of it are already here. When received into the home women will be given light work and will have influences thrown around them that will be calculated to exert the proper moral effect.

WILL BE A MINER.
Captain Fox, of the mounted patrol, will not always run away from each school in the Philippines. He will go there with the full intent of engaging in gold mining. Should he fail to find good prospects he will go to Corea where he will present a letter of introduction to one of the principal mine owners.

AHRENS WAIVED EXAMINATION.
A. Ahrens charged with having caused the death of a Japanese in a bicycle collision Monday night was arraigned before Judge Wilcox Wednesday on the charge of manslaughter in the second degree. Ahrens was represented by S. P. Chillingworth. The defendant waived examination and was committed to the circuit court for trial, bail being fixed in the sum of $1,000.

CALLED ON PHILADELPHIA.

Fainting Spells

Always indicate a weak heart. They usually follow palpitation or fluttering, shortness of breath, irregular or intermittent pulse. When the heart muscles are overworked or exhausted they relax, the flow of blood to the brain is interrupted, and unconsciousness follows. Should relaxation continue completely for two or three minutes, sudden death is the result. The surest and best remedy for overworked and debilitated hearts is

DR. MILES' Heart Cure.

"My heart trouble began several years ago with palpitation, shortness of breath and smothering. Then I began to have fainting spells and would fall over on the street or wherever I happened to be. I was unable to attend to my business and dare not venture away from home. The doctors failed to help me, and seeing an advertisement of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure I bought a bottle. The first few doses stopped the fainting spells and in a few weeks my heart was working all right." ESEK COWN, Middleburg, N. Y.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold at all druggists on a positive guarantee. Write for free advice to Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

WILLIS AND THEOSOPHY

ANGELICAN BISHOP WRITES A PASTORAL. Tells His Flock That Theosophy is Black Atheism, Tricked Out With Buddhist Trimmings.

Bishop Willis of the Anglican Church has just issued a pastoral letter devoted almost entirely to combatting "Theosophy." The following are the principal portions of the letter: "At the outset they suppose that Theosophy, as the name implies, will lead them to a knowledge of God, and consequent illumination, which has been the aim of some theosophical systems; but instead of this, Theosophy as promulgated today, is not only fundamentally opposed to Christianity, but is a system of blank atheism, closely allied to Buddhism, and derived from it.

"It is impossible for anyone to retain the hope and faith of a Christian, and at the same time believe that the soul, after it has left the body at death, will be reborn to live another life on earth. The attempt to reconcile this doctrine of rebirth (or reincarnation, as it is called by an unphilosophical use of language), with the teachings of Holy Scripture completely fails. It is argued that John the Baptist was a reappearance on earth of Elias. But John himself denied that he was Elias (John 1: 21). For though he was a second Elias according to prophecy, he was not, and could not be, the same personality as the first. For Elias, according to Scripture, was carried up into Heaven without undergoing any dissolution of soul and body. To hold, then, that his soul was clothed with a new body in the womb of Elizabeth is to make Holy Scripture contradict itself.

"Not only has the doctrine of metempsychosis (now called re-incarnation) no support whatever from the Word of God, but it abandons all belief in the resurrection of the body, which is a fundamental article of our own faith. Were it true that each soul is invested with a succession of bodies before its final goal is reached, Holy Scriptures would not teach so clearly the close relationship subsisting between soul and body, whereby the reasonable soul and flesh are one man. Death, which dissolves the union of soul and body for a time, does not annul the relationship between them. 'Within the world once created, no single atom is ever annihilated. The elementary materials whereof the now corrupted body was composed are therefore still in existence; and the Omnipotent knows where they are and the Omnipotent can collect them together again.' And so, according to St. Paul's illustration in the Fifteenth chapter of the First Epistle to the Corinthians, as from the buried grain of wheat there springs up the golden corn, so from the body which is in corruption, shall be raised the incorruptible vesture of the immortal soul.

"Abandoning all hope of the resurrection of the body, the Theosophy of today abandons also the hope of mankind planted in the human heart at the beginning of human history, a hope which founded in the love of God, became sure and certain after the birth and death, the resurrection and ascension of Jesus Christ were accomplished facts. That hope is summed up in those words: 'God so loved the world that He gave his only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life.' Theosophy robs you of this hope; it closes the door to all aspirations after those joys of which it is written: 'Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man the things which God hath prepared for them that love Him.' "And what does it offer you instead? An endless renewal of temporal existence in the world, for which it has no evidence to offer, until at length you reach 'nirvana,' which is practically a condition of non-existence, whatever high-flown language may be used about it.

"What a 'spoiling,' what a leading into captivity it is for one who has once stood in the clear light and knowledge of God revealed in Christ to be drawn away by the vain deceit of a religion which has been described as a philosophy of despair! "It would take too long to give you the history of Buddhism, which is the source from which the teachings of Theosophy are derived. "But as you will be told that Buddhism is an older religion than Christianity, and, therefore, has stronger claims on the allegiance of mankind, a few words on this point should be said. As there is but one living and true God, so there is but one true religion. The Bible contains the history of this religion, which has its starting point in the covenant relation established between God and man by the promise of a Redeemer at the time of the Fall. Christianity, so far from being a new religion founded by Jesus Christ, is the open flower of the true religion, the progress of which towards this full expansion may be traced in the pages of the Bible through the history of four thousand years. Study the Sermon on the Mount and you will find that our Savior's teaching was an unfolding and revealing of the spirit which still then had been shut up in the letter. "There is then no cause for surprise that the instructions of Gautama five hundred years before Christ contain many excellent moral precepts inculcated by Christianity. For the moral obligations by which man is bound were written in the beginning of the human conscience, and so are the property of the whole human race. Moreover, these same obligations, delivered in Ten Commandments, had been proclaimed from Mount Sinai, and written by the finger of God upon two tablets of stone, nearly a thousand years before the time of Gautama. So, in the appeal to its antiquity, the sanction to which Christianity appeals are far more ancient than those of Buddhism, from which it follows, that there is nothing surprising to find some of the precepts of this moral law in the code of Buddhism. For whatever truth it contains Buddhism is indebted to the one true religion, Christianity owes nothing to Buddhism.

STRAY FIRE WORKS. While the Fourth did not end last night in a "blaze of glory" there was considerable display of fire works in town on the part of private individuals. About 8 o'clock the atmosphere was full of rockets and the like, making a very pretty scene. The usual display on the government grounds was missed, however.

FRIDAY, JULY 5, 1901.

THE HOLIDAY.

Yesterday's celebration of the Fourth though a quiet one, as compared with some of our celebrations of the past, gave enjoyment to the whole mass of people in the city, and though, after the boat races, there could be said to be no general demonstration, yet there were so many semi-public affairs going on, and there were so many private parties in progress that the day was filled with quiet merriment and joy.

There was no doubt of the Americanism of the city. People always say when coming from the mainland that there are more Stars and Stripes to the square yard here, than there are in any part of the Union. Not only was "old glory" flying from every flag pole and stick in the city, but the shop fronts were gaily decorated in the national colors, and one came upon displays even in remote streets. The very engines of the trains on the Oahu Railroad were gay with bunting. Not only those taking the holiday crowd to the Peninsula, but those taking the regular trains to Waiānae and Kāhuku, bore the holiday message to the remotest districts of the island, and told the Chinese laboring at his rice patch, or the Hawaiian fisherman watching the sea off Waiānae, the message that it was the Fourth, the great Fourth, the Fourth of July, the natal day of the great Republic, the day in which now we, ourselves, have a distinct part and interest.

There should be one comment upon the day. That is the behavior of the crowds. There is probably no better behaved mass of people than is to be found in Honolulu. Among all the mass of people that went down to Pearl City to view the races, and the number must have been close on two thousand, though there was great excitement, and much enthusiasm, there was not the slightest rowdiness. There could not have been a more orderly and yet a brighter gathering. The rival clubs and their supporters returned together most amicably, and the principles of true sport were thoroughly understood and acted up to.

In the city there were a few choice spirits who tried to drown the ardor of their patriotism in the choice brands of Kentucky or in Hawaiian beer, but the cases were really few and far between. It was a successful celebration and a sensible celebration, and it proved what a sensible and orderly set of folks inhabit this central spot of the Pacific.

STATUS OF CHINESE.

The question of admission of Chinese into the United States upon the ground that they are students, because they intend to study English has been definitely settled. As it might crop up here it is interesting to read the opinion which has been recently published by T. V. Powderly, Commissioner-General of Immigration. The case was that of Yong Sai, who made his claim, ex-steamer Coptic, in San Francisco and was denied. After preliminary statement of the case, the decision says:

"The sole evidence upon which an applicant's right to admission is based, to wit, the certificate, states in the present instance that the purpose of the applicant in coming to this country is to study the English language. In the said certificate there does not appear to be any intention upon his part to pursue any other or higher course of study. That such a purpose as alleged in the certificate does not bring the applicant within the exceptions provided for in the said treaty and laws is declared by the Solicitor, in an opinion of date June 15, 1900, in which he states that the word student—

"Means, in my opinion, a person who comes to this country not merely to study English, which may as well be studied under English instructors in the English city of Hongkong as here, but one who intends to pursue some of the higher branches of study, or one who seeks to be fitted for some particular profession or occupation for which facilities of study are not afforded in his own country."

"Taking this decision as a guide in the present instance, the claim made in the certificate of the appellant, if admitted to be true, does not entitle him to admission to this country as a student. It is clear, if a contrary view of this case were taken, that any Chinese person who presented a certificate to the effect that he is a student in his own country and intended to study English in the schools here, would be entitled to admission—a conclusion so obviously at variance with the purpose and intent of the treaty and laws herebefore referred to as to make its acceptance absurd.

"In view of the foregoing, the appeal is dismissed."

But though we do not intend that Chinese should come to us to study English, we are making preparations to study Chinese for ourselves. An anonymous donor has presented $100,000 for the establishment of a chair of Chinese at Columbia University. The object of the gift is both practical and literary, and probably in the view of the donor the practical use of the instruction is stronger than the literary, though in his letter to the authorities of the University, he put the practical side last.

This gentleman pointed out, in a communication transmitted with his check, as reasons for the establishment of such a chair, that the Chinese have a literary language and a speech probably older than any other now spoken, an inherited civilization as old at least as those that grew up about the Mediterranean, and a complete system of ancient and customary law ante-dating the common law of England. Furthermore, he added, we are now brought into familiar intercourse with them, facing each other and separated only by quick ferry across a Pacific sea, hereafter to become in a large measure a Chinese-American sea, and with industrial and commercial relations already of no mean proportions, and which must steadily grow to billions annually. The suggestion of the donor is not a novel one, but it is true that conditions are now existent which may be said to render it more practical than it could be said to have appeared at any earlier time. Events of late have dragged China from her age-old seclusion and have placed the United States in such relations with her that a knowledge of her language and of the characteristics of her teeming population may well turn out to be of high commercial and industrial importance—not to speak of the value of such knowledge from other points of view.

The men who study Chinese under the professor at Columbia, will want to study Chinese in China, and nothing else and then will come a question which the Chinese will very pertinently ask, why can't our people study English in America and nothing else? The future relations with China are going to be fraught with much controversy.

THAT DECISION.

Opinions upon the Supreme Court decision seem to be as varied as were the arguments of the Judges. One set of thinkers believe that the administration has made a great success, another set of thinkers are of a totally different opinion. It is a matter which will probably be argued over for a long time to come. The New York Times (Independent), says:

"This is certainly an interesting and significant fact in the operation of the institutions of a perfectly free people. Here's a polity of some 60,000,000 of blended stock from many varied sources. The chief element, the English-speaking, springs from a race sturdy, independent, inclined to be rebellious. With it are mingled refugees and emigrants from a dozen European lands, all drawn from the more adventurous and least submissive of their respective peoples. A decision of vital consequence is rendered by the vote of one man in nine in the Supreme Court—a man whose name, whichever it is, was probably unknown to nine-tenths of his countrymen when they read it in the press on the morning the decision was announced. And the decision passes not without criticism, certainly, but with authority as unquestioned as the decree of the most autocratic ruler of the Old World. It is a remarkable and a most encouraging spectacle.

"If we seek the explanation we find it chiefly in the very freedom of the people. The authority they recognize and bow to is their own. The court is a part of the system they have created for the administration of their national affairs. Its decisions are accepted because those who differ from them know that in the long run they embody the deliberate purpose of the nation. They are not imposed from above or from outside. Ultimately they are bound to conform to the operation of the national will. Respect for them is self-respect in the highest and most enlightened form."

Whereas the Memphis Commercial Appeal (Democrat), says:

"Constitutions are the work of human hands and brains, and as such can not be literally and servilely followed at all times, and especially when they conflict with public interest and when they fail to meet the exigencies of those who are now alive. All the rhetoric in the world can not change the supreme and adamant fact that the people of our new possessions are not yet prepared for full American citizenship, and are not yet capable of self-government, according to the American idea, and until they are educated up to the responsibilities and duties of citizenship, common sense and common prudence must dictate a withholding of the boon from them; nor can we see much difference in denying full citizenship to the unprepared peoples of our new possessions from denying it to the unprepared colored people of the Southern States. Necessity knows no law, and necessity is as potent in one place as in another."

"You can't play with financial credit" said one of our financiers the other day. The remark is a very true one, and is as true of governments as of individuals. There have been and are men who would see with joy a financial wreck here, but they are the very men who will be hurt first by the crash.

The Smith case has been nolle prossed, and thus ends the great episode of the special grand jury which created frantic excitement, engendered any quantity of ill feeling and bile and has resulted in nothing tangible save the discomfort of some of those who hoped to profit by that stroke of political finesse.

When one or two gentlemen who have been passing bogus checks find themselves in jail for a longer or a less period, the game of swindling local dealers will become less popular. It is to our interest to prevent the rogue fraternity from regarding this place as "dead easy." If it is regarded as "dead sure" in the matter of jail, why it will become far from popular.

Two of the Brothers from St. Louis College return to the headquarters of the order at Dayton, Ohio, and will probably sever their connection with Hawaiian education permanently. Few people, outside those brought into direct connection with the members of the Brotherhood, know what self-sacrificing lives and how full of unremitting toil are carried out by these gentlemen. They simply devote themselves to their pupils. There is very little recreation, and the result is that the human machine wears out and must have rest. That rest is fortunately supplied. The estate at Dayton has about 300 acres of land, and in this pleasant retreat there is always light employment and rest for those weary ones who have borne the heat and burden of the day, and gave of their best to the pupils under their charge.

FRUIT AND WHOOPING COUGH.

It is said a physician at Graz has discovered that a fungus grows upon skins of apples and oranges which is precisely similar to the fungus which forms the peculiar germs of infection in whooping cough. He writes to us that on oranges and apples which have been kept some time, may be found dark brown and black specks which,
when scraped off, appear as a damp powder, and under the microscope this powder is seen to consist of the spores of a fungus identical with those of the whooping cough fungus. Taking two of these specks from the skin of an orange the physician introduced them
by a strong inhalation into his lungs.
The next day a tickling of the throat began, which gradually increased until at the eighth day, a thoroughly developed whooping cough set in. The experiments on microscopic examination exhibited the same white corpuscles which characterizes the expectoration of the usual children's whooping cough. Should this discovery be confirmed there is an additional reason to see that children abstain from eating apples with the skin on, and from chewing orange peel, which many are so fond of doing.—Sanitary Record.

EMPEROR OF PORTO RICO.
Bryan's version is that the court has made President McKinley emperor of Porto Rico. Rather is it that the court has affirmed the power of Congress to make him emperor, and the last Con-

this power to the utmost, as the next Congress will doubtless be.—Springfield

WOULD NOT BE BRIBED

OFFICER JOY DISDAINS CHANCE TO MAKE IT

After Arresting Two Japanese for Affray Was Attacked by Third Jap
and Then Fourth Tried Bribery.

There were four cases before Judge Wileox this morning which were the outgrowth of Officer Barney Joy's attempt to make an arrest yesterday.
The officer who is a powerful man saw two Japanese engaged in an affray and he started to arrest them. They resisted and made things quite lively for the officer. He took one in each hand however and seemed to be holding them securely enough when an ally, in the person of Nishimura, appeared. He offered resistance to the officer it is said. The Japanese made an assault on Joy by moving against him and trying to free the officer to release the prisoners. Joy held on however and finally succeeded in taking the third man into camp.

After he had three men in tow a fourth Japanese appeared who sought his release. The fourth man did not try any vigorous means, but he chose diplomacy instead of force. Following the political precept of Horace Walpole that every man has his price,
the fourth Japanese, Hatsuji by name,
tried to bribe the officer. He offered the large sum of $100 to Joy to release the prisoners. Just how the Japanese came to size up the officer for such a "cheap guy" is uncertain.
It may have been his reputation that as the legislature had decided to dispense with the mounted police it might also dispense with the balance of the force later on so anything with which to start a bank account would be acceptable to Joy.

The young officer could not see his way clear to accept the bribe and if he had it would have been an impossibility for him to have reached for the money
as both his hands were full holding his prisoners. Joy indignantly refused the offer and caused the alleged briber
to be arrested with the balance.

This morning the bribery and the assault and battery cases were nol-prossed and Nishimura paid a fine of $6 for being intoxicated. The cases against Kamaura and Okamoto who were charged with affray and were the original cause of all the trouble, were

DIDN'T LIKE THE FOURTH

RABBI LEVY WAS DISAPPOINTED YESTERDAY.

Celebration Was Not Like Two Years Ago—Changed Conditions—Newcomers—Labor Requirements.

Rabbi Levy thinks that Hawaii got a doubtful blessing in annexation. He says that everybody was happy and content under the Republic and are not so now. The divine blames the newcomer for the changed conditions.
"How different," he says, "yesterday's Fourth of July to the Fourth of this year ago! It seems hardly possible that the scene and the day were the same."

"The cause of the difference is plain to me. When young men seek to teach old men, something funny or out of the ordinary happens. It was so in Solomon's time and will always be so.
Patriotism in its most exalted and purest form existed here two years ago. It is still here; but a new element has tried to bring it down and take the lead. We will show you how to be Americans and how to observe the Fourth," they said. And the older element of Americans said "All right; go ahead." The result we have seen."

Rabbi Levy comments with expressions of regret on the changes here since annexation. He sees the country filled with unscrupulous peddlars and the avenues of labor cut off. He forecasts that conditions will grow worse and not better. He thinks that the United States has gained everything
by annexation and that Hawaii has lost everything.

The divine intends to work in the United States for labor for the Islands.
He will try to thoroughly open the way for Porto Ricans. In case of failure there he will endeavor through California Congressmen to get a special law passed which will limit the number of Asiatics may be imported annually for work in the cane fields, to be returned at the expiration of three years. He believes this is possible and thinks it is absolutely necessary to the prosperity of the country. Rabbi Levy has secured pictures of the Porto Rican workers on all of the plantations which he will use in his campaign articles in the Examiner, American and Journal.

S. FLOHR FLEW AWAY

SHIPPING MAN TOOK FRENCH LEAVE.

Was Employed by Henry Macfarlane.
Accounts Appear to be Straight.
Probably Going to Alaska.

S. Flohr, freight clerk and shipping agent for Henry Macfarlane, disappeared last week under peculiar circumstances. He probably took passage on the steamship Zealandia for San Francisco his intention being to go to Vancouver and eventually to the Alaskan gold fields. The departure of Flohr was very abrupt, the young man taking French leave. So far as can be learned however there is no shortage in his accounts and the only cause for his sudden departure was a desire to try his luck in some other locality.

Flohr had charge of the freight schooners of Macfarlane for over a year past. He appeared to be quite a steady business man who attended to his work
and stood quite well with his employer.
Evidently Flohr was dissatisfied with his prospects here. On last Tuesday, July 2, he went about his work as usual during the morning and was speaking with Mr. Jones, Mr. Macfarlane's agent. It was 11:30 that Mr.
Jones remembers he saw Flohr.

At noon the Zealandia sailed and the young shipping agent is supposed to have departed on that vessel. When he was with Jones, Flohr appeared to be in the best of spirits and gave no hint of his intended departure. On Wednesday, Mr. Jones found a note in his office from Flohr accompanying the business keys. This note stated that inasmuch as Flohr saw no prospect for him here and he was disliked by several people he thought he would leave and go to Vancouver and thence to the gold fields of Alaska.

Inasmuch as Flohr disappeared on the 2nd, and no trace has been secured
since then he probably took the Zealandia.
The fact that he did he intended going to Vancouver would indicate that he might have taken the steamship around which sailed from here for that port on the evening of the 3 but this does not appear to have been his plan.

THE MILITARY PARADE.

First Feature of the Celebration of the Fourth.
The military parade in the early morning yesterday, was witnessed by large crowds. To the national guardsmen themselves the military feature of the parade was a disappointment because so many men in each company failed to turn out. Captain Murray, it is said, refused to take his command.
Company H, out, so few of the boys were at the muster. Those who were placed with Company A.

A big crowd had gathered on the streets to see the parade. The march began at 7:45 and was over in about fifteen minutes. Before dismissing the companies, Colonel Jones thanked the men who had turned out for their zeal and said that he would look after the men who failed to respond to orders.

It is understood that the reason the men did not show up for the parade was the discouragement placed upon them by the Legislature. The Legislature has thus far failed to pass any appropriation for the support of the military and the men feel that unless something is done, they will be forced to the wall as they cannot keep up the companies out of their own pockets.

The fire department made a good showing. The wagons in line were not decorated, the time being too short.

WENT UP ON THE MOUNTAIN.

Two Thousand People Went Pacific
Heights Yesterday.

Two thousand people went up Pacific Heights yesterday to celebrate the Fourth. The electric car service was kept busy carrying the people who wanted to celebrate the day by getting up in the cool and bracing air of the mountains. Though the cars were filled to their capacity practically every trip the crowd was handled in comfort.

The people on the heights all kept open house to their friends and there were a number of enjoyable house parties. The Greek department, given at the reservoir and the new refreshment pavilion at the upper terminus of the electric road were well patronized. The new trail up the mountain was used by many devotees of mountain climbing.

In the evening there was one of the finest fireworks displays of the day.
J. B. Thornton provided quite a varied assortment of fireworks. Other residents of the heights had also laid in a stock. The management of the railway furnished its quota. And the Japanese provided an attractive exhibit.
These were not all combined in one display but were set off to supplement one another, and were witnessed by thousands.

PROF. GOODWIN.

It can be safely assumed that the complimentary dinner to Dr. William Watson Goodwin, who has lately resigned his place at the head of Harvard's Greek department, given at the Somerset club in Boston was a charming affair. It could not have been otherwise with Prof. Goodwin and 200 choice spirits meeting. As for the man who was honored, the Boston Advertiser well depicts him:
Prof. Goodwin has the uncommon distinction of being at the same time
eminent in two spheres of success, which are commonly supposed to be, if not incompatible, at least totally dissimilar. He is, probably, without any one to dispute that claim made for him
by those who know, the greatest living master in the new world of classical Greek learning and literature. He is also one of the most delightful social leaders known to the most polished society in America. If all Greek scholars were like him, the too familiar sayings which imply that such learning
as his is "dry" would mention the name of any contemporary to whom can be more fittingly applied the alliterative substantives, "dry" and "wisdom."—
Wisconsin Republican.

WARM WEATHER.

"Do you take your cook away with you in the summer?"
"No, oh, no; we can't afford to go to the kind of place that would satisfy her."—Chicago Record Herald.

BOATS WILL CONTINUE.

The Canadian-Australian Steamship Company has given up the idea of cutting its route out of its port of north call. This is given on a thoroughly reliable authority. The action of the central government in taking away the mail contract and restricting the traffic of the company caused a little British blood to boil for a time in the home office, but there has been a sort of cooling off and the situation has changed. It is said that the Canadian boats are now making money by simply calling here for passengers, the travel being twice what it was two years ago. It is on this account that the British blood ceased to boil and that the boats will continue to call here.

MORGAN IS ASSISTANT ENGINEER

"Hab" Morgan formerly connected with the Honolulu Iron Works left that position recently to accept the berth as second assistant engineer of the steamship Sonoma. Morgan received the offer quite suddenly and did not have the opportunity of bidding farewell to his friends before joining the Sonoma on her trip to the Colonies. He was formerly with the Cramps shipbuilding yards.

JOHN G. WOOLLEY.

John G. Woolley, one of the best-known temperance speakers of the United States, wrote that he would arrive here on the Mariposa July 6, so he was booked to speak at a mass meeting for men in Y. M. C. A. hall at 8 o'clock Sunday afternoon. As neither the Mariposa nor the Zealandia will arrive on that date it is very doubtful if Mr. Woolley can be expected. In case he does not come on the China the Rev.
Edward Bates Turner, a former preacher and teacher who on Tuesday leaves Mills Institute to accept the pastorate of the Foreign Church at Kohala, will speak. Mr. Turner's subject will be "The Cost of Service."

A BABY FOUND.

A white baby girl apparently four or five hours old, was left on the doorsteps of Manuel Silva in Kalihi yesterday. The little wail was well dressed and had every appearance of having come from wealthy sources. By its side were a bottle of milk, box of antiseptic powder and other paraphernalia incident to babyhood. The Portuguese family took charge of the child and she is being well cared for.

THE HEALANI CREWS WIN

CAPTURE CHAMPIONSHIP AND JUNIOR EVENTS.

Seniors Were Three Lengths in Lead While Juniors Finished Many Lengths Ahead of Other Crew.

The annual boat races at Pearl Harbor yesterday resulted in a double victory for the Healanii club crews. Both events were won in such signal style that there was no doubt that the best crews in each event won. The senior championship race which was the coveted prize of the year in rowing circles was the first event to be rowed. The Healanii crew composed of Paul Jarrett, stroke; Dan Renner, No. 3; Fred Damon, No. 2; and Sam Walker, bow; Charles Reynolds, coxswain, won the senior race in 19:37 1/2 by three lengths over the mile and a half course. The Healanii crew was composed of A. Giles, stroke; C. Girvin, No. 3; W. Armstrong, No. 2; bow, W. Lyle; M. Alvarez, coxswain. The time made by the Myrtle was 19:49 1/2, twelve seconds slower than the Healanii crew.

The junior race proved the easiest kind of a victory for the Healanii crew. The men rowing in the winning team crew were Webster, stroke; Tracy, No. 3; Murray, No. 2; Walcott, bow. Reynolds, coxswain. The Myrtle crew consisted of Ross, stroke; Sam Johnson, No. 3; Allen Judd, No. 2; and McLean, bow; Alvarez, coxswain. The time for the winners was 11:24 while the Myrtle crew was 1 minute 4 seconds slower. Both of the Healanii crews were favorite in the betting.

The races were witnessed by fully 1,500 people who went to Pearl City in the morning on the special train run by the Oahu Railway.

The officials of the races left Honolulu on a special train at 8 o'clock in the morning for Pearl Harbor. They boarded the launch Water Witch which was used as the official starters' boat. The main crews of spectators did not start from Honolulu until 9 o'clock. A special train consisting of 23 cars was run through to the scene of the course. Every coach was crowded by gaily dressed men, women and children all wearing the blue and white of the Healanii or the red and white of the Myrtle.

It was decided to row the senior race first as the rowing association and the captains of the two clubs desired to secure the smoothest water and least wind for the championship event. At the Ewa end of the course the water was a little choppy but there was comparatively little breeze blowing against the crews. The Waikiki end of the course, where the finish was made, was quite smooth and, taken as a whole, the water was about as smooth as could be expected at Pearl Harbor.

At the start the Myrtle crew jumped away from the Healanii men and took a lead of nearly a length. Jarrett took his men along at a slow strong swing. The Myrtle crew was in the lead in this position to the half when the Healanii shell shoved her nose along on even terms with the Myrtle boat. The Healanii allowed the other crew to lead slightly until the last quarter was reached when Jarrett and his crew spurred and drew away from the other crew with ease.

With the exception of Walker all of the Healanii crew finished comparatively fresh. The Myrtle men were quite badly used up however. The strength and superiority of the senior Healanii crew was apparent from the different conditions in which the two crews finished. The winning crew rowed in a Cambridge shell which was considerably lighter than the lap streaked boat used by the Myrtle crew. Even this difference however did not give the victory to the Healanii men who were certainly the better and stronger crew and won on their merits.

The Healanii Juniors rowed in splendid form and won as they pleased. The Myrtle crew was not in condition however and their bad defeat is due to the fact that they had not had sufficient training. McLean's foot rack broke during the first part of the race and this also retarded the Myrtle boat.

The officials were: Judges: F. J. Church, S. E. P. Taylor and A. G. M. Robertson. Starter: A. W. Carter. Timekeepers (at start): E. H. Paris and G. H. Angus. Timekeepers at finish: C. J. Willis and F. J. Kruger. Regatta Committee: A. A. Wilder, chairman; S. E. P. Taylor, F. J. Church.

Great credit is due to Captain Jack Atkinson of the Healanii Club for his hard work. F. W. Klebahn who coached the winning crews contributed more perhaps than any other individual to the double victory. James Lloyd who also coached the Healanii Juniors can well feel proud over the showing made by that crew.

The crowds immediately returned to Honolulu at the conclusion of the races and the Healanii men proceeded to celebrate. Under the command of J. H. Harrison fifty armed themselves with brooms, Healanii flags and colors and marched up the streets to the Hawaiian Hotel singing the various songs which were such a success at their recent minstrel show. In the afternoon the Healanii held open house at the club where dancing was enjoyed by a large crowd. In the evening the Healanii and their friends had dinner at the Moana Hotel.

THE PARADE. The public celebration of the Fourth of July began with the parade of the National Guard and the Fire Department. The latter especially made a fine showing.

SCOTS AT MOANALUA. The Scottish Thistle club enjoyed yesterday at Moanalua. Nearly all of the members and their families were present. The day was spent in sports and the routine of an outing.

CIRCUIT COURT CASES. High Sheriff Brown has filed his answer, making a general denial, in the matter of the damage suit brought against him by L. C. Camacho. Camacho claims that his leg was broken by the violence of a guard in Oahu Jail, and asks for $1,000 damages from the high sheriff.

Petition has been filed by J. H. Hui for distribution of the estate of the late Kekini consisting of money in the bank of Hawaii, between himself and his sister. He avers that the deceased was his aunt and that himself and sister are the only relatives she left.

DAVIS-KEALOHAU. Wallace Davis, familiarly known as "Wally" Davis, and Miss Mary Kealoahu were married on Wednesday evening.

MUSIC.

The grand concert given by Herr Johann Marquardt and Madame Alexandra Breitschuck-Marquardt last evening at the Opera house was thoroughly artistic and keenly enjoyable. Herr Marquardt as a violinist showed himself master of the technique of his instrument and a careful interpreter of music. Madame Alexandra Breitschuck-Marquardt gave the audience a revelation of the possibilities of the harp. After seeing her, one can understand the romance and poetry that has grown up in literature around the harp. Not only is there richness and depth and moving quality in the instrument, but there is the perfection of grace and the poetry of motion in playing it, at least in Madame Breitschuck-Marquardt's playing of it.

One of the most satisfying numbers on the program was Gounod's "Ave Maria" sung by Mrs. J. T. McDonald accompanied by harp and violin. The quality of the music, rich, deep, measured and stately was most worthily brought out in Mrs. McDonald's soprano, and the accompanying instruments.

Miss Caroline Castle as pianist added to the high reputation she enjoys. James D. Dougherty, tenor, specially pleased the audience with the song "The Four Leaf Clover" with harp accompaniment.

- The entire program was as follows: 1. Violin Solo—"Fantasie Mignon" Sarasate 2. Tenor Solo—(a) "The Rose in Heaven" Troter (b) "A May Morning" Denza 3. Harp Solo—"Grand Fantasia" Zabel 4. Soprano Solo—With Violin Obligato. (a) "Your Voice" Denza (b) "A Day Dream" Strelezki 5. Violin Solo—"Fantasie on Sextette From Lucia di Lammermoor" 6. Tenor Solo—With harp accompaniment—"The Four Leaf Clover" Brownell 7. Harp Solo—"Fantasie Elegiaque" 8. Soprano, Harp and Violin—"Ave Maria" Gounod 9. Violin Solo—(a) "Adagio" Ries (b) "Perpetuum mobile" Ries 10. Harp and Violin Duet—(a) "Reverie" Vieuxtemps (b) "Intermezzo" Mascagne

DIED OF HEART DISEASE. James Madison Howard, known as Matt Howard died in the Philippines of heart disease, May 13. He was formerly engaged in the live stock trade between here and the coast. He went to Manila last February. He leaves a mother and two sisters in Woodland, California, and a brother in San Francisco.

A CHILD RUN OVER. A soldier in a buggy accidentally drove over a small Portuguese child at the corner of South and Queen streets yesterday afternoon. In less time than it takes to tell, the street was full of jabbering Portuguese, all demanding indemnity. The soldier had been caught by a mounted patrol man and was trying to explain to the mob. He was finally allowed to go. The only harm to the child was the thorough scaring it received from the excited exclamations and words of the angry Portuguese.

A NEW KIND OF SALOON

BUT THERE IS NO LIMIT TO THEIR NUMBER.

May Sell Nothing But Beer of Hawaiian Manufacture But They Can Sell That by the "Can" or Glass.

The advent of the new brewery with its "Primo" beer and deep blue colored beer wagons introduces a new kind of saloon to Honolulu of which the "Aloha" on Punchbowl street is a type but not the only one of the kind. Technically and legally these saloons are denominated "malt liquor saloons," but they are as strictly beer saloons as it would be possible for descriptive language to make them since they can sell nothing but beer and that of the home brewed kind. They are authorized and licensed under Part V of chapter 41 of the penal code which is as follows:

Section 479. The Minister of the Interior is hereby authorized to grant licenses for one year in this Republic to any person or persons making written application for the same to sell by the glass, or in any other quantity less than five gallons, malt liquors manufactured in Honolulu under Sections 472 to 478 inclusive, upon receiving for each license the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars.

Section 480. The proposed location of such licensed premises shall be subject to approval by the said Minister, and shall not be changed except by his written consent.

Section 481. Before receiving a license to sell malt liquors as above, the applicant shall file an approved bond with the Minister of the Interior in the penalty of one thousand dollars, conditioned:

First: That he will not dispose of any malt liquors to any person in a state of intoxication or to minors.

Second: That he will not sell or otherwise dispose of on the premises for which he is licensed any wines, malt liquors or spirits of any description whatever; and also that he will not store, or allow to be stored on the premises for which he is licensed any wines, malt liquors or spirits of any description whatsoever, except such beer manufactured in Honolulu, and under the said above-mentioned sections.

Section 482. Such license and bond may contain any provisions which, in the opinion of the said Minister, shall be necessary to the correct regulation of the business and premises so licensed, and to prevent or detect violations of this act, or of such license or bond.

Section 483. Upon the conviction of the party so licensed for breach of any of the terms of his bond or license, the amount shall be forfeited to the State, and, in addition to all penalties imposed by law, he shall be ineligible for a license of any class for a term of two years.

The law it will be seen authorizes the Minister of Interior to grant these licenses and does not require him to consult the executive council in the matter. Under the organic act the Treasurer succeeds to this duty and responsibility. It is over these licenses that one of the causes of difference between the treasurer and the acting governor has arisen. The treasurer declines to bring the subject before the conference of the heads of departments, but issues the licenses on his own responsibility.

Quite a number of these malt saloons have been opened this week and others are to be started. Treasurer Wright has not decided upon a limit and still has applications under consideration. In all probability licenses will be granted for most of the localities infested with illicit dealers and swine sellers. The fee being charged for these licenses is $50 per annum, with a bond in the sum of $1,000 that the places will be kept orderly and that nothing but beer and that to be of Hawaiian manufacture, will be sold. A part of the contract, too, is that if any hard liquors are found on the premises the license of the keeper of the place will forthwith lapse.

Up to today Treasurer Wright has issued the following licenses: Henry Klemme, near the foot of Punchbowl street; J. H. Thompson, Queen near foot of South; Charles Wessels, Queen, Waikiki of South; Eugene P. Sullivan, Iwilei; P. F. Ryan, Alaa, King street. H. C. Vida has been given permission to start a place in Iwilei but will probably back out of it.

Governor in Control After Tomorrow. Conference Committee on the Session Expenses Bill.

When the House met on Wednesday afternoon the members found the session expenses bill back again from the Senate, with all correspondence relating thereto. The House had sent it to the Senate because amendments were not concurred in and had also sent back a letter in which the Senate took the liberty of saying that Speaker Akia had been wrong in his ruling on a House proceeding. The following resolution by Dickey was adopted:

"Resolved, That the clerk be instructed to inform the Senate through its clerk that the final passage of any bill requires a full majority of all the elected members of both houses.

"That the conference of the House in the Senate amendment of House Bill No. 4 would finally pass the bill and therefore requires the majority affirmative vote of all the members of the House.

"Also the Speaker of the House has appointed a conference committee to consider the difference between the houses on House Bill No. 4."

The Speaker appointed Dickey, Makalua and Monsarrat to act as a conference committee, but the Senate adjourned before such action had been taken. Emmeluth offered a concurrent resolution to appoint conference committees of seven members of each house, but the resolution was not voted on.

Tomorrow will be the fiftieth day of the session, and if bills do not go to the Governor before then the legislature will be in the executive's hands again. They will have no opportunity to pass bills over to veto, if he chooses to hold bills for the ten days which the law gives him, and the old story of the regular session will have been repeated.

TAR AND FEATHERS.

Men in Indiana Take Summary Action Recently.

The home of Hiram Henderson, a farmer of Fulton County was the scene of a brutal outrage, Mrs. Henderson being the victim. About midnight the house was entered by a dozen men clad in women's clothes and wearing masks. Mrs. Henderson was taken from the bed and stripped to the waist. She was then given a severe whipping with a leather strap and ordered to leave the county. Not content with this, the mob covered her face and hair with a coat of tar.

The husband, who was in bed, was kept still with cocked revolvers in the hands of two members of the mob, while his wife was being whipped. It is charged that Mrs. Henderson has a bad and sullen disposition; that within the last few days she threatened to kill her husband; that at one time she knocked him down, and would have carried out her threat but for the interference of neighbors. She then declared, it is charged that she would burn her neighbors' houses and poison their cattle. These threats, it is said, aroused the "whitcappers."

The husband and a farm employe scrubbed off the tar and Mrs. Henderson left the county. She is 50 years old, and her husband is twenty years her junior.
