Observations.

The government is really to be congratulated on its enterprise push and economy. The workmanship displayed in the erection of a wall around the pumping plant defies description. The amount of bricks daily laid by Mr. Rowell's men would puzzle an arithmetician. It is rumored that the wall is to be the size of the Eiffel tower. If so we will suggest to the great superintendent to put on one more workingman. If not we fear he won't be around when the wall is finished.

David Starr Jordan is the first President of the Leland Stanford Junior University of California, a writer of some eminence and a recognized educator. President Jordan contributed to the Forum for May an article entitled "Pettifogging Law Schools and an Untrained Bar." The whole article is too long for these columns, so we make pertinent extracts, as follows: "But with all this, the professional school of America have not taken their part in the University development. It has been said of the American law schools, for example, that 'they are the weakest and therefore the worst to be found in any civilized country.' Broadly speaking, and taking out some half dozen notable exceptions (not so many nor so notable as they should be), this statement cannot be denied. In Europe, professional training is in general the result of a thorough education. It is not so in America. It is here rather a 'practical short cut' by which uneducated or ineducable men are helped to the rewards of knowledge and skill with the least possible loss of time. It is true, as President Eliot has said, that into an American law-school any man 'can walk from the street.' But in most of the States he can do better or worse than this. From the street he can walk directly into the profession of the law, disregarding even the formulae of matriculation or graduation. It is possible for us to enter any one of the 'learned professions' with no learning whatever. In fact, in many of our States, it requires no more preparation to be admitted to the bar than to be admitted to the sawbuck. Fortunately, admission to either on these terms carries with it no prestige or social elevation whatever. But the danger in the one case is greater than in the other. The inefficient lawyer may work the ruin of interests entrusted to him. The ignorant physician is more dangerous than the plague. The incompetent wood sawyer harms only the wood pile. A large part of our criminal records is devoted to legal and medical malpractice. In other words, our bulk of crime is swollen by robbery and murder committed under the guise of professional assistance. When the professions cease to be open wide to adventurers and thieves, they will rise to something of their professional dignity. Incompetent professional service is always robbery. Moreover, the politicians of each country are, for the most part, its lawyers. Our lawyers are our rulers, and we can never hope to see our States well governed until its lawyers are well trained." Much of President Jordan's article applies with great force here, as the most of our lawyers have the same training that American lawyers have. If all signs do not fail in dry weather we have to pay for the inefficiency of a government composed largely of lawyers. In closing, President Jordan says: "The Fates charge compound interest on every human blunder, and they have their own way at last." Poor Hawaii!

His Answer.

The following is Mr. Francis M. Hatch's answer to Mr. Willis in re recall of Thurston:

Department of Foreign Affairs, Honolulu, May 3d, 1895.

Sir: Referring to our interview of the 30th ultimo in which you intimate that the President of the United States would be pleased if the Hawaiian Minister at Washington should be recalled, for personal reasons, and upon which occasion you read to me a dispatch from the Secretary of State to yourself on the subject dated January 25, 1895, but which had been sent to Japan by mistake, I have the honor to inform you:

That Mr. Thurston is now in Hawaii and will not return to the post of Hawaiian Minister at Washington.

I regret extremely that the presence in Washington of the late Minister is no longer agreeable and that the matters referred to by the Secretary of State should have been considered of sufficient gravity to call for the action taken.

I have the honor to be, with the highest consideration, Sir,

FRANCIS M. HATCH,
Minister of Foreign Affairs.
MR. ALBERT S. WILLIS,
U. S. Envoy Extraordinary
and Minister Plenipotentiary.

A Correction.

The statement made in several papers that the body of Mr. Verleye, the French Commissioner and Consul-General, would be carried away from here on the Australia and that Mrs. Verleye would leave in the same vessel, is erroneous. No disposition will be made of the remains, beyond depositing them at the cemetery, until instructions from France are received.

Mrs. Verleye, who was confined a few months ago and is still in very delicate health, has been the guest of Mrs. Canavaro, the wife of the Portuguese Charge d' Affaires, and returned to her home last Wednesday. The lady will remain here for the present and await communications from the French Government and the relations of her much lamented husband. Mr. W. M. Giffard, the chancellor, has taken charge of the French Legation and will perform the duties pertaining to the office until a successor of the late Commissioner is appointed. Mr. Giffard is a kamasina here; he has for several years filled the position as chancellor to the French Legation, and is the manager of the great firm of W. G. Irwin & Co.

Some Truth.

The San Francisco chic is getting cheeky. The witty little sheet is actually beginning to criticize us and what is worse telling nasty little truths. It makes one mistake though and that is when it says Hawaii cannot boast of a first class hotel. Come along this evening and dine at the Hawaiian Hotel and then tell us where you get a better menu, better attendance and better music. This is what chic says:

Although Hawaii holds a fair average of cultured people, it is the exception rather than the rule to find them as appreciative as visitors of the charms Nature has spread before them. The Californian is noted the world over for his constant fealty to his State, and his glowing, sometimes fulsome pictures of all that belongs to it. His generosity to 'the stranger with the gates,' has become proverbial. The Hawaiian talks politics, abuses Cleveland, treats you well if you agree with him, and advises you to 'go to the volcano,'—which he has never seen. If you are stopping at the Hawaiian Hotel, he commiserates you over your bad choice; if you are at the Arlington he suggests that you should have tried the Hawaiian. It is unfortunate that Honolulu is unable to properly entertain and cater to the physical wants of its many visitors. It does not possess a first-class hotel. We will wait for annexation—and American money to build it.

A Coffee King.

As the representative of the INDEPENDENT was waiting at the foot of the gangway to go on board the Monowai, his hand was warmly grasped and he was cordially addressed by Mr. R. V. Webster, whose acquaintance he had enjoyed for a quarter of an hour at the Bulletin office last November. Mr. Webster is a wealthy coffee planter of Ceylon and was ashore here from a steamer at the time mentioned. He takes a lot of interest in Hawaii as a rising coffee country, and was much concerned at the report that blight was attacking the crop on Hawaii. Mr. Webster, who went on by the Monowai, desired to be kindly remembered to Mr. Joseph Marsden, Commissioner of Agriculture.

Alvina was being exercised yesterday as a trotter and not as a saddle horse. It is pretty sure that she will be entered in the 2:50 class.

Forged Bonds.

In his last report the Collector-General suggests that the Chinese bureau of immigration should be removed to his office. It is stated at the same time that the present system works well and that no forgeries take place here. We are inclined to believe that there is a great deal of bond swindling going on and we don't think that the community has any reason to advocate or agree to the transfer of the Chinese bureau to the Custom House. Former experience has shown that, that the establishment is not the safest place for Chinese bonds or passports. Jen Seu a well-known chinaman has been arrested on a charge of signing the signature of Lam Tai Kee to three bonds and thereby enabling three Chinese not entitled to land to pass the custom house and fostering themselves illegally on this already with Asiatics over swamped community. The accused man on whose case we of course do not express an opinion will appear in Court on Monday. He is now out on bail placed at $100. Should the evidence prove him guilty we hope that the judge will make an example of him. There has lately been too much inclination to compromise with crime and it is about time that it was stopped.

The Paradise.

Editor Hoogs is to be highly complimented on the appearance of the June number of the Paradise of the Pacific. The pictures are unusually clear and pretty and the text is both interesting and instructive. Mr. C. A. Dickey has contributed an excellent description of Haleakala. It is not always understood that Haleakala is really the wonder of Hawaii. With all due respect to Mademoiselle her detuned sister on Maui has yet grandeur enough to call forth admiration and awe even if she doesn't spit fire. John Effinger makes a very lively "tramp" and gets poetical when a slight inclination on the editor's time to be political a vice that the Paradise heretofore has avoided. Joaquin Miller and Captain J. A. Palmer get roasted—mildly like peanuts but it is unfortunate that the pretty issue should be marred by an attempt to join in the general hue and cry raised by the "professional" barkers against two men who simply published their honest opinions to which they are as entitled as is the Paradise to advocate volcanoes coffee, and guava jelly.

New Church.

The Methodist Episcopal Church of Honolulu has been established under the auspices of Bishop Waldon now visiting this city. The promoters are Henry Waterhouse, Theo. Richards, H. Tragloan, C. V. Sturdevant, Mr. Johnson, C. B. Ripley and Mr. Douse. A church will be erected at the first opportunity and another stone laid for the fundamental work of Hawaii's future progress and civilization.

Lionel Hart is alright again. He will pitch this afternoon and look pretty and lion-like as ever.

Timely Copies

May 29, 1895.

Economy is the watch word. Government and private concerns alike are interested in solving financial questions. The killing of the Income Tax in the United States has been a surprise party to many people, but at the same time it has not been an unpleasant surprise to the majority. We realize of course that the Cleveland administration will now have its hands full and we equally are aware of the difficulties of the republic of Hawaii. If the INDEPENDENT can be believed the government is running behind every day. No government can afford to do without the tax-payers being ready and willing to back it up and on the alert to dig up the necessary wherewithals and wherfors. To meet the times we have exerted ourselves and we have found a "baby" that will beat anything in its line. This "baby" is a sewing machine and it ranks with the smartest "babies" in the world. You can sew anything on it and do it just as well as on a patent—steam—foot—tramping machine. The "Baby" goes by hand and it fills the ticket every time. To meet the hard times we have reduced the price of this infant "sewer" and we sell it at $3.50 a piece. Three dollars and a-half doesn't buy a "baby" every day and hardly a government bond, but our sewing machine is there for that small amount.

We can also recommend a whistle to you. It is called the Develine Whistle and a devil of a whistle it is. It sounds like a syren and it makes noise enough to scare away Thomas Square hoodlums or even mounted police horses.

Our Seymour's trimmers are the shears called for by every household. They are sharp, cutting and irresistible. Once used never forgotten—especially if used for scaping purposes. In all the articles we have mentioned to-day, we have been dominated by a sense of economy. We know that taxes will go up and for the sake of our customers prices will have to go down. Now Whistle or Trim Sey-more the Baby.

AN IMPOSING CEREMONY.

Consul Verleye Lead At Rest.

The funeral of Mr. Henri Leon Verleye the popular commissioner and consul for France, whose untimely death has been lamented by the community, took place yesterday afternoon. The funeral was in charge of the acting consul for France, Chancellor W. M. Giffard, and the ritual took place at the Roman Catholic Cathedral. All honors were extended to the memory of the late consul. The government had sent two military companies as an escort, besides the band and a squad of police under the command of senior captain Parker. The floral decorations were most beautiful. The Right Reverend Father Leonor, Vicar-General of these Islands conducted the services. After the solemn ceremony at the church the procession was formed and moved to the Catholic cemetery on King Street, where the remains of the deceased diplomat will be kept until instructions in regard to their removal can be received from the French government. The following gentlemen acted as pall bearers: Mr. A. S. Willis, envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary for the United States of America, Mr. A. G. Hawes, H. B. M's consul-general and commissioner; Mr. Ellis Mills, consul-general and secretary of the legation of the United States; Mr. Shimizu, consul-general for Japan; Mr. A. de Souza Canavaro, consul-general for Portugal, and Mr. F. A. Schaefer, consul for Italy and dean of the Consular corps in Honolulu. The order of the procession was:

- Squad of Police
Undertaker
Right Reverend Father Leonor
Colonel McLean National Guard
Hearse
Acting Consul Giffard and Chief Mourners
Messrs. Hatoh and W. O. Smith
Hon. A. S. Cleghorn in carriage of Mr. Hawes
Admiral Beardlee
Captain and Officers of the U. S. cruiser Philadelphia
H. B. M's Vice Consul
J. R. G. P. Consul
Public general.
Messrs. E. Stiles and Lionel Hart acted as ushers at the Cathedral, where numerous people were in attendance at the services. Mrs. Verleye arrived at the church before the service, but was escorted home by her friends, who feared that the sad occasion would seriously injure her already much impaired health. Colonel Soper represented the President at the church service.

"Star" Reporting.

We recommend to the Kindergarten on B-retania street to hire the Star court reporter. The children will then be able to learn what a "mispriison" (should it be a misfit) prisoner is and how two sets of attorneys can appear for the "prosecution" in a habeas corpus case. The Star reporter must be a second Leonard or invisible, because the only reporters in esse were these from the Bulletin and the INDEPENDENT who appeared for the 'misfit' prisoner?

Band Concert.

Professor Berger will entertain the public this afternoon with a concert at Emma Square beginning at 4:30 o'clock. The following is the programme:

- March: U. S. S. Philadelphia
Overture: Light Cavatry
Fantasia: Princess Air
Selection: A Gaiety Girl, Jones Waltz, The Lyrens, Walatenfer Polka, A Good Kiss, Coote

Oysters.

It is very peculiar that when a new industry is started in this country the public immediately assumes a suspicious attitude and acts as if there was something rotten in Denmark. Mr. Colburn, a pushing young capitalist, has lately been using his extensive lands at Pearl Harbor to create oyster beds, and he has been able to furnish the market here with fresh oysters on shell for several weeks. If the public has appreciated the enterprise of Mr. Colburn we cannot state. We only know that a lot of people who pretend to know something about what is good for the plate look very serious and say: Cannot beat "foreign" oysters; taste "muddy;" taste of "limu;" pooh, pooh, pooh! The truth is that the oysters are not intended to "beat" foreign oysters. They are foreign oysters and are simply here to be fattened, freshened up and fit for the market. The most serious charge against the oysters has been that they were green, and that fact scared people who, although "green" themselves, believe that the verdant color is caused by arsenic or copper. A reference to Ansley Hall's interesting article, Oyster Industry of New Jersey will serve to convince our sceptical bonvivants that they run no risks whatever by eating "green" oysters. The article in question appears in the official report of the commissioner on fish and fisheries printed at Washington 1891. In mentioning "green" oysters the author questions Professor Nelson, a celebrated authority, who in a letter to the two leading oyster growers of the United States, says: "It is natural people who do not know the cause of the unusual color should reject green clams or oysters deeming them disease-causing. Such persons may be assured, not only on our authority but on that of every scientific investigator who has studied the subject that the clams are wholesome and of good and sometimes of superior quality." The green color is simply derived by the oyster's inclination for and easy access to seaweed and anybody who has watched a child painting itself blue by eating blueberries can understand why an oyster turns green by eating "limu."

Sans Souci.

When a stranger in some vessel approaches the coast of Oahu he is inclined to think that he has made a mistake and that the Paradise of the Pacific must be found somewhere else. But when the vessel passes Diamond Head and the wonderful beauty of Waikiki meets his eye he realizes that he is near that haven of bliss, that single spot which truly deserves the name of Sans Souci—without sorrow.

The Chic of San Francisco writes a glowing description of the hospitality, gayety and "punch" of Sans Souci. It is pleasing to state that George Lycurgus; mine host of the place, is back again after his involuntary and undeserved imprisonment in Oahu Prison. George, the bon-vivant of Waikiki, the even pleasant and always friendly "duke" of Sparta was thrown into jail for some never explained reasons and his beautiful seaside resort was watched and eyed with suspicion by our vigilant government. An invitation to leave the country was not accepted by the Grecian hero. He now invites "the other crowd" to take advantage of the unique Waikiki moonlight and under his algeroba trees along the sweet medium of the waves dream of revolutions, filibusters or mysterious lights on the reef from the fishermen. See Sans Souci and—no don't die but go to jail!

A NEW SHIP.

She Flies No Flag, But a Horse.

The boys on Brewer's wharf will petition the next Legislature and ask for an act which will prevent ordinary everyday grocery waggons interfering with their trade and floating around trying to "drive" people to the Philadelphia instead of rowing them to that favorite resort. The facts which have caused the trouble are as follow: Last evening the waggon which carries Ned Imhoff's supplies for vessels came down to the wharf. The waggon, the horse and the boy—lucky it wasn't Ned—were all there. So was the wharf. That is for a little while. The boy, waggon and horse went overboard while backing "up" and thereafter they floated in general company. The officer on duty had the boy rescued and the horse was shortly after hoisted up and finally the waggon was landed. With exception of some damaged harness, no harm was done. But in the future it is to be hoped that the Humane agent will be around and such aquarian cirens be stopped in the future.

COURT RECORD.

Argument in the Habeas Corpus Case.

TWO JUDICIAL DECISIONS AND TWO CRIMINAL SENTENCES.

D. Summers, a negro, was tried on Wednesday for burglary by the following jury: Thomas Wright, F. T. P. Waterhouse, J. A. Lyle, Jas. L. McLean, S. B. Rose, E. A. McInerny, James Torbert, N. P. Jacobsen, J. J. Lecker, C. W. Gray, H. F. Wichman and C. B. Huston. Deputy Attorney General Robertson for prosecution; Kaulukou for defendant. The specific charge was breaking and entering the workshop of Thomas Hollinger on October 23, 1892. Summers was the only witness in his own behalf. After being out eight minutes the jury returned a unanimous verdict of guilty. Mr. Kaulukou gave notice of motion for a new trial. Yesterday Judge Cooper sentenced defendant to two years at hard labor and to pay costs $18.50.

Bento Ignacio was tried before Judge Cooper for assault and battery on Manuel Pimentee, the following being the jury: J. J. Lecker, Thos. Wright, H. F. Wichman, J. M. Tracy, E. A. McInerny, C. W. Gray, F. T. P. Waterhouse, J. Lucas, S. B. Rose, S. Roth, W. W. Hall and C. Bosse. J. L. Kaulukou for the prosecution, and defendant conducted his own defense. A verdict of not guilty, three dissenting, was returned.

J. W. Carrol was brought up for assault and battery with dangerous weapon on Pokina on February 5, 1895. Robertson for prosecution; Kaulukou for defendant the defendant's pleading guilty, he was sentenced to 24 hours imprisonment at hard labor and to pay a fine of $100 without costs.

The Supreme Court by Justice Frear has rendered a unanimous opinion on the bill for partition of Nahaolelua and others vs. Kasha and others. It sustains the decree of the Circuit Court for plaintiffs. The law points established are as follows:

"Parol evidence is admissible to identify and locate the land described in a deed, but not to extend the operation of the deed to land not embraced in its descriptive words.

"Mere failure on the part of the owner of land to object to its possession and improvement by others does not estop him from claiming the land, title being of record and he having done nothing to induce a belief that he had no title.

"The act of an agent does not estop his principal unless done within the scope of his authority."

Achi for plaintiffs; Hartwell for defendants.

In the case of T. L. Hays-Iden vs. Wahineaea (w), ejectment, the Supreme Court by Chief Justice Judd has rendered a unanimous decision. The case was tried in October, 1892, before Chief Justice Judd, when the mixed jury disagreed. It was tried again before Judge Frear in the Circuit Court in February, 1893, when the jury found for the defendant, three dissenting. In 1893 the Supreme Court ordered a new trial, and the case was tried by Judge Cooper in the Circuit Court in May, 1894. Again the jury returned a verdict for defendant, two dissenting. The case came up before the Supreme Court on a writ of error sued out by plaintiff last November. Both parties sought to establish title from a will probated in 1867. The Supreme Court puts a different construction on the will from that done by the courts that had tried the case, and after reviewing the whole matter at length decides:

"The whole case entitles the Court to reverse the verdict and judgment and to order judgment for the plaintiff, non obstante veredicto; which is done accordingly."

The law points laid down are as follows:
 "Where a devise is of a 'half lot' of a piece of land to each of two persons, and it is uncertain which half lot was intended for one and which for the other, they are tenants in common of the whole piece.

"A deed by W., a grantee of one of the devisees, of the southeastern division of the whole piece, describing it by metes and bounds, and declaring the northwestern division as the lot belonging to K., the other devisee, being spread on the registry of deeds, is a public declaration upon which the grantees of K. could rely, and W. is estopped from denying that the lot declared in her deed as belonging to K. was K's.

"When the facts are established it is for the Court to find whether they create an estoppel."

The land in question is a lot in the block in Honolulu, bounded by Mililani, Merchant, Richards and Queen streets, but does not abut upon any street. Plaintiff inherited the land from the father, the late Hon. W. M. Gibson.

C. W. Ashford and Cecil Brown for plaintiffs; J. Nawahi for defendants.

Judgment in the District Court has been recorded in the Clerk's office of the Judiciary Department for $39.80 in the suit of John Ena against J. Kaleikau.

Habeas Corpus.

The Supreme Court was in session yesterday morning and listened to the arguments in the case of Jonah (Cupid) Kalaniana'ole, who petitions for release from prison under writ of habeas corpus. The case, which is of vast interest, has been watched by all parties and classes of the community. When officer McGurn opened the court after the arrival of Chief Justice A. F. Judd and Justices Bickerton and Frear, a large assembly had gathered. The large court room was used for the occasion. Prince Cupid, who looked in good health, was present with Jailer Low, who is the respondent in the case. Mr. Paul Neumann appears for the petitioner and Messrs. Hartwell and Thurston for the respondent. Also present were Attorney-General W. O. Smith, Minister Hatch, W. R. Castle, A. W. Carter, W. N. Armstrong, Jas. Kaulia, Judge Hart, Judge Whiting, Arthur Brown, Alex. Robertson, Sir Robert Herron, a number of strangers, and also several ladies.

Mr. Neumann opened the argument in a short and masterly address. He was followed by Mr. Hartwell. In the afternoon Mr. Thurston opened his address, which will close this morning, when Mr. Neumann will close the argument. Briefs will then be submitted and a decision be looked for next week.
