THE Daily Bulletin

Pledged to neither Sect nor Party, But established for the benefit of all.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 6, 1889.

Editorial comments on the letter of "Democrat," in type, are crowded out.

A special envoy of King Humbert of Italy has presented Thomas A. Edison with the insignia of Grand Officer of the Crown of Italy. The great American inventor thus becomes a count and his wife a countess. Edison did not count on such eminence when he was a newsboy on the Grand Trunk Railway.

That the borrower is servant to the lender is receiving a striking illustration in Russia. A host of lords has been lured through impetuosity into the downward path to serfdom. The Credit Bank, established by the Government in 1886 to advance loans to the nobility on mortgages, has foreclosed on 2000 estates, that must be sold at auction at the end of the year. So awfully has the ruin of these nobles been accomplished, it looks like a costly calculated scheme of the Czar to rob them of their heritages.

OUR POLITICIANS AND OUR CAPITALISTS.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—In reading the articles that have appeared in your paper from time to time, the impression has been made on my mind, that the real reason for the evident want of harmony between the present government and its numerous critics, not to say opponents, is dissatisfaction with a condition of affairs for which this Government does not seem to me to be responsible. It is undeniable that there never was greater wealth in the country than there is to-day. There never has at any previous time been such liberal and judicious expenditure of the resources of the treasury for increase of public conveniences and promotion of the public welfare. Never before have there been such careful checks upon illegal or extravagant expenditure. Never before have abuses of governmental power been rendered so impossible. Why then is there any distrust, or denunciation of the present management of our political affairs? Will anyone point out specific instances of violation of public trust, or disregard of the common weal?

One chief point of contention seems to be that the wealth which has come to the country, in the prosecution of the sugar industry, has not been distributed around as it should have been, but has fallen into the keeping of a few favored individuals. But in what civilized country, where the laws give equal opportunities to all, is this not the fact? Our capitalists of to-day were poor men thirty years ago. Others, with the same opportunities before them, are poor men still. There are no hard and fast lines marking out separate classes of rich and poor. Such differences as have arisen are not artificially created by the operation of iniquitous laws; but are largely owing to individual and personal characteristics, as well as providential circumstances, over all which human laws have no control.

It is true, nevertheless, that the grasping after material aggrandizement, so exclusively, has opened the door to disturbing influences, unknown before. In the United States, the wages and employment of laborers have been subjected to strange fluctuations from the importation of large numbers of men, whose ignorance has made them easy dupes, and in whose case the absence of home and family ties, has brought in new perils to the maintenance of law and order. So, too, in these islands, the thousands of Chinese cheap laborers, like the Italians and Hungarians in the States, have brought disaster to many forms of industry. We feel it the more keenly, because we are comparatively few in numbers, and the welfare of all is most closely bound up in the welfare of each and everyone in our small community.

But what is the remedy? Shall we imitate the folly of the man who burned down his barn to exterminate the rats that were eating his corn? Shall we set aside the laws, guaranteeing the rights of property, and set limits to the acquisitions of any one person, or corporation? That matter is best left to providential control by a divine power whose wisdom we cannot impugn, whose sovereignty we cannot overthrow. Fifteen years ago the larger part of the stock of the New York Central Railroad was owned by one man, and the remainder by a few others. Now it has 10,000 shareholders, most of them having little property.

Henry George in his book on "Progress and Poverty" says of California, that in the early days of its history there was no appreciable poverty, but it appeared with the opening up of its mines and other resources, and the building of railroads. Therefore, such is his reasoning, material progress is the cause of the poverty in the community. As well may we ask here, why has our increasing prosperity made our community poorer? No one, who sees the actual condition of our people, and stops to think about causes as well as conditions, would ask any such question, that falsifies in its very terms the facts to be considered. The utmost that can be said is that material progress does not of itself insure the abolition of all poverty. If the whole community were growing poorer, would there be any such complaint as now, not of national poverty, but of an increasing prosperity in which some people do not have so large a share as they think they ought to have? What remedy is there?

Those who have studied to some good purpose the problems of modern political economy, have no patent remedy to offer. Exclusion of Chinese will not do it. Those who control the supply, whether of services, or commodities, will try also to control the demand. Such is human nature here, and everywhere. Allopathic physicians will not work with homeopathic practitioners; regular tradesmen will not compete with those who scamp their work. Irishmen will not work with negroes and so on to the end of the chapter. But limiting competition is no remedy. It is only another abuse. Nor will any legal uniform distribution of profits bring the desired relief. Divide up the income of the Vanderbilt family among all the employees, and how much would be added to each man's daily receipts?

Stop all wastes: that each one can do. Put no premium on the speculative management, that secures inordinate profits by perversion of the legitimate forms of productive labor. If any are poor and suffering, do not seek relief by putting the blame on some one else, or some social order. The world is wide. The ways are open. Do better work. Do other work. Do work elsewhere. So will prosperity come; but never by discontent and denunciation.

THE MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO., OF NEW YORK

Is the Oldest Active Life Insurance Company in the United States and the Largest in the World!

Its assets Jan. 1st, 1889, amounted to $125,494,719. Its insurance in force was $482,125,184 and the computed Reserve Fund which with future premiums and interest is required for paying the same, at the maturity of the policies or the death of the assured, was $117,607,078, thus leaving a clear surplus for future dividends to policy holders of $7,887,639.

This Company has no capital stock. It is purely Mutual. All the accumulations belong to its members, and all the profits go to its policy holders who have received since 1863, the sum of $78,878,476.82 in dividends earned by their policies. In the same period it has also paid $88,480,963.57 in death claims; $24,669,604.45 in matured endowments and $594,348.27 in annuities to living members; and besides $68,599,139.66 have been allowed for the value of discontinued policies purchased by the Company. In all since 1863, $261,222,732.77 have been returned to policy holders.

This amount is Twice as Large as the returns made by any other life insurance company in the world during the period named.

An Investment Returning 6 Per Cent. Compound Interest.

To illustrate the point pertaining to the investment of funds and the return to the policy holder, the following illustration is given:

Table showing investment details: Policy No. 28,342, Single Premium Life, Age 38, 1863. Amount $10,000, Premium $4,077.00. Face of Policy $10,000.00, Additions Credited $7,716.57, Additions Surrendered 1,548.57. Balance of Additions 6,168.00. Present Value of Policy as a Claim $16,168.00. Premium $4,077.00, Cash Dividends Withdrawn 939.34. Net Amount Paid by Insured 3,137.66. Value as a Claim in Excess of Amount Paid $13,030.34.

The existing additions amount to nearly 200 per cent. of the net amount paid by the insured, and the insured has realized 6 per cent. compound interest on his investment. With conditions quite as favorable to them as to the Mutual, no one of its would-be rivals has ever equaled this result. A. D. THOMAS, Executive Special Agent the Mutual Life Ins. Co.

Oahu College

Punahou Preparatory School HONOLULU, H. I.

These Schools open for the New Year September 9, 1889.

The faculty of Oahu College will be the same as last year. The Friend says: "We think that there has never been an abler faculty at Oahu College, or one better adapted to impart a high classical and scientific education."

The Boarding Department can accommodate but few more than were in attendance last year, and all who desire to enter should make an early application.

The Preparatory School continues under the Principalship of Miss Malone; Miss Carrie A. Gilman takes Miss Chamberlain's position, the latter having resigned to remove to the United States.

The Trustees are happy to announce that, through the generous interest of a friend, they are erecting a new building and remodeling the present one, so that this school will occupy new and commodious quarters in September. When thus equipped we believe the Preparatory School will offer opportunities second to none in the Kingdom.

NATURE'S LAW.

Caucasian vs. Mongolian.—Hawaii's Mechanics in Council.

Pursuant to preconcerted arrangement a meeting was held last evening, at Knights of Pythias Hall, of mechanics and others who sympathize with a movement to call a halt in the further unconditioned introduction of Chinese into the Kingdom, and also to place restrictions in the way of trade licenses on those already here.

Long before the hour mentioned for the opening of the expected interesting occurrences the hall was filled with an excellent representative element of the master-mechanics of the city. At the time set for commencing Mr. T. R. Lucas mounted the rostrum and stated that the object intended was simply and solely in accord with the first law of Nature, self-preservation for the white mechanics and working men of the country, against the unequal Chinese competition now extant, the remedy being in a re-convention of the Legislature in extra session and the introduction of an amendment to the Constitution.

On the call for nominations for president, Mr. Emmeluth and Mr. T. R. Lucas were proposed, and Mr. Emmeluth declining Mr. Lucas was elected by acclamation. After several nominees had declined the honor Mr. Frank Godfrey was nominated for secretary and he, stating that he was not pledged to any sect or party but would willingly act for the benefit of all (paraphrasing the BULLETIN motto), was unanimously elected.

Business of the hour was then proceeded with immediately, Hon. W. A. Kinney being the first speaker. He said, in brief, that he was heart and soul in the proposed movement; he had been misunderstood in the past through occurrences the result of which he could not have foreseen and the circumstances of which he was unable to control. He well knew the injurious insinuations made against him and had endeavored by open public statement to obtain a public and specific accusation, none had been made, none could be made. He urged upon his hearers the necessity of united action in the furtherance of the proposed measures and pointedly alluded to the opportunity offered all mechanics and others, of all shades of political opinion, to unite in securing the submission to the people of a Chinese constitutional amendment without further delay. This could only be done by opening the doors of the Legislature and effort should be made to have that accomplished at once. Delays were dangerous and to wait for the regular session was a false hope towards the accomplishment of the desired purpose. He believed the Government were interested in the question and that they would not throw any obstacles in the way of the wish of the people.

Rev. S. E. Bishop, being called on, said he had rather imperative reasons why he should not take part in the debate. Mr. Emmeluth said he also was heartily in favor of the movement. He looked backward over events and had concluded that those who had stood in the front ranks of the Reform movement had got badly left. The bone and sinew had been placed in the bouillon by the action of their elected representatives on the Chinese question at the last Legislature. The man most conspicuous to post-ponement action on that measure was the man most anxious to get the father of the bill out of the country in time, and he had succeeded. He considered the future prospects of the mechanic element in this country, so bad, that, although all he owned in the world was here, if these proposed measures failed to pass in the Legislature, he was willing to immediately sell at a great sacrifice and get out quickly. The speaker made a telling point on the native interest in the matter by referring to the Kamehameha School and picturing the prospects in store for the young capable tradesmen there turned out and who would have to come in contact with Chinese competition. He claimed that the present movement had nothing to do with the incoming election, this being merely one of absolute and necessary self-protection.

Dr. Tucker was not well posted; had come in to feel the pulse, as it were, of the people on the question. Was in favor of the proposed measures as he understood them. The mechanics had no idle complaint. He did not speak in hatred of the Chinese, but it was a well known fact that no white man could successfully compete with a Chinese. Mr. J. F. Bowler was a master mechanic; knew that the Reform movement of June 30th was a farce and had noticed it particularly in matters pertaining to payment of his own just claims. He advocated stringent measures against the Chinese. In China, where he had been, the white mechanic, even with capital, had no chance against "John." The speaker made a ringing speech in favor of hearty and united action in the matters under consideration. Mr. Lishman heartily endorsed that which had been said by former speakers on the subject. It was well known that the whites as a rule had to compete with Chinese single men, no family ties, no anything to raise them from their level. No men of family could live on the pittance which Chinese obtained for their labor or profit. The incoming Chinese should be stopped; the United States had commenced restrictive measures; in the Colonies it was a fact accomplished. Mr. Gonsalves was pleased, satisfied and agreed with what had been said on the subject. He was in favor of restrictive measures. Mr. Herriek had been in business for years. Was formerly a member of the Anti-Asiatic Society; the idea had been choked in the Legislature but it was not dead by any means; it showed at present evidence of being a very lively corpse in the near future. He had a family here, had several children, wished to educate them properly, but it was a heavy and hard drain to compete with a Chinaman at a dollar per day when his own family expenses alone were $5 per day. He wished to pay his bills and do honest and square by every one, but he was sorry to say that those who should do so had not been honest with the white mechanic. The planter and capitalist had come out squarely and said if you can't compete with the Chinese then you must go to the wall. There seems to be no brilliant future here for any children while the present conditions of Chinese cheap labor exist. He did not wish to growl against the Government, but the least he could say was that he was disappointed with them.

J. W. Gibbs was a painter, a master mechanic, he had had experience of the competition of Chinese labor. Several of the Waikiki residences bore evidences of Chinese handiwork. He thought the movement should be pushed without delay. Get the Legislature together and then we will see what we will see. John Sullivan was anxious to drive the Chinese out, and Mr. Evans agreed that they should go. Mr. Thos. Wright made a sort of composite speech, of hard and soft metal. Favored the speeches made, endorsed 75 per cent. of what Government had done; did not oppose planters having Chinese labor but would prefer that at expiration of contract all Chinese laborers be sent from the country and not allowed to enter into competition with white mechanics.

Hon. W. E. Foster was only a listener, but would agree with Mr. Kinney. He would vote against a Chinaman on next opportunity. Frank Gertz thought there were three things that stood pretty well by the country, viz.: lantana, rice-birds, and the Chinese. All these were injurious to interests here, lantana to sugar planters, rice-birds to white mechanics and workingmen. Hon. Frank Brown when opportunity came, if Legislature was convened, would show his vote in favor of an anti-Chinese amendment. On motion a resolution was adopted by which all present agreed to further the interests of the cause and, after the appointment of a special committee consisting of Messrs. Emmeluth, McDonald, Herriek, Thos. Wright and Godfrey for special work, the orderly assembly adjourned until this evening at the same place and hour.

ON THE New Free Tontine Policy

EQUITABLE LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY OF THE UNITED STATES

A SIMPLE PROMISE TO PAY.

[From the NEW YORK TIMES, June 22, 1889.]

The Equitable Life Assurance Society has adopted a new form of policy which, like a bank draft, is a simple promise to pay without conditions on the back.

[From the CHICAGO INVESTIGATOR.]

Always on the alert, and ever anxious to give the public the most advantageous contract in life insurance, the Equitable Life Assurance Society of New York has, in the past, made many advances on old methods, and has been the means to liberalize life insurance in a greater degree, perhaps, than any other organization. It is not at all surprising, therefore, that this great company now comes before the people with a new contract, the like of which has not before been known in life insurance.

[From the KENTUCKY REGISTER, Richmond, Ky., June 28, 1889.]

The Equitable Life Assurance Society has, in the past, done more to create and maintain confidence in life insurance than any other company. Consequently its business is larger than that of any of its competitors. Furthermore, it has now taken a step which practically sweeps every objection of the character referred to out of the way. The result, undoubtedly, will be that thousands of men who have heretofore lacked confidence in life insurance, will examine the new policy offered by the Equitable, and assure their lives forthwith.

[From the BOSTON POST.]

This company has done more than any other to simplify the assurance contract, and to maintain public confidence in life insurance.

[From the PACIFIC UNDERWRITER, San Francisco, July 1, 1889.]

The Equitable has already established a world-wide reputation for liberal dealings with its policy-holders and for its prompt settlement of all legitimate claims against it, and this new policy cannot fail to enhance its reputation for enterprise and progressiveness in dealing with the subject of life insurance.

Mother
Seigel's OPERATING PILLS, FOR CONSTIPATION,
SLUGGISH LIVER, ETC.

UNLIKE many kinds of cathartic medicines, do not make you feel worse before you feel better.
Their operation is gentle, but thorough, and unattended with disagreeable effects, such as nausea, griping pains, &c.
Seigel's Operating Pills are the best family physic that has ever been discovered. They cleanse the bowels from all irritating substances, and leave them in a healthy condition.
The best remedy extant for the bane of our lives—constipation and sluggish liver.
These Pills prevent fevers and all kinds of sickness, by removing all poisonous matter from the bowels.
They operate briskly, yet mildly
without any pain.
If you take a severe cold, and are threatened with a fever, with pains in the head, back and limbs, one or two doses of Seigel's Operating Pills will break up the cold and prevent the fever.
A coated tongue, with a brackish taste, is caused by foul matter in the stomach. A few doses of Seigel's Operating Pills will cleanse the stomach, remove the bad taste, and restore the appetite, and with it bring good health.
Often times diseased, or partially decayed food, causes sickness, nausea and diarrhea. If the bowels are cleansed from this impurity with a dose of Seigel's Operating Pills, these disagreeable effects will vanish, and good health will result.
Seigel's Operating Pills prevent ill-effects from excess in eating or drinking. A good dose at bedtime renders a person fit for business in the morning.
These Pills, being Sugar-coated, are pleasant to take. The disagreeable taste common to most pills is obviated.
