JOURNALISM.

The Reporter on a Cosmopolitan Journal and His Duties.

JOURNALISM, H. C., City.—There is no school in San Francisco in which journalism is taught.

A correspondent in his communication writes: "If there is no such school what is the best method for a person who wishes to write articles for publication and yet feels the need of instruction in the routine or discipline to acquire the necessary knowledge?" No better answer can be furnished than that given by an Eastern journalist when asked a similar question by an intending journalist. It was as follows:

"There are hundreds of just such young men who have some 'literary and journalistic ability,' who try their hand in the field of literature and journalism only to fall short of the looked-for eminence and compensation. Even with the talent the correspondent thinks he possesses he will, it is likely, find the way to a position in the literary world beset with a thousand difficulties, which nothing but the closest attention and the most unremitting toil will remove. Take a reporter, for instance. A reporter's duties are so numerous and varied that only the most careful reader of a daily journal can appreciate the many-sided character of the service. Here is a paper with the hasty history of the day. We find politics, city and county affairs, military matters, religious conventions, Government news, social events, criminal notes, interviews, articles on special topics, court proceedings, market reports, marine intelligence, sporting news (such as baseball, cricket, races, both running and trotting, archery contests, pedestrianism, football, handball, sprinkled with commencement exercises), railroad subjects, together with the almost endless record of the day; the music and dramatic criticisms, the great range of correspondence, and so on ad infinitum. Nothing is said and nothing can be given of the way this news is obtained, the short time to prepare long and important articles for the columns of the paper for the next morning; nothing of the reporter as a detective, critic, judge of evidence or of his discrimination as to the value of news. These things come to the newspaper man only after prayer and fasting—sometimes a great deal of the latter. If any young man with journalism in his eyes thinks he could cut any sort of figure beside other men who are up' in these several branches, why, he has probably a better opinion of himself than a city editor would have after a month's trial. A reporter's work is done when it is finished; in other words, it is never done. To-morrow will be the same as to-day; it may be late to-night and early in the morning. His work is on public exhibition every day. It is compared with the work of accomplished journalists at every edition of his paper. When the reporter writes his paper speaks. He is unknown; his personality is hidden. With all other work the laborer receives the credit. With a reporter the paper he represents is the gainer, and of course to a certain extent he, too. But the work is the wheel, moving round and round until the tire comes off, or the hub weakens or the spokes break or the axle gives way; then a new wheel is at hand to take its place. Reporters are gentlemen of intelligence, good social position, well read, hardworking, inventive, shrewd, of unusual culture, and yet are generally indifferently well paid. On the monetary side the profession is not attractive. It is not easy to secure employment without experience in the many duties journalism entails." — S. F. Call.

President Kruger and Dr. Leyds.

RAISING HIS DANDER.

It is interesting to note that, according to reports from Pretoria, Mr. Kruger has been compelled to take a very high hand in dealing with Dr. Leyds and his party. This party is said to have been determined upon a demonstration at Paardekraal, and upon the cancellation of the convention with Great Britain. Mr. Kruger opposed and forbade the demonstration. The Hollanders, however, declared their determination to carry out their program. The following conversation is then reported to have taken place:

Mr. Kruger—If you attempt anything of the sort I will have 3000 armed burghers in Pretoria in two days to support the Government.

Dr. Leyds—And I will get 10,000 burghers in two hours to declare for independence.

Mr. Kruger—Then I shall be compelled to call upon the British Government for protection.

The last argument clinched the matter, and Dr. Leyds and his party are said to have retired beaten but sulky. As a consequence it was remarked that Dr. Leyds was not present at the recent banquet to His Honor the President, nor at the Paardekraal festival. It would seem, in fact (says "South Africa") that the belief of the Hollanders is that they have mounted on the back of the Boers and may now ride them.

Buffalo Beer has proved its immense popularity at the Royal, Pacific and Cosmopolitan Saloons. The celebrated Pabst is also retained there in draft or in bottle. The interchangeable check system that has proved such a convenience to the patrons of these popular resorts is also in vogue.

INNOCENTS AT WAIKIKI.

Mr. J. B. Castle has seen fit to instruct his organ, the P. C. Advertiser, to send a reporter to Waikiki to interview Mr. J. B. Castle and other officials now quarantined in accord with the rules of the Board of Health.

Mr. Castle's organ is very witty and very indiscreet. In fact it shows that Mr. Castle and his advisers are a lot of asses and make a remarkable display of idiocy in the remarks published in the Advertiser.

The men at the Castle quarantine station deny that they ever violated the rules of the Board of Health. They are ready to prove that the quarantine of the officials has been kept in the strictest manner possible.

They admit that some of the quarantined men did go out in a canoe and get capsized, and eventually landed on the property of a private citizen. They admit that two of the quarantined men did shake hands with certain girls in a bicycle party last week. They admit that Minister Cooper has been spinning his wheel outside the quarantined premises and that the yellow flag was removed from the guarded grounds. But they most decidedly deny that any rules of the Board of Health have been violated. It is really too bad for our injured innocents at Waikiki to be misrepresented by the Brown and the press. Castle demands the resignation of Brown. Doyle wants Brown to climb a tree, and in his refined manner declares his intention of sending his "scab" to Brown.

Would it not be wise for the clever sextette at Waikiki to keep on their chemises and not challenge the sentiments of the public too often. Even the innocents abroad may some day run against a snag, and don't you forget it, Mr. Castle of the Advertiser.

Cricket To-morrow.

A cricket match had been arranged for to-morrow afternoon between a combined team of the Wild Swan and Honolulu against a joint team from the U. S. Ships Philadelphia, Marion and Petrel under the captaincy of Lieut. Plunkett of the Petrel. Unfortunately the Petrel has orders to sail at 8 o'clock to-morrow morning so that the game has to be deferred. In its place another match will be played between the Wild Swan and Honolulu at the old Recreation grounds, commencing at 2 o'clock. Colonel Fisher has very kindly loaned a large tent and extended other courtesies.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Denies the Authorship.

HONOLULU, April 15, 1897.

PROFESSOR W. T. BRIGHAM,
Dear Sir:—I have read an article which appeared in the Boston Herald and the New York Sun.

The credit of the statements contained in the article referred to is given to yourself.

Your political opinion you are entitled to, and you may give utterance to your bitterness on that subject as often as and in any way that you may deem fit. But, when you carry incorrect personalities into your political statements, it is time to cry "Halt!"

In the published interview you are reported to have made statements regarding the Hawaiian royal family, which you must or should know to be false. That such untruthful statements can be allowed to pass unnoticed you surely will not expect.

The living members of the Hawaiian royal family, whom you are reported as so grossly attacking and insulting are at present absent from these islands. They are not here to themselves demand redress.

I deem it to be my duty to draw your attention to the published interview, a newspaper clipping of the article is enclosed for your perusal.

I trust that you may be able at once to contradict the report, both in the public press here and in the papers in Boston and New York which originally printed it.

I remain,

Yours respectfully,
JAMES W. ROBERTSON.

HONOLULU, April 16, 1897.

MR. JAMES W. ROBERTSON,
Dear Sir:—I know nothing of the pretended interview of which you send me a clipping. I have neither written to a newspaper abroad for two years, nor have I been in the Eastern States since last July, and then carefully refrained from talking politics.

Outside of the United States I do not remember meeting anyone who cared whether the Hawaiian Islands were above or below the surface of the ocean.

The alleged interview is perhaps a royalist plot to throw discredit on me who never meddle in politics. It is perhaps like the story of the attempt to assassinate Mrs. Dominis.

I have long since given up all attempts to correct newspapers, and when they make misstatements I let them pass, nobody cares for them—and they are soon forgotten.

Yours truly,
WM. T. BRIGHAM.

HONOLULU, April 20, 1897.

PROFESSOR W. T. BRIGHAM,
Dear Sir:—I acknowledge the receipt of your note of the 17th inst., in reply to mine of the 15th inst., which I received this day.

I thank you for the full explanation which you have made, concerning the matter of that reported interview.

I presume that you will not object to my publishing your letter.

I remain,

Yours respectfully,
JAMES W. ROBERTSON.

The Proposed Hospital.

ED. THE INDEPENDENT:—

To obtain such it should be a question with which only the Government of this country deal—for the reason that since the Faculty and Trustees of the Queen's Hospital have laid down the law that incurables may not be admitted, and as these incurables are of all nationalities stranded or born on our shores they are the wards of the nation and should be cared for by the same principle which causes the Government to take care of lepers.

Incurable! throw him out? The question arises what to do with him—a philanthropic person sees him in the gutter and like the Levite of old passes to the other side, because the Faculty and Government call him unclean "Man's inhumanity to man makes countless millions mourn," and therefore private charity should not be called upon to do the work and duty of the Government. A proper hospital to be named Queen Victoria's Memorial Ward might be added to the present hospital and large incidental and continual expenses would thereby be saved. This ward should be the care of trustees created for that purpose with the distinct understanding that only trustees, subjects of Great Britain can act; but empowered with discretion that when there is vacancy in the ward any person of other nationalities who is deserving and worthy may be admitted in their discretion.

Since the meeting last night a fuller and freer discussion has been had between, many British subjects who do not feel they can speak in a public meeting. Mr. Young's magnificent gift served to some extent as a cloture on free discussion, but the above thoughts outline fully the sense of opinions expressed, and I have not the least doubt that if after mature deliberation on the part of the general committee, it is decided to make proper representations to the Government, we will find Mr. Young there with both feet same as he was last night, because in working out details it will be found that serious obstacles will be in the way of the motion as it now stands.

W. F. REYNOLDS.

Honolulu, April 22, 1897.

At N. S. Sachs' is the place to find stylish and artistic Millinery.

At the Royal Saloon there is a constant rush for the celebrated beer which George Hawkins taps. "Bob" French, the nestor of Honolulu's mixologists is now in the Royal Saloon where he greets his hosts of friends with his affable smile of welcome.

The Anchor Saloon has the only original Seattle book beer on tap. This superior beer was received by the Warrimoo and will be the drink of the hour during the next two months. Paddy Ryan claims that it was want of book beer which made Pompador succumb to the Australian Kangaroo. The original "book" is invigorating, healthy and refreshing.

A Mysterious Mission.

The Government leaves no stone unturned in its efforts to secure annexation. The dispensers of public funds have sent half a dozen missionaries to Washington and are prepared to send others. The departure yesterday of Jim Dodd is very significant. Jim goes to Washington on a special mission and the "Enterprising" ambassador will probably accomplish more than the "high-toned" crowd now doing the pretty at McKinley's Court. Whether Jim Dodd gets annexation or a cable is hard to tell, his Enterprise will be here, however.

A Puzzled Parent.

THE MYSTERIOUS "IT."

Will somebody please tell me what "it" is?

I am parent to a small boy who is educating himself. His method is the direct opposite to that usually followed in schools. Instead of answering questions he asks them. I pass (or fail to pass) an examination at each meal. I usually fail.

My present difficulty is with "it." That boy discovered the other day that "it" rains. That didn't bother him very much. But when "it" snowed a couple of weeks later, he wanted to know who this versatile individual "it" was. He had me.

He became more mystified than ever when he learned that "it" hailed, that "it" froze, that "it" also thawed, and that "it" was time. Mystification grew into wonder when he found that "it" was day and also night, that "it" was moonlight, and that "it" was noon. He gave up in despair when he discovered that "it" could grow warmer or colder.

And I shall give up in despair unless some one reconstructs this English language of ours and abolishes "it" altogether.

She—"Precious, did you give me this beautiful wheel because you love me?" He—"No, darling; I gave it to you because I am tired of lending you mine."

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

Is Mr. Rowell ever going to remove that lumber pile from the sidewalk on Konia street alongside of E. B. Thomas' yard? Thomas says he will not, and the public is inconvenienced simply to aid a Government official in showing off mean and contemptible spite against THE INDEPENDENT for calling attention to his incapacity and folly.

We deem it manifestly unfair that while the Hawaiian Tramways Co. is doing its part of the work in the repairs to King street now going on out Lele way, and while waiting for the Government to push along the main part of macadamizing the street, that carriages, hacks, wagons, drays, horsemen, and so on ad libitum should be permitted to use the track portion, which, by the time the main part is finished, will need further repairs. This is written not in the interest of the corporation, but in that of fair play to all concerned.

Mr. James W. Robertson formerly chamberlain to Queen Liliuokalani and the husband of a sister to Princess Kaiulani has written a letter to Mr. W. T. Brigham which appears in another column of this issue together with the answer of Mr. Brigham. The professor denies that he ever made the statements published in the Boston Herald and re-published in the columns of the New York Sun. His letter of denial will be forwarded to the two journals mentioned and we shall await their answers with interest. There is a lie somewhere, and as it cannot possibly be on the part of the virtuous Brigham, who asserts that he doesn't care for "newspapers," the blame must fall on the Boston Herald which invented the interview and took the professor's name in vain.

A taxpayer wants to know who paid for the two busses that took the members of the band out to serenade Mr. Dole this morning, one drawn by four mules and the other by two horses? And may we further ask—Is this a monarchy or a republican government? Why did Mr. Dole employ prison labor in the recent erection of a flag-pole on his residence site at Emma street? Now in order to be in the snobbish swim, why not clothe the Cabinet Ministers, and so forth, in uniform with gold lace and trimmings, as well as with brass buttons? It is now in order Whoop her up! (Our correspondent wants to know too much. Let the taxpayers pay for the busses, Dole's flag-pole and the uniforms of the Ministers. What are the taxpayers good for anyhow?)

There are numerous people living in town who do not know anything about the wonderful improvements which are taking place in the immediate vicinity of the old city. It will well pay the trouble and expense to any one to take a ride on the new Queen street road through the Kewalo district recently opened by Bruce Waring & Co. The new road is excellent and the lake is very picturesque, especially when the boys of the cosmopolitan population of the district are gambling in the clear waters of the Cyclomere. The beach road is also in a fair condition and furnishes the finest drive or ride in Honolulu. The last section of the road at the Waikiki end is now being finished and the road will be completed in a few weeks. May we suggest the planting of trees along the new road? Start with the Algeroba and eventually more ornamental trees will grow. If trees are planted now the beautiful sea road will be unequalled and the drive along the beach on a shady road will be one of the trump cards of Honolulu to play to tourists. What has become of Thurston's "improvement club," and what has become of Thurston?

"What part of speech is egg?" "Noun, sir." "What is its gender?" "Don't know till its hatched."

BASEBALL.

To-morrow the League Season Opens With the Regiments and the Stars.

To-morrow afternoon the crowds will once again begin to rush down to the baseball grounds for the season. The opening game of the League Schedule will be between the Stars and the Regiments teams and a strong and close game may be expected. The opinions of experts on the result differs considerably as both teams have strong backers, but the trend of popular opinion appears to be that the Regiments have a very strong team and will come very close to the pennant at the end of the season even if they do not actually carry it off from the Stars.

The following is a list of players: Stars—Hart, p.; Cuna, c.; Woods, 1b.; Koki, 2b.; Wilder, 3b.; Lishman, ss.; Babbitt, rf.; Pahau, cf.; Ross, lf.

BY POLICE AT CALLAO.

Inquiry here confirms the story coming from Lima to the effect that the State Department has lodged a demand with the United States charge of legation at Lima for the release of the mate of the American bark "Uncle John." He was ashore on December 19 last at Callao, and was arrested because of his constant demand for "Rainier Beer." On tap or in bottles at the Criterion Saloon.

Low priced articles are not always cheapest. Closing out and clearance sales are usually made up of goods priced 75 percent above selling value and double what they are worth. The cut down does not make them cheap, it's the advertisement. Inspection often proves the quality. Our store has been for years headquarters for good values—it makes no difference whether it is for a spool of thread or a silk dress pattern. Once we have had a clearance sale but it was to rid our shelves of an accumulation of old goods. They were sold for what they were worth and the people were satisfied with their bargains. If we put new goods on our shelves to-day and to-morrow tell you that we would sell them at prices below cost you would imagine there was something wrong in us or the goods. Our prices are right so are the goods.

W. W. DIMOND'S

If the Jewel stove had not met with popular favor in Honolulu, we would not have ordered the second time. Since we opened business in our present quarters, less than fourteen months ago, we have sold 400 Jewel stoves. By the W. H. Dimond which arrived on Thursday, we received 120 of different sizes. It constitutes one car load direct from the factory; another lot will be here in a week.

This is without exception, the greatest fuel saver that has ever been imported to the Islands. The JEWEL is made on the best stove principles and saves money to the purchaser. They are low in price and made to wear—every piece of the stove may be duplicated and in this way it will last forever. It is cheaper to buy a single casting than a whole stove.

We sell them for cash, allowing 5 percent discount. We also sell them, as before on the contract system, the purchaser paying one-third in cash, the balance in five equal monthly payments.

TELEPHONE TO HIS DOG.

Now Tom Reynolds Has to Be Mighty Careful, or He'll Lose the Dog.

Tom Reynolds of Reynoldsville, was in town this week. Tom has an intelligent dog, which was sent to him from Australia and of which he is very fond. The dog is also badly infatuated with Tom, who has a telephone in his house. Tom has taught the dog to understand that the machine can talk by holding the receiver to the dog's ear. On several occasions while Tom has been away he called up his residence and had the dog brought to the 'phone, when he would talk to the canine in such soothing language as to fill the canine with delight. He would, of course, recognize his master's voice, and make all sorts of demonstrations of joy. About two weeks ago Tom brought the dog to Punxsutawney, and while here talked over the 'phone to his friends at home. He also permitted his dog to listen. From this the dog got the idea that there were only two 'phones in existence—one at his home and the other at the Hotel Waverly in Punxsutawney, as the circumstance about to be disclosed will abundantly prove:

Last Saturday Mr. Reynolds came to Punxsutawney, and called up the dog at home as usual. The dog barked and whined and made a great ado, all of which could be heard over the wire.

About an hour afterward, just as Tom was about to leave, judge of his surprise to see his dog come bounding into the hotel! He had run fourteen miles in less than an hour.

Now Tom says that, as the dog is firmly of the impression that there is but one other telephone box in the country besides the one in his house, he will not dare to talk to the dog from any other point, because if he does that dog will start immediately for the Waverly Hotel, Punxsutawney, expecting to find him there.

A New Bullet.

The British War Department was much disturbed to find that the stopping powers of the bullet of their service rifle, the Lee-Metford, is so feeble that in the Chitral campaign the soldiers lost confidence in their weapons. The bullet had great penetrative power, but a great many of the tribesmen hit by it advanced as though untouched, and it comparatively seldom caused instant death. One tribesman who had been hit by six bullet was treated in hospital, and made a quick recovery. Steps were soon taken by the War Department to devise a more destructive missile, and experiments have been made with a bullet having a metal-covered point made thin, with a lead core slightly exposed. While the flight of the bullet through the air is not interfered with, as it strikes an object it spreads out, and has almost the terrific power of laceration of the explosive bullet. A French officer has endeavored to make a compromise between these two forms of projectiles by inventing a bullet having the maximum power of disabling and the minimum power of killing. It is made of paper, with a thin shell of aluminium. It has the same precision as the ordinary bullet, but produces a perfectly smooth wound. The Austrian War Office is now making trials of the invention.

A fine assortment of Children's Trimmed Easter Hats can be found at N. S. Sachs'.

Ned Doyle at the Cosmopolitan is recommending the celebrated Putnam's Blackberry Brandy, a tonic which is unrivalled, assisted by Jim Thompson formerly of the S. S. Australia an excellent "half and half" is served to the thirsty customers of the Cosmopolitan.

There is on exhibition at the Pacific Saloon an excellent picture of Mr. Murderer Butler with his autograph signature. It is worth looking at the features of the monster and at the same time wash down a natural shiver with a glass of Buffalo beer, served at the right temperature by the modest young men who hold up the corner.

JOURNALISM.

The Reporter on a Cosmopolitan Journal and His Duties.

JOURNALISM, H. C., City.—There is no school in San Francisco in which journalism is taught.

A correspondent in his communication writes: "If there is no such school what is the best method for a person who wishes to write articles for publication and yet feels the need of instruction in the routine or discipline to acquire the necessary knowledge?" No better answer can be furnished than that given by an Eastern journalist when asked a similar question by an intending journalist. It was as follows:

"There are hundreds of just such young men who have some 'literary and journalistic ability,' who try their hand in the field of literature and journalism only to fall short of the looked-for eminence and compensation. Even with the talent the correspondent thinks he possesses he will, it is likely, find the way to a position in the literary world beset with a thousand difficulties, which nothing but the closest attention and the most unremitting toil will remove. Take a reporter, for instance. A reporter's duties are so numerous and varied that only the most careful reader of a daily journal can appreciate the many-sided character of the service. Here is a paper with the hasty history of the day. We find politics, city and county affairs, military matters, religious conventions, Government news, social events, criminal notes, interviews, articles on special topics, court proceedings, market reports, marine intelligence, sporting news (such as baseball, cricket, races, both running and trotting, archery contests, pedestrianism, football, handball, sprinkled with commencement exercises), railroad subjects, together with the almost endless record of the day; the music and dramatic criticisms, the great range of correspondence, and so on ad infinitum. Nothing is said and nothing can be given of the way this news is obtained, the short time to prepare long and important articles for the columns of the paper for the next morning; nothing of the reporter as a detective, critic, judge of evidence or of his discrimination as to the value of news. These things come to the newspaper man only after prayer and fasting—sometimes a great deal of the latter. If any young man with journalism in his eyes thinks he could cut any sort of figure beside other men who are up' in these several branches, why, he has probably a better opinion of himself than a city editor would have after a month's trial. A reporter's work is done when it is finished; in other words, it is never done. To-morrow will be the same as to-day; it may be late to-night and early in the morning. His work is on public exhibition every day. It is compared with the work of accomplished journalists at every edition of his paper. When the reporter writes his paper speaks. He is unknown; his personality is hidden. With all other work the laborer receives the credit. With a reporter the paper he represents is the gainer, and of course to a certain extent he is, too. But the work is the wheel, moving round and round until the tire comes off, or the hub weakens or the spokes break or the axle gives way; then a new wheel is at hand to take its place. Reporters are gentlemen of intelligence, good social position, well read, hardworking, inventive, shrewd, of unusual culture, and yet are generally indifferently well paid. On the monetary side the profession is not attractive. It is not easy to secure employment without experience in the many duties journalism entails."—S. F. Call.

President Kruger and Dr. Leyds.

RAISING HIS DANDER.

It is interesting to note that, according to reports from Pretoria, Mr. Kruger has been compelled to take a very high hand in dealing with Dr. Leyds and his party. This party is said to have been determined upon a demonstration at Paardekraal, and upon the cancellation of the convention with Great Britain. Mr. Kruger opposed and forbade the demonstration. The Hollanders, however, declared their determination to carry out their program. The following conversation is then reported to have taken place:

Mr. Kruger—If you attempt anything of the sort I will have 3000 armed burghers in Pretoria in two days to support the Government.

Dr. Leyds—And I will get 10,000 burghers in two hours to declare for independence.

Mr. Kruger—Then I shall be compelled to call upon the British Government for protection.

The last argument clinched the matter, and Dr. Leyds and his party are said to have retired beaten but sulky. As a consequence it was remarked that Dr. Leyds was not present at the recent banquet to His Honor the President, nor at the Paardekraal festival. It would seem, in fact (says "South Africa"), that the belief of the Hollanders is that they have mounted on the back of the Boers and may now ride them.

Buffalo Beer has proved its immense popularity at the Royal, Pacific and Cosmopolitan Saloons. The celebrated Pabst is also retained there in draft or in bottle. The interchangeable check system that has proved such a convenience to the patrons of these popular resorts is also in vogue.

INNOCENTS AT WAIKIKI.

Mr. J. B. Castle has seen fit to instruct his organ, the P. C. Advertiser, to send a reporter to Waikiki to interview Mr. J. B. Castle and other officials now quarantined in accord with the rules of the Board of Health.

Mr. Castle's organ is very witty and very indiscreet. In fact it shows that Mr. Castle and his advisers are a lot of asses and make a remarkable display of idiocy in the remarks published in the Advertiser.

The men at the Castle quarantine station deny that they ever violated the rules of the Board of Health. They are ready to prove that the quarantine of the officials has been kept in the strictest manner possible.

They admit that some of the quarantined men did go out in a canoe and get capsized, and eventually landed on the property of a private citizen. They admit that two of the quarantined men did shake hands with certain girls in a bicycle party last week. They admit that Minister Cooper has been spinning his wheel outside the quarantined premises and that the yellow flag was removed from the guarded grounds. But they most decidedly deny that any rules of the Board of Health have been violated. It is really too bad for our injured innocents at Waikiki to be misrepresented by the Brown and the press. Castle demands the resignation of Brown. Doyle wants Brown to climb a tree, and in his refined manner declares his intention of sending his "scab" to Brown.

Would it not be wise for the clever sextette at Waikiki to keep on their chemises and not challenge the sentiments of the public too often. Even the innocents abroad may some day run against a snag, and don't you forget it, Mr. Castle of the Advertiser.

Cricket To-morrow.

A cricket match had been arranged for to-morrow afternoon between a combined team of the Wild Swan and Honolulu against a joint team from the U. S. Ships Philadelphia, Marion and Petrel under the captaincy of Lieut. Plunkett of the Petrel. Unfortunately the Petrel has orders to sail at 8 o'clock to-morrow morning so that the game has to be deferred. In its place another match will be played between the Wild Swan and Honolulu at the old Recreation grounds, commencing at 2 o'clock. Colonel Fisher has very kindly loaned a large tent and extended other courtesies.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Denies the Authorship.

HONOLULU, April 15, 1897.

PROFESSOR W. T. BRIGHAM,
Dear Sir:—I have read an article which appeared in the Boston Herald and the New York Sun.

The credit of the statements contained in the article referred to is given to yourself.

Your political opinion you are entitled to, and you may give utterance to your bitterness on that subject as often as and in any way that you may deem fit. But, when you carry incorrect personalities into your political statements, it is time to cry "Halt!"

In the published interview you are reported to have made statements regarding the Hawaiian royal family, which you must or should know to be false. That such untruthful statements can be allowed to pass unnoticed you surely will not expect.

The living members of the Hawaiian royal family, whom you are reported as so grossly attacking and insulting are at present absent from these islands. They are not here to themselves demand redress.

I deem it to be my duty to draw your attention to the published interview, a newspaper clipping of the article is enclosed for your perusal.

I trust that you may be able at once to contradict the report, both in the public press here and in the papers in Boston and New York which originally printed it.

I remain,

Yours respectfully,
JAMES W. ROBERTSON.

HONOLULU, April 16, 1897.

MR. JAMES W. ROBERTSON,
Dear Sir:—I know nothing of the pretended interview of which you send me a clipping. I have neither written to a newspaper abroad for two years, nor have I been in the Eastern States since last July, and then carefully refrained from talking politics.

Outside of the United States I do not remember meeting anyone who cared whether the Hawaiian Islands were above or below the surface of the ocean.

The alleged interview is perhaps a royalist plot to throw discredit on me who never meddle in politics. It is perhaps like the story of the attempt to assassinate Mrs. Dominis.

I have long since given up all attempts to correct newspapers, and when they make misstatements I let them pass, nobody cares for them—and they are soon forgotten.

Yours truly,
WM. T. BRIGHAM.

HONOLULU, April 20, 1897.

PROFESSOR W. T. BRIGHAM,
Dear Sir:—I acknowledge the receipt of your note of the 17th inst., in reply to mine of the 15th inst., which I received this day.

I thank you for the full explanation which you have made, concerning the matter of that reported interview.

I presume that you will not object to my publishing your letter.

I remain,
Yours respectfully,
JAMES W. ROBERTSON.

The Proposed Hospital.

ED. THE INDEPENDENT:—

To obtain such it should be a question with which only the Government of this country deal—for the reason that since the Faculty and Trustees of the Queen's Hospital have laid down the law that incurables may not be admitted, and as these incurables are of all nationalities stranded or born on our shores they are the wards of the nation and should be cared for by the same principle which causes the Government to take care of lepers.

Incurable! throw him out? The question arises what to do with him—a philanthropic person sees him in the gutter and like the Levite of old passes to the other side, because the Faculty and Government call him unclean "Man's inhumanity to man makes countless millions mourn," and therefore private charity should not be called upon to do the work and duty of the Government. A proper hospital to be named Queen Victoria's Memorial Ward might be added to the present hospital and large incidental and continual expenses would thereby be saved. This ward should be the care of trustees created for that purpose with the distinct understanding that only trustees, subjects of Great Britain can act; but empowered with discretion that when there is vacancy in the ward any person of other nationalities who is deserving and worthy may be admitted in their discretion.

Since the meeting last night a fuller and freer discussion has been had between, many British subjects who do not feel they can speak in a public meeting. Mr. Young's magnificent gift served to some extent as a closure on free discussion, but the above thoughts outline fully the sense of opinions expressed, and I have not the least doubt that if after mature deliberation on the part of the general committee, it is decided to make proper representations to the Government, we will find Mr. Young there with both feet same as he was last night, because in working out details it will be found that serious obstacles will be in the way of the motion as it now stands.

W. F. REYNOLDS.

Honolulu, April 22, 1897.

At N. S. Sachs' is the place to find stylish and artistic Millinery.

At the Royal Saloon there is a constant rush for the celebrated beer which George Hawkins taps. "Bob" French, the nestor of Honolulu's mixologists is now in the Royal Saloon where he greets his hosts of friends with his affable smile of welcome.

The Anchor Saloon has the only original Seattle bock beer on tap. This superior beer was received by the Warrimoo and will be the drink of the hour during the next two months. Paddy Ryan claims that it was want of bock beer which made Pompadour succumb to the Australian Kangaroo. The original "bock" is invigorating, healthy and refreshing.

A Mysterious Mission.

The Government leaves no stone unturned in its efforts to secure annexation. The dispensers of public funds have sent half a dozen missionaries to Washington and are prepared to send others. The departure yesterday of Jim Dodd is very significant. Jim goes to Washington on a special mission and the "Enterprising" ambassador will probably accomplish more than the "high-toned" crowd now doing the pretty at McKinley's Court. Whether Jim Dodd gets annexation or a cable is hard to tell, his Enterprise will be here, however.

A Puzzled Parent.

THE MYSTERIOUS "IT."

Will somebody please tell me what "it" is?

I am parent to a small boy who is educating himself. His method is the direct opposite to that usually followed in schools. Instead of answering questions he asks them. I pass (or fail to pass) an examination at each meal. I usually fail.

My present difficulty is with "it." That boy discovered the other day that "it" rains. That didn't bother him very much. But when "it" snowed a couple of weeks later, he wanted to know who this versatile individual "it" was. He had me.

He became more mystified than ever when he learned that "it" hailed, that "it" froze, that "it" also thawed, and that "it" was time. Mystification grew into wonder when he found that "it" was day and also night, that "it" was moonlight, and that "it" was noon. He gave up in despair when he discovered that "it" could grow warmer or colder.

And I shall give up in despair unless some one reconstructs this English language of ours and abolishes "it" altogether.

She—"Precious, did you give me this beautiful wheel because you love me?" He—"No, darling; I gave it to you because I am tired of landing you mine."

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

Is Mr. Rowell ever going to remove that lumber pile from the sidewalk on Konia street alongside of E. B. Thomas' yard? Thomas says he will not, and the public is inconvenienced simply to aid a Government official in showing off mean and contemptible spite against THE INDEPENDENT for calling attention to his incapacity and folly.

We deem it manifestly unfair that while the Hawaiian Tramways Co. is doing its part of the work in the repairs to King street now going on out Leleo way, and while waiting for the Government to push along the main part of macadamizing the street, that carriages, hacks, wagons, drays, horsemen, and so on ad libitum should be permitted to use the track portion, which, by the time the main part is finished, will need further repairs. This is written not in the interest of the corporation, but in that of fair play to all concerned.

Mr. James W. Robertson formerly chamberlain to Queen Liliuokalani and the husband of a sister to Princess Kaiulani has written a letter to Mr. W. T. Brigham which appears in another column of this issue together with the answer of Mr. Brigham. The professor denies that he ever made the statements published in the Boston Herald and republished in the columns of the New York Sun. His letter of denial will be forwarded to the two journals mentioned and we shall await their answers with interest. There is a lie somewhere, and as it cannot possibly be on the part of the virtuous Brigham, who asserts that he doesn't care for "newspapers," the blame must fall on the Boston Herald which invented the interview and took the professor's name in vain.

A taxpayer wants to know who paid for the two busses that took the members of the band out to serenade Mr. Dole this morning, one drawn by four mules and the other by two horses? And may we further ask—Is this a monarchy or a republican government? Why did Mr. Dole employ prison labor in the recent erection of a flag-pole on his residence site at Emma street? Now in order to be in the snobbery swim, why not clothe the Cabinet Ministers, and so forth, in uniform with gold lace and trimmings, as well as with brass buttons? It is now in order Whoop her up! (Our correspondent wants to know too much. Let the taxpayers pay for the busses, Dole's flag-pole and the uniforms of the Ministers. What are the taxpayers good for anyhow?)

There are numerous people living in town who do not know anything about the wonderful improvements which are taking place in the immediate vicinity of the old city. It will well pay the trouble and expense to any one to take a ride on the new Queen street road through the Kewalo district recently opened by Bruce Waring & Co. The new road is excellent and the lake is very picturesque, especially when the boys of the cosmopolitan population of the district are gambling in the clear waters of the Cyclomere. The beach road is also in a fair condition and furnishes the finest drive or ride in Honolulu. The last section of the road at the Waikiki end is now being finished and the road will be completed in a few weeks. May we suggest the planting of trees along the new road? Start with the Algeroba and eventually more ornamental trees will grow. If trees are planted now the beautiful sea road will be unequalled and the drive along the beach on a shady road will be one of the trump cards of Honolulu to play to tourists. What has become of Thurston's "improvement club," and what has become of Thurston?

"What part of speech is egg?" "Noun, sir." "What is its gender?" "Don't know till its hatched."

BASEBALL.

To-morrow the League Season Opens With the Regiments and the Stars.

To-morrow afternoon the crowds will once again begin to rush down to the baseball grounds for the season. The opening game of the League Schedule will be between the Stars and the Regiments teams and a strong and close game may be expected. The opinions of experts on the result differs considerably as both teams have strong backers, but the trend of popular opinion appears to be that the Regiments have a very strong team and will come very close to the pennant at the end of the season even if they do not actually carry it off from the Stars.

The following is a list of players: Stars—Hart, p.; Cunha, c.; Woods, 1b.; Koki, 2b.; Wilder, 3b.; Lishman, ss.; Babbitt, rf.; Pahau, cf.; Ross, lf.

First Regiment—Hennessy, p.; Riley, c.; Moore (captain), 1b.; Davis 2b.; Gorman, 3b.; Bower, ss.; O'Conner, rf.; Duncan, cf.; Luahiwa, lf. Chas. Mayne, substitute and change pitcher.

Low priced articles are not always cheapest. Closing out and clearance sales are usually made up of goods priced 75 percent above selling value and double what they are worth. The cut down does not make them cheap, it's the advertisement. Inspection often proves the quality. Our store has been for years headquarters for good values—it makes no difference whether it is for a spool of thread or a silk dress pattern. Once we have had a clearance sale but it was to rid our shelves of an accumulation of old goods. They were sold for what they were worth and the people were satisfied with their bargains. If we put new goods on our shelves to-day and to-morrow tell you that we would sell them at prices below cost you would imagine there was something wrong in us or the goods. Our prices are right so are the goods.

W. W. DIMOND'S

If the Jewel stove had not met with popular favor in Honolulu, we would not have ordered the second time. Since we opened business in our present quarters, less than fourteen months ago, we have sold 400 Jewel stoves. By the W. H. Dimond which arrived on Thursday, we received 120 of different sizes. It constitutes one car load direct from the factory; another lot will be here in a week.

This is without exception, the greatest fuel saver that has ever been imported to the Islands. The JEWEL is made on the best stove principles and saves money to the purchaser. They are low in price and made to wear—every piece of the stove may be duplicated and in this way it will last forever. It is cheaper to buy a single casting than a whole stove.

We sell them for cash, allowing 5 percent discount. We also sell them, as before on the contract system, the purchaser paying one-third in cash, the balance in five equal monthly payments.

Mr. W. W. Dimond

TELEPHONE TO HIS DOG.

Now Tom Reynolds Has to Be Mighty Careful, or He'll Lose the Dog.

Tom Reynolds of Reynoldsville, was in town this week. Tom has an intelligent dog, which was sent to him from Australia and of which he is very fond. The dog is also badly infatuated with Tom, who has a telephone in his house. Tom has taught the dog to understand that the machine can talk by holding the receiver to the dog's ear. On several occasions while Tom has been away he called up his residence and had the dog brought to the 'phone, when he would talk to the canine in such soothing language as to fill the canine with delight. He would, of course, recognize his master's voice, and make all sorts of demonstrations of joy. About two weeks ago Tom brought the dog to Punxsutawney, and while here talked over the 'phone to his friends at home. He also permitted his dog to listen. From this the dog got the idea that there were only two 'phones in existence—one at his home and the other at the Hotel Waverly in Punxsutawney, as the circumstance about to be disclosed will abundantly prove:

Last Saturday Mr. Reynolds came to Punxsutawney, and called up the dog at home as usual. The dog barked and whined and made a great ado, all of which could be heard over the wire.

About an hour afterward, just as Tom was about to leave, judge of his surprise to see his dog come bounding into the hotel! He had run fourteen miles in less than an hour.

Now Tom says that, as the dog is firmly of the impression that there is but one other telephone box in the country besides the one in his house, he will not dare to talk to the dog from any other point, because if he does that dog will start immediately for the Waverly Hotel, Punxsutawney, expecting to find him there.

A New Bullet.

The British War Department was much disturbed to find that the stopping powers of the bullet of their service rifle, the Lee-Metford, is so feeble that in the Chitral campaign the soldiers lost confidence in their weapons. The bullet had great penetrative power, but a great many of the tribesmen hit by it advanced as though untouched, and it comparatively seldom caused instant death. One tribesman who had been hit by six bullet was treated in hospital, and made a quick recovery. Steps were soon taken by the War Department to devise a more destructive missile, and experiments have been made with a bullet having a metal-covered point made thin, with a lead core slightly exposed. While the flight of the bullet through the air is not interfered with, as it strikes an object it spreads out, and has almost the terrific power of laceration of the explosive bullet. A French officer has endeavored to make a compromise between these two forms of projectiles by inventing a bullet having the maximum power of disabling and the minimum power of killing. It is made of paper, with a thin shell of aluminium. It has the same precision as the ordinary bullet, but produces a perfectly smooth wound. The Austrian War Office is now making trials of the invention.

A fine assortment of Children's Trimmed Easter Hats can be found at N. S. Sachs'.

Ned Doyle at the Cosmopolitan is recommending the celebrated Putnam's Blackberry Brandy, a tonic which is unrivalled, assisted by Jim Thompson formerly of the S. S. Australia an excellent "half and half" is served to the thirsty customers of the Cosmopolitan.

There is an exhibition at the Pacific Saloon an excellent picture of Mr. Murderer Butler with his autograph signature. It is worth looking at the features of the monster and at the same time wash down a natural shiver with a glass of Buffalo beer, served at the right temperature by the modest young men who hold up the corner.
