BOERS AND BRITONS.

Pretoria Reported to be Captured and the Forces of the Transvaal said to be demoralized.

LONDON, May 30, 2 a.m.—The Daily Mail publishes the following dispatch from the Earl of Rosslyn, who was a civilian prisoner at Pretoria, and who appears to have been released:

Pretoria, May 30, 11 40 a.m.—Pretoria will be occupied in about two hours without resistance. The President has gone to Watervalbover.

The burgomaster, De Sousa, is authorized to receive the British. He, with an influential committee of citizens, including Chief Justice Gregorowski, has been appointed to preserve life and property during the interregnum.

Everything is quiet, but crowds are waiting expectantly in Church Square for the arrival of the British.

Fearing possible disturbance and bloodshed among the prisoners of war at Watervalle, the U. S. Consul and Vice Consul Wood insisted upon 20 officers being liberated on parole to go to the mem. Their action cannot be too highly praised.

I was permitted to accompany the officers. Everything was quiet."

LONDON, May 31, 3 a.m.—Yesterday at noon the British were only about two hours' march from Pretoria, and the Boer military forces had abandoned the city. This intelligence comes from the Reuter agent at the Transvaal capital, and from the Earl of Rosslyn in a press dispatch. The two messages left about the same time. At 2 o'clock this morning the War Office had received no news from Lord Roberts which the officials would make public, but it is assumed that the press advices are correct. Most of the morning papers, through the courtesy of the Daily Mail, print Lord Rosslyn's dispatch, and comment upon it, treating the war as ended.

Some of the more cautious critics think that guerilla warfare is likely to be carried on for some time to come, in various parts of the conquered territory. All the Boer forces are dissolving.

Lord Roberts apparently has not yet taken quantities of artillery arms or stores. Large bodies of Boers must still be somewhere in the field. Watervalbover is 150 miles due east of Pretoria on the Delagoa Bay railway. It should not be confused with Waterval, ten miles north of Pretoria, where the British prisoners are confined. Watervalbover is a small place in a mountainous country.

The seat of the Boer Government what there is left of it—will probably be at Lydenburg, to the north.

A dispatch from Lourenzo Marquez, dated Wednesday, says: Commandant Kraus has surrendered Johannesburg to Lord Roberts. By tonight's train from Pretoria arrived a few Greeks, who say they were told to leave Pretoria Tuesday. They affirm that the train on which they left was shelled by the British, and that half of the train was cut off, the remainder steaming away.

This incident probably occurred at Elandsfontein Junction. Passengers from Pretoria assert that the town is utterly demoralized. There is a mad rush for the coast. Five trainloads of fugitives are expected tonight.

South African War News Briefly Told

Lord Roberts reports that the British troops are in possession of Johannesburg.

In London it is rumored that President Kruger has been captured near Pretoria, but the British War Office has not received any information on the subject.

Lord Rosslyn's dispatch announcing the imminent fall of Pretoria has been confirmed.

THE SPECIAL SESSION.

When Mr. Dole's organ mildly states that a special session may possibly be called for certain specific purposes it is easy to see that Mr. Dole is up to his old tricks and has a card up his sleeve. It sounds very easy to say that it may be advisable to call an extra session for a specific purpose when the organic law for the territory makes no mention of specific purposes being necessary for the calling of a special session. The following provision appears in Section 14 of the said law: "That the Governor may, in his discretion, on thirty days' notice, order a special election before the first general election, if, in his opinion, the public interests shall require a special session of the legislature."

That is certainly plain enough to show that if Mr. Dole can run his gang in at a special election by taking the voters unaware, his legislature will do his bidding, and not confine itself to any specific purposes.

Mr. Dole, according to his own organ, is not sure that he will call a special session and yet his government has written to parties on the other islands asking them to act as Board of Registrations for a special election which may be called at any moment.

The scheme is very transparent indeed. It is a clumsy attempt to take the Hawaiians by surprise, to open books of registration and close them before the voters have a chance to get their breath and to hold an election which will result in the return of willing tools of Mr. Dole, who—dear innocent as he is—only wants a special session for a specific purpose. He can't fool the people all the time, however, and this is one of the times when he will get haka. Honolulu is all right, of course, but it behooves the leaders of the Independent and Democratic parties to be on the qui vive and ready to act on the day the election proclamation is issued.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

The 11th of June will be celebrated for the last time on Monday by independent Hawaii. How many happy memories are connected with that great national holiday, the annual day of joy and festivities, the day when the demand for leis exceeded the supply and every old horse was pressed into service for the journey to the race track at Kapiolani Park. Whoop it up on Monday, for the last time in independent Hawaii.

Honolulu "Society" is the most peculiar aggregation we have ever run across. The latest fad was the Hogan coons at whose shrine men and women belonging to Society (with a capital S) burned incense and succeeded in making unmitigated fools of themselves. But after all Honolulu Society (with a capital S) felt at home perhaps when in company with rag-time artists. The Hogan musical repertoire was at least up to the musical taste of Honolulu. We don't blame the coons. They had lots of fun and will advertise the jay town and Honolulu Society (with a capital S).

Editor Thurston is playing his cards on the table when he pointed out yesterday that Mr. Dole will defy the territorial senate if it refuses to endorse his appointments and will simply wait until the Legislature adjourns and then place his creatures in office subject to the endorsement of the Senate which is to meet two years hence. We are glad that Dole has shown his hand, but he and his editor may not rest under the impression that we were unprepared for the move. We will "see" him and go him one better by suggesting that the Legislature make simply a nominal appropriation for the salaries of officials whose appointments the senate will not endorse. We hardly think Mr. Rowell will take a job at $100 a year. Come again, Brother Advertiser.

Foreign Troops May Be Opposed at the First Gate of Peking.

TIEN TSIN, May 31.—A special train started for Peking this afternoon with the following forces: Americans, 7 officers and 56 men; British, 3 officers and 72 men; Italian, 3 officers and 39 men; French, 3 officers and 72 men; Russian, 4 officers and 71 men; Japanese, 2 officers and 24 men. The foreign contingent also took with them five quick-firing guns.

It is rumored that foreign troops will be opposed at the first gate of the Chinese capital, outside the wall.

As the Russians were nearing the forts yesterday in boats the Chinese opened fire and the Russians retreated. It now appears that the Chinese were only firing a gun salute in honor of a mandarin who was on board a Chinese warship.

PEKING, May 31.—At 2:30 a. m. today the foreign envoys received the reply of the Tsung-li-Yamen to their ultimatum of yesterday, calling upon the Chinese authorities to consent to the landing of a force of marines to come to Peking to guard the legations. The ultimatum fixed 6 a. m. to-day as the hour at or before which the reply must be forthcoming.

The Tsung-li-Yamen agreed to withdraw opposition to the coming of the guards.

A Great Improvement.

At the request of the special agent of the Treasury department the government will at once begin the erection of an addition to the Post office. The addition will be in the empty lot mauka of the main building, and the Executive Council has empowered Minister Young to call for tenders without delay. The expense incurred will undoubtedly be refunded to the territory by the federal government in due time.

For the Primaries.

The Merchant's Exchange laid in a fine stock of necessary material for the holding of the primaries, and conventions. Try the superfine liquors kept on hand for the consumption of customers and you will come out a winner. No charges to those who belong to the right party.

Do Your Joints Pain You?

A slight indefinite pain in the joints is the first sign of Rheumatism. Then come the aching pains and tenderness, the agonizing cramps, the fever and restlessness that characterize this disease.

When you feel the first slight pain, begin to take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and the progress of the disease will be arrested. Neglect this and you will regret it.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are a Positive and Permanent Cure for Rheumatism.

This remedy expels impurities from the blood, and supplies the material for rapidly rebuilding wasted nerve tissues. It has performed hundreds of almost miraculous cures in severe cases of Rheumatism, many times after doctors had given up hope. Read this sworn statement:

"In 1890 I was taken with rheumatism, which began in my hips and gradually spread throughout my body. For two years and a half I was confined to my bed; employed none of the best physicians in Albany, and two specialists from New York city. They all declared my case hopeless, and finally told me that I had but six weeks to live. I told them to take their medicine away; that if I were to die I should take no more of the stuff.
My niece, who through her friends knew of the good results attending the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, strongly recommended them. She procured the pills and by the time I had used the first box I felt hungry. Having had no appetite for a long time, I knew that the pills were doing me good. I continued their use, and after taking several boxes was able to leave my bed and go about with the use of crutches. I weighed but 130 pounds. As my normal weight is about 240 pounds, you can see how run down I had become during my sickness. After taking thirteen boxes of the pills I was weighed again, and although less than a year had passed I weighed 207 pounds. I continued the use of the pills and finally was able to abandon the crutches altogether, and am now as well as ever."

President Dole States Why One May Be Called

President Dole said yesterday that he was considering the necessity of calling a special session of the Legislature. He said that he was not certain that such a call would be issued, but that preparations were being made to expedite the matter if the necessity became apparent. "There are several things that seem to urge the early meeting of such a body," said President Dole yesterday. "Among them are the enactment of sanitary laws. The Board of Health is limited by its position and assumes that it cannot go beyond certain limits in this direction. The Board has done all that is within its jurisdiction, but certain building and plumbing regulations have still to be attended to. The losses in Chinatown can only be handled by the Legislature. The losers in the sanitary fires want relief and it seems that in justice to them this relief should not be delayed too long.

"The Legislature if called, will undoubtedly act on appointments of officials made by me. I am considering these appointments now and will probably announce the bulk of them before June 14."—P. C. A.

Bicycles on the Curb.

Under the heading "Exceeds Authority," the Advertiser enters a complaint because James Pickett, a special police officer stationed at the Criterion ordered a man to remove his bicycle from the curb where it had been left while the rider was in the saloon. Pickett simply obeyed orders. Colonel McCarthy, the owner of the Criterion, sometimes ago built a shed adjoining his saloon with stalls for bicycles to the number of more than a dozen. This was done for the accommodation of the riders who patronize the place and the move was highly appreciated. It is fraught with danger to allow bicycles standing against the curbs and Mr. McCarthy witnessed an accident outside the Criterion which fortunately resulted only in a broken wheel and a runaway. A rider had left his wheel along the curb while he was inside the saloon. A hack drove up and at the same time a strong gust of wind blew the wheel over and into the horse which became scared and unmanageable. The horse smashed the wheel and ran up Fort Street, and was fortunately caught before further damages had been done.

Mr. McCarthy decided then to erect stalls for bicycles and did so at considerable expense, he losing $25 a month alone for the premises on which they stand.

We presume that the complainant against Pickett is an Advertiser man who didn't know enough to put his bicycle in its proper place.
