NEW APPOINTMENTS.

Captain John Ross has this day been appointed Assessor for Honolulu, and Mr. Jona. Austin, Registrar of Deeds.

GEORGE W. DE LONG POST, G. A. R.

At a regular meeting of Geo. W. DeLong Post, G. A. R., held last night, the subject of petitioning Congress to pass a new pension bill, granting $12 per month to all who served more than three months in the army and navy of the United States, during the late war, and who are now totally disabled, from whatever cause, except their own vicious habits, was very thoroughly discussed, pro and con, and resulted in a vote to adopt the resolution. If this bill passes Congress, it will relieve a large number of worthy veterans who are now wards of their respective towns or cities.

AN ELOPMENT.

Mr. Geo. Farr, purser of the steamer Kilanea Hou, tells of an elopement at Paahau last week. A native man, says George, having become infatuated with a buxom Japanese girl, proposed to the waddling creature that they, the twain, fly to the mountains and be at rest. They flew on the wings of the wind, and their cooling re-echoes through the woods.

DEATH BY ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING.

By the steamer W. G. Hall this morning, news of accidental death of Charlie Davidson, a half Chinese lad of 16 years, was received. The young man was a student at Lahalauna Seminary and, on the 2nd of this month, while shooting doves, he was killed by an accidental explosion of his gun. He had shot one of the birds and was parting the bushes with the stock of his gun, so as to reach the game, when the second barrel was discharged into his abdomen. Friends ran to his assistance, but could get no word from him. He lived but a few minutes and his demise was apparently without pain. The remains were interred in the Lahalauna cemetery the next day. Charles Davidson belonged to Hana, Maui. He was a bright lad, and had a brilliant prospect before him. He was an orphan, both his parents having died some time ago, and was being brought up by Mr. Davidson of Lahaina.

A WATER CONTROVERSY.

A dispute about water was brought before His Honor the Police Justice this morning, for adjudication. The offending party, a Chinaman, was at first charged with "larceny of water," but this was afterwards changed to "sacrilegious injury," inasmuch as he diverted water from an aawai contrary to law. The plaintiff, a half white, gave a detailed history of his water rights on his property at Kalihi, and also related how he missed his water on the night of the 11th July, and on going in search of the cause he found the defendant diverting the water from its lawful course on to the land he leased, hence the present suit. Mr. Kinney assisted the plaintiff to prove his case, while Mr. Achi aided the Chinaman to assert his rights. The differences were not settled at 2 p. m.

G.), Con. G. Johnson, I. G. E. R. Miles, R. S. S. J. Mills, L. S. S. W. E. Rowell (P. G.), R.S.N.G.

S. Savidge (P. G.), L. S. N. G. A. K. Weir, R. S. V. G. J. A. McKenzie (P. G.), L.S.V.G. A. Mackintosh, Chaplain. Under the head of "Good of the Order," a vote of thanks was passed to the retiring Noble Grand, P. Butler, and other officers.

ANOTHER RUNAWAY.

Last evening between 4 and 5 o'clock the people on Queen street, between Fort street and the Hawaiian Carriage Manufacturing Co.'s building, were startled by seeing a dray drawn by two horses come dashing down the road, and dragging a man under the forward wheels. A Portuguese was heroically hanging on to the heads of the horses, endeavoring to stop them. When the team got about opposite the Carriage Co.'s shop quite a crowd had gathered in the street to barricade the further progress of the runaways, but Mr. Schumann succeeded in getting hold of one of the disengaged reins and with the assistance of the gallant Portuguese succeeded in stopping the team. The by-standers then extricated the man caught under the wheels (by the way a Chinaman) who did not seem much hurt by his perilous ride. Too much praise cannot be given to the Portuguese who so gallantly risked his life to save that of another. The Chinaman was taken in charge of some of his countrymen to a physician. Frank Ferreira is the name of the Portuguese. This is about the fourth runaway he has stopped.

SUPREME COURT—JULY TERM.

AT CHAMBER—BEFORE PRESTON, J.

TUESDAY, July 12th.

In re Gustav Mellid, of the German bark Cerastes, on habeas corpus. Paul Neumann for petitioner; petitioner in person; the Attorney-General for the Marshal, who appeared with the prisoner in charge. The case had been continued from the previous day to admit of the attendance of the German Consul, which favor was acknowledged by Mr. Glade. The Court opines that the offense as set forth is not one for which application for arrest should be made; that it is not such as to call for the aid of the local authorities; that the mere intention to desert the vessel is not what the Court should take cognizance of. The prisoner was accordingly discharged. Mr. Neumann interpreted the decision into German.

G. C. Akina et al. vs. Goo Yoo, alias Goo York. W. O. Smith for plaintiff; C. Brown for defendant. Bill of complaint for the discovery and disclosure of all transactions in a partnership, etc. Return day. Answer filed. Henry Smith was appointed Master, the hearing to be arranged on the filing of his report, a stipulation to this effect being filed.

In the case of J. T. Waterhouse vs. Nawahine et al., a verdict was rendered for plaintiff for $291.93. WEDNESDAY, July 13th. Mary K. Tibbetts vs. W. C. Parke, administrator, assumpsit. Defendant consents to entry of judgment for plaintiff. W. O. Smith for plaintiff; Jona. Austin for defendant. The Court sat in Banco this afternoon hearing the case of Aekerman vs. Congdon—action on demurrer.

POLICE COURT.

WEDNESDAY, July 13th.

Levi Kaawa was charged with carnally abusing a female child. Plea, not guilty. The charge was laid under Sect. 2, Chap. XI of the Penal Code which reads as follows: "Whoever ravishes or carnally abuses and knows any female child under the age of ten years, shall suffer the punishment of death or imprisonment at hard labor for life, in the discretion of the Court." Defendant's counsel, Mr. Achi, made an application for a remand until Tuesday next, which was granted.

Albert Bray and Mahana were charged with larceny of 2 doz. beer, valued at $3 per doz. Plea, not guilty. Remanded until to-morrow.

FORAGING ON THE ALTAR.

When General Martinez of Mexico was fighting against Maximilian he and his soldiers were in the habit of taking what they wanted from the people, even going so far as to levy on the treasures of the churches. One day the sacristan of a certain church found two of the soldiers from the army of Martinez on their knees before the altar of Our Lady of Guadalupe. The shrine was covered with coins and jewels placed there by devotees on offering up prayers for the safety of absent ones, or in gratitude for deliverance from some peril. And one of the "macheberos" was praying like this: "My dear holy lady! I'm a poor boy. I've been in the army a year, and I haven't made anything so far. I've a very poor family. They may be starving. I'm obliged to take some of these precious things. If I have good luck in robbing some other place I'll return these." So saying he arose from his knees, walked up and coolly swept the shrine of the valuables.—[N. Y. World.]

SEISMIC PHENOMENA.

New York, June 27.—In an interview on earthquakes with a Tribune reporter Professor Newberry of Columbia College said: "To your question as to whether there was any connection between the shocks experienced in Southern Europe and Western Asia and those of Charleston and Mexico, I decidedly answer in the negative. An earthquake is the result of the contraction of the earth's crust, caused by loss of heat through radiation. A line of mountains is a line of weakness and as the process of contraction is always going on there will always be earthquake shocks somewhere along the mountain chains. Now, a volcano is the result of matter being thrust upward from the molten interior. I believe that there is now in existence a line of volcanic action from Sierra Madre to Arizona which runs from Sonora into Arizona. The group of mountains in Arizona are, I believe, volcanoes, and far from extinct. Mount Taylor in New Mexico is in the same category. "With regard to your idea of a

THE INDUSTRIAL SOUTH.

New York, June 28.—State Treasurer Burke of Louisiana, in a long interview concerning the industrial South, says: "The growth of the South has been steady and rapid the past ten years. By improved cultivation of the soil, a diversification of crops and better labor, the value of the crops for the last seven years has increased $152,000,000; live stock the same period increased $247,000,000; fruit and garden crops $13,000,000, and sawmill and forest products $22,000,000. Cotton still reigns, but is only one-third of the South's agricultural yield. The development of her mineral resources has given manufacturing a healthy increase, which, from 1880 to January 1st last, showed as follows: Factories, 13,600; capital in factories, $192,500,000; hands, 172,300; products, $213,900,000. Georgia has the greatest increase in manufactures and Florida the least. Bear in mind that the total increase of products of the farm, live stock, fisheries and manufactures in the South for the past six years has been $552,000,000, or 36 per cent, with an increase of only 17 per cent in population; also that we have gained in assessed values in seven years $933,000,000. We have raised a very good crop of boys since the little unpleasantness ended, some twenty-four years ago. They are hammering iron, making buckets and tubs, and mastering the agricultural implements you kindly sent to our Exposition, instead of spending their time uselessly. I don't think they will have to make wooden nutmegs. They are hard at work. In twenty-one industrial schools we have 3,000 boys receiving industrial training and hope soon to increase the number to 100,000. Every little rebel's new crop is arming to fight for the industrial independence of the South. He is not afflicted in the slightest with a sentiment of disloyalty to the old flag. On the contrary, a patriotic feeling is growing in him. These boys have discovered that the South has Bessemer ores enough to supply the market with cheap American steel, and patriotic instincts prompt them to look forward to the time when they will fortify the country, build up a navy and reduce the surplus. By the time this new crop of boys is turned loose in the forests and on the iron hills, their papas, with the present rate of increase, will have money to build them shops and buy them tools and machinery, and then there will be trouble for manufacturers over the border."—[S. PERU'S DEBT.

New York, June 28.—W. R. Grace & Co. has just received from London the particulars of an agreement consummated May 26th in London between Sir Henry W. Tyler, Gerald A. Oillard and Michael P. Grace, the committee of Government bondholders, and Dr. Don José Aranaibar, Attorney-General and Special Commissioner of Peru, by which Peru is relieved of her foreign indebtedness and put upon a new and easy financial footing. The debt is assumed by the company to be formed by the Commission, which gets from Peru for sixty-six years ten value of the railroads and the discovered and undiscovered guano rights of the Peruvian Government to the 50 per cent of 1,000,000 tons of guano dealt with by the treaty of peace between Chile and Peru; a further concession of 120,000 pounds per year from customs duties at Molleto and Payta as long as 120,000 pounds a year is not received for two consecutive years from the Ryand guano concession; the perpetual right to work the coal mines along the Chimboite and Huaraz Railway, with the reservation of 15 per cent net profit; the Government right to work the Cinnor mines, and exclusively for fifty years in the province of Huancavelica, with a reservation of 15 per cent net profit to the Government; the perpetual right to condemn and work 100 or more mines of gold, silver, copper, lead or other minerals, and to sub-mine, with a reservation payable to the Government; a concession of 400,000 acres of land, to be selected in five years; an additional 400 acres to every family introduced into Peru; the right of navigation and other concessions.—[S. F. Bulletin.]

volcano to the southeast of Charleston, that is based upon the indubitable fact that many shocks traveled from the southeast to the northwest, though a great majority were from other points, I have considered that fact and have come to the conclusion that the one cause which has certainly contributed to disturb the static equilibrium of the earth crust is to be found in the deposition upon the sea bottom of sedimentary layers caused by erosions. As these accumulate they not only impose new burdens upon the underlying rocks, but by acting as blankets and preventing the escape of the heat they promote the softening of the sea bottom, which yields to the lateral pressure and is forced up in a series of folds. I have no doubt this is one of the causes of the earthquake vibrations which have been so frequent along our Atlantic Coast.

SIGNIFICANT FACTS.

New York, June 11.—The Republican Club was organized as a sort of social and political foil to the Union League, and though it has been in existence comparatively a short time, the Republican Club has achieved a success which, perhaps, justifies its ambitious claim that it is already a power in city and States politics, and that at the next Republican National Convention that power will be felt in the nomination of the candidate for President. Hence when such a body openly declares for Blaine on the very day following the departure of that statesman to Europe the circumstance is naturally contemplated by political students as something of considerably more significance than simply the curious coincidence, and when the club's committee on National Affairs now comes squarely out in favor of Blaine's nomination, the inference is that the proceeding has not been taken without his approval, and that, by consequence, all doubt as to his willingness to accept a renomination, if tendered to him, may be dismissed. The old foxes at the Union League Club, who are leaning towards Sherman, Evarts and Edmunds, do not like a proceeding of this kind at this time, and they do not hesitate to say so. They characterize it as inappropriate, injudicious and a mischievous manifestation of youthful indiscretion, which may yet be provocative of serious trouble within the Republican family here. But what is done, is done, and the antique reynards of the Union League have no choice but to make the best or the most of it.

Why am I so Miserable?

So weak and languid? Why such headaches and pains in the stomach, such acidity, and such an unpleasant taste in the mouth? Why at times such a gnawing appetite, and then again such distaste for food? Why is the mind so frequently irritable, desponding, un-cheerful, and dejected? Why does one often feel under the apprehension of some imaginary danger, and start at any unexpected noise, becoming agitated as though some great calamity was impending?
What is the meaning of these dull, sick headaches; the violent palpitations of the heart, the feverish restlessness, these night sweats; this disturbed and dreamy sleep, which brings no refreshing rest, but only moanings and mutterings; and the horrors of the nightmare?

The answer is: These are the symptoms of Indigestion or Dyspepsia—the beginning and the forerunner of almost every other human disease. Indigestion is a weakness or want of power of the digestive fluids of the stomach to convert the food into healthy matter for the perpetuation of the body. It is caused most frequently by the irregularity of diet, or impure or too warm and greasy food, and particularly when it may be induced by mental distress—the shock of some great calamity. It may be, and often is, aggravated and intensified, if not originally brought on, by exhaustion from intense mental application, physical overwork, domestic troubles, anxiety in business, or financial embarrassments. If the stomach could always be kept in order, death would no longer be a subject of anxiety to the young and middle-aged, but what would be contemplated by all as a visit of an expected friend at the close of a peaceful and happy old age.
However, the first step towards the recovery of health and happiness is Indigestion.

Is there any relief, any remedy, any cure? That is the question of the suffering and unhappy dyspeptic. What is wanted is a medicine that will thoroughly renovate the stomach, liver, and kidneys, and afford speedy and effectual assistance to the digestive organs, and restore to the nervous and muscular systems their original energy.
Such a medicine is to be had. Never in the history of medical science, evidenced by a dozen years' successful use, has there been found a remedy for Indigestion so speedy, so sure and so surprising in its results as Siegel's Curative Syrup, which is sold and readily for that almost universal affection in every civilized country in Europe, Asia, Africa and America. Public testimonials and private letters from military officers, bankers, merchants, captains, mechanics, farmers, and their wives and daughters, alike confirm its curative powers.

Dear Sir:—Your Siegel's Syrup I find has an increasing sale in this neighborhood, and shall always do my best to further the sale of an article that every one that purchases speaks highly of in favor. I also have great satisfaction in saying that I quite believe my wife was had suffered intensely by some time previous to talking it. Faithfully yours,

Dear Sir:—I hope that your Siegel's Syrup and Pills may get the sale they so well deserve. I had a very delicate child, a boy now over nine years, but being averse to eating any kind of vegetable or food from his birth, I began giving him Mer Siegel's Curative Syrup, and after a few weeks he recovered so as to be able to consume as much food as other boys of his age, and to the great astonishment of his neighbors, he is lively, getting into flesh, and thriving as well as boys of his age do. We give all the credit of his recovery to Siegel's Syrup. Yours faithfully,

WEDNESDAY, JULY 13, 1887.

GENERAL BOUNDING.

It is very evident that the Government of France is fearful of Boulanger, and has ordered him away from Paris on account of the regard in which he is held by the populace of that city. The great national festivals and a grand review of the troops are to take place in July, and it was doubtless feared that his presence would tempt the people into demonstrations in his favor and against Germany.

As indicative of this apprehension the statement is made that the police have confiscated the entire issue of a picture representing Boulanger as the savior of France, which had been prepared for distribution during the festivals.

But the fact is that the Grevy Government is not half so fearful of war with Germany as it is of Boulanger himself. Grevy knows full well the fickle nature of his people and their almost fanatical admiration of military heroes, and he fears lest Boulanger may become a popular idol and seize the reins of government for himself, to the destruction and downfall of the republic.

From this standpoint it would not make any special difference whether a war with Germany under Boulanger's management were successful or not. If France should triumph, Boulanger would get the glory of the victory, and his power would be supreme; if the war should result in defeat for the French arms, the people would lay the whole blame on the Government and imperatively demand that a man of affairs be called to the helm of the ship of state, and the man would be Boulanger.

President Grevy and the Administration have taken the only possible precaution against a coup d'etat—that of removing General Boulanger from Paris. Away from the capital his influence is diminished, and he is surrounded by a very different class of people from the mercurial Parisians. No one is more conservative or harder to stir up than the French peasant and landed proprietor. He will fight just as well as anybody when he gets started, but he is slow in making up his mind and in getting into motion.
Paris is the home of revolutions, and with Boulanger away tranquility is practically assured.

These remarks proceed upon the assumption that Boulanger himself would consent to allow his movements to be directed by the people of Paris; but there is no certainty that he would consent to any such thing. Thus far he has given no sign of any disposition or desire to overturn the republic or to assume any unwarranted authority. He could certainly have made matters very uncomfortable at the time of the recent change of the Cabinet, but he did not do so. He accepted the situation like a good citizen and obeyed orders like a good soldier.

While it is true that President Grevy should be better able to judge his character than any one outside of France can be, it is not impossible that he has allowed his fears to outrule his judgment, and that his banishment of Boulanger was entirely uncalled for and unnecessary.

PUBLIC SPEAKERS AND REPORTERS.
The public do not know how much public speeches are "touched up" by the reporters. Even the most accomplished speaker, through excitement or want of words or because of interruptions, occasionally loses the sequence of his argument and repeats himself breaks off before his sentence is completed.
When the reporter writes out his report he is expected to "make sense" of it. One of our local aldermen got out of favor with the reporters by complaining that he had never said the things placed to his credit or discredit. We had no right, he maintained, to comment on his speeches when we only gave garbled instead of verbatim reports of them. So the reporters, who had put themselves to some trouble to translate his disjointed remarks into intelligible English, agreed to report him verbatim next time. He never wanted another verbatim report, and it cannot be pleasant to him to know that many of his friends preserve that one. —[St. James Gazette.

TO MAKE A HAPPY HOME.
1. Learn to govern yourselves,

2. Guard your temper, especially

4. Remember that, valuable as is the gift of speech, the gift of silence is often much more valuable.
5. Do not expect too much from others, but remember that all have an evil nature, whose developments we must expect, and which we should forbear and forgive, as we often deserve forbearance and forgiveness ourselves.

word. It is the second word that makes the quarrel.

THE NEW CRUISERS.

New York, June 28.—Speaking concerning the construction of new cruisers for the navy, Secretary Whitney says one will be constructed at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, but whether the 6,000-ton one he could not say. He also says: "In my experience the Chicago, fully manned, will not get off on a trial trip until she has been in the Brooklyn Yard about three months. If the ship is put in commission it will take the officers about that time to get the cabin ready. I want the Chicago tried as soon as possible. No more ships will be put in commission until after they are tried."

One of the good results of the Haymarket riot in Chicago is the passage by the present Legislature of Illinois of a law making members of Socialist societies guilty of any crime abetted by the organization.
