DEBAUCHERY.

Candor compels the admission that the so-called free liquor law has not improved the social, moral, or religious condition of Honolulu. The congregating together of crowds of people, of all ages and both sexes, in and around drinking saloons, fostering habits of intemperance and indulging in foul and debasing language, is merely one aspect of the question, and that one perhaps not the worst. The amount of private drunkenness, with a whole train of attendant vices, practised in certain localities, is said to be something enormous. The neighborhood north of the fish market, between King Street and the sea beach, also the neighborhood back of old Liberty Hall, known as Kikihale, have, among others, been indicated as nests of wickedness, where drunkenness, debauchery, quarreling, fighting, and other immoralities are almost nightly occurrences. These localities being somewhat outside of ordinary police surveillance, are the scenes of practices and proceedings not usually enacted in the more public parts of the city, and, according to our informants, their degradation becomes rapidly more degraded. This is not a very encouraging aspect of things to those whose interest in the country and love of the race are deeper and stronger than a selfish desire for sordid gain. The only remedy we can suggest, at present, is vigilant watchfulness on the part of police officers, and strict, prompt, uncompromising enforcement of existing laws.

IGNORANCE.

"This country only desires to borrow for purposes which are directly or indirectly reproductive and for just such purposes as these other countries newly settled by white men have been borrowing" Weekly P. C. A. Aug. 4th.

It is positively certain that the individual who penned the above either has not read our Loan Act or else does not know the meaning of the words he is using. Not one single object for which the Loan Act expressly states the loan is to be raised is directly reproductive. All of them may be said to benefit the Kingdom and produce more wealth amongst its citizens, perhaps, but not one of them will directly return a single cent to the Government to repay either the principal or the interest of the loan. The whole of that must come out of the revenue.

Then take the second statement "for just such purposes as these other countries" (i.e. British Colonies. Where will the writer of that article find a schedule of a Loan Bill passed in any Colony for such vague and ill-defined objects as this one is. No Colony has ever dared to ask for a loan for works not directly productive, such as Railways, water-works, etc, bringing in a direct income except in very small sums. And again what Colony or Country however small or waiting to be developed has asked at one time for a loan exceeding two years revenue? Our present Loan Act will never attract capitalists as an investment pure and simple aside from political or personal considerations until a new schedule, of definite objects, all or most of which will add immediately and directly to the government income, shall be substituted for the present.

POLICE COURT.

CRIMINAL CALENDAR.
Saturday, Aug. 4th—Drunks; Pila, and Iokepa, forfeited $6 bail each; and H. Euch, fined $5 and $1 costs.

RECEPTION ON THE MARIPOSA.

The Oceanic Steamship Mariposa was thrown open for the reception of over 400 guests on the evening of the 4th instant, and the ship was gaily dressed with lanterns and bunting. The guests commenced to arrive at 8 p.m. and were received at the gangway by Capt. Howard, Messrs. J. D. Spreckels and W. G. Irwin looking out for the comfort of guests on board. The electric lights, with which the vessel is supplied, was in use all over the vessel, and the control which each passenger had over the light in the staterooms was the subject of much favorable comment. His Majesty, Queen Dowager Emma, H. R. H. Princess Likelike, Senator Miller, wife and daughter, General Stule and wife, and a notable large number of our best citizens were present. A light refreshment was furnished to all present. The band was on board and played some good selections of music. At 9:30 and about 10 p.m. the assemblage broke up.

SHIPPING NOTES.

The s.s. City of Sydney arrived Aug. 4th, 6 days and 18 hrs, from San Francisco, with 881 pkgs of general mdse for this port, and 18,244 for Australia.
Schr Rosario, Capt. Swift, arrived at Kahuai, 13½ days from San Francisco.
Schr Mokoli bro't 1130 bgs rice, 133 bgs bran, 17 hides, 7 hogs, and 11 bags potatoes.
Schr Ehukai bro't 226 bgs sugar, and 64 bgs paddy.
Schr Kilauea Hou bro't 268 bgs sugar.
Schr Iwalani bro't 1883 pkgs of sugar, 26 head of cattle, and 90 hides.
Schr C. R. Bishop brought 2218 bags of sugar, 51 bgs of rice, 485 bgs paddy and 20 hides.
Schr Jennie Walker took to the Fanning Islands 2 cs of liquor, 2 bgs rice 3 kegs sugar, and 2 bbls of poi.
Schr Kauikaouli bro't 1700 bgs sugar.
Schr Waimanalo bro't a load of firewood.
Schr Haleakala bro't 250 bgs sugar.
Schr Likelike brought 359 bgs sugar, 10 bbls molasses, 65 hides, 2 horses, 111 pkgs sundries.

The Discovery is both loading and discharging.
The schr Mokoli will go on the Marine Railway; and the schr Emma will run to Koolau instead.

The captains of the schooners, Emma and Nettie Merrill state that they are willing at any time to tow the schr Haleakala as far as Coco Head.

The Advertiser's shipping reporter falls into a glaring inaccuracy in trying to correct the BULLETIN's reporter about the Canopus. He says she discharged 450 tons, and had only 50 tons left on board—total, 500 tons. The Canopus brought 1150 tons of cargo to this port, where did the other 650 tons go to. The first mate of the Canopus is responsible for the statement that 450 tons of cargo were still left, and presumably he knows a little more about it than the "accurate (?) Titer."

LOCAL & GENERAL NEWS.

The Hankow arrived in San Francisco July 26th.

Call and examine those splendid Westphalia Hams at Hoffschlaeger & Co's.

Go and see the new and splendid articles at G. W. Macfarlane & Co's to-day

The One Price Mechanic's Bazaar is again in the fore. Read the advertisement.

At the Police Court on Saturday three drunks formed the whole calendar in the criminal section.

It is said the Attorney-General ad interim business costs the country just 50 per cent more than a regular Attorney-General would do. How is that for high?

The new steam-roller was put together by Friday, and on Saturday a first trial was made. It doesn't look as if it could do as much work as the other but it sounds as if it were doing three times as much.

The Daily Advertiser has found little else of late to fill its columns with than criticisms of the BULLETIN and its contents. We are truly grateful for the interest displayed in us and the free advertising. But it seems to us that people who live in glass houses shouldn't throw stones. In our issue of July 7th will be found an item of news from New South Wales given under that heading by our contemporary on Saturday. If our contemporary's shipping reporter would revise his lists of "Vessels Expected" etc, he would find at least one imaginary name in his list. And if, instead of getting up early one morning to get steamer news and then making an awful noise over his wonderful vigilance, he had got up early on Saturday morning he would have been able to announce the steamer's arrival instead of prophesying that it would come. Moral, be sure you are all right before you attack others.

A NEW DANCER.

An alarming piece of news comes from Paris, says the Lancet. It is stated that an official at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs there has been attacked with yellow fever, communicated to him through a despatch from Brazil. This, if true, is a startling occurrence. We have repeatedly warned our readers against the danger of disseminating disease by means of books and toys. We believe circulating libraries are common sources of peril, and that many grave and even fatal illnesses may be traced to their agency. Books, especially of the "entertaining" class, are read by sick persons, either in bed when recovering from fevers and communicable diseases generally, or during convalescence, when perhaps some chest affection with a cough infects the atmosphere. It is, probably, impossible to guard against this, because the organic particles which carry the infection or contagion may lie for weeks, months, or perhaps years, between the pages of a bound book, to be dislodged at some unpropitious moment when the volume chances to be handled by a susceptible person. It would be difficult to imagine a more powerful apparatus for the conveyance of disease than a book. Among the maladies most easily communicable by this agency may be mentioned measles, scarlet fever, diphtheria, ordinary "sore" throat, whooping-cough, bronchitis (perhaps ptitisis), and other chest affections, in the course of which the lungs may be giving off poisonous breath and expectorations, and disorders in which the skin is the seat of abnormal changes, or may be throwing out infective material. In short, all that can be communicated is more likely to be communicated by a book than in almost any other way. It is obviously impracticable to disinfect books without injuring them, and the plain inference must be that circulating libraries are to be regarded as possible centres for the dissemination of disease, and that all books used by the sick should be destroyed immediately after use. Disease may be communicated by despatches, letters, or books. It is well that this should be more generally recognised.

WE NOTICE a squib in yesterday's BULLETIN which may serve to deceive the public. It states: "The big Gun at Laek's cannot go off." It is a mistake—it is for the purpose of shooting lovers of the weed that are foolish enough to pass Marchant's without a cut of "HORSEHEAD," or, still better, "PACES PRIVATE." That Tobacco is neither stem or leaf, warranted not to hurt the TOOTH. The young admire it, the old never go with out it.

MERCHANTS READ!

THE undersigned has, by request of various merchants in Honolulu, attached to his General Office Business that of Custom House Broker.

The continual increase of commerce to these Islands fully warrants this undertaking, and my intention is to make this department a specialty in my General Business. I have arranged legal Power of Attorney blanks to transact business for the entry of goods at the Custom House, and will also pay and discharge freight and duty expense, and, if required, deliver from the consignees.

Merchants will find that the time employed by them and their employees in making out duplicate invoices and attending to the entries will be a saving to their business interests by placing in the Broker's hands all such business.

The merchants of Honolulu, I feel confident, have full confidence in my integrity and reliability, and that this new undertaking will be highly appreciated, I have not the slightest doubt.

Very Respectfully,

J. E. WISEMAN,

Custom House Broker,

And General Business Agent.
