GIVING UP HOPE FOR THE KINEO

FEARS ENTERTAINED THAT THE SCHOONER WILL NEVER REACH HER DESTINATION.

The schooner Kineo is now out 173 days from Kahului for Delaware Breakwater. Little hope is entertained now for the vessel and the general impression is that she is lost. The vessel was one of the largest schooners of the American merchant marine. She left Kahului with a cargo of 3,156 tons of sugar.

REPUBLICANS CAN CLAIM ALL

CARTER SAYS THEY ARE ENTITLED TO CREDIT FOR OFFERING PUBLIC LANDS.

"I have been somewhat surprised that the Republicans have not before answered the Democratic campaign statements about our land laws," said Governor Carter this morning, referring to the matter of the Molokans and Land Commissioner Pratt's statement of the policy of his department. "The Republican administration has constantly tried to open lands to citizens, and it has stood ready at all times to allot public lands to any persons who will agree to the terms upon which the Molokans were to be given lands."

"The Republican party is in a position to claim the credit for all that has been done along these lines, as well as for all that has been done in other ways for the betterment of the islands. The party can claim everything in sight, as far as these things are concerned."

The Murderous Burglar Is In Custody PORTO RICAN IS ARRESTED

Colon the murderous burglar was positively identified this afternoon at the Japanese hospital by his two victims. According to the indications at the time of the identification Colon is likely to have to answer to a charge of murder if not double murder for Shizo one of the victims will probably die this evening while Mrs. Akahoshi may not live longer than tomorrow. Sheriff Brown accompanied by Chester Doyle and Police Officer Frank Kanae who did a splendid piece of work in arresting Colon today, returned at 1:45 p. m. from the hospital after the identification had occurred. Ante mortum statements were made by both victims. A third Japanese who witnessed the attack on Shizo also identified Colon as the stabber.

The man who is believed to be the murderous Porto Rican burglar is now in custody at the police station. He was arrested at the point of the revolver this morning by Bicycle Officer Frank Kanae of the local police force. Montano Colo is the name of the prisoner and he is an all round bad egg. Last night another Porto Rican named Julio Mercado Leandro was taken into custody on suspicion of being the man who had stabbed the Japanese nurse at the Japanese hospital and the Japanese lodger at the hotel corner of Smith and Pauahi streets yesterday morning. The suspected man was taken before the two wounded people at the hospital but neither identified him as being their assailant. Finally Japanese Detective Miki took the rogue's gallery of the police station and displaying two pages of pictures of criminals, inquired if the stabber was among the number. There were fully 50 photographs of criminals but after a perusal of the pictures, both of the Japanese promptly identified Colon as the man who had stabbed them.

The conduct of Colon yesterday afternoon led the police to the belief that he had good reason for desiring to keep his freedom. Word was received at the police station that a Porto Rican answering the description of the stabber had been seen to pass the fire station house, going toward Punchbowl. Mounted Officer Lynch was hurried after the man. He found him to be Colon, seated by the side of the road that leads toward Punchbowl from Makiki. Lynch got off of his horse and started toward the Porto Rican for the purpose of putting him under arrest. Colon sprang to his feet and drew a knife on the officer. The latter stepped back and the Porto Rican disappeared in the lanana.

Early this morning about 6 o'clock one of the police officers saw Colon in the vicinity of the Kalihl fire station heading in the direction of Ewa. The officer did not know that Colon was wanted by the authorities so made no attempt to place him under arrest. As soon as this news was learned Assistant Sheriff Henry Vida and a number of officers among them Frank Kanae, were dispatched toward Ewa to search for the Porto Rican. It was thought that the man was heading for Ewa or some plantation in order to secure temporary work and disappear until after the stabbing had quieted down.

Kanae made a number of inquiries from various Japanese and other places if a Porto Rican had passed finally reached a Chinese coffee shop where the proprietor said that a Porto Rican answering the description of Colon had left but a short time before. Kanae hurried away and meeting with a Chinese riding on a wagon, mounted the rig and forced the Chinese to hurry up with the wagon in order to overtake Colon.

Finally at Hahuomano, where the branch road turns off from the Moanalu road to go to the polo grounds, Kanae saw the Porto Rican walking along the side of the road. The Porto Rican did not look back toward the wagon but walked with his head down, looking on the road. As soon as Kanae came up with Colon, the officer dismounted from the wagon and leveling his revolver at Colon ordered the Porto Rican to throw up his hands. Kanae did not care to run any risks of an assault with a knife or a revolver from Colon. The latter threw up his hands and was searched by Kanae. No weapons were found on the Porto Rican. He was brought back to the police station.

Colon was wearing a faded yellowish looking suit of clothes when captured. The police are of the opinion that he changed his clothes and hid his knife if he turns out to be the man who stabbed the two Japanese.

This afternoon Colon is to be taken to the Japanese hospital in order that the two Japanese can look at him and if possible, identify him. He is a shifty looking Porto Rican and is well known to the police. His picture is already in

CANDIDATES TO BE SUED AS TAX DELINQUENTS

Suits are about to be entered against a long list of candidates for office who are delinquent in their taxes. Treasurer Campbell has been making inquiries as to how the numerous candidates stand, and the result was a discovery that many of them were far behind. Some owe taxes as far back as 1901. Papers have been drawn up for suits against the following:

- DEMOCRATS.
- C. P. LAUKEA.
 - F. W. WEED.
 - THOMAS GANDALL.
 - W. P. JARRETT.
 - E. L. LIKE.
 - BEN NAUKANA.
 - R. W. HOLT.
 - H. T. MOORE.
 - S. K. HIU.
 - W. L. GILLILAND.

- REPUBLICANS.
- C. F. CHILLINGWORTH.
 - W. T. RAWLINS.
 - A. S. KALEIOPU.
 - JOE KALANA.
 - A. V. GEAR.
 - D. KALAUOKALANI, JR.
 - J. W. CATHCART.

HOME RULERS. ABRAHAM FERNANDEZ. D. KALAUOKALANI, SR. J. M. POEPOE. REV. S. K. OILI. D. M. KUPIHEA. WILLIAM MOSSMAN. J. K. PAELE. All these are running for offices of some sort. There are others on the delinquent list quite recently by paying up. Suits against those on the list are to be begun at once.

BEGINS HARD LABOR AT SEVENTY-TWO

A JURY'S RECOMMENDATIONS OF MERCY IS DISREGARDED IN THE CASE OF PAHAU.

In spite of the jury's recommendation to mercy, Judge Lindsay this morning gave the maximum punishment to Pahau, an aged Hawaiian found guilty yesterday afternoon of a criminal assault on a girl eleven years of age. The maximum provided by the statute is 18 months' hard labor, and Judge Lindsay appeared to regret that he could not impose more. He explained to the defendant that it was lucky for him that the girl was not one year younger, in which case the law provides for a penalty of death.

Pahau is 72 years of age, according to his statement to the court. The jury's verdict contained a rider recommending mercy on account of the "extreme old age" of the defendant. Judge Lindsay said that while as a rule he thought it proper to regard a jury's recommendation to mercy, in the present case, where the law provides such a small penalty, he could not do so. The judge seemed to regard the 18 months' maximum as a very small one for such an offense.

Pahau is one of the oldest men, if not the oldest, that ever began a hard labor term in jail here. He is, however, fairly strong and will probably outlast his term, it is thought. The following jurors heard the case: J. W. McDonald, S. D. Koki, W. K. Wainana, C. M. Lovsted, W. O. Barnhardt, W. Starbird, H. M. Rodgers, C. Spencer, T. W. Chase, C. J. Ludwigen, C. J. Falk, S. W. Spencer.

Deputy Attorney General W. S. Fleming prosecuted and W. T. Rawlins defended.

TO SELL CAPITOL MAGAZINE

SMALL HISTORIC STRUCTURE ON THE CAPITOL GROUNDS TO BE REMOVED.

Superintendent Holloway is offering for sale tomorrow the old magazine which stands on the Capitol grounds, mauka of the Capitol, also the carpenter shop near the mauka fence. The magazine is a small brick building, with a pit ten feet deep inside. The building has played quite a part in local military history, as the storehouse of ammunition. It is at present used as a storehouse for National Guard ammunition.

The magazine is a building of brick. It was the government magazine during the days of rebellions and as such was a highly important little structure. It is to be sold for removal, and is probably only worth what its brick is worth. As soon as it has been removed, Holloway will have the pit filled up and grass planted on the site. The carpenter shop is also to be removed and the site planted with grass.

Still another building near by, used by the federal government as a store house, is to be removed if permission can be secured from Washington to place it on the drill field lot. At the request of Holloway the governor has written to Washington asking for permission to remove the building from the Capitol grounds to the other lot.

The removal of the three buildings is wanted by way of improving the appearance of the grounds. None of them is at all sightly, and their removal will considerably enhance the beauty of the grounds.

ORDINANCE A DEAD ONE

THE COUNTY SUPERVISORS' EFFORT TO PASS A LAW TO HELP TO STOP GAMBLING PROVES A FAILURE—FORTY-FOUR CHINESE ARE RELEASED BECAUSE THE COUNTY IS HELD POWERLESS TO PUNISH IF THEY REFUSE TO PAY FINES.

The county ordinance against keeping gambling apparatus of any sort behind doors which are barred or barricaded was shown to be a dead letter in Judge Lindsay's court this morning, when the cases of 44 Chinese held under the ordinance were nolle prossed. This was on account of the Supreme Court's decision in a recent county case, to the effect that the supervisors are without jurisdiction to provide for imprisonment for violation of any of their ordinances.

The cases were those of Tai Kung and 43 others, who were found guilty in the district court and sentenced to pay a fine of $5 each. They were found in a room with locked and barred doors with fan fan paraphernalia, and were arrested under the new ordinance. It was an ordinance passed with a view to stopping gambling behind closed doors.

The nolle prosser were entered by Deputy County Attorney Cathcart. "Since it has been decided that defendants cannot be imprisoned if they fail to pay a fine for a violation of a county ordinance," said Cathcart, "it is useless to prosecute such cases as this, and I would not waste the time of a court or jury."

One of the features of the county act which the legislature is expected to consider is the fact that the counties cannot enforce their ordinances, being powerless to inflict punishment.

WEEKLY WEATHER BULLETIN

For the Week Ending October 15, 1906. Honolulu, T. H., October 15, 1906. GENERAL SUMMARY.
The rainfall was light generally over the entire group, the greatest amounts being reported from the west-central portions of the Kona district of Hawaii. There was an excess of rainfall over last week in the Kona and Kau, and the northern portion of the Hilo and western portion of the Kohala districts of Hawaii, the southwestern districts of Maui, generally in the eastern districts of Oahu, on Molokai, and generally in Kauai, but only in the Kona district of Hawaii did the changes exceed +2.00 inches. The greatest deficiencies, as compared with the preceding week, were reported from the eastern portion of the Kohala district of Hawaii, and the Koolau, Hamakua, and Hamakua-poko districts of Maui, but only in the Maui districts did they exceed 2.00 inches.

The mean temperatures for the week were generally higher, and appreciably so, than those of the preceding one; and at but three stations in the group were lower mean temperatures reported.

The following table shows the weekly averages of temperature and rainfall for the principal island and for the group:

	Temperature.	Rainfall
Hawaii.....	74.8 deg.	0.78 in.
Maui.....	77.1 deg.	0.26 in.
Oahu.....	78.3 deg.	0.41 in.
Kauai.....	77.8 deg.	0.40 in.
Molokai.....	80.5 deg.	0.56 in.
Entire group.....	76.4 deg.	0.60 in.

At the local office of the U. S. Weather Bureau in Honolulu, generally partly cloudy weather obtained, with measurable rainfall on three dates, amounting to .65 inch, .24 inch below the normal, and .04 less than last week. The mean temperature was 79.2 deg., 2.5 deg. above the normal, and 1.2 deg. higher than the preceding week. The mean relative humidity was 75.3 per

TRILOGY OF LOCAL POLITICS

BROWN PLACES BLAME ON CARTER

SAYS GOVERNOR IS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE LIQUOR LAW WHICH ALLOWS PRESENT CONDITIONS.

The Republican meeting at Kamehameha Fourth road last night was a very large one and there were many manifestations of approval of the various speakers. Ben Zablan presided. At intervals rain put a very literal damper upon the proceedings, but much of the crowd stayed until the end. W. O. Smith was the first speaker called upon by the chair.

Smith spoke earnestly for Kuhlö. "He is doing what is best for his country," said the candidate for the Senate. "He is learning something all the time and is giving Hawaii the benefit of his knowledge. If he felt that he could do more by being a member of the Democratic party he would belong to it because his wish is to do for his people. The Home Rule party has no standing on the mainland and is not known there while the Republican party is the best and is in power."

Sylvester Correa followed in similar strain, asking the voters to send Kuhlö back to Congress rather than elect a malihini.

A. M. Brown in the course of his speech placed the responsibility for present saloon conditions upon Governor Carter, who he said, was the sponsor for the present liquor law. Brown repeated his declaration that he would stand on his record and said:

"The blame for a faulty license law can be truly laid at the door of one man, Governor George R. Carter. It is his bill and he is responsible for the condition, and is it fair, I ask you, that the blame should be put on my shoulders by the Advertiser? By that law women and young girls are admitted to saloons the same as men and the police department is powerless to prevent it. I am opposed to this liquor law and I know that every Republican candidate to the Legislature is opposed to it and will give you a new and a better one. I appeal to every one of you, to every Republican, to every voter, to vote for that ticket from top to bottom as you supported me eighteen months ago. I ask you to support me and everyone on the Republican ticket, more strongly even, if it is possible."

After a cornet solo by Sam Kamaka, P. T. Waterhouse spoke. He told an allegorical Hawaiian story which made a hit, and his address won loud applause. Pahlia called for three cheers for Brown and after they were given Senator McCandless spoke. He spoke largely of road work, telling what the Republicans had done and stating that if retained in power they would continue to do good work.

A. V. Gear raised the wages limit for road work, by saying that if made a supervisors he would exert his influence to have the wages in the road department made from $1.50 to $4 per day. C. F. Chillingworth was greeted with three cheers when he rose as the next speaker. He gave an eloquent speech in the Hawaiian language and was enthusiastically applauded. Senator Lane made a speech asking support for the "whole ticket."

Charlie Hustace, Jr., spoke as candidate for supervisor, promising to look after the Fifth district as well as the Fourth if elected. His speech was similar to others he has made, and won the audience as it won previous ones.

Henry Vida roasted laukea who, he said, would be dictated to by Governor Carter and the Civic Federation. "He tells you that you should vote for him because he is one of you and this and that," said Vida, "but gentlemen, if he is one of you, why did he throw the Queen down and go over to the Provisional Government? He has gone from Republican to Home Ruler and then back to Democrat. He said the Sheriff has the right to investigate the cases brought to the police station and, if he deemed it just, to discharge them.

"Kuhlö is one of the last of the princes and it is the least we can do to send him to Washington."

THE MANCHURIA CASE.
United States Judge Dole yesterday afternoon gave a decision sustaining the exceptions to the Restorer's libel of the Manchuria for $300,000. The exception was on the ground that the cable company, libellant, had failed to show that it had sufficient interest in the Restorer to entitle it to sue. The syllabus of the decision says: "In a libel for salvage by the charterer of the vessel used in the salvage services, an interest of libellant in such vessel justifying his claim of right to bring suit is a material fact and should be alleged."

INFLAMMATOR RHEUMATISM.
Anyone who has ever experienced the excruciating and almost unbearable pain incident to inflammatory rheumatism, will be pleased to know that prompt relief may be had by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Mr. D. Snyder, of Roseville, Ontario, Canada, says: "I have been troubled with inflammatory rheumatism for the past two years and unable to sleep at night. I have taken many remedies but must say Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the best I find. I have ever tried." For sale by all dealers, Benson Smith & Co. agents for Hawaii.

TWO DEMOCRATIC RALLIES LAST NIGHT

LARGE AND ENTHUSIASTIC CROWDS GREET THE DEMOCRATIC SPEAKERS.

Two large Democratic rallies took place last evening both of them being highly successful. There was a goodly crowd attending each of them as well as plenty of enthusiasm. The speeches by the different candidates were well received and being heartily applauded time and again. One of the meetings was held in Pauoa and the other at S. M. Damon's place at Moanalua.

Albert Kauwe presided over the meeting at Pauoa and introduced the different speakers.

F. W. Weed, Democratic candidate for the House, was introduced and he plunged immediately into the issues of the campaign. He said that he advocated the change in the present liquor law which would prevent such scenes as he had witnessed of boys and girls staggering around the streets under the influence of drink. He also called attention to the public school system. He said that he opposed the effort to spread the accommodations in the public schools so that a sufficient salary could not be paid to teachers in order to keep them here to teach the children of the white population and of the Hawaiians the best that could be taught them. He stated also that he was in favor of throwing open the experimentation for the cure of leprosy and not restricting it to a few so that those who had a far more vital interest in the cure of the disease should not be shut out from trying it as they are at present.

County Treasurer Trent was introduced to the audience and spoke of how the man who formerly earned $1 was only paid 98 cents, but that since he was treasurer all had been paid dollar for dollar. He was glad to see in the history of Hawaii once more that it was safe for an employee of the road department or the police department to attend a Democratic meeting. He was ashamed that such had not always been the case. He spoke of the reasons why it was safe today. It was because of a resolution introduced by Supervisor Moore to the Board of Supervisors to the effect that no one should be discharged for such reasons. He was ashamed that such a resolution had been found necessary. It was a disgrace to the Republicans. The best thing that the voters could do was to vote for and elect the Democratic candidate.

W. W. Thayer was the next speaker. He spoke of the announcement made by A. V. Gear at the meeting of the Republicans at Aala Park on Saturday evening when he said that a larger police force was needed to successfully handle the large amount of crime in this place. Thayer denied the statement and said that if the police would pay more attention to crime and less to politics that the present force would be quite sufficient.

Other speakers at Pauoa were C. J. McCarthy, W. A. Kinney, Charles Broad, Charles L. Rhodes, Jess Uluihi, Moses Palau and Joe Fern.

MOANALUA MEETING.
A number of the speakers from the Pauoa meeting went to Moanalua where the second meeting was held. This proved also to be a successful meeting.

W. A. Kinney was the principal speaker at this place. He described the efforts of the Republicans to count out the Democrats two years ago by a numbered system of ballots if it was found necessary. They would have prevented a fair count but they saw that they were safe without it.

He spoke of the Kanealii case who was a Democrat elected to the Board of Supervisors of Kauai, to whom the Secretary of the Territory refused to issue the necessary papers until the courts compelled him to. Then he spoke of how Kanealii was arrested and acquitted by a jury. All of which went as evidence that the Republicans were not going to allow fair play if they could help it.

There were several other speakers at Moanalua among them being Supervisor Moore, C. J. McCarthy and Joe Fern.

A BANK'S PROFIT.
The semi-annual meeting of the Yokohama Specie Bank was held September 18. The gross profits of the bank for the half-year, including yen 678,115.238 brought forward from last account, were yen 13,149,833.670, of which yen 9,785,825.690 have been deducted from current expenses, interest, etc., leaving a balance of yen 3,363,989.980. Yen 400,000 was added to the reserve fund, and yen 1,900,000 appropriated to the special reserves fund. From the remainder a dividend at the rate of twelve per cent, per annum, yen 720,000 on old shares and yen 450,000 on new shares, making a total of 1,170,000, was declared. The balance, yen 798,989.980, was carried forward to the credit of next account.

HOME RULERS OPEN CAMPAIGN RALLIES

HELD A MEETING LAST EVENING AT KALIHI CAMP—BIG TIME AFTER NOTLEY ARRIVES.

The Home Rulers opened their campaign rallies last evening for the first time this campaign. A meeting was held at the Kalihi Camp and it was largely attended. All of the local candidates on the Home Rule ticket spoke and what they had to say was very well received.

This evening two different rallies will be held. One will be at the Kumaline block in Kakaako and the other will be held on the corner of River and Vineyard streets.

Candidate Notley, who is their candidate for delegate to Congress will arrive in town on the 26th of this month. At that time a big rally at Aala Park will be held at which all of the candidates from Notley down will speak.

NAHIKU TEACHER GUILTY OF JAGS

BOARD OF EDUCATION SUSTAINS SCHOOL INSPECTOR IN SUSPENDING HIM FOR "SKATES."

The Board of Education held a regular meeting yesterday afternoon. A number of teachers' matters were acted upon. Among them was the matter of charges against Robert Plunkett, of Nahiku school, of drunkenness and immoral conduct. The inspector of the district reported having investigated the charges of drunkenness and stated his opinion that they were well founded. He had suspended Plunkett beginning October 8, and the board approved his action.

A dispute between Miss Bond, principal at Makapala and Mrs. McKenzie, a teacher, was brought up. It appeared that the teacher had balked at an order from the principal that the art of weaving be taught. The board sustained the principal and gave out intimations that it would be inclined to deal severely with assistants who do not show proper obedience to their superiors.

The question of whether government physicians should treat inmates of the Lahalauna and other schools free was brought up by a report from Lahala of the case of a boy who became ill and was treated by Dr. Moloney. The doctor sent in a bill for his fee, while the principal seemed to think that the doctor, as government physician, should treat an inmate of a government institution free. On motion of C. L. Wright, the matter was referred to the attorney general for an opinion.

Leave of absence for two months was granted Principal Taggard, of the Kahoia-waena school. Taggard's health is bad and he will visit Kona to recuperate. In his absence Mrs. Taggard will be acting principal.

Inspector King advised the board that he had closed the Kamooa school on account of lack of attendance, only eight scholars being enrolled.

Edward A. Irish, School Agent for Kau, has resigned and his place is to be filled by F. C. Eaton, who was endorsed by Inspector King.

The Superintendent announced that Miss Allie Felker, principal of Kaahumanu school, Honolulu, had succumbed to nervous prostration and for a week past has been confined in the hospital. A long leave of absence was granted her.

Leave of absence for a brief period was granted Mrs. William K. Anahu, of the Kaloanaha, Molokai school.

Miss Bertha Ben Taylor, principal of the Kahoia, Kau school, wrote from Virginia asking that her leave of absence be extended for a few days longer than originally granted. She expects to leave San Francisco on November 3 for Honolulu and will take the Mauna Loa for Kau the day of arrival here. Leave was granted.

HIGGINS TALKS ON FRUIT SHIPMENTS

CONDITIONS VERY FAVORABLE FOR THE SHIPMENT OF FRUIT TO THE COAST.

J. E. Higgins who recently went to San Francisco for the purpose of testing the shipping of fruits to the coast and the condition in which they would arrive there returned by the Sonoma and is very highly pleased with the result of his investigations.

He states that he finds that most of the Hawaiian grown fruit can be shipped to the coast and placed on the market there if packed right before it is started.

Mr. Higgins had a conference with Mr. Samuel, the assistant to the president of the Oceanic Company, and forced draft ventilation may be installed in the Alameda and other Oceanic boats so that fruit may be shipped from here and reach the coast in first-class condition.

While gone Mr. Higgins met fruit men in all the principal cities on the coast and with them talked over the chances of marketing fruit from Hawaii. Each and every one held out hopes.

CAUGHT SUSPECTED STABBER.

Julio Mercado Leandro was arrested last night on suspicion of having stabbed one or both of his Japanese injured yesterday by a burglar. Neither of the wounded people were in condition to see the man, so as to identify him.

DAMAGED THE FEARLESS.

The steamer Likeli bumped into the tug Fearless and the Oceanic wharf yesterday morning. A mistake in the signal of "full speed astern" for "full speed ahead," caused the accident. The stern of the Fearless by the guard rail was slightly damaged. The wharf also sustained minor damage. The Likeli escaped uninjured.

KONA SCHOOL CASE.

The Kona school case was argued in the Supreme Court yesterday afternoon, by C. W. Ashford and D. L. Whittington for the plaintiff and M. F. Prosser for the defendants. The suit is by D. K. Baker against Sheriff Brown, the late Superintendent of Public Instruction Atkinson and others, for ejectment of plaintiff from premises claimed for the school. A verdict of $3000 for plaintiff was given in the Kona court, but Judge Mathewman set it aside, and an appeal was taken from his order.

PLENTY HOLIDAYS TAKEN BY JAPS

A HAWAII TEACHER OBJECTS TO THE FREEDOM WITH WHICH THE YLAW OFF.

The following letter was received by the Board of Education yesterday:

Hakulau, October 11, 1906.
Mr. W. H. Babbitt, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Honolulu.
Dear Sir: Finding myself again in a very peculiar position, I deem it right that the matter be brought to your attention.

Every year in November the Japanese celebrate the anniversary of their Emperor, and though living on American soil (Hawaii) they defy the laws of the country by keeping all the children away from school for two or three days without even saying "Excuse me."

Not satisfied with their November holidays, they again defy the laws by flocking into Hilo this week to see their glorious ship Anekaawa. Over twenty of my Japanese children are in Hilo since Monday and it is hard to tell when they will return. Only two came and asked to be excused, while the rest took "French leave."

To me this is very aggravating, because, after all my teaching of patriotism and respect to our flag, they show their patriotism by absenting themselves from school to celebrate any old Japanese holiday or event.

I know that all the schools along the line are in the same position, but I sincerely hope that you will do something to remedy such matters in the future. Respectfully yours,
E. S. CAPPELLAS.

MRS. DAVIS IS DYING.

NEW YORK, October 15.—Mrs. Jefferson Davis is dying.

Varina Howell Jefferson Davis, as the widow of the ex-President of the Confederacy signed her name after her husband's death, was born in Natchez, Miss., May 7, 1826. She was a granddaughter of Governor Richard Howell, of New Jersey. She was educated at Madame Grelaud's school in Philadelphia and by private teachers at home. In 1845 she was married to Jefferson Davis of Warren county, Miss. He was elected to Congress in November, 1845; resigned June, 1846, to go to the Mexican war, from which he returned severely wounded, and they went to live at his Brierfield plantation. Davis Bend, Warren county, Miss. Mrs. Davis was with her husband in Washington, where he was U. S. Senator, 1847-52; Secretary of War, 1853-57; U. S. Senator, 1857-61; and in Richmond during the time he was President of the Confederate States, 1861-5. During the first year of Mr. Davis' imprisonment Mrs. Davis was not permitted to be with him, but was permitted to remain with him during the second year at Fortress Monroe. They went to England, 1867-70; lived in Memphis, Tenn., 1870-8; then removed to Beauvoir station on the Mississippi coast. Mrs. Davis acted as the amanuensis of her husband when he wrote his Decline and Fall of the Confederate Government. Since her husband's death in 1889, Mrs. Davis has written for newspapers criticisms and articles for newspapers and magazines. Her property is in Mississippi but for reasons of health she has long lived in New York. She has four sons and one daughter, dead; and one daughter living, Margaret Howell Davis, now Mrs. I. A. Hayes, Colorado Springs, Mrs. Davis is the author of "Jefferson Davis: A Memoir by His Wife." Her New York home, where she is dying, is the Hotel Girard, 123 West 44th St., New York.

Mrs. Davis was, by her wit, her cleverness and culture, the natural as well as the official leader of Richmond society, during the Civil War.

Lessons Of The Registration

The returns of the registration of the Territory which has just been completed, will be watched with a great deal of interest by many, not for the light it may throw on the party results of the election in November, but for the lessons it may have to give regarding the movement of population and the relation of national and race elements to each other in the citizen population of the Islands. While returns are by no means complete, the indications are that what for convenience is called the "American" element in the electorate, has not largely if at all increased. By this is meant those who were born in the mainland of America, or the descendants of those who were, and those born in these Islands of other European descent than Portuguese. There is no reason why the Portuguese should not be included in this classification except that they are so numerous as to merit a classification by themselves, and because in the past they have been classified by themselves.

The Hawaiian and part Hawaiian element seems to be increasing everywhere, in spite of the rapid death rate among the race. Then the smaller racial elements of the electorate are increasing. There is an increase among the Chinese, a very slight increase, one or two perhaps throughout the entire Territory, among the Japanese—but still prophetic of what may be.

The fact that there is little if any increase in the American element of the electorate, is the fact that will give least satisfaction in considering the registration returns.

Japanese And Patriotism

The wail of the school teacher over the fact that after all his instruction in patriotism his Japanese pupils still deserted school for the festivities of welcoming a Japanese war ship, or of a Japanese holiday, would be amusing, if it were not pathetic. But this teacher is not alone in seeming to think that patriotism ought to be the immediate result of teaching school children some very pretty flag exercises, some melodious songs about "Country," and to memorize and repeat some fine sentiments from eminent Americans. There are thousands not only of teachers, but of others in this broad land of ours who think the same way, who think that the country is safe if the American flag floats above school houses during school hours, even though there was graft in the contract for supplying the flags.

George Ade has touched on this patriotism that expends itself in fine sentiment, while exploiting the public, in his inimitable way in one of his fables in slang. This "flag patriotism" has been found useful by any number of villains as a means of hiding their unpatriotic greed.

One might go from Land's End to John O'Gaunts in Great Britain without ever seeing a British flag, but not without recognizing British patriotism. So too, the very fact that these Japanese pupils leave school on the occasions complained of and for the reasons assigned, shows that patriotism is more than a mere matter of instruction in flag exercises and recitations.

Wellman And The Pole

When Walter Wellman first announced his proposal to attempt to reach the North Pole by flying machine, The Star expressed little confidence in Wellman as an explorer. It recalled the ridiculous fiasco he made of a previous alleged polar expedition. He was a correspondent of the Chicago Herald in those days, and it was a joke current among his fellows on the Herald that he "didn't get as far north as the janitor of the Herald building was born and brought up." Another joke current at the time was that Wellman was rescued by a Norwegian fishing smack, south bound.

A good deal of scepticism as to Wellman's real motives has been aroused since his postponement of his projected flight by airship to the north.

The Rochester Democrat and Chronicle voices this scepticism very plainly. It says, after stating the report that the trip had been abandoned:

"There is not the slightest reason in the world for considering it untrue, but it is unimportant. Had word been received, through the same channels, that the newspaper explorer had, with his four companions, set sail from Spitzbergen in the Parisian airship, there would indeed have been grave reasons for doubting its truth. The main reason would have been that there has never been evidence that would convince a sane man that Walter Wellman himself ever had the serious intention to court the fate of Andree and his two companions. The entire plan of the proposed voyage was filched bodily from one of Jules Verne's most weird tales; and the details of Verne's plan were copied with almost painful exactness.

"Another reason for doubting a report that the expedition had cut loose from the mainland was the known unpreparedness of the voyagers. It has been unthinkable that, on a week's notice, an aerial outfit could be constructed by Mr. Santos-Dumont which was conceded to be beyond the art by tens and possibly scores of years; that the French experts whose greatest achievements resulted in a fragile machine with only limited buoyancy and a few short hours of endurance could construct a serviceable air-packet for a voyage of indefinite length, and with a crew of five men with their supplies and instruments.

"Another reason why a report of an actual starting of the expedition would have been reasonably doubted is the course adopted by Wellman since his departure from Paris for the North. If he had really intended to embark in his air-ship, he was at the proposed point of departure at the appointed time and in abundant time. He had scarcely reached Christiania before he began to make complaints regarding the gasoline-motor upon which the air-ship was to depend for its energy. Then there was delay in the construction of the shed in which the balloon was to be inflated; in fact, every message was obviously framed for the purpose of preparing the mind of the public for the abandonment of the expedition.

It should be said, in justice to the intelligent public, that the Wellman balloon exploration scheme has not been taken seriously by thinking people. As has been intimated, it has been difficult, if not impossible, to believe that the art of navigating the air had suddenly advanced to the point which would warrant the expedition, when practical tests of the latest patterns of air-ships show such definite limitations. If Walter Wellman, before leaving Paris, had, with his air-ship, achieved results which showed a marked advance in the art, people would have believed that he had done something of the kind. He

Sugar To Be Tinted But Not Tainted

UNITED STATES PURE FOOD COMMISSION TO REFORM THE SUGAR REFINING BUSINESS.

NEW YORK, October 2.—Unless the United States Pure Food Commission changes its mind (the people of the United States will soon be using granulated and other sugars that have a distinctly yellowish tinge. The Commission has decreed that no mineral bluing substance be used in bleaching sugars. Sugar chemists say they use four pounds of a mineral bluing substance to every one million pounds of sugar for bleaching purposes. This, the sugar chemists say, is not adulteration; that it is merely purification by a thoroughly healthful process. The Pure Food Commission cannot see it in that light, and insists that the whitening process be abandoned.

HAWAII MAY HAVE A DELEGATE

NO ONE FOUND FOR TRANS-MISSISSIPPI CONGRESS BUT POSSIBLY AN ATCHESON MAN.

A letter has been sent by Governor Carter to the Trans-Mississippi Congress, expressing regrets that there appears to be no person available to represent Hawaii at the Congress, but at the same time expressing Hawaii's sympathy with the objects of the gathering. It is possible, however, that George P. Howe, formerly of Honolulu and now a resident of Atchison, Kansas, may undertake to represent the Territory, the governor having written to him inviting him to do so. Howe was a local newspaperman about a year ago and is a son of the owner of the Atchison Globe, with which paper he is now connected.

"I am sorry that it appeared that we could not be represented," said the governor, "for the Trans-Mississippi Congress is composed of men who understand something of Hawaii. The delegates are men of the West, who appreciate the prospect of growth of Pacific commerce. They know how large a proportion of the world's population is fed by Pacific ocean commerce as compared to the Atlantic and know that when Atlantic ports have reached their full growth the ports of the Pacific coast will be but beginning their development."

"Morever the Congress is one that has always shown sympathy with us. In the days of annexation discussion, it was one of the first bodies to take up Hawaii and assist us."

MURDEROUS BURGLAR IS IN CUSTODY

the Rogue's Gallery and he has been in custody for several offences. He is said to have been mixed up in a cutting affair at Waipahu some time ago.

The condition of Mrs. Akahoshi the nurse who was stabbed in the back by the suspected man, took a change for the better today. It is now thought that she will recover from the effect of her injuries. But with Shizo the Japanese man who was stabbed, the conditions are not so favorable. His wound was originally thought to be not so serious but a further examination by the surgeons discloses the fact that the knife wound inflicted by the burglar was deeper than that on the woman and the man is now regarded as in a precarious condition.

Every effort will be made to have Shizo identify Colon, as there is no telling when Shizo may become delirious and die.

Shizo arrived by the S. S. Coptic last Saturday from Japan.

HAWAII AT DIVORCE CONGRESS

GOVERNOR CARTER ASKS THEODORE RICHARDS TO BE THE TERRITORY'S DELEGATE.

Governor Carter has written to Theodore Richards, who is in New York, in asking him to represent Hawaii at the National Divorce Congress, which is soon to meet in Philadelphia, to discuss divorce laws and try to have Congress pass uniform laws for the whole country. The governor has received an invitation from Hawaii to have representation in the congress and as Richards is near the scene, has asked him to take the matter up.

"I have given assurance that Hawaii will be in line with such assistance as she may be able to give, towards securing uniform divorce laws," said the governor. "There does not seem to be any room for discussion as to the advisability of such uniformity. It is not to be expected of course that the Congress will take any radical action, and we shall undoubtedly be in sympathy with what it does."

MOANA ARRIVED AHEAD OF TIME

COLONIAL LINER MAKES PORT TWO DAYS BEFORE SHE WAS DUE—BROUGHT PASSENGERS.

Two days ahead of time the S. S. Moana arrived this morning from the Colonies en route to Victoria and Vancouver. Following is the report of her trip from Sydney:

"Left Sydney October 1st at 5 p. m. arrived at Shikamba (Brisbane) 3rd at 11 a. m. sailed again same date at 10:50 p. m. cleared Cape Moreton 4th at 3:40 p. m. arrived Suva 8th at 3:10 p. m. sailed again same date at 9:10 p. m. arrived Honolulu 16th at 3:45 a. m."

"Experienced moderate northerly winds with moderate sea and passing showers to Mokenba, thence strong westerly wind with moderate sea and fine weather to arrival Suva, thence light to strong easterly wind with smooth sea and moderate sea with rain showers to arrival."

"The vessel has a small crowd of through passengers. She brought seven passengers for Honolulu."

Among the passengers who stop at Honolulu is H. G. Robinson of the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company. He has been in Australia on business for his company. He is accompanied by two engineers.

Among the through passengers is J. Graham Gou who is representing the New Zealand department of commerce. Mr. Powell is the secretary of the governor of Fiji.

The Moana will take a fair sized crowd of passengers from Honolulu for Victoria and Vancouver.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE IN HIS PRISONS CELL

AH CHIN ARRESTED ON SUSPICION OF ATTEMPTED BURGLARY TRIED TO STRANGLE HIMSELF.

Unless the authorities at the Oahu Prison keep a careful watch upon Ah Chin the Chinese who was caught yesterday trying to get into a Japanese store, he will never go to trial. The Chinese made two attempts to commit suicide yesterday morning following his arrest and the general opinion among police who know him, is that he will make way with himself if given the opportunity.

He tried to strangle himself with his queue. He fastened the queue to the bars of the cell and making a noose of the loose end, but the noose about his throat and tried to hang himself. He was discovered in time to be saved. A careful watch was maintained on him after that act but later he made a second attempt to hang himself. The officers again discovered him in time to frustrate his suicide. The man was committed to the circuit court by Judge Whitney yesterday.

LOVE VS. SCROGGY.

The case of Love vs. Scroggy, an action to dissolve the Pacific Transfer Company partnership, was before Judge De Bolt this morning, on a motion to strike out the answer and cross bill of Scroggy. A. G. M. Robertson appeared for Love and H. E. Highton for Scroggy. After hearing argument Judge De Bolt granted the motion to strike and allowed Scroggy five days within which to answer the plaintiff's petition.

WIRELESS FOR THE COLONIES

MARCONI EXPERT ACCOMPANIED BY ENGINEERS ARRIVES HERE FOR VISIT.

H. G. Robinson who arrived today by the S. S. Moana is a representative of the Marconi wireless telegraph company. He has just come from Sydney where he was engaged in work in the interests of the Marconi company. He is accompanied by two engineers.

Robinson did not establish any wireless station in Australia as his visit appears to have been of a preliminary character. Undoubtedly there will be wireless introduced to Australia shortly as the result of his efforts in that direction.

He and his party will remain about two weeks in Honolulu. Their local visit is purely one of pleasure and not in any way connected with business matters.

PUNAHOU BOYS WILL HAVE TO USE BRAINS

NEW FOOTBALL RULES MAKE AGILITY AND HEAD WORK SUPERIOR TO MERE BRAUN-FUMBLING WILL BE FATAL—MANY DIFFICULTIES IN WAY OF USING FORWARD PASS—THE PUNAHOU BUNCH A SPEEDY AGGREGATION—BOYS WORKING HARD.

Football reforms have resulted in the contradiction of a popular fallacy. The vernacular "id" has brought about a "wide open" game. The political analogy holds true, though, in that the death knell of the machine has been sounded through the efforts of the reformers.

The day of the grinding, ceaseless and seemingly never ending scoring machine has gone by. The Yost Jugger-naut car will be but a memory of the past. Individual effort, initiative and resourcefulness will again return to its own.

Team play should be as faithful and productive of results as of old, but the resourceful, heady work of the star will shine out more conspicuously than ever.

The game of football itself has not changed, but the nature of the play has been strikingly altered.

The offense has been weakened and the defense strengthened by the new scrimmage line rules. This inequality has been more than offset by the weakening of the defense in the outside punt provision, and the allowance of the forward pass.

Beef and brawn will be more or less supplanted by agility and celerity. Unusually large scores will rarely occur, but scores running into the thirties and forties should be frequent.

Good material will be just as important to the coach, but its quality will be different, and the smaller colleges or universities will have much better opportunities to develop good teams than in the past.

The cardinal fault of an eleven this season which will lose games will be that of fumbling. Coaches can no longer rely upon muscle only, but will have to develop strategy and versatility in the application of plays to changed conditions.

Football should now be a game of brains, and the oft reported statement of Wellington's that "Waterloo was won on the football fields of Rugby and Eton" should now have a real significance.

The boys at Punahou, thirty strong, are going after the football championship this year in earnest. They are wearing veteran's suits and the boys will prove worthy of them if they go into the game as they go into practice.

Falling on the ball, punting, and running lumber the boys up each afternoon when they tumble out at 4 o'clock. Then the "Varsity" lines up against the "scrubs" and the fun begins. While playing defensive as many boys as possible.

THOSE NEW RULES IN THE WORLD OF THE SPORTS FOR FOOTBALL

BEFORE SEASON IS FAIRLY OPEN—ED ONE PLAYER IS KILLED—NEED MORE REVISING.

PORTLAND, Sept. 20.—Holland Feary was so severely injured at the Multnomah Athletic Club grounds today during a practice game of football that he will probably die. So far as known, this is the first fatal accident recorded on the Pacific coast under the modified rules.

Among those who are fully familiar with football one is not surprised at the report of a fatality even this early in the game. Any one who has had any experience in the game at all knows that it is not in the heavy mass plays that the men are nearly killed, and which the new rules paid all of their attention in trying to eliminate them, but it is rather in the open field running, where men are injured. The flying tackle and the stumble and the hurdle are the things which count in injuring men and with the exception of the hurdle all are still permitted.

In the mass plays while it looks as if men were injured they are only squeezed and the like while a fall when running as hard as some of them are made readily shows where and how the men are injured in the game.

There will probably be more deaths this year than last resulting from football and all on account of the large amount of end running that will be done this year and the necessary blocking of interference.

FOOTBALL PLAYER ILL.

One of the Kamehameha football men is seriously ill at the Queen's Hospital with appendicitis. This will probably cripple the Kam team seriously as Oliver Kawalea, the sick man, is considered one of their stars and without him the team will be considerably weakened. There is small chance of his being able to play unless he recovers without an operation being necessary.

fellows can't hurt me.' The idea had just occurred to him and he jumped out of his corner at the bell and ran at Fitz and put him out. That changed everything for Jeffries. He stopped paying attention to what the other fellow might do and made up his mind to fight on the aggressive all the time.

He quit the crouch and stood up straight. When he got a punch he laughed, because he knew he could not be dazed by any blow that a man could strike.

"I saw the difference the moment I stood up with Jeffries in the first round. Jeff stood straight and ran at me without paying any more attention to my jabs than he would to so many mosquito stings. I knew it was all off. Jeff was onto himself at last. The man to meet Jeff has not arrived."

"If you're looking for one, look up a man who weighs somewhere near a quarter of a ton, has strength enough to hug a grizzly bear to death, and speed enough to dodge a runaway racing car on a narrow road. He must be game and must have the natural fighting instinct. Fighters are born. You can't make them."

NO YACHT RACE IN 1907.
NEW YORK, October 2.—There will be no race for the America's cup in 1907, according to the Times, which says today:

"Whatever may be the ultimate outcome of Sir Thomas Lipton's negotiations for another America's cup race, it can be stated that there will be no race next year. Assurances are said to have been positively given that under no conditions would the New York Yacht Club consider a race in 1907. What might be done in the following year, or what action may be taken on the question of rules to govern any match that is arranged is absolutely uncertain. What reason actuates the decision said to have been reached by those who so authority will sway the club's decision is not known."

Sir Thomas made an informal visit to the New York Yacht Club last night. He remained, chatting with friends and club members until after midnight.

The Lipton party left for Chicago this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock. Lipton will remain there until October 9 and then return to New York.

IS THE SALOON DOOMED?

The following is the second of the series of articles discussing the liquor question which have been written at the request of the Anti-Saloon League, to be published in The Star. It is by G. D. Edwards, pastor of the Christian Church.

IS THE SALOON DOOMED?
Is the Saloon here to stay? Or, are we justified in expecting that some day it will be gotten rid of?

A POPULAR VIEW.
H. A. Juen, in the Advertiser of July 11th, says: "It is safe to say liquor will be drunk as long as it is made. It's absurd to think it can be done away with entirely. Alcohol has been with us since the time of the Romans and Egyptians. The problem is, then, how to control its use and sale so as to do the least possible harm." Looking in the same direction, though not quite so pronounced in the conviction, is the language of Judge De Bolt in his charge to the jury delivered early in September. He says: "In dealing with the liquor question we should use plain common sense and be governed by facts, conditions, and experiences rather than visionary and impracticable theories. We should endeavor to take a broad comprehensive view of this matter. And, in this connection, it would be well for us to realize, for we cannot close our eyes to the fact that the manufacture and use of intoxicating liquor is almost as old as the human race; and that, without doubt, so long as man possesses the knowledge and ability to make, and has the desire for intoxicating liquor, the liquor question will remain and continue in some form to vex mankind."

Judge De Bolt is a friend of temperance. Mr. Juen, though a saloon-keeper, says if he had his way he would stamp liquor from the face of the earth. Many friends of temperance believe liquor is here to stay. For that reason they look on the prohibition propaganda as a wild dream, and think the only wise and practical course is to attempt to regulate the drink traffic. The belief paralyzes them until they are unable to enter heartily into any movement which looks toward ultimate prohibition. They have grown accustomed to the evil. They have heard that it always has been. Finally, they conclude that there is no getting rid of it. Therefore, the only sensible thing to do is to mitigate the evils as much as possible by regulating the traffic and thereby make the best of an inevitably bad condition.

A PROPHECY.
Of course, when one attempts to forecast the future he must recognize how limited is his vision. However, there is a certain warrant given him by even a modicum of Christian faith when he is dealing with a thing that hasn't one redeeming feature to offer in its defense. The drink traffic has its parentage in greed and a depraved appetite. Its only tendency is towards evil. If there is a God and man is in his image this hell-born child of the Devil cannot always triumph. As one after another of the world's evils has been shaken off so will this one come to its end. Governor Folk's dictum that "Because a thing never has been done is no evidence that it never will be done," applies just here.

Not many decades ago this "always-has-been, always-will-be" argument, was used in defense of slavery. Then it was pointed out (even as now regarding the liquor evil) that the institution of slavery was almost as old as the human race, that it belonged to the Romans and Egyptians as well as to moderns, that such renowned philosophers as Plato and Aristotle had pronounced it necessary and even beneficial, that the weak must always serve the strong as long as human nature is human nature, that the Bible is full of savery with its sanction, that large property interests were involved and abolition of slavery would result in grave injustice, etc., etc. Yet slavery is gone, and never to return.

Let me barely mention one more illustration. A very few centuries ago the idea of a government of the people, by the people, for the people, would have been laughed out of court in all respectable circles. Kings were such by divine right, always had been, always would be. Their subjects were weak and too human to be entrusted with the affairs of government, always had been, always would be. Yet, the last divine autocrat is tottering on his throne and all the world is moving toward the Democratic-Republican idea. God is God. And as long as God is God wrong is doomed, and the saloon must go. If not today, then tomorrow. But today if we have the grace to say "It shall be so."

Until public sentiment arrives at this point I suppose the Joshuns and Calebs will have to wander with the unfaithful in the wilderness and watch their brethren as they writhe under the bite of the fiery serpent. But only the willingness or indifference of public sentiment makes it necessary. Whenever we are willing and determined to change it, it can be done. The day is coming too when it will be done. Then our children will look back on us and blush with shame for us that it wasn't done sooner.

A CALL TO THE VOTER.
My good-natured, easy-going temperance friend, don't imagine that what I have forecasted is going to come about of itself. It will be at the price of a mighty struggle. It may not be a war such as has sometimes freed the slave or given the ballot to the people. But it will be a conflict nevertheless. The liquor traffic is organized from top to bottom. It constitutes a great hierarchy and a powerful political machine. Therefore a light skirmish is not going to end the matter. In the language of Gough "It is a hard fight. It may be a long fight. But victory will come. Bye and bye the heroes who have labored shall come up over a thousand battle-fields waving with grain never to be crushed into a destroying beverage. Bye and bye they shall come up through vineyards whose purple glory will never be pressed into that which debases mankind. Bye and bye they shall come to the last fire in the last beverage flowing distillery and put it out; to the last stream of death and seal it up forever; to the drunkard's wife and wipe her tears away; to the last drunkard's child and lift him up and to the last drunkard whose burning fetters when broken will help to usher in the final triumph of the cross of Christ." This is the goal and is as sure as that right shall triumph over wrong.

Do you want a part in the triumph? If you do, join us now in the battle. Vote only for men who will pledge themselves to work toward that end. Do more than vote. Use your influence to get others to vote that way. Buckle on the armor and fight. If you fall, then up again, battered, bruised, armor dented, covered with scars, fight again. You cannot hope to sit still and win. You must help in the bringing in of the new future. One's noblest duty is to set himself to the task of making a better tomorrow than he knows today. In the effort to do it he must be willing to suffer whatever is necessary. That may not be much. Again, it may be a good deal. But in every great conflict between good and evil where right has triumphed there has always been, and must be the spirit of the hero to whom comes

"The voice without reply
"Tis man's perdition to be safe
When for the truth he ought to die."
G. D. EDWARDS.

NOT IN HIS LINE.
"Oh, no," said the man with the absent hair as he sat down in the only vacant seat in the car beside a woman with an infant in her arms, "I don't mind babies at all."
"Don't you, really?" asked the mother, with a sweet and expensive smile.
"Not me," replied the old duffer. "I always let the women mind them."

KNEW HIS TASTES.
Hostess—"Oh, Mr. Poorman, there's a young lady here tonight that I know will just suit you."
Mr. Poorman—"It is indeed flattering to know that you understand my tastes. What is the young lady like?"
Hostess—"Well, she hasn't got much sense, but she's worth a million."

E. H. R. GREEN.
The next governor of Texas may be the son of America's richest woman. There is considerable speculation among his supporters as to the quantity of pork forthcoming from his barrel, which has been brought to no intelligent conclusion by his mother's reputation for careful expenditures.

NOLLE PROESSED.
The case of Ah Tong, charged with selling poisonous drugs without a license, was nolle proesed in Judge Linday's court this morning by Deputy Attorney General W. S. Fleming. Similar action was taken in the cases of Tat Kung and 42 others, charged with violating the County ordinance which prohibits the display of gambling apparatus behind barred or barricaded doors.

INDICTMENTS IN FEDERAL COURT

Twelve indictments were returned this morning by the federal grand jury and one nolle proesed. The latter was in the case of Chun Pon, who was charged with buying army clothing from a soldier. He was held on account of an alleged purchase of a blouse, part of an army uniform, from a soldier named Alonso Boin. The jury declined, however, to return an indictment.

An indictment containing two counts was returned against E. Knust, for misuse of the mails, the charge being based on his alleged sale through the mails of a receipt for making whiskey. F. C. Bertelmann is once more on the list, on a new charge of impersonating a federal officer in the same old way, to get $1 for a "license."

Agino is charged with forging a signature of H. Matsuo on a money order for $165.00.

Smuggling 275 cigars, worth $29.31, is the charge against Alabl. He is alleged to have taken them from the steamer Doric, on April 30.

George Naaleono and John Puana are charged with breaking into the post office at Waialoa, Maui, with intent to commit larceny.

Indictments for perjuries alleged to have been committed before George S. Curry, Chinese immigration inspector, were returned against Ah Mol, Wong Nin and Young Tan. Joe Cahina, Tsuya Ogawa and Takao were indicted for adultery.

Apu was indicted for smuggling as a result of the alleged bringing ashore of 200 cigars, worth $13.91, from the steamer Doric on her April 20 call here.

THE STOCK EXCHANGE REPORTS MANY SALES

The stock market shows evidence of an upward tendency, it being very firm and doing a good business. The reported sales this morning were the highest for some time. There were 772 shares of various stocks sold, 345 of which were Ookala at 8 1/4.

Following are the sales reported: 250 Ewa at 26, 49 Oahu at 117 1/2; 345 Ookala at 8 1/4, 100 Onomea at 39, 50 McBryde at 5 1/2, and 51 Hawaiian Agricultural at 120.

The market seems to be making amends for the slowness of the previous slump two weeks ago. The price of sugar remains at $80 and as the Cuban situation remains brighter the threatened panic is speedily becoming a thing of the past.

To-night the Stock and Bond Exchange give their banquet at the Moana Hotel. They should be able to do a good deal of celebrating on the strength of these sales reported this morning. All of the brokers are elated over the turn things have taken the past few days. Prospects are bright for a continued firm market.

POPULAR YOUNG MAN DIED THIS MORNING

Samuel K. Dwight passed away this morning at Miss Johnson's Sanatorium after a short illness. He was operated upon for appendicitis and did not recover. The young man's death came as a sudden shock to his friends, many of whom did not know that he was ailing. He had only been ill a few days.

For the past year Samuel Dwight has been a stenographer in the offices of the law firm of Atkinson, Judd & Mott-Smith. He is spoken of very highly by his many friends in the city.

Young Dwight was cut off in the very prime of his young manhood. He was 19 years of age on the 20th of last January. He was born in this city and grew up here receiving his education in the common schools. He took a commercial course in the High School and then took the position he held at his death.

He was one of the most popular young men of the city and has a very large circle of friends.

The funeral will probably be held tomorrow afternoon.

ESTATE IN TRUST.
Mrs. Eva Hammer Leaves $1000 For Two Nieces.

The will of the late Eva Hammer has been filed for probate, creating a trust of which her two nieces are to be the beneficiaries. The will was made on the 23rd of last month, since which time the husband of decedent, Emil Hammer, has passed away.

The sum of $50 each is left to Herbert and Percy Levey, nephews, and $25 each to Clarence and Sydney Levey. The rest of the estate is left in trust for two nieces, Maud and Ethel Levey. It is to be kept for them until they marry or reach maturity, when it is to be evenly divided between them. The estate consists of $1,000 worth of personal property. James Steiner and R. L. Auerbach are named as trustees.

Let There be Light
Clean and durable cooking utensils in your kitchen and make it a pleasure to cook by using
ALUMINUM WARE
It has proven to be the leader of all other lines of cooking ware, because of its many advantages a few of which are absolute freedom from rust, is always bright and clear. Light to handle and heats quickly.
The durability of aluminum ware is well worth a housekeeper's attention.
If properly cared for, can be handed to another generation, as clean and bright as when first purchased.
