PRISONER ENDS LIFE

AH POY, SENTENCED YESTERDAY FOR EIGHT YEARS, DEFIED THE COURT BY HANGING HIMSELF.

"If I am convicted I will kill myself," said Ah Poy, Chinese burglar, in the hearing of the Deputy County Sheriff, William Jarrett, in the police station before he was convicted of burglary and sentenced to serve eight years in Oahu prison.

True to his word, Ah Poy killed himself. He was convicted yesterday of burglarizing Haffner's jewelry store in the Masonic block, Alakea, a few months ago, and was taken to the prison last night.

This morning his body was found hanging to a grating by means of the rope which had been attached to the hammocks in his cell.

Early in the morning at Oahu Prison it is the custom of the guards to go the rounds and unlock the cell doors and, at the tap of a bell, the prisoners themselves open the doors and step out.

This morning Ah Poy's door was not opened when the bell sounded and after the door had been unlocked. A guard at once threw open the door and discovered the body of Ah Poy suspended by the hammock ropes from the grating of a small window high in the wall of the rear of the cell.

Ah Poy had broken the fine mosquito wiring which had covered the small window in order to get at one of the bars to which he might attach the rope and he had reached up to accomplish this by finding a foot-rest on a ledge about half-way between the window and the floor of the cell. The marks of his feet scraping on the wall clearly showed this. He had formed a noose and put it about his neck and let himself drop, but not with sufficient force to break his neck. Death occurred through strangulation. The body was cold when discovered at it is supposed that Ah Poy's ghost held the prison precincts about the midnight hour.

Ah Poy was dressed in his prison uniform when he was put into his cell last night. His body was cut down and a coroner's jury summoned, Coroner Jarrett being notified about 5 o'clock.

Ah Poy whose tragic suicide occurred at the Oahu Prison last night, had had a romance during the four months that he had been confined in the prison, awaiting trial on the charge of larceny, a crime of which he was convicted and for which he was sentenced yesterday by Judge De Bolt, to serve eight years. Ah Poy had had a marriage forced upon him.

While he was in jail, the Federal authorities took him into further custody on a charge of violating the Edmunds Act. The woman was also arrested with him. The pair were married, following their arrest, but they had to skip the honeymoon, as prison bars and walls intervened, Poy being sent back to jail to await trial of the Territorial offense.

At best the world can seldom plumb the depths of the misery that drives one to suicide. Perhaps the eight years of single, solitary existence without his new wife, drove Ah Poy into a frenzy of despair and caused him to take his life.

High Sheriff Henry communicated with the widow this morning, she is living near the old Kalihl camp, and asked if she desired to take charge of

CLERK WISE IS FIRM

WILL NOT SIGN HOUSE JOURNAL AND IN MEANTIME WASHINGTON MUST BE PATIENT.

John Wise, the clerk of the House, says that he has not receded from his original position relative to the House Journal as prepared by Charles R. Buckland. Wise says that he will not sign the document and give it his approval until after he will have compared it with the original minutes made by him, of the daily sessions of the House.

Inasmuch as Wise's work with the House is at an end, he will hardly devote his own time to a comparison of the Journal. The House failed to make any appropriation to pay Wise for extra work incidental to the comparison of the Journal, so he will probably not see his way clear to do anything more about the matter.

In the meanwhile the President of the United States, the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives are no doubt awaiting with bated breaths the arrival of each mail from Hawaii with their copies of the Journal of the House of Representatives of the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii.

STACKABLE ARRIVES IN SAN FRANCISCO

J. P. Cooke, secretary of the Board of Immigration, received a cable yesterday afternoon from E. R. Stackable to the effect that he had just arrived in San Francisco and will leave on the next trip of the Sierra for Honolulu. Mr. Stackable has been absent in Europe for the past nine or ten months on business of the Immigration Board and his work has been most successful, resulting in the several thousand European immigrants being secured as settlers for the Territory.

As reported some days ago, Mr. Stackable was also able while in Washington on his way home, to secure assurance of the strong support of the President in the matter of getting European settlers for the Territory. The Sierra is expected here on her next trip about the 23rd or 24th of the month.

the body or view the remains. She said she did not care to do either; she was too poor to bury her spouse; she was too miserable to do him a last reverence. So Ah Poy's body will lie in the Potter's Field, ostracized in his life by his fellow men; deserted in his death by his wife.

The suicide of Ah Poy will, it is feared, remove the last chance for the authorities to secure trace of the remaining stuff that he stole from Jeweler Heffner. At the trial about $800 worth of the stuff was produced in evidence, but from $1000 to $1500 more understood to have been stolen, was not located. The police have not, thus far, been able to trace this part of the stuff.

Ah Poy was not the character of a man to volunteer much information, and it was only after a great deal of trouble and work on the part of the police that as much of the jewelry as was found, was discovered. Where the remainder of the stuff has been buried is a mystery and may remain so.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY MATRON TO ADOPT THE STAGE

The youngest daughter of Congressman Robert N. Bodine, of Missouri, who is Mrs. A. B. Mosher, now of New York, has chosen a stage career as her professional avocation and has entered into a contract by which she will sing for a certain season under the management of W. L. Lykens. Her first appearance will be in Brooklyn, next week, when her beautiful voice, which charmed Washington society for several seasons, will be heard for the first time in public.

Mrs. Mosher is the youngest of a family of four beautiful girls and her naturally sweet voice, which is a high soprano, has been cultivated under the tutelage of the best masters of Europe.

DREADED JURY SOON

INQUISITORS TO RESUME SESSIONS AND THERE IS QUAKING IN "IT IS SAID" CIRCLES.

The Territorial Grand jury resumed its sessions this morning in the Throne room at the Capitol building. F. W. Milverton of the attorney general's department, is in attendance. The jury is taking up some matters left unfinished from the last meeting and in addition has under consideration a perjury case from Waiwala and it is understood to have or will take up the case against Antonio Foster who was charged with having unlawful intercourse with a female under the age of 14 years. The case against Foster had to be nolle prossed some days ago, because the female child whom he was alleged to have violated could not be located by the officers. Subsequently she was located by Deputy High Sheriff George Sea and is now kept where she can be produced as a witness at any time. It is likely that further proceedings will be instituted by the attorney general's department, against Foster.

The dreaded Federal Grand jury will assemble August 19, unless called into special session before that date.

FEDERAL SITE. Representatives of the various interests concerned in the Federal building site have been in conference this morning with Acting Governor Atkinson over the general situation. What decision was reached or what the precise status of the matter is, could not be learned. It is presumed that further negotiations will occur before the case is settled one way or the other.

DISCOUNTS OF FINE QUALITY. K. Yamamoto, the wholesale merchant on Hotel street, is sole agent for the "Banana" brand of biscuits. This biscuit is very superior in quality and is recommended very highly as an article of diet. Ring up Main 399.

Today is moving day in the respectable district and dozens of doubtful dignity are vacating the road that leads to the pineapple cannery and moving to less public locations that the young girls who have to go to the cannery need not behold unwholesome spectacles.

KUMERIC MAKING GOOD PROGRESS

SECOND LOT OF SPANISH IMMIGRANTS WILL REACH HERE WITHIN THREE WEEKS.

A cable was received this morning by J. P. Cooke, secretary of the Territorial Board of Immigration from a London shipping agency to the effect that the S. S. Kumeric, bound for Honolulu with Spanish immigrants, is in port at Lota, and was to sail for Honolulu on the 4th inst.

The Kumeric sailed from Madeira, Spain, on May 1st, with 1056 emigrants bound for the plantations of the Hawaiian Islands, and this is the first time she has been reported since she sailed. Lota, or Lota Bajo, as it is sometimes called, is a small town on the Chilean coast about three miles from Concepcion. It is so small and of so little importance that its location was learned by the Immigration Board with considerable difficulty, as it is not named in most of the atlases or dictionaries.

By the progress which the vessel is making she should get here within the next fifteen or twenty days, or between the 20th and 25th of the present month.

SELF-STYLED POPE IN NEW YORK "CAN CURE ALL ILLS"

"Pope of the Divine Catholic Church" is what August Shrader, one time of Wisconsin, calls himself and he has arrived in New York to cure all ills and incidentally to collect funds for the establishment of a church wherein his doctrines may be spread before the masses. The "Pope" claims to cure any disease by the simple laying on of the hands. He affects in costume and hisraute adornment the commonly known portraits of Biblical prophets, wearing a black velvet gown, somewhat the worse for wear and lack of whisk-broom attentions, a gold cross about his neck and a generous crop of brown hair on his head and face. His eyes are blue and his language rather primitive, the last distinction showing a disregard for public schools in his youth. If you can't visit "Pope" Shrader to be cured of your ailments, all you have to do is write them to him,—not forgetting a cash enclosure of about 15 cents,—and he will cure you by mail. His motto is "a square meal to the soul."

RACES ON JUNE 11

NOT HORSE RACES, BUT THE USUAL OBSERVANCE OF THE DAY BY ROYAL PRINCES.

The Kamehameha Aquatic Club is making elaborate preparations for its annual meet at Kalihl harbor on June 11. The club has been in existence for several years and is under the special patronage of Prince Kuhio and Prince David. Every year on Hawaiian day, June 11, races and various aquatic sports are held by the club. There are native canoe races of all kinds, paddling and sailing, swimming and other sports.

The races will start this year about 9:30 o'clock in the morning and last during the forenoon and conclude in the afternoon. There will, as formerly, be a luau given during the noon recess. The affairs are always attended by large crowds from the city and vicinity. Some canoes from the other islands are expected to compete, Cash prizes are offered. David Kuphea is working up interest in the affair, as he is one of the officers of the club. The indications are favorable for a successful event this year.

SOAKING THE JAPS IN SAN FRANCISCO

THE CAUSE OF THE TROUBLE IN THE STRICKEN CITY—HOODLUMS MAKING LAWLESS ATTACKS ON JAPANESE RESTAURANT MEN AND STOREKEEPERS—BUSINESS PLACES DEMOLISHED—MORE WAR CLOUDS.

The recent small riots in San Francisco between the Japanese and the hoodlum element of the labor unions of that city, which has aroused the Tokio government and according to the very brief press dispatches received here on the subject, threatens diplomatic relations between the two nations, have been almost wholly brought about by the lawlessness engendered by the various strikes which have been in progress since the first of May. Most of the trouble has been caused by lawless attacks made on restaurants conducted by Japanese, against which the labor unions have for a long time been particularly antagonistic.

This restaurant trouble is not new, but it seems to have recently become much more serious than ever before. The eating houses in question are mostly situated in the lower Mission district south of Market street in which the new wholesale and manufacturing area has grown up. Ever since the big earthquake and fire over a year ago, the labor unions have been strongly opposed to the Japanese restaurants, some of them even going to the extreme of prohibiting their members from patronizing the Orientals under penalty of fines or suspension. During a part of last summer some of these places were regularly picketed about meal times by the Unions in order to keep Union men from entering them. With the exception, however, of some windows being broken by bricks occasionally thrown through them after dark and a few cases of assaults upon Japanese, the friction at that time did not become very violent. Secretary Metcalf, in investigating the school situation, with reference to the exclusion of the Japanese children, last fall, took occasion to look into the restaurant matter, and in his report held that the police force was lax in protecting the Orientals in their business.

Late papers from the coast, however, give details of much more serious condition of affairs. Gangs of striking union men, or rowdy element posing as such, have been visiting the Japanese restaurants and after ordering and eating elaborate meals have refused to pay for them. When a protest was offered, the gangs immediately proceeded to break up the place. The windows in many cases were shattered, furniture and dishes broken, and the places left completely wrecked. The police have been only indifferently successful in arresting the perpetrators of these outrages, and as a result the Japanese have taken the matter up through their diplomatic service.

According to this morning's dispatches, the situation is being taken seriously in Tokio, and one party there is demanding that Washington be required to secure an apology from San Francisco's mayor for the violence which his administration has permitted.

In speaking of the matter today, Consul General Miki Saito, head of the consular force for Honolulu, stated that he had heard nothing of the San Francisco trouble aside from the press dispatches, but he believed that the trouble would all be settled amicably in a very short time. "The Japanese will make no trouble," said he, "and I think the matter will be settled in Washington satisfactorily. But Japan does not want to lose the friendship of the United States, and I am sure will not."

It certainly is to buy your wines, and spirits and beer in bulk. And the largest and best stock is kept by the Criterion Jobbing Department.

JAPANESE CAFE IS WRECKED

SAN FRANCISCO, May 22.—The Horseshoe restaurant, conducted by Japanese at 1214 Folsom street, was partially demolished at 7 o'clock last night by an angry crowd of men.

The trouble started when two men went into a Japanese restaurant on Eighth street. They were driven out and then went to the Folsom street restaurant. A crowd followed them to Folsom street, and shortly after they had entered the restaurant some one threw a brick through the front window. From then on a regular fusillade of bricks and stones shot through the broken window.

After the Japanese in the restaurant had made their escape, the mob proceeded to destroy the Folsom-street Baths, a bath house also run by a Japanese, directly opposite the restaurant at 1214 Folsom street. The plate-glass windows were broken. When the police arrived the crowd quickly scattered. No arrests were made, but the proprietor of the restaurant has made complaint to the Japanese consul, who promises an investigation.

According to this morning's dispatches, the situation is being taken seriously in Tokio, and one party there is demanding that Washington be required to secure an apology from San Francisco's mayor for the violence which his administration has permitted.

COREYS SECLUDED AND THEIR VOYAGE

REACH CHERBOURG AND GO IM-MEDIATELY TO FRENCH CHA-TEAU—PRIVACY COST $2,000.

CHERBOURG, (France), May 20.—
William Ellis Corey, president of the Steel Trust and his bride, who was Villegent, which was occupied by Mrs.

Corey prior to her wedding. During their entire trip the Coreys remained in the seclusion of the Captain's suite.
Corey once or twice descended to the promenade deck, but his bride did not appear during the entire time. The passengers aboard called the couple the "Pittsburg prisoners."

If such was his object Mr. Corey obtained his $2,000 worth of privacy, because the stairs leading to the boudoir where the bridal cabin is situated were roped off so that the officers when going to the bridge for duty were stairway during meals never fails to interest the passengers. Corey (rough-out the voyage maintained a dignified silence. When walking on deck he kept entirely aloof from the rest of the passengers and neglected to speak to many whom he knew by sight. He walked with bowed head and seemed to avoid recognition.

The passengers on the tender stared at the couple as they pushed down the gangway. The bride sought refuge under the bridge. Corey pretended to look debonair, and the bride looked nervous. When the tender left the side of the steamship Corey acknowledged the farewell salute of the captain, but ignored the cheers of the passengers.

When a correspondent spoke to Corey and informed him about the troubles the Rev. John L. Clark was having,
Mr. Corey heatedly said:

"You cannot tell me anything that will interest me. I don't want to hear anything. I've not talked to anybody."

When informed that it was reported he would resign the presidency of the United States Steel Corporation, Corey snappishly said:

"I have nothing to say. Some persons seem to know everything. I am a private citizen and I want to be left alone."

"Oh, do say something," the bride interrupted.
"No," Corey exclaimed. "I have nothing to say about my marriage or the steel company. That is my business only."

When a reporter asked his future plans, Corey retorted and said:

"We're staying in Europe until the middle of July. We are going first to Paris. Our movements thereafter are not settled. That is all I have to say."

germ proof, but

THE GURNEY

Listen not to idle talk and arguments put forth in favor of cleanable provision compartment. All refrigerators have this feature. You cannot deny that unless ALL COMPARTMENTS can be kept absolutely pure and wholesome that a refrigerator is germ-proof. Go from the provision chamber to the receptacle for the ice and it is here where all other makes fail. There's the weakness that cannot be overcome by them.

The Gurney with its removal Ice Chamber feature has supplied the great want and therefore

Vaccination A Great Blessing

It is one of the strange psychological phenomena that men are to be found, even in the ranks of a profession in which the exercise of common sense is so indispensable a requisite, who will toy with the most serious concerns of public welfare, in reckless disregard of facts that have long passed beyond the reach of reasonable dispute; who indulge in denunciation of a protective measure that has stood the crucial test of long experience, that has successfully withstood all the hostile attacks of ignorance, inveterate prejudice and unreasoning opposition, to find itself firmly established as one of the greatest blessings that ever originated in a mind endowed with the scientific genius and the gift of self-devotion to humanity.

Against the fact, based on statistics, that in the 18th century one-tenth of human beings died with small-pox (in Europe annually 400,000), another tenth were disfigured, and that since the introduction of vaccination the mortality in general and the mortality from smallpox has been reduced to a minimum, objections raised against vaccination, even if they were well supported, fall to the ground. This statement was made by one of the highest medical authorities nearly half a century ago, when the efforts to suppress variola were comparatively defective, but when we examine the results of a thorough organization any doubt that may still linger in the mind of sensible people as to the protection afforded by vaccination against a most dreaded disease is bound to vanish.

The German laws which have been enacted for the suppression of smallpox have been recognized in many foreign countries as models of their kind. Their provisions, both for compulsory vaccination and for the hygienic policing and treatment of small pox cases, are so conscientiously and thoroughly carried out that the misery and terrors of an epidemic of the dreaded disease are unknown to the present generation. If a case occurs now and then it is usually one that has been imported from other countries.

According to the statistics furnished by the Imperial Board of Health in 1904, the last year of which complete figures are available, there were 180 cases of smallpox in the German Empire, of which 25 were fatal. More than one-fourth of the persons afflicted, namely 58, or 28.6 per cent., were of foreign origin. The great results of the organized efforts which this country is making to stamp out smallpox are clearly shown in the death rate from the disease per 100,000 inhabitants as compared with other European countries. In the whole German Empire the proportion in 1904 was .04; in Switzerland, 12; in Holland, 22; in 70 cities and districts of Austria-Hungary, 176; in 77 Belgian cities and in 8 of the suburbs of the city of Brussels, 14.11; in 71 of the larger French cities, 6.39, and in 76 of the large cities of England, 1.36.

To Supervise Central America

A joint protectorate exercised by the United States and Mexico over a union of Central American States is the latest proposition for insuring permanent peace among the small republics. The idea is ascribed to President Diaz, and has caused great commotion among the Central American diplomats at Washington.

An incident to the conclusion of the treaty of Amapala between Salvador, Honduras and Nicaragua was the agreement between these States that a conference should be held later to insure the continuance of peace in Central America. It is surmised that there is no obstacle to the adhesion of Guatemala and Costa Rica to the agreement which may be reached by the projected conference, and thus in effect would be formed a confederacy of the Central American States, though each of the elements might preserve its individuality and its own Government.

It is said that an American protectorate over such a loose confederation, singly or in combination with Mexico, is entirely out of the question, the executive branch of the Government being without authority to enter upon such an arrangement, even if it so desired, and there does not seem to be any reason to suppose the State Department would so desire. A protectorate, however, is a very different matter from supervision.

In this connection it is significant that George H. Murphy, United States Consul General-at-Large in Canada, Mexico, Central America and South America, is devoting his attention to Central America with a view to making a report on the treatment of the subjects of one republic when they enter the territory of another. Friction in this respect is held to be largely responsible for the frequent outbreaks. It has not been made clear just what action our Government can take after it secures the desired information, but it is believed the inquiry is a part of the programme of the United States and Mexico to exercise some sort of supervision of the Central American countries.

London Thinks We Slight Japan

Neglect of the United States Government to invite Prince Fushimi to visit Washington has caused astonishment among the London diplomatic corps. To these people the failure of President Roosevelt to express an earnest desire to extend the hospitality of America to Prince Fushimi seems like a slight to Japan.

They wonder at the American President's failure to seize an opportunity to promote friendly relations with Japan. In the course of a few weeks, they say, Fushimi will be in Canada, within a short distance of the American capital and other great American cities. It fills them with amazement to hear that no request has been sent to this distinguished Japanese to cross the American border and become a guest of the American nation. They argue that there is no country in the west which should cultivate Japanese friendship more assiduously than America. They recall that only a short time ago, when the California trouble was at an acute stage, dispatches came daily to European newspapers telling of the strained relations between Japan and America, and even suggesting the possibility of war between the two countries. And now when the trouble that gave rise to these alarming dispatches is only half settled the American Government purposes to permit a

COLORADO AND YELLOW PROBLEM

In this issue of The News is given a picture of the Japanese immigration to this State. Six months ago the Japanese population of Denver was estimated at 600. Now it is above 1000.

There are nearly 20,000 of the little brown men working in the beet fields, here, as everywhere else, they bring as much of Japan along as is possible. The Japanese supply houses of this city import practically everything that their countrymen use, except the meat and bread they eat and the overalls they wear. It is more than likely that they occasionally import their customers too, under contract.

These conditions must impress every thoughtful man as being worthy the most serious study. As yet the Japanese are a small fraction of our population, it is true. But they are a steadily increasing part. They are working their way rapidly to the East; and the experience of Hawaii tells us what that region may expect which acquires a Japanese majority. Beginning as day laborers, they have steadily encroached on every field of industry. They are a profit only to their employers; a temporary profit, even then. Their cannishness makes them give their own race every advantage in trade, while the whites think only of comfort or cheapness until it is too late to think of other things. The Japanese have fixed the type of civilization for Hawaii; and if their influx is not checked they will fix it for many a portion of the mainland of the United States as well.

And this The News holds would be an unmitigated calamity. We have no patience with the cry that the Japanese must be excluded because they are an inferior race. They are inferior in some ways, but superior in others; and The News has no means of striking a balance between the good and ill. We object to the Japanese as immigrants not because they are inferior, for we are not sure that they are so; but because they are different, hopelessly different, and must always remain so. The Japanese in our midst is an alien, and is proud of the fact. The course of evolution has made him a very different creature from ourselves. The keynote of American civilization is the care for individual freedom. The keynote of Japanese life is loyalty, the sacrifice of the individual to the master or to the State. The legends of our race too often glorify the outlaw who sets all restraint at defiance, and owns no rule but his own unbridled way. The Japanese legends are typified in that of the forty-seven Ronins, who endure exile, starvation, humiliation and death to revenge the death of their master and bring his enemy's head to his tomb.

Their race is different from ours, their customs are different, their ideals are different, their religion is different. The two will not mix. They cannot adopt our ways, nor marry with our people. And the people whom we should not admit to intermarriage we should not admit at all. The United States is a democracy, a government of the people; and for the people to govern themselves successfully they must be of the same race and have the same ideals. We have a negro problem now to which no man can see the answer. If we have left a single atom of wisdom we shall not add a yellow problem to the one which now baffles us. The Eastern papers which sneered at California were very ill advised. California was the outpost, that is all. When that State demanded the exclusion of Japanese coolies she was asking a boon for all the States. The News is glad that Colorado backed her Western sister in that demand. And The News would suggest that exclusion laws are not self-operative, and that if we wish to really stop the Japanese immigration we must let our inspectors know that they are doing their work in the public eye.—Denver News.

great Japanese prince to cross the American continent without extending him the slightest courtesy.

It is claimed that Prince Fushimi would be glad to visit Washington if asked to do so. The fact that he visited America three years ago was mentioned by Prince Fushimi's aide as an explanation of the omission in his literary of a side trip from Canada to the United States, but it seemed as if this was a diplomatic speech, and that if the aide had told the whole truth he would have said that Fushimi was keeping out of the United States because he was not asked to go there. It is not assumed that President Roosevelt in withholding an invitation to Fushimi to visit him had meant a slight to Japan. The theory is that there has been a lack of alertness on the part of officials of the American Government in not directing the President's attention to the favorable opportunity to gratify Japan by honoring one of her great men.

Let every city take its own census just yet from the serious business of want. St. Louis has started the ball.—take care of themselves at the proper time.—Indianapolis News.

It occurs to us that there is no special reason for any great excitement in the total depravity of even the rector or other at this early day about the publican party since nobody has menaced presidential campaign or can-tioned Boies Penrose for Vice Presidential. All in good time. 'By the bottles,' the man answered. 'Wherever the most empty bottles are scattered is the best place.'"

YACHT COMMITTEE MAY MEET.

If the members of the committee appointed yesterday by Commodore H. E. Cooper, to have entire charge of the work of securing a yacht to represent the Territory in the trans-Pacific yacht race next year, can be gotten together this afternoon the first steps toward organizing and formulating plans will be taken. The fact that the committee consists of men some of whom have exacting personal business to occupy their attention, makes it a little difficult to find a time which will meet the convenience of all, but this can probably be arranged.

The committee consists of W. H. McInerney, Charles T. Wilder, Judge Sanford B. Dole, R. W. Shingle, Col. Samuel Parker, Admiral George C.

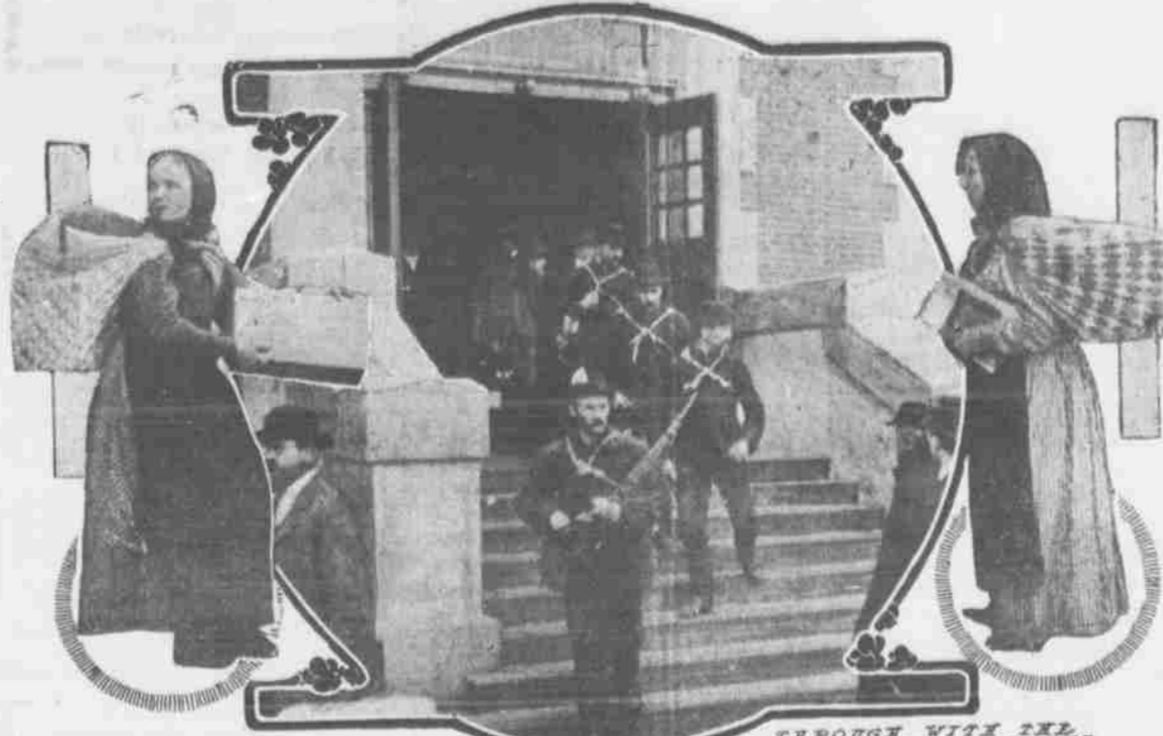

Bleckley, Vice Commodore Alexander Lyle.

LIVES IN HILO, ETC.

Acting Governor Atkinson is in receipt of a complaint on the part of some residents of North and South Kona, against W. M. Kalaiwaa, one of the supervisors of that part of Hawaii. Although a supervisor of that County, they declare that Kalaiwaa does not live in that section and has not lived there since prior to the last election. He lives in Hilo, the complainants say, with his family.

They think that the matter should be investigated. He is said to simply come over to attend the meetings of the Board of Supervisors and possibly to draw his pay.

Types of Immigrants Now Coming

Twenty-one thousand immigrants in one day at the port of New York last week broke all records, yet it is predicted that even this immense number may be exceeded. The majority is not a highly desirable class of prospective citizens, yet the new police regulations regarding searches for concealed weapons, starts the stiletto-carrying element on the new life here with an effective argument relative to the administration of the laws by individuals.

Thousands of weapons have been taken from them and the police department is in a quandry as to what to do with the arsenal it is collecting.

SAN FRANCISCO HAS BEER FAMINE

BREWERY WORKERS GO ON A STRIKE AND TELEGRAMS FOR RELIEF SENT BROADCAST.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 24.—Gee, that guy must be a Nevada millionaire; he's opening a bottle of beer"—heard on Fillmore street in 1908.

In less than a week there will be no more beer in San Francisco. The wise owners of cafes have seized the few remaining kegs and have stored them way down deep in their cellars. Small portions are doled out to favored patrons but all the while the proprietor watches with mournful countenance the precious fluid gurgle down the dust-lined throats.

Telegrams for relief have been sent broadcast to every town and hamlet that has a brewery from Milwaukee to Odessa. But before the relief trains can arrive there will be a reign of thirst in the city, made all the more unendurable by the fact that the wind is lifting the dust at a lively rate down town.

At any other time the city might have weathered a beer famine, but now that so many throats are dry after confessing and so many more drier because they have not confessed the pangs of beerlessness are almost too hard to bear. The fire eliminated the frankfurter that used to be placed temptingly on the lunch counter, the car strike made cross-country walkers, for a while out of those who were least addicted to exercise, but not even the gloomiest pessimist looked forward to a beer famine.

What a change in the social life of the city is impending when the beer famine at last has the city in its grasp. In the supper rooms after the ball there will be heard small talk of this sort:

"Won't you have a glass of steam, Mr. Van Mazama-Dough?"

And over the bridge table will be heard the whisper, "What delightfully sharp steam Mrs. De Smyth-Jones has at her functions!"

Champagne will be relegated to the cheap groceries. The order there as the patron lays down his nickel will be, "Gimme a schooner of champagne and draw it sharp."

For beer will be such a rarity that champagne will be beer and beer will be champagne.

A practical politician discussing the bearing of the famine on the coming political campaign, said: "Take my tip there ain't going to be any campaign. How can any one do politics without beer? You might as well try to run a benzine buggy without gasoline."

Most of the Pilsner parlors are now down to their last kegs and it is a melancholy sight to see the devotees of the foamy fluid gathered before the last barrel.

Dolefully and sobbingly the requiem of the last keg arises:

"The wine may be fine, but a cold stein for mine"—and then it ends in the sob "Never again."

The beer famine, like the wolf, is knocking at the doors of all Pilsner parlors.

FLAMES FROM THE SEA.

SECRETARY TAFT TO CUT OUT HAWAII

PLANS TO SAIL FOR PHILIPPINES BY WAY OF SEA-FLE—WILL ATTEND ASSEMBLY.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—To accommodate Secretary Taft the date for the assembly of the first Philippine legislature has been fixed for the latter part of October. As announced today, the Secretary's plans to leave Seattle on the steamship Minnesota early in September. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Taft, Master Chas. Taft, his son, one of his secretaries, and a messenger. The steamer will touch at Yokohama on the way out, and arrive at Hongkong early in October. The Philippine elections are to take place July 20, and the first assembly must meet within ninety days thereafter.

Secretary Taft expects to remain in the Philippines only about two weeks, so he will not be able to visit the southern islands of the archipelago, but will spend most of his time in Manila, and will make a visit to Benguet, the summer capital, with the special purpose of inspecting the fine public road which the insular engineers regard as their greatest work. Definite arrangements have not yet been made for the return trip, but Secretary Taft expects to be in Washington before the Christmas holidays, and in season to present to Congress plans for the legislation desired by him for the next session.

MONEY PAID

WELL KNOWN CHINESE INTERPRETER SECURES $19,000 FOR DAMAGES INFLICTED BY MOB.

Joseph Goo Kim, the well known Chinese interpreter who sustained very severe wounds at the hands of a Chinese mob near Lien Chow in October, 1905, has been well paid for his injuries. The Chinese Government was called upon to pay to the victims or their families sums aggregating $100,000. Of this total Goo Kim received about 27,000 taels, amounting to about $19,000. Kim has left the money with his wife in China.

The story of Goo Kim's narrow escape was related soon after his arrival from China. He was with some missionaries. The Chinese mob besieged the missionary compound and forced the several families including some Christianized Chinese to seek refuge in flight. Goo Kim fought against the mob. Some of the flying crowd took refuge in a cave. Goo Kim managed to get away. He sustained some wounds in the head and about the body and arms.

Dr. E. C. Mackle, one of the missionaries who was attacked with Goo Kim, passed through Honolulu on the S. S. Doric some days ago, en route from the Orient for San Francisco.

FEES VOLUNTEERED SAYS FALLEN BOSS

DECLARES HE NEVER SOLICITED A DOLLAR, BUT WAS TEMPTED BY MAGNETS.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—Abraham Ruef has testified before the grand jury that the corruption money paid by the millionaires of this city was unsolicited by him. Under oath he has stated that the capitalists and business men interested in the public service corporations sent for him and offered the bribes. He has testified that when he meant to be straight he was tempted to take the money offered.

"In all my dealings with the United Railroads, the Home Telephone Company and the San Francisco Gas and Electric Company I never asked for a single dollar. The money was offered to me unsolicited."

These were the final words uttered by Ruef on the witness stand before the Grand Jury. They sounded the keynote of his entire confession, his contention that the corporations volunteered the bribes to gain their ends.

As a result of the testimony of Ruef with the corroborative testimony of other witnesses, the Grand Jury is in possession of positive evidence to prove that the bribery schemes originated in the minds of the millionaires who were seeking favors from the city.

In several cases Ruef has testified that he was sent for and the money offered without the asking. No price was named by him. The amount of the bribes was suggested by the bribe-givers. They gave the money in a lump sum to Ruef. He apportioned it between the Mayor and the Board of Supervisors.

UNION FEED CO.'S ACTION POSTPONED

MEETING THIS MORNING FAILED TO DECIDE ON BISHOP STREET EXTENSION MATTER.

The meeting of the Union Feed Company which was held this morning for the purpose of taking action on the matter of allowing a right of way through their property for the extension of Bishop street to the waterfront, did not result in final action, and another meeting will be held some time tomorrow for final action. Owing to certain data not being at hand, the directors decided that they could not act intelligently, and so postponed action.

The commission appointed some time ago by Governor Carter to report if it is practicable to open Bishop street through to the waterfront for $17,500 made a report by special request of Acting Governor Atkinson yesterday afternoon, in which it reviewed the situation substantially as reported in yesterday's Star, and further that owing to no definite word having been obtained from the Union Feed Company it was unable to say whether or not the street could be opened for the sum named.

If the Feed Company fails to grant the necessary permission, unless the Waterhouse Trust Company finds a way to raise the entire $35,000 which it says is necessary to pay for the opening of the street between King and Merchant streets, as required by the Federal Government as a condition to the purchase of the Mahuka site for the Federal building, it looks as though the government will have to look further for a location for its building.

ASK FEDERAL AID AGAINST CRIMPS

FOREIGN VESSELS HELD UP BY DEMANDS OF BOARDING HOUSE MASTERS.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—The aid of the Federal Government is to be invoked to break up a combination of sailor boarding-house masters, who for some time past have been compelling vessels to pay heavy "blood" money before they could secure crews. Some of the prominent shipping people of this city have gathered sufficient evidence that will warrant the United States District Attorney taking charge of the matter and bringing the crimps to the bar of justice. The sailor boarding-house masters became so bold in their operations that they lost sight of the fact that they were restraining commerce and thus made themselves amenable to the Interstate Commerce Law.

The combination of crimps is not recent. It has existed since the early days of the port began, but at no time before did it reach its present stage when a vessel is compelled to remain idle in the harbor until the exorbitant money demanded is paid. In past years they have demanded as high as $50 per sailor, but, at present, they are asking $70 for each man. One British captain secured four green hands a short time ago, but when he asked for the rest of a crew, the boarding-house masters compelled him to pay $70 for each of the four men that he had picked up. The British ship Drummair, which has been loaded and ready to sail for South Africa five days ago, is unable to sail because her owners will not consent to paying heavy fee demanded.

2,000 JAPS TO GO IN KUMERIC

C. F. CHILLINGWORTH GOING TO QUEBEC IN INTERESTS OF LABOR ENTERPRISE.

The S. S. Kumeric is expected to sail from Honolulu for Vancouver with 2,000 Japanese on June 20.

Charles Chillingworth, promoting the exodus by this boat, the charter of which has already been arranged by cable, will take passage in the Kumeric and will go to Quebec to meet certain interests desiring the Oriental labor.

Fifteen hundred Japanese have already signified their desire to take passage in the Kumeric and it is expected that the number will reach the capacity of the British steamship before she is ready to sail.

Arthur McDuffie will probably accompany Chillingworth to Vancouver from Vancouver the Japanese will be distributed to various points of Canada.

Several hundred Japs are expected to leave for Vancouver in the S. S. Amiral Jaureguiberry now in port.

HAWAII'S OFFER TO HILGARD DECLINED

STATE UNIVERSITY SCIENTIST UNABLE TO ACCEPT PRESIDENCY OF AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—Eugene W. Hilgard, one of the foremost scientists in the world on "soils," professor emeritus of agriculture and ex-dean of the college of agriculture of the State University, has been asked by Governor Carter of Hawaii to accept the presidency of the new Hawaiian Agricultural College recently created by the Legislature of the islands. Owing to the delicate condition of his health the University savant has declined the honor of being first president of the college.

"I will give the board of regents of the college my heartfelt co-operation in choosing a head for the new institution," said Professor Hilgard yesterday, "but it is out of the question for me to take the place. Governor Carter is now in San Francisco awaiting an answer from the board of regents of Hawaii and as soon as their reply is received a man for the position will be picked. He will probably be connected with the University of California. Other members of the Hawaiian college staff will be chosen here."

 ZION AS A SUMMER RESORT. *****

CHICAGO, May 1.—Zion City is to be a summer resort. Following the action of Receiver John C. Hatley today in dismissing the old management of the Zion City Hospice and installing Homer Kessler, former Controller of the city, as head of that institution, steps are to be taken to make the corner one of the most attractive watering places on Lake Michigan.

Zion City has the finest bathing beach on the north shore, and this is to be developed, parks are to be built, pavilions constructed and docks made. For years the hospice has been conducted at a loss, but with the installation of the new regime it is to be pushed as a summer hotel. It will be altered and additions built if needed, and surrounding lawns and streets of the city will be parked and beautified.

SPORTS

BASEBALL OWNER SWINGS AT CUPID

MANAGER OBJECTS TO PLAYERS BEING MARRIED WHILE DIAMOND SEASON IS IN PROGRESS

"This marrying business on my team must stop," said Manager Berry yesterday, just a little put out.

"What do you mean?" "Here Nagle takes a wife tomorrow," replied Berry. "I could stand for that. One player was not so much, but now Ellis comes along and touches me for $75 to buy his girl an engagement ring. That's a whole lot of money to spend on a girl."

"Don't you believe in encouraging matrimony?" "Yes, I do," he asserted with emphasis, "but I believe there should be a season for this sort of thing, just as there is a season for baseball, and a season to shoot ducks. I'm no anti-race suicide kid that Teddy Roosevelt talks about. That's not my style. I like to see the boys happily married, and I say God bless them. But players can't do themselves justice when their heads are full of nonsense and love. This is why I advocate a marrying and a cooling season for the boys."

"Will you give Nagle a few days off to celebrate his nuptials?" "Celebrate his what?" "Are you going to give him a few days off to take a honeymoon trip?"

Nagle's honeymoon will be spent right there in the box," said the Angel manager, pointing towards the center of the field. "I would like to do the nice thing by Nagle, but as I say, this is a baseball season, not a season for matrimony. This should be cut out."

To add to Berry's uneasiness a fan called Berry's attention to the fact that the distance from the Angel's bench to the home plate was longer than from the Commuters. Right away Berry smelled a conspiracy.

"Wonder if Van Haltren did that to tire my men out?" piped Berry. "My men use big sticks, and I'll bet that he figured he would tire them out carrying them to and from the plate."

"That's inside baseball," observed Danny Long, with a dry smile. "That's done in all the big leagues if the visitors will stand for it."

"I would call that outside baseball, for we don't seem to be in it," retorted Berry, who had less experience than Long.

When some wise kodo essayed to enlist him in a discussion of the merits and demerits of the double-squeeze play Berry very wisely declined to wade any farther out in the deep water.

JACK McFADDEN TO FIGHT. SAN FRANCISCO, May 22.—Johnny Murphy left today for Eureka to finish his training for his twenty-round battle with Jack McFadden of Honolulu, slated to be pulled off May 25. This will give the fans a good line on Murphy's ability as a fighter over a distance of ground. The sturdy little Irish lad's friends claim that he is unable to do himself justice in four-round encounter and figure on him making a mark for himself in the world of pugilism when he starts after the bonafide professionals. The sports of Eureka should see a rattling good go, as McFadden is a mixer pure and simple and a knockout is bound to occur, because Murphy never backs up an inch, but toes the scratch and exchanges wallop for wallop.

SUCCESSFUL WORK OF WOMAN'S BOARD

ANNUAL MEETING OF MISSION WORKERS CONCLUDED YESTERDAY.

At the annual meeting of the Woman's Board, which was held all day yesterday at the Central Union church, the following officers for the ensuing year were elected:

Mrs. Doremus Scudder president; Mrs. S. E. Bishop, Miss Martha Chamberlain, Mrs. Theodore Richards, Mrs. O. H. Gulick, and Mrs. Lydia B. Coan vice presidents; Miss M. L. Sheeley, recording secretary; Mrs. W. E. Brown home secretary; Mrs. A. Francis add foreign secretary; Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, treasurer and Mrs. W. L. Moore, assistant treasurer. The superintendents of departments were reappointed.

There was a large attendance of delegates from all parts of the Territory, and quite a number of visitors from different points on the mainland who are interested in mission work also attended and told of the progress being made in their respective localities. Reports from the various officers of the Board and from the several standing committees and heads of departments, were generally most encouraging and showed that the organization is doing well.

Both the morning and afternoon sessions were presided over by Mrs. Doremus Scudder, president of the board while in the morning the devotional

BARNEY JOY USED BERTH HAMMOCK

EXPERIENCE OF THE HAWAIIAN HAD IN A PULLMAN CAR—RESTORED HIS PITCHING AIM.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 24.—Emanating from a source near Fillmore and Sutter streets, in very fact where half the evil smells of bad tobacco on Fillmore street are bred, comes this: Barney Joy, the Seals' imported slubber, took his first long railroad journey on his recent trip to Portland with the San Francisco team. When a man has a journey he emulates the good union of men of San Francisco and waits. When the ubiquitous Pullman porter had finally arranged Barney's berth on the first night the big fellow donned his "robe de chambre" and prepared to retire. Waiting until the lurch of the train brought the berth somewhere near at hand he lunged inside. In less time than it takes to tell it he was out again seeking for information. Swaying across the aisle he parted the curtains of Nick Williams' compartment and asked why the little hammock had been placed in his berth. Drawing a long face, Nick said: "Why, don't you know? They always fix those for the pitchers; that's to rest your pitching arm in. And for the rest of the journey Barney slept with his arm high above his head wildly waving in the swing in a vain effort to travel a la mode.

BASE BALL GOSSIP. A local player says he has discovered a new play now that they are so popular. His idea is to put a sharp spike near the end of his bat. He will hit the ball so that it will stick, and he can then outrun it to first by carrying his bat part of the way with him. Great scheme!

They tell a good story on Umpire Derrick. Last year, when the Seals were playing Seattle, Parke Wilson got on his high horse and became so offensive that Derrick gave him a minute to get off the field. Derrick pulled his watch and it was not running. He covered the face of it at once, however, and Parke trailed to the bench.

There have been many queer plays pulled off on the diamond, and every year brings out a new one, but the most unique of all was brought about during the recent series with the Cincinnati Reds. A batter having struck out was thrown out at first by the third baseman. Can you beat it? It happened thus: Whitse had struck at the ball three times. The last one was really a tip foul, and struck Schlei on his shins, but the umpire did not hear it on account of his ear-muffs. The ball rolled in front of the plate, and, thinking it a foul, Schlei threw it to third, as is usually done when fouls are hit. To the astonishment of everybody the umpire called it a "strike," and Kane threw the ball over to first and Whitse was out. That is the first time on record that a third baseman ever got an assist on a strikeout.

The trial of Loo Yip, Lee Look and Leong Ken for assault with deadly weapons on Pak Chee and also the trial of Pak Chee and Eng Yan for assault upon Loo Yip and Lee Look were before the District Magistrate yesterday afternoon. The trouble arises from a Chinese long affair. Leong Ken is an editor of the Sun Kwok Bok newspaper and says his arrest was a mistake, he having called at the station as a reporter where he was identified as one of the knifers.

The alleged knifers in the first case are members of the Bow Wong Society and are represented by E. M. Watson. In the second case the defendants are supposed to be members of the rival Ming Sin Sear society, represented by J. Lightfoot.

exercises were led by Mrs. J. T. Gulick. Luncheon was served at the noon hour in a big tent on the lawn of the church.

Among the visitors present who carried greetings to the Hawaiian workers from similar organizations, were Dr. Warren F. Day, and Mrs. Day, of Los Angeles and President Mills, of Mills Institute, San Francisco.

The officers elected for the coming year are almost identical with those of last year.

LEMA HAS A FIERCE NERVE. Lema Honnakan of Kau, has about as fierce a nerve, as has come to the official notice of the executive department of the Territorial government. Lema wants to have his civil rights restored to him, probably to permit him to hold some political job. Lema it appears, has been convicted of horse stealing, obstructing justice, malicious injury, and drunkenness. Seven convictions appear against him, during a period of eleven years. While Lema was in jail he was busy considerable of the time, trying to break out and did escape on one occasion. Governor Carter refused to restore his civil rights although a number of prominent citizens had signed the petition in favor of Lema.

PAST DUE ENVELOPES. It is intimated that the United States authorities may take up the matter of using the mails to send envelopes with the "P. D." or "Past Due" collection notices printed upon them. H. T. Mills the collector of obsolete accounts, is charged with so using the mails.

RUN OF BURGLARIES. There have been several burglaries within the last few days. On Monday night the residence of Dr. McLennan, Beretania and Richards streets, was entered and a gold watch and purse and some jewelry were taken. At the residence of A. Menefoglio, on Merchant street, a gold watch and chain and a small amount of money were taken in previous burglaries watches were taken.

AT THE ORPHEUM. Tonight the Ellefords will repeat Chas. E. Blaney's comedy melodrama "My Tomboy Girl." This is the piece that made a hit on its first presentation. The play is full of strong and laughable situations. Among the scenic effects are the Jersey City Ferry House, Old Furry Hall and the interior of the Devil's Cave. Specialties will be given by Miss Mattie Lloyd Luce, the Osborne Children and La Vigne.

There will be a grand family matinee on Saturday afternoon. Seats for the balance of the engagement now on sale at the box office daily from 10 a. m.

While Asabel Pursnigh of Danforth, Kan., was breaking a mule the animal grew fractious and kicked him through a window. Mr. Pursnigh will doubtless have the window protected by steel grating hereafter, and keep away from it at that. When a mule begins reaching through windows to kick people it is high time that the brute was hobbled.—Chicago Post.

Parlor Alarm Clock For Readers of THE STAR

EVERY HOUSE IN HAWAII CAN USE AN Alarm Clock

IT IS A WANT AND A NECESSITY.

Here's a chance to get a New Ornamental Parlor Alarm Clock absolutely free. This is a STAR premium and it beats anything ever put out. Indeed, we've spread ourselves to secure an unusually attractive, durable and Ornamental Parlor Alarm Clock. They sell everywhere for FIVE DOLLARS, but readers of THE STAR can secure one absolutely free.

THIS ILLUSTRATION WILL GIVE THE READER A GOOD IDEA OF THE APPEARANCE OF THE NEW ORNAMENTAL PARLOR ALARM CLOCK, BUT THE ACTUAL SIZE OF THE CLOCK IS MUCH LARGER; IT STANDS ABOUT 12 INCHES HIGH AND IS MASSIVE IN APPEARANCE. IT IS MADE OF EBONIZED BAR BUFF GUN METAL OF VERY ORNAMENTAL DESIGN, AND IS FITTED WITH AN EXTRA LOUD BELL ENTIRELY HIDDEN FROM VIEW.

Parlor Alarm Clock

CLOCK STANDS ABOUT TWELVE INCHES HIGH.

Guaranteed by Manufacturer to be a perfect timepiece. The clock can be seen at THE STAR office. It is an attractive piece of furniture and when you see it you will want one to replace that cheap nickel affair which is usually called an Alarm Clock. This clock is made of Gun Metal and the movement is guaranteed to keep absolutely correct time.

How to Obtain a New Ornamental Parlor Alarm Clock
 Subscribers to THE STAR, both old and new, who will pay $8.00 in advance for one year's subscription will receive one New Ornamental Parlor Alarm Clock free of charge

Moving Pictures Of Hawaii Make Hit Abroad

CINEOMA TOGRAPHER BONIN WRITES HONOLULU FRIEND—WILL COME NEXT MONTH.

James Guild of this city is in receipt of a communication from R. K. Bonine, the well known moving picture man who visited these islands and obtained many choice views. The letter follows:

You can't imagine the great demand there has been for moving picture films within the past year, due of course to the great number of cheap picture shows springing up all over the country, but the demand is all for "comedy" or, in other words, anything of a suggestive nature, and it was the demand for this class of work that kept the place so busy and held my Hawaiian subjects back so long.

This part of the business is handled in a separate department in New York where they can secure the "talent" or actors, costumes, scenic painters, etc., but the developing and finishing is all done here at the factory. My intention was to quit with the Edison company on my return last fall, but I did not want to leave the Hawaiian subjects until they were finished and the work completed, so I remained on until several weeks ago on finishing up my Panama canal subjects.

I have resigned my position now and am making preparations to make a western trip some time quite soon and on over to the islands some time in July, so am looking forward to seeing you again and giving you an opportunity to see the pictures I made last summer.

I have purchased a set of my Hawaiian scenes and a complete projecting apparatus with the object of giving some exhibitions and make a number of other scenes which I was unable to get last summer as I will be much better equipped this time and able to make and finish the work complete and exhibit it before leaving the islands.

My Hawaiian plate negatives were all put away in storage, as I was unable to do anything with them and just at present I am pushing my Panama negatives for lantern slide purposes, there being a temporary demand for them owing to a number of Senators and M. C.'s having been down there this past winter. I shall be through with this work shortly and will get to work on my Hawaiian subjects as I am getting up a display of enlargements to take with me to the islands and besides I have a number to whom I intend sending some prints, including yourself and Mr. Buchanan to whom I am indebted for valuable assistance and friendly courtesies. I have some very good scenes of the ceremonies at the opening of Kohala ditch of which I intend sending you each some prints.

I have recently given several very successful exhibitions of my Hawaiian scenes and enclose a paper account of one given last Saturday evening to the Orange Camera Club.

The feature of the evening was "Scenes and Incidents in the Hawaiian Islands," which consisted of moving pictures by R. K. Bonine of this city.

For wild, natural beauty there is perhaps no place throughout the Hawaiian Islands more picturesque or impressive than the graceful coconut palms and the rugged, wave-beaten lava coast of Laupahoehoe. This is a most excellent scene, showing a steamer landing her mail and passengers in one of the roughest and most dangerous surf landings along the Hawaiian coast.

A very interesting study in the beauty and power of sea waves, as they roll up and pound and break over the rough lava rocks at Laupahoehoe was also shown.

MISSOURIAN FOR KAHULUI.

SOMETHING EVERY FAMILY SHOULD KEEP.

Mr. J. P. Turner, of Grayville, Natal, has used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy successfully in his home and writes the manufacturers of this medicine as follows: "We are never without this remedy in our house and it certainly deserves success as it is worth more than you claim for it." For pain in the stomach, diarrhoea or infantile cholera, this remedy has no equal. It has been used in many serious and dangerous cases and has never been known to fail. For sale by all dealers. JEW TO RESIST DISCRIMINATION

AGITATION AGAINST HOTELS WHICH REFUSE GUESTS OF HEBREW BLOOD.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—Simon Wolf of Washington, one of the most prominent Jews in the country, has begun an agitation against the hotels which discriminate against persons of Jewish faith or blood. Wolf is conducting his propaganda as chairman of the board of directors on the Civil Rights of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations. The board has members in all the principal cities.

Wolf and other Jews have been aroused over the report that accommodations at the Marlboro-Plains Hotel at Atlantic City for her two nieces were refused Mrs. Bertina Kayner Frank of Baltimore, sister of Senator Isador Rayner of Maryland, on the ground that they were Hebrews. Other information of alleged discrimination against Jews by hotel managers had been given to Wolf prior to the incident in which Mrs. Frank figured, and his letter to the board of directors asking action against this proscription was written several days prior to that. It was prompted by the advertisement of the Grand Hotel at Lake Sunapee, containing the statements: "Hebrew patronage not solicited, and 'Hebrews will not be received as guests.'"

ROCKEFELLER IS COUNTRY'S MENACE

JUSTICE W. J. GAYNOR OF NEW YORK APPELLATE COURT CALLS REBATES CENTURY'S CRIME.

KANSAS CITY, (Mo.), May 23.—W. J. Gaynor, Justice of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of New York, in an address here tonight, made John D. Rockefeller the object of an attack without specifically mentioning his name. He pointedly called attention to his $32,000,000 gifts and told how the great fortune had been built up through rebates and discriminations by the railroads. He characterized the latter as the greatest crime of the century. He also criticized judges who had used passes. Turning to the railroad situation, he declared that government ownership was not such a long step, citing that under the laws the railroads were public highways. He said:

"If, then, certain individuals in a short lifetime become possessed of so much property that they can make abnormal gifts to charity; if one man can get so much out of the division of the total products of prosperity while others are getting so little, that he can give away, for instance, the vast sum of $32,000,000, without feeling it, or missing it, so colossal is his wealth, any more than you would miss five dollars, we make a fatal mistake if we ascribe such a condition to prosperity. Rather let us pause and inquire whether such colossal fortunes could be acquired in a state of prosperity, which rests on a just division of the product of industry."

"If we find the public highways of the country, the railroads of the country, being used to allow a few to acquire such fortune at the expense of their fellow men by having their freights carried at a rate lower than others have to pay, and so much lower that they are enabled to under-sell and destroy their rivals in business, and thereby create monopolies in themselves, our condition is not only one of prosperity, but it is dangerous to the perpetuity of our free government."

"Just think for a minute of these public highways being used to enable a few men to destroy their business rivals, by means of favoritism in freight rates. It is the basest crime of our day and generation."

"All of our legislatures and public officials from constable and assessor up whose aid and good will were serviceable to those who controlled the railroads, and who accept passes were given them for themselves and friends and corrupted by them. And even some of our judges—tell it not in Gath publish it not in the streets of Ascalon—had their passes or rode in private cars."

KAWAIAHAO SEMINARY GIRLS GRADUATED

KAWAIAHAO CHURCH SCENE OF PRETTY COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

Kawiahao church was the scene of the commencement exercises of the Kawiahao Seminary last evening, and the splendid character of the program rendered held a large crowd of friends deeply interested for over two hours, while many passersby on the street were attracted by the splendid singing and also joined the audience.

The music was furnished by the Seminary Glee Club, and a number of selections were rendered, including the bridal chorus from the "Rose Maiden," which was one of the best.

Three papers read by young ladies of the graduating class represented work of Hawaiian, Chinese, and Japanese, and was an especially interesting feature. Miss Emma Litfee's subject was "The World's Food Supply," while Miss En Nyen Wong talked of "New China." Japan was represented by Miss Hisayo Hiroshima, whose subject was "Retrospect and Foremost." The address to the graduating class was delivered by Rev. Roland B. Dodge agent of the Hawaiian Board of Missions on Maui, and was most interesting and instructive.

MAY IRWIN, AT 54, TO MARRY AGAIN

WEALTHY ACTRESS NEXT SUNDAY WILL WED HER MANAGER, KURT EISELDT.

NEW YORK, May 21.—May Irwin, the actress, is going to marry her manager, Kurt Eisdeldt, next Sunday, according to her relatives and friends. There have been rumors of such a wedding for some weeks, but both parties to the reports denied them strenuously until tonight. This Miss Irwin, who stops in the Woodstock Hotel on West Forty-third street, refused to be seen.

But Albert Campbell, brother of the actress, said that the marriage was all fixed and would take place the coming Sabbath at Miss Irwin's summer home in the Thousand Islands. The actress is fifty-four years of age and worth more than half a million. Her prospective husband is 29 and she has a son who will be two years his first husband's senior. Miss Irwin's first husband, now dead, was a musician named Keller. Whether she will retire from the stage upon her marriage the actress has not told her friends.

SIXTY-THREE YEARS OF AGE TOMORROW

THE Y. M. C. A. TOMORROW
WILL CELEBRATE ITS START
BY A HUMBLE CLERK.

(Communicated).
Tomorrow the Young Men's Christian Association will be 63 years of age. It was organized in London, June 6, 1844. On that evening twelve young men met in a room of Hitchcock & Co.'s drapery house to consider the establishment of an organization to promote Christian work among the young men in the dry goods business in the metropolis. One of the clerks, George Williams, was the leading spirit. He is now looked upon as the founder of the Association, and as such was knighted by Queen Victoria a few years before her death, the Y.
M. C. A. having by that time become world-wide and its founder risen from a humble clerk to one of the great merchants of London.

NEW PHOTOGRAPHIC
SOCIETY ORGANIZED

CAMERA * ENTHUSIASTS WILL CARRY ON WORK ALONG SYS-TEMATIC LINES.

The large number of persons in Ho-
graphy practically assures the success of the organization which was formed last night at a meeting held at the Promotion Committee rooms. It will be known as the Hawaiian Photographic Society, and starts off with a charter membership of thirty-six.

The society has for its object the promotion of amateur photography, and the collection of valuable and interesting photographic records of current history, art and science. It is hoped that all persons interested in the fascinating work will become members of the organization.

The officers elected at last night's meeting are: President, Francis Gay; vice-president, D. H. Hitchcock; secretary, Dr. A. N. Sinclair; treasurer,
H. P. Wood; lantern engineer, J.
P. Warren. These officers, with the following councillors, H. Hosmer, J.
Kotinsky, A. Lydecker, R. Perkins, form the executive committee.

Decorated Dinner Service

¶ No! it is not made of rubber. Made of clay. But, it admits of extension and is therefore, figuratively speaking, elastic.
¶ You can buy a few articles today and add a few more to the collection tomorrow—or a month from now.
¶ First thing you know you have a service for a large gathering—same decoration.
¶ Is not that elasticity?
¶ We control for this vicinity the choicest elastic patterns made. All prices.
