AFFIRMED AGAINST AGENT HONOLULU LICENSED DEALERS.

Piipilani Recovers Claim against George Houghtaling—Some Probate Cases.

Judge Carter has approved the accounts and ordered the discharge of Luiza de Gloria Marcellino, administratrix of the estate of Antonio Marcellino. Judge Perry represented the petitioner.

Judge Carter has approved the accounts and ordered the discharge of H. E. McIntyre, executor, and Jane Walker, executrix of the will of the late John S. Walker, as to their trusteeship of the estate of the late James Bicknell, co-executor with the said J. S. Walker under the will of George Bicknell.

Judge Carter has signed a decree in accordance with the report of J. A. Thompson, master, on the bill to declare and foreclose a lien of J. M. Peenahela, administrator of the estate of B. Kahawahewani, vs. D. Toomey, Grinbaum & Co. Ltd. and Maria Makaha. Plaintiff is subrogated to all the rights of defendants Toomey and Grinbaum, in, and under a mortgage set forth in the bill of complaint, and has and shall have a first lien for the sum of $669.12 and legal interest from March 15, 1897, upon all the right, title and interest that Kaitipuhilo had in and to the land covered by that mortgage, also a first lien for a similar amount with interest upon all the interest of defendant Maria Makaha in and to the same property so mortgaged.

A unanimous opinion of the Supreme Court, prepared by Justice Frear, has been rendered on the appeal from the Wailuku District Court of F. E. Hime, under conviction of selling liquor without license. Particulars of the case were given in the BULLETIN some time ago. Defendant was an agent and keeper of a store at Lahaina for H. Hackfeld & Co. Shimisaki was a clerk in the store and sold a tub of saki to a Japanese named Shimbo. The shipping receipt was made out to H. Hackfeld & Co. for the steamer Noeau. Defendant had the saki delivered to the customer, who paid him for it. Shimbo took the receipt to the wharf, got the saki, and paid the freight thereon. This was one of several similar sales. Hime received no commission on such sales, and had no license to sell liquor. H. Hackfeld & Co. had such a license at Honolulu. The magistrate fined Hime for unlicensed selling liquor, and on this appeal from his decision the Supreme Court says: "We are of the opinion that, in view of the evidence in this case, however correct may be the law relied on by the defendant, the decision of the District Magistrate cannot be reversed as unsupported by the evidence." The judgment appealed from is affirmed, on the ground that the sale of liquors took place at Lahaina, where they were ordered, and not at Honolulu, whence they were sent. Deputy Attorney General E. P. Dole for prosecution; Kinney & Ballou for defendant.

Judge Carter this afternoon gave a decision on the claim of Piipilani against George Houghtaling with C. J. McCarthy as garnishes. He awarded to plaintiff $242.87 now due by McCarthy to Houghtaling, the balance of claim to be a lien on the indebtedness of McCarthy to Houghtaling. Magoon & Edings for plaintiff; Creighton for defendants, who noted exceptions to the Supreme Court.

Lawyer Davis has rented an office in the Campbell block, opposite the Hawaiian News Co.'s store, and will move in tomorrow.

The sale of reserved seats for the Flying Jordans' entertainment opened at the Wall Nichols store this morning. The first performance comes off on Friday evening.

CAMPAIGN FRUITS.

Bulletin Editorial Effects One from Prominent Pennsylvania Paper.

Under the head of "Hawaiian Annexation," the Norristown, Pa., Daily Herald of March 16 contains the following article. Norristown is a city of about the same population as Honolulu, and the Herald is one of the best known papers in the country:

The Honolulu Bulletin of February 19 advocates the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands to the American Union, presenting several arguments in favor of the project. Figures are given to show that the United States would gain rather than lose in connection with the sugar industry by the adoption of such a course. Although beet sugar production is likely to develop enormously, the consumption of sugar is also on the increase. It is likely to be a long time before the home supply equals the demand and hence the gain from establishing closer relations with a country like Hawaii, which produces much sugar.

Stronger, perhaps, than the commercial argument for Hawaiian annexation is the fact that a large portion of the population of Hawaii are Americans who are desirous of living under the stars and stripes. This desire should have recognition. President Harrison, after a careful survey of the whole situation, determined upon that step, and the necessary preliminaries were gone through with to that end. Mr. Cleveland, apparently considering that he was bound to antagonize the policy of his predecessor throughout, undid everything that had been done. The result was to lose an opportunity that should have been improved, and to make this country ridiculous in the eyes of the world.

The new President will doubtless renew the negotiations looking toward the acquisition of the Hawaiian islands by the United States, not for the purpose of antagonizing the policy of his predecessor in office, but because it is the wisest and most patriotic thing to do under the circumstances. The country will support the new administration in such a stand, as it will in an attitude as regards the island of Cuba which would have a tendency to stop the devastation and bloodshed now going on in that island.

Pictures Received.

John F. Colburn has received from Lieut. Moser copies of photographs taken on the occasion of the railway excursion to Pearl Harbor tendered by Mr. Colburn to the gentlemen of the U. S. S. Albatross. They developed very well and include a view of the cooking in the earth for the luau given by the host at his Peninsula residence, the fine landscape seen from his lawn, the ancient oyster banks, etc. Dr. Miller was the photographic artist of the party. He was a member of the Behring Sea international commission, and in the Albatross conducted scientific investigations of marine life, etc., for the Smithsonian Institute, Washington.

The Flying Jordans.

In the "Flying Jordan Vaudeville" the Orpheum has one of the best attractions that the O'Farrell-street music hall has offered some time, says a late Chronicle. John Burke, who, by the way, will sing "Johnny, My Old Friend John," this week, keeps the audience in a continuous state of laughter for forty minutes, and the three Olifans who call themselves collectively the "three-headed nondescript," are a puzzle to every one interested in anatomical distortions. Virginia Aragon's work on the high wire is as pretty work as has been seen here.

THE RECIPROCITY TREATY

WILL BE OPPOSED IN THE NAME OF THE CONSUMER.

The Agreement Said to Be in the Interest of the Sugar Trust.

Washington, March 12.—There promises to be a lively fight in the Senate when the Dingley tariff bill reaches that body, provided the clause already adopted by the Ways and Means Committee, reaffirming the Hawaiian sugar reciprocity agreement of January 30, 1875, is allowed to stand in the bill and passes the House. The attack on the treaty will be led by Louisiana Senators, Caffery and McEnery, in the interest of Southern cane sugar producers, and they will be assisted by Senators representing States in which the beet sugar industry is a factor. It will be made in the name of the consumer, and will depend for success on popular antagonism to trusts and monopolies. Senators White and Perkins will defend the treaty, as they know its vital importance to the interests of the Coast, not the least of which is the Hawaiian sugar-carrying trade.

The principal contention of the opponents of the reciprocity treaty, which has stood for more than twenty years, is that, since there are no independent refineries on the Pacific Coast, all the sugar imported from the Hawaiian islands goes to the Spreckels refineries. They are so closely identified with the sugar trust, it is claimed, that the consumer gets no benefit whatever from the reciprocity agreement.

When the treaty was first adopted the carrying trade was encouraged and many American bottoms engaged in it. At present the great proportion of the Hawaiian sugar crop is carried direct to New York by sailing vessels built in England, and in many cases by vessels flying the English flag, though recently a number have been given Hawaiian registers. This, the opponents of the reciprocity agreement assert, gives to the trust all the advantage of free sugar, inasmuch as the Hawaiian crop figures as an item in the raw supply. By reason of this free entry, it is said, the Hawaiian sugar corporation's stock, which is owned almost entirely in the United States, is able to earn as much as 25 per cent dividends, and has made fortunes for the holders. This is what has caused opposition to the treaty for the last eight years.

The fight against abrogation will be made by annexationists and close relationists, who now figure that the present Administration will be obliged to grant at least a protectorate. They will summon all the arguments which were so successfully used at the time the treaty was consummated. They will set forth that American capital should be encouraged in the islands, and that all, or nearly all, of the lumber, textile materials, hardware and a large amount of machinery used is now supplied by California dealers. This trade would certainly be shut out in case the treaty was abrogated.

THE LABOR QUESTION.

Commissioner Fitzgerald of California Here to Investigate.

Labor Commissioner Fitzgerald of California and his secretary, E. M. Green, arrived yesterday morning and are registered at the Hawaiian hotel, where the California official was seen by a BULLETIN reporter shortly after lunch. The result was crowded out of yesterday's issue by a press of matter previously in type. Mr. Fitzgerald is evidently used to being interviewed if he does not actually like it, for he very cordially offered to give any information in his power. In response to questions he said:

"We have in California, and especially at certain seasons of the year, a large surplus of white labor, especially of the kind known as agricultural. I have long been impressed with the idea that much of this labor could be utilized on Hawaii's sugar plantations and I am here for the purpose of investigating the matter thoroughly. It has been deemed by my ears incessantly that white laborers cannot stand plantation work here. I propose to go among plantations and investigate that fact personally. If it turns out that that statement is untrue, as I have always believed it to be, then I shall try and find the reasons why white labor has been excluded to the preference of Asiatic. I want to find out a whole lot of things, everything about labor especially, in these islands. You know I am a kind of a crank on the labor question. I have been at it all my life and it is my hobby. When I go back to California I shall be able to tell the men who come to me daily to find them employment just how things are down here and what they may expect when they come.

"I expect to remain here a month at least, which will enable me to gather quite a lot of information on the labor question. I shall see as many of the plantation managers as possible and get their views on the matter of employing white labor. I am conducting this investigation on my own responsibility and to satisfy myself. If I can supplant the Japanese here with white men I shall have found employment for many of my own countrymen to the exclusion of twice as many Asiatics."

The causes which led Mr. Fitzgerald to come here, and who invited him were matters which he did not care to discuss at present, but the result of his investigations will probably be made public in the shape of a report to Governor Budd, to whom alone he is responsible for his actions.

FOR HAWAIIAN MISSION.

Dudley, Pangborn and Admiral Walker are Candidates.

Washington, March 12.—Despite publications in the Chronicle showing what undoubtedly will be the disposition of the various Federal positions in California, applications for offices continue to pour in upon members of the delegation. While Dudley seems to have the best show for the Hawaiian place, friends of Z. G. Pangborn of Newark, N. J., and of Admiral Walker are making efforts to land the prize. The prominence recently given the candidacy of Robert P. Porter, who was in charge of the last census, for Minister to Japan lends many persons to believe that he may yet win the place.

Fallen from Grace.

The Advertiser remarks in a recent issue that one of the great drawbacks to a republican form of Government is that large bodies of men often get between the legs of the Executive and trip it up. We are sorry to see the Advertiser giving expression to views of a royalistic nature and so inconsistent with its daily confession of faith for the last four years. We fear our contemporary has fallen from grace.—Hawaii Herald.

THE KEY OF THE PACIFIC

THE UNITED STATES WILL NEVER LET GO OF IT.

The Boston Journal's Answer to the Pall Mall Gazette and London Times.

The following is from the Boston Journal of March 5:

All too late our British cousins have discovered that a luscious prize is slipping from their grasp in the Pacific.

"That Honolulu is virtually a Yankee town," laments the Pall Mall Gazette, "is evident to the visitor the moment he lands. He strikes Yankeeism here as truly as at San Francisco. The people, the hotels, the churches, the shops, the accent, even the white palms round the houses, are predominantly American. How is that our island empire has left out this large and fertile group of islands, totaling up to half the size of Ireland?"

And the Gazette, quoting the London Times' significant statement that "The maritime power that holds Pearl River and moors its fleets there possesses the key to the Northern Pacific," mournfully asks: "Is this going to be one of our lost possessions?" Nothing can be more certain than that it is. John Bull is a great conqueror and colonizer, but in Hawaii he has run up against his master at the game. It is useless to hope that the "sinister Monroe Doctrine may be excluded." Whether it is or is not would not change the vital circumstance that "Honolulu is virtually an American town." The Yankees have got hold of the whole Hawaiian group de facto, and they will hang on to it de jure, Monroe or no Monroe, annexation or no annexation.

But there is something absolutely pathetic in John Bull's reluctance to let go of it. Just listen to the Pall Mall Gazette's plaintive suggestion—"The group is big enough for both of us. Can we not discover two Pearl Harbors?"

To all of which suppose Uncle Sam should make reply: "So is Bermuda, too, big enough for both of us. What is the matter with 'joint naval ports' there?"

What would be John Bull's answer?

AN INQUEST HELD.

The Jury Finds That Achi Came to His Death by Carelessness.

Marshal Brown presided at the inquest held over the body of Lum Chee Achi, who was killed on Monday night by injuries received in alighting from a street-car.

Paul Neumann appeared on behalf of the tramcar company.

After hearing the testimony of David Notley, James Thompson, Isaac Sherwood and Dr. J. T. Wayson, the jury returned the following verdict:

"That the deceased, Lum Chee Achi, came to his death on the 29th day of March, 1897, by being run over by a tram car which mutilated both legs and from the nervous shock of which he died a few hours after. Said Lum Achi being thrown from the car by his own carelessness."

Opening Tomorrow.

Mrs. Hanna, the Fort street milliner, will hold her opening day tomorrow of spring millinery. A new lot of French pattern hats and bonnets will be a specialty. A unique display of varied colors artistically arranged will be a special feature. It has always been Mrs. Hanna's aim to be up-to-date, and her opening tomorrow will undoubtedly be a pleasant surprise to her many friends and patrons.

Vespasian was marching toward the city to dispute his claim to the throne, he sought the sword, thinking to meet his rival, but it had disappeared. Believing this to be an omen of defeat, he secreted himself in a dark recess of his palace, where he was found by the angry people who had so recently declared him emperor and was ignominiously dragged forth and hurried away to the foot of the Capitoline hill. The German soldier who had stolen the sacred sword happened to arrive at the same moment as the disgraced monarch, and, drawing the sword, he cut off the emperor's head with a single stroke, fulfilling the decree of the Norns that the sword should slay its possessor.

The German soldier kept the sword many years, fighting in many different regiments and in various countries and was always victorious. He became famous on account of his skill and power as a warrior and was greatly honored. At last old age compelled him to give up his martial pursuits, and he retired to private life, still retaining in his possession the wonderful sword.

Fearful lest it might be taken from him, he buried it upon the banks of the river Danube and built himself a modest dwelling over the spot where the sword lay hidden. At last he died, and though his friends begged him to disclose the hiding place of the sword he refused, saying that, though its possessor might be able to conquer the world, he could not escape the curse of death.

The sword, however, was not destined to remain always hidden. Many years after the death of the German soldier the Hun leader Attila, with an army of invaders, passed along the Danube. As they approached the spot where had formerly stood the German's hut Attila noticed a peasant rusefully examining his cow's foot and paused to inquire what was the matter. The peasant told him that the cow had cut her foot upon something that was hidden in the tall grass.

They began a search, and soon found the point of a sword sticking out of the ground. The sword was unearthed, and when Attila saw the fine workmanship he knew that he had found the lost sword of Tyr. It had not lost its luster or its wonderful virtues by its long imprisonment in the damp earth, for, from that day, victory attended Attila in his encounters with the enemy.

At last, becoming surfeited with success, he determined to retire to private life, but first he took for a wife a beautiful princess, Hildeo by name, whose father had fallen in battle by his hand. The princess had sworn to avenge her father's death, and she saw in her union with Attila an opportunity to fulfill her vow.

At the feast that followed the wedding Attila became intoxicated, and Hildeo, stealthily obtaining the sword, slew him as he lay sleeping in his bed, again verifying the prophecy of the druides.

Once more the sword disappeared and was not again heard of until the Duke of Alva, one of Charles V's generals, mysteriously obtained possession of it and by its aid won the victory at the battle of Muhlberg. After the battle the sword again disappeared and has never since been seen.—Arthur J. Bundick in Philadelphia Times.

Mr. C. W. MACFARLANE—It affords me pleasure to recommend, to any one whose hair is falling out, the use of DR. POTTIE'S HAIR OIL. My hair was coming out at such a rate as led me to believe that I would soon become bald. After using the oil for five weeks this ceased entirely; none whatever is now falling out. I consider it the best and only worthy remedy for this trouble and also recommend it as a stimulant to new growth.

HISTORICAL LECTURE.

"Hawaii. A Lecture delivered by Theo. H. Davies, Esq., F. R. G. S., before the Members of the Young Men's Christian Association, Southport, on Friday Evening, December 18th, 1896. Southport: Robert Johnson and Company Ltd., Printers, 'Visitor' office, 1897." Such is the title page of a pamphlet received by the BULLETIN with the compliments of Mr. Davies. The lecture treats historically of these islands from Cook's discovery to the present time, and concludes with a plea for the restoration of the monarchy with Princess Kaiulani enthroned. One of the most interesting things told by Mr. Davies is the discovery by him, after great pains, of the very sheets of the log-book of Cook's ship Discovery, containing the account of the great navigator's death. Mr. Davies says: "To my great joy we found the very sheets of the log-book, which had been taken from the book, sent to Kamschatka by a Russian ship of war, thence to St. Petersburg, and finally to Whitehall, where they have been buried for more than a century. Together with the log-book was found the diary of a young officer, and both these documents were placed in my hands, and typewritten copies were given to me, which I eagerly read. Two questions were thereby set at rest: first, the Hawaiians never were cannibals; second, although the natives regarded and treated Cook as a god, he clearly had no conception of the fact, and innocently expressed his wonder at their liberality and gifts." Mr. Davies' restoration plea will keep for comment.

CONSISTENCY!

In the Tacoma Weekly Ledger of March 12 is an editorial headed, "The Prize Fight Nuisance." It opens with these words: "Those newspapers which are the exponents of what is called the 'new journalism,' which pander to vice and crime and the lowest tastes of the vicious are at present reveling in illustrated details of the forthcoming prize fight, whereby a couple of lead-mouthed bullies propose to settle the important question which can 'slug' the most effectively." The article goes on to give tacit approval of a bill introduced in last Congress for the suppression of detailed and pictured reports of prize fighting, concluding thus bravely: "It will be said that a law, such as the one proposed, cannot be passed and enforced, but so was it said that the lottery could not be driven out of Louisiana nor lotteries excluded from the mails. Many men besides Boss Tweed have found out what people are going to do about it when offenders go a step too far." Behold you the Weekly Ledger of March 19, a week later, giving nearly two pages of its finest print to a detailed report of the prize fight, profusely illustrated with portraits of the principals and abettors and pictures of the slogging. There is also a leading editorial on the fight, which graphically describes its overshadowing interest to all the serious concerns of life, individual and national and universal, concluding with this unmistakable capitulation of the high moral ground taken a week before: "There is at least something to be said in favor of exhibitions in which people of all classes take such a persistent interest, in the face of all that the law and prophets can do to suppress them. While this interest survives, as it promises always to survive, in face of all opposition, sincere and insincere, would it not be wiser to make the prize ring more presentable and less objectionable than it is, rather than be forever 'bested' in the fruitless effort to 'knock it out.'" Prize fighting is prohibited by law in all the States of the Union excepting Nevada, where a special act was passed for the sake of securing the recent mill in that State. Probably a Federal enactment will before long knock out the disreputable business, generally dishonestly conducted as it is, for the whole nation. Among the humiliating facts of the Nevada exhibition is that of a former United States Senator, John J. Ingalls of Kansas, hiring himself out as a reporter of the event to New York and San Francisco papers.

HAWAII ISLAND.

Items from Hilo to Last Saturday from Local Papers.

A great scarcity of rain is reported from Hamakua district, and it is feared that some plantations will have to shut down for want of water.

P. G. Camarinos, uncle of the Lycurgus boys, who came to Hilo recently in the hope of benefiting his health, has been quite ill during the week.

W. Rawlins leaves by the Kinau of April 12 to pass the preliminary examinations at Punahou College, Honolulu, for entrance to Yale Law School.

On Tuesday of this week a whale measuring about 30 feet long came into Kailua Bay where it playfully sported itself for three or four hours. Some native fishermen put off in boats to try and harpoon him, but did not succeed.

The Hilo Foreign Church is rapidly assuming a permanent form and, from present indications, promises to be the finest piece of architectural work in Hilo. Contractor Pratt expects to have all outside work including the tower finished by the end of next week.

Among the recent purchasers of land in Oloa is Dr. N. Russel, who has secured 100 acres just back of Mr. Fulcher's tract on the Volcano road. He has let contracts for clearing and planting seventy-five acres of it in coffee. Dr. Russel has a place—twenty-six acres in coffee—near Mountain View and with a frontage on the main road. He will build a residence on this at once. A scheme of the Doctor is to bring a number of Russian families and locate them on his Oloa plantations. Dr. Russel has announced his intention of residing in Hilo during the summer months.

On March 12, at 6 o'clock, a. m., a breakdown occurred at Laupahoehoe mill owing to a Chinaman willfully placing a cold chisel in the gearing and breaking part of the machinery. The Chinaman was arrested and tried that Tuesday and sentenced to a term of two years imprisonment. Grinding was suspended for a few days until repairs could be made and now everything is running smooth again.

There are nearly a thousand electric lights installed in Hilo as a result of two years' operations of the local company. An ice plant and cold storage has just been inaugurated by the same company, ice being furnished at a cent a pound in not less than ten pound lots.

The Government is putting the Kaw road to the volcano in perfect order, and the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Co. has abandoned its idea of a road from Keahou.

Ewa plantation paid a 5 per cent dividend this morning and Honouliuli 3 per cent.

Timely Topics

March 29, 1897.

It is an old saying that cleanliness is next to godliness and we believe it to be a true one. So many people in Honolulu use our stoves and kitchen utensils that they have got in the habit of sending to us for all sorts of things for kitchen and general use.

Soap is one of these things. It is not exactly in the line of hardware but it certainly can be classed as merchandise. Anyhow we have a lot of it on hand and we propose to sell it and sell it quick. The line of soaps we handle is that made by Colgate & Co. of New York, and we need not say there is none better in the market.

We offer Colgate's Cashmere Bouquet and Jockey Club Soap at 35 cents per cake, the genuine article and full size; Glycerine, Rosador and Honey at 20 cents the cake, and Rico and Castile at 10 cents.

For a shaving soap there is none equal to Colgate's Demulcent. We sell it at 10 cents the cake, it is worth 50.

In medicated soaps we offer the well-known Cuticura at 20 cents a cake, and the Medicated Tar Soap at 15 cents. This latter article is excellent for bathing and shampooing purposes. Try it and you will be convinced.

Those "Orange Rims," but unfortunately for us it is not glistening on them in this country, as our shipment of STEARNS wheels was put on the "W. H. Dimond," so is not due here for a week. Our COLUMBIAS also are still out of wheeling range, as they got to S. F. the day before the steamer sailed, and no more freight would be received, but they will come along soon, and in the meantime we want you to know that we received 97 RAMBLERS by yesterday's steamer, and can fit you out with either a '96 or '97 wheel, and we know we can suit you. The 1896 RAMBLER is the bargain of the year and the chance to buy a well known high grade wheel for $75 and $80 will not last long, as we are informed by the makers that this is the last lot of '96 wheels they can furnish, for, as they write, "our sales have been phenomenal, and you took the last '96 wheels we had in stock."

WE RENT BICYCLES by the hour, day, week or month, and we rent high grade new wheels, such as RAMBLERS, STEARNS, and COLUMBIAS, so if you want a short ride or a long ride, want to ride single or want to ride double, drop in and see how nicely we can fit you out. You will get just as good a mount if you telephone us, and we will send your wheel to your door. Your chance to buy a '96 RAMBLER cheap will only last a few days, don't miss it.

JAPAN MOURNS AGAIN.

Death of the Crown Prince Reported by S. S. Peru.

The following paragraphs are from a news column in the San Francisco Chronicle of March 18:

"The steamer Peru, which arrived yesterday from the Orient, brings the news that the Crown Prince of Japan is dead. The heir apparent to the Japanese throne, according to advices that are considered authentic, passed away at one of the palaces of the royal family between Yokohama and Kioto several days before the sailing of the Peru, but for various reasons the fact has not been publicly announced as yet. Japan has just recovered from a month of mourning over the death of the Empress Dowager, during which period business was suspended and festivities of all kinds avoided. To inflict the whole empire with another siege of grief and mourning at this time has been deemed inadvisable, and for that reason, so the story goes, the death of the Crown Prince is being kept secret for the time being. Captain Day said that it was reported in Yokohama that the death of the Crown Prince had completely prostrated the Emperor, whose health has not been the best of late. A rumor was circulated that the Emperor also was dead, but this was quickly and emphatically denied. One rumor had it that smallpox had broken out in the Emperor's palace and that the Queen Dowager and the Crown Prince had both died from this disease."

An inquiry has been made at the Japanese Consulate General in Honolulu about the rumored death of the Crown Prince. No official information has been received by Consul General Shimamura, and he is strongly inclined to believe that the rumor is untrue.

Tomorrow's the Day.

A visit to the Temple of Fashion this afternoon disclosed to a BULLETIN representative a weary looking lot of clerks and one very tired proprietor. Mr. Silva and his large staff of clerks have been very busy for the last three days remarking the immense stock preparatory to the grand closing out sale that opens tomorrow. "We are just finishing up," said Mr. Silva, and a very hard job it has proven to be. Over $40,000 in dry and fancy goods has been remarked in plain figures.

"Why plain figures?" "Oh, so the people won't have to be continually asking prices on different pieces of goods that will be displayed within easy reach of the customer. Big discount! Well, I should say so; the largest ever given in Honolulu, I am positive. I have got to close out this stock, as I am permanently retiring from business. I readily realized that the only way to make the public buy was to sell cheaper than any other dry goods firm in the city.

"My reduction? Twenty-five per cent reduction on the actual cost. No firm can do this and continue to live, but I can stand it, as I intend to leave Honolulu for good, and permanently retire from the dry goods business. The white merchants trade in dress silks, men's hats, shirts and other gents' furnishings is now mostly done by the Japanese. They can buy cheaper than I can. In Japan they pay less rent as a rule, hire cheaper labor, and in consequence undersell the white merchant. This is one of my reasons for retiring. The other is that I have private affairs in Portugal that demand my personal attention. Come in tomorrow - if you can get inside the door - and look over the prices. You will say that I am foolish, but these goods have got to go."

STANFORD MUSICIANS COMING.

The Glee and Mandolin Clubs to Visit Honolulu.

A Stanford University dispatch to the Chronicle announces that the Stanford Glee and Mandolin Clubs will shortly make a trip to Honolulu, prior to one across the continent.

"The trip to Honolulu will be made immediately after the close of the present semester and will last four or five weeks. The financial side of the trip is an assured success from the fact that the boys have as their champions there John H. Sopor, Adjutant-General of the Hawaiian Republic, and Miss McGrew, sister of a former member of the Glee Club. These two loyal supporters of the cardinal have received subscriptions of $10 each from 100 of the prominent citizens of the islands who are anxious to hear the jolly college boys, and this amount will be turned over to the clubs before their departure. In addition to this, the clubs will receive 75 per cent of the gross proceeds of the entertainments given their. These two amounts will easily cover the $2300, which amount has been estimated will be the cost of the trip.

"The two clubs which will make that trip will be composed of twenty-two men. They will take mandolins, guitars, violins, mandolas, banjos and their voices, and they will certainly astonish the natives down there. But they also have rare dramatic talent among their number and they will vary the week's amusements with a burlesque on "The Prisoner of Zenda," which was recently presented to them, and one other play. At night they will sing and play and in the day time they will be the idols of the islands' society."

Citizen's Attention

These are days of considerable anxiety and perplexity to all who have possessions or other interests in the Republic of Hawaii, and it is time that our citizens came to a mutual understanding on several important issues. The prospects for Annexation appear at present vague and indistinct, and our destiny cannot be foretold with certainty. There are those, also, who still fondly cling to the hope of a return to the old order of things, and who cannot be persuaded otherwise, yet this outlook appears far more hazy than that of Annexation even to the most hopeful disciples of the Monarchy. But, fortunately, in the midst of all this uncertainty there is solace in the fact that Buffalo Beer has come to stay and that patrons of all sorts and opinions may equally share the benefits of its invigorating and sustaining properties. We are moreover assured that this favorite brew will continue to be dispensed as heretofore at the Royal, Pacific and Cosmopolitan Saloons.

For Rent

WHERE AMERICANS CAME FROM

Anthropological Expedition to the North Pacific Coasts.

New York, March 12.—Morris K. Jessup, president of the American Museum of Natural History, has provided funds which will be used by the anthropological department of the museum, under the direction of F. W. Putnam, for a systematic exploration of the peoples of the North Pacific Coasts between the Amoor river, in Asia, and the Columbia, in America.

Three expeditions will be fitted out, whose work, carried on in the State of Washington and in British Columbia, at Behring straits and along the Asiatic Coast, will cover a period of 6 years. The first of these parties will leave for Washington and British Columbia toward the end of May. It will consist probably of four men under Dr. Franz Boas, assistant curator of the museum, and will include Hiram I. Smith, assistant in the museum, who will have charge of the archaeological investigations.

The expeditions to Siberia and Alaska, whose personnel is not yet decided upon, will probably start this fall and next spring respectively. The chief object of these expeditions will be to investigate the origin and early history of the American race, and to trace its relations with the races of the old world in the north. The relations between the American and Asiatic peoples have been a much-discussed problem, and it is proposed to go over the ground in a more thorough and systematic way than has ever been attempted before. This is to be done before the completion of the Siberian railway and other civilizing influences have destroyed the primitive conditions now existent in Northern Asia.

JUDICIARY JOTTINGS.

Supreme Court Decision—Motion to Reinstatement Labeled Case.

In a unanimous opinion of the Supreme Court, written by Chief Justice Judd, the case of J. R. Wilson vs. L. A. Andrews, Sheriff of Hawaii, is remitted to the District Court of South Hilo for further proceedings. This is on the appeal of plaintiff on a point of law. Wise for plaintiff; Little for defendant.

Fourteen creditors proved claims amounting to $13,084.84 against E. R. Hendry, a voluntary bankrupt, and John Lucas was elected assignee to act under $5000 bond.

S. K. Kane, a creditor of decedent, petition for letters of administration to himself on the estate of E. Helekuinihi, of Haiku, Maui, who died intestate. There is real property of $300 value, but personal property is unknown.

Paul Neumann, attorney for plaintiff, gives notice of motion to reinstate J. E. Gomes vs. Hawaiian Gazette Co., libel, on his affidavit that the default under which it was dismissed was caused by his unavoidable detention at Wailuku—as counsel in the Japanese murder case.

ALONGSHORE JOTTINGS

SOME NEWSY NOTES GATHERED THIS DAY.

The Ship Packard Ready to Sail for New York—About Other Vessels—Passengers.

The schooner Prosper sails for Port Townsend today.

The schooner Esther Buhne is loading sugar for the Coast.

The schooner Aloha sailed yesterday afternoon with a full cargo of sugar for San Francisco.

Tomorrow, high tide large 3:58 p m; high tide small 3:10 a m; low tide large 9:16 a m; low tide small 10:10 p m.

A number of boats from H B M S Wild Swan were sailing about in the harbor this morning. They looked very pretty with their white sails spread to the breeze.

Preparations were made aboard the ship Benj F Packard today for sea. The big ship is to sail tomorrow with 54,418 bags sugar, weighing 3351 tons, for New York.

The American bark Amy Turner sailed for Hongkong yesterday afternoon. She has 10,000 cases of oil aboard for that port which was brought from New York.

Captain Harry Evans bought the sail boat Passion from Captain Hoffland of the schooner John D Tallant yesterday, and afterward sold it to Deputy Marshal Hitchcock.

Good Work.

The latest Hilo Tribune says: Captain Macdonald, the new master of Wilder's steamship Hawaii, performed a record day's work on Thursday of this week, and demonstrated what really could be done in one day by a thoroughly competent man. The Hawaii drew up alongside the Annie Johnson on Thursday morning and discharged 3000 bags of sugar on board of her. The vessel then steamed out to Pepeekeo where she took in 5000 bags—her full complement—in the short space of 6 hours 25 minutes, returned to Hilo bay and dropped anchor the same day. No boats were used in loading at Pepeekeo, sugar being taken on board by cable.

Without a Pilot.

A Port Townsend dispatch of Mar 22 says that Captain Frank Morley, who successfully navigated the British ship Gleniericht from San Francisco to Port Townsend, without the aid of a Sound pilot or tug boat, is in trouble.

Captain Morley was arraigned for violating a State law. He was bound over to the Superior Court and in default of $500 bonds is in jail. The prosecution is being made by Captain Charles H Jones of the Board of Pilot Commissioners and will be pushed to the bitter end with a view to discouraging further moves in this direction.

The T. F. Oakes.

New York, March 21—The long overdue American clipper ship T F Oakes, which left Hongkong on July 4, 259 days ago, with a general cargo for this port, and which had been given up as lost, was towed into port this morning by the British tank steamer Kasbeck, Captain Muir, who picked her up last Thursday in latitude 38 deg 10 min, longitude 68 deg 44 min. The crew were sick with scurvy and six had died.

The Oakes is a three masted ship, built by the late Commander Gorringer at Philadelphia in 1833. She registers 1897 tons. On March 13 she was reinsured at 90 guineas premium.
