Weakened Vitality IMPOVERISHED BLOOD.

Read what Ayer's Sarsaparilla did for the Rev. Z. P. Wilds, a well-known city missionary in New York and brother of the late eminent Judge Wilds:

"I was for many years a sufferer from boils and other eruptions of a like nature, caused by the impoverished state of my blood. My appetite was poor and my system a good deal run down. Knowing the value of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, by observation of the good it had done to others, I began taking it. My

NEW LEGISLATION NEEDED

SALE OF BUTTERINE TO BE REGULATED BY LAW.

Senator McCandless on California and Washington Butter—Large Quantities of Butterine Sold Here.

Among the many matters which will come before the next Legislature for discussion will be a bill to prohibit the sale of oleomargarine, butterine and kindred compounds except under legal restrictions. The same legislation has been found necessary in the United States in order to protect the interests of dairymen and farmers. It was only a short time after the introduction of oleomargarine that the dairymen of Dutchess county in the State of New York foresaw the danger to the pure butter making industry and organized to procure proper legislation to offset it. By proper agitation they succeeded in having a law passed requiring all artificial butter compounds exposed for sale anywhere to be plainly labeled in large display letters, "oleomargarine," "butterine," etc. If recollection serves the writer correctly the States of New Jersey and Ohio passed similar laws soon after, and the ball thus set rolling was passed from one State to the other, until now it applies to nearly every state and territory in the Union. It is now proposed to have the Legislature enact a similar law for this country.

That the necessity for it exists will be apparent when the statement is made that an average of 67,000 pounds of butterine is sold every month in Honolulu alone. Just think of it! Three tons and a half of imitation butter sold monthly in this city. And who uses it? Not the Chinese or Japanese or Hawaiians, certainly, for they couldn't afford it even if they were accustomed to the use of butter, which they are not. The Portuguese use very little butter for similar reasons, consequently the great bulk of the stuff must find its way into the stomachs of the other white races. Somebody eats it, certainly, and it would be interesting, to say the least, to find out who really gets away with it.

One of the largest sources of demand for butterine arises from the Chinese restaurants, but there are several of those who do not use it; at least, the proprietors have told the writer whence they obtain their butter and have offered to show their bills in support of their assertions. These better-class Chinese restaurants, which depend mostly on white patronage for their existence, use island butter for the table. But with these few exceptions butterine is undoubtedly used by most of the Chinese restaurants of the city, yet this will not account for the consumption of 67,000 pounds monthly, and these figures come to the BULLETIN from a reliable source.

A great deal of California butter comes to Honolulu, and a great deal more would come were such exorbitant prices not charged for it. This California article is retailed at anywhere from 70 to 85 cents the block, supposed to contain two pounds. The very best article is quoted in the California market reports at 20 cents per pound or 40 cents a roll or block, showing that what is often facetiously termed "the Hawaiian one per cent" is made by someone in the handling of it, and it is very certain that the steamship companies do not get it all, although their charges for icehouse goods are large enough to bear cutting in half.

During his recent visit to the State of Washington, Senator McCandless has been looking into the butter business, with the view of opening up a trade in this article between Hawaii and that State. He finds that the finest kind of butter can be obtained there at prices ranging from 16 to 21 cents, and even less in some seasons of the year. He and his friends, he has several of them in the dairy business, have become imbued with the idea that they can place Washington butter in the Honolulu market at such prices as will make it interesting for the California article, to say the least. They realize, however, that good butter cannot compete with bad nor the genuine article with the artificial, and for that reason the Senator proposes to inaugurate a movement against all kinds of artificial products sold as butter. It is not designed to prohibit their sale, but only to regulate it. The BULLETIN hopes it will be regulated to such an extent as to require restaurants to put up a sign showing whether oleomargarine or butterine is used on the premises or not. The writer has seen several such signs in California restaurants. Senator McCandless and those who are with him in this movement will undoubtedly have the full support of the public in procuring the necessary legislation in this direction.

JAPANESE MEETING.

Election of Officers of the Young Men's Association.

Last night the second and inaugural meeting of the Japanese Young Men's Association took place above Luce's auction rooms, there being about 50 to 60 people present. Mr. Watanabe took the chair at the instance of Mr. Ueta, unanimously supported by all present. The way he conducted the debate was another instance to prove his ability as chairman and debater.

After preliminary proceedings, such as reading of the bylaws of the association, the election of president, vice president and committee took place. K. Ueta, sub-agent of the Yokohama Specie Bank, was elected president, and R. Taketa of Ogura & Co., vice-president.

Mr. Ueta delivered an address, starting a debate on "Japanese foreign commerce in relation to young men." Cakes and cold drinks were served afterward. The meeting dispersed about 10:30, after the most enthusiastic cheers for the Emperor and the Japanese Young Men's Association. Mr. Susumago, photographer, was a prominent speaker in the debate.

OFFICIAL VISITS.

Minister Cooper and Consul-General Mills on Board the U. S. S. Marion.

Minister Cooper in the Foreign Office barge paid an official call on the Captain of the U. S. S. Marion this morning shortly after 11 o'clock. On leaving the warship he was saluted with seventeen guns.

Consul-General Mills also visited the Marion shortly afterward and was also given the usual salute on leaving.

President Dole will likely return the call made on him by Captain Greene during the afternoon.

Reasons Why.

There are two reasons why people are now paying car fare all the way from Waikiki to the Palama Grocery and back. Reason 1. It is the only place on the Islands where the celebrated Salvation Army tea is sold. Reason 2. After paying car fare both ways patrons find they are money in pocket by dealing at this "live and let live" establishment. We also deliver goods between Diamond Head and Moanalua free.

MORE JAPS TO GO BACK

ONE HUNDRED AND SIXTY-THREE REFUSED LANDING.

Arrangements for the Detention of Those to be Returned—Arrival of the Rio Janeiro.

The investigation made by Collector-General Castle and his assistants into the standing of the free immigrants brought by the Sakura-maru came to an end late last evening, with the result that of the 316 on board 163 will have to be returned. One hundred and fifty three, including two babies, were found to possess the necessary qualifications and were permitted to land and go about their business.

It was generally supposed that the 163 immigrants rejected would be returned on the same vessel by way of Seattle, but this morning different arrangements have been made. It has been agreed that the immigrants shall be kept at the quarantine station in the custody of Marshal Brown until taken away by the Sakura maru on her return from Seattle or by some other steamer at the option of the agents of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha Company, who have filed bonds with the Collector-General agreeing to return the immigrants and pay for their keep while awaiting the arrival of a steamer. It is considered more than likely that the Sakura-maru will receive orders at Seattle by cable to call for the immigrants on her return instead of going through to Yokohama without stopping here, as her itinerary provides. This course has been adopted to save unnecessary expense in taking a lot of people to Seattle and back again.

The Sakura-maru is coaling this afternoon but will probably have to pull out in the stream before she is finished to allow the Rio Janeiro to come up to the wharf and discharge her freight. The Sakura will likely get away early tomorrow morning.

The Rio Janeiro was telephoned a few minutes after noon although the whistle did not announce the fact for some ten minutes afterward.

She brought 301 Chinese contract laborers and a few Japanese in the steerage. No difficulty is expected over their landing.

St. Patrick's at Ewa.

A correspondent at Ewa sends the following:

"This said that 'Irishmen are ever ready for a feast or a fight' and they are excellent at both forms of entertainment. Last Saturday night at Ewa twas a feast they wor after, and they would not have gone home till mornin' if it was for its being Sunday—As it was they had to close at midnight, but up till then the fun was fast and furious and 'twas a great ball intirely." Joek McGuire is a broth of a bhoy and his wife, Bridget, good luck to her, is a jewel. Between them they made everyone laugh till the tears rolled down and then dancing and singing was a sight for sore eyes. In the way of a ball Ewa plantation never saw the like before. The numerous friends who came from Honolulu were delighted. "Ould Ireland forever."

Birthday Party.

William Thompson, who holds a position with Hyman Bros., celebrated his birthday last evening by inviting a number of his friends to a euchre party at his lodgings. Music, instrumental and vocal, interspersed the games, after which a cold collation was served and a jolly good time had. Those present were C. von Damm, Fred L. Waldron, A. W. Meyer, Sam Woods, P. Phillips, Ernest and Donald Ross, Digby Sloggett, D. Shanks, Fred Angus and S. E. P. Taylor.

THAT FIFTY DOLLARS

EDITOR EVENING BULLETIN:—Referring to the Japanese immigrants who have been refused landing here, will you kindly allow me space for a few words from a Japanese standpoint. I consider the matter so simple that it can be said to be in a nutshell. The Hawaiian law requires all aliens who come here to be provided with $50 in American money or its equivalent. The law says $50 bona fide and nothing more. Well, then, how does the Collector General of Customs know if it is bona fide or not, before the possessor of such funds lands and has opportunity to apply the money to its required purpose—namely, to prevent his becoming a charge or burden on the community? It is quite immaterial whether he gets it from his father, mother, grandfather or even great grandmother, so long as it is used as the Hawaiian law requires. It is not the source but the use of the money which the law is made for. If the Hawaiian Government finds any proof of any immigrant's infringing the law of the land by disposing of the money in any way contrary to the law's intent—such as returning it to someone who temporarily lent it, as popularly and officially suspected—it is then and only then time to interfere.

Such a class of people as those who come out here as laborers cannot be expected to give such intelligent answers and explanations as might be required of a more intelligent and refined class. That they should be refused landing because they could not give satisfactory answers to all questions, some of which they do not understand, I say to the refined class—in the sense they use among themselves—is arbitrary in the extreme. One of my white friends said to me that the law is to be interpreted by its meaning, not by its wording. Just so, if the money, by whatsoever means it may have been acquired, is used in the way the law aims at, how can its holders be refused landing? It is not right to decide anything on supposition or suspicion in anticipation.

Patriotic as I am, I am not so onesided as to uphold anything pertaining to the Japanese whether right or wrong. But the action of the Government in not giving the immigrants a sufficient chance before deporting them is not fair. It must be very easy for the Government to find out whether the $50 is used in the way the law expects or not after the landing of the possessor. A good Japanese does not want the coming of bad Japanese, and it is for the interest of the Japanese themselves to preclude those of disreputable characters from coming in amongst them. But the whole question is whether the Hawaiian Government has not exceeded its power in acting as it did and is still doing, instead of giving the immigrants a sufficient chance to prove that they are law-abiding people.

Enclosing my card, I am, yours truly,
A JAPANESE.

Three Ends to a Rope.

An Irishman who was out of work went on board a vessel that was in the harbor and asked the captain if he could find him work on the ship.

"Well," said the captain, at the same time handing the Irishman a piece of rope, "if you can find three ends to that rope you shall have some work."

The Irishman then got hold of one end of the rope, and, showing it to the captain, said:

"That's one end, your Honor."

Then he took hold of the other end and showing it to the captain as before, said:

"And that's two ends, your Honor."

Then taking hold of both ends of the rope he threw it overboard, saying:

"And, faith, there's an end to the rope, your Honor."

He was engaged. — Spare Moments.

IN THE HIGHER COURTS

ANOTHER MEMBER OF THE BAR FROM ABROAD ADMITTED.

Bankrupt Intestate's Estate—Decision in an Ejectment Case—Seattle Bank Stock.

Joseph O. Carter and Geo. R. Carter, trustees of the estate of the late H. A. P. Carter, petition for leave to make a payment of $1665, being 9 percent, on $18,500 stock of the Seattle, Washington, National Bank belonging to the estate. The Circuit Court had previously granted an order of permission to pay an assessment on the stock to facilitate liquidation, but Geo. R. Carter on his recent visit to Seattle found on investigation that the affairs of the bank were in better condition than had been supposed, and he is now with many other of the stockholders opposed to liquidation. "In the present demoralized condition of that community," the petition says, "it is almost certain that under forced sale the stock will not bring more than the amount of the assessment, whereas the present estimate of the assets shows a value of nearly fifty percent."

P. L. Weaver Jr., 29 years of age, born in Paris, France, of American residents traveling abroad; a graduate of the Law Department of the University of California, and a practitioner in the higher courts of San Francisco, has been admitted to the practice of law in all the courts of this Republic. His certificates of good character are signed by J. B. Castle and W. N. Armstrong.

A motion for default has been filed in B. Shimizu vs. H. Hamanaka, assumed by A. G. M. Robertson, attorney for plaintiff.

Judge Perry has appointed W. Pfothenauer temporary administrator of the estate of Kong Leong under a bond of $1700, with orders to sell the perishable goods and hold all other property subject to the further order of the Court. The administrator is appointed as agent of H. Haekfeld & Co., creditors. Assets of the estate are $1653.60 and liabilities, consisting of book accounts, $1885.17. Kinney & Ballou for petitioners.

The Supreme Court adjourned yesterday afternoon till Thursday morning.

Judge Carter rendered judgment this afternoon in the ejectment case of J. W. B. Nahakuali vs. Iona Kanoa and wife, in favor of the plaintiff. The decision is based on the will of the uncle of plaintiff. S. K. Kane for plaintiff; J. M. Kaneakua for defendants.

BARNUM'S PRESS AGENT.

And How He Boomed a Play by Francis Bret Hart.

Accustomed as they are to startling situations and scenes of tragic horror before the footlights, one might imagine that play actors would become so blasé as to be beyond surprise. But they are not. This was proved beyond doubt by Manager McManus of the Fourteenth Street theater not long ago, who told this story:

"When Frohman's 'Sue' company was going through the country early in the season, the advance man fell ill in one of the large western towns. It so happened that the public had to be notified through the press of certain changes in the bill. His illness was of a serious sort, and so much depressed was he thereby that he took to his bed. Of course, he was greatly worried because he did not know how to get reading notices in the papers.

"In the midst of his mental and physical distress a good angel in the shape of a friend, who for years has done press work for Barnum's 'Greatest Show on Earth,' came to the rescue.

"'Just you stay in bed, old boy,' said the friend, 'I'll write all your press notices. Rest easy, lad. I've had 25 years' experience and was writing press notices. I'll bet, when you were in short dresses.'

"With this the good natured fellow sallied forth with a copy of the play-bill from which to make up his press notices. The advance man took another dose of medicine, rolled over a few times and did not awaken till daylight. He dressed, felt much better, but was still pale and weak. He ordered tea and toast for breakfast and a few soft boiled eggs, and while they were coming began to peruse the papers.

"He didn't peruse long before his wasted system received a shock that caused him to gasp for breath. There on the third column of the first page was the result of the circus man's fruitful pen:

COMING! COMING! COMING!
SUE! SUE! SUE!
NOVEMBER 1.
Stupendous Dramatic Farce.
Positively Best One Night.
Don't Miss It!
Colossal company, composed of world renowned wonders of the theatrical stage from all parts of the civilized globe.

This was as much as the advance man in his exhausted physical condition could stand at one sitting. The dishes on the tray began to whirl, and unpleasant drops of cold perspiration collected on his forehead. Think of it! A dignified theatrical company heralded as a troop of freaks in a dime museum. When the advance man recovered himself, he read the article following the horrifying headlines. It began:

"Sue" is coming. Tell your neighbors and tell your friends. Bring them with you; bring the children; bring the grandmothers. It is the one chance of a lifetime to witness this wonderful theatrical production.

At a prodigious and prodigious expense the management of the opera house has secured Charles Frohman's massive aggregation of stupendous, superlative and sensational theatrical polar stars.

In "Sue," by Bret Harte, the greatest author in captivity, will appear
3-COMPANIES IN ONE-3
6-LEADING LADIES-6
4-LEADING MEN-4
5-GIDDY SOUBRETTE-5
COUNT 'EM! COUNT 'EM!

Exactly as it was produced before every one of the royal families of Europe.
WHAT THEY SAY OF US:
The funniest play I ever saw.—Bismarck.
Better than "Uncle Tom's Cabin."—Queen Victoria.
I went all through it.—Channey Depew.
I had to be led away.—Li Hung Chang.
The advance agent read no farther. He hurried into his clothes and rushed to the bar.

"Give me some drinking whisky," he gasped. "Out of the cabman's bottle, please. I want something strong."

He paid his bill at the hotel and took the first train for New York. He is still with Frohman, but he was ill of mind as well as body all the way east.—St. Louis Republic.

When "The Fever,"

the Bicycling fever, catches you (or you catch it) we would like a chance to prescribe for you, not that we expect to effect a cure, only to sell you a wonder in wheels.

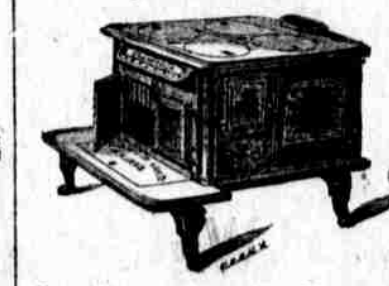

This is what one of the Hawaiian College boys writes to his father regarding the best wheel to buy for his sister: "I hold the Rambler second to none in the country (the U. S.), and if anyone can show a wheel which has traveled as many miles as mine has with as little expense as mine I would very much like to see it. Besides changing the gear from 64 to 70 and the saddle to one of later pattern my entire expense for the wheel has been fifty cents. That I think is a pretty good record, don't you? I am very much afraid that my tires, the same ones I got on the machine, will not last me through the next season. They are almost worn through all over. It will cost me from $12 to $15 to get new tires put on, but it is legitimate wear. I never knew a pair of tires to wear as long and as well as these have, considering the amount of travel. When you consider that they have traveled as far as from Cleveland, O., to Honolulu, over all sorts of roads and paths, you will see that they must needs wear some."

The above opinion you will find to be the opinion of about every rider of a Rambler in this city, and there are a lot of Rambler riders here. Our trouble has been to get enough wheels, the makers not realizing that we want '97 stock before the snow has melted in their country. By the Australia this week we received 7 ladies' wheels, and six of them we have sold. By the Miowera mail we ordered 20 Ramlers and by this week's mail we are ordering 5 more, and we have orders in for 2 Racers, so by return Australia we will have 27 Ramlers, and in future we do not propose to lose the sale of any wheels by not having them on hand. Remember that the Rambler is fitted with the only tire that has proved entirely satisfactory in this country, the great "G. & J." There are imitations to this tire to be found here, but if you don't find it out when you buy them, you will after you have used them a while, to your sorrow. The genuine "G. & J." tire is to be had only at the Rambler Agency, and there you can get the right article, fully guaranteed.

A SCRAPED ACQUAINTANCE

The Indian, the Street Old Gentleman and a Great Surprise.

On the New York Central's Chicago limited train, a short distance from Buffalo, three weeks before the election, a healthy looking man, the cut of whose jib portended him an Indianian, dropped into a seat opposite a sweet old gentleman whose face was a composite photograph of Collis Pacific Huntington and Brent Good.

"Fine weather," was his initial observation as he shifted his grid.

The sweet old gentleman, just turning 60, replied courteously:

"Very fine indeed; much cooler than last week and no dust."

"Things are getting pretty hot, though, in politics and will be hotter and hotter," said the stranger meditatively and encouragingly.

"Yes, the campaign is an unusually warm one," was the reply.

"I can generally size a man's politics up by looking at him, but you've sorter got me. Look like a Republican."

"No, I'm not a Republican."

"Palmer and Buckner man?"

"No."

"Gosh! Never would have taken you for a Bryanite. What do you think of the prospects? I hear this fellow Gage, this banker in Chicago, is raising hell with the silver question. I think he's makin a fool of himself. Don't you?"

"What's he doing now?"

"Well, you know, and everybody else knows that Gage is for silver in his heart, but he's got something up his sleeve against the party. You know he's a redhot Democrat—the redhottest in the west—and he's tryin to hurt Bryan and Sewall all he can."

"Indeed?"

"Sure as I sit here. He even denies over his own signature that he helped 'Coin' Harvey write that book of his, 'The Financial School.' He says the arguments in that book are not his and throws the whole burden on Harvey. He says the arguments are fallacious! What do you think of that? I don't like Gage. He's big, rich and all that, but he ain't square in his politics. He don't know where he's at. I believe he's an Altgeld man through and through."

"What makes you believe that?"

"He said one night that Altgeld had given Illinois the cleanest and most economical administration ever known in the history of the state."

"Does that make him an Altgeld man?"

"Powerful nigh it. And, another thing, Gage headed a lot of prominent business men to go to Springfield and call on Altgeld to congratulate him. Gage did the talkin. He said to Altgeld: 'Governor, if you would only shut your mouth, we would stand by you. You are all right until you begin talkin, when your words are as firebrands. If you would only keep quiet, we would be satisfied and would support you for re-election.' Yes, sirree; that's what Gage said to him. What do you think of that?"

"Pretty plain talk. I should say, to a governor—to any governor. But Altgeld hasn't shut up."

"And he won't. He'd rather talk than be governor. Know this fellow Gage?"

"Very well."

"What do you think of him?"

"Like him about as well as any man I know in Chicago."

"What might be your name?"

"Gage is my name—Lyman J. Gage."

"Gage! Gage! Well, I'll be darned! "

"Buffalo!" called out the brakeman as the train stopped.

"I get off here, Mr. Gage. Hope I haven't hurt your feelin's," stammered the Indianian excitedly as he bolted for the door. But he did not get off. He sneaked into another car and remained there till the train pulled into Chicago. —New York Press.

TRUE DOCTRINE.

Doubtless there was sound economic sense in the view of that English manufacturer, republished in this paper the other day, that "the time would come when each country would produce that class of goods for which, by reason of its natural resources and the skill and industry of its population, it was well fitted." Again: "The country that has the greatest facilities, both natural and acquired, for producing certain kinds of articles is the country that must eventually win in the race of competition." There is much encouragement for Hawaii in the doctrine thus aptly set forth. It confirms the abiding conviction of the BULLETIN that this country cannot be ruined industrially by competition in the products that nature especially fits it to yield. Grass will never grow in the streets of its chief towns, where there are facilities for commerce with the outside world. Besides its resources of production, Hawaii has a position that will give it great importance in the future commerce of the Pacific. That commerce, in the opinion of thoughtful observers for a generation back, is inevitably to be of prodigious volume. Put the two things together. Hawaiian products will have markets north, south, east and west. Honolulu and Hilo will be the most advantageous distributing points in the Pacific for the surplus products of countries on all sides. There will be an immense storage and transshipment business at these ports.

As to markets for Hawaiian products, there is little doubt, the future presents brilliant prospects. Sugar will always be a leading staple of export, because nature has supplied the conditions — as described in the English opinion quoted — for its being an instance of the "survival of the fittest." And the United States, annexation or otherwise, will take most if not all our sugar, for the consumption of the article in that country is not likely ever to be overtaken by the home supply. With regard to other Hawaiian products, our increasing development is going to tell greatly on the future, with its certainly expanding opportunities for commerce with other countries besides the United States. When steamships with cold storage connect Honolulu with Vladivostok, on the completion of the Trans-siberian railway, Hawaiian bananas, pineapples and other tropical fruits will grace the banqueting boards of the Czar and nobles of Russia. At the same time the peasantry of that illimitable empire may vary their diet of black bread and tea with the nutritious rice and fragrant coffee of Hawaii. Demand for our products will certainly be created by the facilities of furnishing them. Then there is a vast field opening out to the near view in the northwest of Canada, which, with its very dissimilar climate from ours, will have a healthy appetite for almost everything of which Hawaii can produce a surplus. They are only just beginning over there to realize the immensely rich mineral resources of British Columbia, and all their prophets as well as export observers from outside predict an enormous development of that country within the coming few years. Premier Laurier lately said that the Dominion now had the greatest known attraction for immigration, which hitherto it had lacked, and that was "gold." While gold mining has for many years been one of the larger sources of wealth in Canada, it is only lately that the deposits of the precious metal, along with a great variety of other valuable minerals, have been discovered to be so extensive in British Columbia as to excite gold fever throughout the world. As an instance of the development of that rich mineral region already in progress, the British Columbia Legislature at last accounts had bills before it to incorporate three considerable cities, where five years ago was little more than a trackless wilderness.

Besides the opening vistas of new commerce for Hawaii to the westward and northward, there are the increasing possibilities of traffic with the South Seas, as well as the almost certainty, within a measurable period, of a prodigious cloud of commerce eastwardly from the opening of an interoceanic canal between the Atlantic and the Pacific. Hawaii has the brightest promise, in all these things added to its present prosperous conditions, of being nothing less than the hub of the greatest circumference of commercial activity ever marked out on the globe.

What the Japanese writer in this issue says of the intent of the $50 requirement of the Alien Act is correct. He advises something impracticable, however, when he says the authorities should land the immigrants first and test their proper possession of the amount afterward by watching what they do with the money. This is too absurd for a moment's discussion. It is enough for the Government to know that for every immigrant having $50 in his possession, who is rejected upon any ground not set forth in the law, there will be a liability for a claim of damages against this country. When Japanese immigration is stopped it will have to be by direct legislation. The Collector General is not empowered to make a new restriction law, but only to enforce the existing law that applies equally to all nationalities.

As the BULLETIN had reason to believe, Japanese immigrants are not being rejected by arbitrary rulings, but on grounds in the statute. Those coming by the Sakura maru who are refused admission happen to have had their passages assisted by an immigration company, which had not obtained the requisite permission to introduce labor from the Hawaiian Board of Immigration, at least so far as this particular batch is concerned. This is clearly against the law and has nothing to do with the question of Japanese family financing. The probability is that, after the thorough examinations of intending immigrants in the two last Japanese steamers, very few of those rejected have been done so without authority of law. Whatever exceptions may transpire will doubtless have been due to inadvertence or the absence of due explanations from the injured persons.

W. W. DIMOND'S

The plated spoons and forks made by the Holmes & Edwards Silver Company cannot be distinguished from solid silver, except in weight. The patterns are identical with the solid goods, and the bowls and handles are reinforced with sterling silver, so that those parts of the spoons which come in contact with the table are well protected and will last as long as solid ware. Every piece sold by us is guaranteed by the manufacturers, by this certificate:

"We guarantee these goods in ordinary family service to wear Twenty-five Years, and in hotels from Ten to Fifteen Years. We also agree to accept as half payment, such goods as show wear during next five years after the term of guarantee, if otherwise in good order."

In buying these inlaid goods you practically have the use of them for thirty years at half what you originally pay for them. No other manufacturers give such a guarantee; no other manufacturer can afford to.

We believe we have the largest stock of cutlery in Honolulu, and it is from the best English and American manufacturers — they make good knives in the United States — and our prices are low. The best makers are using grained celluloid as a substitute for ivory handles and the effect is very pretty. Bone handles turn yellow, the celluloid imitations do not. The price is in favor of bone handles, if cheapness is the object.

Medium knives, bone handles, $4.75 a dozen, with celluloid $6. Dessert, ivory handles $5.75; bone, $4.25. Roger's English knives, bone handle, $3.50. Dessert $3. Plated knives $2.50 and $2.75. Large assortment of carvers from $1 to $27 per set.

Timely Topics

March 22, 1897.

We have recently imported a few little novelties for the household which we are sure will find ready appreciation among Honolulu people.

A Cigar Rest and Ash Tray is something new. It can be fastened to any table and is just the thing to use during a sociable game of cards. It is as easy to adjust as a letter clip, contains a receptacle for the lighted cigar and another for the ashes. It takes up little or no space, doesn't tip your hand to the other fellow — or make any side remarks about your bad playing, but by its convenience leads to that feeling of satisfaction and contentment without which no man can properly play the great American game of — whist.

People have often wondered why barkeepers always mix cocktails to order instead of making up a lot and keeping them on hand. The reason is that they never taste as well after standing. The same reasoning applies to lemonade, the delicate aroma of the lemon and the other stuff you flavor the lemon with disappears on standing. We have Lemonade Shakers in sizes to suit from one to six persons, so that you can make just the requisite amount. They are in silver or nickel as preferred.

Gem Ice Shavers will be found both economical and labor saving in mixing cold drinks.

Have you a dog? If so you had better get him a collar and a license tag. We have the collars in all sizes, shapes and styles and the tax man will do the rest

THE Hawaiian Hardware Co. LIMITED.

Popular Watch Clubs.

Most of you are acquainted with the mode of procedure, but to those who are not, we would explain, that it is a plan devised, whereby you get a Fine Solid Gold Watch, of recognized value, by paying a weekly sum of

ONE : DOLLAR.

It is of especial value to those who could not afford the entire amount in one payment, and appeals to those who do not care for the Dollar it costs them every week.

It took less than one week to fill one club complete, and one half of a second club. This alone is sufficient guarantee of its popularity, and of the confidence placed upon the reliability of those in charge. Club number one draws today.

Club number two will be full before the next week is out. Each day adds from one to two dozen names to the list.

Will you be one to join this coming week.

Royal Baking Powder.

The magnificent tribute of the San Francisco Board of Health to the great purity and wholesomeness of the Royal Baking Powder greatly disturbs the manufacturers of the lower grade powders. Their envious publications, however, cannot break the force of this unsolicited and unbiased high medical endorsement. Attached is a certified copy of their original report, with the signatures of the members of the Board in fac-simile:

We, the members of The Board of Health of the City and County of San Francisco, cordially approve and recommend the Royal Baking Powder. It is absolutely pure and healthful, composed of the best ingredients of the highest strength and character.

In our judgment it is impossible to make a purer or stronger Baking Powder than the "Royal."

The leases of four new lots on the Esplanade, for ten years at an upset rental of $360 a year, were sold by auction at the Interior Department today. Two were bought by W. G. Irwin & Co. and two by Lewers & Cooke at the upset figure, making an annual income for all of $1440.

GOING HOME.

Great Clearing Out Sale at the Temple of Fashion.

M. G. Silva, the proprietor of the Temple of Fashion, has decided to close out his business and return to his old home in Portugal. It is some time since he made the decision eventually to make this move, and the news of the death of one of his grandparents hastens his departure. Mr. Silva intends closing out his dry goods business as soon as possible, and with this end in view will begin on April 1 his bona fide closing out sale. $40,000 is the figure that the goods in his store represent, and in order to distribute these goods he will offer a discount of 25 percent on the cost price of each and every piece of goods in the establishment. The store will be closed March 29, 30 and 31, to allow the marking down of the goods, and on April 1 Mr. Silva will be ready to receive the public and offer them goods that would be ruinous if he intended remaining in business; "but," as Mr. Silva said to a BULLETIN representative this morning, "I have made up my mind to retire from business and go home even if I have to give my goods away."

Mr. Silva is well and favorably known in Honolulu as an upright, straightforward, business man who, by strict application, indomitable energy, pluck and perseverance has worked himself up from a mere boy till today he is considered one of Honolulu's foremost young business men. Having the entire confidence of his countrymen, the respect and esteem of his competitors, his departure will naturally be looked upon with regret.

A rare good bargain was the buying of a hundred dozen shirt waists. And you share the benefits. Shirt waists of newest patterns in colorings and cut go to you at a dollar. Some at $1.75; beauties at $1.25. The lot is almost gone, some of the prettiest will not last the week out.

A new stock of ladies and mens hose and half hose at half price. Cricketers flannel, just what is wanted by men who try with the wickets, at low prices. Outing flannels for ladies, in beautiful shades.

Such linen duck bargains were never heard of in Honolulu. It's the result of stock taking—maybe over-buying has something to do with it—whichever it is you are the winner. Summer dress goods, new importations, were never prettier than now. The weaver seems to know as much as the designer these days, and he puts them together so they wear. This applies to Dimities, Organdies and Muslins. These are in fancies; the plains are as serviceable.

A whole department of Corsets gives you the chance you've waited for. Prima Donna, P. D., R. & G. and ventilated. The price is right. Navy Blue and Black rain proof cloth is serviceable for wraps at this season.

Stock taking affects Turkish Towel prices the same as every thing else. This is customers' week in profit sharing.

For more than fifty years has PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER stood the test against all remedies prepared to eradicate pain, and today stands at the head of the list among the medicines that are so essential to keep at hand in the home.

It is not a new fangle remedy nor do the proprietors lay claim to any wonderful revelation of the ingredients that enter into the manufacture of this ever popular remedy.

It is perfectly harmless, you need have no fear of becoming habitually inclined to its use.

For Colic, Cramps, Dysentery, Colds, and all painful affections, a few doses will certainly give relief. You cannot afford to be without a bottle in the house.

Your forefathers used it and found it beneficial.

Why experiment with some remedy that is new and its effect on the system unknown?

It has many rivals but no equal.

Gigantic Antarctic Icebergs.

"The snowfall of each year adds a new stratum to this ice cap, which is as distinguishable to the eye as is the annual accretion of a forest tree," writes General A. W. Greely, U. S. A., describing in The Ladies' Home Journal "What There is at the South Pole." "Thus in centuries have accumulated on antarctica these snows, which by processes of pressure, thawing and regelation have formed an ice cap that in places exceeds 3,000 feet in thickness. Through the action of various forces—that of contraction and expansion by changing temperature being, perhaps, the most potent—this ice cap creeps steadily seaward and projects into the ocean a perpendicular front from 1,000 to 2,000 feet in height. The temperature of the sea water being about 29 degrees, the fresh water ice remains unwarmed and the ice barrier plows the ocean bed until through flotation in deep water disruption occurs and the tabular berg is formed. These bergs are of a size that long taxed the belief of men, but it is now well established that bergs two miles square and 1,000 feet in thickness are not rare. Others are as large as 30 miles in length and some nearly 8,000 feet in thickness, their perpendicular, sun wasted sides rising from 200 to 400 feet above the sea."

Some Queer Ideas About Finger Nails.

The Japanese have some curious ideas about their finger nails. One of them is to the effect that they must not be cut before starting on a journey, lest disgrace befall the person before he reaches his destination. Neither should they be cut at night, lest cat's claws should grow out. To throw nail parings into the fire is to invite some great calamity. If while trimming the nails a piece should fall in the fire, the person will soon die.

Oddities and singularities of behavior may attend genius. When they do, they are its misfortunes and its blemishes. The man of true genius will be ashamed of them—at least he will never affect to distinguish himself by whimsical peculiarities.

A VOICE FROM THE BLEACHERS.

Local interest in the cricket games as reflected from the "bleachers" is increasing. During Saturday's games the "bleachers" were particularly vociferous and kept the players under a running fire of good natured banter. One small boy brought down the crowd by advising the batsman to "go buy a case of Rainier Beer and get some life in you." The crowd applauded the remark, knowing that Rainier Beer is celebrated for its invigorating and strength-giving propensities. On tap or in bottles at the Criterion.

SEA AND HARBOR NEWS

ABOUT DOINGS ALONG THE DOCKS THIS DAY.

W. G. Irwin Outward—Mauna Loa for the "Big Island"—The Diamond Head in Port.

The ship W F Babcock moved to Sorenson's wharf yesterday afternoon to discharge ballast.

Tomorrow, high tide large 9:44 p.m.; high tide small 8:0 a.m.; low tide large 1:6 p.m.; low tide small 4:5 a.m.

The American clipper bark Amy Turner is taking in ballast. She will sail within a day or two for Hongkong.

The steamer Mauna Loa left for the other islands at half past ten o'clock this morning. She had a good amount of freight and a fair passenger list.

The amount of the Semantha's cargo as stated in this column yesterday was incorrect. She carried nearer 66,000 bags of sugar than the number stated.

The W G Irwin set sail for the Golden Gate this morning. The Irwin being noted for her good sailing, she is expected to make a speedy passage this trip.

The Wilder steamer Helene is on the boards to leave at noon tomorrow for Paauhau, Kukaia, Laupahoehoe and Mahukona. For the latter port mail and passengers only will be taken.

The Iwalani for Lahaina and Hamakua, the Waialeale for Kilauea, Kalihiwai and Hanalei, the Kauai for Makaweli, Waimea and Kekaha, all leave at 4 p. m. The W G Hall for Kauai ports, and the Claudine for Maui ports leave at 5 o'clock.

Waterfront spots are anxious to hear of the result of the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight. Some of the boys have a little "dough" staked on the scrap. Fitz seems to be the favorite. The first news of the battle will be received by the S S Australia, due at the end of the month.

One hundred tons of stone ballast was put into the after hold of the S S Sakura maru. The Sakura will sail for Seattle as soon as the authorities have settled matters concerning the Japanese immigrants. The Sakura may take most of the little brown men whom she brought here away with her.

The Diamond Head.

"Speak of the devil and he's sure to appear," is a common saying. An item in this column yesterday about the Diamond Head may have drawn the vessel to port for she was reported soon after the lines were scratched.

The bark Diamond Head left Port Blakely on March 3 with over 700,000 feet of lumber for Allen & Robinson. On account of unfavorable weather she put into Port Angeles, remaining there three days. The first part of the voyage strong variable winds were experienced, after which the trades were picked up which continued to arrival.

The Diamond Head was formerly the British bark Gainsborough. While on her way from New Zealand to San Francisco, she ran aground at Diamond Head. Capt McPhail was then her master. The vessel was sold at auction with her cargo of coal. S C Allen purchased the wreck. After weeks of work under the superintendence of Captains Calway and Ward, the Gainsborough was brought into port in a sinking condition. After receiving temporary repairs at this port, the vessel was sailed to San Francisco by Capt Ward, where she was put in first class condition. This is her first trip to Honolulu since she was wrecked at Diamond Head.

No Passengers.

Ever since the port of Honolulu first possessed a tug-boat, the captain and crew have been both loved by people going out with them for pleasure and who generally were in the way. Some of them would persist in talking to the deck hands and the engineer, which drew the men's attention from their work. A new rule has been made prohibiting anyone from taking a trip in the tug Elen without permission from the Minister of the Interior, Capt King. Some persons who were in the habit of boarding the tug every chance they got for a voyage after a vessel off port, not only made a nuisance of themselves but had not sense enough to keep out of danger.

PASSENGERS DEPARTED.

For Maui and Hawaii, per strmr Mauna Loa, Mar 23—Ah Mai, Geo Forsyth, Mr Willcock, A Fernandes, A G Correa, L P Lincoln, J E Gomez, Mrs J A Rodanet, Mrs Dr McWayne, Miss Board, C Akau and wife, H P Baldwin, Goo H Robertson, D Kaapa and wife, A L Perry and 63 deck passengers.

Looking Ahead.

"Do you think," he said with much embarrassment, "that—that is to say, if we were married, you're father would be willing to assist us in any way?" "He might," was the thoughtful reply. "He is getting to be ever so successful now in divorce cases."—Washington Star.

A Gentle Reminder.

Mistress—That was a very nice letter of Patrick's offering you marriage, Mary. What shall I say in reply for you? Mary—Tell him, mum, if you please, that when I get my wages raised next month, mum, I'll begin to save for the wedding things.—Tit-Bits.

Just the Place For Them.

First Sport—I see it stated that the air is so clear in the arctic regions that conversation can be carried on easily by persons two miles apart.

Second Sport—Why don't some one tell Corbett and Fitzsimmons about that?—Yonkers Statesman.

Business Scheme.

"We will never sell these cloaks at $16," said the clerk. "We don't expect to," said the manager. "They are marked $15 now that they may be marked down to $8.50 next week."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Mechanics' Home, corner Hotel and Nuanu streets, lodging by day, week or month. Terms: 25 and 50 cents per night. $1, and $1.25 per week.

CITIZENS ATTENTION. These are days of considerable anxiety and perplexity to all who have possessions or other interests in the Republic of Hawaii, and it is time that our citizens came to a mutual understanding on several important issues. The prospects for Annexation appear at present vague and indistinct, and our destiny cannot be foretold with certainty. There are those, also, who still fondly cling to the hope of a return to the old order of things, and who cannot be persuaded otherwise, yet this outlook appears far more hazy than that of Annexation even to the most hopeful disciples of the Monarchy. But, fortunately, in the midst of all this uncertainty there is solace in the fact that Buffalo Beer has come to stay and that patrons of all sorts and opinions may equally share the benefits of its invigorating and sustaining properties. We are moreover assured that this favorite brew will continue to be dispensed as heretofore at the Royal, Pacific and Cosmopolitan Saloons.

Who It Was.

"Now who is said to support the world?" "Atlas, miss." "And who supported Atlas?" "Please, miss, my book don't say, but I 'spos' it was his wife."

Struck by His Own Beauty.

—Lifa.

Anchored is what the man said when he dropped into the Anchor Saloon. Why? said his friend. Because you can always get a cool refreshing drink served by gentlemanly attendants, and if you happen to drop in during lunch hour you will be regaled with solids as well as liquids. In fact the lunch at the Anchor is sold by many to be the best in town. The celebrated Seattle beer is on tap. It is sparkling and ice cold. The finest of wines and liquors in town are to be had at this popular resort.

PRESIDENT DIAZ DECORATED. BERLIN—The Reichsanzeiger officially announces that President Diaz, of Mexico, has been decorated by Emperor William with the grand cross of "Rainier." President Diaz issued an edict to the effect that no beer except the sparkling "Rainier" be served in public places, or on state occasions. On tap or in bottles at the Criterion.

Seattle Beck.

By the steamer Miowera, the Criterion Saloon received a large consignment of the celebrated bock beer, brewed by the Seattle Brewing and Malting Co. This is the first bock to make its appearance, and is a sure indication of better days.

Torchon and Valenciennes laces are still in great demand. L. B. Kerr has a choice lot, which he is selling at lowest possible rates.
