PUTS BULLET THROUGH HEART

SCHOOL MA'AM TAKES HER LIFE

CHRONIC NERVOUSNESS, AGGRAVATED BY DOMESTIC INFELICITY AND DEPRESSION OVER MONEY MATTERS, LEADS MRS. HELEN KELSEY TO PUT BULLET THROUGH HER HEART—BODY FOUND ON SCHOOL VERANDA—WAS MISSIONARY TO TURKEY.

Mrs. Helen Kelsey, 43, teacher in Kaahumanu school, was found dead at 6:30 o'clock this morning by Janitor Manuel De Costa on the veranda of the Central Primary school, near Fort and Vineyard streets, with a 38-caliber five-chambered-revolver bullet wound through her heart, the revolver lying within eighteen inches of the left hand as the body rested on its back.

The white shirtwaist under the left breast was powder-stained and the left hand also bore powder marks, the indications being that the trigger was pulled with the left thumb, judging by the stains.

Every indication pointed to suicide. Chronic nervousness, with despondency over domestic infelicities, and depressed spirits on account of financial matters, is believed to be the cause of the self-killing.

"Life is not worth living," said Mrs. Kelsey a few days ago to a lady at the Methodist Parsonage, Beretania and Miller streets, where she had lodged since the third day of this month. And then she went on to say that there was little or nothing to be gained, in her circumstances, except money enough to afford eating and sleeping and clothing.

On the bureau of her room in the Methodist Parsonage this morning, when the people of the house heard that Mrs. Kelsey had killed herself, was found a piece of cardboard bearing the name and address of her divorced husband: "S. Kelsey, Kukaiaua Store, Hawaii."

Mrs. Kelsey would not have left that cardboard in so conspicuous a place to jog her own memory; it was evidently left there, where everybody could see it, for the purpose of having acquaintances notify her divorced husband of her demise.

It was two or three years ago that Mrs. Kelsey divorced her husband, who had been manager of the Hilo branch of the Wall-Nichols store.

They did not get along together. She got the custody of their son who is now in the United States or Mexico and is about 17 or 18 years of age.

What was the immediate cause of the suicide is difficult to fathom. Those who have had been in contact with her for the past few weeks declare that although she was jolly as far as outward appearances were concerned, she was much depressed. She informed one lady of her domestic troubles which, although presumably settled by divorce, seemed still to affect her mental attitude.

There are those who lodge at the same house where she stayed who thought her eccentric, for they heard her talking to herself in her room and then laughing; but, this criticism having reached the ears of Mrs. Kelsey, the woman herself gave the explanation that she was endeavoring to learn the "touch" system on her typewriter which she had in her room. She would take a book and therefrom read aloud a lengthy sentence, repeating it again and again, aloud, until she had memorized it, and then she would shut her eyes and try to write it, by the touch system, on her typewriting machine. She was evidently endeavoring to increase her earning capacity.

She spoke occasionally of her Palolo property, a piece of government land, a couple of miles from the Kaimuki car line, which she acquired up Palolo.

One night when she was going up Palolo she asked another lady to go up with her.

"I'm afraid to go alone," she told her friend.

"What do you want to go up Palolo for?" asked the friend.

"To sleep, I can sleep up there," was the reply.

"Why, can you not sleep well down town?" was the return question.

Then Mrs. Kelsey told how she wanted to get her Palolo property free of debt, for it seems that she borrowed $300 on it, although the property is said to be worth about $4,000 and she wanted certain relatives to come and live with her.

The last time Mrs. Kelsey was seen alive was between 7 and 8 o'clock last evening, when she left the Methodist Parsonage and went to a Chinese laundry near at hand to ascertain why it was that her clean clothes had not been brought home and why the Chinese had not called for the soiled linen. It is about the time of the Chinese full moon and it may be supposed that Chinese laundrymen as well as Chinese of other industries are a little lax in their business methods on account of the great holiday.

In any event, Mrs. Kelsey wanted to find out about her clothes. She was heard, though not seen, to return to the Methodist Parsonage about 8 o'clock. Her quick, nervous, peculiar walk was recognized by people in the house and she was heard to go to her room, lock the door, as was her habit, remain in the room for a short time and then go out again.

The next heard, though not seen, to return to the house was this morning when news of her death was received by telephone.

Also on the bureau in Mrs. Kelsey's room at the Parsonage was found a list of recent expenses an ordinary memorandum such as any one might make of expended cash. One item was for rent and another read: "Trayer, $20."

From about 8 o'clock last night and

THE BREWERY MAY FORFEIT ITS LICENSE

AND SALOONMEN MAY HAVE TO SWEAT

Vigorous proceedings have been set on foot by the Government which may result in placing the Honolulu Brewery & Malting Co. desperately on the defensive to protect its license because of the traffic in beer it conducted with the sailors of the Pacific fleet for customers on Sunday last. Lorrin Andrews, Deputy Attorney General, is in charge of the matter for the Government, and the Board of Liquor Commissioners will this afternoon hold an executive session over the question of what action to should take regarding the infraction of the law against Sunday liquor selling. Mr. Andrews will be present at the consultation to advise the Commissioners.

On the part of the Attorney General's department an investigation to secure all the facts of the Sunday booze saturnalia has been started. This will include both the Brewery's conduct and the part that local saloonkeepers or their agents had in the traffic.

"They have forfeited their license by violating the law which prohibits the sale of liquor on Sundays," Mr. Andrews said this morning with reference to such licensees as may be implicated.

"The Liquor Commission will meet at 4 o'clock this afternoon. What will be done I don't know. It will be an executive session. I will be present by invitation. Whether the Commissioners will act on my advice will remain to be seen.

"If there are to be prosecutions, the proceedings must be of deliberation. Holders of licenses must have five days' notice of charges against them before action can be taken. If evidence be forthcoming I presume that some citation will be issued to the alleged offenders.

"We are going to be very conservative and will not proceed unless we have positive evidence, as we realize how serious a thing it is to take away a man's license to do business.

"It seems to me it is up to the saloonkeepers to come in and assist us in this fight to uphold the law, because if they come up against the Commission it may go hard with them. Any saloonkeeper who comes into this office will be treated with the utmost fairness, but if any of them assumes a posture of being bigger than the Government he will make a mistake which he will sadly rue."

Referring to the case of the Brewery company Mr. Andrews stated that, although its license was from the Treasurer of the Territory, the regulation of the sale of liquor had, since its issuance, been placed wholly in the hands of the Commission. The brewery license for the manufacture and sale of its product was issued in April, 1903, for a term of fifteen years by A. N. Kepoikal, the then Treasurer. Mr. Andrews however is of opinion that the license may be forfeited for violation of its conditions, which include compliance with the laws of the Territory. When the license was issued it was ruled by the authorities that the Brewing company did not require to give a bond there will be no other penalty liable to be imposed on the company than that for liquor selling on Sunday and the disastrous one of forfeiture of license.

The Board of Liquor Commissioners for Oahu, which will consider the Sunday beer traffic today, consists of Clarence H. Cooke, Carlos A. Long, Willard E. Brown, J. H. Craig and Norman Watkins.

Last Interview With Editor Smith

Walter G. Smith, erstwhile editor of the Advertiser, left for San Francisco this morning by the S. S. Alameda.

A great many of Mr. Smith's friends were present to bid him farewell and to wish him bon voyage, the local newspaper craft and the University Club being particularly well represented.

The departing resident was well laden with legs on walking up the gangway.

Mr. Smith's parting words to a Star man were:

"I hope to return to Hawaii some day as a tourist, equipped with grip and kodak. I shall look forward to the opportunity of seeing the sights of Honolulu under the guidance of the Promotion Committee, and shall certainly make an effort to view the interior wonders of the Bishop Museum, a place the secrets of which I have never succeeded in penetrating.

"I am sorry to go away, but feel certain that the Honolulu to which I hope to some day return will, if its present rate of progress be maintained, be a busier, bigger, and even better place than it is today."

for fifty years from January 1, 1909.

FERN IN LUXURY

His Honor Mayor Fern, is now ready to receive the mayors of other cities, or anything in the way of a dignity that comes along, and without having to make any apologies for the condition of the rooms in which he extends to them his glad hand.

Green carpets, that look as if Supervisor Jim Quinn had had something to say in their selection, cover a considerable area of the floor space; easy chairs are invitingly arranged; the walls have been tinted a restful but uncertain grey-green and robin's egg blue; woodwork has been grained and slicked up, and there are about to be pictures hung.

Secretary Rivenburgh has obtained the nucleus of an art exhibit having a scene of the park, one of a stately group of palms and another of a palm avenue, but he wants more and is quite willing to accept the assistance of the Promotion Committee in this matter, for the Mayor's office, in a way is sort of a city vestibule and many tourists look up the mayor to get a glimpse of the city dignitary and ask him questions.

Later a register may be installed, wherein guests can place their autographs. In the general waiting room it is planned to have current magazines on top with perhaps a steamer timetable, a list of fire-alarm signals, a calendar, a spittoon, a water-cooler and a clock.

AT THE THEATERS

GEORGE F. HENSHALL.....MANAGER

WEDNESDAY.....SEPTEMBER 29,

The way to settle our liquor questions, as well as other questions, is to settle them here. When temperance advocates talk of having laws passed in Washington regulating affairs here with reference to such a matter, they at once lose a lot of local support,—and rightly so. The people of the islands are able to handle the problem for themselves, and they are already doing pretty well. In a communication to the Advertiser Mr. Castle suggests that the liquor men who entered into last Sunday's law-beating scheme must really have been working for the Anti-Saloon League. It is a natural suggestion. They were,—but didn't know it. Similarly, it might be said that Prohibitionists who are working to have Congress interfere locally in the matter are working for the liquor interests, without knowing it.

The issue regarding last Sunday's wide-open liquor selling is not as to what regulations should be. It is a plain issue of respect for law and order. Even if a man believe in a wide open town, Sundays and all, if he is an intelligent citizen he must also believe that if the community decides against him, and law is made in consequence of such decision, the law must be respected. This community happens to have decided upon a "dry" Sunday. There is no chance for equivocation or quibble about that.

Editor Walter G. Smith, who left this morning on the Alameda, will be heard from again in discussions of Hawaiian affairs. It is not unlikely that he will take an editorial position on the San Francisco Chronicle, which has long been the leading newspaper of the Pacific coast, and with which he was associated as editorial writer years ago.

TAFTS WANTS BOTH MEN.

President Taft has apparently decided to try and reconcile Ballinger and Pinchot. As their differences are rather of method than of policy, it would seem that they might yet work in harmony. It appears that Pinchot's views of the way to carry out reclamation schemes, which views were developed under the Roosevelt administration, are rather in line with Roosevelt's manner of riding roughshod over all obstructions, legal or other, that were in his way. Men who can successfully do that are very rare, and Taft, being a judicial man himself, has not the slightest idea of trying to imitate Roosevelt's success in twisting the constitution and laws to suit himself. Ballinger, too, is a "strict constructionist." Hence an inevitable conflict with Pinchot. The latter, however, represents policies to which Taft is strongly attached, and he is too valuable a man to lose unnecessarily. Hence the President's evident effort to encourage and retain Pinchot, while at the same time maintaining his own and Ballinger's judicial attitude of more strict construction of law than fothered the Roosevelt-Pinchot combination.

Last night's naval reception is such as it is impossible to give an adequate description of, and it is equally impossible suitably to express Honolulu's thanks to the fleet men who arranged it. The notion of decorating a "U. S. S. Honolulu," is, we hope prophetic. Perhaps some day there will be a battleship Hawaii. A feature of the decorations which perhaps attracted as much attention as any other was the training of searchlights on flags flown from the topmasts of the vessels. The color and beauty of Old Glory was never better brought out than when shown last night with a searchlight trained on it against a background of dark sky.

Editor Smith evidently does not lose his nerve when in poor health. In an interview this morning before leaving he expressed the intention, when he comes back, of trying to get into the Bishop Museum. This is of course mere foolhardiness. It is quite enough to have a Chicago journalist trying to reach the North Pole in an airship, without having a Honolulu one attempting to gain a knowledge of what the Bishop Museum contains. Aloha, Walter G.—tackle something easier! Start a small farm!

Some queer tangles develop in the course of human affairs. Yesterday a jury in a criminal case in which it appears to be agreed that the evidence was plainly sufficient for conviction, was held up by a Socialistic member of the jury who thought that a verdict of guilty might help certain rich interests. The queer tangle is seen in his failure to realize that his attitude was a hard blow at the doctrine of popular rule which he probably thinks he stands for. If a jury drawn from the common people cannot be depended upon to decide cases according to their oaths, on the evidence submitted, there is no theorist quite so wrong as the socialist. He demands that the people rule. But isn't it almost notorious that when given a chance, as one of the people, to exercise sovereignty in the jury box, the Socialist is the failure among the twelve?

President Taft says that more legislation is needed to carry out reclamation work. This clearly means that he doesn't think there is authority in law for some of the things Pinchot wants to do,—but that Taft also wants to do them.

JURORS AND THEIR OATHS.

Such a farce as yesterday's jury disagreement in the strike riot case adds to growing disgust at the imperfections of the jury system. Among many discussions of the reports from the jury room, we hear none involving any question as to the real evidence in the case. The juror who held out is clearly charged by fellow jurors with utter violation of his oath to decide the case according to the law and the evidence, and he thus stands accused of a graver crime against society than that which he was trying. Might it not be well, in cases where juries are held up in this way by one lone crank or crook, to allow a public hearing, with opportunities for cross-examination in public, on the question of the reasons of one juror for dissent from the verdict of the other eleven?

As a dead sea apple, Peary's North Pole is about the limit

Commercial News

BY L. D. TIMMONS

There have been a number of street sales of stocks since yesterday morning, and there was a little doing no 'Change today, but the market has not budged a cent, one way or the other, so far as is now known. The departure of the Alameda this morning distracted attention for the best stock hours of the day, and probably carried over until tomorrow some transactions that might have been carried through.

The principal sales between boards were 20, 10, 70 and 25 shares Oahu at $33.125. There was nothing doing in this stock on 'Change this morning, although $33 was offered and $33.125 asked.

Between boards, also, 10 and 40 shares of Waiialua found buyers at $118. This stock remains the same as last week—$117.50 offered and $118.50 asked.

Other sales between boards were 30 Oahu at $4.625 and 10 Brewery at $23.75. This is a slight advance for Oahu.

On the boards this morning 50 shares Hawaiian Commercial changed hands at $34, which was the basis of the last sale. More of this stock is to be had at $32.425.

Honokaa appeared on the board again, after a long silence, 30 shares selling at $18.50, same as last sale. For the stock $18.375 was offered, holders demanding $19.

McBryde appeared exactly as it was yesterday. On the boards 100 shares sold at $3.875, and more was offered at that figure. The bid was $3.75.

Fifteen Pioneer sold at $188, which was the old basis. Bidding remained at $187.50, with $190 asked.

MANAGER'S HOUSE.

Duisenberg & Farrar, the local architects, are preparing plans for a fine, new house for Manager Frederick W. Meyer, of Waianae plantation. It will be two stories, having twelve rooms and will carry a lanai on each side. The cost will be between $12,000 and $15,000. This house will be a distinct ornament to the Waianae neighborhood.

HILONIAN AGAIN.

Early this morning Castle & Cooke received the following wireless from the Hilonian, dated at 8 o'clock last night:

"1700 tons cargo, 35 passengers, 52 sacks mail. Wells, Fargo Express, 8 p. m., 880 miles from Honolulu. Light west wind and smooth sea. Clear weather. All well. Expect to arrive quarantine 8 p. m. Friday."

BOND AND THE JAP.

The fine, new house of Robert E. Bond, stock broker, in Manoa valley, has been started, the foundations having been laid. It is a matter of interest, perhaps, that the contractor is a Japanese, Y. Miyao by name.

RANCH INTERESTS SOLD.

The interest of W. H. Cornwell and wife in the Cornwell ranch has changed around considerable in the past few days. Cornwell and his better half first sold it to A. M. Brown for $10,000, Brown sold to A. L. C. Atkinson and Atkinson sold to May K. Brown. As these papers have all been recorded it is assumed that the swapping is over.

ISENBERG WILL SWIM.

Hon. D. P. R. Isenberg is having constructed at his Makiki residence one of the finest bathing tanks ever built in the Hawaiian Islands. It is thirty feet in diameter and 6.12 feet deep at one end and 8.12 at the other end. The steps are concrete and the fittings are all brass of handsome design. In addition to the bathing pool are dressing rooms and appliances for shower.

In addition to the bath Mr. Isenberg is having built a large living lanai at the rear of his residence. This will be a round affair, corresponding somewhat to the present front. In addition there will be a port cochee at the end, of modern and attractive design. Messrs. Duisenberg & Farrar, who are coming to the front as the designers of many large and important structures, are the architects.

AMENDMENTS WANTED.

There have been posted at the Commercial Club a number of amendments it is proposed to make in the by-laws of the organization. These refer to the method of electing officers and selecting committees. The amendments will not be of immediate service, as the annual election is over.

MOST MAGNIFICENT NAVAL RECEPTION

Artistic ingenuity in festive decoration reached a climax in the setting for the reception and ball given by the officers of the First Squadron, Pacific Fleet, last night to the citizens of Honolulu. Central in an elaborate scheme covering three magnificent cruisers and the Alakea street wharf was an allegorical prophecy of a national compliment to the metropolis of the Mid-Pacific.

Attractive and novel as was the peaceful fighting machine Honolulu, it was not the only, and perhaps not the most striking, surprise in store for the guests. There was another new idea in decoration exploited, almost unthinkingly in its beauty, which was visible over miles of radius from both land and sea.

Still another element of beauty in the scene, not new yet never stated, was the spectacle of three cruisers anchored away off in the roadstead, but in direct view of the scene of festivities, outlined in all exterior dimensions in blazing electric. By the invitations the entertainment was to be on board the flagships Tennessee and West Virginia, but with sagacious forethought the cruiser Pennsylvania was also set apart for the purpose.

is slipped in front of it by one of the fishermen, a companion then gently tosses a stone just back of the fish, which causes it to dart forward into the net, and it is captured.

Another popular method is stunning or killing the fish after they have been attracted to the surface by the light of a fire in the bow of a boat. It is the practice to put in the boat a can filled with inflammable material and covered with oil, row to a desirable place, and set fire to the fuel.

JOHN HUGHES TO IRELAND

The S. S. Alameda got away for San Francisco this morning at 10:15, amid the customary scenes of farewell.

The steamer took away a large crowd of passengers, including a number of people well known locally, and a large cargo of general merchandise.

John Hughes was among the departing passengers. He will be absent on a three months' combined business and pleasure trip and after a stay in the States will visit his old home in Ireland.

The band gave a concert on the wharf and multi-colored leis were as plentiful as usual.

WHY GO TO HALEIWA? Because it is only thirty-nine miles from town by automobile over one of the finest roads in the Territory.

SPORTS

BOXING WAS BRIEF BUT VERY WILLING

FISTIC SEASON SUCCESSFULLY U SHERED IN AT ALOHA PARK—REILLY PLAYS WITH MCKARLEY—SARCONI CATCHES A TARTAR IN MACDONALD OF THE TENNESSEE—KID NELSON EASY PICKING—OR HARRY SCHOLL OF THE MARYLAND.

Some lively boxing was witnessed at the opening of the series of fistic contests at Aloha Park which took place last night, and although not one of the three bouts went the limit, those present certainly got the worth of their money.

Aloha Park proved an ideal place for entertainments of this description. The place is airy and well lighted and every move of the contestants can be seen from any seat in the place.

The arrangements were excellent and reflected great credit on Manager Fred Smith. There was some little delay in getting the ball rolling but once the show started bout followed bout with pleasing rapidity and there were none of the usual vexatious delays between the contests.

Chalmers Graham acted as announcer and master of ceremonies, H. M. Ayres as referee and Larry Twomey held the watch.

The first go was between Harry Scholl of the U. S. S. California and Kid Nelson of Honolulu. They fought somewhere about 110 pounds. Scholl outclassed his opponent, who showed no knowledge of the game and quit in the third round. Scholl handled himself well and is a good ooy at his weight. He has boxed on the Coast and is credited with a six-round draw at Sacramento with Ah Wing, the Chinese wonder.

Kid Terry who has boxed Macdonald of the U. S. S. Tennessee heard something about the sailor's prowess with the gloves at the last moment and refused to go on. Bugler Sarconi was substituted. The latter fought well but the sailor carried too many guns or him, outweighing the bugler and being much the more effective hitter at short range.

The fourth round saw Sarconi's finish, a blow to the body doing the trick. The winner weighed about 138 pounds, and would give any man of that weight about here a lively time over a ten-round route.

The main event was to have been a ten-round go between Charlie Reilly of San Francisco and Jack McKarley of the U. S. S. West Virginia. Reilly won in the third, the seconds of the sailor throwing up the towel when they saw that their man had no chance. McKarley was in poor condition and the end nearly came in the first round. Reilly simply played with him. The latter snowed up extremely well and has undoubtedly improved a lot since he was last here.

During his recent stay at the Coast he has been boxing ten and fifteen round contests with good class men and it appears to be only a question of time before he is fighting in the first division at his weight.

After the McKarley-Reilly go the latter boxed three exhibition rounds with Kid Terry which pleased the crowd mightily.

The sport will start at 8:30 p. m. today and an attractive card has been arranged.

The curtain-raiser will be eight rounds between Ah Sam, the local Chinese pugilist, and Bugler Sarconi, the boys boxing at the light-weight limit.

Sarconi will have an easier task set him than was the case last night, though Ah Sam is no dub with the gloves, and occasionally gets in a damaging kick.

Go number two will be ten rounds at 140 pounds between Macdonald of the U. S. S. Tennessee, the man who put Sarconi away last night, and Coll of the U. S. M. C. Coll has been looking for a match for some time and his chance has come at last. If he is as good as his friends proclaim him to be he will make it lively for the non-of-warman.

The main event will be a ten-round go between Reilly and Broland of the U. S. S. West Virginia. The latter is said to be clever and aggressive and is likely to make matters hum for the San Francisco boy, although he will have a man's size job on his hands trying to beat him.

It looks as if Reilly and Trinkle, the champion lightweight of the fleet, would fight on Saturday night and the go, if arranged, will undoubtedly pack the house.

"Battling" Robinson, the champion of the fleet, was introduced last night and challenged any man in the fleet or ashore. He and McColl of the U. S. S. Maryland, weighing about 154 pounds are both looking for matches. The latter is credited with having at the fleet ball. It looks as if there would be a packed house tonight.

Tickets are now on sale at the store of Fitzpatrick Bros., corner of Fort and Hotel streets.

Make Denatured Alcohol for 8c. a Gallon

The navies of the world have adopted tax-free commercial alcohol for smokeless motive power for ships. It saves boiler room, coal room, handling of fuel and is a little cheaper than steam power. Just think! 80 per cent of water is the principal part converted into alcohol by chemical action in contact with fermented vegetable waste matter and oxidized saw-dust, wood syrup and lime or any carbo-hydrate. Combining with 94 per cent oxygen or atmospheric air when used for motive power, heat or other light purposes. The real denatured alcohol opens an absolutely new market for the use of saw mill waste, pulp, paper and chemical fibre mill waste product, and for millions of tons of farm products that even the world's greatest monopoly cannot touch. Our denaturizing distilling apparatus is constructed of steel plate galvanized and the highest grade seamless copper tubing, tested to 300 pounds pressure. Its conductivity makes possible the instantaneous hot steam alcohol distilling. A very simple but serviceable still and doubler, that will produce tax-free denatured alcohol daily for 8 cents a gallon. That what is the most difficult to secure is that which we prize the most. No government supervisory, no speculative futures, the market demands the product. The motor boats, the automobiles and the navies of the world use it. Unquestionable references. We are ready to negotiate with responsible individuals on very liberal terms.

This wood waste alcohol distilling apparatus is of untold benefit to farmers, lumbermen, varnish makers, paint manufacturers, soap makers, paper pulp and chemical fibre mills, etc., for the utilization of wood waste by distillation, which puts real denatured alcohol beyond competition with gasoline or kerosene.

Address today:
The Wood Waste Distilleries Co., Inc., Cleveland, Ohio, U. S. A., desires to establish western and far eastern agencies, they have a very flattering proposition to offer.

up to between 5 and 6 o'clock this morning, at which time Mrs. William Kelsey, who lives near where the body was found, says she heard two shots. Mrs. Kelsey's movements are unknown. Here there is an inconsistency in the circumstantial evidence for Mrs. Alapai says she distinctly heard two shots, whereas there was but one cartridge discharged from the five-chambered revolver, although there was a dent in the cap of another cartridge which would seem to show that Mrs. Kelsey had pulled the trigger once without effect before she succeeded in killing herself. Though no reason is given, some of her acquaintances declare that they believe she killed herself last night, soon after she left the Parsonage for the last time. It is also stated by friends, those who lived in the house with the suicide, that it is their opinion that she had for several days been contemplating suicide, though they would have thought there was nothing significant in anything she said until they heard that she had taken her own life.

Mrs. Kelsey was in the habit of carrying a revolver when she went up to her house in Palolo valley. It is presumed, at present, that when she returned from the laundry and went to her room that she went to get the revolver. When the body was found there was no sign of hat, nor pocket-book, nor handbag; in fact there was nothing about the body except the clothes Mrs. Kelsey wore when she left the Parsonage, and the revolver. She must have concealed the weapon about her clothes, probably inside her shirtwaist. She wore a white shirtwaist and a silk skirt.

One of the ladies at the house where Mrs. Kelsey lodged she generally took her meals at the Palm Cafe, although she ate, as a rule, but twice a day) says that she and Mrs. Kelsey had several conversations in which deceased spoke generally of marriage and the unhappiness that came from some marriages.

Mrs. Kelsey was at one time a missionary in Turkey and spoke a little Armenian. She was asked by one of her fellow lodgers to attend Central Union Church, recently, and promised to go later, remarking that she had been through all that sort of thing.

Police Officer L. Parish was detailed on the case this morning, at 6:45 shortly after the body was discovered and is working on the case. Deputy Sheriff and Coroner Charles

TO CUT OFF SALARIES

GOVERNMENT SERVANTS OWING THE TERRITORY WILL NOT RECEIVE THEIR PAY.

"Section 118. In case any officer, agent, employee or other person in the public service shall be indebted to the Territory, or to any of the departments thereof, his salary or compensation shall be withheld by the head of the proper department, or the officer authorized to settle his accounts, until such indebtedness be fully paid and discharged."

The foregoing section of the Revised Laws of Hawaii is posted on the front of the counter opposite the public entrance of the Territorial Auditor's office.

It is a warning to all beneficiaries of the Territorial salary list, who are also debtors to the Territorial treasury on account of taxes, rates or other dues, that unless they have wiped out their delinquencies before payday they will call at the counter in vain for their salary warrants.

Deputy Auditor Henry C. Meyers stated today that the law above quoted would be strictly enforced. Officers and employees who could not produce a clean account with the Territory should receive neither the whole nor part of their salaries. He flourished in his hand a list of thirty government servants who had failed to pay their taxes which Tax Assessor Chas. T. Wilder had furnished. Probably salary eaters owing water or sewer rates would make another considerable list.

Mr. Meyers uttered a hope that the Board of Supervisors would put the screws on municipal employees in arrears to the Territory for lawful tribute, it having an interest in the matter from the fact that the counties receive one-half of the general taxes.

SURVIVED THE FLOOD

MEN WHO CLUNG TO CAPSIZED BOAT REACH SHORE LAST NIGHT.

Demetrio Santiago and Serafino, the two Porto Ricans supposed to have been eaten by sharks or drowned after their sampan overturned Monday afternoon near Barber's Point and their comrade, a Samoan had made his way ashore to get help, have landed safe and sound at Waianae, the capsized craft having drifted ashore at 8 o'clock last night.

The men tell how they saw the launches of the armored cruiser looking for them on Monday night and how they yelled but could not make themselves heard.

One could swim a little, but stayed with the other until the last.

HOW TO PREVENT BLOOD POISON.

Carelessness and neglect are the chief causes of blood poisoning. A cut or bruise, however slight, should have immediate attention. A good liniment and one that not only gives prompt relief from pain, but being anti-septic, heals the wound without maturation, is Chamberlain's Pain Balm. When this remedy is applied all danger from blood poisoning is avoided. For sale by all dealers, Benson, Smith & Co., agents for Hawaii.

THE NAVAL TENNIS PLAY

The Naval tennis tournament at present in progress at the Beretania courts has narrowed to finals in doubles between Nicholson and Henderson and Bradford and Jackson.

Today the semi-finals in the singles will be played, Nicholson meeting Moses and Henderson opposing McKane.

The finals in both singles and doubles will be played off on Thursday afternoon, the matches starting at 3 o'clock. The band of the U. S. S. Tennessee will be in attendance and all tennis enthusiasts are invited to attend the games.

On Friday, commencing at 3:45 p. m., the winners of the doubles class in the Naval tournament will play Roth and Gee of Honolulu and a great match will doubtless be the result.

Judging from their recent form the local pair should be able to make the fleet players extend themselves.

Paymaster Nicholson is the champion of the Navy and plays a beautiful game, possessing an excellent service, and a Larford stroke that is exceedingly difficult to handle.

Henderson plays a more accurate game, placing well on the side lines and passing accurately past the man at the net.

The match on Friday will be worth traveling a long way to see.

Yesterday's matches resulted as follows:

Lieut. Henderson beat Dr. Mann, 6-9, 6-2.

Paymaster Nicholson beat Midshipman Maron, 6-4, 6-2.

Leut. Moses, Marine Corps, beat Midshipman Bradford, 8-6, 6-3, 3-6.

Midshipman McCain beat Midshipman Edwards, 6-4, 6-3.

In doubles:
Paymaster Nicholson and Lieutenant Henderson beat Midshipmen Train and Gunther, 6-2, 6-2.
