AT ST. ANDREW'S.

Ordination of Rev. Kong Yin Tet to the Order of Priesthood.

"As my Father hath sent me even so send I you." "Whosoever sins ye remit they are remitted unto them, and whosoever sins ye retain they are retained." "All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth."

These Gospel truths, be it said, were the basis of the Bishop's sermon—logical, theological, undeniable, and profound. Truths, impossible to wash out or to wipe away by any "revisions" whatsoever.

We never expect to take part in a more perfect, more majestic service than that of Trinity Sunday morning at St. Andrew's Cathedral, when the Rev. Kong Yin Tet was ordained priest by His Lordship the Bishop of Honolulu.

In the Office for the Ordering of Priests, the Epistle is found in Ephes 4:7, and the Gospel, St. Matt. 9:36, and St. John 10:1. The hymn, of course, Veni, Creator, Spiritus,

"Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire,
And lighten with celestial fire,
Thou the anointing Spirit art,
Who dost Thy seven-fold gifts impart."

The entire service, as well as the office of the Holy Communion was rendered in Chinese. The large choir of boys and girls was from St. Peter's, and Mrs. L. Aseu was the organist. The singing was subdued and very sweet. We were very much pleased with one very small boy's voice, in particular. The "manners" of these children throughout the lengthy service of nearly two hours were faultless. Kneeling side by side at the Altar were to be seen Hawaiian, English, American and Chinese. On leaving the Church the cross-bearer, Mr. Fitz, was followed by the boys who formed into two lines, the newly-ordained priest passing between, then the Rev. Mr. Kiteat and the Rev. Mr. Lane, and lastly his Lordship the Bishop.

The power and the glory of Christ's "holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church" were never made clearer and plainer. But, if the ears are "heavy" and the eyes are blinded by the gods of this world, of what avail is it to offer, to such, the True Bread.

MEMORIAL DAY.

To-morrow is the American le jour des morts, a holy day sanctified to the memory of the dead, but more especially of those who gallantly fell in fratricidal strife, struggling not for power, pelf or fame or at the bidding of ambitious statesmen or crowned monarchs but for manly and honest principles on either side.

As Cromwell's regicidal rebellion ennobled and strengthened Great Britain in like manner the direful conflict between the North and South was a necessity, dictated by the ruling hand of Providence, to consolidate the union and confederation of the United States of America and bring them into a homogeneous whole for their preservation against outside attacks while still maintaining legitimate and separate privileges and rights of independent and yet inter-dependent, statehood.

The heroes of the North and South laid down their lives to establish "America (as) a Commonwealth of commonwealths, a Republic of Republics, a State which, while one, is nevertheless composed of other States even more essential to its existence than it is to theirs."

Strew then with fragrant flowers the lowly graves of our dead. The flowers fade and die and their perfume passes away from us into the higher heaven. So with our friends, or the friends of our friends for all the world's skin, they bloomed and east around us the fragrance of their gallant and noble lives and are now in those unseen atmospheres whither we are all wending. May we all when we go hence have one friend at least to remember us on Memorial Day.

BE FOREWARNED.

We wish to impress strongly upon all who are competent to vote at the next election the advisability of registering in case an election should be held, a legislature meet and a new President be elected to succeed Mr. Dole as President of the Republic of Hawaii.

As an independent journal, with a very strong bias, it must be admitted, against the ruling clique, it is our duty to ask the voters, and more especially the Hawaiians and Portuguese, to think this matter over for themselves, and not to allow themselves to be misled by clever politicians who, to serve their own interests, wish to have as small, and as easily controllable as possible, a number of voters to deal with when their legislative slate in favor of the "family compact" is arranged.

It is claimed by the organs of the "family compact" and the planters that an election is unnecessary and that probably there will be no election. That probably the Federal Government will interfere to prevent it being held and, further again, that probably we shall have a territorial government awarded to us by Congress before the time comes to hold our legislature.

Take no stock in these delusive statements. There are always possibilities as well as probabilities, but there is a vast distinction between the limits of the two words.

We all remember that for some years annexation was coming by the next steamer, but that steamer would not have arrived at this hour had not possibility in the shape of war with Spain instead of anticipated probabilities turned up.

We ask every thoughtful and reasoning citizen whether if our local government believed that there was a probability of our form of government under the United States flag being fully determined upon before the date arrives for the meeting of the Hawaiian legislature, under the Hawaiian Constitution, that they would incur the expense—and political opposition and odium of their own supporters—considering the condition of affairs?

Even giving them the discredit for all the faults they go politically possess would they go it quite so blindly as that merely on a technical construction of the letter of the law in a very anomalous situation?

Voters may rely upon it that the government did not call for an election without knowing, as well as we know, that it is the desire of the Washington branch of our government that an election should be held. The main reason probably is to ascertain the amount of interest we take in the desire to govern ourselves in order to guide the Congress in the allotment of the privilege of the franchise.

It must be remembered that while we know ourselves and our needs fairly well Congress knows but little about us, except that we may possibly be of some trifling use occasionally as a coaling station and an enjoyable loitering place for weary men-of-war-men and military heroes to put in a few month's vacation, and that we possess a few hula girls, fairly decent moonlights, a sensuous scenery and no end of self-appreciation.

To those Hawaiians especially who are fondly and foolishly awaiting for "instructions from the Queen," let us say to them, with some sense of authority, that the Queen cannot and will not send them any instructions. She is out of, and above, all politics in the land formerly her own. The American flag floats over these Islands and not the flag of Mr. Dole and the P. G. The conditions are changed. To have rebelled against, and overthrown, the Dole government would have been justifiable by success—the true test of revolutions; but not to accept the conditions of affairs, so as long as the Stars and Stripes float over us, would be as foolish as treasonable.

If the voters are wise they will register in case of unforeseen accidents before June 30th.

OUR WAILUKU LETTER.

The K. P.'s and a number of invited friends had a very jolly time at Puunene last Saturday night. Dancing commenced at 8 and it ended at the usual time of 12. The decoration of the hall was something grand, as much pain was taken by the committee to surpass all others. Dinner was served after dancing and thus one of the K. P.'s annual dance ended.

Mosquitos are getting less numerous and it is the remark that since the Labaina people, who travelling forth and back, are no more here, the mosquitos that they brought over also went back to Labaina with them.

The dance had on the 24th inst. in commemoration of the 80th birthday of Queen Victoria by the Wailuku people was a success. The courthouse was artistically decorated it being under the supervision of those who saw how the very same house was decorated in the happy days of Rex, when royal dances were held there. The dinner was elaborately got up and the punch was "fine." Dancing commenced at little after 8 and the last strains of Mahina Malamalama struck a little after 3 in the morning, when all retired deeply impressed of the occasion, and many were heard to say "that it was the best they have ever seen and enjoyed." There were about 200 people present and in and out of the courthouse, all over the yard was one mass of on-lookers, picking up the "belles," the "nice-looking fellows," the more handsomely dressed and the best dancers. Taking it all in all it was a grand affair and much credit is due to W. T. Robinson, W. S. Scott, G. Cummings E. Rogers and of the women to Mrs. Rosalia Lyons, whose floral representation of the British Crown was highly praised and appreciated.

Maui will be well represented at the 11th of June races by her "sporty boys," and in return our Fourth of July ought to receive the same patronage from the town boys.

Several stalls have been already engaged at the Kahului track and several horses are in training for the coming occasion.

Two little infants died this week. One of them was one of Mrs. J. Kanakamakai's twins and the other Mr. J. N. K. Keola's six months old baby boy who succumbed after the second attack of the convulsions leaving "Jim" to mourn the loss of the expected head of the family. The funeral service was held at the residence officiated by Rev. Mr. Lewis, and the child was laid to rest in the English cemetery.

Mrs. Molly Broad, who leaves for Japan to-day with her children, was given a farewell dinner last night at Kahului by her many friends and a good old time prevailed.

The Kahului Railroad Company is busy unloading day and night for which reason Mr. Berg the superintendent is not often seen up this way now adays.

Mr. Gear, of Gear, Lansing & Co., visited their lately purchased Kaonoulu Ranch the beginning of the week and left by the W. G. Hall.

A Doctor Robbed.

The Chinese boy in the employ of Dr. Murray, assisted by a friend, broke into the safe and robbed the doctor of nearly $300.

The learned physician has always a large amount of cash and unpaid bills in his house, and his trusted servant was aware of the fact. Ah Hin knew that he could not steal the doctor's banking account, and that the unpaid bills were of doubtful value, so he simply stole the cash in the safe.

Through a brilliant trick of Deputy Marshal Chillingworth the offender was located, but it is very doubtful whether Dr. Murray will get his money back.

At the Anchor.

Captain Carlyle states that the Bock Beer is pa'u for this term. At the celebrated Anchor he now quenches the thirst of his customers with high grade Jesse Moore whiskey, or with Cyrus Noble's white malt whiskey, which mixed with plain soda makes the famous drink known as High Ball.

OUR HILO LETTER.

Signs of Progress in the Rival Metropolis.

For the last two weeks we have had rain in Hilo morning, noon and night. It has been very disagreeable weather for getting about, and work has been checked on the plantations where carts are used for conveying cane to flumes or cars.

Queen Victoria's birthday was observed in Hilo. All stores closed at noon. Rain prevented the playing of the postponed baseball game between the Kilohana and Tumi-Tomo, which promised to be a good game, for the teams are evenly matched. Manager Glaze of the Hilo Hotel had prepared a sumptuous banquet for the benefit of the Britishers in and around Hilo, which was followed by a ball in the Hotel dining-room and parlors. The dinner and ball were the most successful of all Mr. Glaze's efforts at entertaining, in which he is a past-master. The regular boarders at the Hotel are at a loss to know how it is that since Mr. Glaze took over the management of the Hotel, the surroundings have become more homelike. The courteous manner in which the guests at the Hotel are treated by Manager Glaze and his clerks accounts very largely for this.

Demosthenes Lyeurgus, who has been conducting the Olan Restaurant for a number of years, finds himself obliged to "enlarge" his borders" and has erected a fine building which is to known as "Demosthenes' Cafe." Besides dining rooms there is to be a large billiard-room, which will be quite an acquisition to the young men of Hilo, for there is no public billiard table in town except at the Hotel Annex.

The Church socials given by the ladies of the Hilo Foreign Church are always delightful. The one given on Tuesday last was more especially so, for the ladies had secured the services of Prof. Henshaw and Mr. Cyril O. Smith, who gave an exhibition of lantern slides from photographs of a local nature taken by themselves.

The stone foundations for a brick building to be used by W. C. Peacock & Co. are almost completed.

Fred Waldron, manager of the Volcano House, has arranged to give an informal ball at his hostelry on Saturday, the 27th inst. It promises to be a very pleasant affair, for many people from Hilo have decided to go if the weather is not too inclement. Since Mr. Waldron has taken charge of the Hotel he has made many decided improvements.

The coffee trees below the 15 mile post are looking very poor and it is a good thing for those planters whose lands will be included in the Olan plantation to have sold them. There is some speculation as to who will be the manager of the new plantation, and it is generally conceded here that no better man could be found than Wm. Chalmers, who for over twelve years has been head luna at Waiakea, and has been most successful in growing cane on the lands adjoining those of the Olan plantation.

The Hilo brass band is making considerable progress. Since the arrival of new instruments a decided improvement is noticed, and Prof. Cavalho is to be congratulated on bringing his men to such a state of proficiency as he has already done.

Groceries to the Fore.

In Union is Strength, and so it is in Co-operation

The Yanco-Sparco war brought about high prices for a time, but it has again come down to its former level, and we are getting our groceries as cheap as we ever had them before. If every stockholder in the company were to purchase his or her groceries from the Co-operative Grocery Co., the success of the corporation will be assured.

Call and trade; free delivery to all parts of the city.
