BOARD OF IMMIGRATION DECLARES ITS POLICY

DOES NOT ASK FOR AN APPROPRIATION FOR CONTINUING THE WORK OF BRINGING IMMIGRANTS HERE BECAUSE THAT WOULD INVOLVE INCREASED TAXATION—IT DOES OUTLINE EFFORTS TO RETAIN THE WHITE LABOR ALREADY HERE.

The following is the declaration of its policy adopted yesterday by the Board of Immigration and reported today to the Legislature:

Whereas, the Board of Immigration has received information of a ruling of the Attorney-General of the United States, based on the amendments to the Immigration laws of the United States which take effect July 1, 1907, that is unfavorable to a continuation of the emigration of Europeans to Hawaii as at present conducted; and

Whereas, under said decision of the Attorney-General it will be impossible after said first day of July for this Board to solicit subscriptions from private interests to carry on immigration; and an appropriation would have to be sought from the Legislature for said purpose, which appropriation, under the present financial conditions of the Territorial Government, would have to be made up by a special tax, or an increase of property or income taxes; and

Whereas, the Board of Immigration, since December, 1906, has obtained one shipment of Portuguese immigrants, and has contracted for two others, one of which is due to arrive at the end of April, and the other in the month of June; and

Whereas, the expense of the immigration thus far conducted has been large, the estimated cost of the three shipments being approximately $300,000.00; and

Whereas, a large number of Portuguese residents of Hawaii have recently departed for the Pacific Coast where they are attracted by offers of employment at wages much higher than can be paid by the plantations, and information has been received by the Board that many other Portuguese are considering the same action, and a large number are expected to depart by the next "Alameda"; and

Whereas, the primary object and purpose for which the Board of Immigration was created is to secure immigrants who will become a permanent laboring population, and to promote the settlement of such immigrants.

Therefore, Be it Resolved by the Board of Immigration:

That if possible the emigration of the Portuguese and other white laborers to the Pacific Coast be stopped and to this end that the following measures be adopted:

1st.—To urge the plantations that all Portuguese and other white laborers be offered the privilege of purchasing or otherwise acquiring homes and small areas of tillable land upon the plantations and such other inducements as will prevail upon them to remain in the Territory.

2nd.—To urge upon the Government that available and suitable Government lands be immediately opened for settlement in small parcels, and that the same be offered to Portuguese and others who will live thereon in areas sufficient to support the settler and his family, and upon the best and most reasonable terms that are permissible.

Be it Further Resolved, That no appropriation be sought from the present Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii for the purpose of carrying on immigration, and that every effort be made to secure the continuance of immigration on the same terms and by the same method as formerly used.

Be it Further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Governor of the Territory, the President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House.

Schwab to Make Sister Princely Gift

Miss Gertrude Schwab.

A wedding present valued at $2,000,000 is rare enough to excite more than passing notice. A complete collection of gifts at a fashionable marriage rarely touches a figure half as large, yet Gertrude Schwab, the favorite sister of Chas. M. Schwab, formerly president of the United States Steel Corporation is to receive $2,000,000 cash from her brother, on the day she becomes the wife of David J. Barry, of Johnstown, Pa., to whom she is engaged. The wedding is to take place early in June, and will be celebrated at the home of Miss Schwab in Loretta, Pa. She is a very handsome woman and bears a considerable resemblance to her famous brother. Mr. Barry is a banker and, although not considered a wealthy man, has some property and is in no actual need of the marriage portion which is future brother-in-law has seen fit to set aside for the young couple. They will make their home in Johnstown.

SENATE IS AMENDING PROPOSED LIQUOR BILL

WENT INTO COMMITTEE OF WHOLE THIS MORNING AND MADE SOME MATERIAL CHANGES IN MEASURE—OTHER MATTERS WERE DISPOSED OF BY THE BODY IN REGULAR SESSION—AND THEN ADJOURNMENT FOR DAY WAS TAKEN.

SENATE THIRTY-NINTH DAY. MORNING SESSION.

Notification was received that the Governor had signed a number of measures.

Notification was received from the House of the passage of the Walsh resolution. The measure was referred to the Health committee. This is the measure that proposes to allow him to practice his "cures" on the lepers at Molokai provided the Senate concurs in the permission granted by the House.

House resolution reconsidering the increase of the Supreme Court from three to five members was received so it was decided to recall the Senate resolution on this subject from the House which was done.

Senator Smith reported as follows: "The Judiciary committee have had under consideration House bill No. 48 entitled 'An Act relating to negotiable instruments, being an act to establish a law uniform with the laws of other states and territories on that subject,' and recommend the passage of the bill.

The report was tabled to be considered with the bill.

House bill No. 116 providing for the retirement fund to pension school teachers, was given first reading by title.

Chillingworth for the special Nuanuan dam committee reported that expert Schuyler had arrived.

Senate bill No. 13, providing for the form of ballot for elections and the manner of voting came up on third reading. Smith offered an amendment which took away the privilege given in the original bill, whereby the voter was allowed to mark on the ballot the name of any additional candidate that he might desire. This amendment was adopted and then the bill passed.

Senate bill No. 11 the graduated income tax measure came up on second reading. It was Makokau's bill. He asked to amend it by placing a tax of 4 per cent on the incomes of corporations.

The amendment was lost.

On motion of Knudsen further consideration of the measure was indefinitely postponed.

Senate bill No. 93 relating to Certain license fees went to the Ways and Means committee on second reading.

Senate bill No. 94 relating to the manufacture, sale, distribution etc., of electric light and power at Wailuku passed second reading.

House bill No. 159 empowering all counties to make loans came up on second reading and was passed.

Senate bill No. 60, giving Hawaii county alone the right to make loans also passed second reading.

House bill No. 150, on second reading to authorize the Territory to purchase bonds of the counties, came up on consideration with the report of the Ways and Means committee. The bill passed without discussion.

House bill No. 172 disqualifying government employees reading and was referred to the Miscellaneous committee.

Consideration of House Joint Resolution providing for the appointment of a commission on the Waikeiki Reclamation scheme was then called on second reading and passed.

A communication from the board of immigration, which had been read in the House was read and referred to the Lands Committee. The Senate then went into committee of the whole to consider the liquor bill on second reading.

This bill was amended so that the delivery of liquor without the proper license authority, would be regarded as prima facie evidence that money

IS CROCKETT REFINERY TO BE MOVED TO HONOLULU?

SUCH IS THE RUMOR PREVALENT IN CROCKETT ACCORDING TO COAST FILES—THE REASON.

The San Francisco Bulletin of March 27 publish the following:

VALLEJO, March 27.—The people of Crockett, just across the straits from Vallejo, are experiencing considerable anxiety over the story that has leaked out to the effect that the California and Hawaiian Sugar Refining Company is contemplating removing its big plant from that town. George M. Rolph, the manager of the company, refuses to deny or affirm the story, but it is understood that it will be only a short time before the present plant, which pays out about $10,000 a month in wages, will be moved. As this is one of the most important industries in Crockett such a course means a big loss to the sugar refinery town.

If the Crockett plant is abandoned the company will operate a plant in Honolulu in its stead, this plan having been decided upon as affording better facilities for refining purposes, with much less expenditure than at present.

J. P. Cooke representing large sugar interests here, positively denies that there is any truth in the story appearing in recent coast papers to the effect that the Crockett sugar refinery was going out of business. "It is all nonsense," says Mr. Cooke.

Two House Bills Get The Axe

GOVERNOR VETOES PROMULGATION OF LAWS BILL AND TAKES FALL OUT OF DOUBLE OFFICE HOLDING BILLS.

Governor Carter today exercised his prerogative by vetoing two of the House bills which had passed the Senate and been referred to him for approval. In his messages to the Legislature regarding the reasons for his action, the Chief Executive intimates strongly that he believes the bills were framed for the purpose of grabbing more money from the coffers of the Territory.

The first bill passed upon House Bill 41, relative to the promulgation of laws. The Governor thinks that to have the new bills printed in papers in each County, in both languages would be too expensive an undertaking.

ON DOUBLE SALARIES. Relative to House Bill 123, which prevents the holding of more than one position under the government by a single person, regardless of the salaries involved, the Governor says that such a system would mean the paying of large salaries to office-holders, for duties that could be well performed by other officers, at little or no salary. He also objects to the form of the bill which he thinks is opposed to the provision of the Organic Act, relative to complex subjects in one bill.

INCAUTIOUS FRUIT EATING. Bowel complaint is always more or less prevalent during the fruit season and as an attack is liable to come on without warning, it is best to keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the home. This medicine is well-known for its prompt cures and many times serious illness is avoided by having it at hand when needed. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Agents for Hawaii.

BARGAIN WEEK AT BACHS. Beginning Monday morning The Bachs Dry Goods Co., will offer extra money saving specials in Pillow Cases, Black Crepon, all Wool Twilled Flannels, Kimono Dressing Scaques, Ladies Sweaters, Peter Pan Waists and Valenciennes Lace.

Enforced Eden Here In Cupid's Half-way House If Ventura Is Late

AMERICAN GIRL ON AORANGI IS HERE TO MEET INTENDED HUSBAND DUE IN VENTURA.

Honolulu is Cupid's half-way house, or so it is made by two lovers impatient to be in each other's arms. Imagine an enforced Eden—most folks wouldn't want to be forced much—in the Paradise of the Pacific, for Honolulu will be an enforced Eden to those yearning hearts if the S. S. Ventura from the Colonies does not show up here before the S. S. Aorangi is ready to sail at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

The how of it all is thus wise: Miss Gibson was to meet Dr. Ross of Aorangi. She holds a through ticket for the Colonies. She is an American girl.

Miss Gibson was to meet Dr. Ross of New Zealand here in Honolulu. She had expected that he would have arrived here in the S. S. Ventura by the time she got here in the Aorangi. But no Ventura has been sighted. What was she to do, for it had been agreed between the lovers that they were to be married here and then, both of them of course, go to New Zealand in the boat in which the lady came down, the Aorangi.

Miss Gibson put it to Captain Phillips of the Aorangi. All good seamen love lovers.

"I'll hold her nozzle against the wharf till—well, till the Ventura gets into the harbor and you are married," said the captain in effect, "providing the Ventura is sighted, no matter how far off, before the Aorangi is hooked to sail at half past two."

The maiden thanked the gallant captain with all her energy. She could not thank him with her heart for her heart is aboard that "nasty, horrid, poky, slow, old Ventura."

If the Ventura is not sighted when it is time for the Aorangi to sail, Miss Gibson will remain in Honolulu, meet her intended who comes in the Ventura and they will be married and will be compelled to stay here for about a month until another boat comes along bound for New Zealand.

An enforced Eden at Cupid's half-way house—Honolulu. How delightful!

Breakers Ahead?

Nobody knows. This world is like a big ocean. The frail, little craft that sail through it are liable any day to strike a reef and be seriously injured. While repairs are being made, there must be something to prevent leakage so that the whole crew, mother, father, and children, may not sink in the sea of dependency or debt. That something is a policy in the Standard Life and Accident Insurance Company.

To Women and Others

OF INTEREST.
Little Susie went out to her grandmother's on a farm in Lebanon County last summer. She was afraid of the cows, and one day her mother asked her to run out to the barn and call grandpa to dinner. She started, but seeing a cow in the lot, ran back crying.
"Oh, mamma, there's a cow out there!"
Her mother looked out of the window and said: "Why, Susie, that's only a mooley cow. She can't hurt you, for she hasn't any horns."
"But, mamma," exclaimed Susie, "she might butt me with her pompadour!"

It is very seldom that a drama of serious philosophical import achieves a popular success, yet such an exception to the general rule of the footlights world is "The Duel," with Otis Skinner in the leading role. Much to the surprise of its producers, who expected at best little more than artistic triumph, the piece has been hailed with marked acclamation throughout the country, and last season won one of the most conspicuous successes of the year in New York. Interest in the play in France was but natural, since the dramatist, Henri Lavedan, is one of the Forty Immortals of the French Academy, and since, moreover, his central theme is the great struggle between agnosticism and sincere religious belief which is today claiming so large a share of the attention of the Gaelic public. The favor accorded the American production, however, demonstrates that M. Lavedan, probably without any such deliberate intention, has written a play of decidedly broader scope than one of interest merely to his countrymen. The same battle between the forces of faith and clear-cut logic is being waged with more or less intensity in every great civilized nation and the mastery arguments dramatically presented with the skill of the accomplished playwright by M. Lavedan must have their appeal alike in England, Germany, Italy or America.

"The Duel" tells the story of two brothers long estranged, one a priest, the other a doctor, a cold, smothering agnostic. A married woman enters into the life of the doctor. The latter confesses his illicit love. The woman, alarmed at her own weakness, together with the man's power over her, rushes to the confessional for strength and advice. The doctor follows her, and it is only when the man comes face to face that the woman discovers that they are brothers. It is then the duel of words is fought, in which the doctor defies the world to keep the woman from him, while the priest asks God to help him save her soul. The climax of the second act presents a scene of remarkable emotional, as well as mental, appeal. Mr. Skinner brings intelligence, feeling and a keen sense of art to his portrayal of the young priest. He has done few things more convincing or virile.

Only an actor of magnetic personality, subtle intelligence and keen insight into human nature could successfully impart the proper note of sympathy and humanity to the character. In Paris the part was assumed by the richly gifted M. Le Borgy. Associated with the star are the veteran Charles Walcott, as the broad-minded foreign missionary, Monsignor Bolene; Walter Hitchcock as the skeptic, and Keith Wakeman, as the woman over whom the struggle is fought.

Modestly speaking, we are now blessed with five seasons instead of the usual calendar four. This fifth season has been added by the smart set, who have decreed that it is no longer fashionable to be able to stand one climate for any length of time, and they have selected this between winter and spring, for their exodus. Even a few degrees of difference in temperature demand a different style of dress, for which the dressmakers and trades people should be duly grateful. The kind of outfit one requires depends largely upon the part of the country to be visited. Even if not fortunate enough to be one of the holiday crowd, it is worth while to keep track of the spring sales going on everywhere, for often the most attractive frock can be purchased ahead of time for quite a little less than would be asked for it at the height of the season. The light-weight cloth suit is one's first need when of the home-staying class, or it is a useful all-around gown when joining the "fitters." These costumes do not differ materially from those of the winter, and no one style is more popular than another. There are jaunty little Eton jackets and semi-fitted coats reaching a trifle below the waist line, with a smart little fancy vest. And, again, is seen the long plain coat, with short-plaited skirt. In the new models this coat is shorter than the winter coat of the same cut and is either close or semi-fitted, with fitted or box front. Long plain leg of mutton sleeves of medium fullness are used.

On Mme. Bernhardt's last visit to us," said a manager, "she was beguiled one afternoon to a charity bazaar at the St. Regis.
"She was beautifully dressed in grey, with an umbrella of grey silk, and as she stood at the embroidery booth she laid the umbrella on the counter.
"Instantly the young girl who conducted the booth seized the pretty umbrella, waved it over her head, and cried:
"How much an I bid for Mme. Bernhardt's umbrella? Fifty? Twenty-five? Ten?"
"And while the actress looked on smiling, there ensued a spirited auction that ended in the umbrella's sale to a western brewer for $30."

If the Rev. Isaac K. Funk, of Funk & Wagnalls, publishers, is to be believed, dying in an exceedingly pleasant experience.
The announcement is contained in his book "The Psychic Riddle," where it appears a message, written by Mrs. Piper, the Boston medium, from the late secretary of the Society for Psychical Research, Dr. Richard Hodgson, to Prof. James H. Hyslop, formerly of Columbia. It was written out by Mrs. Piper's hand while the medium was in the trance state which accompanies all the messages from the spirit world through her. Here is how the alleged Hodgson spirit described the death process:
"It is delightful to go through the cool (cool not read at first) ethereal atmosphere, cool-cool, COOL-into life and shake (read as take) off the Shake off the shake—Shake off mortal body. Hyslop, speak."
"Doctor Funk explains that the spirits often appeal to hearers to reply, since this seems to help the communicating process.
"For those who are not familiar with the history of Mrs. Piper's mediumship, it should be stated that the spirit is supposed to enter her body and use her hand to write out what it has to say. The mortal in replying addresses himself to the medium's hand. The parenthetical remarks in the communication printed above are by Professor Hyslop. It will be noticed that when the word "cool" was not understood it was repeated several times that there might be no mistake. The same thing happened when Professor Hyslop read as "take" what the spirit meant for "shake."

Continuing, the Hodgson spirit, according to Doctor Funk, said:
"In leaving the body the shock to the spirit knocks everything out of one's thoughts for a while, but if he has any desire at all to prove his identity he can in time collect enough to collect—enough evidence to prove convincingly his identity—convincingly—convincingly—
"It is so suffocating to enter here, I can appreciate their difficulties better than ever before."
Commenting on the last clause Doctor Funk says "the testimony from many seance rooms is that spirits have bodies of which their physical earthly forms were the outer, coarser forms, and that in this new life they do need something akin to breathing, and that when they enter earthly conditions they experience a difficulty of breath like that we experience in going into a place of foul smells."

Doctor Funk insists that he is not a spiritualist, but pleads for the fullest investigation of such phenomena as he describes.
Novelties in belts and girdles are always eagerly sought after, particularly in the spring, when the demands of blouses and shirtwaist suits must be met. The encroachments of princess and empire modes and one-piece frocks have by no means obviated the necessity of providing accessories of this sort, and this season's belts and cinchures of all kinds are particularly beautiful.
Elastic ribbons are a feature of the new belts. So marvelously like ordinary ribbon are these elastic creations that the difference is not distinguishable at all when the belt is worn, and the added advantage is that the elastic does not crush into indistinguishable folds when drawn around the waist. Pompadour, moire and brocade effects are successfully reproduced in elastic ribbons. For the tailored suit rather narrow belts, with neat gold or silver buckles, are shown. The ribbon is about two inches wide, and the buckles the same size.
Two buckles are found on the newest belts: one at the back and one in front. Some of these are very elaborate, and are inset with semi-precious stones, while others are quite severely plain. Among the larger buckles more than two hooks are found, sometimes three or four being used, more for ornament, of course, than for usefulness. The buckle is rarely large in proportion to the width of the ribbon. If the buckles are large, the belts are wide.

Mr. Freidlander is especially interested in the volcanic phenomena on Hawaii and will visit the volcanic district next week. He expected to get here during the time of the recent lava flow, but was detained by the illness of a relative. He visited the Territory and the volcano several years ago.

IN THE HOUSE

AFTERNOON SESSION.

A resolution was introduced by Rawlins calling upon the president of the United States to appoint five judges on the Supreme Court bench instead of three as at present. He said in support of this that this was the sentiment of the Hawaii Bar Association. The resolution carried.

A resolution to pay $500 by appropriation for lands appropriated for government purposes from Kauwe at Hilea was referred to the Public Lands Committee.

To the same committee were referred a petition to extend Desha lane to School street at a cost of $10,000 and $1500 was asked to repair the landing at Kailua.

The House Conference committee on the bill to exempt lands used in certain industries from taxation, reported that it had prevailed over the Senate Committee in limiting the amount of pineapple land to 40 instead of 200 acres. The report was adopted. The capita industry amendment to the bill by the Senate was also objected to by the House, but failed to be eliminated by the committee.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole to consider House Bill 73, the Territorial appropriation bill. The bill was taken up where it was dropped yesterday and a good deal of wrangling resulted over various items.

The first change made in the items today was in the pay of bailiff, librarian and messenger of the Supreme Court, which was raised to $90 from $75 as in the bill.

On the item of three court stenographers, Rice moved to make it $175 each instead of $200 as in the bill. Rawlins said these stenographers earn $200 and should receive it. As this is a $20 increase over what they are at present getting, Rice's motion prevailed.

On motion of Silva the Portuguese Court Interpreter was allowed $100 instead of $75 as in the bill.

On the salary of District Magistrate for Honolulu, Kalelopu moved to make it $225 instead of $200 as in the bill. Coney didn't think Kalelopu's arguments were well taken. Rice thought $200 was enough. Rawlins said the position was more

IN THE SENATE

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Ways and Means Committee as the first business of the session reported in favor of House Bill No. 160, which provided that County bonds may be sold to the Territory of Hawaii. The same committee also reported favorably on House Bill 159, to enable the counties to issue bonds for County requirements. Both reports were tabled to be considered with the bill.

A joint resolution was introduced by Smith recommending that the membership of the Territorial Supreme Court be increased from three to five members. A copy of the resolutions to the President, the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House. The resolution was adopted.

The Senate then went into Committee of the Whole to consider Senate Bill No. 91, on second reading. This was the liquor bill. Senator Woods presided over the deliberations of the Senate in committee.

After some discussion over the measure Senator Bishop moved that the Senate amend the old law and stop the consideration of the present measure. This provoked a storm of protest from W. O. Smith. He declared that it was insulting and contemptuous treatment of the bill after careful consideration had been given it. He protested against such action. Bishop withdrew his motion and the consideration of the measure continued.

The discussion between Smith and Bishop was very warm. In fact the elder senator declared that he would not stand for such treatment of the work of the committee on the measure a measure which was very important and in which the public was greatly interested. But the withdrawal of Bishop's motion, checked further acrimony.

On motion of Senator McCarthy the hours for selling liquor were changed from 5:30 a. m. to 11 p. m. as at present time to 6 a. m. and 11:30 p. m. After making some minor amendments the committee rose and the senate resumed its session, the committee reporting progress.

Hayselden of the conference committee reported on bill No. 44 relating to the exemption of lands used in certain industries. Under the report the land is limited to 40 acres and copra is added to the list of products. The Senate adjourned at 5 p. m.

Roosevelt's Great Scheme

President Roosevelt has another big scheme. In his letter appointing a national commission to examine the internal water ways of the country and to report upon methods of improving them, he outlines a gigantic plan for the improvement of the transportation facilities of the country.

The president, in short, suggests the complete artificialization of the rivers of the country in a plan contemplating and providing every possible use of the water; the protection of the bottom lands from injury by overflow and the uplands from loss by soil wash; the adoption of methods of purifying the water and compelling the deposit of sediment, and the construction of locks and dams, not only to facilitate navigation, but to control the character of the waters.

The Seattle Post-Intelligence says: "The plan is gigantic in its conception and the work outlined is one which can scarcely be accomplished within one generation. It will involve enormous annual expenditures, but the returns will be worth the cost."

"This is not the idle dream of a theorist. It is an intensely practical suggestion, put forward by an intensely practical man. The commission which he has appointed, which will be headed by Representative Burton, chairman of the house committee on rivers and harbors, is composed entirely of men who have devoted much thought and study to one or the other of the problems presented by the waterways of the country."

Italy's Art And Antiquities

A good deal of fun is being poked at Italy by the newspaper paragraphs just now, because of her efforts to protect her art treasures and antiquities from being carried away from her shores. Just now the vein of fun lies in the consternation or alleged consternation that J. Pierpont Morgan's proposed visit to Italy is causing there, for fear he shall buy everything he sees.

Italy's unwillingness and final refusal, however, to receive foreign aid for the scientific and systematic examination of her antiquities stand on so different a basis that it is impossible to withhold admiration from her statesmen. When Italy was unable to carry on the researches so eagerly desired by the scientific world, there would seem to have been just ground for impatience, and full justification for the strenuous efforts made by Professor Waldstein and others for the uncovering of Herculaneum, but now that Italy is prepared to do the work under auspices that are a full guarantee of thoroughness and competence there remains not the slightest ground for complaint.

A few months ago, when the movement for the search of the ruins of Herculaneum—supposed to contain the finest remains of Roman civilization and literature in the first century—reached its culmination, it was thought that a compromise had been arrived at by which the needed funds might be supplied from abroad without in any way injuring the national dignity of Italy.

Notwithstanding the great burden which this will impose upon Italian national resources, it has been determined not only to undertake the Herculaneum excavations, but also the uncovering of the ancient port of Rome at Paestum, the extension of the works already under way at the Baths of Diocletian, and the opening in Rome of the long-talked of Archaeological Promenade from the Forum, past the Colosseum to the Baths of Caracalla and the Baths of Titus and Trajan.

Stories About People

A RESOLUTION FOR LAWYERS.

Joseph H. Cheate, the lawyer and diplomat, said at a lawyers' dinner: "We lawyers couldn't do better than to resolve to be gentler in our cross-examinations. Rudeness in cross-examination never, never pays. This is a truth that I once saw proven in a damage suit."

A PERTINENT QUESTION.

Richard Harding Davis was talking in New York about the life of a reporter. "A hard life it is," said he, "it is a life that taxes all the energies. I don't care how great a genius a man might be, how resourceful, how persevering, how alert, all those qualities would be brought in play if the man turned reporter, and on many a good story he would still fall down at that."

"The bank had gone up through a defalcation, and Jimmy went to interview its head. But its head was crusty. He refused to be interviewed. He took Jimmy by the arm and led him toward the door."

IT SAVED MORE THAN LABOR.

James R. Garfield, who is the new Secretary of the Interior, was praising labor-saving devices. "Labor-saving devices make for prosperity," Mr. Garfield said. "The accusations brought against them are rarely logical. On the contrary, these accusations have as a rule as little logic in them as had the claim of a tattered tramp."

AN EMBARRASSMENT.

The Princess de Montigny of Paris, who has come to America to exhibit her famous colliers at several kennel shows, said at a dinner in New York, apropos of an embarrassment: "That reminds me of a story they have been telling lately about Queen Alexandra of England."

HE KNEW.

The late Judge M. Russell Thayer of Philadelphia used to tell a good story about a brother jurist who was an enthusiastic golfer. The golfing judge, according to the story, had occasion to interrogate in a criminal suit a boy witness from Bala. "Now my lad," he said, "I want to know if you are acquainted with the nature and significance of an oath?"

The members of the San Francisco Board of Supervisors seem to have made their confession unanimous.

Detwiler must be ashamed of those San Francisco supervisors he bribed, he is so anxious to keep away from San Francisco.

Matrimony is a kind of dynamite used to explode the theories of bachelors. Were it impossible to speak anything but the truth we would have few friends. If some men were paid according to their worth their pay days would be few and far between. A woman's confidence in a man usually depends upon her liking for him rather than upon his reliability. Sea Captain Charged With Cowardice or other consideration had been given for such liquor.

CAPTAIN McVAY of the LARCHMONT

Passengers have made startling charges against George W. McVay, captain of the Joy Line steamer Larchmont, which sank after a collision in Long Island Sound, Feb. 11, when nearly 200 lives were lost. They say that Captain McVay displayed the greatest excitement following the disaster and left his vessel with part of his crew while many passengers struggled to get into his boat and that he refused to take aboard any of the passengers saved none but every child who was aboard the Larchmont was lost. Corroboration has been made and Captain McVay for manslaughter. The report of the Attorney General of the United States thereby justified. Captain McVay lives in Providence, R. I., and is one of the youngest steamship captains in the United States, being but 28 years of age.

During the consideration of the liquor bill, Senate bill No. 91, a recess was taken in order that two vetoes from the Governor could be received. These vetoes had been read in the House, and as they were of House measures action was deferred until Tuesday in order to give the House time in which to act. The Senate then went into committee of the whole to resume the consideration of the liquor bill.

Haysden moved to strike out the section fining any person for purchasing liquor from any unlicensed person the fine not to be over $100. The motion prevailed.

McCarthy moved to insert an amendment proving that any intoxicated person who failed to leave any saloon for, none; understanders, none. Note: "T" indicates trace of precipitation.

Mr. Alfred Pleau, an expert machinist, 173 St. John St., Quebec City, Can., writes a letter to the Peruna Drug Mfg. Co., given below:

MR. ALFRED PLEAU.

PERUNA STRENGTHENS THE ENTIRE SYSTEM.

"Two years ago, an accident necessitated my confinement for several weeks. The good health I had enjoyed was slipping away and there developed a complication of diseases. My physician said my case was one of general debility.

"Among the many ailments which developed was a serious attack of catarrh, which annoyed me considerably and kept me awake whole nights.

"I decided to give Peruna a trial and soon found it acting as a wonderful tonic to my system. The catarrh grew less severe and shortly afterward disappeared, as did also the various other maladies.

"I attribute my prompt relief and ultimate cure entirely to the use of Peruna and gladly recommend it."

For special directions everyone should read "The His of Life," a copy of which surrounds each bottle. Peruna is for sale by the following druggists and will supply the retail trade in Honolulu, Hawaii, Benson, Smith & Co., Hobron Drug Co., Honolulu, Hawaii.

At 10 o'clock in the morning of the same day. The purser's report records the sighting of the Rosecrans and her tow as follows: "Passed a steamer towing a hulk, bound N. E." It was thought a board that the barge Monterey was a dismantled vessel picked up by the steamer which was taking her prize to port.

At 2:30 o'clock this afternoon the S. S. Aorangi resumes her voyage to the Colonies.

"I was previously afflicted with biliousness and liver troubles. My mouth was in a terrible condition every morning, my tongue thickly coated, my breath was often

At last I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and my improvement began almost from the first dose. It relieved the distress about my liver, caused my food to digest well, and my bowels, improved my complexion, and restored my appetite. These untold benefits were accomplished by only two and a half bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Mrs. Lydia M. Tarnes, Alton, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knight, who are to sail for Honolulu on the 23d of April, are planning to entertain a large house party at Mrs. Knight's plantation on one of the islands. The San Francisco guests who have been asked to spend the summer so delightfully are Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Newell, Mr. and Mrs. Bush Pinnell and Mrs. Kathiey.—S. F. Bulletin.

SOCIAL EVENTS OF THE WEEK

One of the prettiest children's parties ever given in Honolulu, was the Easter Party arranged by Mrs. Charles B. Cooper on Monday afternoon for her two little sons, Bryant and Jack. The affair was given at the home of Mrs. Cooper's parents, Dr. and Mrs. McGrew on Lanailo street, where the beautiful grounds surrounding the residence lent themselves most perfectly to the character of the entertainment, which took place almost altogether out of doors. The little guests numbering about sixty ranged in age from four to six years and most of them were attended by their nurses. In their brave array of dainty "party dresses" they made a picture that will be long remembered by those who saw it.

The principal feature of the afternoon was the search for beautifully colored Easter Eggs and tokens hidden about the large grounds in every conceivable hiding place. Almost every clump of shrubbery and every palm concealed its quota of the several hundred pretty souvenirs, while the hedge rows seemed to have produced some novel kind of fruit, so beautifully did they reward the bright eyed little hunters. Every new discovery was the signal for a chorus of delighted shouts, and the rivalry among the larger of the little ones was very keen to see who should find the most. The skillful diplomacy of the "grown-ups" who watched over the fun, prevented however, any heart aches on the part of the less able of the little searchers.

The refreshments served were simple and daintily served consisting of bread and milk and ice cream, and cake such as would insure the little guests from any unpleasant after effects of their dissipation. The party broke up, and the children left reluctantly for their homes about sundown, but the day was one which all of them will long remember.

Mrs. Abrams of Seattle, Wash., who has been spending the winter in Honolulu, was formerly an old resident of the islands. Her father having owned Kahuku ranch on Hawaii, in the old days. Mrs. Abrams who is accompanied by her daughter has been very extensively entertained in a quiet manner, since she has been here by all her old time friends and has been compelled to extend her visit.

Mrs. Gunn's annual dancing class exhibition will be held at the Opera House on the evening of April 27th.

On Monday Miss Pauline Schaefer gave a charming Easter luncheon to fourteen of her girl friends as a farewell to Miss Christabel Layard, who leaves shortly with her parents for a trip to England.

The Misses Alice and Ethel May who formerly resided in Honolulu, but who have made San Francisco their home for several years past are having a delightful visit here among their old friends. They were Mrs. Bothwell's guests for several weeks, and are now stopping with Miss Underwood on College street.

The twin daughters of H. E. Cooper the Misses Irene and Isabel gave a most enjoyable dancing party to a large number of their young friends on Tuesday evening at their Moana residence.

There was a revival of the spirit of the Sequoians on Thursday evening last, when the first general meeting since the fire took place as a reunion and also to indorse the actions of the board of directors, who have transacted much business and made many important moves within the past year. Preceding the meeting a dinner given by a number of prominent Sequoians took place at a restaurant of Bohemian fame, as a farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Jack London. The decorations were decidedly maritime in nature, ropes being looped around the room in sailor's knots, pennants, belaying pins, miniature ships and others bits suggestive of the sea. The menu bore at the top a picture of the Snark, while at the bottom of the card was an outline drawing of the cabin plan of the little vessel which is to bear the guests of honor around the world. A number of clever speeches were made and about 9:30 o'clock the guests went to the Sequoia Club rooms. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Allen, Colonel and Mrs. Edwin Emerson, Mrs. B. F. Norris, Dr. Millicent Cosgrave, Dr. Arnold Gothe, James D. Phelan, A. D. Shepard, William Greer Harrison, Charles Field and Allan Dunn.—S. F. Chronicle.

Mrs. Mabel Wing Castle, with her daughter and niece will leave some time this month for the coast where they will spend several months.

Miss Ingersol, who has spent the past year in Honolulu, and has made many friends, will leave on the Ventura.

The dance at the Hawaiian Hotel last evening was a very delightful affair. The number of dancers on the broad lais was not so large as to make the floors overcrowded, and everybody enjoyed the evening to the fullest extent.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil P. Medbury, of North Vernon, Ohio, who have been spending several weeks on the island, will probably return to the coast next week.

On Thursday Mrs. P. H. Dodge was at home to a large number of friends. The visitors were much interested in a number of shrimps which Mr. Dodge has arranged in his home, typical of the principal religions of the world, and all having some interesting bit of history connected with them.

Among the Moana guests who visited the volcano last week were Mrs. Antonette Beiger and Mr. Alie M. Cuiver returned last Saturday at Mrs. Beiger came back on Tuesday. Mr. Cuiver, who is passenger agent of the Oceanic Steamship Company returns to San Francisco on the Ventura.

A very pleasant event of the week was the tea given on Tuesday by Mrs. Mabel Wing Castle to a large number of her friends, most of whom have been members of the literary circle of which Mrs. Castle has been the host for the past year. The tea was in the nature of a farewell gathering of the congenial coterie prior to Mrs. Castle's departure for the mainland, which will take place some time during this month. During the afternoon, Mr. P. H. Dodge read one of his delightful short stories, and Mrs. Castle, another by one of the members of the circle, whose name, however, was not announced. Miss Ingersol also contributed to the pleasure of the occasion by a choice literary effort of her own.

Mrs. F. J. Lowrey will preside at one of the tables at the Palama Fair this afternoon and evening.

The celebration of the golden wedding anniversary of Hon. and Mrs. Henry W. Severance, which was held recently at the home of their daughter Mrs. Charles Francis Sawyer, in Augusta, Maine, was the subject of a clipping from an Augusta paper just received here, and will be interesting to many persons in Honolulu who will remember Mr. and Mrs. Severance, as well as Mrs. Sawyer. Mr. Severance was for many years a resident in the Territory, and was appointed by King-Kalakauna as consul general from Hawaii to the United States, being stationed at San Francisco. He held this post for nearly fifteen years.

The following from the clipping will be of interest to Honoluluans: Among the many present were Mrs. Emily Judd of Honolulu, Mrs. Farley of Boston, Mrs. Dr. Gerrish, Mrs. Goodwin and Mrs. Haines of Augusta, Me., and Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Kirkbride of Philadelphia, son-in-law and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Severance.

Mr. and Mrs. Severance received many costly presents, while cablegrams from friends—traveling in Europe and telegrams from friends in San Francisco, New York and Philadelphia who were unable to be present conveyed congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Severance were born in Augusta, Me., the former being the son of the Hon. Luther Severance, owner and publisher of the Kennebec Journal and later a member of Congress for many years.

Mrs. Severance is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Child, her father being one of the most prominent citizens of Augusta.

Mr. Severance was a "forty-niner," going to California in that year with thousands of other Easterners during the period of the gold fever. Never forgetting his Pine Tree State attachments he returned to Augusta and on March 17, 1857, was united in marriage to Miss Hannah Child. Soon after this Mr. Severance with his bride returned to California, they being among the first ones to cross Isthmus of Panama. From California the couple went to Honolulu where the former Augusta boy became successfully engaged in business. Possessing an ability which demands recognition, the business man Severance was subsequently appointed by King Kalakauna as Consul General from Honolulu to the United States.

This latter important consulate Mr. Severance held during the revolution in the Hawaiian Islands and until the islands were annexed to the United States. It was afterward that Mr. C. Francis Sawyer, son of former Gov. Sawyer met, Gertrude, the youngest daughter of Consul General and Mrs. Severance, and after their marriage, the parents of the bride returned to the States where they have since made their home with Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer. Mr. and Mrs. Severance have of course passed three score and ten, but are still hale and hearty and counted among the most active of their age in this their adopted city. The Democratic joins with their host of friends both in Dover and abroad, in wishing them many happy returns of the anniversary.

The following from the San Francisco Chronicle will be of interest to Honoluluans owing to the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Raas are quite well known here, the gentleman being a brother of Albert Raas, deceased, of this city:

Mr. and Mrs. Joel Raas, their two daughters—Mrs. E. G. Lyons and Mrs. Hortense Raas and her children—will leave on April 6th for Europe. They will be met in New York by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kahn, who will join them on the trip to Paris. Mrs. Kahn is a sister of Mrs. Joel Raas and Mrs. Hortense Raas, and Mrs. Lyons is their mother. The party will be abroad indefinitely.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Conry, who were passengers from Honolulu on the Sherman, are well known in San Francisco. Lieutenant Conry was one of the popular young bachelors of the Tenth Infantry during its station at the Presidio, and his attractive young wife, then Miss White, was a belle at the Army post.—S. F. Chronicle.

Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Gregg Jr. will sail on April 1 for the Hawaiian Islands for a stay of several weeks. They will be accompanied by their daughters, Miss Ethel Gregg and Miss Enid Gregg who will be debutantes of a few seasons hence.—Call.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Irwin, Miss Helene Irwin and Miss Julia Langhorne returned to San Francisco after a two weeks' trip to Coronado and Santa Barbara.

Mrs. William Irwin who with Miss Helene Irwin and Miss Julia Langhorne returned from Southern California a few days ago, is planning to give a dance for the younger set after Easter. It will be the second dance given during the season in the attractive ballroom of the Irwin residence as Miss Helene entertained the Gayety Club in January.—S. F. Chronicle.

Mrs. Klamp is entertaining this afternoon for her sister.

Miss Madge McCandless returned the first of the week from a week's visit at the volcano.

What promises to be a very enjoyable dance will be given this evening at the Alexander Young hotel by the young ladies of the Kalahele Boat Club. The affair is not being given for purely the philanthropic purpose of furnishing amusement for their friends, but also in the hope of adding materially to the funds in the club's treasury. The music is to be furnished by the Royal Kawaiahaui Glee Club. This is the first attempt that the club has given, and the members are sparing no efforts to make it a success.

A very pleasant dance was given last night by the Misses Schaefer at their home at Rosebank. A large number of young people spent a very pleasant evening, returning home at 12:30 o'clock on special cars chartered for the occasion.

A fair is being held this afternoon and evening at the Palama Settlement for the purpose of raising money for the district nursing fund of the settlement, to assist in starting a depot for infants. Booths have been arranged in typical American, Hawaiian, Japanese and Chinese styles, and will be attended by ladies in the costumes of the countries they represent. The affair has every indication of being a great success.

The opening of the new lodge rooms of the Knights of Pythias on Fort street, which occurred last evening, was a most pleasant affair and was enjoyed by members of the order and their friends who were invited. Besides a number of addresses made by the officers of the lodge, there was an interesting musical program given. Dainty refreshments were served during the evening.

Early in the evening the spacious floors of the large hall were cleared and for several hours it was thronged with a merry cove of young dancers. The new quarters are very handsomely appointed and were much admired by the visitors.

A dance had been arranged to be given at the Seaside Hotel, on Friday evening especially for the officers and ladies on board the homeward bound transport Logan, but this had to be called off on account of the vessel's brief stay at this port. Many of the fair passengers were much disappointed at the short stop here.

The following announcements received by many friends reached here by the mails this week, and were a pleasant surprise to those who had not been aware of the nature of Mr. Ebner's recent vocation. Later on the Alameda Mr. and Mrs. Ebner arrived here and are stopping at the Hawaiian Hotel. They expect to go to house-keeping in a short time. Mr. Ebner is a well known young insurance man in this city.

Los Angeles, California. At Home after June first, Honolulu, T. H.

Dr. Francis St. Sure, a brother of A. F. St. Sure, at present a resident physician of the Hawaiian Islands, and his wife are planning to return to Alameda in the near future, and will probably make their home in Alameda.—Examiner.

Colonel Alexander G. Hawes has spent the winter at Waukiki, near Honolulu, but expects to pay his annual visit to San Francisco next summer. In the past few years Colonel Hawes has spent much time in the islands and he has been sadly missed at the Bohemian Club during his long absences.—Chronicle.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Grinbaum, who have spent the winter at the Moana left today by the Korea.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Cockburn arrived by the Aorangi this morning from Victoria where they were recently married. They will live at St. Clement's Rectory. Mr. Cockburn is in Bishop's bank.

TOWN TALK

The older generation of Hawaiians are probably taking more interest in the fight between Harriman and Roosevelt than in any similar contest of that description. The reason is that Harriman's uncle played a very prominent part in the earlier Hawaiian history. In fact he was the victim of a very tragic occurrence during the reign of King Kamehameha IV. The king became jealous of the uncle of Harriman, whose name was Charles Neilson and inflicted a mortal wound on him, while they were living at Lahaina. There was some rumor at the time that the king suspected him of being too fond of the queen, but this report appears to have been untrue. Neilson lingered for months and finally died. Kamehameha wanted to abdicate the throne but was prevailed upon not to relinquish the reins of government.

When E. H. Harriman was in Honolulu a couple of years ago he inquired about his uncle's career and said that he was desirous of conversing with some of the older residents here in order to learn about the inside details of the tragic end of his relative. Whether he did or not I am unable to say.

I see that that scheme to tap Kilauea and run the lava into Hilo bay for the purpose of making a breakwater, has recently received a page notice in the mainland press. But it seems to me that some of the details were lacking. Nothing was said of the suggestion that the first thing to do will be to order a vast quantity of asbestos pipe to transport the molten mass down the sides of the mountain and direct it to the particular spot in the bay where it is needed. But another highly important feature is the way special steamer to take them to Kalaupapa; they seemed to fear that if there was any delay some poor unfortunate might not be able to last until they got there and they wanted all the lepers to get into the band wagon of health as it were. There was no special steamer available, so they went on the regular boat. The channel was rough that trip and the woman was very ill with mal de mer. Some cynical individual suggested to the husband that it would be a good idea to practice his arts on the sick woman as a sort of warming up process like they give the race horses before they face the starter in the formal contest, for it was announced to the Christian Scientists that they had a long road to follow when they tried to pray those lepers to cleanliness. But probably the husband was too busy watching the flying fish or possibly listening to Beckley tell him the story of his life, for the husband unsympathetically said that he "guessed she would come around all right;" and she did—when the boat stopped, off the Settlement.

The pair went ashore and were taken over to Kalaupapa where about a dozen lepers in the most loathsome and advanced stages of the disease were lined up for their inspection. Instead of starting in with their "cure," the woman gave a yelp and did a hot foot back to Kalaupapa, with her husband trailing close behind.

When Kalaupapa was reached and the pair had gotten their breath, they announced that it was a hard proposition and they would not undertake any cure until they were paid $5000. The pair did not get the five thousand punks and the patients whose hopes they had raised are still waiting on Molokai to be cured.

I'm tempted to chuckle sometimes when I see some folk's names put forward in the society columns. Only the other day I smiled over a society note of a certain young man advertied as down here to gather magazine material. The item might truthfully have continued as follows: "During his trip from San Francisco he enjoyed the acquaintance of a Honolulu lady whose manner, however, he has since described as cold. Paying a party call upon the fair one in her temporary hotel lodgings, upon arrival, their conversation was rudely interrupted by a man who yanked him from under the bed whither he had ventured in search of a ring which he had dropped while showing its curious setting to the lady. His right eye was in mourning for several days, having bumped it against the husband's (we almost forgot to say that the intruder was the lady's husband) fist. He made his affidavit to the police, a reception at the police station following the function at the hotel, and still referred to the manner of the lady as inhospitable. We are informed that the gentleman is now en route to the Philippines to marry the love of his childhood days in Minnesota. Cruel parents forbade the match and the lovers pretended to break the engagement but maintained correspondence as trolic as it was secret. Now, while the lady is supposed to be visiting friends in California has gone flying through here to Manila where our knight of the muck-rake magazine has hastened to claim her for his bride. In California there is a girl forging weekly letters to the papa and mama of the bride-to-be, that her flight to Manila may not be discovered.

I was always taught that a story should be complete and have endeavored to show how the society item referred to fell short of being really interesting.

Superintendent Rath of the Palama Mission is a man worth watching, but only the wicked need fear the Rath of God.

Sidney M. Ballou made a bad break in front of Joe Clark's saloon on Wednesday night. He was in an automobile (No. 2) and something went wrong with the machine. It wasn't his fault the auto balked just in front of the once famous resort.

There's a lot of unnecessary fuss over the claims of Wallace that he can cure what is called leprosy and perhaps the doctors are afraid that he might make good his claim. Oh, this professional jealousy! By all means let Wallace or anybody else go try his luck at curing; he can do no harm and may do some good. Wallace may be the biggest fake who ever happened across some recipe that works apparent marvels. Because a disease baffles the doctors is no sign that some poor tramp may not have the remedy in his pocket, whether it be powdered worms and female stones or plain castor oil.

What has surprised me is that Christian Science has never applied for permission to go to Molokai to cure the lepers.

Out Palolo way there's a hen that lays wholesale and crows like a rooster, but she never sets. There are others.

The young man who was for awhile chief gibberer for the Holy Rollers, who attracted so much attention here recently, is slinging hash in a hotel street restaurant.

They tell me that a young man in leaving one of the Honolulu newspapers recently declared that reporting was no work for the son of a clergyman. Evidently this son of a clergyman was no man for the work.

MOTHER OF CLERK SAVIDGE DIED TODAY

SHE WAS 75 YEARS OF AGE AND HAD LIVED IN THE ISLANDS SINCE 1849.

Mrs. Sarah Savidge the mother of William Savidge, clerk of the Senate, and of Samuel Savidge of this city, died this morning at 3:40 o'clock at the residence of J. Cassidy. She was 75 years of age and succumbed to a complication of disorders.

Mrs. Savidge was a kamaaina of the islands, in the true sense of the word. She was born near Glasgow, Scotland, but left home with her father and mother when she was but three years of age. They went to the Colonies to live. In 1849 the family which consisted of Mrs. Savidge, her sister and father and mother, came to the Hawaiian Islands. Her father went to California to the gold fields and was never heard from. It had been intended that the family would rejoin him. In consequence of his death they remained in the islands.

Mrs. Savidge was married many years ago. Her sister Mrs. George Emmae died several years ago.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Savidge will be held at 3 p. m. tomorrow from St. Andrews Cathedral. Rev. Alexander Mackintosh will officiate. The interment will be in Nuuanu cemetery.
