PARIS EXHIBIT DOES NOT ENTHUSE

Honolulu Writes of Things of Interest to Hawaii.

GIVES IMPRESSIONS ON DETAILS AT EXPOSITION

Wm. G. Irwin Kicked on French- men's Way of Judging Sugar --Something About Ha- waiian Exhibit.

A letter from Paris, under date of August 7 and which arrived in the Hongkong Maru yesterday, contains among other things, the following impressions of a Honolulu at the Exposition:

"The Exposition is said to be a failure, pure and simple and I believe it is. The only thing that lives in your memory and is worth studying is the Beaux Arts. The buildings alone are magnificent and the pictures are really grand. France stands at the head in Art. There is no doubt that France is the mother and Mecca of all things artistic. The Rue des Nations is imposing but I am sorry to say that the American building is a disappointment. "We went to see the Hawaiian exhibit. The Honorable Secretary showed us about. There was not much showing about to do for the whole thing occupies about the length and breadth of a very small cottage veranda.

"Some of us Hawaiians went to a dinner given for the Cuban Commissioners not long ago. The one topic of conversation and the cause of great amusement was the rejection of Cuban and Hawaiian sugar by the jury, after only smelling it.

"The Cubans were furious but forgot their anger in laughing at Billy Irwin's wrath. They said it was too funny for anything. He raged and stamped about and swore he would have a medal for his sugar in spite of those d--- French idiots who did not know good sugar when they saw it. Moreover, he already had seven medals and he was going to get another.

"The joke came in when they asked him to show what medals he had and he was unable to produce them.

"Some of us have heard Mrs. Woodward (nee Grace Richards) sing. She has improved very greatly and sings exceedingly well. Her voice is full and very sweet and she sings intelligently, which is more than most of them do. I believe Mrs. Woodward aspires to Grand Opera."

Water Troubles Aired.

A quarrel over water rights between two Kailhi native women, was well aired in the Police Court this forenoon. The defendant was Wahine hou and the who made no effort to disguise her feelings while on the witness stand. She claimed that Wahine hou went into her yard and cut her water pipe with a hatchet.

It seems that, during the cholera time, the locality in which the two native women live (makai of Kamehameha) furnished a goodly quota of victims and, in order to furnish the place with pure water, the trustees of the Bishop Estate ran a pipe down from one of the artesian wells.

Just recently Koleka has taken to monopolizing the water so that the residents makai, of which Wahine hou is one, were deprived of their share. Wahine hou remonstrated with Koleka until she became thoroughly weary with the effort. Then she took to the hatchet and hit the pipe.

She was arrested on the charge of malicious injury but Judge Wilcox discharged her, saying that there might be grounds for a civil but not for a criminal suit.

New Line Ready for Business.

San Francisco, Aug. 23.—Word has been received from New York that the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company will begin its service to Pacific Coast ports and the Hawaiian Islands on September 1st with the dispatching of the steamer American from the company's pier at South Brooklyn. The freight taken by the new factor in ocean commerce will be carried by six American built steamers—the American, Hawaiian, Oregonian and the Californian of 8500 tons, and the Alaskan and the Arizonian of 12,000 tons. When these vessels are completed one will be dispatched each month.

SHROUDED IN MYSTERY

PLENTY WILD STORIES BUT NONE CONFIRMED

St. Petersburg Sends Out Story of De- feat of Allies -- Japan Seems to Be Making New Combinations.

New York, Aug. 29.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says: No information can be obtained here of various sensational stories telegraphed to foreign capitals in reference to the Chinese question. There is a report from St. Petersburg that a battle has taken place within the walls of Peking and that the allies were compelled to fall back, losing 1,800 men. This alarming story produced no effect on the stock exchange or elsewhere because it was not believed; nor is there anything to support the statement cabled by a Washington correspondent to a London newspaper that Russia has informed the United States government that she proposes to annex Manchuria.

But whether any such declaration has actually been made to any power, not much doubt need be felt that it merely embodies Russia's intentions, subject only to her ability to meet the opposition which the annexation of Manchuria would be sure to encounter from Japan. In fact, the process has already begun, since Russia is quietly assimilating Chinese territory south of the Amoor river. In some quarters it is thought that the landing of Chinese troops at Amoy is the Japanese answer to these muscovite moves.

The British consul at Shanghai has been appealed to by the viceroy of Foo Kien to prevent this aggression. The Tokio government may possibly reply to any protest by alleging that if the integrity of China is violated by Russia in the north, Japan also is entitled to seek territorial acquisitions in the Celestial kingdom.

Some outspoken critics here are beginning to recognize that the outcome of the present crisis will eventually be that slices of Chinese territory will certainly pass into possession of Russia, Germany and Japan. The first named will seize Manchuria on the plea that China declared war and invaded Siberia; Germany will claim Shan Tung as indemnity for the murder of Von Ketteler and Japan will take Corea if she can get it, or, if not, Amoy. What the British policy will be in this event is not known.

THE PFLUGER CONDEMNED

An item in the San Francisco Chronicle of August 29 announces the judicial condemnation of the German bark J. C. Pfluger, one of the clipper fleet of H. Hackfeld & Co., Ltd., of Honolulu. The item reads:

"United States District Judge de Haven yesterday ordered United States Marshal Shine to sell the German bark J. C. Pfluger to satisfy a claim of the L. E. White Lumber Company. The company furnished material for the repairing of the bark after she was disabled out of the port San Diego. The libel instituted here resulted in favor of the lumber company, but it has been unable to collect from the agents of the owners of the Pfluger."

Senator Kepoikal's Guests.

Walluku, Sept. 1.—Mrs. James Campbell and Mrs. Jos. Nawahi and party, about eleven in all, arrived in Walluku per steamer Kinau last evening. They will be the guests of Senator and Mrs. Kepoikal during their brief sojourn on the "Isle of Kama." A big luau will be given in their honor by the residents of Walluku at Iao valley next Monday. Messrs. John D. Holt, Miss Helen Robertson and Purser Tuft of the Mauna Loa, who have enjoyed the boundless hospitality of Senator and Mrs. Kepoikal, returned to Honolulu by the Mauna Loa last Friday morning highly satisfied with their short visit to Maui.

Excitement on Wharf.

There was quite a lot of excitement on the Inter-island wharf this afternoon as the blooded cattle, recently from Australia, were being put aboard for transportation to Hawaii. The big bull, on being lassoed, became confined and then infuriated. Had it not been for the fact that the cowboy who had his lasso around the animal succeeded in getting a turn around one of the posts of the wharf, someone would surely have been hurt. As it was, four or five people were almost upon the tin roof of the shed a very few seconds after the bull made his first charge at the crowd.

HAWAIIAN VOTERS ARE COMING IN

The Independents Active Bringing Voters Up to Register.

SIX HUNDRED FORTY ALTOGETHER ENROLLED

After Next Week Board Goes to Coun- try for Nine Days and Return- ing Will Sit Here Un- til October 9.

Up till 10 o'clock this morning about 640 voters have been registered at Honolulu Hale. This is the third day of the Board's sitting. Evening sessions are held. A partition is being taken down, which will give more room for people having business with the Board.

Of the 640 now on the register about two-thirds are native Hawaiians. Two agents of the Independent party are in constant attendance, bringing in voters and coaching them through. No representative of either the Republicans or Democrats has thus far put in an appearance.

Chairman L. Andrews says the Board will sit in Honolulu the remainder of this week and probably all of next week. The Board will then hold sessions a week and a half in the rural precincts of Oahu. On its return to Honolulu it will sit here until the 9th of October.

Mr. Pollitz Buys McBryde Stock

Edward Pollitz, who has been working for a good while past to establish Hawaiian securities in San Francisco, New York and London, left for the Coast in the Australia after a visit of a few weeks. During his stay he gained all information possible about the planting situation. Mr. Pollitz on this occasion carries off a large block of McBryde Sugar Co.'s stock.

Harry Armitage yesterday received a letter from Walter D. McBryde on the plantation which gives the following notes on water:

"Heavy rains and all the reservoirs full. One contains 80,000,000 gallons, the first of a series of seven being built. Three hundred acres of new cane is planted near this reservoir. All freshest water.

"Large freshets going to sea today, which will eventually be stored in the reservoirs, saving days of pumping."

Another Walluku House.

Walluku, Sept. 1.—Chas. Bridges, the young Hawaiian contractor and builder, who is putting up T. B. Lyons' new residence on Main street, Walluku, has been given the contract by Manager C. B. Wells of the Walluku plantation to put up a new $1500 residence for Mr. Marshall, the head luna. The site chosen is the vacant lot between Dr. Weddick's and Mr. Lyons. The erection of these elegant buildings will not only enhance the value of those lots but also add to the beauty of that already select locality.

Plague in Glasgow.

Glasgow, Aug. 29.—Two girls and a boy, members of isolated families, have fallen victims to the bubonic plague, though the medical authorities assert that the attacks are less virulent than in the cases which have already proved fatal.

In the event of a further spread of the disease, Glasgow shipping will be quarantined.

Duke Goes Broke.

London, Aug. 29.—The Duke of Manchester today was adjudicated a bankrupt entailing his resignation from all his clubs. The petitions to the bankruptcy court included one of the young nobleman himself, whose acceptances are so widely distributed in unknown hands that his friends for some time have urged his radical course.

Princess Hatzfeldt Returning.

New York, Aug. 29.—It was reported her today that the Princess Hatzfeldt, adopted daughter of the late C. P. Huntington, was a passenger on the Oceanic from Liverpool. Her name, however, was not on the passenger list and at the Southern Pacific Railway offices it was said that she is still in Europe.

NO HAWAII FIGURES

NO RECORD OF EXPORTS NOW MADE IN STATES

Very Unfortunate From Standpoint of Statistician--Development of Trade Following Annexion.

Washington, Aug. 24.—Much desired information regarding the commerce of the United States with the Hawaiian Islands will no longer be forthcoming. The recent act of Congress, which extended to these Islands practically all the laws of the United States, is construed as rendering commerce between the United States and the Islands "construed" in its character.

The laws with reference to the gathering of statistics of our commerce require importers and exporters to file with Collectors of Customs at the ports at which their goods enter, or at which they leave the country, a specific statement of the quantity and value of each article imported or exported. The law does not require, however, this detailed information with reference to goods passing from one port to another of the United States. Taking advantage of this condition the merchants of San Francisco who are engaged in trade with the Hawaiian Islands, are refusing to furnish to the Collector at that point regarding goods sent to or from the Hawaiian Islands the general class of information which they have been furnishing for years.

The effect of this will be to deprive the Bureau of Statistics and the people of all information regarding commerce with the Hawaiian Islands. No feature of our import and export trade has attracted so much attention during the past year as that with Hawaii. It was the one spot where the effect of annexation upon commerce with territory annexed could be studied, since, in other Territories brought into close relations with the United States, the conditions were not in our favor by reason of the war which has existed previous to or immediately following the new relationship.

While the growth of our commerce with Porto Rico, Cuba and the Philippines Islands has been very great, it has been difficult to determine what proportion of the growth of commerce with the United States may be attributed chiefly, is not wholly, to the close relationship brought about by annexation and the general business revival which followed that event.

The growth of commerce with Hawaii in the last few years, especially in 1899 and 1900, has been phenomenal. The treaty of annexation was signed June 16, 1897, so that all commerce of the fiscal year 1898 felt the effect of that step in the process of annexation. In that year its shipment to Hawaii were $5,907,155, an increase of 27 per cent over 1897, when they amounted to $4,490,575. The treaty was ratified July 7th and sovereignty over the Islands formally transferred to the United States August 12, 1898, thus bringing practically all the fiscal year 1899 within the period following complete annexation. Shipments in the fiscal year 1899 amounted to $9,305,470, an increase of over 50 per cent, and in 1900 to $13,509,148.

The import side of the year 1898 showed an increase of three and a half millions over 1897, and 1900 showed another increase of six and a half millions over 1898 and 1899. The Bureau of Statistics announces that this will be its last statement regarding Hawaiian commerce unless the San Francisco merchants reconsider their action.

Luau On Tantalus.

The luau to be given by the Journeymen Plumbers on Tantalus Sunday is being arranged particularly for E. W. Quinn, the man who has had the most to do with the formation of the organization just mentioned and who had so much to do with the success of Labor Day. Mr. Quinn has embarked into another line of business and the men in the Plumbers' society wish to show their appreciation of his successful efforts in their behalf. As J. W. Leonard and Dan Welsh of the same organization are soon to leave for the Coast, the luau is to be given partly in honor of them also.

Hongkong Maru.

The T. K. K. Hongkong Maru came in from San Francisco yesterday afternoon after a very speedy and pleasant trip down. She did not need any coal but took on fresh supplies and sailed for China and Japan at 10 o'clock this morning. Seven rejected Chinamen, brought here on the last trip of the Hongkong Maru, were sent back to China today.

COURT DENOUNCES ILLEGAL RAIDING

What's In House Entered Without Warrant Is No Evidence.

MOUTHS OF POLICE OFFICERS CLOSED

Man Who Mysteriously Disappeared Sued for Separation With In- junction--Herbst Was Mar- ried After All.

John Reilly, negro, was found guilty of his part in a series of outrages upon a girl under fourteen years of age at Sumner Island. Judge Humphreys sentenced him to the full extent of the law—imprisonment at hard labor for eighteen months.

Judge Humphreys allowed E. C. Macfarlane twenty-four hours, at the request of his attorneys, F. M. Hatch, to plead to an indictment for selling liquor on Sunday on the licensed premises of Hawaiian Hotel Annex, Waikiki.

Ah Chong was placed on trial for opium in possession, the following jury being empaneled: Chas. N. Rose, Eugene P. Sullivan, E. S. Cunha, Wm. M. Graham, George E. Smithies, R. A. Dexter, F. H. Armstrong, F. W. Mackinney, E. Oscar White, John H. Schnack, Jacob Lando and Geo. S. Wells. Assistant Attorney General Robbins for prosecution; Robertson & Wilder and J. T. De Bolt for defendant. Deputy Marshal Chillingworth's evidence was ruled out after he had testified to a raid made on defendant's premises in Liliha street without a search warrant. Policeman Hanrahan coming on next was forbidden to testify of having seen defendant in his house during the unlawful raid.

"You cannot convict a man in this Court on illegal evidence," Judge Humphreys remarked to Mr. Robbins.

Frank E. Thompson, referee and master, has made a report on the accounts of the administration of the estate of Joseph Gomes, deceased, finding them correct. There is a balance of $2505.55. Attention is called to a claim for $500 in the hands of the Portuguese Benevolent Society which does not appear in the accounts.

Liliuokalani Dominis, by her attorneys, Robertson & Wilder, demurs to Chas. B. Wilson's bill in equity for injunction. Among the grounds of demurrer are these:

"That neither the promises nor agreements alleged in said bill, and of which the plaintiff by said bill seeks to have the benefit, nor any memorandum or note thereof was ever reduced to writing or signed by this defendant or any person authorized thereto within the meaning of the statute for the prevention of frauds and perjuries.

"That said bill is uncertain, inconsistent and unintelligible in that it is not made to appear upon which of the several alleged promises of the defendant the plaintiff relies as a ground of the relief prayed."

Annie Herbst has filed a petition for judicial separation from the bed and board of August Herbst, of whom she claims to be the lawful wife. Her attorney is Mr. Bigelow of Kinney, Ballou & McClanahan. At the same time the plaintiff sues for a writ of injunction against August Herbst, his agents and attorneys, to restrain him from disposing of his property within the jurisdiction of the Court.

Herbst is the building contractor whose sudden and mysterious disappearance some weeks ago was exclusively reported in the Bulletin. It will be remembered that the woman in the case, on being told of a rumor that they had been secretly married admitted that he had proposed but denied that she had consented to marry him.

Herbst was stated to have had two or three living divorced wives on the Coast. According to the suits here reported, he had one living not divorced when he proposed marriage to the Honolulu lady already mentioned.

Mrs. Annie Herbst, plaintiff in these two cases, arrived lately from the Coast in search of her husband.

District Conventions.

Meetings of the District Conventions for the Fourth and Fifth Districts are called for Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Fourth District delegates will meet in the Drill Shed and the Fifth District in the Chamber of Commerce rooms. The business of the conventions will be to elect delegates to the Territorial convention, each district being entitled to 18.

ENTERPRISE OF OMAHA

GREAT MUSIC FESTIVAL ALL OF SEPTEMBER

Business Men Raise Large Fund for the Purpose -- Flying Visit of R. W. Shingle to Omaha.

Mrs. W. W. Umsted, who will be pleasantly remembered by many people from her visit to Honolulu with her husband in 1899, writing to a lady friend from her home in Omaha under date of August 23, says:

"Mr. Shingle was here last Monday and Tuesday. He took dinner with us Tuesday. * * * The weather was terribly hot the two days he was here—ninety-six in the shade and no wind."

The letter states that the business men of Omaha have been working all summer on a music festival to open the first of September and last four weeks. Belsted's band that succeeded Godfrey's at the Exposition last year was engaged at $1500 a week. At the date given the fund had reached $26,000. Mrs. Umsted says: "Of course music is no treat to you, but we poor western people don't get very much of it, and what we do get comes high."

Journemen Plumbers.

At a meeting of the Journeymen Plumbers' Association in the Plumbers' hall last evening, the following officers to serve during the ensuing year, were elected: J. H. Connor, president; Dan Welsh, vice president; Al Neife, secretary; F. C. Holland, treasurer, and Thomas Slattery, Ed. Knight and Jos. Burns, trustees. A vote of thanks was extended to all those present for their part in making a success of the celebration of Labor Day. It was voted that a luau be given on Tantalus Sunday in honor of Dan Welsh and James Leonard, both of whom are soon to leave for the Coast. Two new members were elected.

Dropped Dead on the Way.

Walluku, Sept. 1.—Hanakahi, a middle aged Hawaiian, while on his way from Waiehe this morning in company with a number of Hawaiians who were on their way to the Walluku courthouse to be registered as voters, dropped dead on the road from heart trouble. Captain of Police Wm. E. Saffery was sent over to investigate further into the matter.

Labor Parade Prizes.

W. W. Wright & Sons were awarded first prize for most elaborate float in the Labor Day parade, L. B. Kerr & Co. second and Honolulu Iron Works machine shop third. For the finest body on parade the Plumbers' Union took the prize. Three members of the press were impressed as judges and gave a unanimous decision in all cases.

A committee on finance was appointed and the society adjourned to meet again Thursday night.

Humbert's Murderer Sentenced for Life

MILAN, Aug. 29.—The trial of Bresci, the anarchist who on July 29 shot and killed King Humbert of Italy at Monza while his majesty was returning from a gymnastic exhibition, was held here today. The indictment showed that the assassin indulged in incessant target practice and that he prepared bullets so as to render them more dangerous.

The witnesses were then introduced, eleven for the prosecution and five for the defense. The examination of Bresci followed. He declared he decided to kill King Humbert after the events of Milan and Selly, "to avenge the misery of the people and my own." He added, "I acted without advice or accomplices."

At the close of the trial Bresci was pronounced guilty and was sentenced to imprisonment for life.

Alsen Portland Cement

Is the strongest and most serviceable cement made and will permit the admixture of a larger amount of sand or gravel with less loss of strength than any other brand. It is therefore the most economical. ALSEN has NO EQUAL in COLOR, FINENESS and SAND CARRYING CAPACITY. IT WEIGHS LESS PER BUSHEL, measuring about 10 PER CENT MORE CEMENT TO A BARREL than other brands, which very materially REDUCES its cost as compared with other cements. It is therefore an ECONOMIC cement to use and SPECIALLY ADAPTED FOR FINE CONCRETE WORK.

SHARKEY BATTERED OUT

IN TWO FAST ROUNDS
FITZSIMMONS DOES HIM
Fast and Furious From Start--Sharkey Had Advantage in the First--Fitz Cool, Sharkey Tempestuous.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.--Whipped into insensibility in less than two rounds," is the story in brief of Tom Sharkey's meeting with Bob Fitzsimmons at the Coney Island Sporting club tonight. Fitzsimmons was the victor, Sharkey the loser. Fitzsimmons said all along that when an opportunity presented itself he would profitably and settle accounts for the injustice done him when he met Sharkey in California four years ago. Sharkey was equally confident that he would prove to be Fitzsimmons' master in the ring, but the result of tonight's battle and the brevity of it proved that Fitzsimmons is still a great fighter and able to beat the best of the heavyweights. He has beaten Corbett, Ruhlman and Sharkey.

When the men met tonight both of them declared themselves to be in first class condition, and they certainly looked it. Fitzsimmons had taken on a few pounds in weight since his meeting with Ruhlman, but neither he nor Sharkey would tell his actual weight. Sharkey looked to be about twenty pounds the heavier.

When the men came together Sharkey assumed the aggressive, rushing fiercely and swinging wildly. Fitzsimmons had no difficulty in sidestepping out of the way. Bob soon began feinting Sharkey into leads, and when the sailor tried his round-arm blows he left himself open, of which fact Fitzsimmons was quick to take advantage, and he stepped inside and put powerful right and left smashes on the sailor's body and neck.

At the close of the round Sharkey, with a terrific swing that landed on the shoulder and neck, put Fitzsimmons to the floor of the ring and Tom fell over him in his mad rush. Tom regained his feet quickly, but the bell rang with Fitzsimmons still on the floor. The spectators were cheering like wild men, and when Fitzsimmons got to his feet the men shaped up to go for each other, evidently not having heard the bell amid the uproar. The referee rushed between them, sending them to their corners, and this is where Sharkey says he would have finished Fitzsimmons had he had ten seconds more.

In the second round Sharkey, having gained confidence from knocking Fitzsimmons down in the preceding round, went for his man as if to annihilate him, but Fitzsimmons, having the cooler head and better judgment, outgeneraled the younger man, who seemed to lose all control of himself in his frantic endeavors to land on Fitzsimmons.

Corbett and McCoy
In Fighting Trim

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.--Corbett and McCoy have practically completed training for their fight tomorrow night in the ring of the Twentieth Century club in Madison Square Garden.
Corbett has trained more carefully for this mill than he did for his battle with Fitzsimmons in Carson City or for his bout with Jeffries at Coney Island.
"I'm so confident of winning from McCoy," he said, "that I'm ready, as I have already announced, to meet either Fitzsimmons or Jeffries on the night following my battle with the Kid. I think I will be in the lead all the way and I am ready to bet that the Kid does not go the limit of twenty-five rounds with me."
A dispatch from Saratoga says of McCoy: "Kid McCoy has no doubt of the result of his fight with Corbett and believes that he will win within ten rounds. He will start for New York today (Wednesday)."

IN DEFENSE OF GIBSON.

Editor Evening Bulletin:--An editorial in the Advertiser of Aug. 25, headed, "In the matter of bosses," a part reads thus: It is perfectly natural that journals which admire Mr. Sewall should also admire the late Walter Murray Gibson. Mr. Gibson's talents for political adventuring made him the most dangerous figure in the Polynesian world. He was the incarnation of self-seeking; he gave advice which led those who trusted him into courses as crooked and slimy as the trail of an anglerworm in the mud, etc." Now then Mr. Advertiser man for the benefit of the public and also to enlighten the strangers in our midst, who love fair dealing, I will relate a small bit of history in justice to Mr. Gibson. Mr. Walter Murray Gibson, after silently receiving abuse from missionary sources for many years without a single response from him, he in 1873 came to Honolulu and started a small newspaper, called the Nuhou, and was the first man who ever dared to expose to the brim the deceit, weakness and hypocrisy of the missionary. After Mr. Gibson had run the Nuhou for two years, he gave it up and retired back to Lanai in peace and with laurels well earned. But when election time rolled around, the people knew their man, and Mr. Gibson was elected to the Legislature by the largest majority of any one man ever sent there. The vote was overwhelmingly in his favor. When the Legislature met in session and Mr. Gibson had delivered his maiden speech, the members and visitors realized at once a master mind was among them. The ministry at that time had become very unpopular and there was strong talk daily on the street that their time was short and that Mr. Gibson was the coming man. Now for the low cunning of the pious dastards, who had for years been the sworn enemies of Mr. Gibson. They formed their plan of action by writing a letter to him, the purport of it being something like this. We have never properly understood you Mr. Gibson until the present time, and we would like to see you at the head of the Ministry. We will use our influence with the King to appoint you as the head of the Cabinet and at the same time you use your influence with his Majesty to appoint members of our party as the balance of the Cabinet. Mr. Gibson instead of swallowing the bait so innocently held out to him, he at once took the letter to the King and laid it before him to read. His majesty read it and with scorn depleted upon every lineament of his countenance, he turned to Mr. Gibson with these words: "That will do Mr. Gibson. These men after trying for years to defame your character, now crave to ride into office upon your shoulders, but what else can be expected of such men--they are beneath contempt. The present Ministry being very unsatisfactory to the public, a change will be made, and I now appoint you as head of the Cabinet and will consult with you right away as to the men suitable for the balance of the Cabinet." The next day the new Ministry took charge of the affairs of government and set the machinery in motion for the benefit of the people as a whole, as it should be.

The country prospered and the people were contented and happy for the change, excepting the rule or ruin party who laid all manner of underground schemes to hurt the business of the country; but the strong man at the helm of state easily swept them aside. The following is one of their pretty schemes. The bank of Mr. Claus Spreckels at that time was not in full operation in the matter of exchange, and exchange at the bank of C. R. Bishop was gradually raising higher and higher; but Mr. Gibson soon dropped into their game, and arranged with Mr. Spreckels to have 500,000 Hawaiian silver dollars minted as soon as possible for the benefit of the public.

In the meantime exchange had gone up to 8 per cent, and at that period a member of the family compact boasted in the office of Consul General McKinley on Queen street, that he had run exchange up to 8 per cent and that he would run it up to 15 per cent if possible. But a short time after, in came Mr. Spreckels with the Hawaiian dollars and agreed to give exchange at one per cent and take the silver dollars as payment. It was thus that Mr. Gibson met the crookedness of the family compact at every point.

The Advertiser has considerable to say about the evils of bossism, etc. If the Advertiser man can point out on the face of God's earth, by going back a thousand ages, a more mean, despicable, viperous and damnable penny-whistle persecuting gang of bosses than the pious impurity bosses of 1893 up, who for many long years were kept from poverty's door by blood money received directly from the gentle and generous hearted Hawaiians, and then ending their hellish bossism in regard to Hawaiians by driving their old benefactors into the last ditch and holding them there, until they were pulled out by the generosity of Uncle Sam, why let him sail in and bury himself in his favorite beverage of "anglerworm mud."

JUNE MORTUARY REPORT

Honolulu's mortuary report for June shows 88 deaths. As usual the greatest mortality is infantile. Under one year the number is 23, and over that up to ten 10 more deaths are recorded. From 20 to 30 were 15, and 30 to 40 were 13. Tuberculosis again proves itself a scourge against which no precautions already taken can be deemed excessive. Its victims were 17. Bronchitis claimed 9, fevers 9, heart disease and enteritis 5 each, the remainder of causes scattering from 4 to 1. By nationalities the record stands 34 Hawaiians, 9 Chinese, 14 Portuguese, 21 Japanese, 1 British, 5 United States and 4 others. Eight non-residents died. The annual death rate per 1000 for the month was 23.73; that for Hawaiians being 31.87, Chinese 10.09, Japanese 33.60, Portuguese 30.51 and all others 15.

MURDERER'S REQUEST

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.—To live among the unclean of Molokai and there to die, perhaps gnarled and wasted by the dread leprosy, that when his life's story is told there may be one chapter of good and sacrifice, is the wish, the prayer, of George Louis Tanner, adjudged guilty of the murder of Deputy Sheriff Brown and Fannie Barnes and condemned to a life of penal servitude within the walls of Folsom prison. Whether or not remorse has laid its grasp upon this murderer's mind or whether in his offer of sacrifice he sees a ray of hope for ultimate liberty is problematical. Perhaps a free life, limited though its years will be, with unclean death its inevitable end, is preferable to him to those many years more of health and strength behind the bars of a prison. Tanner's plea will be in vain. He was granted a stay of execution for two days by Judge Dunne yesterday. At the expiration of the stay he will be taken to Folsom, there to live for his remaining years.

Mrs. Wm. Wall is having a most delightful time at her old home in Eureka but, notwithstanding all this, she writes friends to the effect that she is looking forward with happy anticipation to the time when she will again be speeding over the ocean to her home in Honolulu.

Among the departures for Hilo and way ports in the Kinau yesterday were the following: C. C. Kennedy, Geo. W. Stadler, A. Enos, A. Fernandez and wife, Brother Lawrence, W. W. Thayer, Geo. Toombs, R. D. Silliman, Mrs. W. H. Patton, A. J. Campbell, A. W. Carter and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Schraeder.

David Lawrence, the popular cigar dealer has received an immense shipment of 100,000 Egyptian cigarettes. These are the finest cigarettes made in the world and are the same as are made for the Shah of Persia and Sultan of Turkey by the factory which manufactured these. There are over fifty varieties in the lot, no two alike, and they come with straw tips, gold tips, silver tips and cork tips. This is undoubtedly the finest line of cigarettes ever placed on sale in Honolulu and it would be hard to find as good a stock anywhere in the States. Lawrence is an up to date hustler and believes in securing for his customers the very best that can be obtained.

THINK 'TIS ENDING FINISHING TOUCHES OF
GEN. ROBERTS CAMPAIGN

It Is An Old Story Oft Repeated—De-Wet Is Hard Individual to Catch—Roberts May Return Soon.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says: There is much inclination to believe that the operations in which Lord Roberts is now engaged against General Botha are destined to form the final stage of the South African war for the Pretoria report cabled to the effect that the Boers in the Transvaal capital believe that Botha will abandon the contest if beaten on this occasion and that President Kruger and Steyn will then flee to Delagoa bay.

But these rumors have been repeated and proved fallacious frequently enough before and it is impossible to pronounce definitely that the Boer leaders believe the limit of resistance to have been reached. The reappearance of De Wet in the Orange Free State and the activity of the Boers on Buller's communications in Natal would rather point the other way. If it had been determined to stake everything on the result of Botha's stand in the eastern Transvaal, it would hardly seem worth while to revive the campaign in other quarters.

So far the operations between the Boer and British main armies have been somewhat indecisive. Movements, as Lord Roberts says in his dispatch on Monday evening, are necessarily slow on account of the great extent and difficult nature of the country which forms the scene of the battles.
He, however, considers his advance going on satisfactorily and regards General Buller's engagement of the 27th as an important success. The result of the day's fighting was that the Boers withdrew their line by some two miles, allowing Buller to capture a strong position within their outer semi-circle of defense west of the Dalmanutha railway station.

The question now arises whether the British will be able to force the fighting so as to hold the enemy in position and compel him to accept the defeat which superior numbers and more powerful artillery should be able to inflict, or is the nature of the country such that General Buller, though driven back from one vantage ground to another, will eventually be able to retreat in time to save his guns and transport? If previous experience is a guide, the Boers will delay the British advance as long as they can do so safely, but will then retire at leisure before the invaders can secure a decisive victory.

Charles Williams, the well known military expert, believes Lord Roberts has the present intention of returning to England in the course of October so as to be ready to relieve Lord Wolseley on November 1 as commander-in-chief of the British army. In such event General Buller may be asked to resume command of the forces in South Africa.

General Warren writes to the Times to say that various statements which have recently appeared in the press purporting to be views expressed by him as to recent events in South Africa have been made entirely without his authority; that he has not expressed any opinions with a view to publication and that some of the statements attributed to him are contrary to fact.

MOVE SLOW BUT SURE
LONDON, Aug. 28.—Lord Roberts reports, under date of August 27, as follows: "Our movements are slow on account of the nature and extent of the country. We made satisfactory advance and met with decided success.

The work fell entirely on Buller's troops and resulted in the capture of Bergendal, a very strong position two miles northwest of Dalmanutha. I met Buller at Bergendal shortly after it was reached by our troops. I am glad to find the occupation cost less than was feared, on account of the approach being across an open plain for two or three thousand yards and the determined stand of the enemy. The infanteries and Second Rifle brigade formed the attacking party. The latter suffered most. I hope the casualties do not exceed fifty or sixty. One officer was killed and two were wounded. A good many Boers were killed and a pompon was captured.

"French advanced on the left to Swartkops on the Leydenberg road and prepared the way for the movement of Pole-Carew's division tomorrow.

"Buden-Powell reports that he entered Nylstroom without opposition.
As the country where he and the Pa-gat are operating is dense bush and veldt it is not desirable at present to proceed further north and his troops are returning to Pretoria."

Buller Once More
Encounters Boers
LONDON, Aug. 29.—Lord Roberts, under date of Belfast, August 29, telegraphs: "Buller's advance occupied Machadodorp this afternoon. The enemy made a poor stand and retired northward, followed by Dundonald's mounted troops, who could not proceed beyond Helvetia on account of the difficult nature of the country and the enemy taking a position too strong to be dislodged by the mounted troops. It appears that Buller's casualties were very few.

"French continued the movement today as far as Elandsfontein, from which he turned the enemy out with no difficulty. The latter retired, leaving quantities of good cooked food behind.

"General Buller's casualties August 27 were: Killed, one officer and thirteen men; wounded, seven officers and fifty-seven men."

FIGHTING WITH BOTHA.
LONDON, Aug. 28.—A special dispatch from Pretoria, dated August 27, says: "It is stated that fighting with Botha's commandos was resumed this morning. The Boer lines were broken and the enemy is falling back. The British casualties are reported to be considerable."

Boers Admit Defeat.
LOURENZO MARQUES, Aug. 28.—
Heavy fighting is reported to have occurred at Machadodorp. The Boers are said to have been defeated with great loss, leaving their guns and ammunition in the hands of the British.

Roberts Replaces Wolsley.
LONDON, Aug. 29.—The Daily Mail this morning claims to have the highest authority for the assertion that Lord Roberts has already succeeded Lord Wolsley as commander-in-chief of the British army.

Japan Make Advance.
BERLIN, Aug. 29.—According to a dispatch received here from Tientsin, Japanese forces are now on their way from Taku to Pao Ting Fu (capital of the province of Chihli) with the object of occupying the latter place.

The German vice admiral at Taku reports the arrival at Peking August 22 of a German convoy with provisions.

The railroad from Tientsin to Yan Tsun is working, but from the latter place to Peking the road is in bad shape.

VETERANS ON PARADE

30,000 GRAND ARMY BOYS IN MARCHING ARRAY

Pathetic Scenes Demonstrate the Ravages of Time Among the Nation's Defenders—Cheers for the Brave.

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—For four hours and a half today the thinning ranks of the Grand Army of the Republic passed in review before their leaders and before a million spectators packed in almost solid masses along the four miles of the line of parade. It marked the climax of the thirty-fourth annual encampment and was, according to Commander-in-Chief Shaw, the greatest parade since the day in Washington, when the hundreds of thousands of veterans, at that time the most powerful army on earth, marched in review to their final disbandment.

Probably 30,000 members of the army of veterans took part in today's parade. For exactly four hours and twenty minutes, most of the time with ranks almost perfectly aligned, but occasionally faltering under the burden of years, they filed past the reviewing stand on Michigan avenue, saluting, as they marched by, General Nelson A. Miles, Commander-in-Chief Shaw, General Dan E. Sickles and the Spanish minister, the Duke of Arcos.

They marched through an avenue of fame in which the portraits of their great commanders, of Grant and Sherman and Sheridan and Logan and many others looked down upon them to give them inspiration. They heard the shouts of a million of their fellow countrymen, gathered to see them and to rejoice with them. They were led through the beautiful court of honor, erected for their exclusive use. Then, with tributes all paid to them, their parade melted away and the veterans mingled once more with the crowds of civilians and sightseers.

Perhaps never again will the veteran soldier of the civil war march as they marched today through Chicago. Certainly never again will they parade in such numbers and with such spirit.

Weather conditions were almost ideal for the parade. The rays of the sun were veiled by light, fleecy clouds nearly all day, and even when unobscured their effect was greatly lessened by a cool breeze which blew steadily off Lake Michigan. The line of march, too, was much shorter than ever before mapped out for the annual parade, but notwithstanding here and there a veteran, exhausted, dropped out of the ranks. Especially was this true after the reviewing stand was passed, and many pathetic scenes were witnessed down the long stretch of Michigan avenue as the veterans fell by the wayside.

The one especially sad incident occurring to mar in a degree the glory of the parade was when Charles Beckwith of Algonza, Mich., dropped dead as the line was filing past the corner of Michigan avenue and Madison street. The parade was halted for a moment and the body of the veteran who had responded to his last call was tenderly removed and his comrades passed on.

Twelve heralds in costume, each bearing a long trumpet, came down the avenue announcing in mellow tones the approach of the pageant of patriotism which followed close behind them. Fifty members of Columbia post of Chicago, wearing handsome uniforms of dark green, formed a hollow square, in the center of which were borne fifty battle flags which had been carried by New York regiments during the war. The spectacle of the worn and tattered flags was greeted at times with a deep silence more expressive than applause could ever be. Whether the crowd cheered or kept silence, it showed deep feeling, and from end to end of the parade all hats were off as the flags went by.

Cheer after cheer went up as General Daniel E. Sickles, accompanied by his aides, rode past the reviewing stand. All along the line of march the general had been given a most flattering greeting, but the warmth of the reception that met him as he approached the stand where Commander Shaw was waiting to receive his salute caused him to flush with pleasure and to bow his acknowledgments again and again.

Wisconsin was given the right of line and as her column came turning around the corner of Jackson boulevard into the broad sweep of Michigan avenue and with bands playing and colors flying, the Army of the Republic came marching down, the people seemed to realize that here at last came the true pageant of patriotism. The old, worn out fluttering flags that had gone before were nothing in themselves, but as representatives of the power that gave them the glory that they wore they were everything. Marching behind them under colors fresher and brighter, as their own fame must ever grow with the advancing years, came the units of that power.

No matter what might come in the future, the men before them had made the past a glory that may mellow out never grow dim, and the crowd, seeming to catch these things in a breath as rank after rank the old soldiers wheeled into the avenue, went wild with enthusiasm. They cheered, waved their hats and cheered again until they could cheer no more. Then they stood as they had stood for the battered flags, with bare heads, as the veterans with steps more halting than of old, but with hearts as high as ever, passed on to make the parade of 1900 what they had made many another march—a credit to themselves and an honor to their country.

The first cheers from the reviewing stand were given to the famous old "Old Abe," the stuffed figure of which, borne aloft by a heavy buckskin-dressed veteran, was heartily greeted by the crowds and saluted by General Miles and others in the boxes. The post escorting "Old Abe" was closely followed by Lucius Fairchild post, which started the crowds by stopping in front of General Miles and Commander Shaw and giving the familiar "Rah! Rah!" of the University of Wisconsin. It was somewhat cracked and feeble, but it showed the undimmed spirit that made the Iron Brigade famous and it started the crowd to cheering again.

A few moments later George G. Meade post No. 1 of Philadelphia filed by. Borne aloft by twenty-four silver-haired veterans were as many battle flags, tattered and torn, and close behind them ten equally ragged corps flags. Everywhere the ragged banners were greeted with cheers. They were followed by Philip Schuyler post with eight battle flags; Knopp's battery of Pennsylvania with three flags, and Lytle post No. 128 of Allegheny City with three battle flags.

New York was rich with these emblems. O'Rourke post No. 1 of Rochester, N. Y., the veterans all in uniform and carrying rifles, held aloft two civil war banners. Captain post No. 2 of Buffalo, headed by the old Continental Drum and Bugle corps, carried twenty-three battle flags and one guidon, all of them in ribbons. The Thirtieth infantry that met with such heavy losses at Malvern Hill, bore unfurled their flag. It was ragged and faded, almost to white, but it had the names of many hard-fought battles inscribed thereon and the crowds greeted it with great cheering.

One of the most striking features of the parade was the appearance of the Iowa veterans, thousands in number, and headed by the Ancient Order of United Workmen band of Cedar Falls. Speaker Henderson received an ovation from them. He was recognized as the veterans from the Hawkeye state reached the stand and the band, stopping in front of his box, ceased their playing and raised their voices in a song, "From Iowa."

The flag of the Thirtieth Indiana infantry, under which General Lawton first served during the civil war, was carried by an Indiana post and was warmly greeted, as was also the flag of the Twenty-first Illinois infantry, or rather the bare remnants of it. This was General Grant's old regiment and the flag was given an ovation all along the line.

Pictorial features were supplied by the Louisiana veterans, who carried pieces of sugar cane topped with great bunches of cotton; by the veterans of North Dakota, carrying small sheaves of wheat, into which was stuck a small flag, and by the South Dakota posts, each man carrying an enormous ear of corn mounted on a staff.

BATTLE OF DIPLOMACY

IS NOW THE FEATURE OF THE CHINESE SITUATION

Looking for Reliable Chinese Peace Commissioner -- Russia Insists That Its Action Is In Good Faith.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—Several communications came to Washington from the United States officials in China today, but being undated in most cases, the government was by no means satisfied with the state of the communications, and the cabinet meeting gave the larger part of its attention to the problem of rectifying this state of affairs. Evidences of interference with the messages have accumulated to a point where the government has determined to take steps to establish channels of its own, even if it is necessary to employ a rather expensive device of a man-of-war flying between Shanghai and Chefoo for this purpose. Meanwhile word comes that rapid progress is being made with the shore cable which is to connect those points, and it is believed that within a week these means of communication will be open.

Several messages were received from General Chaffee today, and while they cast no light on the general situation they were inferentially important. The general's statement that he needs no siege battery, taken in connection with the diversion of the First cavalry, which was bound from Taku to Manila, seems to make clear that there is no intention of entering into a prolonged campaign in China, as would involve the use of heavy artillery or of reinforcements in the shape of men and horses.

But it appears that the battle of today is one of diplomacy rather than one of arms, and notwithstanding the various rumors that have filtered out from Chinese sources of heavy engagements between the international forces and the Boxers, the officials here are satisfied that no formidable organized resistance would be offered by the Chinese if the demands of the powers are limited to the principles laid down by the United States.

Therefore, more interest attached to a series of diplomatic calls upon Acting Secretary Ades this afternoon than any report of purely military operations in China. First came the Japanese minister, Takahira, next the Russian charge, Wollant, and finally Thibault, the French charge. These diplomats naturally are averse to letting the public know the developments of incomplete negotiations. Nevertheless it was gathered that one of the principal topics of discussion was the propriety of accepting Li Hung Chang as a proper person with whom the powers might negotiate for a settlement in China. It is quite evident from the conferences held this afternoon that the statement made early in the week to the effect that this matter is still an open issue was correct. Otherwise it would not have been necessary for the officials to enter into a laborious comparison of the credentials supplied by Li Hung Chang to the various powers of Europe as well as Japan and the United States.

The statement is made that the Russian government for one is willing to deal with Li, of course upon properly framed conditions, and this appears to be borne out by the earnestness with which Mr. Wollant, the Russian charge, is seeking to impress upon the state department the entire agreement between Russia and the United States to China. At least he insists that Russia wishes to prevent the dismemberment of China, and also that her animating purpose now is the restoration of order and the safeguarding of the future. Under these limitations it is urged here that Russia's objects can be achieved as well as those of the United States by dealing with Li Hung Chang, who occupies the advantageous position of being the only Chinese personage so far officially accredited as a peace plenipotentiary.

Acting Secretary Ades found sufficient matter of interest in these three calls to repair to the White House late in the afternoon to confer with the President. It is quite certain that our government is willing and anxious to do all it can to bring about a speedy settlement of the Chinese difficulty and a retirement of the forces. But it is determined that no proper advantage is to be lost through this wish, and the government will not be coerced by foreign combinations or threats of combinations against our interests.

One of the officials of the government today stated that the "United States is not going to turn tail and run would be resented as quickly as if we had 100,000 men on Chinese soil, and the United States government is willing to try the case as to whether one because some of the powers show a disposition to break a compact under which we became allies in China. The powers accepted the note of Secretary Hay of July 3d as a basis for joint action and they will be held to that agreement. The question of actual force in China is secondary—one regiment of United States troops is as good as 10,000 men to establish a principle. An indignity offered to them thing could be said on July 3d and accepted by all the powers and changed two months later to advance a selfish interest."

Notwithstanding this firm attitude on the part of the government there is not the least doubt that friction between the powers will be averted and that the resources of diplomacy will be equal to the needs of the present case.

Russian Assertions Are Not Confirmed

LONDON, Aug. 29.—A special dispatch from St. Petersburg contains the assertion that Russia, almost immediately, will notify the powers that she considers the relief of the Peking legations as the final accomplishment of the military task of the allied forces. There is nothing, however, in the afternoon papers here to confirm this.

The afternoon papers doubt that the rumors of peace negotiations are well founded and applaud Gen. Chaffee's prudence in preparing for a winter campaign, as they regard the activities of the allies at Peking and the difficulties of discovering a responsible Chinaman with whom to treat unless Li Hung Chang is able to place himself in communication with the fugitive court and secure credentials satisfactory to all the powers as indication that the solution of the problem will be more prolonged and more difficult than previously hoped.

MANY A MOTHER'S WISH.

Many a mother of a peevish, restless, sickly child has wished that her little one was as strong and rugged as an Indian babe. Such mothers can make their children strong and well, if they rid the child's system of worms, which cause nine-tenths of children's troubles. Kickapoo Indian Worm Killer will do it. For centuries the Indians used it to make their babes rugged, powerful, fearless. What it has done for the child of the forest it will do for the child of the civilized—cure. That is what it has been doing for years. You can get it of your druggist for 25 cents. Be sure to get the genuine. The child's life is too precious to trifle with worthless substitutes. Lot on King street, Honolulu, Oahu, opposite Oahu Railway Depot, and Lot No. 24, Block "B" Hilo, Hawaii.

On Monday, October 8, 1900, at 12 o'clock noon, at the front entrance of the Capitol (Executive Building) will be sold at Public Auction the leases of the following Government lots:

Lot on King street, Honolulu, Oahu, opposite Oahu Railway Depot. Term 20 years. Upset Rental, $100 per annum, payable quarterly in advance.

Lot No. 24, Block "B" Hilo, Hawaii. Term 20 years. Upset annual Rental, $400, payable quarterly in advance.

The above leases are sold upon the conditions provided for in Sections 2 and 4, of Act 7, of the laws of 1899, viz:

Section 2. Every such lease shall contain a covenant on the part of the lessee that he shall during the first four years of the term of the lease, caused to be erected upon the leased property a fireproof building of brick, stone or metal, in a workmanlike manner, satisfactory to the Superintendent at not less than a stated cost; and shall keep such building in good repair during the remainder of the term of the lease, reasonable use and wear thereof only excepted, and in case of damage or destruction of such building by fire shall make good such loss or damage by the necessary repairs or reconstruction, or else surrender the insurance to the lessor.

Section 4. Every such lease shall also contain a covenant on the part of the lessor, that upon the request in writing of the lessee or his representatives, before the expiration of the term thereof, the premises, with the improvements, shall if all the conditions to be performed by the lessee have been satisfactorily performed, be put up at auction for a lease for a term not over twenty years, unless said premises shall be required for public use, of which the lessee shall receive at least one year's notice. Such auction sale shall be held not more than six months nor less than one month before the expiration of said term.

The cost of the buildings to be erected in accordance with Section 2, as above quoted, are as follows:

On the King street lot, not less than $2,000.
