

Learning, 1099 Alakea Street, 25th floor, Honolulu, HI 96813.
email: askprel@prel.orgw

Archaeology, New Caledonia Museum, BP 2393, 98846
Nouméa, New Caledonia. email: sand.smp@gouv.nc

Conferences

☒ The 10th Pacific Science Inter-Congress; Integration of Natural and Social Sciences in the New Pacific Millennium, will be held at Tumon, Guam, June 1-6, 2001. For information, contact Joyce Marie Camacho, Coordinator, Graduate School and Research; University of Guam Station, Mangilao, Guam 96923; email: jcamacho@uog9.uog.edu

☒ XIV Congress of the International Union of Prehistoric and Protohistoric Sciences. 2-8th September 2001, Liege, Belgium. The session on Asian and Oceanic Prehistory will have a session on Rapa Nui, chaired by Dr Christopher Stevenson. For details about this conference, contact ABACO-M.A.C.srl; via le A. Gramsci, 47; 47100 Forli, Italy. email: uispp2001@abaco-mac.it

☒ Pacific Arts Association's Europe Meeting will be at Linden-Museum, Stuttgart, June 15-16, 2001. An exhibition on the art of New Britain will be on view. There will be a study session on the topic of the exhibition and a session on other subjects. Christian Kaufmann, Chair. Check out the PAA Website: pacificarts.org

☒ Pacific Arts Association, Sixth International Symposium, will be held in Nouméa, New Caledonia and Lifou, Loyalty Islands, from July 22-29, 2001. For information, contact Emmanuel Kasarhérou, Cultural Director, Tjibaou Cultural Center, BP. 378, 98846 Nouméa, New Caledonia. emmanuel.kasarherou@adck.nc

☒ 20th Congress of the Pacific Science Association, March 17-21, 2003, in Thailand. The congress will be hosted by the National Research Council of Thailand in collaboration with the Thai Academy of Science and Technology at the Central Grand Plaza Hotel, Bangkok, Thailand. For inquires, contact : Ms Wanasri Samanasena, 20th PSC Secretariat, National Research Council of Thailand Translation and Foreign Relations Division 196 Phaholyothin Road, Bangkok 10900, Thailand wanasri@e-mail.nrct.go.th

☒ The next conference of the Indo-Pacific Prehistory Association will be held with the Institute of History and Philology, Academia Sinica, Taipei, Taiwan in 2002, probably in September. We will have further announcements about this meeting. Contact: Dr Peter Bellwood, Dept of Archaeology and Anthropology, Australian National University, Canberra ACT 0200, Australia. email: ippa@anu.edu.au

☒ Pacific Archaeology: Assessments and Prospects. July 2002. An International Conference to mark the 50th Anniversary of the first Lapita excavations (July 1952) will be held in Koné (Lapita) and Nouméa, New Caledonia for one week in July 2002. Contact: Christophe Sand, Dept. of

Web Sites

Easter Island Foundation:
www.islandheritage.org

The Fonck Museum library, Biblioteca Rapanui y Polinesica: Director of the Library, Ana Betty Haoa:
bibrapanui@entelchile.net
David Stanley's (South Pacific Handbook) website:
www.southpacific.org

An archive of photographs of Pacific art and culture:
<http://sorrel.humboldt.edu/~rwj/oceanic.html>
[www.tattoo traditions.alohaworld.com](http://www.tattoo traditions.alohaworld.com)

Centre for South Pacific Studies Newsletter,
www.arts.unsw.edu.au/southpacific/homepage.html

Rjabchikov, Sergei V., 2000.

The Symbolism of the Polynesian Art.
<http://rongorongochat.ru/#SOTPA>

"RONGORONGO, Easter Island Writing" Home Page
<http://www.openweb.ru/rongo/index.htm>

For everyone who has visited Easter Island, plans to do so, or is interested in learning more about this remote and remarkable island and its turbulent history, Hanns Ebensten's meticulously researched and revealing book is a must:

TRESPASSERS ON EASTER ISLAND

EXPLORERS, WHALERS, SLAVERS, ADVENTURERS, MISSIONARIES,
SCIENTISTS AND TOURISTS, FROM 1722 TO THE PRESENT TIME

BY
HANNS EBENSTEN

"Hanns Ebensten's new book is more than just sparkling entertainment. It is part evocation, part scholarly narrative. Ebensten first went to the island almost 70 years ago, and has been back there annually since 1967; he describes it out of his own long experience, and also introduces us to its ever-surprising inhabitants and to the succession of foreigners who have for nearly three centuries explored, excavated, exploited, filmed and plundered it. This is not exactly a travel book, not quite a history, but a unique literary distillation of a marvellous place."

-Jan Morris

Available from Hanns Ebensten, 314 Peacon Lane, Key West, Florida 33040: Hardcover, 157 pages: $25.00 plus $3.50 for postage and packing.