vulgar and commonplace and nothing but a slander on the Portuguese and the Anglo-Saxon race. These two articles before me ask: Since when are the Chinese coolies fellow subjects to other races? I notice that Mr. Monting underlands by consuming only those things which he can put in his stomach and he does not know that there is also a consumption of clothing and Chinese males, of furniture and crockery, etc. The little luxuries enjoyed by the Chinese, besides opium amounted to about $100,000 for the year 1887, according to Custom House Statistics, imported from China (low valuation). Meanwhile the imports from Portugal amount to a mere trifle. These are statistical facts.

The Portuguese do not consume much, nor do the Anglo-Saxons; it is mostly used by natives. The rice can be just as well exported to the States as we export our sugars. If the latter produce will be entirely consumed by Chinese they would be a little sweeter. We export sugar and import flour, that is reciprocity. As long as I have read the newspapers, I never saw such a stupid sentence as the following: "I suppose from the way he refers to importing from the States that Patriot thinks it is much better for the country to have import trade with America, than with China. That may be the idea of firms who trade only with the States, but the value of any trade to the country in general depends entirely on its profitability."

Mr. M. evidently does not know that we have a Reciprocity Treaty with the United States and that it is only fair to give the preference to the United States when importing. But that the value of any trade to the country depends entirely upon its profitability is sheer nonsense. Profit to whom? to the country? What does the country gain by importation from China? Could we not do without it? Is it reciprocity? I give it up. Mind you, just on account of our Reciprocity Treaty the Chinamen should keep quiet and be sensible. Suppose the duty on rice should be taken off, where would our Chinamen be and Mr. M. their spokesman? Just some more stupid agitation like that and every American will beseech the United States Government to exclude rice from our treaty.

I have to thank Mr. M. for the explanation, that the Chinese are much better customers of the Boston merchants than the Portuguese. This solves a riddle for me in regard to Boston merchants, but in regard to San Francisco merchants his assertions are not true. The Portuguese import from California: wines, eatables and clothing for their own use, but what the Chinese import from there, with the exception of a few Chinese goods, is mostly intended for sale and to be consumed by Portuguese, Anglo-Saxons and natives.

Mr. M.'s slur on the Christian faith just as well hits the Boston as the San Francisco merchant. Unfortunately the Patriot has mentioned "Christian families" and this very brings on the wrath of the Chinaman. The Patriot enjoys himself in ecstasies about families and the Chinaman smiles (blandly) and knows better. I am sorry that Chinese gentleman M. touches this most delicate point so roughly, but his unscrupulous remarks provoke retaliation.

Mr. M. has no doubt seen in Patriot's letter that he only referred to Chinese coolies, nearly all single men, and not once to those few Chinese families which are an exception. I agree with him on this point and wish expressly to exclude all respectable Chinese families from the following remarks. The families of Goo Kim, L. Aho, Ain, Akima, Alee, and a number of others are as respectable in my eyes as those of any other nationality.

But Mr. M. speaks for the coolies and stirs the mud. Even if a Blue Ribbon man should not stand up for their defence, he cannot disprove that "Immorality is the root of all evil." The family is the foundation of morality and only by pure family relations our native population can be saved, therefore they have to be protected against the influence of immoral coolies. I am informed that a number of native, Portuguese and other families have been ruined and this is what Mr. Monting insinuates and admits, though on the one hand he blames the seduced and not the seducers. Alas! it is true that on account of our large population of male Chinese, a number of debased families earn a low living.

All Christian gentlemen ought to revolt against this and make this a starting point for reform. Let people drink a glass of wine and smoke a cigar, but induce them to lead a decent life. This should be the aim of all true missionaries and other good people. All efforts should be united in suppressing this criminal immorality and if there is no other way, then expel the sinners from the country, before the entire native population is ruined.

Morals or Dollars is the question, and if you cannot unite them, well then decide: Which do you prefer? ANGLI SAXON.

Ex-President Solomon of Hayti is in a critical condition, having undergone a surgical operation.

ODD FELLOW'S ASSEMBLY IN LOS ANGELES.

The Californian City of the Angels has enjoyed the honor of entertaining the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. The proceedings commenced on Monday, September 17th, and on the following day there was a procession of 5,000 members of the Order. At least 150,000 persons were in the city, including representatives from every state and territory in the Union, from the Dominion of Canada, from the Hawaiian Kingdom and from Australia. Including the numerous vehicles the procession was two miles in length. The grand officers appeared in splendid uniforms, and many of them were mounted on handsome and spirited horses. Escort duty was performed by the Seventh California Regiment of the National Guard, which presented a fine military bearing. Next came several cautions of the Patriarchs Militant, or highest rank of the Odd Fellows, under command of Lieutenant-General John C. Underwood. The uniform and banners of the Cantons were superb, and the Chevaliers marched like veteran soldiers. The costly standard of Los Angeles Canton was adorned with pearls and precious stones. A number of encampments and subordinate lodges came next in their appropriate order; and the remainder of the procession consisted of carriages for the daughters of Rebekah, delegates from other states, members of the Grand Lodge and other distinguished visitors.

At various points along the line of march, beautifully decorated arches were erected, and all the principal buildings were tastefully trimmed with flags, bunting, inscriptions and devices pertaining to the order. At headquarters the visitors were freely supplied with all the fruits produced in Southern California. Citizens not belonging to the order vied with Odd Fellows in lavish hospitality. Many of the visitors were supplied with cheap excursion tickets to neighboring towns and cities, where fraternal greetings awaited them.

The services of General Underwood in organizing the soldierly rank of Patriarch Militant were duly appreciated, and with unanimous consent the General was elected Grand Sire—the highest honor conferred by the Sovereign Lodge. I do not know whether a Canton has yet been organized in Honolulu. If not, this select degree should be introduced without delay. It stands at the summit of Independent Odd Fellowship, and is a distinction to which members of subordinate may properly aspire. Never in the past has Los Angeles witnessed such a magnificent display, and the enthusiasm thus aroused will tend to increase the prosperity of this favored municipality. In closing, allow me to inform your readers that through tickets are now sold for a first-class passage between Los Angeles and Honolulu. A. B. W.

REAR-ADMIRAL KIMBERLY.

The tall, grizzled form of Rear-Admiral L. A. Kimberly was seen at the Occidental the other day. The Admiral came from Honolulu in the Dolphin, and has asked to be relieved from further service in the Pacific Squadron on the ground of ill-health. He will undoubtedly soon be retired. Kimberly has had a notable career. He is a bachelor and very eccentric. He is also very rich, for he belongs to that Kimberly family which settled in Chicago in the thirties, bought land and grew up with the city. The Admiral is thought to be worth considerably more than a million. Kimberly won his greatest renown, however, as the First Lieutenant of Admiral Farragut's flagship, the Hartford, in which he served from December, 1860, until the old, battle-scarred ship went out of commission, in 1865. In all the actions in which the Hartford was engaged Kimberly commanded her crew and battery, and not only were they handled. He was a very eccentric man, a perfect recluse in his daily life, rarely speaking even to his associates. He was a stern disciplinarian—almost a martinet, in fact—but his subordinates admired his good qualities notwithstanding. At the time when officers of Kimberly's rank were seeking to command small ships and gunboats, he was repeatedly offered independent command, but invariably declined. He regarded it a higher honor to be First Lieutenant of the Hartford than to be Captain of a frigate.—[S. F. Examiner.]

FIGHTING THE TRUSTS.

A New York evening paper of September 22nd has the following: The report of a meeting of representatives of the Sugar Trust and of the Wholesale Grocers' Association which appeared in the papers last evening, can be supplemented to-day by some highly important information regarding the Wholesale Grocers' Association. While this organization goes under the name of an association, it is practically a combination made to meet monopoly, and is a peculiar illustration of the operation of the natural laws of trade. The association was formed for the expressed purpose of fighting the sugar trust, but subsequently it was determined to control other branches of the grocery trade. A prominent merchant informed a reporter that the meeting yesterday was the second step to form a powerful combination, both to control the sugar trust and the retail grocery trade. The first step was taken at a meeting some weeks ago, and the purpose was, by organizing, to compel the trust to sell sugar to members of the association, exclusively, at a rebate of one-half cent a pound. F. W. Inbusch of Milwaukee was elected Secretary, and has just sent out a circular in which it is stated that they must fight the sugar trust by similar organization.

THE CHINESE THEATRE.

The Police Court room was crowded with Chinese this morning making it appear to passers by that something unusual was happening.
It appears that one Ing Foon complained at the Station house of the noise that issued from the Chinese theatre every night. The result was that police officers arrested ten Chinese belonging to the theatre, and they were charged in the Police Court this morning with maintaining a common nuisance. While the arrests were being made three assaults were committed, and these will also have to be dealt with. The hearing of these cases has gone over to Thursday.

THE LATE CHARLES BRENIG.

Charles Brenig, an old resident of the islands, died in San Francisco, September 12th, aged 64 years. The remains were brought on the Mariposa, Monday, the widow accompanying them. About ten years ago the deceased had a stroke of paralysis, and he has never been well since.
He went to California thinking to benefit by the climate. Brenig was a native of Germany and came to the Islands sometime in the fifties.
He was first employed as head baker by a man named Fox, who kept a bakery on Hotel street near Maunakea. After remaining with Fox some time he opened a bakery on his own account, which he kept running for several years. After that he opened a dry goods store on Nuuanu street, and supplied seamen on whalers with clothing. It was while he was engaged in this business that he bought real estate.
He owned the block on Nuuanu street from Marine to Queen streets.
He married several years ago Kenahu, a native of Molokai, who survives him. The funeral will take place Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock from his late residence,

OSMOND DAY.

The trial of Osmond Day for larceny of a diamond cross valued $800 commenced in Judge Murphy's Court, San Francisco, September 21st. The prisoner, who is well known in Honolulu, caused the most humorously grotesque scene that has ever occurred in a San Francisco courtroom. He convulsed the court and spectators with laughter, and posed as witness, judge, jury, prosecuting and defending counsel. The trial was not concluded when the Mariposa left.

A LITTLE GIRL RUN OVER.

Early this morning a little girl named Lillian, five years of age, was wending her way to the Roman Catholic Church, when on turning the corner of Fort and Beretania streets she was run over by an express driven by a man named Charles Turner. The little girl was picked up, taken to her home on Fort street, and there attended by a doctor. It was found that her leg was broken, but at latest accounts she was doing well. Turner was taken to the Station house and there charged with heedless and furious driving.

AN INTERESTING LETTER FROM A VETERAN.

AS this is Jubilee year it tends to make one look back and think of the flight of time, and in this way I am reminded that I am one of the veterans in the sale of your valuable and successful medicine. I have sold it from the very first, and have sent it into every country in England and many parts of Scotland. Well do I remember the first circular you sent out some nine or ten years ago. You had come to England from America to introduce Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup, and I was struck by a paragraph in which you used these words:—
"Being a stranger in a strange land, I do not wish the people to feel that I want to take the least advantage over them. I feel that I have a remedy that will cure disease, and I have so much confidence in it that I authorize my agents to refund the money if people should say that they have not benefitted by its use." I felt at once that you would never say that unless the medicine had merit, and I applied for the agency, a step which I now look back upon with pride and satisfaction.

Ever since that time I have found it by far the best remedy for Indigestion and Dyspepsia I have met with, and I have sold thousands of bottles. It has never failed in any case where there were any of the following symptoms:—Nervous or sick headache, sourness of the stomach, rising of the food after eating, a sense of fullness and heaviness, dizziness, bad breath, slime and mucus on the gums and teeth, constipation, and yellowness of the eyes and skin, dull and sleepy sensations, ringing in the ears, heartburn, loss of appetite, and, in short, wherever there are signs that the systems is clogged, and the blood is out of order. Upon repeated inquiries, covering a great variety of ailments, my customers have always answered, "I am better," or "I am perfectly well." What I have seldom or never seen before in the case of any medicine is that people tell each other of its virtues, and those who have been cured say to the suffering: "Go and get Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup, it will make you well." Out of the hundreds of cures I will name one or two that happen to come into my mind.

Two old gentlemen, whose names they would not like me to give you, had been martyrs to Indigestion and Dyspepsia for many years.
They had tried all kinds of medicine without relief. One of them was so bad he could not bear a glass of ale. Both were advised to use the Syrup and both recovered, and were as hale and hearty as men in the prime of life.

A remarkable case is that of a house painter named Jeffries, who lived at Penshurst, in Kent. His business obliged him to expose himself a great deal to wind and weather, and he was seized with rheumatism, and his joints soon swelled up with dropsy, and were very stiff and painful. Nothing that the doctors could do seemed to reach the seat of the trouble. It so crippled him that he could do hardly any work, and for the whole of the winter of 1878 and '79, he had to give up and take to his bed. He had been afflicted in this sorry way for three years, and was getting worn out and discouraged. Besides, he had spent over £13 for what he called "doctor's stuff" without the least benefit. In the Spring he heard of what Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup has done for others and bought a 2s. 6d. bottle of me. In a few days he sent me word he was much better—before he had finished the bottle. He then sent to me for a 4s. 6d. bottle, and as I was going that way I carried it down to him myself. On getting to his house what was my astonishment and surprise to find him out in the garden weeding an onion bed. I could hardly believe my own eyes, and said:—

"You ought not to be out here, man, it may be the death of you, after being laid up all winter with rheumatism and dropsy." His reply was:—"There is no danger. The weather is fine, and Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup has done for me in a few days what the doctors could not do in three years.
I think I shall get well now." He kept on with the Syrup, and in three weeks he was at work again, and has had no return of the trouble for now nearly ten years. Any medicine that can do this should be known all over the world.

Yours faithfully,
(Signed) RUPERT GRAHAM,
Of Graham & Son,
Holloway House, Sunbury,
Middlesex,
June 25th, 1887.

The above wonderful cure of Rheumatism was the result of the remarkable power of Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup to cleanse the blood of the poisonous humors that arise from Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

is for sale by all chemists and medicine vendors, and by the proprie-

Dr. Martine, of London, the celebrated specialist, says of PARDEE'S REMEDY:
"I have used it for twenty years for Blood Diseases, such as Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Tetter and Cancer, and I cannot recommend it too highly."

The Rev. Dr. Thomas, of Hong Kong, China, says: "PARDEE'S REMEDY is a wonderful medicine for the blood. I have prescribed it hundreds of times for
