Stoddard's New Books.

The following advance announcement of C W Stoddard's new book, which deals with Hawaii, has been issued:

So serious was Mr Charles Warren Stoddard's recent illness that the newspapers of California, where he is best known and perhaps best loved, took his death for granted and printed appreciations of his work and final estimates of his career. Even when he did recover, however, his physician held out to him small hopes of resuming his literary work for at least two years. Nevertheless his industry and courage did not desert him, and the recent tentative announcements of a new book from his pen shortly to be issued by Herbert B Turner & Co, have made it clear that the author of "South Sea Idylls" is still with us. At his home in Cambridge, Mr Stoddard has told a friend something of the contents of his new work. In "The Island of Tranquil Delights" he has attempted to outdo the peculiar charm of "South Sea Idylls" and to dispell the public idea that that charming work is his only book. It naturally annoys any author to be thought of solely as the author of a single masterpiece, as Joe Jefferson is condemned to be remembered as nothing but Rip Van Winkle and as Edwin Booth's unquestionable range of tragic art is restricted to his Hamlet. In "The Island of Tranquil Delights," Mr Stoddard daringly returns to the scenes of his earlier book, to Hawaii and Tahiti, with a confidence that his second pilgrimage to the South Seas will be as worthy in results as his first. The alluring title of the book is also the title of one of its leading sketches, and in its entire contents it is hoped that the delights of a vanished life that was almost inconceivably childlike and free from rivalry and strife will be successfully presented. "Kane-Aloha," another of the sketches, describes the mingled fun and sadness in the mistake the native Hawaiians made in handling the "conveniences" of civilization, and "On the Reef" does more. It bewails the unpreventable disappearance of the former life of the Islanders before an encroaching "civilization," which it flails with fierce satire for doing nothing but debauch a simplehearted people and ruin a splendid old regime. Some of the sketches were written before Mr Stoddard's illness, but the bulk of the work has been done since, and has never been in print. The book is scheduled for early fall.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

Nominee for Delegate to Congress

Curtis Piehu Iaukea.

IN BASE COIN.

The unconcern with which the Republicans here treat the financial conditions of the Territory is simply marvellous. The government of the Territory is unable to pay its legitimate obligations and hands to its creditors paper money, which the merchants and banks decline to accept at its face value. Does a similar state of affair exist in any other part of the Union today, or for that matter has it ever existed anywhere except in time of war or other national disaster? A government, which cannot meet its obligations by paying cent for cent, is exactly in as bankrupt a condition, as is a private business house, who is forced to arrange with its creditors for a percentage settlement of its debts.

Who has brought on this disgraceful state of affairs? It has occurred under a Republican administration, the nefarious paper system has been inaugurated by a Republican administration, and the consequent losses to the people of the Territory, direct as well as indirect, are due to this Republican administration. Governor Carter, the man in close touch with the President, must bear the brunt for the scandalous conditions existing in the financial end of his administration. It is no use for him to cast the blame on the legislative branch of the Government, because he has publicly informed the government in Washington, after the last election, that it was crowned with a sweeping Republican victory, and he has at all times made it understood that he controlled the last Legislature.

If he did so, and we must of course take his word for it, why did he not provide ways and means to meet the running expenses of his Territory? If he had the political control of the Legislature, why did he not cause measures to be passed, which would have enabled his Treasurer to carry the Government through the biennial period in a, at least, solvent condition? As far as the opposition to his administration in the Legislature was concerned, he would have had no difficulty in carrying any reasonable revenue measures, but he met (if he ever contemplated relieving the situation) the usual opposition from the Republican ranks, which can always be depended on, when the question of taxation is broached. The Governor and the Republican party are solely to blame for present conditions. We cannot remove the Governor, but we can, and we must, send men to the Legislature, who, without fear, willing to self-sacrifice on their own and supporters part, will pass measures, which will place sufficient money in the Treasury with which to meet the expenses of the Territory; men who, at least, will cut the cost according to the cloth, and, who before everything else, will prevent a repetition of the present disgraceful "paper money" era.

Very Significant.

The New York Herald, which has never taken sides in politics at so early a stage in a campaign, has declared itself unequivocally for Parker. Of its present position, Colliers, which is favorable to Roosevelt's candidacy, says: "Mr Bennett has insisted and consistently acted upon the belief, that the taking of sides weakens such a paper, as it suits him to make. He considers it an advantage, however, to be on the winning side at the finish, and it has been his custom to return to this country a few weeks before a national election and tell his helpers which way to lean. So far as we can recall he has not made a single error in forming this judgment, since he has directed his paper. It is certainly significant, therefore, that he should now cast his own precedents to the winds and at this early day come out flat-footed for Judge Parker. What this action means we can only guess. All we know is that Mr Bennett himself wrote the declaratory article. It is reasonable to suppose that he really thinks Judge Parker is going to be elected, and that the Herald is going to continue to land right side up with cars."

Mr John Kidwell says that he considers the old maxim that an accused person is presumed to be innocent until he is proved guilty as "a mere theory." Yet Mr Kidwell has been allowed to serve as a juror many times and given the opportunity to determine men's life and liberty on his "mere theory." Mr Kidwell should be excused for further jury attendance by all the Courts.

The Star's Principle.

The Star, which refers to Iaukea as an irresponsible, unknowing speaker, holds that the people of Hawaii should elect a Republican Legislature, because, according to its prophetic foresight, the Republicans will win on the Mainland at the coming election. The advice of the Star shows well the political immorality, so characteristic of the clique, which it represents, and which is mainly composed of the revolutionists of '87, '93 and of annexation fame. The Star does not ask the voters to join the Republican ranks, because the principles of the Republican party, according to the Star's ideas, are purer and superior to those of the Democrats. It does not urge the people to join the Republican party, because that party is the salvation of the Republic; no! it simply advises the voters to become Republicans, irrespective of principles, because the next President will be a Republican, and there will be more in it for Hawaii, if we have a local Republican administration. The Star and the people for whom it speaks are in politics simply for what there is in it, and we presume that, if a Democratic victory was an assured event on the Mainland, it would rush across the street to Republican headquarters and cry out: "Boys, we have a sure tip, that the Democrats will elect the next President. Get a move on and join the Democratic ranks, or we will get left, every mother's son of us, when the Democrats get into power!" No thanks, say twinkling Star, the Democrats prefer to follow their banner, be it to victory or defeat. We fight for principles—not for patronage.

Want Honor With Victory.

The Republican papers are delighted at what they claim to be Kalauokalani's treachery to the Home Rule party. If the Republicans expect that the promise of the appointment of young Kalauokalani as secretary to Kuhio will swing the Home Rulers into their ranks, they will find that they are very much mistaken. They are perfectly welcome to count the two Kalauos among them; it is a valuable and proper addition to the Kumalae wing of the g. o. p. but if they think, that by accepting the refuse of the Home Rule Party, they gain the support of the party as a whole, they are away off. If Notley has any political sense and a spark of patriotism, in his breast, and we believe he has, he will steer his cohorts into the Democratic ranks, and thereby crush the intrigues of his former allies. The Democrats are not seeking for alliances, which can be obtained only by the corrupt methods, used by the Republicans in the Kalauokalani episode, but the Democrats are ready to hail into their ranks any good citizens, irrespective of political antecedents, so long as they feel confident, that the addition to the ranks is sincere and ready to work for the party on honorable lines only. Otherwise the Democrats prefer to go it alone, even if it is to a honorable defeat.

London Answers asks the question, "Do fish sing?" Why, certainly. The Rev Mr Fish, an English evangelist who toured the world some twenty years ago, was an excellent singer.

Claim Is Unreasonable.

A little critic of Chinese demand representation in the Legislature. As the Chinese voters amount to only 800 in Oahu we hardly think the demand is reasonable and we think that the community must, with thanks, decline the patriotic offer of Ng Mon War and Willie Ah Crawford and the others who are willing to accept a seat in the Legislature. We will have to be satisfied with an American Legislature, composed of men who are simply American, irrespective of their former national conditions. If Mr Mon War and the other gentlemen want to run for the Legislature, let them do so on their individual merit, but not claim for recognition because once they wore the emblem of thralldom on their pates. Of course Mon War would be an improvement on some of the Republican candidates but, Mon, it can't be done.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

The trouble with the public schools is that they are under the control of "Mummy" Hail, "Mummy" Jordan, and two old fossils. When the whole school is cleaned out and a representative board put in, conditions will speedily improve.

It should be extremely gratifying to Honolulu housekeepers to learn from the Advertiser that the Japanese are exceptionally healthy and hardy. The average experience with Japanese house servants is that they have to stop home one or two days a week on account of illness, and the plantations have found the case to be about the same.

Let the Hawaiian government answer satisfactorily this question: Why does it at this time, when everything in business is depressed, sell large tracts of government land which should be held back until such time as actual settlers can be had to take it up, if it has any sincere desire that actual settlers should come into control of government lands?—The Garden Island.

Following the lead of Maui in putting up such a splendid ticket, we would modestly suggest that the Republicans of the Fifth District run Ng Mon War, who has become a member of their party, for the House of Representatives. He would doubtless contribute liberally to the campaign fund and might be able to run as far as Nuanuu stream (and jump overboard).

Some of our would-be candidates for legislative honors have the impudence to say that they'll work for the good of the Territory, equally for Hawaiians and haoles. This is always followed by a request to vote for so and so. Did some of them consider Hawaiians when they asked for annexation, or did they only think of themselves and their sugar dividends? We think not; they cared not for the Hawaiians, nor for their feelings, but selfishness only, and now they have the gall to ask Hawaiians to vote for them.

The Board of Education and eventually the Legislature will have to grapple with the serious problem of finding rooms in schools for the constantly increasing population within the school age. It is easy enough to advocate liberal appropriations for the use of the Board, but what is the use of appropriations as long as the treasury is as empty as is the Governor's had when he is called upon to grapple with the financial problems of the Territory? The word taxation is the bogie which keeps him awake at nights. Retrenchment doesn't hurt his personal clique as does taxation.

Kumalae must have confounded Tom Johnson of Cincinnati, Ohio, as the leader of the Home Rule party in the United States, with Sam Johnson of Honolulu, an escaped Cosack from the wild steppes of Russia, once the erstwhile boss of the Fourth District, now the road supervisor and member of the Republican Central Committee, one that Kumalae trained with during the two past general campaigns. If Sam Johnson is not a Home Ruler, he ought to be, for the country he is an exile from believes in such a policy leading towards the Siberian mines. Because Tom Johnson believes in the Democratic policy of "Home Rule," he is made out at this late day as the Home Rule leader of the mainland. What folly.

The big addition to Oahu prison will likely be finished and ready for occupancy by the first of the month. It is a handsome, commodious and comfortable structure. The wall around it is twenty feet high, which is four feet higher than the one around the old jail.

District Court Doings

At today's session, M Souza, one of the Punchbowl liquor sellers, was fined $200 and costs for selling unlicensed stuff on Sunday, and the other one, M Vierra, had his case go over to tomorrow. Psk Ohee was fined $10 and costs, for false imprisonment, in making an arrest of a countryman whom he had seen committing a nuisance on a public street. And for so interfering with duties of the police, he was made to pay for his experience. S Kapae, for larceny in the second degree, got ten days on the reef with costs assessed; Louis F De Mello, for indecent exposure, was nolle prossed, and Hayashida, for murder in first degree, was nolle prossed, an indictment having been found against him by the grand jury.

Jao Gouvea, profanity, Philip Nones, assault and battery, and Ah Hong, for having lottery tickets in possession, went over to tomorrow, and Ah Yet, for assisting and maintaining a lottery, to Friday.

Democrats On Kauai.

W A Kinney returned from Kauai this morning, whether he went on business in connection with the proposed new electrical plant at Wai-siha. Incidentally he distributed a large lot of Democratic literature, made speeches, helped to organize clubs and did other important work for the party. He reports that S K Kaloa, the Democratic spell-binder, is meeting with tremendous success. Among the larger clubs organized are those of Hanapepe, Hanalei, Kapaa, Waimea and Lihue. Mr Kinney feels that the Democrats have a fine chance of winning out on Kauai as a chance is much desired.

H C Mossman Remembered.

Harry Woodman, clerk in the office of the Deputy Sheriff, has been presented by Lee Chu, manager of the Oahu Lumber & Building Co, with a solid gold token in the shape of a shield, 1 1/2 inches in size. On the face is the following inscription: "Presented to H C Mossman by Lee Chu as a token of appreciation, June 22, 1904." Accompanying this token was a letter written by the donor himself, in which he mentions his appreciation is the saving of his life from a desperate man on the date mentioned. This was in connection with the killing of Lam T Ohia by Liu Lock, and Harry, being in the vicinity of the shooting at the time, grappled with the man and had him under control, taking away the revolver, as the man had intended calling on Lee Chu. It is a very neat token and Harry has good cause to appreciate it, coming from one who appreciates the saving of his life by one in the exercise of a public duty.

A Child Drowned.

The young boy of Rev Miyazaki of Kapaia Buddhist Church was drowned on Friday afternoon, in a tub containing not more than five gallons of water. The mother was at the time, in Koloa, visiting her friends and Mr Miyazaki had engaged a man to look after his children during the mother's absence and he himself was taking lunch when the tragedy occurred. The servant had placed a square tub about 2 feet high under a water tap and turned the water on to give drink to the horse. The boy was playing with water in the tub after the man had taken the horse away and in some way lost his balance and fell head first into the tub.—The Garden Island.

Eddie Boyd Has "Come Back."

Hawaii Promotion Committee E. M Boyd returned by the Sierra this morning from his California trip in search of tourists. He says that he is "glad to get back and to work off the effect California has on a man. This is the place for me, and I won't go away even if they told me, and they must send the police to get me out." Except for a slight cold contracted on the trip down, he otherwise feels all right.

Iroquois' New Chief.

Peter Ford, one of the best known engineers in the United States Navy, arrived here in the transport Thomas to succeed the late "Big Chief" Clift. On account of sustaining a fractured hip at Mara Island, from which he has not entirely recovered he did not go out on the Iroquois to Midway but will join her upon her return next Thursday week. Mr Ford was shipmate with Paddy Ryan twenty years. He was also in the same vessels with Admiral Terry, Bob White and numerous other local people. His last ship was the Marblehead, from which he was transferred to the Iroquois.

Japanese Employed.

Water pipe for the Hawaiian Government is being discharged from the ship Erskine M Phelps by Japanese. C B Wilson is superintending the job. Scores of citizen laborers are, at the same time, along the front looking for work. They view with anything but satisfaction this slap-in-the-face of the Republican administration and will likely remember it on election day.

Charged With Battery.

A warrant has been issued for the arrest of J F Fullerton and five Japanese on the charge of assault and battery on Louis Bartelmann and family. Fullerton holds a mortgage on the complainant's homestead. It is alleged that he and the Japs went there this morning, without process of law, pitched the furniture and assaulted members of the family.

Doing Democratic Work.

W A Kinney, Chairman of the Democratic Central Committee, has been on Kauai during the past week doing business and politics.

Mr Kinney distributed democratic literature which explains so that a child may understand why the Democratic party is the greatest party on earth.—The Garden Island.

Molokai Registration.

The Maui Board of Registration visited the Molokai settlement last Friday and registered 308 voters. Of this number 207 were at Kalapapa and 101 at Kalawao. This is seven less than at the last election.

Passengers Arrived.

From Kauai, per steamer Mikahala, Sept. 14.—W A Kinney, A Borke and wife, Mrs Rennie, Mrs Hageman, Miss L Edwards, Sam Decker, E Langer, S W Holmer, Thos Roehfort, Yee Shong, Ah Fu and 65 deck.

Said Pasha will be staged by local amateurs, at the Hawaiian Opera House, tomorrow and be repeated Saturday. Tickets are on sale at Wall, Nichols Co.

One of the big insurance cases arising out of the Chinatown fire is being heard before a jury in Judge Robinson's court today. It is a suit against the Manchester Insurance company.
