LANE DENIES MAKING PATRONAGE PROMISES LORIMER'S MAN ACQUITTED BY JURY

Hustace and Lane Forces Ready For Convention

COL. PARKER TO NOMINATE LANE

Breckons Is the Favorite For Chairmanship of Convention.

It is a day of activity for the Republican political divisions that are engaged in marshaling their forces for the opening of the convention in the Orpheum Theater at 7:30 this evening.

The outlook is distinctly favorable for the nomination of a strong county ticket, one that will be able to muster winning support at the polls.

The Lane-Hustace fight and the selection of a chairman for the convention occupy the center of attention today, with the interesting feature of Colonel Sam Parker being brought into the reckoning, being mentioned as a compromise candidate for the majority as between Lane and Hustace.

Lane reiterated his declaration this morning that he has not made promises of any kind to his supporters. Lane stated:

"The report that I have promised John Wise the position of road supervisor, in the event of my election, is untrue. It is also untrue that I have made any promises to my brother. The party rules provide for the distribution of patronage, and those are the rules that I will abide by in the event of my nomination and election. I have made no promises of any kind. The insinuations are unwarranted. I understand that John Wise is canvassing for the place of clerk to the Senate, and I reiterate that I have promised him nothing in the event of my election."

Wise also declared this morning that he had no intention of trying to get the position of road supervisor if Lane was elected. He said:

"Lane has not promised me anything. I am planning to go after the clerkship of the Senate. I served in that capacity at the last special session and for twice as clerk of the House. I am not out for the road supervisor's place."

There appears to be a general effort upon the part of Lane's opponents to stir up opposition to his nomination on the statement that he

CHILD TELLS PITIFUL STORY

Angelina Fortuna Takes Stand Against Alleged Seducer.

Angelina Fortuna, the little eleven year old Porto-Rican girl who was assaulted July 6 by Ramon Camacho, told her story this morning on the witness stand of Judge Cooper's court in a simple and straightforward manner, and all the puzzling questions and bad grammar which Attorney Quinn for the defense could throw at her on cross examination did not shake her testimony in the least.

The court room had many spectators and beside the prisoner sat his wife and aged mother listening to the story of this little child and of the horrible crime she testified that Ramon committed upon her.

It was only the blue dress and fetching hat of the prisoner's wife which relieved the dull aspect of the court room, the mother being dressed entirely in black.

Little Angelina, sitting erect in the witness box or leaning eagerly forward so as to understand each question but to her by the attorneys, was dressed in simple white with a large bow of blue ribbon in her hair.

She told her story quietly and distinctly, sometimes twisting her hand knobbed between her hands as some more than ordinarily difficult question was put in her. Her story of being assaulted and held by Ramon while he performed his deed did not vary, even in the minutest detail under the cross examination in which she was submitted, and several times the Court took the part of the witness and in

MYRTLES AGREE WITH HEALANIS

Only Those With Badges Will Be Allowed To Enter Boathouses.

This afternoon the Healanis boat crews will have an oldtime expert out with them, and he will coach the men in the way they should row. F. W. Klebahn has consented to accompany the crews on their training spins, and a launch will be put at the veteran's disposal. This good news will cause much pleasure among the Healanis supporters, and the oarsmen will have the benefit of the experience of one of the best coaches who ever showed a crew what to do.

The Myrtle members have decided to do the same as the Healanis in regard to issuing invitations to their clubhouse on Regatta Day, and badges will be sent around in a day or two. This was thought to be the best way to overcome the difficulty of stopping undesirables from making themselves at home in the boat sheds on the big day.

The hoale crew of the Outrigger Club is going strong in its training stunts, and the boys feel confident that they can repeat the success of last year and defeat the picked Hawaiian crews once more.

In Federal Court this morning Judge Robinson delivered an oral judgment overruling the plea in bar set up by Attorney Watson for his clients Len He Koo and Iai Fook Tai charged under the Edmunds Act. The case will go to trial next Wednesday.

ACQUIT LORIMER REPUBLICANS NOT OF BRIBERY CHARGE ON HAND FOR BALLINGER

(Associated Press Cable.)
 CHICAGO, Sept. 9.—Lee O'Neil Brown, the member of the Illinois Legislature charged with bribing members to vote for Senator Lorimer, was acquitted today by the jury. Brown was charged by Representative White and others with having paid $1000 each for Democratic votes to elect Lorimer. The first trial resulted in a hung jury. While the jury for the second trial was being drawn, the trial judge dismissed the whole panel, as he declared that there was wholesale tampering with the jurymen.

(Associated Press Cable.)
 MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 9.—Further action on the Ballinger matter was deferred today, through the absence of the Republican members. Only the Democrats were present and the chairman ruled that there was no quorum to do business. The Republicans were absent by general agreement.

U. S. Building Money May Lapse

Action Must be Taken By July Next, According To Appropriations

According to the statements of those familiar with the wording of the appropriation to meet the cost of the Federal building to be constructed in Honolulu, unless definite action is taken in regard to the expenditure of the sum appropriated it will lapse and go back into the Treasury by next July.

The realization that there is a possibility of the Territory losing the money absolutely, if nothing definite is done toward settling the question of site, will probably stimulate speedy action one way or the other.

The report that the appropriation will lapse in July next is expected to bring about a prompt inquiry into the actual status of the money lying idle that can be used for the construction of the building.

TRENT ATTACKS ADVERTISER AND CAMPBELL AS SOURCE OF PAPER'S INFORMATION

Otherwise Last Evening's Land Board Had Nothing Exciting.

Three spectators idly waved their hats as Sam Dwight nearly took a new Marston Campbell and hunched down in his chair, Judge Andrade yawned and the scribes present nodded while Brown read the proposed Kaupaa lease explaining each line as he went along, and the lights in the big chandeliers overhead burned dimly in the still, heated atmosphere in the Throne Room at the Land Board meeting last evening.

Nothing was done at the meeting, it lasted nearly three hours and in all that time no action was taken on any proposition.

The air was suffocating although all the long windows in the room were thrown open to catch what breeze might be stirring, and the Board went around in a circle like a pup chasing its own tail, never getting anywhere but wasting a great deal of time nevertheless.

When the meeting opened and the minutes of the previous one had been approved things promised a lively session for Trent was on his feet at once addressing the Board in regard to three stories printed in the Advertiser which he claimed impugned his motives and those of the Board and that the information evidently came from the land office.

He said he had been accused of using his position on the Board for political profit.

It was in regard to the Kawahoa

WOMAN DIES FROM FALL

Three Weeks After Accident at O. R. & L. Depot Mrs. Palani Expires.

Mrs. Keia Palani died at the Queen's Hospital this morning at an early hour. She never rallied properly from the effects of an accident that occurred at the O. R. & L. depot on August 15 last.

It appears that Mrs. Palani attempted to get off a train before it had come to a full stop and, in some way, half fell to the ground. Her hand had grabbed one of the rails on the car, and she was dragged for some distance before she let go and hit the platform.

The unfortunate woman was taken to the hospital and every endeavor was made to save her life. However, at an early hour this morning she died, and an inquiry into the cause of death will be held this evening.

PETITION IS DISMISSED

Judge Robinson Rules That Sumner Needs No Guardian.

Petition for the appointment of a guardian for John K. Sumner was denied late yesterday afternoon by Judge Robinson, as sufficient proof was not brought out in the hearing to show that the old gentleman was not capable of managing his own affairs.

The case has been on for ten days, E. A. Mott-Smith and Buffandean and wife being the witnesses called to testify at yesterday afternoon's hearing. Territorial Secretary on the stand testified that he managed the business affairs of Sumner at one time and that he was of sound mind.

Buffandean and his wife both said that the old man had many schemes for making money, schemes which they thought were hatched in the brain of an irresponsible person.

Judge Robinson would not allow Sumner to go on the stand himself although the petitioner wished him to testify.

Watson and Thayer represented Sumner and John Edging was attorney for Robert W. Davis who filed the petition asking that a guardian be appointed.

FORCES READY FOR CONVENTION

(Continued from Page 1) has been making promises of positions in the event of election. Some Confusion. The names of Colonel Sam Parker and Robert Parker, candidates for nomination for sheriff, appear to have caused some confusion, a number of people apparently thinking that Colonel Sam Parker has come out as a candidate for the nomination, something which does not appear to be the fact, because he will nominate John Lane to make the run against Fern. Lane seems to be strong among the delegates from the Third of the Fourth, the insurgent Manoa stronghold, and the Fourth of the Fourth, who have about the same inclinations as the adjoining precinct. A caucus yesterday showed that there was about an equitable division between the supporters of Lane and Hustace in the Fourth of the Fourth, with Lane appearing to be somewhat the stronger of the two. Another caucus will be held this afternoon by the Third and Fourth precincts. The important office of temporary chairman of the convention is one that is hedged about with considerable doubt, the importance of the office in this case being considerably heightened by the fact that the temporary chairman will have the appointment of the committee on credentials, before which will come the protests that are expected to develop from the Seventh Precinct of the Fourth. The probability seems to be that Clarence Crabbe will fill the place of temporary chairman, he being the chairman of the county committee.

Delegates Seating. Crabbe announced this morning that in order to simplify the seating of the delegates at the convention tonight, the precinct numbers will be painted on the floor, the delegates taking their seats according to their precincts. Parker and Cox. The supporters of Captain Robert Parker are preparing to make a determined effort to land him the nomination as sheriff of the city and county. At a caucus of his supporters last night, pledges of support were given by his precinct delegates to stand by him from the first gun to the last. Andrew Cox, the other Republican aspirant, is likewise making every preparation for convention campaigning, and his supporters are confident that they will be able to marshal enough votes to "beat out" Parker.

Quinn Ready. Supervisor J. C. Quinn announces his candidacy for renomination to the office of county supervisor. Quinn received last evening the endorsement of the delegates from the Sixth and Seventh precincts of the Fourth District. This Quinn claims gives him twenty-three solid votes with which to go into the convention. Breckons Favorite. H. W. Breckons appears to have things all his own way as far as landing the permanent chairmanship of the county convention is concerned. He has pledged of support that would seem to give him the place for a certainty, "barring accidents." Real White Harris being the only other real candidate in the field.

Breckons is the selection of the Lane men for the chairmanship of the convention, and his seating will be considered in the light of a decided victory for that wing of the party. Harris, on the other hand, is favored by the Hustace people. What the convention will do in regard to adjourning after perfecting organization, and waiting until the Territorial convention meets Monday and promulgates a platform, is problematical. There is a sentiment favorable to such action, while other delegates do not see that county nominations before the Territorial platform is promulgated will have any bad effect. Announcement of candidates for nomination continue to be made. Edward Fernandez states that he is out for the nomination for a seat in the House of Representatives from the Fourth District, and his friends in the convention will work for that end. There has been considerable campaigning during the day for the nomination of Cecil Brown for a seat in the Senate, and the probability is that he will have strong support in the Territorial convention Monday.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 29.—Engineers soon will be sent to Cuba to make a preliminary survey of the condition of the battleship Maine, which was blown up in Havana harbor just before the Spanish war. This was decided today at the first meeting of the board of army engineers, appointed several weeks ago under the authorization of Congress to proceed with the removal of the wreck. Composing the board are Colonel William M. Black, Lieutenant-Colonel M. M. Patrick and Captain H. B. Ferguson. The first object will be to recover the bodies of the sailors who lost their lives when the ship was blown up, but the second will be to ascertain whether the vessel was blown up from the inside or from the outside. The impression of the board today was said to be that the best method of accomplishing these objects was to raise the vessel in the open.

GAS ENGINE TO DRIVE BRITISH BATTLESHIP
Important Experiment in Warship Construction Said to Be Under Consideration. PORTSMOUTH, England, August 23.—A local newspaper asserts that the British Admiralty has decided to build an experimental motor-driven battleship propelled by an internal combustion gas engine. Naval engineers have long had their eyes on this type of engine as the ultimate form of power for naval vessels, and experiments have been carried on with the gunboat Rattler with satisfactory results. A battleship equipped with such a motor would have no boilers, stokers nor smokestacks, except such vents as were necessary to carry off the products of combustion, and it is claimed that such a vessel, if successful, would by the economies effected in weight, space and cost of working, and by the additional speed due to the absence of smokestacks, render all vessels of the present Dreadnaught type obsolete.

A French scientist has figured out that the nervous system is capable of perceiving only about ten impressions a second, separated by periods of inertia.

KOREAN CASE GOING SLOW

Charge of Suborning Witness Laid Against One Alleged Friend.

At the police court this morning were gathered many Koreans who are all, in a way, interested in the assault and battery case of Yong, who claims that a number of his countrymen did him up at the society hall on Miller street. Lorrin Andrews appeared for the defendants, and J. Lightfoot for the prosecution. There are a great number of witnesses to be examined in the case, and it promises to be a long drawn-out one. This morning while the case was proceeding, Lightfoot informed the court that one of the Koreans who is mixed up in the case had approached two Koreans who knew nothing of the matter, and tried to induce them to give evidence in the case. Judge Andrade at once ordered that steps be taken to have the matter investigated, and the man who tried to suborn the witnesses will probably be arrested within a short time. Then when the case was sent over till Friday next, and all the witnesses were leaving the courtroom, a Korean named You Ah Chong is alleged to have threatened one of Lightfoot's witnesses. A warrant was at once sworn out for the arrest of the man and he was charged with threatening language.

At the police court this morning were gathered many Koreans who are all, in a way, interested in the assault and battery case of Yong, who claims that a number of his countrymen did him up at the society hall on Miller street. Lorrin Andrews appeared for the defendants, and J. Lightfoot for the prosecution. There are a great number of witnesses to be examined in the case, and it promises to be a long drawn-out one. This morning while the case was proceeding, Lightfoot informed the court that one of the Koreans who is mixed up in the case had approached two Koreans who knew nothing of the matter, and tried to induce them to give evidence in the case. Judge Andrade at once ordered that steps be taken to have the matter investigated, and the man who tried to suborn the witnesses will probably be arrested within a short time. Then when the case was sent over till Friday next, and all the witnesses were leaving the courtroom, a Korean named You Ah Chong is alleged to have threatened one of Lightfoot's witnesses. A warrant was at once sworn out for the arrest of the man and he was charged with threatening language.

KING GEORGE WANTS NEW COIN

LONDON, Aug. 27.—King George's new coinage is causing serious trouble because he has twice rejected designs submitted to him because of a too close resemblance to those his father had coined, which he never liked because they looked more like French than English coins. The king is determined to have his empy thoroughly English, and Bertram Mackennal, the Australian sculptor who is designing the dies, having been largely trained in France, finds it difficult to free himself altogether from the influence of French art. Another difficulty cropped up in India, where the uncrowned head of Edward VII, made the natives believe that he was not a king at all. Then again, Hongkong declares that the gold sovereigns with a group view of St. George slaying the dragon is taken by British Chinese subjects as an insult to them, the dragon being emblematic of the Chinese empire.

KENDALL MURDER INQUEST UP

SANTA ROSA, Aug. 24.—District Attorney Lea has concluded to abandon entirely the coroner's inquest begun at Cazadero early in the month over the remains of Enoch and Eura Kendall and their son, Thomas Kendall, who were found murdered on the F. H. Starbuck ranch, and begin all over again at the inquest to be held here Friday. As a result of this decision Sheriff J. K. Smith has served subpoenas on Mrs. Margaret Starbuck and P. H. Starbuck of Oakland, Mrs. Janette Thompson of San Francisco, Justice of the Peace F. D. Tromper, Deputy Sheriff Ernest Tromper, Wm. Churchman and Arthur Collins of Cazadero, Dr. J. W. Jesse and Dr. S. S. Bogie of Santa Rosa. Just sufficient evidence will be introduced to satisfy the requirements of the law to warrant a charge of murder against Henry Yamsueh, wanted for the crime. A large amount of evidence held by the officers will not be presented in order to avoid making public the case of the prosecution before the suspect is arrested. Any member of the Myrtle Boat Club who wishes to procure invitations for his friends for Regatta Day, is requested to notify Ray H. Rietow, Room 207, Judd building, or telephone No. 1294.

REPORT WAS DISCUSSED

Promotion Committee Talked of Work--Much Money in Sight for Present Year.

The report of Secretary Wood of the Promotion Committee was the most important work before the committee at its meeting yesterday afternoon, and was discussed at length by the members. Encouraging reports have recently been received from different mainland points of the work which is being accomplished by the publicity campaign of the committee, and enquiries about Hawaii are being received constantly from many different parts of the world. Member Hoogs of the Board has returned from a trip to Hilo and was enthusiastic in his remarks yesterday before the Board of the beauty of the trip and the marvelous display which the volcano is making at present to those who make the trip to its side. That the work of the coming year will be successful is argued from the large number of responses which have come from business men and others of Honolulu for financial aid in the campaign for the twelve months. Many that have before been but lukewarm supporters or have even stood aloof from the promotion position have signified their willingness to subscribe to the work for this year and indications are that there will be little trouble in obtaining the $25,000 Secretary Wood deems necessary to carry on the work or even the figure of $50,000 which he thinks could be used to advantage.

DIRIGIBLE MAKES TIME

NEW YORK, August 26.—The big new dirigible Pennsylvania I, carrying Leo Stevens, the aeronaut, and two friends, landed this morning in the village of South River, N. J., after having made a sixty-mile voyage from Philadelphia in the fast time of eighty minutes. The party left Philadelphia at 3:25 a. m., starting from Point Breeze. A train followed them, but lost sight of the dirigible at Trenton. New York had been the goal originally decided on by the air travelers, but a stiff wind almost blew them out over Raritan bay, and the drop at South River, was decided on. In the party were Arthur T. Atherton, president of the Aero Club of Pennsylvania, and Convers B. Graham, also of Philadelphia. The balloon, which was built by Leo Stevens, has a capacity of 35,000 cubic feet of gas, and is the property of the Pennsylvania Aero Club, under the auspices of which the trip was planned.

WHITE GIRLS IN CHINESE DENS

ST. LOUIS, Mo., August 21.—Police men made a spectacular raid on the Chop Suey restaurant here tonight and arrested Sadie Walden, 26 years old, her stepfather, Marguerite Helm, 17 years old, and Leon Ling, aged 30 years. The arrest was made at the plea of the girl's brother, who said the Chinese had lured the older girl there and was keeping her. Sadie Walden, when questioned, declared that she was the fiancée of the Chinese, and that her seventeen-year-old sister was there with her at her request. The police were refused admittance to the place, and entered by way of the roof of an adjoining three-story building. The Chinese was seeking to escape by the roof when he was caught. The friendship between Sadie Walden and the Chinese began in the Mission Sunday school, which she taught several years ago. With the fate of Elsie Siegel, formerly of St. Louis, fresh in the minds of the police, they decided not to take chances of letting the girls remain under the influence of the Chinese.

OWNERS OF steam schooners and other coasting vessels on the Coast which carry passengers and are not already equipped with a wireless service, are installing now. The new law requiring all passenger carrying coasters to have a wireless equipment goes into effect October 1st. A large number of ship owners, however, are waiting until the last minute to comply with the law. Some of the steam schooners and smaller crafts which have done a small business in the transportation of passengers will give up the passenger trade rather than put in the wireless and will operate exclusively as freighters.

EARLY TOMORROW morning the fleet ship Mauna Kea of the Inter-Island fleet will arrive from Hilo, via Lahaina, Maui. It is expected H. M. Kanibo, the Cannon Ball of Kohala, who has been sizing up the political situation on Hawaii, will be among the arrivals. THERE ARE two hundred cabin passengers on the transport Logan now en route from San Francisco to Honolulu. The ship also carries 600 men and four batteries of artillery. The Logan carries a full cargo of Filipino money in her specie tanks. THE DENSE smoke from the big forest fires in the northwest has seriously interfered with navigation on Puget Sound. The smoke was so thick at times that vessels had to practically feel their way with the lead line.

ON SUNDAY morning, the steamer Mikahala will return from Lanai, Lahaina and Molokai ports. It is expected that she will bring sheep from Lanai, consigned to the Honolulu Meat Market. THIS AFTERNOON at 5 o'clock the steamer Claudine will leave for Lahaina, Kahului, Hana on Maui, and Hilo and Laupahoehoe on Hawaii. She is due to return to her port next Wednesday morning. THE STEAMER W. G. Hall sailed at 5 o'clock last night for Kauai ports with a number of passengers and cargo. She will return early next Wednesday morning. THE U. S. REVENUE Cutter Golden Gate has been converted into an oil burner. She will be placed in commission on the Coast in about a week. THE BRITISH bark Kilburn has gone ashore near Newcombe and is considered a total loss. The Kilburn was bound from London to Oregon.

FROM KAUALI, the steamer Kinau will come in early tomorrow morning with passengers. She will bring a full load of sugar from plantations. ONE OF the big log rafts which are being towed down the California coast has arrived at its destination. THE BARKENTINE S. G. Wilder departed from San Francisco today bound for Mahukoua. THE S. S. ENTERPRISE is reported as arriving at San Francisco today, she left Hilo Aug. 30. THE A. H. S. Nebraska is now en route with a general cargo of freight for New York. THE BARK Andrew

TRENT ATTACKS ADVERTISER

lele lots which seventeen men of this city want for summer homes that the stories were written which criticized the action of the Board.

Member Trent's communication, which was spread on the minutes of the Board, follows:

"In the Daily Pacific Commercial Advertiser of Saturday, September 3, there appeared a news story which was apparently designed to impugn the motives of and cast discredit upon certain members of this board, and it is so palpably evident that the said story had its inspiration, if not its origin, in the office of the Commissioner of Public Lands, that I wish it to have a place in the records of this board." (This story deals with the action of the board at its last meeting, on the matter of the Kawaloalele lots.)

"In order that the true facts of the case may appear of record, I beg to state them, and if I am in any respect mistaken in my statement of the facts I will be obliged to any member of the board who will be kind enough to correct me.

"(1.) There is no ground whatever for the insinuation that the meeting was held without proper notice, and 'unexpectedly.' When the meeting of the Monday afternoon previous was adjourned, it was agreed and announced that the next meeting should be held on Thursday night, September 1, at 8 o'clock p. m., and it was so held.

"(2.) After the reading of the minutes of the meeting at which permission was voted to allow the putting up at auction of the Kawaloalele tract, Mr. Trent stated that he had read in the papers that twenty-five of the residents of the district had applied for the land on the homestead plan, and asked Commissioner Campbell, who was present, if this were true. Mr. Campbell replied that it was, but that the applications had been withdrawn. Mr. Trent thereupon remarked that he recalled the fact that when the lands were first voted for auction very enthusiastic stories appeared in the press concerning their desirability as beach homes, etc., but that when it was announced that homestead applications were in for the same lands the printed stories were very different; and it seemed strange to him that so many homestead applications were being withdrawn, and he thought that the board ought to make an investigation on its own account of the circumstances of this particular case before the lots were auctioned off; and he therefore moved a reconsideration of the former action of the board respecting these particular lands until such investigation could be made. With very little discussion, this motion was put and unanimously carried, not a dissenting voice being raised.

"Thereupon Commissioner Campbell, uninvited, arose and announced in an impatient tone that the lots in question would be put up in January on the homestead plan, and uttered a veiled threat to the effect that if the applicants whose petition had resulted in this action of the board did not make good on the homestead proposition, they would hereafter receive no consideration from the land office, or words to that effect.

"The chairman announced that nothing further need be done, since Mr. Campbell had announced that the land would be homesteaded, thus taking it out of the hands of the Land Board. And Mr. Campbell's action had the further effect, whether so intended or not, of forestalling any investigation on the part of the board as to the reasons for the withdrawal of the homestead petitions."

"Now, Mr. Chairman and gentlemen, in order that you may judge for yourselves whether I am right or not in assuming that the inspiration for the news story that has furnished the basis for these remarks found its inspiration in the land office, I beg to be allowed to submit portions of two other published reports from the Advertiser of August 9 and from the Advertiser of August 17.

"Mr. Campbell's admission in this last article that only eight applications had been received for the upwards of 1000 homesteads that he had prepared to offer, while hundreds of applications had been received for other lands, may possibly suggest to some minds that the department, though probably obeying the letter of the law, is not offering the people what they want. In providing for the formation of this Board of Public Lands, and fixing its duties and powers, Congress plainly showed a lack of confidence in the administration of our public lands; and after three months of close observation and careful study of the subject I feel convinced in my own mind that if the common people (by which I mean ordinary folks as opposed to special interests) are to get a square deal they must get it through this body—and therefore our responsibility is great.

"If the people of this Territory are to get a square deal in land matters it must be through this Board," concluded Trent.

"What do you wish done, about this matter," questioned Brown.

"Nothing at all except to spread my statement and this newspaper story on the minutes of the Board," said Trent, and this was done by motion of Judge Andrade.

One of the stories referred to by Trent spoke of faked homestead petitions and brought in Andrade's name, to which that gentleman pleaded ignorance of anything of the kind. Report from Attorney General Lind say was read relative to the exchange of public land for that privately owned. The opinion was that such an exchange could be made lawfully only when the private land was necessary for public uses, and could not be made for mere convenience.

Then Brown brought up the question of the expense attached to advertising in the opening of lands.

The decree of the Board passed when it was first organized was that all lands for sale, lease or exchange should be advertised once a week for seven consecutive weeks in three languages in Honolulu and the district in which the lands were located.

This procedure said Brown was making terrifying bills and it was his opinion, as well as that of Governor Frear with whom he had discussed the matter, that some method must be found to make this less expensive.

He suggested that as the papers of Honolulu had general circulation in the Territory that the advertisements should run in these papers alone and clippings from them be sent to sub-agents of the land office for posting in their districts.

It was the opinion of both Trent and Andrade that expense ought to be curtailed, the amount spent so far on advertising the first lots to be opened being more than five hundred dollars.

After discussing the matter for some time Andrade made a motion that a new resolution be prepared by Brown amending the former one and providing for publication in Honolulu in three languages and distribution of these notices.

Here again the discussion came back to the sand lots at Kawaloalele by Campbell introducing a statement which had been made by two of the men who had applied for homesteads there.

In this statement they said that they wanted a small piece of land near the shore where they could have a hut and dry their fishing nets. They did not want to live on the land permanently, nor to cultivate it for it would grow nothing.

Campbell said that he did not think the lots should be thrown open to homestead as they were not fit for that purpose.

Trent thought that under the circumstances sale was the proper thing, but that the Board should first investigate for their own information.

Andrade was in favor of immediate sale and then Brown said that he had some curiosity to see the lots himself and talk with the men who had asked for homesteads.

Campbell offered the use of two machines for the Board to make the trip and it was decided that the members should start at one o'clock on the 17th for a special investigation of their own and meet the Hawaiians on the other side for a conference.

Next came up the Kapaa leases and for the remainder of the evening the Board seesawed back and forth on these matters.

No objection had ever been made to the granting of these leases and the water rights, but the members thought they knew only a little about the proposition.

In that event Brown thought a reading of the proposed Kapaa lease would be of benefit to all concerned and he proceeded to wade through the legal and other verbiage of a large number of pages, stopping now and then to tell the other members of the Board his version of what the lease really meant.

At the conclusion of the reading Trent thought that action should be deferred until the next meeting as he thought none of the members knew enough of the proposition to vote intelligently upon it.

It was at this point that Andrade suggested bedtime, telling Brown that everyone in the room had yawned at least twice during the past half hour.

"We have accomplished nothing here tonight, and I suggest that we hold afternoon meetings two or three times each week in addition to the Thursday evening meeting in order that we may dispose of some of these matters accumulating before us and get caught up with the work."

"Since this Board was organized it has not disposed of more than six matters finally, and something must be done to get rid of the large amount of work accumulating every week before us."

In this connection Campbell stated that his office was tied up in many matters waiting action of the Board and that there were many other propositions to be submitted as soon as they had disposed of a few more still before them.

The afternoon session culminated considerable discussion and it was finally decided to adjourn to this afternoon at four o'clock and hold a two hour session to try to clear up some of the pending matters.

FRIDAY SEPTEMBER 9, 1910

Every day should be distinguished by at least one particular act of love.—Lavater.

Remember that the only hope of the local Democracy is to profit by Republican mistakes.

This is "unusual summer weather," but we get something very much like it most every September.

Federal control of conservation is all right if a man who can be trusted is in control of the conservation end of the Federal administration.

Republican Insurgents should not lack fair representation on the party ticket, when they deserve the credit for leading the party reformation.

Take notice of the organization make-up. To send good candidates into a campaign managed by an indifferent organization is like driving lambs to a slaughter.

Deacon Trent would do better to wait till after the election if he wants the people to place absolute confidence in the sincerity of his righteous indignation.

Holding a commanding position at the cross roads of Pacific ocean commerce, Hawaii can't find a better investment than appropriations for the construction of wharves in its principal ports.

Col. Roosevelt picked Senator Lorimer for the goat, because he deserves all he gets and it gave Roosevelt an opportunity to keep clear of the fight against his great and good friend Joe Cannon.

Why is it that accidents in the fire rooms and the engine rooms of our warships are so much more numerous than in the merchant ships? Do the navy men take longer chances or don't they know how?

There will be those present at the convention tonight who may have an axe or two to grind. Though they may hide the axe under their coat the handle will be sticking out for the guidance of the delegates.

Let the legislative and municipal campaign be as warm as it pleases, it can't hurt business. But any serious threat of Democratic success in the Territorial campaign will make business depression a certainty.

Republicans should declare for municipal control of the water works. The property owners object to taking any more chances with Territorial officers scheming to increase taxation without giving the people representation.

When private individuals can borrow money to build wharves and make a profit on the investment, there remains no very good reason why the Territory should not build its own wharves and control the waterfront of its harbors.

Alfred Castle is a candidate for the House of Representatives whose selection should not be made subject to the geographical divisions of the Fifth District. The welfare of the people and the success of the party demand men willing and able to do the legislative work, whether a particular precinct furnishes one candidate or fourteen.

When Panama threatens an anti-American administration, the representative of our Government intimates that it cannot be allowed. Our own citizens should remember that there are some things the Federal Government will not allow in Hawaii, but it expects the good judgment of the people to forestall the necessity of Federal officers speaking out in meeting.

Russians have been very successful in providing a trip to Hawaii for Federal officials who will come here to learn what is already known. This being done of course at public expense.

TO THE CANDIDATES.

Members of the County and District Convention will go to their duties this evening with the largest array of candidates that has ever been presented to a similar convention in this city.

It is most gratifying that these candidates are, as a whole, mighty good men, representative men in whose hands the administration of the city, and the work of the Legislature, would be very safe.

The situation presents a fair field and no favor. The convention will be unbiased, though there are persons hanging around on the outside who are scheming to jam several personal schemes down the throats of the delegates. These parasites are constant quantities but the Bulletin believes that the delegates have enough good sense to handle the situation.

With the large list of candidates offering it is obvious that the largest percentage must fall by the wayside. Consequently it is necessary for the men seeking the honor of a nomination to go into the contest with their feelings schooled in good natured readiness to accept the result whether it is for or against their personal fortunes.

In other words, the candidates who must go to defeat should set the pace of party enthusiasm by retaining their interest and continuing their work up to the day of election, for the success of the whole ticket. Men appealing for party favor who cannot accept the verdict of their associates are not of the material that the party should be anxious to put before the people in the management of public affairs.

Let every candidate pledge himself to join the active working force of the campaign whether he be selected as a party nominee or not. With such a spirit prevailing there can be no such word as fall in the Republican vocabulary this fall.

REPUBLICANS AND LOCAL CONTROL.

Republican County platform declarations will naturally include a presentation of the efficiency of the Republican city and county administration and at the same time voice the general public sentiment for taking over from the Territory certain departments of public service that are logically included under municipal control.

The Honolulu water works system should by all means come under the administration of the city and county of Honolulu, and provision should be made for the city to assume the indebtedness that has been incurred for the upbuilding of the water works plant. This city is able to conduct the water works and provide for the upkeep in a manner that will meet the demands of a growing and enterprising town.

The adjustment of this transfer should be considered sufficient for one biennial period.

In the circles of some disgruntled factionalists, there is a proposal to turn the administration of the health department over to the counties. Such a move is certain to result in failure.

This is a matter in which the Federal government would take an immediate interest, with its moral influence thrown against any such action. If the people went too far, the moral influence would take the form of very decided orders.

It must be remembered that the islands are still very much under Federal supervision. While the Federal administration is, generally speaking, favorable to the development of local self government, its position is toned with a distinct spirit of conservatism on health matters. This city is the outpost for the commerce of the whole

MANY ACRES FOR HOMESTEADS

During the Past Month Lands Have Been Divided.

"During the past month a thousand acres of good sugar land has been put on the homestead list, and this land would be taken gladly by any sugar company at $250,000 if it was for sale," said Superintendent Campbell of the bureau of public works this morning.

The work of opening land for homesteads has been going merrily on, and applications for additional lands to be opened have been received in every mail.

This thousand acres of which Campbell spoke this morning is all on Hawaii, 400 being at Kau, 300 at Kulamano and 300 at Kilihani.

In addition to this good land now ready for homestead purposes, 1500 acres more were surveyed and divided into lots during the month, so that really there are more than 2500 acres which were prepared for homestead during the past month.

Other lands are ready for survey and will be divided up as soon as surveyors can get on them, and by the end of another month there will be several thousand acres prepared for the settlers.

It was nearly eleven o'clock before Angelina was excused and then her mother was put on the stand testifying that the child was born in Porto Rico October 1, 1898, and to other pertinent points in the story told by the child.

The mother was still on the stand when court adjourned at noon.

AN OPPORTUNITY
Every man who engages in business takes a chance—the farmer's crop may fail; the ship may sink; even your life insurance is a gamble. Some gambles are even chances; some have odds in your favor. A gamble in Lakeview No. 2 oil company would be $1000 to $1 in your favor. Any man with intelligence takes a chance and develops into a globe-trotter or tourist and lives on Easy street; the other man who didn't still a clerk at his old job. John D. ### INSPECTED CALIFORNIA OIL FIELDS

James L. Hill in an interview stated that he had a very interesting trip through Southern California and had visited a great aggregation of oil wells. He studied conditions carefully and was greatly surprised at the magnitude of the oil industry. One cannot form an adequate idea of the wonderful resources.

What about overproduction? "That is all nonsense; we need fuel that is better and easier to handle than coal and as fast as California can produce the oil, it will be consumed by the world's commerce. It is necessary for the stability of this industry to have not alone a large number of producing wells, but also a large storage for this precious oil to assure a steady supply."

I fully believe in the great future of the California oil. Millions of dollars are now seeking investments in the greatest money making industry in the world.

I have visited every oil field in this state and upon request, have made a specialty of the oil fields of those companies, whose stocks have been sold here by the Lincoln Mortgage & Loan Company, as Templo Ranch, Jewell, Ventura, etc., and I must say that their properties are alright. Some may have a fancy for one and some for another company, but all in all, I tell you these stocks are alright and you cannot help making money by investing in them. Every one of them is beyond the prospective stage and all are producers. That is far more than can be said of a lot of oil companies in which Honolulu people are interested.

Illigent inquiries about the personnel of the Lincoln Mortgage & Loan Co. has convinced me that I can feel safe in placing my money in companies with which they are associated.

STRIKE OF AIRMEN THREATENS GERMANY

BERLIN, August 29. — Strong indignation is expressed by German flyingmen at the police regulations for aeroplanists issued in a special edition of the Berlin Gazette by the Oberpresident of the city of Brandenburg. Sixteen of the leading German airmen are assembled at the Johnsthal flying-ground, practicing. They expressed themselves as strong opponents of this "attempt to fetter the freedom of the air." The new regulations are as follows:

"Ascents with aeroplanes for exhibition flights at flying-grounds and for cross-country flights are only permitted for holders of a pilot certificate under the rules of the International Aeronautic Federation.

"Promoters of exhibition flights or cross-country flights must give three days' notice in advance to the local police responsible for the flying-ground or the starting point of the cross-country flight.

"In cross-country flights flying over towns and villages is forbidden. In exhibition flights the boundaries of the aerodrome must not be passed.

"Offenses against these regulations, when not liable to a higher penalty under other laws, are punishable by fines of not more than $15."

Herr Wenzler, who made a striking flight round the spire of Strasbourg cathedral last May, said: "These regulations are absurd. The police of Germany seem to be trying to do all they can to hinder the progress of airmanship. We intend to send a protest from the airmen assembled here to the Oberpresident, and if that fails, the world may see the first strike of airmen."

TREATMENT OF RHEUMATISM

Should Be Directed Toward Restoring the Blood to Its Normal Condition.

Every Sufferer Will Be Interested in This Case at Snohomish, Wash., Which Was Cured by the Use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

In an attack of rheumatism the blood is rendered thin and weak with amazing rapidity.

The treatment of the disease should be directed towards restoring the blood to its normal strength, for unless it is pure, rich and red the rheumatic poisons can not be driven from the system. The experience of thousands of sufferers has been that there is no better blood builder than Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They quickly enrich and purify the blood and make a permanent cure. While using the pills a light nourishing diet should be taken, and exposure to cold, dampness and draughts avoided.

The cure of Miss Marguerite Hall, of Snohomish, Wash., by this treatment, was recently described by her mother, Mrs. G. S. Hall, as follows:

"A few years ago my daughter, Marguerite, was suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism. Her limbs were swollen to about twice their normal size and the pains extended from the knees to the feet. The pains were constant and were so intense that I could scarcely move her.

"I applied liniments and bandaged the limbs for some time but there was no improvement. I finally bought a few boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The pills helped her very quickly and I gave them to her until she was entirely cured. She has not had an attack since. I may also say that I have used the pills to build up my system. I shall always be grateful for the benefit Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have given us."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are guaranteed to be free from opiates or harmful drugs.

If you are interested in the remedy that cured Miss Hall, write today for a copy of the new edition of our book on "Rheumatism of the Blood." It contains information that may save you money and suffering.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

AEROPLANE THE CAVALRY OF THE FUTURE WARS

Army Expert Declares That It Is an Easy Matter to Fire From an Airship.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—That a battalion of aeroplane sharpshooters will take the place of cavalry in the army of the future is the conviction of Lieutenant Joseph Fitchel, U. S. A., who has been assigned by the War Department to conduct a series of aeroplane experiments with Glenn H. Curtiss at Sheepshead Bay.

"My first flight," said Lieutenant Fitchel in a preliminary report, "was to find out if it would be possible to aim a rifle from the air craft. I found it to be easier than it is when riding a horse.

"When I went up for the succeeding flight I had my rifle loaded with the regulation .30 caliber bullet. It was easy for me to sight a target in the middle of the field, and, although I had to steady the rifle on one of the aeroplane's supports, it was not difficult to fire.

"From a military standpoint the aeroplane is a most powerful machine."

PARIS, Aug. 23.—The striking success of the series of military aeroplane skirmishes and scouting maneuvers executed after the Rheims aviation meeting and during the big cross-country race just concluded, has decided the French War Department to undertake the test of air machines at the general army maneuvers on the Plains of Picardy.

RECREATIONS

FAILURE TO APPEAR NOT MANAGER'S FAULT

Manager Overend is receiving undue censure from some of his chance patrons who are not aware of the facts in an incident connected with his moving picture theatre, the Empire. During the week it was announced that Miss Canfield the violinist, would be on the program there this week. Miss Canfield did appear at the Empire one night under a tentative agreement to sign a contract to appear there for an extended engagement. When she left the theatre at the close of her first appearance it was virtually understood that she would sign a contract the following day, so says Mr. Overend. But behold, tentative agreements are not binding, at least not with vaudeville stars in this town of Honolulu where amusement men are always hotly in search of such stars and Miss Canfield was tempted, induced, or persuaded to sign a contract with a competing recreation provider for five nights.

The Empire could have stood the loss without complaint or explanation excepting that in the interval preceding the signing of the contract—which was not signed—the Empire's press agent visited the newspapers and gave out the information that Miss Canfield was engaged to entertain the Empire audiences. The papers heralded the information to all the town. On this account more than one of Miss Canfield's admirers have visited the Empire this week expecting to hear the violinist, and have left when they did not, with a few remarks in critical tones on the fallacy of believing what you read in the papers and the statements of amusement men in particular. Hence this explanation. Can you blame Mr. Overend the newspapers or Miss Canfield, for that matter, if she got more money with a chance of getting more at the end of her short term contract?

Anyway the Empire show is very good this week and the complaints have only been made by the staunch admirers of Miss Canfield, the regular Empire patrons realizing that they were getting a much better show than usual even if they did not hear Miss Canfield. The singing of Miss Rockwell the California nightingale compensates alone for anything else that they may have expected before going. And it will do the same for you.

MARENA HIMSELF AGAIN.

Connie Marena has only two errors and has made a dozen hits since he struck Honolulu and last night he hit out one that ought to count for a home run with the Park management. He made his appearance last night in a dress suit at first, he was first seen here and he relied alone on his lines and his powers as comedian to win the laughter of the crowd—and did so. Marena is a comedian who is at his best when not in grotesque make-up. Honolulu audiences are critical and when they see an actor who depends alone on natural ability, they are quick to applaud, but at the introduction of "slap stick" methods or coarse "stage business" of any kind, they are just as quick to criticize. Let Marena depend alone on his natural talent and he will be rated as one of the best comedians Honolulu has ever been entertained by. Stross is a wonder with his cornet, and his cello playing is quite above the average of players who come to Hawaii. He is an all round good musician, who should make as big a hit on the mainland as he has here. Harvard and Franklin are, as usual, great hits, and as the weather is warm and the program good the place is crowded every night.

THE NOVELTY.

Tisdale is to sing "Just a Word of Consolation" and "Miss Malinda" at the Novelty. He has a great voice, and a number of people who patronize the Novelty would like to hear him sing that old English ballad, "Sally in Our Alley." He has the voice for it and could do it justice. Wise and Milton will do a little stunt called "Rushing the Can; or the Revenge of the Kakaako Maiden." It is a soul-stirring comedy that means laughter from start to finish. These are royal tumblers, and no one ever goes to see and hear them without coming away well satisfied. The pictures at the Novelty are always good.

GOOD MUSIC AT ART.

Miss Canfield the violinist and Anderson the pianist are appearing together at the Art Theatre. Mr. Lawson has been fortunate in securing the services of this team and the patrons of the Art are enjoying a treat in listening to these clever musicians.

Mrs. W. L. Melanick of Chicago took carbolic acid and died at Stretcher, Ill., while officials were waiting to take her to the station house on the charge of assault with intent to kill her husband.

COUNTRY CLUB. MEETING HELD LAST NIGHT

INSTITUTION IS IN GOOD FLOURISHING CONDITION

Many New Members Have Joined During Year—Bowling Green Is Suggested—May Challenge Coast Club.

Last night at the Young Hotel roof garden, the Oahu Country Club held its annual meeting, and everything went off well. Officers for the ensuing year were elected, and other business attended to. The matter of the Stewart Cup competition came up, and a suggestion was made that the trophy be offered for an open tournament. This was soon squelched, as the cup had been donated by Mr. Stewart as a small token of the esteem in which he held the members of the Country Club who had treated him so hospitably while he was in the Territory.

The chairman of the house committee, J. D. Dougherty, read his report to the meeting, and it contained some encouraging announcements. There had been a larger attendance at the clubhouse during last year than during any other like period. Many entertainments had been given, and numbers of dinners and luncheons were enjoyed at the club. This latter feature was a great success, as most people who went up to the club on Sundays stayed all day and had a good time. According to the report, the club is in a flourishing condition, and the membership roll is longer than ever before. Many new members have joined and much interest was taken in the competitions that were promoted during the year.

There was some talk at the meeting of establishing a bowling green, and the matter seemed to find favor with those who have had the pleasure of rolling a bowl up to a "jack" on a billiard-table like green. The game of bowls is one of the best, as far as skill and brains go, and if the game were established here there would be a great rush of men who find tennis and golf too strenuous.

Early in the season there was much deliberation over a proposed amendment that extended to members the right to transfer stock in the club to their children. Every one joining the club has to purchase one share of stock direct from the club, and then there is no initiation fee charged.

The certificates were made non-transferable, for otherwise members could turn their stock over to outsiders, who would become members without contributing to the funds of the club.

When the club started, many members loaded up with more than the twenty shares that were thought to be the maximum number allowed to one man. These people were enthusiastic over the club, and wanted to help it along. Now they wish to transfer some of the shares to their children. This privilege was granted on the understanding that all members are alike, but that the shares can only be transferred to children of members, and that these sons and heirs must be over sixteen years of age.

Another proposal that was made early in the evening was that the Honolulu Country Club issue a challenge to the San Francisco Golf Club. This matter will be considered later on, as it would be a good bit of promotion work for Hawaii if brought to a head.

ROWING CLUBS WILL ISSUE INVITATIONS Only Specially Invited Guests Allowed in Boat-houses.

It has been decided, as predicted in yesterday's Bulletin, that the Healanis and Myrtles will not keep open house at their clubs on Regatta Day. The population of the city is too large for that sort of thing nowadays, and the only way to do things is to issue cards or badges to the friends of the members who are invited to assemble at the club-houses. There is plenty of room for all the thousands who want to see the races from the waterfront, and the boatsheds themselves should be reserved for special guests, as is the way all the world over.

The Healanis will issue badges of the club colors, and it is expected that the Myrtles will do the same. The idea is a good one, and it will make the day all the more enjoyable for the guests of the club, who will be able to sit around comfortably without being crowded by a bunch of free lunchers who gobble up all the refreshments in sight and leave none for the people who were specially invited to partake of them.

NO NEW SCHEDULE FOR OAHU LEAGUE Another Meeting Next Thursday to Arrange Matter.

There was no meeting last night to speak of at the offices of Charlie Chillingworth. The Oahu League wanted to see W. W. Harris, and get an accounting from him with regard to the Waseda series, but Harris is a busy man nowadays, and he did not turn up at the meeting. The consequence was that no action was taken by the league in regard to the arranging of the second series of the Athletic Park games.

It is getting late in the year, and something should be done to settle up the affairs of the league and get the games going. Otherwise the Oahu League will be up against the same kind of a proposition as they were last year, when the attendance fell away to almost nil and the games were a farce.

Dr. Hand is in favor of having a team of athletes from Hawaii visit the mainland and compete against the stars. The question of the amateur status of the Honolulu men has to be settled first, however, and that will not be for some time to come.

SAINTS VS. PUNS. ALUMNI TEAMS SHOULD MEET

LAST GAME DID NOT DECIDE MATTERS

Public Wants to See Special Series Between Teams—2 to 1 Score and Bad Umpiring Prove Nothing Say Puns.

There is the usual squabble going on about the respective merits of the Saints and Puns, and all lovers of clean sport would like to see the two teams get together for a special series. It is all poppycock for the Saints to allege that they are too good for the Puns, as was stated in Thursday's morning paper. A 2 to 1 score does not convince anybody, and the fact that a bum decision was given when Hampton was called out at third, on Saturday last, does not help any.

The Saints are a good bunch of players, but they are no better than the Puns—that is, it remains to be proved. The Puns are ready to take on the Saints for a special series, and the proposition should go through. People want to see baseball at the league grounds, and the only hope—outside of importing a lot of ball-players from the mainland—of getting the game going properly is to interest the fans in some series such as is mooted between the Saints and Puns.

There have been all sorts of kicks registered about the umpire who officiated at the last game between the Puns and Saints, and statements have been made to the effect that that official "had it in" for two of the Punahou players. Yesterday the Puns were talking freely of the subject, and they feel that they should have another go at the Saints.

But, taking it any way one pleases, baseball is in a bad way in this town; the junior games are not worth bothering much about, and the "big" league does not seem able to draw a decent-sized crowd. There has been too much baseball, all the year round, and the game is nearly killed. There is one chance of getting the public interested, and that is to have the two best teams in Honolulu—the Saints and Puns—battle out a series to finish up the year with.

Next year someone with sporting blood should import some fast men from the Coast, and then the fans would go out to see them in action, and the local game would be improved a lot by the introduction of new blood.

Lieutenant Bowen and several civilians did a great tramp over the Koolau range on Sunday last, and they claim that they went higher than did the Company H men, when they did their hike some weeks ago. Bowen reached the 2,600 elevation and saw the soldiers' trail below.

BRODERICK WAITING FOR MATCH RACE Copit Will Be Fit and Ready About October First

Jerry Broderick is anxiously awaiting an answer to his challenge to race his mare, Copit, against any other horse in the Territory. Jerry bars none and will make the proposition look better by laying $500 to $400 that his mare wins. The race would have to be over a three-quarter-mile distance, and around about the first week in October would be the best time for the event. Broderick is starting to get Copit into condition, and the mare is already looking well. Copit did remarkably well at the Kahului races on July Fourth, and she was then in magnificent condition.

Horse racing is attracting much attention nowadays, and the time is ripe for some man or company to get in and arrange for a track, where two or three meetings a year could be pulled off. Broderick can be found at the Territory Stables, and anyone with a horse that he thinks fast enough, can have a match with Copit.

DOTS AND DASHES.

The boxers are not doing much now-a-days and there is a dull expression in the faces of the fight fans. If Dick Cullen comes along on the next boat from Australia there may be some thing doing in the way of bouts but at present there is nothing much happening.

There were quite a number of oarsmen out on the harbor yesterday afternoon and the scull at the boatsheds was an animated one.

GIRLS STAY, BATHERS SHIVER

SANTA BARBARA, August 28. Experts on aquatic diversions all agree that a healthful swim should not last more than twenty minutes, and that to remain in the water more than an hour is inviting rheumatism and other ailments. Just think what is in store then for young Charles Kendall, son of H. T. Kendall, a Pasadena multi-millionaire, and Harry Norton, who were in the icy waters of the Pacific yesterday afternoon for five hours. It was not of their own volition that the young men broke the rules of scientific teaching.

They were marooned, so to speak, because modesty which would not permit them to leave the breakers while four women gazed upon them from the beach. Had they possessed bathing suits they would have escaped the terrible chilling, but going into the ocean four miles north of the city, where no houses adorn the strand, they felt perfectly safe in stripping to the skin and enjoying a dip without the cumbersome garments.

Dash Back into Ocean. After probably half an hour of frolic the two men began to get cold and started for shore, when to their chagrin they espied a quartet of young ladies on the bank, having come evidently for a beach tea party. Frankly the young men dashed back into the ocean, confident that the unwelcome visitors would soon leave. But an hour and then another slipped away with the girls enjoying the breezes and apparently oblivious of the bathers. And they were sitting within a few feet of the young man's clothes.

Girls Refuse to Leave. Shivering from the bitter cold, both Kendall and Norton finally became desperate and made pathetic appeals to the girls to go home. The efforts were in vain and the sun had gone down before they made a move. The young men had been in the water for about five hours, and declare they were nearly frozen to death.

It was learned today that the reason the girls did not comply with the requests was because they were a quartet of nudes and had no idea what the bathers wanted, thinking their wild gesticulations were accompanying invitations to join them in the surf.

Four persons were killed and three injured when a south-bound passenger train on the Chicago & Erie railroad struck an automobile at a crossing near Rochester, Ind.

CONSERVATION BY FEDERAL CONTROL

(Associated Press Cable.)

ST. PAUL, Sept. 8.—The conservation congress has adopted a platform declaring emphatically for the control of all natural resources of the nation by the Federal government, and this in the face of a strong movement for control by States of the natural resources within each State.

The fight for State control was led energetically by Short of Fresno, who was most vigorously attacked by Pardee, who delivered a speech supporting the complete control of all national natural resources by the United States Government as best fulfilling the idea of effective conservation as originally outlined by ex-President Roosevelt.

Henry also spoke for Federal management of this great scheme, receiving an ovation upon the completion of his telling address.

Henry Wallace of Des Moines was elected president of the congress, Pinchot having declined.

The congress has adjourned.

OVATION FOR ROOSEVELT

(Associated Press Cable.)

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 8.—Colonel Roosevelt was the guest of honor this evening at the banquet given by the Hamilton Club of this city, receiving such an ovation as has seldom been accorded a public speaker, when, in forceful and fearless terms, he undertook to hurl a scathing denunciation at the heads of those responsible for political corruption in this State.

The ex-President had at first refused to attend the great banquet arranged especially in his honor, stating as his reason for so doing that he would not be a guest at any function to which United States Senator Lorimer had been invited.

He declared in a notification to the committee in charge that he would not be present if Lorimer was a guest. Thereupon the committee decided to withdraw the invitation which had been issued to Lorimer, Roosevelt thereafter accepting the hospitality of the club.

Senator Lorimer is charged with last year having secured his present office by bribing members of the Illinois Legislature, several members having confessed to having received sums of money for voting for him.

EXPOSITION BILLS PASSED.

(Associated Press Cable.)

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Sept. 8.—The exposition bills have passed the Legislature. The Governor, in addressing the lawmakers of the State, highly complimented the solons for the work accomplished. Formal adjournment will occur tomorrow.

BUYO MAKES QUEER MOVE

Late Wednesday afternoon, the Toyo freighter Buyo Maru, which left this port for Yokohama, Japan, made some queer movements when heading towards Barber's Point.

It was just before dark when the Japanese freighter, in command of Captain Hashimoto, made a sudden stop, directly makai of the entrance to Pearl Harbor. After stopping for a while, she turned about and steamed back towards Diamond Head. At first she moved slowly, but she increased speed as she passed outside of Quarantine Island.

No sooner had she done this than she steamed out for open sea, until she gradually disappeared beyond the horizon. No one along the waterfront seems to understand the queer move of the vessel.

ESTRADA WILL KEEP PEACE

Personal Note From the Victor to His Confidential Agent in Washington.

BLUEFIELDS, August 27.—General Juan J. Estrada of the Provisional Government of Nicaragua is sending to Dr. Salvador Castriello, his personal representative in the United States, a note setting forth the policy of the new Administration.

In it he will pronounce for the re-establishment of the finances of the country, the elimination of Zelayaism, the abolition of private privilege and concessions and complete compliance with the terms of the Washington Convention, aiming to put a stop to the perpetual revolutions in the Central American states, and encroachments by one State upon another. In the note it is understood he pledges himself to free elections to the Presidency of Nicaragua, to be held within six months.

General Estrada, with other leaders of the revolution, desires the appointment as Minister to Nicaragua of Thomas P. Moffat, the American Consul at Bluefields. The retirement of the Madrid steamer Venus has terminated hostilities on the Atlantic coast.

MANAGUA, August 27.—Jose Dolores Estrada, to whom President Madrid turned over the administration of the Nicaraguan Government before fleeing the country today, retired from the Presidency in favor of General Luis Mena, who was designated by him as Acting President of the Republic. This change of administration was in accordance with instructions from Estrada's brother, General Juan J. Estrada, the head of the Provisional Government and leader of the successful revolution against Madrid.

General Mena immediately took possession of the Presidential mansion. President Mena arrived at Managua last night accompanied by his staff and camped on the penitentiary grounds. On being informed of his presence there, General Chamorro, commander-in-chief of the army, appointed Dr. Pedro Gomez to confer with Jose Estrada. Half an hour before midnight, Dr. Gomez and Jose Estrada signed an agreement to turn over full control of the Government to General Mena this morning.

General Juan Estrada arrived at Granada at 3:20 o'clock yesterday afternoon. One of the first acts of the Acting President was to appoint a committee to go to Granada and escort the triumphant leader of the revolution to the capital.

The agreement signed last night provides that the free elections for the Presidency, which according to the proposals of the Commission of Conciliation, should occur within six months, shall be held within a year from the present.

GIRL WILL FLY ON KITE.

Sister of Aviator Willard Is to Attempt Daring Feat.

BOSTON, Aug. 28.—If present arrangements are carried out, the Harvard-Boston automobile meet, next month, will witness the attempted flight of a person on a kite. The daring aviator to attempt this flight will be Miss Emily T. Willard, daughter of W. A. P. Willard, director of the Harvard Aero Club, and a sister of Charles F. Willard, the aviator. Miss Willard will ascend on Samuel Wilkins' man-carrying aeroplane kite, which is now on the aviation grounds. Miss Willard has made several ascensions with her brother, and is firm in her belief that she can perform the dare-devil feat.

WILLIAM BARNES, JR., READY FOR BIG POLITICAL BATTLE.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—Each day the political situation in New York State becomes more interesting because of the charges and countercharges of the "old guard" and Colonel Roosevelt. One day there is a report that William Barnes Jr., known as an up state boss, has decided to place the former President's name at the head of the ticket this fall, and the next day such a report is denied. The fact remains that Mr. Barnes is taking a prominent part in the talk of the politicians and is declared to be ready for any kind of a fight that Colonel Roosevelt believes necessary for the control of the Republican votes.

Short Stories For Evening Hours

HIS LAPSE OF MEMORY.

When she saw the girl in the doorway the girl kneeling before the fireplace exclaimed, "Why, Isabel! How did you get in?" "I ran right in," exclaimed the newcomer, sinking into a chair, because I was sure I smelled something burning. I supposed the house was on fire. The maid was scrubbing the front steps and she must have thought me crazy. What on earth are you building a fire for on a hot day like this?"

The girl at the fireplace threw a handful of letters on the little flame which she had kindled. "Oh, this isn't a fire," she said; "it's a funeral."

"So that's it!" laughed Isabel. "Well, who is the man? And, Edith, why couldn't you have told me of your engagement in some other manner than this—letting me run into the house as though I were a thief or a maniac, just because you are having one of those bonfires which we always have on such occasions?" "You're wrong on the first guess," said Edith as she threw the last letter on the fire and turned to face her caller. "I've half a mind to tell you about it," she mused, "for it is an interesting story. If you'll promise never to tell—"

"I promise."

"Well, then, Isabel, do you remember anything about Jack Wheeler and me?" "What kind of memory do you think I have?" laughed Isabel. "Do I remember! Have I recovered yet from the nervous strain of trying to console Jack when you finally made him understand that you wouldn't marry him? And didn't I absolutely refuse to believe that he was engaged to someone else, until the wedding cards were out? It's two years ago, of course; but he was so madly in love with you that—"

"It happened yesterday afternoon," said Edith, interrupting the remarks of her friend. "I dropped in at Amy's and who should be there but Jack's wife! It was positively her first appearance in Chicago. It seems that her mother and Amy's mother were little girls together, or something like that. Anyway, there she was. Amy acted as if she wanted to laugh, or as if she were waiting for something very dramatic to happen. Jack's wife, however, seemed unconscious that I was anybody in particular."

"What is she like?" asked Isabel. "She is a nice little thing," said Edith, with the manner of one determined to be just. "But she isn't the kind of girl you would think Jack would admire."

"M-m-m," said Isabel, as she bent down, ostensibly to fasten her shoes, but really to hide a smile.

"No, she isn't the kind of girl you would think Jack would like, but she is very well bred and rather pretty in a quiet, demure way. We talked about the things that every one always talks about. Then in some way the conversation turned to names. I made my stock remark about the conveniences of having a name as odd as mine. Jack's wife then made her longest speech."

"You know my name was Smith," she said, "and for that reason any name of more than two syllables always seems strange to me. And you know your name is enough to surprise nearly any one on the first hearing. I agreed with her. Then she said: 'I've had a lurking fear that I didn't spell it right on the announcement cards. You see, Jack didn't write his list out for me, but simply told me the names.'"

"She seemed so earnest about it that I assured her the name was spelled correctly. As a matter of fact, it was. Then I laughed and said it was my first name, which certainly is common enough, that had been her undoing—she had changed my name to Edna."

"Well, what do you suppose she replied? 'That is a joke on Jack,' she said, 'for I asked him what your first name was and he said it was either Edna or Edith, he couldn't remember which. Then he thought a minute and said it was Edna.'"

"She must be a little cat," declared Isabel. "Also a remarkable little actress."

"I wonder," said Edith. "Still, she seemed so unconscious and so demure that I can hardly believe it. The changes are that Jack really did say that to her."

"Well, where do the letters come in?" demanded Isabel.

"Oh," said Edith, "they haven't much to do with it. You see, the way she said it was so perfect that I came away telling myself that it must all be a mistake about Jack's having been fond of me; that time had exaggerated to me the importance of that affair. So this morning I went down to the storeroom and hunted around for a box of old letters that I knew were there. A man seldom makes the same mistake twice unless he is a widower."

months, and why I didn't destroy them long ago I don't know. "I've spent hours reading them over, every one. And now I have burned them all, as your own eyes can testify. But in strict confidence, between ourselves, I don't mind telling you that at one time—and that not so very long ago—Jack Wheeler knew my name. And if it wasn't for shattering the faith of his little wife I'd advise her to call in a brain specialist for Jack. His sudden loss of memory must be a bad symptom."

"M-m-m," said Isabel. "There's nothing the matter with Jack. It's only that he has married a cat and an actress combined."

REVISION OF NEW TARIFF

Will Propose Changes in Disputed Schedules When Board of Experts Reports.

BEVERLY, Mass., August 30.—President Taft is determined that whatever inequalities exist in the Payne-Aldrich tariff law shall be adjusted with the least possible delay. This does not mean that any tariff revision is to be expected at the short session of Congress which will convene in December next. But if the Congress which is to be elected at the November elections shall remain in the control of the Republican party, there is a lively prospect that by the time it convenes in December, 1911, the President will have definite recommendations with reference to a revision of one or two of the schedules which are now in dispute.

Action is largely dependent on the results of the investigations that are now being made both in this country and in Europe as to the difference between the cost of production at home and abroad.

The results of all of these investigations will be tabulated and analyzed as rapidly as possible for the President, and as soon as this has been done he will be ready to act.

AIRSHIP AND WARSHIP TO MEET IN BATTLE

Shells Will Be Dropped From Aeroplane Upon Armor-Protected Decks.

WASHINGTON, August 24.—The Navy Department proposes to test for itself the various theories as to the destructive powers of explosives dropped on the decks of battleships from airships.

The monitor Tallahassee has been ordered to Washington for a series of tests, the final one of which will be an encounter with an airship under battle conditions. The Tallahassee was first named the Florida and is a sister of the monitor Cheyenne, now on the Pacific Coast, near San Francisco.

She is heavily armored, carries 12-inch guns in her turrets and has a steel protection for her decks.

It is the purpose of the department to begin the testing or armor piercing shells against the armor of the Tallahassee at inclined angles.

In the recent tests with the ram Katahdin, a 12-inch shell sent the old monster to the bottom of the Potomac.

The tests with the Tallahassee will, of course, take place at a great distance from Washington, and more secrecy will be preserved than that which allowed the story of the Katahdin to be told.

It is well known that the naval chiefs do not believe that there is much danger in battleships from explosives dropped on the deck of a vessel, unless, perchance, the bomb should drop perpendicularly into the funnel of the ship. The theory of the leading chief of bureau is that explosives can do no damage unless the explosion takes place within a confined space. Ordnance officers in the War Department and signal corps officers think quite differently. For these reasons the forthcoming tests will be of supreme importance, as the point to be determined is not whether a bomb can be dropped on a battleship, but what harm it will do.

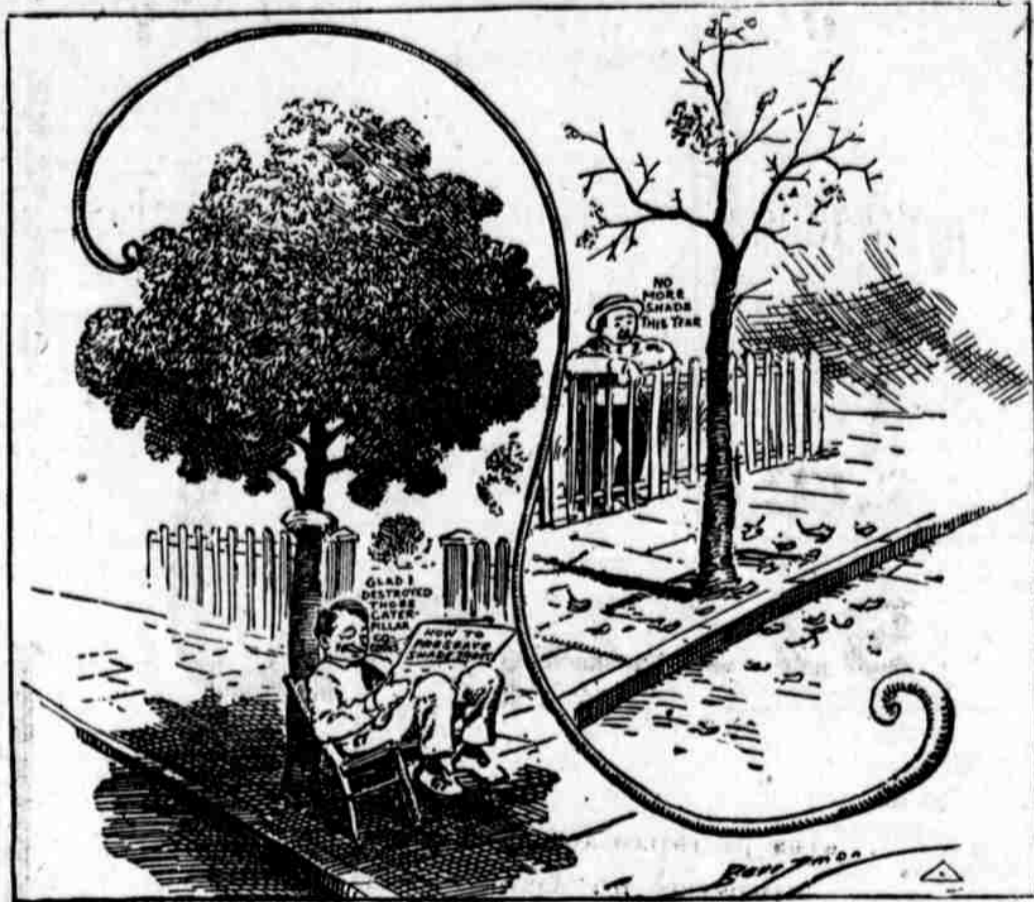

THE PURE FOOD AND DRUG LAW

has not only brought the foods and drugs of this country up to a higher standard of purity, but it has eliminated the harmful medicines with which this country was flooded.

Such medicines, however, as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, purely a roots and herbs product, will continue its beneficial work among women.

WASHINGTON, August 29.—By the arrest by postoffice inspectors in Chicago this afternoon of W. H. Holcomb, vice-president of the United Exchange, the officers of the chief inspector's office of the Postoffice Department believe they have stopped one of the biggest swindles ever projected. Holcomb is charged with circulating literature through the mails in an attempt to defraud.

The arrest of the other two officers of the company mentioned on the letter head, Elmer Conar, president, and Atwood Wilshire, secretary and treasurer, is expected momentarily. Conar is said to be in San Francisco and Wilshire in Phoenix, Ariz. Wilshire is said to be the son of Mrs. Hammond, wife of ex-Federal Judge Hammond of New York, by an earlier marriage.

The letter head of the United Exchange advertises the company as "A $20,000,000 public service trust," that will "bring the nation's public and the landlord together."

The purpose of the clause in the article of incorporation is to build a building and operating flying machines, operating automobile schools, selling railroad tickets, running excursions, information bureau, telegraph and telephone lines, distrib-
