PROGRESS.

The Life of the Land is Established in Righteousness.

HONOLULU, FEB. 19, 1894.

AS EXPECTED.

President Cleveland's Policy Uphold.

THE passing of the McCreary resolution in the House of Representatives was of course expected but the large majority (102) which the Administration side gained was hardly anticipated. President Cleveland now stands endorsed in his Hawaiian policy by the chosen representatives of the American people. The defeat of the annexationists and the Provisional Government is significant. Mr. Dole, Stevens, and their co-conspirators have been plainly told that the sense of justice among the American people would not tolerate the outrage committed in the name of, and by the aid of, the greatest republic in the world. The path of President Cleveland in the Hawaiian matter has been made easy now. He will undo the wrong committed by Stevens and preserving the independence of the Hawaiian Kingdom restore the affairs here to the status previous to the revolution and the temporary overthrow of the lawful ruler Queen Liliuokalani. Mr. McCreary's resolution reads as follows.

Resolved; First. That it is the sense of this House that the action of the United States minister in employing United States naval forces and illegally aiding in overthrowing the constitutional Government of the Hawaiian Islands in January 1893, and in setting up in its place a provisional government, not republican in form and in opposition to the will of a majority of the people was contrary to the traditions of our Republic and the spirit of our Constitution and should be and is condemned.

Second. That we heartily approve the principle announced by the President of the United States; that interference with the domestic affairs of an independent nation is contrary to the spirit of American institutions. And it is further the sense of this House that the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands to our country or the assumption of a protectorate over them by our government is uncalled for, and inexpedient; that the people of that country should have absolute freedom and independence in pursuing their own line of policy, and that foreign intervention in the political affairs of the islands will not be regarded with indifference by the government of the United States.

In presenting the above resolution Mr. McCreary censured President Harrison for his indecent haste in drawing up a treaty of annexation with Hawaii and submitting it to the Senate before the people of Hawaii had been heard. He severely criticized the American representative in Honolulu, and the United States naval commander for their action at the time of the so-called revolution, which he said was without parallel in diplomatic history. He criticized the foreign policy of the Harrison administration in three cases—the case of Samoa, the case of Chili, and the case of Hawaii. And he asked whether anyone would claim that, with all the proof that had been laid before President Harrison and the secretary of state, it was an exhibition of wisdom on the part of President Harrison to send to the Senate a treaty of annexation asking Congress to give away $6,250,000 in order to get those little islands and ask Congress to recognize what was done by a few American citizens down there. He (McCreary) asserted that was not to the credit of the last administration.

In the further course of his argument, Mr. McCreary said, that he would now call as a witness James H. Blount a man conspicuous for his ability and integrity—a man who ranked among the best and ablest men who served in the American Congress for the last twenty years. He then read extracts from Blount's report and from the correspondence of Mr. Nordhoff in the New York Herald—whom he spoke of as a distinguished gentleman known to many members.—At the bottom of the whole movement, Mr. McCreary said, had been the representatives of sugar planters, the sugar planters themselves and the missionaries or their representatives. The latter were to have the offices if the regular government could be set aside, and the sugar planters, who had made $61,000,000 under the reciprocity treaty were to be enriched by getting the sugar bounty of 2 cents a pound. But he thanked God that the House had yesterday passed a tariff bill in which there would be no more sugar bounty, and he had no doubt that the sugar planters were to-day less anxious for annexation than they had been. He declared himself opposed to the annexation of Hawaii. He hoped that his own side of the House would sustain his resolution which had been unanimously reported by the Democratic committee on foreign affairs. He hoped they would adhere to the traditions of the past and stand up for justice to all nations, and for entangling alliances with none. Mr. McCreary was frequently interrupted by loud and enthusiastic applause.

W. N. A. comes in as a very useful pen-wiper for Mr. T. H. Davies.

It seems that the annexation club is anxious to start a new political organization, evidently for the purpose of counteracting the different secret Leagues. Go it boys, the more the merrier.

It is stated that a preliminary meeting of leading Japanese were held yesterday. The intention of the meeting, we understand was to prepare for a mass-meeting, and also decide on a united policy towards the different factions now on the board.

The Hawaiian question would be discussed in the Senate on Monday the 12th inst. Private advices from Washington inform us that there isn't the slightest doubt that the Senate will follow the example of the House of Representatives, and endorse Cleveland's Hawaiian policy. The Constitutional Government of Hawaii will then be reinstated.

The Portuguese "mass" meeting which was held yesterday was attended by a few hundred who patiently listened to Mr. J. M. Vivas' attempt to run the Portuguese Colony in Hawaii—an attempt which proved rather unsuccessful. What is the "Portuguese League" about which Mr. Vivas spoke? We haven't met any "prominent" Portuguese yet who knows anything about such an organization, or who would join any league or club headed by Mr. Vivas. Mr. Gonsalves it is claimed invited the Portuguese to take up arms against the Chinese and Japanese. We are under the impression that the Portuguese League—whatever it may be—would find that they had bitten of a great deal more than they could chew and would be badly choked.

An amusing scene occurred yesterday morning on Fort street. The actors were a P. G. military official of high rank and a member of the Advisory Council. The military official enquired from the other "what the news was," he evidently found out, as his answer was—d—n it.

San Francisco papers say that the Spreckels firm has chartered the ship Hawaiian Isles to load wheat at Portland for Europe, and will send her on her 1,000-mile trip up the coast in tow of the Fearless.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Paris, Feb. 9.—Details of the disaster that befell the French flying column under Colonel Bonnier near Timbuctoo early in December were received by the Foreign Office tonight. The Tuarges, a tribe of Arabs, armed with lances and knives, made attack upon the leading division of the French column. The attack was so desperate and well sustained that the first division was apparently cut to pieces. The news of the disaster was brought to the second portion of the column by Captain Nugette, who, badly wounded, managed to escape. The official statement admits that at least nine French officers, including Colonel Bonnier, two European non-commissioned officers and sixty-eight native soldiers were massacred.

Paris, Feb. 9.—Maxime du Camp, member of the French Academy, is dead.

Paris, Feb. 9.—It is semi-officially stated that the Governor of Sudan has taken extraordinary measures to relieve the French forces at Timbuctoo and all French outposts have been doubled. Timbuctoo, where Captain Philippe's command is entrenched, is a town nearly at the border of the Desert of Sahara, eight miles north of the Niger. The permanent population of the place is 12,000, principally negroes, with some Moors.

Boston, Feb. 9.—The Common Council has passed an order that the Mayor be requested to direct the Trustees of the Public Library to cause the immediate elimination of a certain decoration in the facade of the New Library building that is directly over the entrance. The principal features of it are a shield or globe in the center of which are nude male figures and the legend "Omnia civium."

New York, Feb. 9.—The forces of the Salvation Army have just been strengthened by one of the most notable converts it has ever had. This time it is a member of the royal family, Prince Galitzin of Russia, who has succumbed to the earnest requests of the lads and lassies to live a better life.

Pittsburgh, Feb. 9.—United States Engineer William F. Shunk, who has conducted the great survey for an international railway through Mexico and the South American States, has completed his report and will place it in the hands of the Intercontinental Commission at Washington next week. The report will say that the scheme is entirely feasible and everything favorable or the line.

Chicago, Feb. 9. Congressman Tarsney, in speaking of the tariff measure, said the bill as passed by the House would be substantially passed by the Senate, and tariff may be put on sugar, but there will be no return to the bounty feature of the McKimley bill. The income tax will be adopted by the Senate.

Washington, Feb. 9. The Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee organized today by the election of Senator Falkner of West Virginia, Chairman; Lawrence Garner, Secretary; J. L. Norris, Treasurer.

Washington, Feb. 9. The gold reserve of $100,000,000 is once more practically intact, requiring only $6,256 to make it absolutely so.

Frenso, Feb. 9. Sheriff Scott arrived this morning from Bedley, bringing with him Eans' arm which was secured in the cabin from which the officers drove the bandits Tuesday evening.

London, Feb. 10. A dispatch to the "Standard" from St. Petersburg says: The Government commission appointed to investigate the alleged scandals in the convict prison at Ono, on the island of Saghalien, has issued a report which unfolds a terrible tale of suffering and crime. It shows that in this prison have been many instances of merciless beatings, chopping of fingers and arms by aber strokes, while cannibalism, under stress of famine, has been common occurrence. Murder, followed by cannibalism, has been frequent, with the sole object of ending a miserable existence.

Buenos Ayres, Feb. 10. News has been received from Rio de Janeiro to the effect that the decision of President Peixoto to call a general election on March 1st was caused by the fact that he became frightened at the discovery of a plot to murder him. It seems that the plot was widespread and embraced many influential people, including a number of officers.

New York, Feb. 9. Society, high and low, of Paris is wondering what has become of the Princess Colonna; so is the Prince.

Washington, Feb. 9. The prospects tonight are that the Subcommittee of the Senate Finance Committee will be able to report the Tariff bill to the full committee early next week. The members of the committee have practically completed their work. Many finishing touches were put on certain portions of the measure at today's session. The Subcommittee is at present undecided between a proposition to put uniform duties on all sugars, raw and refined, and another, designed especially as a blow at the trusts, to put raw sugar at 1 1/2 cents and refined at 1 cent. There is still some controversy over the proposition to increase the tax on beer, but indications point to no increase. Voorhees states that the bill will be reported to the Senate next Saturday.

Sacramento, Feb. 9. A snow-storm is raging on the line of the Central Pacific in the Sierra Nevada. The wind is blowing hard, the snow has been coming down in great blinding sheets ever since 3 a. m. yesterday, and covers the country as low down on the hills at Colfax.

Washington, Feb. 9. Representative George W. Houck of Ohio died suddenly this afternoon.

Rio de Janeiro, Feb. 7.—President Peixoto tells the World correspondent that he will issue to-morrow a decree ordering Presidential and Congressional elections for February 26th and that the state of siege will end on that date.

Pernambuco (Brazil), Feb. 7. Five German torpedo boats have arrived here to join the Nietheroy and the American in their attack upon the rebel fleet. Two of them have Chilean Captains.

Victoria (B. C.), Feb. 7.—In a severe storm of this morning the San Francisco bark Wrestler, just arrived from Honolulu to load lumber here, dragged her anchor in the Royal Roads and went broadside on White rock, near the entrance to Esquimalt harbor.

New York, Feb. 7.—His Imperial Majesty, the Czar of all the Russias, Alexander III, is a plaintiff in a libel case on trial today before Judge Addison Brown in the United States District Court, in Admiralty.

Washington, Feb. 7.—The English-Hilborn contested election case is definitely settled so far as the House Committee on Privileges and Elections is concerned. At today's session of this committee the majority voted in favor of seating English, and it is said that the Democrats present voted solidly for English and the Republicans in favor of Hilborn.

London, Feb. 7.—Silver took another drop today, the price of bar silver reaching the lowest point in many years. The market was flat at 29 13-16d per ounce.

Guatemala, Feb. 7.—Stories are told of great cruelties on the part of Bonilla's troops towards the adherents of Vasquez. Even women and children are shot and the people are fleeing the country.

Tacoma (Wash.), Feb. 7.—A movement was inaugurated tonight in the interest of the management of the Inter State Fair to solicit $50,000 for the Corbett-Jackson fight.

Washington, Feb. 7.—The House, after a fierce parliamentary battle, today passed the McCreary Hawaiian resolution by a vote of 177 for to 75 against.

Representatives Cannon and Maguire voted for McCreary's scheme to attempt to demonstrate to the people of the country that the President's Hawaiian policy has Congressional sanction, and that the course of ex-Minister

Stevens and the Harrison Administration is condemned. Representative Boutelle's resolution was lost—91 to 161.

Chicago, Feb. 7.—As each succeeding day floats by a thin, bald gentleman who nurses within his bosom the firm belief that he is Consul General of Hawaii, whatever that may be, appears to become deeper enmeshed in the entanglements of trouble. The thin gentleman is C. Potter, who arrived in Chicago a few weeks ago, armed with a large seal which announced that Mr. Potter was Consul General of Hawaii.

Last Saturday he was arrested charged with obtaining goods under false pretenses. The case against him was continued today and the diplomat was remanded to a cold cell.

[It is believed that "C. Potter" is the "Vonberg" who "did up" several people here. E. H.]

Who is Dole?

Several Senators and Representatives seem to regard Mr. Sanford B. Dole of Honolulu as the President of the United States. Mr. Dole is merely the leader of a mob which holds control of the capital of Hawaii by virtue, or, rather by vice of a crime committed by Minister Stevens. But partisanship closely allied to treason gives the utterances the force of a Presidential message to several members of Congress. His mob revolt was as swaggering as Jack Cade's and his government is as ridiculous as that of Sancho Panza over Barratrovia. Yet he parades and preys and prays in the stolen monuments, with the applause of American partisans who are never so happy as when in moral alliance with an enemy of their own government. This insular Sancho Panza has a wife who shies her bonnet into the ring. She has written a letter concerning the Liberty bell, one of the patriotic properties of this Republic which we put into the staying great days and times, and therein takes occasion to insult the President of the United States by saying that he is destroying liberty in Hawaii. This reference is so nasty under the circumstances that it must rank with Miss Eva Evans' remarks about her "Pa," must mean that Mr. Cleveland has refused to receive stolen goods from Mr. Dole, and that person finds longer hiding difficult. The sort of liberty he has established in Hawaii has no analogue on earth at this moment except in the Kingdom of Dahomey, under a negro ruler with a copper ring in his nose, slit ears, and a gashed dewlap. Mrs. S. B. Dole may not be blamed for assuming that the American people dislike their own government, and like to have the foreigners abuse it, for she takes her ideas from a few American papers and partisans. But upon further inquiry she will learn that we resent such indecencies as her Doleful has band has committed.

John P. Irish in the Wave.

DAVY JONES WINS!

The Historic Kearsarge Wrecked.

New York, Feb. 8.—The following is cabled by the World's Panama correspondent: The United States war ship Kearsarge was wrecked last Thursday on Roncador reef, 300 miles north of Colon. Lieutenant Frederick R. Brainard arrived at Colon last night with news of the wreck.

Lieutenant Brainard says that at 6:45 o'clock on the evening of Thursday, Feb. 31, while the Kearsarge was on her way from Port-au Prince, Hayti, to Bluefields, Nicaragua, the lookout raised the cry of "Breakers ahead," and within a few minutes the vessel went on the reef with great force. She was proceeding under sail at the time and had, comparatively speaking, no steam up. There was a terrific sea on, and the ship heeled to such an alarming extent that it was feared she would capsize.

In order to ease her and to help her back on an even keel the great gun of Alabama fame was jettisoned, or, in other words, heaved overboard. This had no effect in the direction of causing the ship to stand up. The next move was to save the vessel from going clear over the beam end was to cut away the masts, it being evident that it would be impossible to furl the sails in season to relieve the enormous pressure of the wind that was bearing down on the canvas with such weight.

It was a question of only a few minutes before the ship would capsize. So nicely was the chopping timed that the three masts went crashing by the board at the same instant, and as soon as the rigging was cleared away the ship in a measure righted, but only to be dashed further upon the reef, where she pounded and ground herself horribly.

When the Kearsarge went over after striking the reef she went so far that the banked fires in the furnaces were thrown out, and, scattering about in all directions, set fire to the ship, so that, in addition to being exposed to the savage waves and the merciless reef, the vessel was in danger of being burned and blown up. Urged by the desperation of the situation, everybody on board that could be spared from on deck manfully attacked the flames and after a short, sharp fight, succeeded in extinguishing the blaze before it reached the magazine.

As soon as the officers and crew were landed camp was established on the islet of Roncador and enough food to last a month was picked up, but no fresh water was procurable. Lieutenant Brainard volunteered to select a crew and start for the island of Old Providence, ninety miles southwest of the scene of the wreck. He left on the morning of the 4th inst. and reached Old Providence, embarking thence on a schooner for Colon, 230 miles south. He arrived at Colon last night. Lieut. Brainard reported that at the time he left Roncador the Kearsarge was going to pieces. He reported that the Kearsarge's company could not reach Old Providence and that they were in need of immediate assistance.

Roncador reef is about 200 miles from the Mosquito Coast, Central America. It is well known to mariners as a dangerous impediment to navigation, and is surrounded by swift and dangerous tides. Some time ago the officers of the Nicaragua Canal Company were wrecked on the same reef. It is conjectured the Kearsarge went aground on the reef at night and foundered.

The Kearsarge, by the last report, sailed from Hayti to Bluefields, Nicaragua, to look after American interests in connection with the trouble between Nicaragua and Honduras.

The officers on board were: Admiral O. E. Stanton; commanding officer, F. Heyerman; Lieutenants, C. A. Ford, C. N. Lyman, S. T. Walling; junior Lieutenants, J. Hood, F. H. Brainard; ensigns, N. H. Gates, T. McGruder; naval cadets, L. S. Thompson, T. L. Stitt, T. B. Borden, J. B. McCormick, W. Ball, D. A. Mallon; past surgeon G. B. Lumsden; assistant surgeon, N. W. Barnum; paymaster, J. A. Ring; chief engineer, B. C. Cowing; First Lieutenant of Marines, L. L. A. Ingate. The crew was composed of 200 sailors and marines.

On Feb. 9, Lieutenant Brainard telegraphed at follows:

COLON, Feb. 9th. To the Secretary of the Navy: Am sailing on the City of Paris today. Will return here with all hands.

THE KEARSARGE ALABAMA FIGHT.

The Kearsarge was built at Kittery, Maine, in 1859. Her length was 199 feet, beam 33 feet, draught of water 15.9 feet. She had a displacement of 1550 tons and attained a speed of 11 knots an hour the capacity of her coal bunkers was 165 tons. Her battery consists of two eight-inch muzzle loading rifles (converted), four nine inch smooth bores and one sixty pounder.

It was on the 19th of June, 1864, that the Kearsarge came into prominence by defeating the Confederate cruiser Alabama at Cherbourg, France. Both vessels were protected by chain cables hung along their sides. Captain John A. Winslow commanded the Kearsarge, while the Alabama was under the charge of Commander Semmes.

France being a neutral power, the battle had to be fought outside the three mile limit. The fight, one of the bitterest on record, was witnessed by enormous crowds of people from the pier-heads at Cherbourg and the surrounding heights. In less than three hours the Alabama was battered into pieces and sunk to the bottom of the British channel.

The Latest and Best received by the steamer Monowai, are now on exhibit on the Popular Phonograph Parlors, Arlington Block, Hotel Street. Don't mistake the Location. Feb 19
