Hawaiian Women Kokua Plans Of The Princess

Organization Of Republican Precinct Organizations Goes Forward On Maui; Large Wailuku Meeting

Princess Elizabeth Kalaniana'ole is on Maui this week and is organizing Hawaiian women, or assisting them to organize, into precinct Republican clubs. She is not here campaigning in the interests of any candidate for delegate to congress as it has been reported she would be, but purely in the interest of effective organization for the good of the Hawaiian women and for the Republican party.

Princess Kalaniana'ole arrived from Molokai on Wednesday. There she formed organizations in each precinct and her suggestions were received with enthusiasm. On Maui she spoke at Waikapu, Wednesday afternoon and in the Wailuku Town Hall, Wednesday night. At Waikapu, before the meeting she was the luncheon guest of Mrs. Cockett and in Wailuku Wednesday evening, before the meeting, she was dinner guest of Mrs. C. C. Conrad.

Yesterday the Princess went up to Kula Sanitarium, and was the guest of Mrs. H. A. Baldwin at lunch and of Mrs. S. E. Kalama at supper. She held a meeting at the Paha Hawaiian Church in the morning.

Today the Princess is sight seeing, going up Iao Valley and taking other nearby trips this morning and starting for the crater this afternoon.

Sunday she will speak at Waikapu at 10 a. m., Keokea at noon and Ulupalakua at 4 in the afternoon. Monday she will speak at Huelo and Keanae and Tuesday at Kipahulu and Hana.

Wailuku Meeting
At the request of Princess Kalaniana'ole the Hawaiian women of the fifth precinct of the third representative district met in the Town hall, Wailuku on Wednesday evening to organize an auxiliary to the Republican League of Women Voters.

The Princess was introduced by Miss Rebecca Akana and in a brief speech outlined the object of the meeting and told why auxiliaries are being organized in all the precincts in the territory. She said in part that every effort should be put forth to educate the women in their right to franchise and to induce them to exercise their right intelligently; that the Hawaiian women would more freely exchange views among each other than they would in a gathering of English speaking women and that thus they would be gradually led out of their timidity and take their place easily and actively in the ranks with the rest of the women voters.

The Princess encountered opposition and she said there is much opposition throughout the Islands against such an organization, many of the men being loud spoken in their opposition; many women opposing it for various reasons; that the late Prince had foreseen and answered all these objections; that she is simply trying to carry out his wish to render every possible service to the people whom he loved; to encourage them to love their homes, educate their children, to lead honorable useful lives and to take an active part in the welfare of their respective communities.

Explanations Satisfy
The Princess forestalled many of the questions which the women had come prepared to ask, and for a few minutes after she had finished there was silence, then came a few scattering questions, after which the discussion was lively as to whether they should organize, some of the younger women opposing most of the older women favoring the movement; those opposing saying there are a number of clubs among the women already, others expressing a desire in favor of organization in view of the reasons voiced by the Princess.

Proposal Endorsed
After hearing the arguments the endorsement was surprisingly greater than had been expected and a vote on the part of the women present resulted in favor of organization. With Mrs. Wilmington acting as secretary the following officers were elected:

President, Mrs. Rebecca Deibert; vice-president, Mrs. M. P. Waiwai; secretary, Mrs. Antonio Garcia; treasurer, Mrs. George Cummings; executive committee, Mrs. Huakini Enos, Mrs. Minnie Kaiue, Mrs. Inaina.

The majority of the women present signed the roll as members.

An informal reception was held after the meeting.

Beautiful music was furnished during the evening by a double quartette. Many men and a few non-Hawaiian women were among the interested listeners.

For the meeting the hall had been decorated with a profusion of flowers and ferns and palms and beautiful decorative effects secured.

Racing Committee Has Fair Program Tentatively Fixed

Tentative racing programs for two days of the Maui County Fair have been arranged by the racing committee composed of Dan T. Carey, William H. Engle, Foster Robinson and A. K. Okamura. Yesterday afternoon the committee was waiting the program for Japanese day which is being arranged by a committee of Japanese headed by Okamura who is the Japanese representative on the main racing committee. Then the entire program was to be submitted to Fair Director Rice for his O. K. and when approved by him will be announced and entries solicited from the horse owners of the Islands.

Thursday, the first day of the Fair, the racing program is in the hands of the Japanese community. They are to arrange their own program and to name their own judges and other officials. It is reported that they are taking a wide interest in the proposal, that the races will largely be for the shorter distances but that the card will be a varied one.

Friday and Saturday the general racing committee and officials will be in charge of the races. The card's as tentatively prepared are excellent and the committee has the assurance of entries which should bring some of the hardest run and closest finished events ever seen on Maui.

Dick Harris Has Been On Maui One Year And Certainly Made Good

Dick P. Harris has an anniversary today. It is just a year since he came to the Valley Island as manager of the Maui Amusement Company and in that year he has devoted an unending energy to giving Maui folk more entertaining entertainments and amusing amusements and more more attractive attractions than it has known heretofore. In so doing he has made himself a Maui institution and the public is by no means inappreciative of what he has been doing.

Harris had planned to celebrate his anniversary with a special performance, bringing in outside talent and staging a big manager's night but he has succeeded so well in giving the public special attractions that he found himself forced to postpone his own special night. He had planned to hold it next week but dates for the amusement public that he has provided interfered and so Dick will have his anniversary show at an early date next month.

Looking back over what Harris has done in the past year it can be seen that he has accomplished a great deal. He has succeeded in securing a better line of films, especially for the Special Tuesday night shows at Kahului. He has brought a number of outside attractions here and assisted in bringing others, notable among them being the Tandy Mackenzie concert. There have been several good shows brought here and he is more and more swinging his plans toward an accomplishment. Mean time he has made many friends close enough friends to be glad to call him "Dick". The public knows that he has tried and is trying and regards his work as a personal effort in its behalf and will turn out in a body when he has his manager's night.

If there is no action taken by that time Crowder has threatened to return to the United States and report conditions to the department of state.

Radio Broadcast Concert Tonight

Free Demonstration Of Wireless Telephony Arranged For General Public By Honolulu Advertiser

In the Fair Grounds at Kahului this evening a free radio concert will be given in the open from "KGU" the Honolulu Advertiser broadcasting station. Arrangements for the use of the main boulevard of the grounds were made this morning with Fair Director Harold W. Rice. These were made following a demonstration at the Grand Hotel in Wailuku last night. Tonight's concert will be between 7:30 and 9 o'clock and the public is invited to the first general demonstration of radio telephony to be given on Maui.

Special representatives from the Advertiser's radio department came over from Honolulu on the Wednesday Mauna Kea and came over from Lahaina to Wailuku yesterday morning. They at once began to demonstrate radio receiving equipment and, installing a system at Hamakuaopoko yesterday noon had a satisfactory experience.

Last evening a private demonstration was held on the balcony of the Grand Hotel. A special "Aloha" receiving set, designed by the staff of Advertiser radio engineers, thoroughly demonstrated the ease of radio reception from Honolulu broadcast stations. A Western Electric loudspeaker was attached to the receiving set and numbers of people were attracted to the hotel by the voice and musical selections pouring forth "from the air."

This noon a demonstration is being given at the Kula Sanitarium. For this evening in the Fair Grounds a special, broadcasting concert is being arranged in Honolulu, following the notification to the Advertiser by L. E. Kramer, its special representative of the plans that he made this morning.

Time For Filing Of Nomination Papers Drawing To Close

Time for the filing of nomination papers in Honolulu ends on Thursday of next week. Papers mailed from Maui Wednesday should reach there in time. Now that it is practically assured that women will be eligible for office at the elections there is opened the possibility of some women becoming eligible for office candidates but thus far on Maui none have declared themselves.

Rumors have been heard again this week that Levi Joseph had decided to remain deputy sheriff on Molokai and not to make the race for nomination for representative. Such report was unofficial and in other sources, equally unofficial was denied.

Another rumor set at rest was the report that F. B. Cameron would enter the field. That report he denied yesterday afternoon.

Most interest centers around the contest for the short term senatorship. Walsh is in the race to stay and so are Goodness and Kaumehiwa. Nothing further has been heard in regard to Antonio de Rego filing but the three centered fight promises to continue occupancy of the political limelight from now until the primary election.

From Molokai comes word that C. Knaol will be in the field for representative from the Lonely Isle.

Shortly before noon it was reported that Mrs. A. Garcia was seriously considering the taking out of nomination papers for representative.

Moratorium Issue Long Postponed

Reparations Committee Lays Down Rules As To What Germany Must Do In Restoring Its Finances

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)
PARIS, Sept. 1—French official circles are displaying a grim determination to obtain reparation or seize guarantee to enforce the payments in the event the commission grants Germany the moratorium. The war office is busy and large troop movements are reported from Nancy and Metz to the Rhineland. The occupation of Ruhr is considered certain in the event the moratorium is granted.

The reparations commission decision amounts to postponing the moratorium question until radical reforms in German finances have been carried out. These reforms will include the balancing of the German budget, reducing foreign obligations, reforming their currency, and issuing bonds for foreign and international loans.

Belgium is accredited with having prevented a fall down and break in the negotiations. It is understood that Lloyd George telephoned Poincaré his approval, conditioned on the demand that Germany furnish a gold deposit sufficient to guarantee the deferred payments. It appears to rest between Germany and Belgium, the latter whom agrees to accept treasurers bills from the German government, payable in six months, in lieu of cash payments.

Germany's proposal of coal and wood deliveries is believed by the commission to be conditioned on the granting by the commission of a full moratorium and therefore believes it is unjustified in accepting. The right was reserved however, to accept if the present arrangements for delivery be unsatisfactory.

Honolulu Teachers In Sorry Plight; Wilhelmina Held

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 31—The Matson line steamer Wilhelmina was held up half an hour today waiting for a Southern Pacific train from the south that was bearing Ruth Parsons, Ethel Kirkpatrick and Elizabeth Cobbs, Honolulu teachers to San Francisco from where they were booked to sail on the Wilhelmina. Bearings on the baggage car of the train were hotboxed and the car cut off. The three women taxied to the wharf upon their arrival here, boarded a launch and reached the steamer that was laying in the stream. Their baggage was left behind and they are carrying suitcases only.

Circus Man Saves A Child From Elephant

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)
HANFORD, Cal., Sept. 1—Fourteen elephants belonging to the Sells-Floto show stampeded when a baby and a pig slipped from a runaway elephant and trumpeted for its mother. An iron fence was flattered and baggage was scattered in all directions.

Directly in the path of a charging cow elephant was Winnie Yates, a four year old child. Leslie Davis, one of the circus men, ran to the aid of the little one and threw her over a pile of lumber, narrowly escaping himself.

The keepers rounded up the herd from the train yards, lumber yards, garages and alleyways.

Senate Passes Four Billion Soldiers Bonus

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 31—The senate today passed the four billion dollar soldiers bonus bill. The measure as it goes to the conference provides three options and plans for world war veterans whose pay in the service will not exceed fifty dollars, as follows:

Adjusted service certificates payable in 20 years or sooner in the event of death; Contains long provisions for vocational training; And, at the rate of $1.75 daily, up to 140 percent of the adjusted service, credit aid in buying farms or homes. The adjusted service pay is figured at one dollar daily for men in domestic service, not to exceed $500, and a dollar and a quarter for men in overseas service the amount not to exceed $625.

The gallery was filled with ex-service men who loudly cheered the passage of the bill. No attempt was made to stop them. It is estimated the total cost will be $3,456,948.

Government Secures Injunction Against Striking Shopmen

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)
CHICAGO, Sept. 1—The federal court has issued a temporary injunction, effective until September 11, pending hearing of an application to make the restraining order permanent, against the striking railroad shopmen and their officials from interfering in any way with the operation of the railroads and their properties. The temporary restraining order was made on the application of Attorney General Daugherty this morning and the return date of the order to show cause why it should not be made permanent is returnable a week from Monday.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 1—President Johnson of the railroad machinists union on being informed of the issuance of the order said: "It will take more than a mere injunction to prevent the collapse of some of these railroads within the next 30 days. We will continue the strike whatever happens."

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)
CHICAGO, Sept. 1—Jewell, answering the statement of the railroad executives association purporting to show that the strike was broken said: "We are more than holding our own. Shopmen are still walking out and there is a greater turnover of labor in the railroad shops in the last three weeks than at any time since the strike started. The roads are trying to hire men in place of those who walked out but those who do go in are not sticking."

Will Test Efficacy Aero Torpedo Attack

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)
LOS ANGELES, Aug. 23—(Associated Press Mail)—Efficacy of the navy's new aero-torpedo attack will be tested in the first maneuvers of the Pacific fleet after its return to local waters next month. A sham sea battle, in which dreadnaughts will pit their prowess against the deadly swiftness of torpedo planes, is to be staged in the waters off Santa Catalina Island, famous among sportsmen as the scene of many a thrilling battle between adventurous anglers and the fighting tuna or swordfish.

The ships of the battle force will put to sea from the Los Angeles base and attempt to return to port without being detected by "enemy" air squadrons. Meanwhile, speedy scout planes will hop off from the air station at San Diego and will endeavor to locate the fleet and report its position to the slower torpedo planes. When those are given the position of the approaching fleet they will put out from shore, release their torpedoes in the midst of the battle-ships and dart out of reach of the anti-aircraft guns.

These maneuvers will take place within 50 miles of shore, on account of the necessity of the torpedo planes starting from shore base, but in December, when the new airplane carrier Langley arrives, similar tests will be conducted about 200 miles at sea.

The Pacific fleet is scheduled to arrive here September 12.

Women Of Hawaii Eligible To Seat In Legislature

Bill Passed By House In June Passes Senate and Is In President's Hand; Settles Moot Issue

Women will be eligible for election to the legislature or as delegate to congress at the coming election. Only approval of the President is now required and it is expected he will sign the measure within the next few days.

Delegate Harry A. Baldwin sent a wireless to Maui News this morning from Honolulu and said: "My secretary cables me from Washington that the bill permitting women to hold office in Hawaii has passed the senate. It had previously passed the house, last June, and now goes to the President for his approval."

The measure which passed the senate fulfills one of the platform pledges made by Delegate Baldwin in his campaign at the special election and is in line with a resolution which he introduced and had passed by the legislature in special session before he was elected delegate.

Under the Woman Suffrage amendment the ballot was given to women of Hawaii as well as in other parts of the United States. Qualifications for election to the legislature in the Territory of Hawaii, however, under the law included a provision of male citizenship and the same qualification applies as to delegate. Contenders for the rights of women insisted that the granting of suffrage carried with it the right to hold office but opponents insisted that the qualification provisions were specific. The point came up in connection with the candidacy of Mary Atcherly first for the legislature and later for delegate.

In the past nomination petitions were accepted but it was doubted if woman, if elected, could be seated. Thus any woman who now desires to run for the legislature can file her nominating petition up to next Thursday night in Honolulu with a practical certainty that if elected she will be permitted to hold the office to which she is chosen.

Japanese Schools Problem Less Acute Away From Honolulu

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)
HONOLULU, Sept. 1—Dr. Iga Mori, chairman of the language textbook committee, returned to this city from the Islands of Hawaii and Maui. Dr. Mori said the agitation against the regulations, as provided, was less intense on the other Islands than in Honolulu where it is being fanned by the Japanese press. He declared that Maui Japanese teachers had passed resolutions accepting the regulations.

It was learned that some committee men expect Governor Farrington to sign the regulations adopted by the committee and it is also expected that Consul Yamashita will refuse to accept the Japanese committee's resignations which were offered on August 22nd.

Two kinds of friction

It has been proved that as much as 20% of the power delivered to the driving wheels may be lost through friction, due to the use of an incorrect oil.

This friction may be of two kinds—the friction of metal on metal, due to the failure of the oil to preserve a lubricating film between the bearing surfaces, or the friction of oil on oil—the internal, molecular friction of the lubricant.

Too heavy an oil, or an oil lacking in "oiliness"—the quality that makes it cling to the bearings while at the same time offering a minimum of internal or fluid friction—constitutes a direct drain on the available horsepower of your motor.

The right body at all operating temperatures Made from carefully selected crudes and scientifically refined by our patented high-vacuum process, Zerolene has great "oiliness." It clings to bearing surfaces, while offering in itself a minimum of frictional resistance to the engine power.

Zerolene maintains the right lubricating body under all conditions. As the engine gets hot, bearing clearances decrease. Analysis of Zerolene shows that the variations in its body, at the various engine temperatures, follow in close relation the decrease in bearing clearances.

Because of their "oiliness," stability and purity, Zerolene oils give perfect lubrication and help to develop the maximum power, speed and gasoline mileage of the car.

Senate Approves Foreign Debt For Bonus Financing

(ASSOCIATED PRESS)
 WASHINGTON, Aug. 30—The senate today approved, without a record vote, the proposal of Senator F. M. Simmons, Democrat of North Carolina, to use the interest on the foreign debt to finance the bonus for former service men.
 Senator Simmons and Senator James Reed, Democrat of Missouri, urged that this method will meet President Harding's requirements that the bill shall carry its own financing, and will hush up the talk of cancelling the foreign debt.

 The Senate approved today the McNary land reclamation amendment to the soldiers bonus bill, 43 to 26. All party lines and even sectional lines disappeared in the rollcall, except that the far Western senators voted for the measure.

Molokai Notes

(Special Correspondence to Maui News.)

PUKOO, Molokai, Aug. 28—The most disastrous fire, that Molokai has had in 30 years, occurred on Sunday afternoon, September 27, when the home, of E. K. Devauchelle at Pukoo, was burned to the ground with nothing saved, but the clothes the family were wearing. Most of the family, which is a large one were at Kaunakakai attending the baseball game, only E. K. Devauchelle, the oldest daughter and the two youngest children being at home.

The post office, was in the building, which was the "Mauna Kulu Wai" hotel.
 The origin of the fire, is uncertain, but it looks as though an electric iron, used and left on an ironing board, with the current still on, may have been the cause. Up to writing there has been no official investigation of the fire.
 The post office safe, after it had cooled, was taken to the ice plant and put in cold storage, awaiting the arrival of the postal inspector, to open. About $3000.00 insurance was on the place, and the loss will be large as it was a large comfortable house.

New Courthouse Site
 Molokai, had a visit from the chairman of the board of supervisors and County Engineer Low, who located the site for the new courthouse, which is to stand on one corner of the stable lot at Malapue.

 Princess Kaiulani, has been on the island, arriving Friday night by Kilauea, at Kaunakakai. She organized republican clubs among the women. Some 35, attended the first meeting held in this, the 20th precinct at the "Mahoe" house and Halawa, (19th) will be organized today.
 From now on, the mere male will have to figure on the "woman" vote, if he is to be a successful, "candidate" in any election.

A nomination paper for C. Kaanol for the house to represent Molokai, is being signed. It is a long while, since Molokai had a man in either House or Senate, Maui, grabbing everything.

NOW IN PROGRESS

Wednesday, August 30th

Poor Richard said "A penny saved is a penny earned" and his saying is as trite and true today as it was then, a century ago. The wise and careful buyer is the one who takes advantage of such opportunities as we are offering before our annual stock taking. You save money by making your purchases and filling your present needs and those of the immediate future; we save time, and "time is money," in reducing the stock that has to be inventoried, enabling us to complete our work of stock taking more quickly. Thus we are able at this time to indulge in price cuttings which would entail losses at any other time.

The goods we are offering a quarter off at this sale are our regular lines and include some of the latest shipments we have received. We are not making selections of certain articles from certain lines. They are the same goods we have regularly been selling at pre-sale prices until tomorrow.

HARDWARE DEPARTMENT

Here we are offering our large stock of Pyrex cooking utensils, Aluminum ware, Agate ware, Crockery, Dinner sets, Tea sets, etc., all under priced a quarter. Every home has its needs in this line and this is the time to replenish one of the most important departments of every home, the kitchen and the dining room.

MEN'S SHIRTS

This line is one of the largest and most varied and attractive on Maui and bear our own mark. The best cotton shirts have been reduced $1.50 each and the less costly grades proportionately. A $2.50 shirt will sell for $1.90, and there are still cheaper grades similarly marked down. It is economy to lay in half a dozen or more shirts at a time instead of buying one at a time as needed.

LADIES' SKIRTS

You will find included among these an assortment that we have only just received for late summer and early fall sale. They are well and stylishly made in late cut and fashion and the materials include serges, gaberdines, galatinas and others. They have uniformly been marked down a quarter of the old price for this pre-inventory sale.

LADIES' SHIRT WAISTS

Plain waists for morning wear, more elaborate ones for the street or afternoon and still handsomer ones for the evening. Our crepe de chine, silk, linen embroidered and cotton waists are all included in the sale, and priced a quarter off.

Children's Gingham Dresses

The entire stock, all sizes, is included in this underpricing. The school year is about to start and the little girls will need new dresses.

MAUI FAIR EDITION

In connection with the Fifth Annual Maui County Fair which will be held October 12-14 this year, Semi-Weekly Maui News will issue a Fair and Industrial number on Tuesday, October 10, which will surpass its former efforts and establish new records for Maui newspapers. Preparations for its issuance have already been started, some feature articles are in type, some photo-engravings have been ordered and the pictures for other illustrations are being collected.

Two years ago Maui News established new records for Maui when it issued a 26 page Fair Edition. Then there were only three weeks for its compilation and for all the work that is connected with the publication of such a paper. A larger one could have been issued had there been time and a number of would be advertisers had to be disappointed at the last because lack of space made it necessary to decline their copy.

For the coming edition a cover design has been accepted, the cuts for it are being made and Semi-Weekly Maui News will turn out the first two color newspaper work to be done on Maui.

Two years ago there was not time to compile articles on one of Maui's great industries, livestock raising and ranching. This year that industry will be specially featured in profusely illustrated articles. As previously the sugar plantations and the pine-apple canneries will be described and pictured. Other subjects to be covered will be Maui's scenic attractions, civic organizations, hospitals and sanitarium, welfare work, county government, education and schools, forestry, wharves and shipping, irrigation projects, sports, all the advance information as to the Fair and its regular news section.

From this brief summary it can be seen that the coming edition will cover Maui's resources and exemplify its community spirit in a manner that will make the issue one which Valley Islanders will want to keep for themselves and to send copies away to their friends to show what is being done on a "little islet far out in the Pacific."

Applications for advertising space will be received at any time from now until further notice and orders for extra copies may also be placed in advance.

WHERE LIES THE FAULT?

In a recent issue of the Hilo Post Herald there is an editorial which tells of the action of Judge Homer Ross after a young Filipino girl had pleaded guilty before him of polygamy. Judge Ross questioned the girl as to her knowledge of the law on marriage and found her strangely ignorant. Patiently he questioned her on the habits and customs of girls and women she had known. He discovered she had no well defined ideas on matrimony nor on morals. Then, with the consent of the prosecuting officer he gave the girl a suspended sentence. The Post Herald suggests that the case may be by no means an isolated one.

Ignorance of the law excuses no one, is an old maxim. In this instance it did not, in the strict sense, excuse the girl nor does it excuse the social system that permits a girl to grow up in such ignorance or to enter into matrimony with such loose ideas of its obligations.

Before an alien can secure the right of citizenship, he or she must pass an examination before the admitting judge showing requisite knowledge and qualification. Certainly the taking upon oneself of the obligations of matrimony and probable parenthood is as important as the granting of citizenship.

The official who grants the marriage license or the minister or public official who performs a marriage ceremony assumes that the contracting parties know the marriage laws. No questions are asked and the ceremony is performed. Why, it may well be asked, should not those about to enter into marriage be required to show a mental capacity and a smattering at least of information requisite for the entering upon such an agreement?

Equally, it may be asked, why the contracting parties should not be required to show physical and mental health?

Matrimony is called a "holy state" and divorce is railed at as an evil, but so long as those who are permitted to perform marriage ceremonies pay so little attention to the fitness of the parties to contract and fulfill their obligations to their partner and to society, there can be nothing holy in a large proportion of the marriages so performed.

Theoretically marriage is all that is urged for it. As permitted and practiced, it is something far different in too many instances.

HAWAIIAN WOMEN ORGANIZE

Such Republican precinct auxiliaries as are being formed by Princess Kalaniana'ole throughout the Islands apparently are open to no valid objections and in some precincts may serve excellent purposes. In some places they are certainly needed, where the women of the party have no organizations, but here on Maui there already exist party auxiliaries in Central and East Maui and in Lahaina which can be revived at any time during the campaign and the League of Women's Voters has never been disbanded.

The proposal as presented at the Wailuku precinct meeting on Wednesday night differs from a previous proposal that the women decided against at the close of the special election campaign only that the organizations now being formed will be composed of Hawaiian women only. The former proposal was for a women's branch of each precinct club the membership open to women of any nativity who are citizens.

If any criticism were to be voiced to present plans it would be that the scope is not sufficiently large and the Princess explained that point by saying the organizations were designed especially to meet the needs of older Hawaiian women who do not speak English fluently or understand it easily.

She is quoted as saying that the project meets with opposition elsewhere. Why, it should be not clear. Here on Maui the women have done splendid campaign work and Hawaiian women are taking an active part in political affairs, club elections, conventions and

THE OPTIMISTIC PESSIMIST

Perhaps two can live as cheaply as one but then the question arises, which one?

It is not that prohibition does not entirely prohibit that is the underlying cause of most of the criticism that is heard but that it has proved as effective as it is.

The world is somber and gloomy or bright and cheerful to each person as that one wills. If one looks for the bright side, it is there but if one seeks for the dark side one finds all is blackness and despair.

in getting out the vote they are a valuable factor. It is understood that the new organizations are not to run counter to the present ones and there can be excellent reasons advanced why each precinct should have its organization of women as well as of men of the party. She says the older Hawaiian women are holding back and if what she proposes will remove that tendency the new plan will have shown itself warranted.

Strength of sentiment in favor of strict enforcement of prohibition as shown by the Literary Digest's poll is on the increase. Of 708,000 votes, 38 percent are for enforcement. Earlier in the count sentiment was about two to one against strict enforcement.

Our neighbor the Honolulu Advertiser appears to be slipping politically. On its editorial page Sunday there appeared a squib to the effect that most of the 100,000,000 Americans "have reason to be thankful for the recent senate revolt that placed hides on the freelist." Heretofore we have always understood that the Advertiser espoused the doctrine of protection. Will friend Advertiser blow hot for sugar and cold for hides?

Acceptance of the trusteeship of the territory by Henry Hapai is more of a surprise than its offer to him. It is not the first time he has been asked to accept it but his attitude has been that the head of the department changes with every change of administration but the faithful employe stays on. Hapai should make an excellent official and Hawaii can congratulate itself on his acceptance.

The nomination of Judge Matthewman to be attorney general is a blow of the relies of the Honolulu organization that all but wrecked the Republican party. Judge Matthewman could not stand for one particular member of the clique as a candidate. Maui walked out of the committee because it would not stand for the clique as a whole. Judge Matthewman's selection is satisfactory to leaders and rank and file alike in this county.

In the Hilo jail there is a cell which brings a confession of guilt from every guilty man confined in it, reports the Tribune. No third degree is necessary there, just a few hours alone in it at night. Is it suggestion, imagination or—what?

THE FINANCIAL OUTLOOK

The demand throughout the mainland for high grade investment securities, which has developed as a result of the gradual lowering of interest rates, exhibits no signs of slackening. As a result, bond prices are steadily advancing and it appears that the time is rapidly drawing near when the opportunity to purchase high grade investment securities at prices which yield liberal returns will have passed—not to return, in all probability for many years.

It will soon be true that the investor who had foresight to accumulate conservative investment securities at present prices will be in a position to point with pride to the wisdom of his judgment.

The Little Old Gray Man's Secret
By DADDY

Jack and Janet want the birds to dwell in their dooryards, but the birds seem to prefer the woods. A little old gray man brings them a pretty village of bird houses which he sets up in the yard.

CHAPTER IV
The Mystery

HERE are the eight words the little old gray man added to the sign on the Birdtown Apartments:

"Ho! Ho! Ho! That will bring the birds," cried the little old gray man to Jack and Janet. "These nice houses are all ready to move in, so the birds will not have any trouble in settling. They can spend a lot of time in singing to you. Go to bed early tonight and when you awaken at dawn you will find the birds in their new homes

Jack Ran to the Window

Saying this the little old gray man climbed into his little old gray wagon and clucked to his little old gray horse.

Jack and Janet waved good-by to him. Before he was out of sight birds began to flutter across the clearing, taking shy, fleeting glances at the bird houses on poles and trees. The

No. 8—Curtain Trimmings

What counts most in curtaining windows is not the material you use but the way in which you use it. Curtains of cheesecloth, if they are well planned and wisely hung, may have far more style and make a much better showing than curtains of expensive lace that have been hung up without much care or judgment.

A very little well-chosen trimming that costs only a few cents a yard will often add not only a pleasing touch of color but a distinct note of elegance as well. Take, for instance, some of the black and white French gimps. These may be appropriately used with white Euclid batiste or cheesecloth. Or, again, a narrow blue or rose-colored cotton gimp with short fringe may be used with highly satisfactory results as cheesecloth trimming.

White figured net and dotted Swiss curtains or muslin curtains may be treated in the same way and thus given a great deal of distinction. Swiss curtains may also be trimmed with narrow bands of colored sateen, one or two inches wide, sewed on instead of the broad bottom and side hems.

In making use of colored curtain trimming, however, care must be taken that the color employed echoes some other color conspicuous in the furnishing of the room.

The Daily Fun Hour

House of Nine Squares

Although this game may be played indoors with pencil and paper, it is quite adaptable to outdoor playing, especially on the beach, where the House of Nine Squares may be drawn on the sand.

In this variation of the game it may be played by teams, two players one from each side, competing for each successive round. The "house" is drawn six feet each way, and is crossed by two lines vertically and two horizontally, making nine smaller squares. The teams may be Pebbles and Shellers, one side playing with pebbles and the other side with shells. The first player, if a Pebbler places a pebble on one of the squares the second places a shell on another the first plays again, then the second, and so on until a "trex" is made. A trex is three pebbles or three shells in a row. The row may be either diagonal vertical or horizontal. Of course each player while attempting to make a "trex" himself, tries also to block his opponent's game. The first to make a trex in any direction scores 5 points for his team. Then two other opposing players take their turn at the House of Nine Squares Game is 30 points.

When played on the porch or indoors, the nine squares are drawn on cardboard or paper and the players mark an X or O in the spaces. This is the older form of the game, played only by two opponents, until the final score, and known for ages by various names, such as Kit-Cat-Cannio, Noughts and Crosses, Tip-Tap-Toe, etc.

As I make up my programme for the coming week which opens Saturday, September 2nd, I realize that this is my first anniversary as manager of The Maui Amusement Company. One year ago I came to Maui to take over this circuit which for many years my predecessor Mr. P. H. Ross had managed with great success. It was up to me to dig in and uphold his splendid record.

During the past twelve months I cannot help but say that it has been the most pleasant engagement that I have had in twelve years in the theatrical business, and I shall always have a very fond Aloha for Maui. I wish to take this opportunity of expressing my hearty appreciation to my Patrons and Friends and to the employees of the company who's loyal co-operation has made it possible for me to look back upon the past year with the most pleasing memories, and I trust that it will be my privilege to be with you all for many seasons.

Sincerely,
"DICK" P. HARRIS.

He's coming! Charlie Chaplin in "The Kid." See next Tuesday's edition for dates and prices.

Look over the program for this week isn't it a dandy? Vaudeville and three Super Features including "The Kid."

You will enjoy Ethel Clayton in Maui's favorite stars, and one of Paramounts also.

"Is Matrimony A Failure?" Those that attend the Hipp next Wednesday will be told all about it by Lois Wilson and Walter Hiers, Lila Lee and Roy Barnes, why its an all star cast, sure enough.

The greatest comedy of the age Charlie Chaplin and Jack Coogan in "The Kid", Tuesday, Kahului; Wednesday, Wailuku. Remember the nights.

Jackie Coogan the boy who's salary is as large as the Presidents will be here very soon as the star in "My Boy."

Vaudeville at the Hipp, Monday also William Farnum in "The Scuttlers".

"THE CRADLE"

Owing to financial difficulties, the marital life of Dr. Robert Harvey and his wife Margaret, is ruffled. Both are devoted to their little daughter, Doris. Dr. Harvey is called to attend Lola Forbes, a wealthy, unscrupulous young woman, who is fascinated by and sets her cap for him.

The arrival of Harvey's mother-in-law at his home for a prolonged stay, causes him to seek diversion in the company of Lola, whose illness has now become a mere pretext. One night Margaret, answering an emergency call, phones the hospital where Harvey is supposedly in attendance, and finds he had not been there all evening.

Upon his return, her suspicions are confirmed when she sees the wrist watch Lola has given Harvey as a birthday present. Courtney Webster, the lawyer handling Margaret's mother's affairs, and one of her former suitors, hearing of Harvey's affair with Lola, again revives his suit with Margaret.

One afternoon, while Webster is driving Margaret home from a shopping trip, they see Harvey and Lola together in his machine. The Harveys agree to a divorce.

Harvey marries Lola and Margaret yields to Webster's pleas and marries him. The court decrees that the child shall spend six months of each year with each parent. Webster grows to dislike the child Doris, and Lola treats her so harshly that she becomes seriously ill.

Harvey takes Doris to Margaret and for two or three nights they keep constant vigil behind a locked door in Webster's home and Doris recovers. Seeing her parents, Doris tells them she has had a terrible dream that they were all living in separate houses. Harvey returns home to find himself supplanted in Lola's affections by one of her former admirers. A separation is the result.

Webster and Margaret quarrel. Webster saves the child must leave the home. Doris overhears this and packing her little bag, starts to leave for the Orphan Home. Awakened by this Webster realizes he has no claim on Margaret's heart—that Doris is the living bond between her and Harvey. He gives her up and once more, father, mother and child are happily reunited.

"THE PARISH PRIEST"

"The Parish Priest," Dan Sully's greatest stage success, will be the featured picture attraction at the Maui theatre next week.

The production of this classic of the stage in pictures demonstrates again in the wide scope of possibilities for accurate and impressive settings as compared with the spoken stage.

The screen version holds close to the original story, yet it is greatly enhanced by the magnificent staging accorded it by the producers.

The story is that of a young clergyman whose big heart and noble character makes him the confidant of young and old in his parish.

Contrary to the impression of many on account of its title, "The Parish Priest" is not a religious play, nor does it deal with nationality or creed. William Desmond is in the title role and according to the critics and press, his work in this production is the best of his entire career. He is ably supported by a most excellent cast, among them being Ruth Renick, Margaret Livingston, Walter Perry, Thos. Ricketts, Carl Miller, J. Morris Foster and "Billie" Bennett.

"IS MATRIMONY A FAILURE?"

If you must elope, don't lose your marriage license! That is the predicament in which T. Roy Barnes and Lila Lee find themselves in the new Paramount comedy, "Is Matrimony A Failure?"

After successfully eluding their pursuers and making their way to a mountain resort to spend a blissful honeymoon, the lovers are refused admittance by the Puritanical proprietor, who has been wired by a disappointed rival that the couple are not married. The bride searches for the marriage license, but it has been lost enroute! This leads up to a series of laugh-provoking situations, which are enacted by a cast of notables. James Cruze was the megaphone artist.

"MIDNIGHT"

That the public thoroughly enjoys strong, virile drama flavored with a dash of romance and a sprinkle of comedy.

The drama of the piece hinges around an unfortunate early marriage of the heroine, a subsequent happy period of tender romance—and a denouement which has been played to give the utmost of dramatic suspense.

"THE KID"

The greatest and most sensational photoplay of his career.

It is an entirely different sort of production from either "The Case of Becky" or "First Love," but it is no less important as a strong dramatic offering. Miss Binney travels a difficult dramatic road in a manner truly natural and altogether entertaining.

One of the splendid features of the production is the star's support. Playing the leading role is Jack Mulhall, who needs no introduction to playgoers. In two fine father roles one finds those capable veterans, Edward Martindel and William Courtleigh. Other players who do good work are Sydney Bracey, Arthur S. Hull, Helene Lynch and Herbert Fortier.

Troop 9, Boy Scouts Enjoy Camping Trip; Back Home Once More

Ehukai Troop, No. 9, Boy Scouts Kahului, has returned home after spending two weeks camping at Kailua. All seemed pleased to get back home, but the memory of the outing will live long in their hearts and minds.

Fifteen boys composed the troop camping party. They left Kahului on August 14, at 7:00 A. M. and arrived at Kailua three hours later. Although it rained a little as they left Kahului, the weather at Kailua was wonderful. It took the Scouts about half an hour to pitch their tents, prepare a cooking place, gather wood do other necessary work, and arrange the camp so that it would appear picturesque. After that was done, ten mile teams would not have been able to hold the boys back from the wonderful swimming pool just a stone's throw from camp.

Camp life at Kailua was all that could be expected. The weather was beautiful and the old fishing pool was just as full of fish as formerly. Immediately after the swim the camp rules were enforced. The first thing on the program was selecting the cooks. One chief cook with two assistants cooked breakfast, another three prepared lunch and three others dinner and so on down the line. A sanitary inspector was appointed and also a camp police. Each Patrol Leader was instructed what to do and saw to it that it was done. Discipline was all that could be expected of a crowd of boys. The good behavior of the boys, and their willingness to do their part was certainly gratifying.

Sunday morning reveille was sounded at 5:00 and all stepped out in grand style for it was hiking day and the hike to Hana and return stopping off at Keanae. Promptly at 8:00 o'clock the march began, each Scout carrying with him a full pack, consisting of a blanket, two shelter halves, staves, two changes of clothes, knife and fork, tooth powder and brush, comb, brush, towels, bathing suit, mess kit, canteen and three days' provisions. The total weight amounted to about 35 lbs.

At noon the party arrived at Keanae and after enjoying a hearty lunch went around visiting the place. After two hours of rest the signal was sounded and again the boys took the trail to Hana making it in seven hours. The party, however, did not visit Hana proper, as the time was limited, the boys desiring to return to Kailua by Wednesday morning. It was certainly a long hike back and the boys were tired.

After spending three days at Kailua after the return from Hana, the camp was broken up and the happy 15 returned home, loaded with bird's nests and several other souvenirs.

The following composed the camping party:
A. S. Spencer, Scoutmaster, T. Enamoto, Scribe and Sanitary Inspector, Shorty Suma, Camp Police, Moe Fafata, Patrol Leader, Edgar Luke, Patrol Leader, Henry Long, Jr., Lono, Manuel Ross, Frank Kanana, Tano, Sammy Taylor, Harry Logan, George Aikau and Sonny De Ponte.

The Scouts of Troop 9, take this opportunity of expressing their thanks and appreciation to Mr. H. W. Rice for the use of his two trucks and to Mr. W. F. Pogue and family for their many kindnesses shown the scouts. All had a good time and are looking forward to the next camping which will probably be at Molokai.

Wailuku Christian Endeavors Active

The Christian Endeavor movement is now 40 years old. Its societies are in every country of the globe. It is larger today than it has ever been before in membership and is more effective. The topics it handles are in immediate touch with everyday life and are intensely practical. Central Maui is represented in splendid fashion by the society at the Wailuku Union Church. Each evening at 6:30 the young people meet in their own room, and after an inspiring service of song take up in vigorous fashion the topic of the evening. Next Sunday they are to discuss, "Lessons from God's Out-of-Doors, and soon after that, "Getting an Education." The society is not taking all its activities out in talk. As soon as the schools are open and the fall routine begins, the young people will spend their Sunday afternoon's in conducting Sunday School work at outlying points.

Paderewski Turns To Piano From Politics Practices For Hours WARSAW, Aug. 2. — (Associated Press Mail)—The announcement given out in Paris by Ignace Jan Paderewski the world-known pianist and former Premier of Poland, that he had retired definitely from the political life of Poland, has caused varied comment here. The radicals are relieved, as politically they feared his return; the Nationalists hope it is not true. They argue that Paderewski is too great a patriot to stand aloof from Poland during the very important elections of November, on the 5th of members of the diet and on the 12th of members of the senate. Even should he return to music at the present time they say, sooner or later he will have to resume his career as a Polish statesman. Paderewski has been away from Poland for two years; but in spite of this absence he still has great prestige here, and many faithful and loyal followers. The Nationalists are still trying to persuade him to return to Poland for the election campaign. The Radicals, it is believed will advance General Pilsudski, the present chief of state, as their candidate for the presidency of the republic. The Nationalists have not yet any candidate in sight; if Paderewski returned he undoubtedly would have their support. In the meantime reports from Switzerland, where Paderewski has been staying recently at Morjes, describe the former premier as devoting himself to his music, and convinced in his own mind that, for the present, he has decided upon a course of action which is the best for his country and himself. At Morjes Paderewski practiced many hours a day in preparation for his concert tour in the United States which is set to begin in November. He has played little during the past five years. Once was on the occasion of his wife's birthday, in 1919, at his hotel in Warsaw, and another when he was in California last spring. On the latter occasion he played without notes. His memory has not failed him, and in Switzerland also he played much without notes, waiting until his music could be collected. His favorite hours for practice were in the early morning, and again late at night. His idle time he spent in reading or in feeding his prize chickens, of which he has a large number. ACCURACY OF MEDICAL DIAGNOSIS QUESTIONED GLASSGOW, Aug. 29—(Associated Press Mail)—Doctors often fail to diagnose correctly lung consumption as distinct from other respiratory diseases, according to Professor Erist, of Paris, in a recent address before the British Medical Association. The speaker said that in 1916 at Compiegne 192 men were sent into hospital with a diagnosis of tuberculosis. Observations showed the diagnosis to be justified in only 53 cases. The 139 other cases, he declared, were undoubtedly non-consumptive.
