It is evident that the popular expression, so recently made, has drawn King and People nearer together. We know, now, that WE are in earnest, and in mutual accord for the common good. While Mr. Government is a Constitutional Monarchist, and a suspicious circumstance, that the popular will is in accord with the legal bestowment of the Crown. It promises a harmonious and a successful reign, which will give ample protection to all men, and secure to them the enjoyment of liberty regulated by law, which is the greatest blessing which Government can bestow.

Upon the conclusion of the address, the choir sang the stirring anthem, E O LA KA MOI I KE AKUA KO SAKA MAI. The choir, followed by the members of the late King and others, returned to the Palace. The audience then dispersed, and for a long time lingered around the Palace gate cheering for KING LUALABA.

The appearance of the military was unusually grand. The military, who were in full dress, were accompanied by the U. S. Marine Corps from the Benicia. They are a fine body of men, and splendidly drilled. A royal salute was fired, upon the elevation of the Royal Standard within the Palace from the battery on Punchbowl and the Benicia, and the several church bells of the city rang out their joyful peals when His Majesty had taken the oath.

At an early hour on Thursday morning, the streets of Honolulu were filled with the members of the military organization, who were to take part in the ceremonies attendant upon the taking of the Oath to the Constitution by KING LUALABA. MEETING OF THE ASSEMBLY! ELECTION OF PRINCE LUNALILO AS KING! IMMENSE ENTHUSIASM!

In accordance with the order of the Cabinet Ministers, the Legislature met in the Assembly Chambers at 12 o'clock noon, on Wednesday, Jan. 8.

On the arrival of the Prince, at 5 minutes before 12, the immense crowd outside the building set up long and loud cheers, that spoke their loyal aspirations for the coming King.

Members absent, His Royal Highness Wm. C. Lunailo, Gov. Dominis, Hon. D. Kalakaua and Kahanu.

Her late Majesty's Highness, the Princess Victoria Kamailei Kaunani, to whom in the event of the death of His late Majesty without heirs, the Constitution declared that the Throne should devolve.

The members of the Cabinet devoutly ask the blessings of Heaven upon your deliberations and public acts. They have appreciated the responsibility resting upon them, and have striven to maintain tranquility and order.

On motion the House then proceeded to take up the business of the session, the election of a successor to the Throne by ballot.

Each member upon taking his seat found the following circular upon his desk, accompanied with a neat ballot for the Prince.

Let every member write his name on his ballot, so that we may know that you are not traitors to the people who ask that LUNALILO should be their King.

Hon. Mr. Kaai introduced a resolution to the effect that each member write his name on the back of his ballot.

trust imposed upon him by the free choice of the Assembly, and tendered his thanks for the honor conferred, and for the confidence reposed in him.
