E. S. BOYD,
Commissioner of Public Lands,
Public Lands Office, Honolulu, July 1st,
1902. 36-4

NOTICE.

PROPOSED DISPOSITION OF PUBLIC LANDS NOT IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE HAWAIIAN LAND LAW.

The officers of the Land Department of the Territory of Hawaii, the public and prospective purchasers or entry men of public lands in the new Olaa tract, Puna, Hawaii, are hereby notified that the undersigned, T. J. Ryan, settled upon lots numbered 211, 212 and 213 of said new Olaa tract, containing about one hundred and fifty acres, on or about June 9th, 1899, nearly one year before the taking effect of the Organic Act with the intention of perfecting entry for said tract whenever the same should be legally opened to entry.

That ever since the 9th day of July, 1899, and up to the present time, more than three years, the said T. J. Ryan has continuously resided upon said lots and made valuable improvements thereon to the extent of at least one thousand dollars, and during all that time has had no other home or place of residence and has during that time raised crops on each and all of said lots, and now has crops growing on each and all of said lots, together with buildings, fences and other substantial improvements, and that he still intends to perfect entry for the whole of the tract settled upon when legally opened to entry according to law.

That the order of Territorial Land Commissioner Boyd as published proposing to open same lands or lots in the new Olaa tract on August 4th, 1902, (none of which lands or lots are described) and prohibiting any entry man from entering more than one lot of fifty acres is not in accordance with the Hawaiian public land law, to-wit: The right of purchase lease under which he seeks to offer it, and which allows the entry-man to enter 200 acres of that class of land, and therefore the offering under such restrictions is in violation of said law and in excess of his authority, hence void.

That it has long since been settled by the Land Department at Washington that no entry-man can plead as "innocent purchaser in good faith" in the matter of entering public lands. The proposed purchaser or entry-man must personally examine the land before entry. If he fails to do so he is bound by his own negligence.

Therefore any person entering either lot 211 or lot 212 or lot 213 will do so with the full knowledge that there is a valid existing adverse right and an actual settler in possession residing thereon whose right to enter all of said tract is precluded by the order of the Territorial Land Commissioner in violation of law, and that any entry made upon either or all of said lots will be contested for the above and other reasons.

Dated July 30, 1902.

A LAW TOURNEY.

Jap With Throat Cut Found in Front Street House.

Hilo has been given an illustration the past week of the possibilities of usurpation and misuse by the Sheriff of this Island when he becomes blood-hound mad on the scent of crime. No one with the welfare of society at heart would lay a detaining hand on the sleuths of the police force as they go on a stampede among the Japanese rabbits that in this city are frequently found gnawing at the roots of tender trees in the young orchard of Public Order. But even in the suppression of crime it is in order in America to file protests against despotic measures by executive officers in their efforts to fasten a crime upon men, whether they be of good or ill repute.

A Japanese carpenter named Motohiro Kitara was found last Friday night in the upper story of a Japanese house on Front street dead with his throat cut. The Deputy Sheriff immediately impanelled a Coroner's Jury and set them to investigating at the scene of the death. That night nine Japanese were arrested and locked up. The next morning, Sheriff Andrews, not being satisfied with the Coroner's Jury impanelled another, on which he placed three Japanese.

The first jury had not been discharged yesterday. When asked what he wanted of two juries, the Sheriff said, "there is no law against it." The general inference is that if one jury refuses to return a verdict satisfactory to the Sheriff, he will call on the other for the right brand of goods. Friends of the arrested Japanese employed the firms of Wise & Ross and LeBlond & Smith to defend them. These lawyers at once applied to the Sheriff for a consultation with their clients. This, the Sheriff refused. Saturday evening application was made to Judge Little for a writ of mandamus directing the Sheriff to allow the attorneys to see their clients. After a spirited argument in chambers, Judge Little refused the writ on the ground that the prisoners, having been confronted with no charge by the Sheriff, they were not entitled to counsel.

Monday morning, for some unknown reason the Sheriff took Funakochi, whom he calls the ring-leader, before District Magistrate Hapai and asked that he be remanded to the custody of the Sheriff until August 5. The prisoner at this time had testified before the Coroner's jury and no charge was laid against him by the Sheriff. The attorneys for the prisoner were allowed to appear and argue in his behalf, but were not allowed by the Sheriff to communicate with him or to look him in the face. The proceedings before Judge Hapai were anomalous. They perhaps have no duplicate in the annals of criminal jurisprudence. The Sheriff started the ball rolling by moving that the Japanese be remanded for one week. The motion was contested by the attorneys for the defense, but was allowed by the Court. One of the noticeable clubs used by the Sheriff on the Court was the query, "How does the Court know that I will obey its order if it declares against me?"

The Court also overruled the motion of prisoner's counsel asking permission to consult with their client and overruled their motion that the prisoner be admitted to bail. When the farce was over, the prisoner was taken back to jail by the Sheriff without mittimus or further direction than the order which had been given because the Sheriff wanted it.

The next chapter was in the Circuit Court. Judge Little, who

A FADING ART.

Hawaiian Handicrafts That Are Disappearing With Time.

The handicrafts of Hawaiian women that were in vogue half a century ago are gradually being forgotten and little disposition shown to revive them. In weaving the industry is confined to the making of hats and plain mats, the demand for which is so active here and on the mainland that all products are put upon the market and sold as soon as they leave the workers' hands. Beyond the skill of a few venerable native women on Nihaulittle is seen of the old arts that won the admiration of womankind in America and Europe in the days of the early missionaries. In some of the households here and in other lands there are shown to the inquisitive visitor a few choice specimens of weaving, and in the Bishop Museum there are, of course, rich treasures of old handiwork, but the curio collector of today finds scant opportunity to supply his cabinet with choice Hawaiian wares. The old families of Honolulu will part with none of these things and the deft weavers of the long-ago are nearly departed. Very few of the present generation care to revive the industry. The women of Nihaulittle and other obscure parts of the Islands, where, really, the finest work is done, labor as the painter or poet—only at such times as the spirit moves them. There are now no places where Hawaiian idols, spears and other relics can be bought. The has so stimulated Chinese artisans in the line of imitation that there is scarcely anything in the stock of local shopkeepers that is genuine.

DATE OF CORONATION.

Ceremony Will Take Place on the Ninth of August.

London, July 18.—An official notification was issued this morning that by the King's command the coronation of King Edward and Queen Alexandra will take place on August 9th. Two rehearsals of the procession from Buckingham palace to Westminster Abby took place this morning and the officials of the various state departments concerned in the Abby ceremony are again busy with preparations for the crowning.

Cowes, Isle of Wight, July 18.—A bulletin issued this morning by the King's physician says: "The King continues to make satisfactory progress. He is benefiting in every way from the change. His majesty sleeps well and is able to have his couch placed on the open deck during the greater part of the day."

Washington, July 18.—Unless Whitelaw Reid changes his mind, there will be no special representative of the United States at King Edward's coronation next month, and Mr. Choate will attend in the usual form. Reid has notified the State Department that he intends to sail for the United States on the 25th instant, and of course the special embassy will be broken up.

Rubber From Oil.

New York, July 18.—A special to the Sun from Austin, Texas, says: A series of tests covering a period of several months is said to have demonstrated that a high grade of rubber may be obtained from Beaumont oil when put through a refining process. This discovery is to be placed in practical operation by the Gum Carbo Company, with a capital stock of $1,000,000, which filed its charter here today. Cotton oil is combined with Beaumont oil in the manufacture of this rubber substitute.

Pope is Mad.

London, July 19.—The Rome correspondent of the Daily Chronicle says the Pope is intensely displeased at the way in which the Commission of Cardinals has conducted the negotiations with Judge Taft in the matter of the friars in the Philippines.

"I learn from an authoritative source," says the correspondent, "that besides annulling the procedure of the Commission of Cardinals, the Pope has summarily dissolved it, expressing his view that the American demands were reasonable, and signifying his readiness to treat with Judge Taft personally."

Noted Japanese Dead.

Yokohama, July 18.—Marquis Saigo, a distinguished statesman, died today of cancer. He commanded the Formosa punitive expedition, held many important positions and was a brother of the hero of the Satsuma rebellion.

OLAA REPUBLICANS.

Will Fight for a Separate Voting Precinct.

A large and enthusiastic crowd of Oloo voters turned out last Friday evening to file their choice for the District Committee and delegates to the Territorial Convention. Considerable discussion was had over the action of the Republican Central Committee in not recognizing the Ninth Precinct. The President asked Territorial Committee-man F. B. McStocker to explain to the Club the position he had taken in the matter and the present status of the situation.

Mr. McStocker said: "Some little time ago I wrote Governor Dole asking him to establish a precinct in Oloo, so as to give residents here an opportunity to vote, which was practically denied them under existing circumstances—voters having to travel nine to thirty miles to enjoy the franchise dear to American people. On January 21st the Executive Council passed a resolution making this the Ninth Precinct.

"The action of the Council was published in the Advertiser of the 21st.

"It was not officially signed and on this petty technicality the Central Committee are trying to rule us out, I intend to fight the proposition to a finish and can't understand the position they take, it certainly isn't for the good of the party."

The following members were nominated for the District Committee: J. F. Clay, H. Elderts, Wm. M. McQuaid, G. D. Supe, H. Wicks, H. J. Williams.

Delegates to the Territorial Convention: Henry Hayes, Geo. W. Paty.

Brief addresses were made by the several candidates. Geo. W. Paty made a stirring address to the natives, which was loudly applauded. It was voted to have a special meeting after the election August 2 and invite Judge Little, Rev. Mr. Desha and Representative James Lewis to address the guests and members of Oloo Republican Club.

THE PORTLAND'S STORY.

Gallant Fight of Steamer in the Arctic Ice Floes.

Port Townsend (Wash.), July 15.—The steamer Portland, Captain Lindquist, for which fears were entertained in the ice floes of the Arctic seas, came into port this afternoon looking none the worse for her experiences in the north. While conceding that the vessel had a very narrow escape, Captain Lindquist asserts that he felt throughout the trying days of her imprisonment that she would come out all right. His principal fear centered about the time the jam would take place, and the events at that momentous time showed that he had good cause for fear.

When the smash-up occurred the stanch Portland was lifted like a cork high out of the water, held a few moments, which seemed centuries, on top of the quivering mass, and then the ice settled out from under her and the vessel was dropped violently back into the water, churning up a mighty wave that drenched the packet from stem to stern.

From May 7th until June 27th the Portland was at the mercy of the ice floes, and in that time was carried from latitude 59 deg. 15 min. north and 168 deg. 2 min. west to 69 deg. 8 min. north and 168 deg. 5 min. west every passing day having its terror concerning the final dissolution of the floe. The calm determination of Captain Lindquist and his officers went far toward convincing the passengers and few gave utterances to their fears.

When the pack passed Cape Prince of Wales, four venturesome passengers left the Portland to make their way ashore. After proceeding forty miles, the party returned bearing W. S. Bliss of San Francisco with both feet frozen. This was the only accident marking the entire trip of the Portland.

Captain Lindquist ascribes his vessel's predicament to overenthusiasm in the race to reach Nome first with tidings from the outside to the people who had been isolated for many months. The Portland being in advance of the procession, was more firmly caught than were the other vessels, which met only the slush ice and were enabled to back out when the pack came down on them. May 10th the heavy pack came down and the Portland was cut off from all possible chance of escape.

Several days later the Jeanie appeared on the scene and was soon a prisoner, and the two vessels remained in the ice until June 27th, escaping within a few hours of each other. On June 5th the Portland was carried through Behring straits at a high speed on the floating field of ice, impelled by a strong northerly current. Twenty days later the highest point was reached, the vessel being then 69.08 degrees north and 168.05 degrees west. Two days later the watch from the forepeak shouted "Clear ahead!" and after that the break-up occurred.

After being raised high and then plunged back again into the icy water Captain Lindquist knew that the long-looked-for opportunity had arrived, and soon had the Portland bucking with all her weight and the full strength of her engines against the apparently insurmountable barriers of the ice between her and freedom. Time after time the plucky vessel bounded back like a ball from the wall of ice, but, nothing daunted, Captain Lindquist persevered, and, after six hours of the hardest sailing ever done by the Portland, she forced the ice apart and went scudding out into her native element.

The rejoicing on board was something indescribable, tears and cheers intermingling with the shrill screech of the whistle signalling victory to the Jeanie. With this vessel the same course was pursued. Six hours after the Portland was free the stanch old Jeanie, Captain Mason, came steaming out to join her and both proceeded to Nome, where they were received with great enthusiasm. The Portland had sustained no injury whatever to her engine or propeller among the icebergs. The Jeanie had her propeller broken and had to be assisted to Nome, where she still was when the Portland left.

In the cargo discharged at Nome were several large and finely constructed dories not on the manifest. These were the result of the care and foresight of Captain Lindquist, who had them constructed from the lumber aboard to be used if any emergency required the passengers and the crew to take to the boats.

FIVE THOUSAND MAIDENS.

World's Fair Grounds, St. Louis, July 12.—Five thousand young women from Iowa to sing the praises of that state upon a special occasion at the World's Fair is the suggestion brought up at the meeting of the Iowa World's Fair Commission the other day. To the credit of the commission he said that the proposition met with unanimous approval. The commission will concern itself first with the question of a suitable building at the Exposition. The Iowa appropriation is $125,000, and the commission will aim to exploit a variety of State interests, particularly the opportunities for manufacturing and mining. The agriculture possibilities and realities of Iowa are so well known that the commission desires that the public shall not overlook the other important interests. Former Governor William Larrabee has been made permanent chairman of the board.

RUSSIA TAKES TRUSTS.

Would Lead in International Movement of Control.

London, July 17.—Details of an important move by Russia, which have evidently been suppressed hitherto by the censor, have transpired in London. This move is no less than a proposal by the imperial Government for an international conference to deal with trusts.

Baron de Staal, Russian Ambassador in London, about ten days ago presented to the British Government a note from M. de Witte, the Russian Minister of Finance, which note was sent also to all the powers that signed the Brussels sugar convention, proposing that these powers should consider a common means to protect international commerce against the artificial depression of prices, not only by Government measures, such as export bounties or the control of production, but only by the much more dangerous processes adopted by trusts, private undertakings or cartels, which tend artificially to influence the international market.

This explains the mysterious reference made in the Financial Messenger of St. Petersburg early this week to a recent note of M. de Witte which, the paper said, "is an application in the economic domain of the principles of The Hague conference."

St. Petersburg, July 18.—The Financial Messenger says M. de Witte's note protests against Russia being placed on the same footing as those states which grant export premiums to the sugar industry, and also contests the right of such states to impose special taxes on sugar of Russian origin, as being contrary to the most favored nation clauses.

Commenting on the note, the Financial Messenger says: Failing an international agreement, there is only one remedy, namely, increased customs duties. In proposing common international action Russia proves that she would prefer no isolated legislation in her own interests, but a joint agreement based upon the general welfare and solidarity of all the states.

The Russian financial agent in London, M. Fatischeff, in an interview with reference to M. de Witte's note, said the proposal had the Czar's warm approval. He could not say whether the United States had been invited to the conference, but he was sure a representative of that Government would be very welcome.

Tatischeff hesitated to predict what would be the practical outcome of the conference, but expressed the opinion that it would be of advantage by clearing the air and that if an understanding were possible on the sugar question it would pave the way of dealing with the matter of the other bounties. He contended that in this matter Great Britain was equally affected with Russia by Germany and the United States, and he pointed out the enormous difference in the prices of iron and steel in favor of the exported article.

Incidentally Tatischeff remarked that no replies had yet been received to the invitation sent out by Russia.

CHOLERA IN THE ORIENT.

Several Deaths in the City of Peking Alarm the Empress.

Peking, July 16.—Several deaths from cholera have occurred in the Forbidden City. The Dowager Empress is alarmed and has kept the court physicians busy preparing remedies. The disease is increasing, especially among the Chinese soldiers here and at Pao Ting Fu. Reports from various parts of the empire show that the epidemic is steadily spreading inland from the coast.

Manila, July 16.—Cholera is still spreading in the provinces. The provincial totals are 14,567 cases and 10,937 deaths. Manila averages forty cases daily.

Queen's Condition Critical.

Spa (Belgium), July 16.—The Queen of the Belgians today is suffering from marked weakness of the heart, and her condition is arousing much anxiety.

SMITH RETIRED.

President Roasts His "Kill and Burn" Order.

Washington, July 16.—Secretary Root brought from Oyster Bay the case of General Jacob H. Smith, tried by court-martial at Manila on account of orders issued by Major Waller. General Smith was found guilty of the charges by the court and sentenced to be admonished by the reviewing authority. The President has so admonished General Smith and retired him under the law which provides that officers having reached the age of 62 years may be retired at will by the President.

Secretary Root supplements the command of President Roosevelt in a long circular, in which he explains the conditions which resulted in the court martial of General Smith, and shows that although Smith issued the "kill and burn" order, as a matter of fact few persons were killed as a result of that order, the casualties being confined almost wholly to the eleven natives killed under Major Waller's direction.

Parker Won't Accept.

Col. Sam Parker returned from Hawaii in the Mauna Loa this morning and, the talk of the Republicans for the past week having been to put him up as Delegate to Washington, a Bulletin reporter called on him at his Emma street residence and asked him what to say. Colonel Parker replied:

"I shall not run under my circumstances. When you ask me why, I tell you that my reasons are the same as those I gave President Roosevelt.

"I believe the Republican party can put up a man and win in this next campaign but I will not be that man. I am out of politics, as I say, for the same reason that I gave President Roosevelt.

"Yes; I have been approached by various parties to run as Delegate to Washington on the Republican side. My answer was firmly in the negative. I am not a candidate and I positively decline to run.

"I had hardly alighted from the Mauna Loa this morning before a party approached me and put the question I have suggested."

Animals for South Africa.

Chicago, July 16.—The British transport service, which for many months conducted an active trade at Port Chalmette, is to reopen its camps there for the shipment of horses, mules and cattle to South Africa, says the Chronicle's New Orleans correspondent. It is found that the American animals are the hardest for the veldt work, and the British Government will need a great number under its agreement of restocking the farms of the burghers who suffered in the recent war. The officers are now on the way and the camp will be reopened immediately upon their arrival.

John W. Mackay Stricken.

London, July 16.—John W. Mackay of San Francisco was prostrated as a result of yesterday's great heat, and is now ill at his home on Carltonhome Terrace. Inquiries made there tonight elicited the information that the rumor that Mackay was in a dangerous condition is without foundation, but it was added that the doctors have ordered that he be kept perfectly quiet for several days.

CZAR STILL DREAMING.

The Czar of Russia led in proposing a peace conference with the purpose of making war a thing of the past. Since the Convention of the Nations at The Hague, at least three of the powers have conducted important wars and practically all nations drew the sword in the crisis at Peking.

The era of universal peace cannot be brought about by the adoption of resolutions at a convention of potentates kings and presidents.

Now the up-to-date and ambitious Czar proposes another international alliance for the purpose of controlling the trusts. All European nations have been invited to confer with Russia on this subject and the United States has been told that its participation in the movement would be welcomed. De Witte the greatest financial minister in Europe is the author of the scheme, while the Czar is the father of the idea. Success is to be attained by the prevention of the artificial depression of prices. It is proposed to do this by abolishing government bounties, and by restricting various dangerous processes by which trusts influence the international market.

The Russian bear has ever been a bold beast and in essaying the task of inaugurating the new era in the economic world is even more bold than in the attempt to initiate universal peace by resolutions at an afternoon tea party. Such an International Economic Court would not only have to deal with bounties, but with protective tariffs as well. The one affects international trade far less than the other. Tariffs and bounties have been created with their bearing on revenue and domestic industry in view, rather than and trusts. To clothe an international Congress with power to re-align the schedules of imports and bounties of the leading nations of the world, that they might operate, chiefly as controlling forces of trusts and international trade, would be more radical than the substitution of the olive branch for the sword in the settlement of international disputes. It is the Czars decennial dream. It will provoke but passing notice from the Pierpont Morgans and the busy constructive statesmen of Europe and America. The Czar's scheme will provoke a new cloud of theories from the savants in the colleges. It may also serve the clever purpose of the Russian ministry which is seeking for an excuse to pile up trade restrictions against other countries which are just now giving Russia the worst of it all up and down the line of international trade.

WHAT HE MEANT.

"As to Delegates in Congress there is a growing sentiment at Washington against having the territories represented at all. There is Cuba and Porto Rico and the Philippines. Frankly they are a source of much dread."—Delegate Flynn of Oklahoma.

Is Mr. Flynn ignorant of the fact that the Republic of Cuba is a free and independent nation since May 20, 1902? The Hilo Tribune interviewer ought to have known better and give the gentleman from Oklahoma a little lesson in contemporary history.—Independent.

Cuba, free and independent, has been the source of as much dread to Congressmen as the other islands.

she has the spirit of Great Britain she will make representations at Washington demanding that subjects of the Mikado in Hawaii be convicted, if convicted, according to the tenor of the constitution and not according to the 15th century statutes this country inherited from a missionary ridden monarchy.

IF THE Japanese now in jail are cutthroat thugs and leprous extortioners, THE TRIBUNE advocates their suppression and extermination, by white caps if necessary. It looks better, however, for private citizens to take the law into their own hands than it does for those in office to do so—those who have sworn to uphold the law and support the constitution.

THE Portuguese Americans in the district have shown an interest in politics and loyalty to the Republican party, which entitles them to a representation in the highest councils of the party. It cannot therefore be presumed that the rank and file of the party will fail to generously support their representatives for Delegates to the Territorial and District conventions at the Primaries next Saturday.

SOMETHING FINE IN SADDLES.

I take this means of informing "Rough Riders" in particular and the public in general that I have now in my harness shop a line of the famous Lawrence stock saddles, manufactured by the Geo. Lawrence Co., of Portland, Oregon. These saddles have a distinct individuality. They are nice to look at, easy to ride, guaranteed not to hurt the horse and are practically unbreakable. They are built like the "One Horse Shay."

"One part made just as strong as the rest." And with reasonable care should last a life time.

The Lawrence saddles are used by cowboys, prospectors and ranch men from Mexico to Klondike, from the Willamette river to South Africa and are not unknown in Honolulu. The Montana Indian, a past master in the art of broncho riding, after losing his money, his horse, his blankets and his dog in a "J. Pot," will swing his Geo. Lawrence saddle across his back and stoically walk off to his wicky-up, feeling that he has done his duty, but he wont give up that Lawrence saddle.

Some persons whose education has been neglected along practical lines, has skeptical at first sight of Lawrence saddles. One day's hard riding however, is sufficient to dissipate such skepticism and in order to get at these same doubting Thomases I propose to put out a half dozen of these fine saddles to the first applicants at a greatly reduced price; strictly to advertise. First come first served.

I have the largest assortment of harness and horse and mule trimming in the Hawaiian Islands and my prices are on a modern basis.

In addition to my Hilo business I am representative and salesman for the Geo. Lawrence Co., of Portland, Oregon, an old house, established in 1857, with an enviable reputation both as to business success and fair dealing and the finest and most complete electrical harness factory on the Pacific coast.

To plantation stores and other dealers who buy in quantity and ship direct from factory I can offer extraordinary inducements.

Soliciting a share of your patronage I am very respectfully,

L. K. PEARSON,

PECK IS HOME.

Did Good Work While in Washington for Hilo.

Philip Peck who returned on the Enterprise from an extended trip through the east gives an interesting account of his work at Washington in behalf of the interests of Hilo. Mr. Peck expects good results to follow the visit of the investigation committee and thinks that Hilo should make some move toward a proper reception of the visitors. He points out that Honolulu, wide awake to her interests, has already prepared to greet the commissioners. Hilo and this island has questions that the public welfare demands should be presented to the Senatorial Commission.
Concerning the Federal Buildings and the breakwater, Mr. Peck feels that there is good prospect of securing action on the former at the next session of Congress. The breakwater is farther in the distance. Mr. Peck said that he disseminated knowledge of the geography of the Hawaiian Islands with a persistence that yielded good returns. He taught them the location of the town of Hilo and distributed maps of the bay.
Mr. Peck expresses warmly his appreciation of courtesies and assistance extended to him by Congressman Stark of Nebraska and Burton of Ohio.

ALIENS ON JURIES.

Attorney General Says They Are Not "Good Men and True."

Sheriff Andrews, armed with a double coroner's jury is not disturbed on account of the opinion of the Attorney General given below. If his Japanese jury is not a legal body, he can fall back on his haole crowd and laugh at those who laugh at him. The Attorney General says:
Territory of Hawaii,
Office of the Attorney General,
Honolulu, H. I., July 25, 1902.
Mr. A. M. Brown, High Sheriff of the Territory of Hawaii.

Dear Sir:—I am in receipt of your request for my opinion "whether a person not an American citizen is for that reason exempt from duty as a coroner's juror."
Section 974 of the Penal Laws of 1897 provides that the coroner in case a coroner's inquest becomes necessary, shall summon "six good and lawful men of the district." The phrase "good and lawful men (liberes et regales homines)" has been used and has had a recognized and established meaning in English law for nearly a thousand years. It does not refer to the moral character of the men, but to their legal qualifications for the discharge of civil functions. Coroner's jurors have functions prescribed and defined by law; they are required to take an oath of office, and they receive statutory fees for their services. Although there is nothing in the Organic Act or in the laws of the Territory expressly declaring that a coroner's jury must be composed of citizens of the United States and of the Territory, I seriously doubt the right of the coroner to compel any one who is not a citizen to serve; in other words, I think it is at least extremely doubtful whether a person who is not a citizen is a "good and lawful man of the district" within the meaning of the law.
Very respectfully yours,
E. P. DOLE,
Attorney General.

HILO REPUBLICAN CLUB.

Holds Meeting and Endeavors to Mend Olan's Troubles.
There was a special meeting of the Hilo Republican Club Wednesday night to consider matters in connection with Olan precinct. After discussion it was decided that since the complications concerning the Olan precinct might result in no representation, this precinct should do all possible to aid in getting around the difficulty. It was therefore decided to allow Olan precinct one delegate to the Territorial Convention and three delegates to the District Convention. The men elected at the Olan precinct are to be given credentials by the Hilo precinct.
A resolution was passed asking the Governor to set aside Waiakea as a separate voting precinct. It was also resolved that the Hilo Republican Club become a member of the National League of Republican clubs. A committee was appointed to secure permanent headquarters for the club.

Manager Austin of W. C. Peacock & Co., received a wireless telegram yesterday from the Honolulu house directing him to offer the Hilo Hotel for sale at once. Tenders are asked for the furniture and fixtures, inventory of which may be seen at the offices of W. C. Peacock & Co., in this city.

OFFICIALS EXPLAIN.

Why Jim Clement Was Buried Without a Coffin.

Last week the news columns of the TRIBUNE contained the following item:
It is reported that Jim Clement was buried in Waimea without coffin or ceremony. If such is the case action should be taken to punish those who duty it was to give him proper burial. Because Jim Clement was an unfortunate pauper is no justification for the reported burial he received at the hands of those in authority. It is the policy of governments to have poor persons supported by the community where they were living when pauperism took possession of them, and where all the facts are best known. It was either through ignorance or neglect on the part of the officials at Waimea that the reported shameful act occurred.
This paragraph called forth a letter which the TRIBUNE is glad to publish. A little criticism hurts nobody when explanations are so readily forthcoming. Public officials should not worry if they receive an occasional shot. These things stir up the stagnant atmosphere and promote the waning industry of making Latin quotations. Let the good work go on, and let the two government officials rest assured that they may rely on the TRIBUNE to give their side of any case as much publicity as it does the side represented by their critic. Here is the letter:
Kumuela, Hawaii,
July 29, 1902.
Editor Hilo Tribune,
Sir:—In the Tribune of July 25, you made some remarks on the burial of Jim Clement at Waimea that are in the worst taste and altogether unjustifiable.
When the body was found it had been dead some ten hours and exposed to the air, which fact and the necessary post mortem rendered immediate interment necessary. The place where he was found was 4 miles from the town and it being late Sunday afternoon no coffin could be provided in time. At any rate we are only concerned with the sanitary part of the interment and it is no part of our duty to provide coffins any more than it is the province of the TRIBUNE to teach us our work. We would advise the writer to look up the law relating to the disposal of unclaimed bodies and to remember the old proverb "Ne autor ultra crepidam."
Since you have criticised us in your paper, perhaps you will kindly publish our reply.
We enclose our names in the usual manner.
We are, Sir, Yours etc. Two Government officials,
S. M. SPENCER,
DEPUTY SHERIFF.

Weak Nerves

Are you ever nervous? Do you lie awake nights, suffer from despondency, and often feel discouraged? It's a terrible life to lead. Don't suffer in this way any more. Get strong and well.

Follow the advice of Mrs. Thomas Pritchard, of Adelaide, South Australia. She sends us her photograph and says:
"I had a terrible illness which left my nerves all unstrung. I had severe headaches, indigestion, sleeplessness, and my nerves were just as weak as they could be. I then tried Ayer's Sarsaparilla and I began to improve at once. My appetite returned, my digestion improved, and my nerves became strong and steady."

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

There are many imitations "Sarsaparillas." Be sure you get Ayer's.
Use Ayer's Pills with the Sarsaparilla. These are purely vegetable pills. They cure constipation, biliousness, sick headache.

HILO REPUBLICANS MEET.

Men Appointed for Delegates to Two Conventions.

The Republicans of the Hilo District met last Friday night and placed in nomination candidates for delegates to the Territorial Convention and the District Convention. The Fireman's hall was crowded with enthusiastic Republicans who quickly dispatched the business of the evening. There were no speeches. The meeting was called to order by the President of the club, Thos. C. Ridgway. C. N. Prouty was in his place as secretary. The following were named as candidates for the position of delegates to the Territorial Convention: Philip Peck, R. T. Guard, A. C. McKeeney, J. T. Brown, G. F. Affonso.

For the District Convention the following were named: Philip Peck, Geo. H. Williams, James Lewis, Ben H. Brown, C. E. Hapai, Wm. H. Beers, Jose Vierra, M. G. Santos, M. J. Gouvea, W. S. McLean, P. C. Beamer, Otto Rose.

CORN CORNER OFF.

Price of Great Cereal Drops Fifteen Cents a Bushel.

Chicago, July 15.—The famous John W. Gates corner on July corn came to an abrupt termination today when it became known that shorts to an extent of a good million bushels had effected private settlements with Harris, Gates & Co., and that the deal was at an end so far as the steel magnate was concerned. The July price responded to the settlement by a quick drop of 15 3/4 cents to 65 1/4 cents. Later it recovered a fraction and closed at 65 1/2 cents, substantially the price of the cash article.

Just how many bushels were subject to private settlement will probably never be known, nor is there much chance that the identity of the "big fellows" in the trade, who doubtless contributed liberally to the fortunes of Gates and the friends associated with him in the deal, will never be positively known. Gates is at present in New York, and Scotten, manager of the Gates-Harris house, would admit only the fact of a settlement by the outstanding shorts. Even the fact of a termination of the July deal was left largely to inference. But the trade readily figured that, with the shorts practically all in, nothing in the shape of a corner could exist.

LINCOLN REPUBLICAN CLUB.

Organization is Renewed With Brilliant Prospects.

The Lincoln Republican Club held a meeting last Monday night at Fireman's hall for the purpose of perfecting its organization and girding its loins for loyal work in the coming campaign. The Club was organized two years ago and proved a reliable force in carrying out the Republican program of that year. The club will be stronger this year than ever. The Portuguese element of the Republican party has been given generous recognition in the party councils and has proved that it merited all that has been extended.

The meeting Monday night elected the following new officers: M. G. Santos, president; Joseph Vierra, vice president; G. F. Affonso, first secretary; Jose de Freitas, second secretary; Joseph Vierra, Aug. G. Serrao, Joaquim Carvalho, committee on finance. Working committees on by-laws and enrollment were appointed. It is estimated that this organization will command a following of about 150 votes. It is expected that further naturalizations will swell the vote to 300 within a short time.

BEEF SUGAR PROSPECTS.

Increased Acreage and Bigger Output Than Ever.

Judging from the reports which the different factories have given us from time to time on their acreage, stand of beets, progress of field work and improvements in machinery, we anticipate a considerable increase in the output of beet sugar this year. Not only has the acreage been considerably extended, but new factories have been added to the number of previously existing ones, and many improvements have been made which will force the process of diffusion to yield more of its sugar. We consider the following figures, which are based on the best information obtainable, as a conservative estimate of the coming output of beet sugar. Especial attention is called to the fact that Michigan has now for the first time passed California, while Colorado will almost double its output. We add the figures for 1901 for the sake of comparison:

	1901.	1902.
	Pounds.	Pounds.
California.....	143,947,800	161,000,000
Colorado.....	47,411,000	87,136,000
Michigan.....	106,267,500	183,456,000
Minnesota.....	5,400,000	10,500,000
Nebraska.....	14,912,300	17,000,000
New York.....	9,337,983	9,600,000
Ohio.....	2,492,000	4,500,000
Oregon.....	3,066,000	4,250,000
Utah.....	30,710,000	42,000,000
Washington.....	2,200,000	4,000,000
Wisconsin.....	3,466,550	5,824,000
Total.....	359,211,733	529,296,000

This would be an increase of 160,000,000 pounds in round figures over last year's production, and an increase of almost 357,000,000 pounds over that of the campaign 1900-01. At this rate the beet sugar industry will produce in two more years all the sugar which all the states west of the Mississippi can consume, even if the present rate of increase in consumption is maintained.—Beet Sugar Gazette.

Papaikou Republicans.

The Third Precinct Club met last Friday evening at Papaikou for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year and to nominate delegates to the District and Territorial Conventions. The following are the new officers of the precinct club: W. C. Cook, president; E. Brumaghim, first vice-president; E. J. Weight, second vice-president; D. Butchart, secretary; R. Duncan, treasurer; John T. Moir, E. J. Weight, J. Kanaeholo, judges of election; W. Silver, J. Webster, J. Cameron, Leon Malterre and E. A. Von Arnswaldt, executive committee.

W. C. Cook was nominated for District Committeeman and Territorial Delegate.

Something Besides Grass Huts.

World's Fair Grounds, St. Louis, July 12.—Members of the Builders Exchange of Honolulu, Hawaii, are planning to combat the common impression among the States that grass huts are the common dwellings of the island territory. They will have an exhibition of Hawaiian architecture at the World's Fair, bringing here the best features from an exhibition to be held in Honolulu at an early date.

ANNEXATION OF CUBA.

Sugar Planters' Association Will Work for Union.

Washington, July 15.—Important political developments are expected in Cuba. That is, the developments will be important if private advices and semi-official statements received here are correct. The proposition is that the Sugar Planters' Association shall be reorganized on the basis of an annexation propaganda. The news, as received here, is that a meeting of sugar planters was to be held today for the purpose of reorganizing, and the planters, who have been hopeless since the failure of reciprocity legislation in the United States, are discussing the advisability of turning their organization into a political party.

It is denied that this proposed action has any connection with the scheme of Senator Elkins and those who were working with him to secure the annexation of Cuba. Yet it is admitted to be true that some of the planters who still have credit and who think they could survive a period of agricultural ruin are active in the present plans. The planters having neither credit nor money form a large majority, and with them it is simply a financial effort to save themselves. Satisfied that they can gain no concessions for their sugar in the markets of the United States, they feel that they can take the chance of openly advocating annexation without making their condition worse.

Former military officials in Cuba who are now in Washington say there is nothing surprising in this last move of the planters. Since the power of Spain was ended the majority of them have favored annexation and a few have supported it openly. A planter who is in the movement in a recent letter says that the proposed reorganization of the association is intended in the first place to educate the ignorant classes on the advantages of annexation, and with that object it is proposed to establish a newspaper which shall champion annexation as the only means of remedying economic ills.

WITHDRAWING FROM CUBA.

President Unwilling to be Under Obligations to that Country.

Washington, July 15.—The President recently gave orders to the Secretary of the Navy to bring away 2000 tons of coal which Admiral Bradford has had stored at Triscornia, a suburb of Havana, and to turn over to the Cuban authorities the warehouses, docks and other property of the United States at that place. This includes a railway three miles long. This railway and the docks were built by the United States Government for the benefit of the Navy. The warehouses were leased from private owners and the Cubans have no claim upon the property whatever.

One of the first things their Government did, however, was to call for the relinquishment of this property, and as it was the last link connecting the Army and Navy of the United States with Cuba, no official notice was taken of their demand while Congress was in session, but when adjournment was taken without passing the reciprocity treaty, the President took the ground that we were no longer justified in asking or accepting favors from Cuba and ordered the property vacated. This is being done with reluctance by the naval authorities, not only because of its significance as the surrender of the only foothold we have on Cuban soil, but because it is not uncommon for one nation to lease coal docks upon the territory of another, and they think the Cubans are rather cheeky in ordering the United States to get out.

The President thinks differently. He is not willing to rest under any obligations whatever to Cuba as long as Congress refused to pass a reciprocity measure, nor will he allow any steps to be taken toward the establishment of naval stations.

SALISBURY'S SUCCESSOR.

Duke of Devonshire Will Lead in the House of Lords.

The Duke of Devonshire will succeed Lord Salisbury as Government leader in the House of Lords. The Duke, in announcing the retirement of the Premier, stated that it was the latter's wish that he should take his place. The Duke of Devonshire has been Lord President of the Council in Salisbury's Ministry since its formation, in 1895. He is one of the most unique figures in British politics, and he is a positive force. He is now 69 years of age. He has held office as continuously as politics would permit for forty years. He was formerly a supporter of Gladstone, but abandoned his leader upon the introduction of the home rule question and became chief of the Liberal-Unionist party. When he became Duke of Devonshire, upon the death of his father, December 22, 1891, he was called to the House of Lords. Previous to that time he was known as the Marquis of Hartington. His brother was Lord Frederick Cavendish, who was assassinated by Irish Invincibles in Phoenix Park.

In the House of Lords the Duke sits with his hat tilted over his eyebrows, his body buried in a long, dark-colored coat with deep pockets, and one leg thrown over the other, revealing a stretch of drab stocking, invariably on the point of coming down. His hair and beard have grown wholly gray. Unlike Lord Salisbury, who never uses a note, the Duke, on rising, drags a roll of manuscript from an inside pocket, adjusts his eyeglasses, and, standing in a loose attitude, drones out his speech. Tricks of oratory, the coining of happy phrases are beyond him, and what meager success he has had in speech-making has come from his common sense and candor.

The God of Things took Bread and Wine And to The Rescue came; Red Pottage broke at Sunwich Port, And Wistons quit the game, Policeman Flynn, Within the Gates, Yelled loudly, "Peace, Be Still!" Holes in the Wall.

Numerous arrests were made the past week of parties charged with selling liquors without a license. Sheriff Overend and a posse went out to Honomu Saturday last week and pulled a gang of Japanese and Chinese moonshiners some of whom have been convicted. Here in the city Akiu, manager of the Union Restaurant, Henry Wessel and Mrs. Ross, manager of a Front street eating house, have been arrested on the same charge. The police are to be commended for the efforts to close up the holes in the wall in the city especially. Contraband liquor always attracts the most reckless drinkers and business men are constantly in fear of fire that easily originate in illicit liquor joints.

STRANGE WIRELESS SIGNALS.

Are They From California Stations or From the Air.

"Is Hawaii getting wireless telegraph signals from California stations?"

This is a question Manager Cross of the Inter-Island Telegraph line and the operators of the system were asking themselves this morning.

Operators sending messages this morning reported that they were receiving dots and dashes, evidently signals, from some source which they could not make out. These signals did not come from any of the local stations, though noticed at regular intervals as if some one were "sending." Out of the atmosphere came a stray dot and dash which was recorded on the tapes of the stations on this and other Islands. No interference with the regular traffic of the line was suffered, but between a word or a letter an unaccountable dot or dash would be recorded.

When Mr. Dickenson of the cable company was spoken to regarding the matter, he was at loss to reach an explanation, except the possibility of a signal from the California coast. He recalled the fact that Marconi had obtained definite signals across the Atlantic, and there is no telling the possibilities of wireless. The suggestion of some atmospheric disturbance was made, but as such phenomena have never been noted before, this does not seem likely.

By the last mail Manager Cross received a letter from a former operator on the local line, who is now working on the recently established wireless system between the Island of Catalina and the California coast. This gentleman said the system would soon be in operation and added, "Watch out for signals from us!" Mr. Cross did not take the matter seriously at the time, but now he is wondering.

The stations on the California coast are using a 25-inch coil charged from dynamos. They are also using a 25-inch spark with a power of from three to four million volts. Whether this is sufficient force to carry a signal a distance of 2,000-odd miles is an enigma. At all events, the report from California will be awaited with a great deal of interest.—Bulletin.

The Rosecrans a Bargain.

Men who are more or less familiar with the transport Rosecrans, which was sold two or three days ago by the Government to the Matsou Navigation Company for $50,000, say that the purchaser has secured one of the greatest bargains in the history of the port. The Rosecrans has, in fact, been regarded by many shipping men as the best vessel employed in the transport service, regardless of size. She cost the Government $140,000 and is still in good condition. Though suitable for passenger as well as freight service, the Rosecrans will be transferred into an oil carrier by the Matsou Navigation Company and used in the Hawaiian trade. She will have a capacity for 22,000 barrels of oil. The Rosecrans, whose name will probably be changed, was formerly the transport Columbia.—Chronicle.

Declines a Million.

Springfield (O.), July 16.—John W. Bookwalter of this city yesterday received an offer of $1,000,000 spot cash for the Bookwalter steel process. The offer, it is said, came from President Schwab of the steel trust. Bookwalter declined to sell. By the Bookwalter process blasting for removing impurities from iron is done at the side of the converter instead of at the bottom. The result is that less power is required, while greater purity of steel is obtained. A company to make steel by the Bookwalter process has been organized. It will be located at Philadelphia, adjacent to the Cramp shipyards.

Steyn is Seriously Ill.

Cape Town, July 16.—Ex-President Steyn, Mrs. Steyn and two doctors sailed today for Europe on the steamer Carisbrook Castle. Steyn is suffering from enteric fever.

TRANSVAAL'S GOVERNOR.

Sir Arthur Lawley Selected for the Post.

Perth (West Australia), July 16.—Sir Arthur Lawley, Governor of Western Australia, has accepted the Lieutenant-Governorship of the Transvaal Colony. He will start for South Africa August 5th.

Sir Arthur Lawley, who is in his forty-first year, was formerly a Captain in the Tenth Hussars, and married Annie Allen, daughter of Sir Edward Cunard, in 1885. From 1892 to 1896 he was private secretary to the late Duke of Westminster. In 1896 he was appointed secretary to Earl Grey, and in November of the same year he assumed the office of Deputy Administrator for Matabeleland. In their report for 1897 the directors of the British South Africa Company say "he has discharged the duties of that position with conspicuous tact and ability." In 1898 he was appointed to the position of Administrator of Matabeleland, with a residence at Buluwayo. Last year he was appointed Governor of Western Australia, and his promotion comes as a recognition of his able administration of public affairs.

VENICE IS DOOMED.

Deterioration of the Subsoil Threatens Existence of City.

New York, July 15.—A cable to the Sun from Venice says: Professor Wagner, city architect, is of the opinion that practically the whole of Venice is doomed to destruction. He says that the subsoil has deteriorated, and piles and pillars are rotten and unable to stand the pressure on them. Shrinkages and sinking have been observed in the subsoil for many years, although an official commission lately declared that there was no danger from these causes.

Professor Wagner advocates the restoration of the loggia of Sansovino, but not the tower. He says that if the tower is rebuilt it should be in modern style.

Dealing With Pope.

Rome, July 16.—At noon today Major Porter of the judge-advocate's department of the Army of Washington personally delivered to Cardinal Rampolla, the Papal Secretary of State the last note of Judge Taft, Governor of the Philippine islands, on the subject of the withdrawal of the friars from the islands, which will presumably end the Governor's negotiations here, as Major Porter simultaneously presented a letter from Judge Taft asking for a fair-well audience with the pope.

THE WORLD NEWS CO.
P. O. BOX 97

The Chinese of this city will publish a weekly paper called the WORLD NEWS. The object of the journal is to spread wisdom, practical knowledge and the news of the day among the Chinese people. In China there are few newspapers, which is largely the reason why the Chinese people are so far behind the times—compared with Europeans and Americans.

For this reason the leading Chinese merchants of the Hawaiian Islands have formed a company for the publication of a Chinese paper at Hilo.

Mr. H. Jackson, a gentleman of superior talents and education has been employed as editor. He has had seven year's editorial experience at Honolulu.

The offices of the newspaper are on Front Street, Bow Wong hall. Advertisers will communicate with either W. K. Akana or Hop Warn Co.

The officers of the new publishing company are W. K. Akana, president; H. Jackson, editor; Lau On, reporter; L. Ah Hip, Sam Fook, Young Got, Hop Warn, and Wo Hop Kee, directors.
