Mr. Timothy Ambler
Honolulu, Hawaii

Dear Mr. Ambler:

I regret that I am unable to join your dear family and friends in witnessing your Eagle Scout Court of Honor. But I wish to extend to you my warm aloha and congratulations on this outstanding achievement.

This distinguished rank in Scouting affirms your capability as a leader and reflects on your commitment to community service and responsible citizenship. I commend you for your past service and look forward to even greater contributions to our Island community in the future.

I am sure your parents and friends share in the pride you must feel in having reached the rank of Eagle Scout. I hope your Court of Honor is one which will bring you many fine memories. Best wishes.

Aloha,

DANIEL K. INOUE
United States Senator
