THE DAILY HAWAIIAN.

We extend the hand of fellowship, to the Daily Hawaiian. In its issue of yesterday it has show its colors, and lifted its voice with no uncertain sound. If doubts existed in the minds of any as to the ground on which the stranger stood, such doubts must now be removed.

It would have been an insult to its intelligence or integrity to suppose that it could have taken any other stand in regard to the Bank Charter, but until it spoke, judgment had necessarily to be reserved. If it holds to the independent course now pursued it will become a power in the land.

NO HALF WAY.

There is no use in awarding the bank charter, to make its notes payable in gold. The charter does not require any coin to be kept on hand in the bank. Nor would it do to say that the bank notes need not be made legal tender. If that bank is authorized to issue its notes, there are few houses which can safely refuse to accept them. Have done with this demoralizing, accursed monopoly business. We do not believe that the King himself cares to hand his Kingdom over to Mr. Spreckels and Mr. Spreckels' Ministers any longer. But he has a right to hear from the leading independent merchants on these subjects.

SPEAK OUT IN MEETING.

If you leave to newspapers to do all the talking about a gold law and about the contemplated public outrage of Mr. Spreckels' bank charter; if you do all the talking in private against the banking fraud and silver currency fraud, you leave it to those who are urging on these frauds to say that you are indifferent or not opposed to them.

Let the leading men of this town, whose mouths are not muzzled, call a public meeting and talk out and say what they think. Delay may make such an outspoken course of no use. Do it now before the bank charter is passed. Its friends boldly proclaim that they are sure of the vote. If you find yourselves saddled with paper money, don't let it be said that you were too timid to protest.

THE PROPOSED BANK CHARTER.

The charter which Claus Spreckels and his associates are asking the Legislature to give them, is a cover to one of the greatest jobs ever placed before this community.

In a nutshell, the proposition which these supplants make to the public is as follows:

We are to buy $1,000,000 of Government bonds, and deposit them in the treasury, drawing the interest thereon at 6 per cent. Then we will issue promissory notes to the amount of $1,000,000. We ask you to make a law that those notes shall be money, and that every individual member of the public shall be compelled to accept these promissory notes in payment of debts due, him. We do not say what the promissory note promises to pay, whether silver, or gold, or paper. You must leave that to us. All that we bind ourselves to do is to give you promissory notes which "shall express upon their face the promise of the corporation to pay on demand."

The iniquity of this proposition consists in the fact that it simply makes Mr. Spreckels and his associates a present of the use of $1,000,000. It gives him the right to take so much blank paper and by placing certain signs and names thereon to use it as $1,000,000, and to compel the public to accept it as such. It would then be useless for any one to attempt to compete with him, for believing the fable of the small boy, this law enables Mr. Spreckels to eat his cake and keep it too. He is drawing 6 per cent. on $1,000,000 worth of bonds, and at the same time has $1,000,000 to lend out, so that even if he lends at 6 per cent. only he is making 12 per cent. on his money.

It is not proposed to make these notes redeemable in gold or silver even. The only restriction is that they shall be redeemed "in lawful money." So long as there is a law giving the public the right to demand gold, there would be less danger from this point, if the charter required, the bank to keep gold for payment, but the power that can pass such a law as this, can pass a law repealing a gold standard and making anything "lawful money." Once this charter is passed, it becomes a vested right and cannot be repealed.

The most astounding part of the whole charter, however, is $ 20. This provides that if the concern is bankrupt and cannot meet its obligations, the Minister of Finance shall sell the bonds which have been deposited, at not less than par, and out of the money received therefrom shall redeem the notes. That is to say, if the bonds can not be sold for par, the holders of the notes will have to go without their money. But as if this was not enough, the section provides that the Minister of Finance "shall receive in payment of such bonds when sold, the circulating notes of the corporation at par."

Was there ever a greater outrage? The bonds, on deposit are all that the holders of the notes have to look to. The bond are to be sold in order to raise money to pay those notes, if dishonored, and yet the law provides that the very notes which the bonds are being sold to pay, shall be received in payment for the bonds. If dishonored notes which the makers can not pay, are to be received for the bonds, how is cash ever to be acquired to meet the notes? It would be simply giving away bonds which are worth something for notes which are worth nothing.

There is no public necessity which requires this. It can work nothing but harm to the community, and every citizen who takes interest in the welfare of the country and of his own pocket, should do his utmost to defeat this scheme.

THE LAWMAKERS.

—There is no peace for the wicked.

—Some of the means employed by the projectors of the new bank to secure votes are coming to the light.

—Col. Laukea is waiting, but the old man of the sea cleaves to Joseph Sykes. And Joseph hangs on like a leach.

—The Ministers lift up the familiar wail of those who have been recreant to public trusts, "do let us alone."

—During the last biennial period there have been five Ministers of the Interior: Armstrong, Kaai, Bush, Gibson and Gulick.

—Major Gulick's remarks yesterday upon the purchase of the Honolulu Hale 'property and Diamond Head were clear and to the point.

—There is a large body of intelligent and determined men in this community whose united opinion cannot be disregarded with impunity.

—Whom the Gods wish to destroy they first make mad. Grant the charter and there will remain no doubt of the madness, the destruction will follow.

—"Blackguard, coward and liar" is an expression suited perhaps for the use of a sand lot rowdy or a ward politician, but not for a Minister of the Crown.

—Hon. S. B. Dole was absent from the House yesterday. Fears were entertained for his safety. It was not known whether he had gold on the brain or cold in the head.

—Why did Mr. Gibson work for J. E. Bush's removal from the office of Minister of the Interior until he succeeded? The positions which the two now sustain toward each other are peculiar. How things do get mixed.

—Is it true that Paul Neumann is the private attorney of Spreckels and the National Bank? It is even reported that he is drawing a salary from Spreckels. If he is Mr. Spreckels attorney, how can he give the Government safe advice? One thing is certain, he will not advise against Mr. Spreckels' interests.

—Yesterday's discussion of the manner in which the public roads have been neglected, indicated the importance of the subject in the minds of the Representatives. C. N. Arnold, the Road Supervisor-in-chief for the Island of Hawaii, was severely condemned by members acquainted with the manner in which he has performed (or neglected) his duties.

—The names of the prominent Hawaiian citizens which appear as charter members of the new bank, are calculated to mislead. Of the seven names only two are from San Francisco and five are Hawaiian, but the whole five will not hold a controlling interest. The two will control in all important matters. The bank and the Hawaiian Government, will be managed in San Francisco.

THE LEGISLATURE

SATURDAY, MAY 31.

The House assembled at 10 A. M. After prayer by the Chaplain, the minutes of the preceding day were read and approved.

Mr. Kamakele presented a petition that where laborers under contract work longer hours than their contract calls for, the contract be null and void. Laid on table.

Mr. Kaulukou on suspension of the rules read a petition from residents of the district of Kalihi, that the slaughter houses, bone meal manufactory, cattle pens owned by Mr. Waller are a great nuisance, and that the same be removed to some other locality.

Mr. Kalua said it is a very important matter, he had been out there, these places were close to the road, the smell was very bad and injurious to the health of those residing in that district.

The petition was referred to the Attorney General.

Mr. Dole from the Judiciary Committee reported on the bill relating to the descent of property as follows: that the Committee had drawn out an amended bill and recommended its passage by the Assembly. The report of the Committee was accepted and the bill passed to second reading.

Mr. Wilder from the Sanitary Committee wished to make a verbal statement as it had been said that the committee had not yet reported on any of their petitions. The honorable gentleman produced a bundle of petitions which he said could not be acted upon wisely until the report of the Board of Health had been received. As soon as that report is received we are ready to act.

Minister Gibson at this point presented the report of the Board of Health printed in both languages. He apologized for its being so late in making its appearance, but additional matter came in after the report was received and ordered to be distributed.

Minister Gulick gave notice of his intention to introduce the following bills: to acquire title to land grants; postal savings banks; domestic mail carrying; improvements to streets and sidewalks; kindling fires in public streets; election of representatives; and construction of buildings in Honolulu.

Mr. Kalua offered a resolution that when this Assembly adjourns to-day, it do so for one week to meet again June 9th at 10 o'clock.

Minister Gibson supported the resolution, it was not for the Ministers to advocate delay but there were good reasons for a short adjournment. There had been a determined discussion about short comings, etc., and it would give ample time to investigate. He was glad the Finance Committee had engaged the services of an expert, a gentlemen whom he highly esteemed, and hoped he would make a close investigation. I do not call particular attention to this Committee, there are others require time, especially the Currency Committee. I opposed adjournment last week but to-day I am in favor of it.

Mr. Adjournment was in favor of the adjournment, a number of Committees had been appointed and they would be ready to report when the House met again.

Mr. Nakaleka moved the House adjourn until June 13th so as to include Kamehameha Day.

Mr. Kaunamano moved adjournment for one month, he thought that would please everyone. Let us all go home and have a vacation and when we come back we will be fresh for work, start at 9 o'clock in the morning and work until 6 o'clock in the evening.

Mr. Hitchcock said there was no reason for adjournment, there is plenty of work to do. Look at that big bank bill, it will take a week to discuss it. The adjournment for one week was carried.

Mr. Aholo moved the order of the day.

Second reading of a bill to prohibit the sale of dynamite. Referred to Committee on Commerce.

Second reading of a bill to provide a Police Justice at Lihue, Kauai. Passed to engrossment and will be read a third time June 9th.

Mr. Kaulukou, on suspension of the rules, presented a petition for $10,000 for improving roads from Ululani to Waialupe.

Mr. Dowsett offered a resolution that the Minister of Interior furnish a list of lands and lots, leases and money received since January 1st, 1882. Carried.

Second reading of a bill to provide a permanent settlement on Mrs. D. L. Kinimaka. Laid on table until the introducer Honorable Mr. Keau is present.

The House adjourned at 11:30 A. M. until June 9th.

DECORATION DAY.

The memorial services in honor of America's patriot dead took place yesterday afternoon and evening. At 2:30 the column formed on Fort street in front of the Geo. W. De Long Post Hall, and marched up to the Nuuanu cemetery. The advance consisted of Deputy Marshal David Dayton, a squad of ten policemen, after which came the Royal Hawaiian Band, Geo. W. De Long Post and visiting comrades, soldiers and sailors honorably discharged, sons of veteran soldiers, the American Minister R. M. Daggett and lady, Consul McKinley and lady, Ministers Gibson and Neumann, Gov. Dominis and staff, members of the Legislative Assembly, disabled comrades, a car containing 38 little girls dressed in white with red sashes, having on them the name of the state they represented, and last of all the general public. The weather was very fine, a light trade wind blowing, and owing to Mr. Dodd's forethought, the line of march had been well sprinkled with water, thus enabling all to march with comfort. Arriving at the cemetery the procession halted, and after the Post had taken their positions, Mr. J. H. Paty on behalf of the trustees of Oahu Cemetery, presented the deeds of the Geo. W. De Long Post lot to Commander Nott who handed them to Chaplain Cruzan. The Band played a selection after which the Chaplain offered up prayer, Miss May Dillingham and Master Hagan scattered evergreens and flowers around the lot with appropriate words. The Chaplain then dedicated the lot, for all those who, on land, or on sea, fought for the Union, for the authority of the constitution, for the flag, and for freedom, liberty and equality. The decoration services followed with the sentiment "our comrades absent from roll call to-day" responded to by Comrade Green; "The widows and orphans" by Comrade Hagan; "Army and Navy" by Comrade Laine; and "Decoration Day" by Comrade Emerson. The Band played another selection, the Post decorated graves and the proceedings ended.

In the evening the exercises were continued at the Music Hall. There was a very large attendance, the Hall being neatly and appropriately decorated, His Majesty the King was present in the Royal box. On the front of the stage in the centre, stood a large portrait of Geo. W. De Long and on either side portraits of Lincoln and Garfield. The Honolulu Symphony Club played several selections, Mrs. Cruzan, Messrs. Yarnley and Praet sang solos, the choruses being rendered by a choir of ladies and gentlemen numbering nearly twenty. Mrs. Dillingham read an original poem, and was presented with a beautiful basket of flowers. Mrs. Hendry was down for a reading but was unfortunately suffering from a bad cold and had to be excused. Mr. Kinney gave a reading by Wendell Phillips, and the Hon. A. S. Hartwell delivered a fine oration. We regret we have not space for the honorable gentlemen's remarks. The Royal Hawaiian Band was in attendance and played an excellent medley of American airs. Altogether the day was most fittingly observed in Honolulu.

At Fort Street Church to-morrow morning, the Quarterly Communion will be held, new members received and the ordinances administered. In the evening a Union service will be held, and Dr. C. M. Hyde will preach the annual sermon on Home missions, on behalf of the Hawaiian Evangelical Association.

BURGLARS are still about town. Last evening, or early this morning, they broke into Hart Bros. Coffee Saloon, foot of Nuuanu street. Entrance was effected through the kitchen into the Saloon, by means of boring holes with an auger bit through the wooden bars of a small window, and breaking them off. The safe was not touched, nor was the money drawer containing besides loose change, a valuable gold watch. The show case was ransacked of its contents, a large number of Meerscham pipes and cases. It is supposed to be the work of a native, as foot-tracks were noticed outside the window, but as yet no clue has been obtained.
