Brigham Young is, indeed, a pillar of Salt Lake. He is a man of a wide life.

The loss by the Schomberg's destruction of vessels is estimated at $1,655,000.

The "waterfall" is giving way to what might be called the "waterwheel" style of dressing the hair.

New York fashions say embroidered dresses will be all the rage this season.

Buttons as large as five franc pieces are the style with New York ladies.

The proprietors of the steamer St. John have given $4,000 to the little girl from Montreal whose parents were killed by the recent explosion.

On the western plains the average cost of killing an Indian has been about $500,000, while for a squaw the cost is nearly $2,000,000.

Don't live in hope with your arms folded; fortune smiles on those who roll up their sleeves and put their shoulders to the wheel.

"I want to buy a sewing machine," said an old lady entering a shop. "Do you wish for a machine with a roller?" inquired the clerk. "Sakes, no; don't want none of your rollers about me."

A bill has been introduced into the Missouri Legislature, making it a penal offence to address an officer of the confederate army without first prefixing the word "rebel."

An American committed suicide in Paris recently the night before his intended marriage. He was rich and had stated he should marry the girl against his wish, and solely to please his mother.

The negro caulkers of Baltimore talk of opening a ship-yard on their own account. There are four hundred in the city, and white caulkers are unwilling to work with them.

A house in Memphis was being raised recently by jackscrews for the purpose of putting a new foundation under it, when it fell over and tumbled thirty feet into a bayou. Five persons were in the house, but none were killed.

A negro about dying was told by his minister that he must forgive a certain darkey against whom he seemed to entertain very bitter feelings. "Yes, sah," he replied, "if I dies I forgive dat nigg; but if I get well dat nigg must take care."

Isaac Young, a colored man of Cincinnati has recovered $800 from the passenger railroad of that city for being ejected from one of its cars, though he received no injury from his expulsion, except that of being compelled to walk home.

The hotel keepers of New York propose to advance their rates to $6 per day, and have sent a circular to the hotel keepers of other cities requesting their cooperation. It is not alleged that the present rates are insufficient, but it is shown that the hotels are crowded, and that guests would be compelled to stand higher rates.

BIG SAFE—An enormous fire-proof safe, for the Bank of North America, was recently made by Evans & Watson, of Philadelphia (Pa.). The safe weighs 20 tons, and took seven horses to draw it. It is 54 feet high, 7 1/2 feet wide, and 3 feet deep, made of chilled wrought iron and steel.

A rural genius has invented a plan to prevent a chicken from scratching gardens. The plan is to secure a stick to the heels of the fowl, so that as the foot is raised the stick falls and strikes the ground, throwing the fowl forward. Repeated efforts to scratch will cause the chicken to walk clear out of the garden.

A French chemist says that if tea be ground like coffee before being brewed, and mixed with water, it will yield double the amount of exhilarating qualities.

Simon Cameron, of Pennsylvania, was very active in seeking pardon for Gen. Brisco, convicted of embezzlement. "A fellow feeling makes us wondrous kind."—Exchange.

The Republic of Paraguay is now said to be mainly ruled by an English woman, with whom Lopez, the President, became acquainted in London—a strange whirig of fortune.

It has been ordered at Moscow that in all public buildings the doors of the main entrance shall open outward, instead of, as heretofore, inward. The reason of this arrangement is to enable people to have free egress in the event of any accident or panic occurring.

Some of the principal New York hotels talk of raising the price of board to $6 per day. There are families at the Fifth Avenue who give $500 or $600 a week for mere lodgings and board, and while their "extras" will reach $200 or $400 more.

The Philadelphia Ledger thus comforts and assures the traveling community: "Notwithstanding all that is said about 'railroad murders,' it can be demonstrated that railroad traveling is safer for the community than any other method of public conveyance. In the city of London alone nearly five times as many persons are killed and wounded by carts, cabs and omnibuses as are killed or injured on all the railways of England, Scotland and Ireland taken together."

A traveller stopping at a southern hotel exclaimed one morning to his waiter, "What are you about, you black rascal? You have roused me twice from my sleep by telling me breakfast was ready, and now you are attempting to strip off the bedclothes." "Why," replied Pompey, "if you isn't gone to get up, I must have the sheet, any how, because dey are waitin' for de table cloth!"

MORMON FAITH—One of the "Saints" at the Mormon Tabernacle lately, in speaking of the great opposition to the Church of the "Latter Day Saints," and more particularly to its corner-stone, polygamy, is reported to have said, in substance, such as follows: "We believe in the God of Abraham, who permitted him to have more than one wife, and we intend to practice polygamy at all hazards." Following close upon this he said: "The Mormons were a loyal people and intended to maintain the Constitution of the United States."

In a suit brought in a French court to recover possession of a well, there was much complication and contradictory swearing. Finally, the Judge exclaimed: "But this is all about a little water. What can it matter so very much that you should both put yourselves to so much trouble and expense about it?" "Monsieur," replied one of the advocates, dryly, "the pleaders are, both of them, wine merchants."

Another cargo of slaves from Africa has been landed on the island of Cuba—an event of a kind formerly very common, but recently quite rare. The number of negroes composing the cargo is variously estimated all the way from 100 to 500. The landing was effected on the northwestern portion of the island, on the plantation of a wealthy man. Some of the Africans, it is said, were seized by the authorities, but afterwards given up to the slave traders.

The Bishop of Oxford has received the undignified cognomen of "Sassy Sam." It is said that when the Bishop was travelling eastward to attend the church congress at Norwich, a lady sitting opposite him commented in flustering terms on the eloquence and ability of the great Anglican divine, quite unconscious that she was addressing a little water-madam. "Do they call him 'Sassy Sam'?" "Well, madam," replied the bishop, "I suppose it is because he has always been in a good deal of hot water, and always manages to come out with clean hands."

HALAWA PL

COMMERCIAL.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1890.

On files by the Overland and Little contain interesting commercial news, though no very important changes in prices are given. Respecting the San Francisco market, the Alta says:

The general markets have not presented much activity, and may be described as usual for a very week. The weather continues with occasional showers. The arrival of nine Australian vessels, the cargoes of which have all been sold. Coffee continued a protracted sale. The 200 bags of Java Coffee, advertised at auction by Messrs. Jones & Bondeson, was taken the day before, with a view to concentrating on private terms. Jones & Bondeson had at auction 500 bags of Java Coffee. Of these 100 sold at 25c, at 60 days. The balance sold at 25c, at 60 days. The same firm offered 250 bags of Java Coffee, at 25c, at 60 days. The same firm offered 250 bags of Java Coffee, at 25c, at 60 days. The same firm offered 250 bags of Java Coffee, at 25c, at 60 days.

THE PACIFIC Commercial Advertiser.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 17.

A communication in another part of this paper refers to the Minister of Finance, as appearing in Court, in the capacity of a lawyer, and in one suit, we understand, occupying the somewhat paradoxical position of being opposed to the Crown. There has been and still is too much business carried on by Government officers. We do not refer to Ministers of the Crown only, but to other officers. A man who accepts of office, should do so with the understanding that his services belong to the Government, and that he has no right to carry on other outside operations. If his pay is not sufficient, let him resign in favor of another who can live on the salary. The present Minister of the Interior is a physician, and the Minister of Finance a lawyer—both should relinquish their callings in favor of private practitioners. If we have not lawyers and doctors enough, there are always persons abroad ready to come here and practice.

We are well aware that it has always been granted for some public officers here to engage largely in private business. Had the late Foreign Secretary let alone sugar planting he would have been more useful, and he might to-day have been alive. It is not creditable to the Crown or the Government to have any of its officers deeply involved in outside speculations which may occupy three-fourths of their time to the prejudice of their official duties—to say nothing of the temptation to use public funds whenever it can be done conveniently.

In other countries public opinion is very decided on this subject, and requires a man, when he accepts office, to relinquish his private business. This is right, for the good name of the Government is involved in the conduct of its servants; and many a time have public men in England and the United States sacrificed a lucrative business to aid the Government. The present Secretary of the Treasury, Hugh McCulloch, was a private banker in New York, receiving a princely income from his business, when he was invited to become Assistant Treasurer and afterwards Treasurer, neither of which situations pays him one quarter what he derived from his former business. We instance this simply as one out of many that might be given.

This is one of the evils of our administration, which can easily be corrected if His Majesty is only firm. There is but one opinion on the subject, and that is what we have stated above, irrespective of personal feelings. The rule should apply not merely to Crown Ministers, but to every prominent officer in the Kingdom, and we feel confident that the standing of the Government will be raised by its enforcement.

The appointment of all public officers should be with the sole view of strengthening the Government by bringing to its support the influence and good name of the person appointed, and not to provide situations for favorites or hangar-ons. Any appointment that does not so strengthen and add to the honor of the Government is an unwise one. Consequently the appointment of any man to office who cannot make a living out of office is a discredit to the Government; and, as a general rule, those who seek for office seldom add to the strength or credit of any Government.

Last Saturday was our first "steamer day,"—an event which, we hope, may often recur again. It reminded San Franciscans of similar occasions in their city. Two o'clock was the advertised hour of departure, but owing to the rush of freight, which continued to go aboard till 3 o'clock, and to the want of passports for passengers, the steamer did not start till 3 1/2 p. m. We may say, in passing, that the law requires a passport to be taken out by every passenger leaving for a foreign port, who has resided here for thirty days or more. In most cases, it is a mere matter of form, but the police officers are vigilant in seeing it carried out, to prevent deserters and absconders. About 2 1/2 p. m. His Majesty the King rode down, escorting Mrs. Syngde, the lady of the former British Commissioner, who, with her family, was leaving for New York, and who came down in His Majesty's carriage drawn by four horses. The escort was handsomely and gallantly performed. There was a large crowd remained on the Esplanade until the sailing of the steamer, and her departure was lustily cheered, both from the wharf and from the vessel, as she backed off into the stream, and headed out to sea. She started off in beautiful style, and we hope to hear, had a short and pleasant passage over.

The gentleman most interested in the steam enterprise feel confident of its success, and that as soon as the Ajax reports herself back, the Company will place on the route two good vessels, to run every twenty days. This will give forty days for each round trip, allowing ten for the passage hither, and twelve for the passage back, giving nine days in port at each end of the route, which is amply sufficient; or what would be better ten days here and eight in San Francisco. The general belief is that the Ajax is rather large for the present trade and that the California is nearer the size of vessel wanted. The latter is a new propeller of 1,000 tons burthen, and not the old Pacific mail steamer of 1849, which is a side-wheel boat, now stationed as a reserve at Acapulco. She is said to be very fast, having been built for government service.

Our advices received this week from San Francisco state that arrangements were made in a few days to place another steamer (probably the above) on the new line just inaugurated, to run between San Francisco and Honolulu. Whether she would leave before the arrival back of the Ajax is not stated, but we think she will be ready to leave immediately on her arrival, or else if not ready, would follow her. One of these vessels may be expected early in March, and the line will thereafter be a permanent one. The increased life and animation given to trade during the time that the steamer Ajax was in port is only a foretaste of what we shall witness often hereafter, for it is a natural consequence of steam everywhere. In this connection, the following from a late Bulletin, will be interesting:

STEARNS AS PROMOTERS OF COMMERCE.—The business of ocean steam navigation on the eastern side of the American continent has received such a wonderful impulse, within the last few months, as to warrant the belief that our mercantile marine will regain its prestige in less time than was occupied by the pirates in reducing it to a third or fourth rate power. There is reason to believe, moreover, that in the resuscitation of our shipping interests, we shall profit by the experience of England, our most fortunate rival, and adopt steam, wherever practicable, instead of sails. From the vast increase in freight and the desired rapidity of movement, the carrying trade has been found as profitable by steam, as it ever has been by sail; so that on all short voyages the former has the preference.

By the encouragement also has received from Government, has increased her commerce to gigantic proportions with all the countries with which she has steam communication. She has, within a few years, doubled and, in some cases, quadrupled her trade with the United States, Brazil and the West Indies, and only remains to be the manner to recognize the claims and appreciate the benefits of a growing commerce to gain the maritime supremacy over every sea. Every-thing but what is an outlet of creative force to hold over and above the ruins of our wretched commercial marine, a fleet of steamers that shall vie with that of any other nation. We have, therefore, for a wonderful impulse in every department of business—an impulse which, founded on sure grounds, marked by rapid restrictions, and attended with sufficient means, will carry us forward every undertaking that is profitable and advantageous.

During the period of rebellion, a large fleet of steamers was built with special reference to the government transport service. When that occupation ceased, these vessels were, for the most part, transferred to the service of private commerce, and they form a nucleus around which will be constructed, within a reasonable time, the fleet of the future. The energy that built the ships that were destroyed by the pirates, or forced to seek refuge under the folds of foreign flags, will still build ships that will be ready to meet the labor and material are at hand, and, in short, the opportunities are abundant, on all sides, for an active revival of our maritime commerce.

In the time the activity spoken of in the East will impart an impulse to commerce on the Pacific. Indeed, these steamers, well adapted to the trade of the coast here, and also over here from the East, and there are others expected. One of these—the Oceanic—will only remain to be the manner to project both up and down the coast, which, when fully matured and carried into execution, will give our commerce an impetus, which, for the California and China steam line to go into operation, will be a great benefit to our commerce, and will give to the Straits of Fuca to Cape Horn from San Francisco to China, Japan, and the Hawaiian Islands, the most natural of the Eastern Pacific, and its great advantages are increased by a population possessing unexpressed industrial activity and commercial energy, and the enterprises to which we have thus incidentally alluded, it will only remain to have the Pacific Railroad hurried to an early completion, to make San Francisco the second city in the Union in point of commercial greatness.

The Cholera. The telegraph reports that the cholera is still raging in the West Indies and in certain places in Europe, and there seems to be a general belief that it will spread on the American continent with the return of mild weather. Should it reach the Pacific Coast, it will cross to these islands, for no quarantine regulations can exclude it. Our chief aim should be to be prepared for it, should it reach us. If it carries off its hundreds and thousands in the healthy islands of the West India group, it will certainly find victims here, particularly among the natives. Much can be done in instructing them, and even if it should not trouble us, the effect of any reform in their habits will be beneficial.

The Board of Health, in New York, has published a brief statement to the citizens, laying down some general rules to guard against this disease. The suggestions are so practical and sensible that we trust all will bear them in mind, and we hope they will be translated for the benefit of the natives:

Whatever differences of opinion may exist in regard to the cause and mode of propagation of the cholera, all now agree in their observations in this acknowledged fact that its greatest ravages and most fearful mortality is among the filthy, the vicious and the destitute, and in fact it is almost confined to the imprudent, the intemperate and those who injure themselves by taking improper medicines. Cleanliness, therefore, is of the first importance—both of your person and your house—particularly your yards, sinks, privies and cesspools, where fresh chloride of lime should be daily sprinkled, and the adjoining walls and fences surrounding them repeatedly whitewashed. Keep your drains open, and if stagnant water either in your cellars or yards, and if your basements are damp, use fires in them frequently and burn up the foul air, and cause more perfect ventilation. Remove all garbage at least once a day, and, if possible, and permit nothing to remain on the premises to undergo decomposition. Keep your houses well ventilated. Temperate in all things, both in eating and drinking. Be temperate in exercise in labor, both physical and mental. Keep good hours. Take proper food, in reasonable quantities, at proper times. Plainly cooked meats, with boiled rice, bread, and thoroughly cooked potatoes, should form the ordinary fare of diet. Abstain from all unripe food fruits and stale or partially decayed vegetables. But above all, avoid excess in intoxicating drinks of every kind. Wear flannel next the skin and at all times maintain the natural temperature of the body by a sufficient amount of clothing. Avoid all exposure to sudden changes of temperature, and if accidentally exposed to a storm, remove your wet clothes and clothing as soon as possible. The cholera is not the necessarily fatal disease which it is commonly believed to be, but is a disease that is preventable and curable. It is always preceded by symptoms of languor and debility, with diarrhea, and in this stage is always curable; but if neglected at this period, and the diarrhea permitted to continue till collapse comes on, it is then almost always fatal.

PRINCEVILLE PLANTATION. SUGAR & MOLASSES. 1866! CROP NOW COMING IN. For sale by WALKER, ALLEN & Co. 508-2m SICKNESS.—We regret to have to record the death by suicide of Robert Christian Cochran, nephew of the late R. C. Wyllie, which occurred at Hanalei, Kauai, on Wednesday, February 7. By the will of his late uncle, he was left sole heir of his property, which consisted of the Princeville Plantation and some real estate in this city. The Princeville property was considerably encumbered, and it is said the young man became much disheartened at the doubtful prospect before him, and expressed a wish to return to Chicago, where his parents reside. Whatever may have been the immediate causes of the rash act, he was found on Sabbath night, Feb. 4, with this throat cut severely with a razor, the wind-pipe having been completely severed. Dr. Smith of Kolon was sent for, and at once rode over to Hanalei, while the schooner Prince was also dispatched to Honolulu for a surgeon. Dr. R. McKibben, Jr., went down immediately, but before he arrived the young man was dead. He was buried on Sunday the 11th at Hanalei.

It is certainly a sad termination of Mr. Wyllie's cherished hopes, and shows how uncertain are all earthly plans. Mr. Cochran had, by the will, been required to take the name of Wyllie, as a condition of becoming the heir. But even this provision for perpetuating his name has proved of no avail, and the estate will eventually go to Mr. C's heirs, though it will of course remain in charge of the executors of Mr. Wyllie till all encumbrances on it are settled. The plantation is one of the largest and most expensively furnished with machinery of any on these islands, and when relieved of debt will doubtless prove one of the most profitable.

Our readers will prize the new advertisements which appear to-day, for when a thing is wanted it is always better to go where the best can be found, and only those who have the best can afford to advertise. Probably our merchants were never better supplied with choice, desirable goods than now, and never was there a more active demand for them, especially from the other islands. An eccentric editor gives the following description of the effect of an advertisement: "The first time a man sees an advertisement he takes no notice of it; the second time he looks at the name; the third time he looks at the price; the fourth time he reads it; the fifth time he speaks of it to his wife; the sixth time he buys."

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 17.
NOTES OF THE WEEK.
MADAME BISHOP and Mr. Lascelles leave for China in the bark Libelle next week, and will give only one more concert here before their departure.
They purpose visiting the principal places in China, and perhaps Japan, and will then proceed to Australia, and perhaps New Zealand and Valparaiso—a long journey, but for a person so well and favorably known as is Madame Bishop, it must be a pleasant one, for everywhere she meets those who have heard or known her before. On our fourth page we print a biographical sketch of her.
—It was her intention to have had a concert early the past week, but the unpleasant weather interfered with the plan, and owing to the arrival of the vessel in which she engaged passage, she can give only one farewell benefit concert this evening, at Smith's Church, which will be fitted up appropriately for her use. Application was made for the use of the Kawaalaoa Stone Church, but the trustees declined to open it, as on the occasion of the last concert great damage was done to the seats and furniture. Madame Bishop has tried the qualities of Smith's Church, and finds it admirably adapted for vocal music. Front seats will be reserved for ladies and gentlemen at one-dollar per ticket. We trust that on this occasion—her farewell benefit—she will be greeted with a full house, and that all who have not heard her will now do so, and all who have need no urging to attend this final concert. She will be assisted by Mr. Lascelles, the infatigable humorist and fine pianist, and the programme issued promises a treat which will not recur for many a month. Our citizens have certainly enjoyed a musical feast during her stay here, and wherever she may travel all will wish her and her party pleasant voyages.

Last week an order was issued by the American Consul, at the request of the Captain of the clipper ship Blue Jacket, for the arrest of one Thomas Duane, for being ashore without permission, and one Thomas Burns was arrested by the police under the writ, and imprisoned. The next day Burns was brought before Justice Robertson on a writ of habeas corpus, and the prisoner was discharged on the ground that he had never signed the shipping articles of that vessel, and was not legally attached to the ship. The court also remarked that there was no law of this kingdom or treaty stipulation which authorized the imprisonment of a seaman for "being ashore without permission," the law only applying to deserters and mutineers. After his release, Burns sued the Captain for damages for bringing him away for San Francisco, illegally as he claims, and for maltreatment on the passage hither. This suit is still pending.

LONG PASSAGES.—Both the Onward and the Libelle had long passages down, though the latter distanced her competitor four days. The D. C.
Mercy had not arrived at San Francisco up to the 24th of January—21 days out from this port. But at this season of the year the winds are variable and less reliable than during the prevalence of the trades. The Mercy will probably be the first mail packet due, and ought to arrive here by the 25th inst., bringing the New York mails of January 1st and 11th. The Italian ship Terroni and the British ship Lottie Maria were soon to sail for Hongkong, but there is no certainty of their touching at this port.

A CORRECTION.—It gives us pleasure to state that Mr. Alex. E. McGregor, formerly overseer of the Primeville Plantation, arrived at San Francisco in the last steamer from Panama, in improved health, showing that the statement made in this paper some weeks ago, that he had died in London, was incorrect. The information before given regarding him was received in a letter from England by Mr. Mc-Gregor's agent at Hanaalei, who had evidently been deceived by some mischievous person.

GOOD LIVING.—Is essential to enjoyment and the indefatigable laborer is determined not to be behind the times in the Restaurant line as will be seen by our advertising columns. He is out again as large as ever, and no doubt can do what he promises to.
Give him a call at the Europa Restaurant on Hotel street, and there you will find every thing neat and tidy as a lady's boudoir, with a most tempting bill of fare to choose from.

CHOICE GRAPE CUTTINGS.—By the Ajane Mr. Severance received some choice slips of the Fisher Sgardo grape, from the celebrated Nuuanu vineyard, Elgorado County. This variety is one of the finest flavored, of white translucent color, large size and oblong in shape. They are the only true raisin grape to be had on the coast, and at the fair for four years past have invariably taken the premium.
Those wishing cuttings of it, can obtain them at the auction room at $1.50 per dozen.

A THIRSTY CITY.—San Francisco has 3,512 bars at which liquors are sold. The amount of license collected is over $50,000. One of the papers alluding to rum's doings in that city, says:
"Two thousand nine hundred and four drunks are reported for the last year. Estimating each drunk to result from a pint of ardent, we have five hundred and forty-eight gallons accounted for.
Every drunk causes also six hours of headache, on the average, so that we have 47,424 hours of human misery to add to the sum total of our calculations."

THE reported loss of the schooner Annie Laurie, at Koloa, is confirmed. She went ashore very nearly in the same spot where the bark John Wesley was wrecked twelve years ago. Soon after striking the schooner broke in two amidships, her stern going ashore, while her bow still remains with the foremost standing. Most of her cargo was saved in a damaged state.

THANKS.—We are indebted to Capt. Hemphrey, of the bark Onward, for full files of papers up to the date of his leaving San Francisco. Also, to Messrs. C. W. Brooks & Co. and Aldrich, Merrill & Co., of that port, for similar favors.

ANOTHER cargo of Chinese coolies arrived yesterday. We shall import sufficient by and bye to drive off both natives and foreigners, if they come in at this rate. They are regarded as a public evil that, like all other evils, must be tolerated.

OUR readers are indebted to Mr. William G.
Irwin, the gentlemanly and energetic book-keeper at Messrs. Walker, Allen & Co's, for the cargo and passengers of the bark Smyrniote, which sails today for San Francisco.

STEAMER SALE.—The Kiloua, with all her machinery and fixtures, as she now lies on the reef at Kawabae, will be sold at public auction in this city on Tuesday next, on account of the underwriters.

FURNITURE SALE.—The furniture of H. W. Severance, Esq., will be sold at auction on Tuesday, the 27th inst., at his residence in Fort street. Judging from the high prices obtained at the last sale, furniture is in active demand.

BRITISH COMMISSIONER.—A letter received by the last mail states that Mr. Bunch, lately Consul General at Havana, has been appointed to represent the British Government at Honolulu. The same authority states that he was removed from his former position at the request of the American Government, on account of his sympathy with the Southern rebels, and his efforts to aid blockade runners.
It is to be so, his transfer to a place where so strong Union sentiments prevail among Americans as in Honolulu, and where rebel sympathizers can make a very poor show, is extremely unfortunate. If England can find no one to represent her abroad but the supporters and adherents of Southern traitors, she had better be unrepresented. But there is no need of this. The present Acting Commissioner is an honor to his Government, and stands well with the foreign residents here of every country, and we are sure that, if it is necessary to send out a new representative, some one can be found who has not been a prominent antagonist of the American Government.

OWHYHEE.—One of the most famous mines in Idaho is called after the name given to Hawaii by Capt. Cook. It is said to have been so christened by a couple of Hawaiians, who were in the employ of the Hudson Bay Company, and lived there, trading with the neighboring Indian tribes. They little thought then that the district of Owhyhee would become famous as a gold mining region.
And the name is likely to become perpetuated there.

PERIODICALS.—Those proposing to subscribe for foreign periodicals can find no better time than now. The next mail from New York will bring the magazines and papers of January 1, 1866. Harper's Magazine, as also the Weekly, ought to be taken in every family.

THE Smyrniote will sail for San Francisco to-day, about 12 m., taking the foreign mails. The bark Elbow Allen will sail during the latter part of next week for the same port.

THE Kingdom of Hawaii is confessedly one of the smallest of the independent empires of Christendom, yet it really has attained to a comparatively high position amongst the family of nations. To retain that position, at least, if not to make further advance, ought assuredly to be the earnest endeavor, not only of His Majesty the King and his native-born subjects, but also of all foreigners who have made this their residence; and everything which can, in the most remote degree, tend to its derogation from that position ought to be most scrupulously and carefully avoided—more especially amongst high officials, where any infringement of that rule must be more conspicuous and proportionally more damaging to the dignity of the Crown and the status of the Kingdom.

HIS Majesty has seen fit to elevate to his Cabinet, members of learned professions, which they had practiced with eminent success, up to the time of their elevation, and from the ordinary practice of which they were presumed to have withdrawn on their acceptance of the portfolios of their offices, according to the invariable custom elsewhere. The acceptance of office is considered tantamount to an acceptance of the rules which govern it.

EVERY one must certainly have witnessed the universal astonishment of our community on finding His Excellency, the present Minister of Finance, descending to the level of a "Sea-lawyer," in which capacity he has appeared before a branch of the Supreme Court, during the present week, in the defence of what the Court decided to be a gross wrong. May we not expect to find him, next week, defending charges of drunkenness, furious riding, and other offences, which occupy the Court? Who can surmise where his cupidity may draw the line of demarkation?

THE question naturally suggests itself, what must be the effect abroad of such conduct on the part of a Cabinet Minister? Must it not seriously damage the dignity of his Royal Master, who will, of course, be presumed to concede to his Minister the privilege of private practice of his original profession as an equivalent for that remuneration which it will be supposed His Majesty is not in a position adequately to pay?

MOST assuredly His Excellency should remember that there are other considerations which ought to influence his conduct besides the mere "love of gain," and we are much mistaken if both his colleagues, and their Sovereign, do not call upon him to make a selection—either to devote himself to the important duties of his high office, or to resign his portfolio to some one more capable of appreciating the position and the honor of the office, besides the mere
"love of gain," and we are much mistaken if his conduct is so effectually tarnishing.

LOW intense would be the disgust of the late Foreign Minister, could he but witness how rapidly and effectually another Cabinet Minister is contributing to the demolition of that fabric which he was so eminently instrumental in erecting.
CAREFREE.
Honolulu, February 15, 1866.

FROM a private letter, received from Mr.
Coan since our last issue, we extract a few paragraphs which refer to the visit of the Lancaster, and which will interest our readers: HILA, January 18, 1866.

"The Lancaster left us yesterday. We have had a very pleasant visit from Admiral Pearson and lady, and with their daughter, who all stopped with us while in port. They all seemed like our own people. The Admiral very kindly offered his hand to come on shore three times for the entertainment of the natives and foreigners.
On the 16th we had a concert which passed off with great redolence. Our meeting house was packed with natives and foreigners. The band played many stirring national airs, such as "Hail Columbia," "The Star-Spangled Banner," "Red, White and Blue," "Yankee Doodle," "John Brown," "Sweet Home's March," etc., etc., closing with "Washington."

"The Admiral and the Chaplain, Mr. McLaren, each made a happy address, which were received with delight by the large audience. The people were congratulated for the remarkable evidences of improvement in knowledge, civilization and Christianity. They were reminded of the source from whence all good has come down to them, and exhorted them to be diligent, thankful and faithful.
The Admiral stated that he had nowhere seen better morals, more quiet and orderly society, more attentive and interesting congregations, or more evidences of sincere Christianity and true piety."
"The Chaplain alluded to the dark and solemn days of our American rebellion; to the awful and bloody war; to the time when the nation stood agast with fear, and when many hearts sunk in despair; and to the glorious fact that the Lord Jehovah had appeared for our help, and brought us triumphantly through this sea of sorrow, of darkness and blood, and caused our flag again to wave over a broad land and a united people. Had said he, our enemies triumphed, and our nation have been divided, and her cherished institutions subverted, I should not have been ashamed to free other nations under this dishonored symbol of Tre-dom—but now I am proud of that flag wherever it waves. He also remarked that in Panama he had seen the streets full of object beggars; but that during his whole visit, and all his travels on the Hawaiian Islands, he had not met one beggar.

"During the intervals, while the band rested, Mr.
Lyman's scholars played sweetly on their flutes, and Mr. Hitchcock's choir sang in English several songs, which were received with admiration."
"At the close of the concert the whole audience passed a vote of thanks to the Admiral and suite, to the band, and to the whole who had contributed to their entertainment. All passed off admirably, and the people returned happy and delighted to their homes."
"Our next volcano, which commenced its eruption Dec. 20th, is still active. It is the vast, terminal crater, Makuaeweeo, on the summit of Maunaloa.
It is confined to this crater, and will not, probably, overflow the rim or break out laterally."

MR. BURTON.—That the Hawaiian Government should subsidize the Gazette, to enable it, if possible, to run up the track, is a question, the propriety of which I shall leave for you to discuss, but that the Gazette should step in to assist one firm on the street to do the same kindly (?) office for another is a question that should interest all.
In last Saturday's issue of the Gazette the following paragraph appears in the commercial article:
"The steamer Ajane is, on the Post Office bulletin, to sail to-morrow. She takes a large number of passengers, but rather a small amount of freight." If it is true (?) that the agents of the Hawaiian Packet Line do the commercial articles for the Gazette, the whole matter is at once explained.
They were merely measuring the agents of the steamer by their own bushel. The Post Office bulletin might say "the steamer Ajane is, on the bulletin of the Hawaiian Packet Line, did not believe it."
It is true, it is a small matter to discuss; but the principle of allowing the Gazette to favor one enterprise against another is a pernicious one, and should be frowned down at once. A fair, open competition in business never does harm; so, if the steamer line and the Hawaiian Packet Line are to have a contest, let the Gazette step out of between this port and San Francisco, let the Gazette step out of the ring and observe a strict and dignified neutrality, or else properly credit its articles

THOSE BENCHES.
MR. BURTON.—The undersigned would hereby express the thanks of such of the public as are interested, as well as his own, to Mr. S. N. Castle for his account, in your paper of the 31st inst., of the transfer of sixty dollars from the Government School Treasurer of Kauai, which is, it seems, what was referred to by the Government organ, in its issue of Jan. 13th, when it speaks of a grant having been made by the Board of Education to the Boarding School for girls at Waialua.
It is an interesting history. An unpublished history might, however, say it was a most interesting and instructive that that written by Mr.
Castle. Yours, truly, O. H. GELECK.
Waialua, Oahu, Feb. 12, 1866.

PERSONAL.
MR. BURTON.—I noticed the following paragraph attached to an advertisement in your last week's issue:
"N. B.—Having been already deceived by some calling themselves brewers, only a man well recommended need apply."
As I was the last person in the employ of the party, as brewer, it reflects somewhat on my ability to fill that position. The facts of the case are, that I was in the employ for five months, and gave notice a month before my leaving of my intention to do so, and was urged repeatedly to remain, but refused, and was compelled to engage a lawyer to obtain a subpoena for the brewer.
These facts, and not my want of ability as a brewer, no doubt, led to the objectionable paragraph.

FOREIGN NEWS!
One Week Later.
By the bark Onward we have dates from San Francisco to January 20th, and by the bark Libelle, which arrived the same day, to the 24th January.
The Eastern telegraphic news is to the 20th of January. The following embraces the principal items: JEFF DAVIS' SYMPATHIZERS DISCHARGED.
FORTRESS MONROE, Jan. 16th.—Orders were received yesterday from the War Department, to discharge all employees in the various Government departments of this district, who have been in any way connected with the rebel service, commanding the immediate dismissal of all such, about 200 in number, giving them short notice to leave the place.
The agent of the National Express Company was also sent away for the above reason. The order was undoubtedly caused by the rumor that an organization was being formed to rescue Jeff Davis.
Armed picket boats are on duty constantly to examine all vessels arriving at this harbor.

NEW YORK, Jan. 18th.—The Herald's Fortress Monroe correspondent says that the defiance of the military authorities in their search for any persons who may be concerned in the supposed plot to liberate Jeff Davis, has not been in any degree relaxed since the expulsion from the district of all who are known to have been at one time in the rebel service. A sharp lookout is still kept on all arrivals both by land and water, and the conspirators, if the plot really exists, have little opportunity for the prosecution of their scheme.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 18th.—The Kansas State Senate yesterday passed resolutions favoring the trial, conviction and hanging of Jeff Davis and other leaders of the rebellion equally guilty of treason.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19th.—The Chilean Minister to-day received official intelligence that the Spanish fleet was about to raise the blockade of the Chilean ports.

MISCELLANEOUS.
NEW YORK, Jan. 18th.—The La Cronica, the Spanish organ, confirms the reported suicide of Admiral Pa-rraga, after the capture of the gunboat Canadainaga by the Chileans.

PRIVATE letters from trustworthy sources have been received from Paris, stating that the Legislature of the French Empire will assemble about the 18th instant, and the Emperor, in his opening address, will express the most amiable sentiments towards the United States, and make it a point to allude to the relations of the two countries become hostile by measures or questions of honor, he will promise to evacuate Mexico as promptly as possible.

THE Fenian trial was concluded at Cork on the 21st, and several more prisoners were convicted and sentenced. The trials of the remainder were adjourned to the 25th, and many were liberated on bail. John McAfferly and W. McKay, being aliens, were admitted on bail. The Judge told them if they would leave the country they would not be called upon for trial. These men were cheered through the streets by large crowds.

THE Emperor Napoleon gave his usual New Year's reception to the diplomatic body, and expressed his happiness that the past year had strengthened the bonds of peace, and was an augury for a long duration of peace and prosperity over the world.

THE Pope received the congratulations of the French army on the 1st inst. He returned the thanks, and said it would probably be the last time he could bestow his blessings on them. He feared the enemies of the Church would go to Rome after the departure of the French troops.

CONGRESSIONAL.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 16th.—Quite a stir occurred in the Senate to-day, on Mr. Chandler offering a resolution in regard to indemnifying the owners of American vessels destroyed by Confederate pirates fitted out in British ports. It reads: "Whereas, the British Government refused indemnity for damages done American commerce by her subjects; therefore, resolved, that the President be requested to withdraw our Minister from the Court of St. James, and declare national non-intercourse between the two nations."
Mr. Dixon objected to the resolution. It laid over under the rule. Aided on the table—yes 85, no 12.
Mr. Chandler gave notice that he would, at an early day, read the British Foreign Enlistment Law, and move the repeal of all existing neutrality.
Mr. Clark, of Kansas, is now speaking on the negro suffrage question. The question of extending suffrage in the District of Columbia came up, and after considerable discussion the House voted on the bill as originally introduced by Mr. Kelley, and reported back by Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, without amendment, and which provides that all laws and parts of laws prescribing the qualifications of electors for any office in the District of Columbia with the word "white" shall be and the same is hereby stricken out; that from and after the passage of this act, no person shall be disqualified from voting at any election held in such district on account of color, and that all acts of Congress and laws of the State of Maryland in force in said district and in Washington and Georgetown, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed and annulled." The bill passed—yeas 116, nays 64. When the result of the vote was announced applause followed from floor to galleries.

MEXICAN MATTERS.
NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—The Times's Havana correspondence of January 11 says, the latest advices are unfavorable to the Imperial cause in Mexico. Engagements with varied success on either side have taken place. A band of conspirators to assassinate
