JAPANESE CRUISER DEALING OUT DEATH

The above scene was drawn by a Japanese Artist from the description of a Japanese officer on one of the vessels which took part in the attack on Port Arthur and who was a participant in the actual engagement presented.

Dalny Consul Waiting Here

EDWIN MORGAN WAITING FOR NEWS REGARDING HIS POST IN THE FAR EAST.

Edwin Morgan, who has just been appointed American consul at Dalny, is in Honolulu awaiting advice and instructions, and in a state of uncertainty as to whether he will ever be able to get to his post and whether he will have to present his credentials at Dalny to representatives of the Czar of all the Russias or of the Emperor of Japan. As soon as instructions are received he will continue his journey, but at present the whole matter is in doubt.

The Russian Government does not want any American consuls in its Far Eastern ports at present, it is stated. For this reason Consul Morgan would probably be unable to go to his post during the present conditions of probable attack and siege. If the Japanese should take the city they would undoubtedly welcome Morgan and he would establish his post without difficulty.

The new consul is an old friend of Governor Carter, having been with the latter at Andover. Morgan went to Harvard and after graduating became a professor of history in an Ohio university. Later he was made professor of history at Harvard. He entered the consular service largely on account of the opportunities offered for pursuing his studies, and has held posts in the service at St. Petersburg and other places.

DAVID LAWRENCE BANKRUPTCY PETITION

A petition to declare David Lawrence & Company bankrupt was filed this afternoon in the United States District Court by Bishop & Company, the Hilo Mercantile Company and J. D. Jewett. The petitioners aver that the company owes in the neighborhood of $30,000 and that they are creditors, also that the company has committed an act of bankruptcy by admitting its inability to pay its debts and declaring willingness to be adjudged bankrupt. The petition alleges that David Lawrence and Company are indebted to Bishop & Company in the sum of $6,032.15, to the Hilo Mercantile Company for $500 and to J. D. Jewett $60, the three petitioners being the legal number required for a bankruptcy petition. The company is said to have admitted that it cannot pay the sums due creditors and is also alleged to have declared willingness to be adjudged bankrupt. Judge Dole is asked to make the usual order declaring the company bankrupt and appointing a trustee in bankruptcy to settle the affairs. David Lawrence and Company, Limited, organized with a capital stock of $100,000. The business was founded by Lawrence, who at one time had a small cigar store here and gradually worked his business up to a very large one. The principal store is in the Alexander Young building, where the company has a very fine establishment. David Lawrence is president of the company and H. T. Hayselden secretary and treasurer. The company has done a large wholesale and retail business in cigars, tobacco, pipes, etc. and has a big stock on hand.

GRAND JURY AND THE ALARM

An alarm of fire from Box 26, corner of Punchbowl and Queen streets, shortly before noon today caused considerable curiosity. Some people feared that there might be a serious conflagration as there were a number of light frame dwellings in that vicinity. There was no fire, however, although there was good reason for the alarm being sounded. It was the grand jury that was testing the fire alarm system and fire department.

Andrew Brown, superintendent of the Water Works, was a witness this morning before the grand jury. It is understood that he was being questioned regarding the conditions of the water system and the fire department in connection with the fire that destroyed the Punahou residence of George W. Robertson. Several of the jurors are understood to have rather intimated that the fire department was not very prompt in responding to an alarm. Mr. Brown replied that the department was prompt. He said that the department could reach an alarm box four minutes after an alarm was sounded within a reasonable radius. The jurors decided to test the matter, so the entire crowd marched from the Judiciary Building to the corner of Queen and Punchbowl and turned in the alarm. The department arrived in 3 1/2 minutes.

One of the Triumphs of Modern Surgery.—By applying an antiseptic dressing to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, they may be healed without maturation and in one-third the time required by the old treatment. This is one of the greatest discoveries and triumphs of modern surgery. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering such injuries entail. For sale by all dealers, Benson, Smith & Co., agents for Hawaii.

LONDON, February 21.—The Nagasaki correspondent of the Telegraph says that while Mr. Sands, who was adviser of the Emperor of Korea, and who was formerly an official of the American Legation, was entertaining officers of the French cruiser Pascal and a number of friends at his official residence in Seoul, some geographical and statistical maps were stolen. The affair caused a great scandal, and necessitated Sands' recall.

MUST COMPLY WITH THE LAW. FOOD COMMISSIONER DUNCAN WRITES TO EASTERN MANUFACTURERS REGARDING FOOD. A report on the cemetery question was received yesterday afternoon by the Board of Health as follows: "To the President and Members of the Board of Health: "At the close of its last meeting, the Board as a whole made a tour of the city cemeteries. "Kawaiahao Cemetery.—The general appearance of this cemetery is not unpleasing. Many of the graves show evidence of constant care, and the plots and walks are for the most part neatly kept and free from weeds. It is impossible to form an estimate of the amount of ground still untenanted, owing to the fact that many of the plots have been leveled off, leaving nothing to indicate how many have been buried there in former years. The records of the Health Department, which do not cover the earlier years of the cemetery, show 2576 burials to date. An actual count of the graves now to be seen there would not probably exceed 700 or 800. This custom of obliterating the graves of the forgotten dead should be prevented if possible. "Catholic Cemetery, King street.—The overcrowded condition of this cemetery is apparent to the most casual observer. Its unfitness for further interments, except perhaps in a few spots near its mauka border, is acknowledged by the authorities of the cemetery and by Catholics generally. It is therefore most satisfactory to note that, near Pearl City, a new Catholic cemetery, to take the place of this one, has already been laid out and consecrated. "Makiki Cemetery.—The portion of this cemetery that was set aside for Japanese burials is full to overflowing. Even the walks and paths are being utilized. It is anomalous that a people who form a majority of the inhabitants of this city should have but this one little strip of ground in which to bury their dead. "W. H. MAYS." The report was filed and Dr. Cooper was delegated to see representative Japanese regarding their burial place. The report of Food Commissioner R. A. Duncan was received, showing a large number of samples of canned foods to have been examined by him during the month. Those made locally were found to be free from adulterations, while some of the imported goods were adulterated. As to them Duncan said he had taken action as follows: "In regard to the adulteration enumerated in the report, I have notified the manufacturers on the mainland that their goods are adulterated and sold illegally in this territory and have asked them if they can place their goods on this market properly marked, to comply with the law, within three months' time." A report from the Insane Asylum committee approving the plans of the physician's cottage and recommending immediate construction thereof was read and adopted. C. S. Holloway, Superintendent of Public Works, wrote the president relative to School street extension. The Government gives the Asylum 20 feet more ground by making the width of road 60 instead of 80 feet. The road will run, along the margin of the Asylum grounds instead of cutting through their midst. A letter was received from F. S. Dodge, agent of the Bishop Estate, asking for a decision about the proposed renewal of lease of Kalih land. The president was authorized to have a lease obtained by the Government, beginning to run January 1, 1905, at the rental of $400 a year. The rent is paid in advance until June 30 next, and for the remaining six months of this year the old rate will obtain. The amendment to Territorial regulations and plumbing regulations for Hilo, having been in the hands of FORESTER HOSMER PLACED IN CHARGE OF THE OFFICE—RULE REGARDING ISLAND SHIPMENTS. The Board of Agriculture and Forestry held a meeting yesterday afternoon at the new headquarters, all the members being present. A resolution was introduced by L. A. Thurston and adopted by the board, placing Forester Hosmer in charge of the general offices and headquarters. It was as follows: "Resolved, that until further notice R. S. Hosmer be authorized and requested to take general charge of the general offices, library, correspondence and records of the Board and of the employees of the Board, except the members of the entomological department, subject to the general control of the Executive Officer and of the Board." Superintendent Holloway reported that he was at work on a plan of reduction of expenses, in accordance with the general scheme of the administration. The Board adopted a rule regarding shipments on island vessels, to be approved by the governor as follows: "Be it resolved by the Board of Commissioners of Agriculture and Forestry of the Territory of Hawaii, that the following rules and regulations shall be and hereby are adopted as rules and regulations of this Board. "Rule 1. No soil, nursery stock, tree, sugar cane, shrub, plant, flower, vine, cutting, graft, cion, bud, seed, root, fruit pit, vegetable, leaf, nut, or other vegetable growth shall be shipped or transported from the Island of Oahu to any other island in the Territory of Hawaii, nor shall any sugar cane be shipped or transported from any island other than Oahu to any other island, until the same shall have been first submitted to the inspection of an Inspector of the Board at Honolulu, and have undergone such fumigation, disinfection, or quarantine as he may direct, and until he shall have issued a permit allowing the article or articles so inspected to be shipped and transported to another island."

GAMBLING.

In regard to embezzlements and shortage of funds though the laxity that has prevailed is primarily the cause, there are other causes which may be considered to come in secondarily. Of these in the case of Vivian Richardson and of many another, gambling was a cause. Gambling in its various forms has ever been the most ruinous of vices. It has led more men to ruin than almost any other of the temptations which beset the path of man. It is moreover a vice which seems ingrained in the human race. The most primitive of people indulge in it, the most polished and advanced are fascinated with it. Gambling may take many forms. It may be betting on horses, it may be conducted by cards, by dice, by lottery, by stocks, by games of skill or by games of pure chance.

Gambling is not confined to any one grade of society. You find it among the tramps and street boys, you also find it among the highest and most responsible of people. You find it among men, you find it among women. It has as many forms as the chameleon has colors. It may be coarse and it may seem refined, but none the less is it gambling and a vice.

There is far more general gambling here than there used to be. It has become more of a prevailing vice. Time was when gambling was largely carried on by the Chinese, and a few hardened poker players. Now there are regular gambling joints and places where young men collect for the sole purpose of gambling, while you cannot go into a quiet street without coming across a little group of boys playing craps.

A gambler is patently untrustworthy. He lives in an atmosphere of chance and illusion. This is what makes him so dangerous to entrust with money. He has his run of luck, and he has his run of ill luck. When his ill luck comes he takes the money in his charge, hoping to replace when his luck turns. He will do this as readily when he is stock gambling as when he is betting on races or playing cards. But in this community there is one further incentive to taking money that does not belong to the taker. He argues, "if I am found out some one will pay up the money for me, and the affair will be hushed up. I may lose my job, but then I will get another."

The whole thing lies in a nutshell. Leniency in such matters only makes the gangrene of dishonesty spread. Only yesterday when commenting upon a recent embezzlement some one remarked: "It was not a large sum, it might easily have been made up." It is this attitude of mind in the community which helps to increase the crime. The best way to form habits of honesty is by making dishonesty so difficult that it is patently unprofitable and unwise. Two things are needed. One punishment unerring and certain, the other a public opinion which will ostracize the dishonest man. Of this there is very little here. A man who is known to be flagrantly dishonest, who has confessed his dishonesty, may yet hold his own socially, and be treated as if he never had done anything wrong in his life. Gambling may and does lead to dishonesty, but we, ourselves, are to blame in having made dishonesty easy.

KOREA.

Japan may possibly declare a protectorate over Korea. It is generally thought that Ito's mission to that country is for that purpose. That Japanese influence has entirely superseded Russian influence in the "Land of the Morning Calm" is very evident, and the losses Russia has suffered have strengthened the pro-Japanese party.

In spite of the prominence that Korea has had in the public eye since the Chinese-Japanese war of 1895, and in spite of the number of foreigners in the country our statistical information of Korea is somewhat vague. There has never been any census taken, and the 12,000,000 Koreans which are talked about so glibly are an estimate pure and simple. There may be more, there may be less.

Not only is Korea vitally important to Japan from a strategic and military point of view, but it is also important from a commercial point of view. With Russia permanently in Korea Japanese trade would be fatally crippled, if not entirely shut out. In cotton goods alone Japan sends $1,500,000 worth to Korea annually.

The trade question must never be lost sight of in this war. It is what the rest of the world is most interested in, certainly it is what we are most interested in. With Russia in Korea and Manchuria our trade would soon be reduced to a minimum, if it were not shut out altogether. It would be a death blow to our oil trade. It would put an end to our mining concessions. Whereas with Japan in possession it would increase, and both our trade and our capital would be welcome.

The world is very selfish, it is true, and there is nothing more selfish than commerce. But if we do not look after our own commerce no one will look after it for us. Viewed at bottom it is our own interest which makes us sympathize with Japan in this war. There may be sentimental reasons, as a smaller country fighting a large one, but the basis is selfishness. We shall get more through Japan's occupation of these two provinces, than ever we should from Russia.

TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH.

The Electrotechnical Review, of Frankfurt, contains an article written by the inventors, Professor Brune and Engineer Turchi, describing a new system of telegraphing and telephoning over the same wire, which has been patented in the principal countries. The essential part of the invention consists in the feature that existing telegraph wires can be made to serve for telegraphing and telephoning through the insertion of a "differential spool." After a series of experiments, of which those over the Rome-Florence line, a distance of 185 miles, were the most important, the Turin-Vercelli line has been equipped for regular service.

The chief advantage in adopting the new system is that the adjustment of the differential spool to the existing telegraph system is inexpensive. In the near future experiments will be made in London. The official adoption of the system for Portugal is reported to be determined upon; an English company is at present building a widely distributed telephone system in that country, work on which has been stopped temporarily in order to await the results of the experiments at London and eventually to use the existing telegraph system for simultaneous telegraphing and telephoning.

The inventors claim the following advantages:

1. Existing telegraph systems need not be changed materially.
2. Telegraph systems of the most diverse kinds—also those which work with rapid and synchronic apparatus—can be utilized, as, for instance, those of Hughes & Weston and others.
3. The cost of adjustment is small.
4. Only one wire is required.

There has been a regular shake up of our ministers in South America. The position of United States minister to Colombia is not a very pleasant one and no doubt Mr. Beaupre will be glad to go to the Argentine Republic.

France is certainly uneasy. Exactly what she is meditating one cannot quite tell. One thing, however is certain and that is that there will not be coalition between France and Germany. The Alsace-Lorraine feeling is as strong as ever, and there was quite a demonstration the other day against the government because it had expelled an Alsatian from French soil, for addressing a political meeting. It was openly stated in the Chamber that France intended to recover those provinces in time.

Ohio has very strong feelings on the negro question. It commences in the schools and is continued into adult life. There is something very like a race war going on just now.

The Russians claim to have floated the disabled ship Retvizan. At Port Arthur there is every facility for repairing men-of-war, so the Retvizan may be got ready in nice shape for the Japanese to take over when Port Arthur falls.

The Japanese do not give much rest to the Russians. Last Tuesday they were shelling Dalny and Port Arthur again. There is an immense amount of sickness at Dalny, though what disease has been sweeping off the population has not been reported. It would not be at all surprising if small-pox should ravage both Dalny and Port Arthur. With disease within, and the foe without, both these places would be in a very bad way.

The flood season is starting on the mainland. There has been a serious catastrophe in Pennsylvania. It is to be hoped that there will not be another year of overflow by the Mississippi. The destruction last year was appalling.

A big land battle between the Russians and the Japanese may be early looked for. Quietly but steadily the Japanese have been getting their troops concentrated so as to be in a position to strike. The great aim of the Japanese is to obtain command of the railroad to Port Arthur and so to thoroughly isolate that point of vantage. Cut off on the land side and blockaded by sea the fortress must soon fall. Before it falls however there will be at least one big fight upon which the Russian generals will stake what reputation they may have.

Kapea seems to have managed to get into the Hawaiian Trust Company to a considerable tune. Now that we have the cable it ought not to be difficult to spot the absconder in whatever direction he may have gone. He will simply walk into the arms of the Japanese or American police.

The Board of Agriculture has taken the subject of transportation of plants soils, from island to island into consideration and has formulated a rule by which such transportation without inspection is strictly prohibited. Had we had a rule of this kind some years ago a great deal of money might have been saved. It is very easy to introduce insect and vegetable pests. It is an entirely different thing to eradicate them when once they are established.

THE SOLACE HELLE.

The naval transport Solace arrived unexpectedly this morning from one of her regular cruises to the Asiatic station. The vessel left Manila February 26 and Guam February 27. She laid over night off Guam owing to the bad weather that was prevailing. Pleasant weather was experienced during the voyage to this port. Nothing was sighted. The Solace was last here in December when she arrived with supplies and ammunition for Admiral Evans' fleet. She sailed ahead of the fleet, however, in order to make her rounds of the ports on the Asiatic station. She did not go farther north than Hong Kong this trip, however, so did not approach the scene of hostilities between the Japanese and Russians. There are hundreds of men aboard the Solace who are going home. They have served a month over their time, but this call for extra time on their services has been due to delay in getting them back to the mainland. Nobody aboard the Solace has seen any of the fighting.

have the valuable right of proposal, but the passengers on board the Siberia last trip had a calendar of their own, in which the thirtieth of February has a rightful place. In crossing between here and Yokohama a day is added or dropped from the calendar, to keep in accord with the calendars of the far east. Traveling towards Yokohama passengers go to sleep one night and find it is two days later when they wake up. Otherwise, owing to the change in time, they would be a day behind the rest of the world on reaching Japan. Similarly a day is added on the return. The day for the change on the Siberia's return trip came at the end of February. As a result the added day was called February 29 and appears so in the log and other official documents of the vessel. The usual lunch and dinner menu cards were printed on board and they bear the date of February 29. Many of the passengers kept them as souvenirs of a unique occasion. The experience was a new one to officers and men on board as well as to the passengers, no one on board having encountered such a coincidence before.

TEST HACK LAW.

Commander Becher was on the monitor Monterey. He is returning home. Mrs. Judge Sweeney and two children are passengers from Manila. She is the wife of Judge Sweeney of the Philippines. The Solace is to take 600 tons of coal at this port. She will begin coaling tomorrow morning. She is scheduled to sail at 7 a. m. Saturday for San Francisco. She will probably carry mail.

FEBRUARY THIRTIETH.

"February, 30, 1904," is the date on some souvenir bills of fare in the possession of United States Marshal Hendry. There are few people in the world who have had the experience of living through a February thirtieth. The second month of the year is supposed to consist usually of 28 days with a 29th thrown in on the years when women Attorney J. A. Mathewman has begun proceedings in the Supreme Court in behalf of four Japanese who want hackdrivers' licenses, to test the action of High Sheriff Brown in requiring a knowledge of the English language as a qualification for hackdrivers. In the late lamented county act there was a section of law providing that hackmen must have a knowledge of English or Hawaiian or both. When the county act was knocked out the sheriff continued to require English, basing his action on the following rule from the backmen's regulations as drawn up some time ago by Superintendent of Public Works Boyd: "Every hackdriver, before being licensed as such, must prove to the satisfaction of the competent authorities that he is sufficiently conversant with the English language for the conduct of his business, and well acquainted with streets and localities in and around Honolulu."

The case is submitted to the Supreme Court on agreed facts by the High Sheriff and the four Japs for whom Mathewman is counsel, being set forth as follows: "That said Takichi Sakata et al., being applicants for licenses as drivers for passenger vehicles, have presented themselves to the said Arthur M. Brown for examination, and demanded of said Arthur M. Brown the certificates prerequisite to the issuance of the said licenses, as provided in Section 99 of Act 64, Session laws of 1896. "That the said Arthur M. Brown has refused to grant the said certificates to the said Takichi Sakata et al., because of their imperfect understanding and rendering of the English language, it being, however, admitted by the said Arthur M. Brown that the said Takichi Sakata et al. understand the management of their horses and vehicles,

M'BRYDE REPORTS A GOOD YEAR

The annual meeting of McBryde Sugar Company was held this morning. There was a very good attendance of stockholders, and very much in the reports that was encouraging and satisfactory. The acreage and crops have been increased, and at the same time the operating expenses have been materially reduced. Mr. Swanzy pointed out that the income exceeded operating expenses, not including interest, by upwards of $130,000. He had recently been on the plantation and found the physical condition of the estate excellent. From the point of view of the physical condition of the plantation, barring the accidents of insect pests, labor troubles and that sort of thing, to which all plantations were equally liable, the conditions and outlook were as good as any plantation, though of course the large interest charges were the load the plantation had to carry. It was believed that the property was becoming more valuable daily and hence there had not been great effort made to sell the bonds, as it was believed that better sales could be made soon than now. In general, Mr. Swanzy thought the outlook for the plantation was very encouraging, and was better than ever.

understand the names of streets and prominent localities within the said District of Honolulu and, in the Japanese translation, understand the 'Regulations for Carriages and Rates of Fare,' now in force as provided for by Section 102 of said Act 64, justified either by those words, and otherwise. "As a matter of law it is claimed by the said Arthur M. Brown that his action above referred to is justified by the words 'competent driver' as used in line 10 of said section 99. "As a matter of law, it is claimed by the said Takichi Sakata et al. that such action is not justified by the words 'competent driver' or 'at all.'"

"ON GUARD."

Two soldiers from the transport Sherman got themselves into the criminal net last night. Both of them were arrested for stealing and both were found guilty. Their names were Corporal G. H. Stevens and Sergeant C. Ferguson. They were discovered by Police Officer Kuaua, robbing the store of Afee on Alakea street. One of the men was inside the store and the other was outside. The policeman grabbed both and shouted for assistance. Mounted Officer Fernandez went to his help and the soldiers were taken to the police station.

This morning the soldiers were before Judge Dickey on charges of larceny in the second degree. The soldiers claimed that they saw the door of the store opened, with tobacco strewn about the floors, so they thought the place had been robbed and decided to stand guard until the police or some person came to look after the store. The court did not credit this story, however, and fined them $25 and costs each. An officer from the transport was present in court, paid the fines of the men and took them to the vessel, so that they were not left behind in this city.

Out of twelve cases on the police court calendar this morning nine of them were for stealing. Three of these were against Asa, the diminutive Japanese sneak thief. Continuances were granted in those cases.

George Bolobolo was charged with stealing 700 pounds of lead from the water works department. His case was continued until tomorrow. Kull was given three months in jail for stealing a watch from a Chinese.

INSPECTORS TABUED.

The naval transport Solace is dispensing with the services of the customs inspectors. Efforts were made by the inspectors to go on the Naval Wharf this morning when the Naval transport was docked, but they were turned down. In fact they were told that their presence was unnecessary about the wharf—the Naval authorities would attend to looking after the vessel and preventing anything dutiable being smuggled ashore.

The Customs inspectors were to have gone on the wharf but they were informed that it would be an unnecessary outlay of energy. The Naval people took the responsibility of seeing that no customs regulations were violated so the inspectors had, in consequence, to remain outside in the street.

This action on the part of the naval people was in line with the precedent established by Admiral Evans when the American fleet was in port last December. The Admiral took the matter of preventing any dutiable articles coming ashore from the fleet, out of the hands of the Customs officials. He took the matter into his own hands and issued positive orders that the customs regulations were to be strictly observed. The orders were obeyed and the work of preventing smuggling if any persons had desired to attempt any such thing was thoroughly done.

Evidently the naval authorities propose to follow that rule and attend to the Naval vessels themselves when the boats are in this port. There has always been a "ore or less" feeling" on between the local customs people and the people on the Solace regarding the guarding of the vessel and for some years past Customs officials have not been permitted aboard the Solace.

NOT A JUROR PASSED.

Out of a special venire of fifty jurors for the Jones trial only eight were left when Judge Robinson adjourned court at noon today and not one had been passed. The same jurors remained in the box as were there when court adjourned yesterday. At this rate it is thought the entire list of names of jurors for 1904 will be exhausted before a jury is secured. A question will then arise as to what shall be done, but it is the opinion of the attorneys that the court has the power to summon any citizens to serve.

The following were all of the fifty to be served with summons to appear this morning: C. C. Conradi, A. M. Keoho, Harry Armitage, John A. Johnson, A. W. Rice, J. M. Schnack, George Kahana, L. de L. Ward, J. A. M. Johnson, J. C. Quina, J. M. Naone, L. C. Ables, Louis Marks, S. K. Mahoe, H. R. Macfarlane, Jr., G. K. Kall, Manuel Miranda, E. P. O'Brien, Albert M. Campbell, V. Kealoha, John Kahue, C. J. Fishel, C. H. Bellina, James Carty, E. W. Peterson, Percy Lishman, E. S.

Cunha, W. E. Brown David Goldstein, A. C. Dowsett, George L. Desha, Jr., John A. Johnson and E. W. Peterson were excused for deafness, Harry Armitage for business reasons and because he was shown at the last trial to be disqualified, John Kahue and G. K. Kall because they did not understand English. E. S. Cunha asked to be excused on account of being a relative of "the murdered woman" and having an opinion, but the court said that this would appear later. G. L. Desha was excused as a minor. Excuses were refused to J. A. M. Johnson and A. M. Campbell.

STACKABLE WILL DISBURSE.

The indications are that the new Immigration Station will soon be started. Collector Stackable received notice yesterday's mail appointing him disbursing agent for the distribution of funds of the appropriation of $30,000 for the construction of an immigration station at this port.

While no statement to the effect was made, the appointment of the Collector to take charge of the distribution of the appropriation indicates that work is to be commenced very soon on the new buildings. It was thought that a larger appropriation could be secured for the buildings, but evidently any attempt to secure additional money is not to delay the use of the original appropriation. Orders regarding the commencement of the new station building are expected almost any time.

MUST PROVE THE LAW.

United States Judge Dole and the attorneys in the Ivanhoe case were in deep water for a time this morning, over the efforts of the defense to introduce copies of British laws relating to seamen and their rights. Consul W. H. Hoare was called to the stand to supply a copy of the Act of Parliament relating to the matter. He produced a volume containing the law and Dunne and Humphreys objected to it on several grounds, among them being that it was not the best evidence of the British law on the subject. It was claimed that the copy was not shown to be official.

Stanley asked by whose authority the book was published and the consul replied that it was by authority of the British Parliament. The attorneys for the defense then moved to strike this answer out, claiming that the act authorizing the publication was the only proper evidence of such a fact. Judge Dole said he would reserve his decision until the close of the cross-examination. "We respectfully decline to cross-examine," said Dunne.

A further objection was added by the defense in that the book had a writing in it by Hoare showing an amendment to the act. Court adjourned to this afternoon to allow Stanley to try to get a correct copy of the present law and prove that it is such a copy.

The issue of the case, it is said, depends upon the possibility of proving the British law on the subject. The crew of the Ivanhoe, who are suing the vessel and master, had a hearing of their case, in accordance with British law, before a court at Iquiqui, and were ordered back to the vessel. As there were no complaints of ill treatment after leaving Iquiqui, it is claimed that this former adjudication settles the matter.

KAPEA OFF FOR ORIENT

POLICE HAVE LEARNED THAT HE INQUIRED PRICE OF STEAMSHIP PASSAGE SATURDAY.

Henry Kapea's embezzlement and departure for Japan, which is thought to be his destination, appears now to have been very shrewdly planned, and it is stated that under the treaty laws he is safe from extradition. The young man even went so far in his precautions as to see that none of his photos were left behind and to secure the negative which he knew was in the possession of Photographer J. J. Williams.

"I believe the negative was stolen from my parlors," said J. J. Williams. "I knew just where it was, but it has disappeared and it was not sold. How it was obtained I do not know." Preparations were begun at once to secure the extradition of Kapea and it was through efforts to get his photograph for this purpose that the loss of the negative was discovered. The photo was desired as a part of the necessary documents. It is thought that there may be some copies in Honolulu but none has been found yet.

The principal difficulty in the way of extradition is in the terms of the extradition treaty with Japan. The only sort of embezzlement included in the treaty is the embezzlement of public money. Hence it is claimed, Kapea is safe when he once gets to Yokohama. Deputy Attorney General Peters is looking up the law with a view to seeing what can be done in the matter. Kapea is said to have been seen in Honolulu after the Siberia left for San Francisco, hence it is supposed that he took the China for the Orient. His efforts to negotiate the stolen bonds and his purchase of clothing at the Hub are regarded as disposing of the suicide theory.

The police believe that Henry Kapea has gone to the Orient. The missing collector of the Hawaiian Trust Company is known to have been to the office of H. Hackfeld and Company Saturday afternoon, and inquired the price of steamship passage to Japanese and Chinese points. He did not however, purchase a ticket.

The prohibitions are that he left on the China Saturday afternoon for the Orient. Efforts will in all probability be made to effect his capture. He may however have departed by the Siberia for San Francisco on Saturday.

According to the statements of J. R. Galt of the Hawaiian Trust Company about $4,500 in bonds are missing from the vaults of the trust company. About $1,500 of this money has been traced. One bond of $500 of the Waialua Plantation issue was hypothecated to Bishop and Company's Bank to secure a note of $350 made by Kapea. A second bond on the Oahu Railway for the same amount was placed by Kapea with the Spreckels Bank for $350 and a third Oahu Railway bond was turned over to J. E. Fullerton who made the loan on it for James Campbell. The amount of money advanced on the last bond was $350 for six months at 1 per cent a month.

Weak Nerves

Are you ever nervous? Do you lie awake nights, suffer from despondency, and often feel discouraged? It's a terrible life to lead. Don't suffer in this way any more. Get strong and well.

Follow the advice of Mrs. Thomas Fritchard, of Adelaide, South Australia. She sends us her photograph and says:
"I had a terrible illness which left my nerves all unstrung. I had severe headaches, indigestion, sleeplessness, and my nerves were just as weak as they could be. I then tried Ayer's Sarsaparilla and I began to improve at once. My appetite returned, my digestion improved, and my nerves became strong and steady."

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

There are many imitation "Sarsaparillas."
Be sure you get Ayer's.
Use Ayer's Pills with the Sarsaparilla.
These are purely vegetable pills. They cure

The following officers and directors for the year were chosen: President, D. P. R. Isenberg; vice-president, R. F. Dillingham; treasurer, F. M. Swanzy; secretary, T. Clive Davies; auditor, H. W. M. Milt; directors, W. D. McBryde, Albert Wilcox, R. W. T. Purvis, J. M. Lydgate and T. Clive Davies.
Manager William Stodart says in his report:

The weather has been unusually cold and unfavorable for the growth of cane throughout the past year, barring the last quarter of the year which was unusually mild and warm. This is the second year of cold weather and its effect is very apparent on the crop under cultivation during that period and now being harvested. The mild weather came too late to do that crop much good, but it has stimulated the growth of the young cane to be harvested next year, so that at this writing, owing to good weather and an early start, it is the most promising crop yet grown on this plantation.

The loss of mountain water is considerable at times. Coming as it sometimes does irregularly and in enormous quantities, the waterways are often too small and the storage capacity too limited.

The last of our present reservoirs was completed in July last.
No other reservoirs have since been made or started, nor do we contemplate any more for the present.

Pump No. 1 in Hanapepe Valley has pumped 132 days of 24 hours during the year; Pump No. 2 in Lawai Valley 95 days, and Pump No. 3 in Hanapepe Valley 141 days, averaging about four months altogether for the 12 months ending 31st December. The total cost of pumping for 1903, to wit: $44,119.81, is less than for 1902, although we were carrying a larger area and had less rainfall. This result was due to increased economy in pumping and the increase in reservoirs, enabling us to save and store more water from the mountain freshets.

The total cost of pumping per million foot gallons for the past season including all repairs and a pro rata share of general superintendence, office expenses, and directors expenses, is as follows:

	Pump No. 1.	Pump No. 2.	Pump No. 3.
	Worthington Triple Expansion	Riedler C. & F. W. Triple Expansion	Riedon C. & F. W. Triple Expansion
Repairs...	$0.0704	$0.0515	$0.0439
	$0.0075	$0.0050	$0.0072
Total Cost	$0.0779	$0.0565	$0.0511

The total cost of pumping for the year per acre was $9.90, showing that the water from the reservoirs and streams furnished much the greater portion of the water used during the past season.

CROPS.

The crop of 1903 yielded 12,116 1/2 tons, of which 475 3/4 tons were manufactured at the mill of the Koloa Sugar
Company, and for which service it was paid out of the yield 190 3/4 tons sugar.

815 1/2 tons of the 1903 crop was shipped in December and credited to realizations for the year 1902 realizing $51,079.37.
140 1/2 tons of the same crop was shipped in December 1903 which realized $7,759.47. These items added to the balance of the crop gives us a total income for the years' crop of $697,534.40.

The crop now being harvested consists of 1475.60 acres of plant, 487.28 acres of long ratoons and 281.87 acres of short ratoons, making a total of 2244.75 acres, which is estimated at this date to yield 10,500 tons.

A large block of short ratoons intended for this crop was thrown into long ratoons for the 1905 crop. This, with the leaf-hopper and unfavorable weather, will bring the crop much lower than was anticipated a year ago.

The crop of 1905 consists of 793.52 acres of plant, 1332 acres of long ratoons and about 600 acres of short ratoons, making a total of over 2700 acres, more than have thus far been harvested on this plantation from any one crop. The condition of this crop at the present writing is very promising and from a preliminary estimate has been figured to yield about 14,000 tons.

The leaf-hopper that did substantial injury to the crop now being harvested when young decreased materially this past year, and has had no detrimental effect, thus far, on the young cane to be ground next year.

The Company has acquired a lease from the Hawaiian Sugar Company and Messrs. Gay & Robinson of Makaweli, of the Ha-napepe surplus water which will permit us to plant a larger area and in consequence enable us to crop a larger acreage in future.

Our Accounts show an expenditure (see Ex. "A") for Permanent Improvements throughout the year of $98,743.62, excluding $12,500 for Depreciation which appears in Operating Expenses, which is in payment of a series of large contracts covering principally reservoirs, land clearing, and railroad extensions, which were entered into the year previous and closed this last year.
The railroad to our Koloa fields is now finished and in operation.

We are now grinding the cane from those fields for the first time at our own mill, thus saving large yearly expenditures heretofore paid to the Koloa Sugar Company for doing this work.

Algeroba trees have been planted in the gulches near the camps with a view to reducing to a minimum at some future period, the cost of fuel for laborers. Other trees in large numbers have been set out for wind breaks, etc.

A large amount of work consisting of riprapping, grassing, fencing and otherwise safeguarding our reservoirs, which are now in first class condition, has been completed during the year.
A camp for laborers employed on the East Lawai and Koloa lands with a good water supply and including a mule stable, has been established at a point near the railroad at Kukuila.

We have added to our stock of cane cars, built an additional concrete waste molasses tank, reconstructed the furnaces at the factory to the "Burt" system of burning bagasse together with a number of other small improvements to enable us to further reduce the cost of sugar manufacture.

No more Permanent Improvements, as far as I know, are contemplated for the present excepting such minor matters as may come up incidentally in the regular routine.

Our net operating expenses for the year, including taxes but exclusive of interest, bond expenses and depreciation, were $540, 411.90, being less by $44,489.31 than the year previous, although we harvested and manufactured 4062 tons of sugar more and carried about 500 acres more of cane. Further substantial reductions in operating expenses are planned for this year.

The total expense of manufacture for the season was $2.69 per ton which includes the expense of manufacturing the low grades, all labor and supplies and a pro rata share of general superintendence, office expenses, and directors fees, which generally runs from 9% to 10% of the labor. The factory as a whole is doing excellent work and I expect to be able to report next year a still further reduction in the cost of manufacture.

We will make this year, for the first time, a direct shipment of 2500 tons around the Horn by sailing vessel from the crop now being harvested.

TOURIST WORK
IS APPROVED

The Board of Trustees of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday approved the work of the Tourist Promotion Committee and declared in favor of continuing the work. Treasurer J. A.
Gilman and Secretary Boyd submitted reports of the work done in the past six months, Gilman's report showing expenditures of $11,007.14. Secretary Boyd's report gave details of the work and included copies of the various advertisements that have been made.
The trustees adopted the following report of a committee consisting of E. I.
Spalding, H. M. Von Holt and E. D.
Tenney:
"C. M. Cooke, Esq., President Honolulu
Chamber of Commerce, Honolulu.
"Dear Sir: The Finance Committee have examined the report of the Treasurer of Hawaii Promotion Committee which was submitted to this Chamber at the meeting held on 11th ult., and beg to report as follows: We find that the Promotion Committee have received $1,817 from various subscribers, and $11,000 proceeds of special wharf tax, through Chamber of Commerce, a total of $12,817, of which $4,768.07 have been expended for salaries, postage, and office expenses including the distribution of literature, leaving a balance on January 4, 1904, of $8,048.93 in bank.
The sum of $11,007.14 has also been received from the Territory of Hawaii, which has all been expended in advertising and printed matter.
"Your Committee have not attempted to audit these expenditures but presume that they have been properly made.
"The printed matter, specimens of which accompanied the report, seems to have been carefully and intelligently prepared and widely distributed through the proper channels to reach the classes of people whom it is desirable to attract to Hawaii, and we note that arrangements have been made for still wider distribution. Offices have been opened in San Francisco and Los Angeles for circulating printed matter and also, for giving personal information as to these islands, and the Promotion Committee state that up to December 31, 1903 they have replied to 700 letters of inquiry, and 1-900 general letters.

"Your Committee consider that the work of the Promotion Committee has been well planned and energetically prosecuted. As to results, it is too soon to expect any great diversion of tourist travel of Hawaii from the established popular resorts and in our opinion the work if continued will in due course widely advertise Hawaii and attract not only tourists but also desirable settlers and residents to our shore. As to funds we cannot expect further aid from the Territorial Government for the present, and the continuance of this work will therefore depend upon the support of the general public, the special wharfage tax now used for that purpose does not seem to fall oppressively upon any one, and, as its expenditure through the Promotion Committee will result in increased business with the influence of travel to the benefit of those assessed for this purpose we recommend the continuance of said special wharf tax.

"In view of the fact that the expenses of the Promotion Committee have been met by the public through the system above mentioned we are of the opinion that they should be informed of the work accomplished and results to be expected, and we therefore recommend that the report of the Promotion Committee be published in one or more daily papers.

"Respectfully,
"E. I. SPALDING,
"H. M. VON HOLT,
"E. D. TENNEY."

ELDER SIEMSEN STARTED HONOKAA

FATHER OF YOUTH WHO WAS DROWNED LAST NIGHT AT SIERRA PROMINENT FACTOR IN HAWAII SUGAR MATTERS.

Wehard Siemsen, who was drowned while coaling the S. S. Sierra last night, was the son of a very well-known Kamasiina of these islands. The elder Siemsen came to the islands many years ago. He engaged in mercantile pursuits in Hilo. He was from Germany. He was left a large fortune by some relative in Germany and went away to settle up the affairs. He later returned to Hilo and engaged in business, but his stock of goods was more pretentious than the demands of the public required.

Siemsen was one of the early backers of the sugar industry and it was he who furnished the capital to start and run the Honokaa Plantation. Siemsen was at the back of Honokaa Plantation for a number of years and at one time was reputed to be a very wealthy man. His business affairs became involved, however, and in recent years he lost his wealth. He committed suicide at Honolulu some years ago. The elder Siemsen unfortunately drank heavily during the later years of his life. He had three sons and a daughter. One of the sons, C. Siemsen, married Miss Desha a year or so ago. The daughter is Mrs. George Hoak. Their mother lives in Ewa.

DROWNED IN THE HARBOR.

Wehard Siemsen a native stevedore was drowned last night about 10:30 o'clock while engaged in coaling the S. S. Sierra. He crawled through one of the port holes of the steamer to get onto the coal scow on the port side of the vessel. He made a mistake and climbed through a port hole under which the scow was not moored so he fell into the water. A rope was thrown to him but he did not catch hold of it. His body rose once again and then disappeared. Efforts were made last night to recover the body but without success. The youth was but 17 years of age. His mother lives at Ewa. A brother was engaged in coaling the vessel at the time Wehard was drowned.

LAHAINA LOCALS.

It is expected that Bishop Libet will administer the rite of confirmation next Sunday, at the church of Notre Dame des Victoires.

The new building on the government school grounds has been roofed in, and will be completed as soon as possible. Additional accommodations for pupils have long been needed. Mr. Henry Dickenson, the principal, took a severe cold on the steamer during the storm, while returning from his recent trip to Honolulu.

When the next appropriation is made for new lighthouses, it is hoped that Lahaina will not be forgotten.

Captain of vessels which call at this port desires that a collector should again be appointed here; or that in some way the present inconvenience should be obviated.

THIRD MAY COME TO HONOLULU.

Officers on the transport Sherman state that the Third Infantry may be ordered to Honolulu to replace the Coast Artillery at Camp McKinley.

THE RED BOOK.

The Red Book asks special attention to the story which appears as its leading contribution in the March number. The editor seems to think that he has made a literary find in this story, which is called, "The Taste of an Afterwhile." The author, Rem. A. Johnston, has not been known heretofore, but if he can keep up the pace he sets for himself in this story we shall know more of him before long. It is a tale of Indian life some fifty years ago, and is noteworthy for its freshness and vigor of style and the fascination of its theme and plot. Briefly, it is a story of the effort made by the outcast son of a horse thief who has been lynched, to establish himself in the favor of the little village where he lives. Perhaps the story cannot be praised for its technique, but no one will deny its strength. Gustavus C. Widney has made some excellent illustrations.

SIERRA SAILED THIS MORNING.

The S. S. Sierra did not sail until early this morning for Sydney, Auckland and Pago Pago. She had been scheduled to depart at 1 a. m., but got away about shortly after 5 a. m.

BALLOU AFTER TELEPHONE AGAIN

S. M. Ballou this morning filed a motion to have the telephone company and Superintendent Lehigh sentenced for contempt, for failure to obey the order of Judge Gear with regard to placing Ballou's name in the telephone books. The name has been placed in many books, in accordance with Gear's order, but it is claimed that not all of the books have the name in now. The motion for sentence is based on the following affidavit by J. W. Bergstrom:

"J. W. Bergstrom, being duly sworn, on oath deposes and says that he is the President of the Bergstrom Music Co., Ltd., a subscriber to the telephone service of the Mutual Telephone Company, that a short time ago said Bergstrom Music Company Limited received a telephone directory dated March 1904 for use in its office, which Telephone directory does not contain the name and telephone number of S. M. Ballou and that said name and telephone number of S. M. Ballou has not been inserted in said book up to the date of this affidavit.

"J. W. BERGSTROM.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this with day of March, 1904 E. L. Marx notary Public First Judicial Circuit, Territory of Hawaii."

Ballou's motion is to be heard before Gear at 9:30 tomorrow morning.

AN HONEST MAN

James D. Dole, of Wahiawa, started Secretary Atkinson this morning by announcing that he didn't think he was earning his salary from the government. Dole gets $30 a month as a forester and was doubtful about whether he earned it. His honesty produced a great shock in the Capitol building. Dole wants to be given more work, or else he will have to refuse to accept his salary. He is a nephew of the former governor.

THE PROBLEM CLUB.

The Problem Club at the Y. M. C. A. will meet tonight at 7:30 instead of the usual hour, 8:30. There will be no dinner served in the building tonight, as the illness of Mrs. Brown will not permit of her assuming that responsibility any longer. T. McCants Stewart will be the speaker of the evening, his subject being "Hereditry." General discussion follows the reading of the paper. All members and strangers are invited to attend, and especial attention is called to the change of time.

THE KOHALA DITCH.

A. C. Gehr was asked yesterday as to his intentions in the matter of the Kohala ditch franchise, which is to be offered at auction next Saturday. Gehr refused to state what he would do, but it is reported that he will have some objections to make to the sale and that he will have a bid ready in the event of the objections being overruled.

"There will be no other bona fide bidders," said Gehr, when asked if he thought any parties aside from those represented by him and those whom McCrosson represents would compete for the franchise. It has been reported that other parties were preparing to enter the competition, but only two bids are yet in sight.

The terms of the offer have now been finally settled. The parties who got the contract will have to begin work at once, as the time for construction of the first section has been reduced to eighteen months. The ditch is believed to be one of the greatest, if not the greatest engineering proposition ever attempted in the islands. There is one tunnel which will have to be constructed for the ditch about a mile in length, and there will be other tunnels and flumes.

The upper lands which are to be drained aggregate over 23,000 acres on which a heavy rain falls and from which most of the water runs to the sea. Passengers to and from Hilo as they pass along the coast see a succession of waterfalls along the Hamakua bluffs, which shows some of the water which the Kohala ditch people propose to divert from the highlands into their great ditch, in which it is to be carried into Kohala lowlands. It will furnish irrigation for a vast area of land which is practically useless without water, much of it cane land and homestead land. The completion and opening of the ditch will thus add greatly to the productive acreage of the island of Hawaii.
