LEGISLATURE IN SESSION.

SENATE PASSES MANY SECTIONS OF THE TAX BILL.

Proposal to Tax Life Insurance Premiums Rejected—The House Does Little Business.

FORTIETH DAY, APRIL 9.

THE SENATE.

After the opening preliminaries this morning, Senator Waterhouse presented a petition from the Y.
P. S. C. E. protesting against the sale of liquor.

Senator McCandless from the special committee on the Tax bill reported against the amendment of Senator Hocking allowing poll, school and road taxes to be worked out at the rate of 50 cents per day, on the ground that the scheme had been tried before and failed. Tabled for consideration with the bill.

Senator Lyman reported favorably on the petition for a fire station at Makiki. The report stated that a suitable lot, chemical engine and building could be procured for $14,500, which includes the running expenses for the present biennial period, according to figures prepared by the chief engineer of the Fire Department.
The committee found that there were several lots belonging to the government which could be utilized without purchasing a new one, and therefore recommended that the sum of $10,000 be appropriated for the purpose.

Senator Baldwin inquired if it was necessary to make a special appropriation for the purpose.

Minister Damon said it could come in under the supplementary appropriation bill, which would be rendered necessary owing to the change in the fiscal period.

The Secretary read a petition from twenty-four Chinese barbers asking to be exempted from $50 license on the ground that their shops were not patronized by white men and consequently they did not interfere with the business of white barbers; also that their profits were very small. Laid on the table.

Under unfinished business consideration of the bill for Internal Taxes was resumed.

Senator Waterhouse moved that sections 3 and 6, passed yesterday, be reconsidered, his object being to get a uniformity in the ages at which poll, school and road taxes became due. Carried.

Senator McCandless then moved that the age at which poll taxes be payable be changed from seventeen to twenty.

Minister Damon said he was sorry to see this matter come up.
The change would make considerable difference in the revenue of the country. Instead of trying to increase the revenue, which was the main object of the bill, the Senators seemed to be trying to reduce it. With regard to the argument that under the present system the Assessor found a good deal of trouble owing to the difference in ages on certain personal taxes he had only to say that the Assessor was well paid for his time and trouble and the argument should not cut any figure.

Senator Waterhouse said that under the present system of farming out the work of collecting these taxes to the Assessor's subordinates there was a loss of $2 on a great many of the receipts.
This $2 was simply stolen from the government by the collectors and he knew whereof he spoke and could prove his assertions.
The Assessor should not be allowed to give his under men a chance to defraud the government as was now being done.

Senator Baldwin said boys of 17 could earn as much on the plantations as men of 25, and did so to his knowledge. He did not believe in making any change at the present.

Senator Waterhouse said he would like time to look the matter up further and moved that sections 3 and 6 be referred to the Finance Committee. Carried.

Section 5 as recommended by the committee was carried.

The proposed new section of Senator Hocking to allow the personal taxes to be worked out at the rate of 50 cents a day then came up with the report of the committee against the same.

Minister Damon thought the Assessor or his assistants might be given discretion in the matter to allow taxes to be worked out in deserving cases.

Senator Waterhouse said that any law which would commit an honest poor man to jail where he had to herd with common criminals was an outrage and a shame.

Senator Hocking said his proposition was also an economical one.

Senator Brown said the proposition was simply an inducement held out to lazy natives not to pay their taxes. If the amendment passed we should certainly see a repetition of the scenes of olden days when the natives brought their pipes and calabashes of poi and simply sat down on the road and made a picnic of it. The native would simply soldier as he used to do and there would be little or no work on the road.

Senator Baldwin thought it was unwise to make any change at the present time.

The motion to adopt the report of the committee was carried by a vote of 9 to 4 and Senator Hock-ing's amendment was thereby lost.

Section 16 then came up together with the substitute offered by the committee, (printed in yesterday's issue).

Senator Brown moved to adopt the substitute section.

Minister Damon moved to amend the following paragraph "In estimating the aggregate value of each such enterprise for profit there shall be taken into consideration the net profits made by the same, and all other facts and considerations which reasonably and fairly bear upon such valuations" by adding thereto the words "also the gross revenue from all sources."

Senator Brown suggested the words "as well as the gross receipts" and Mr. Damon accepted the amendment.

Minister Damon said these words were important and should be embodied in the law. These was the first attempt ever made by any government of Hawaii in the direction of an income tax and every possible data should be furnished the Assessor by corporations for the benefit of the government.

The substitute section with the amendment carried.

Sections 17 and 18, relating to separate interests and making taxes a lien on the property assessed, passed as in the bill.

Section 19 creates a tax of one dollar for every $100 gross premiums received by fire and marine insurance companies or their agents.

Senator Waterhouse wanted to know why life insurance companies were exempt?

Senator McCandless said in the State of Massachusetts a tax of 4 per cent was levied on life insurance companies and in the State of Washington 2 per cent.
The life insurance people had simply bulldozed former legislatures into leaving them out. He moved to include life insurance companies in the bill and Senator Waterhouse seconded the motion.

Senator Brown explained that the policies were different. Fire and marine were payable and made here, but with life policies the contracts were distinctly agreed to be considered as made in the country where the head office of the company was.

Senator Baldwin said he was on the Ways and Means Committee when this matter came up in a former legislature. It was fully considered then and he did not

STRONG WORDS FOR CUBA

STRIKING SPEECH BY SENATOR
MILLS OF TEXAS.

In Support of His Resolutions in Favor of Armed Interference by the United States.

In the United States Senate on March 24 Senator Mills made a speech in support of his resolutions proposing the use of the army and navy in taking possession of Cuba and holding it until the people had established local self-government. Mr. Mills said the resolutions heretofore before the senate were steps in the right direction, but very short steps.

The people of Cuba had far greater claims on the United States than the mere recognition of belligerency. If Ireland struck for liberty today, the hearts of the American people would beat in sympathy and so with Poland or Hungary was associated the right of liberty. But the United States had much closer relations with Cuba than with Ireland or Poland or Hungary, for it was a part of the western hemisphere, over which the Monroe doctrine extended the influence of this country. Mr. Mills declared the Monroe doctrine was a law of protection and as such God was the author of it. It was the same right of self protection, which the individual exercises in abating a nuisance or destroying a powder house near his premises. Jefferson had used plain words in threatening to join England and sweep the French fleets from the seas if France persisted in holding the mouth of the Mississippi river. The same spirit had brought forth President Cleveland's message. Cuba stood as the key to the gulf and our unvarying policy, said Mr. Mills, had been to resist any transfer of Cuba to another monarchy. The United States had stood by as a jailer and prevented Cuba from going to France or England. And, if we insist on keeping Cuba in the possession of Spain, was it not the moral obligation of the United States to see that Spain gave Cuba fair government, and saw that the hell of Spanish despotism was lifted from the Cuban people?

The day will come, said Mr.
Mills, when the American conscience will be aroused to its guilt in permitting the oppression of Cubans and when that consciousness comes, the American people will fill this chamber with senators who will stop the oppression. The senator read accounts of atrocities attributed to Gen. Weyler, and added: "This is the work of the atrocious scoundrel. He could not be in Cuba today if the United States would draw her sword.
How the cheeks of our American women must be suffused, how our children must blush, to know that this government stands idly by, while Spain with the keys of her dungeons dangling at her side, permits such an atrocious villain to raise his hand against defenseless women."

The protection which Spain gave to Cuba was the protection which the hawk gives to the dove.
Cuba cries to us: "Deliver us from these monsters," but we stand meekly, serving only as Spain's jailer. In the senator's own state of Texas, they had, he said, drunk of the dregs of Spanish brutality. He related the circumstances of the annihilation of Santa Ana's forces on Texas soil and reviewed the bloodiness of the Virginia affair. To the shame of this government we had permitted the Virginia atrocity to stand almost without reparation. For fifty-three people butchered by Spain while rightfully claiming the protection of the United States, after a diplomatic correspondence of years Spain paid $77,000.

Mr. Stewart asked if Spanish bonds were not a potent factor in resisting intervention.

Mr. Mills replied that there was something beneath the surface; he did not know what the mysterious force was, but he felt that it existed. He did not know how far sugar stocks would be affected by action on the part of the United States. It was asserted that trade would suffer, but Mr.
Mills declared that a hundred billion dollars would be a small expenditure for the glory of releasing the prisoners on the Island of Pines. It was the duty of the United States to protect and relieve this people, or else to say to England or Russia: "Take that island and protect its people." Until we do this, a stock of bloody guilt is on our hands.

Referring to the objections coming from commercial sources, Mr. Mills quoted the words of Goldsmith: "Honor fails when commerce long prevails." The senator said he had just received a letter asserting that "another fool has turned jingo" and asking him why he had not left jingoism to Mr. Lodge and Mr. Chandler.
The letter was signed "A Disgusted Democrat." "Now, if I had the X rays," said Mr. Mills, "and used it in examining the pocket of the writer of that letter, I would find sugar stock there." The senator closed with a figurative picture of Cuba lying like a cripple at our gate with extended arms and shrunken cheek, crying:
"Help us; help us." There was a ripple of applause as Mr. Mills closed.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT.

An Assault and Battery Case—Guilty of Furious Driving.

In Judge de la Vergne's court this morning much time was taken up with the trial of P. Moldenhauer for assaulting and battering his Maria. That lady testified that she had trouble with the defendant in a hack on the 28th of March at 7 p.m. He pulled her hair from behind and "licked" her. The defendant then entered the hack and punched her on the nose and tried to jump on her.
She had lived with the defendant for some years.

Gustav Theissen said he was in the hack with the girl when the defendant assaulted her. Defendant had her by the hair, pulled her out of the hack, beat her with his fist six times and struck her with the whip five or six times. Then I interfered and we fought and I got him down. He then pulled out his pistol. We all got into the hack and came down here and got a warrant out. I did not swear out the warrant. Told the deputy marshal about the revolver but could not get a warrant. Sunday morning the marshal gave me an interview and told me to get the complainant to make a statement, then the warrant was issued.

Defendant denied striking the woman with the whip or pulling out a revolver. He was a police officer at the time.

Defendant was found guilty and fined $10 and costs $3.40.

Joe Dias was found guilty of furious driving and fined $5 and costs $3.40. Sentence suspended for one week.

Hooked on Arments

"Turkey and the Armenian Atrocities" is the title of a work recently issued, which deals with the recent outrageous cruelties practiced against the comparatively defenseless Armenian peasantry and inhabitants of many of the larger towns by the Turks.
The author, Rev. Edwin M. Bliss, relates the story in a graphic and intensely interesting manner and, having been for many years a resident of Armenia and Turkey, writes understandingly. The book should meet with a large sale in Honolulu, as the question dealt with is now before the governments of all civilized lands. The book is of value also on account of the accurate descriptions of Turkish life, customs and the geography of the country.

The Minstrels.

At the minstrel show on Saturday evening next, the boys will have some new songs and gags and a new afterpiece. Having had more practice they will give a much more finished performance, although that of last Saturday pleased everyone. The boys should be encouraged to show every few weeks. They have proved themselves perfectly capable of furnishing a first-class entertainment in the line of minstrelsy and only need more rehearsals to eliminate the element of crudeness, always apparent to a greater or less degree, in amateur work.

HASTY LEGISLATION.

There seems to be a feverish haste in putting through a bill once it is taken up, in the present as in former Legislatures, which is conducive to legislation of a kind to be regretted both for its faulty principle and for its crudeness. Members frequently show that they have given very little thought to a measure before they rise in their places to discuss it. There is also evident at times a lack of decision when a question comes to a vote shown by a hand going up hesitatingly on the affirmative side only to be lowered before the count, when the owner of the hand has nervously glanced along the rows of his colleagues to see how others are voting. One member will make half a dozen little speeches, besides carrying on a running conversation with others, instead of making one well-considered address reviewing the whole subject, or parts of it which he might have made a special study of. Often when the hour for recess arrives with a bill under consideration, in either house, the members rush the sections through so as to get the business out of the way before they go to feed. This is all wrong and makes what is so well-known and regretted as "hasty legislation." The best that can be done, when members are doubtful of certain points, is to let consideration of the particular measure go over to another sitting. In the meantime members will have had an opportunity of looking deeper into the questions at issue, as well as of consulting opinion on the outside. The two chambers ought to have fixed hours for recess, and let the presiding officers leave their chairs without a motion whenever the hours strike. This would prevent the rushing through of measures in hungry haste for the luncheon table.

MR. ROMIG'S SERMON.

Rev. Romig preached the last sermon of the series last night from the text in Mat. 25:46: "And these shall go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into life eternal." His subject as previously announced was "The Future Destiny of the Wicked." The preacher gave his audience the old-fashioned orthodox hell doctrine, i. e., as regards its reality, and if any came with the idea that the eternal punishment of the rebels against God's government was a fanciful myth gotten up to scare people, it is safe to say they had those ideas pretty thoroughly unsettled when the sermon was half over. The language of the text was used by the Savior after he had pictured the judgment and shows very clearly what the future destiny of the wicked will be. There are very few people but what agree with me in regard to heaven, they are ready to accept the idea that there is a place where there will be happiness eternally, but when I refer to the place for the wicked who rebel against God, a place where their punishment will be as lasting as the happiness of the righteous in heaven, then they don't like it, but if you accept the Bible you must accept this, that "these shall go away into everlasting punishment;" the same word in the Greek is used to measure the duration of the punishment of the wicked as is used to measure the duration of the happiness of the righteous.

From the day of man's transgression and fall God has held out the olive branch of peace and called to men, turn ye oh turn ye for why will ye die? And nothing but sin can separate us from God. The Bible was given us for guidance and direction in these matters and if you haven't interest enough in the matter of your salvation, if you are too lazy to inform yourself, you fix your own destiny. God does not do it. Ask the man who has had the tremens if there is a hell, I have talked with them and they say: Oh! Romig, you can't tell it! The man who dies with the tremens has hell begin in him before he dies and this argument is unanswerable. But one may say it is injustice for God to punish eternally for the sins committed in time. Listen, God has invested the wisdom of heaven in human salvation. He gave His only begotten Son to save the world, he could not do more, and your destiny will be of your own choice and election, and if you are lost you will say to yourself that it is just and right. The man who spurns the love of God and the offers of the gospel throughout a lifetime would do so eternally. If you are doing this, God help you when you go out into the dark of eternity.

Changes in the Force.

Officers Paul Moldenhauer and "Bismarck" Ellerbrooke of the mounted police have been dropped from the roll. The former was convicted of assault and battery on his wahine, the particulars of which appear in the police record today. No particular charge was made against Ellerbrooke, but it is said he made himself too officious and wanted to run the whole department. Otherwise he is said to be a very efficient officer.

Officer Allen Wright has also been dropped from the regular force, and no cause assigned.

It is said that Sergeant McKeague of the regulars, whose time is up today, will be given a place on the mounted patrol. Jim would be an ornament to the force, but he will have to trim off those whiskers first.

A phenomenal stove that burns common Coal Oil (kerosene) with a blue flame without odor.

The wonderful "NEW PROCESS" BLUE FLAME COOKING STOVE, which three years of careful testing has proven to be wholly practicable. Burns coal oil (kerosene) from a wick, which will last a year, producing an intensely hot blue flame, like coal gas—without odor—never smokes as the wick cannot be turned too high. Absolutely non-explosive. All parts durable and interchangeable. Requires no more care than the ordinary house lamp.

This is a stove that admits of drawing the fluid for light and heat from the same barrel or tin. It is the most economical stove in the world and you cannot afford to be without one.

The difficulty in the past with all coal-oil stoves has been that the means at hand were entirely inadequate for the results desired. The flame being in all cases a yellow or illuminating flame, made it impossible to place the article or utensil in direct contact with it. As a result the time occupied in cooking or baking was so long that it was distressingly irksome and unsatisfactory. Again with the old style illuminating flame oil stove there is always the liability of the flame creeping up after the burner is lighted, sooting everything over it and sending forth a volume of smoke and odor into the room. A decidedly disagreeable occurrence, but what everyone has experienced who has operated the old style stoves.

The wonderful "New Process" Blue Flame Oil Cook Stove, has a powerful blue flame absolutely odorless. Any utensil or flat iron may be placed directly in the flame without a particle of soot being deposited upon it. By the use of the simplest device it is impossible to turn the wick too high, thus insuring a perfect flame at all times when in operation. Possibly the most positive proof of the success of this stove is the result obtained in baking. The inside measurements of the oven on the "New Process" Blue Flame Oil Stove are 19 1/2 inches wide, 12 inches deep and 13 1/2 inches high. With this large oven it is possible to cook as perfectly and quickly as in any coal, gas, or gasoline range. The use of coal oil (kerosene) is so general that every household is provided with it; hence there is no annoyance in the matter of procuring fuel in any locality.

Results of Honesty.

"My watch is giving me the utmost satisfaction; I actually believe it does not vary a second during the week."

Pleasant remarks these. Just the kind of balm a watchmaker needs occasionally to keep up his spirits. For you know working all day on a high stool, a glass firmly screwed into one eye, looking at objects to distinguish them, is not the pleasantest occupation which could fall to the lot of man.

So it's no wonder a fellow gets all out of sorts occasionally, and then it's the time a few remarks like the above does what all the patent medicine in the world could not accomplish, cheers up, makes things look brighter, the next job goes all the smoother.

Speaking of the above watch: It was an old one. The wearer had used it steadily for forty years. It had run enough; had revolved its wheels so long and steadily, that at last it was tired out. The pivots were so worn, the wheels just wobbled and wobbled, then stopped altogether. What was to be done? Throw it away? Get a new one. Yes, but the wearer valued it for its associations, it was as dear to him as his best friend; so nothing would do but build it all over as it were, renew the parts, put some go into it. That we accomplished it to the entire satisfaction of the owner, his remarks above would surely leave no room for doubt. And we can do the same with yours, sometimes they go a little too far, and the cost for reconstruction is too much, but generally no work is too intricate for us. It is that which we brag about, complicated work is our stronghold. Isn't it reasonable now to suppose that we are better able to do your less intricate work? Wouldn't it be safer to give us the custody of your watch altogether, no matter what the trouble, and have a feeling of certainty as to its treatment?

COFFEE ESTATE AND LANDS For Sale.

I am directed to sell at Public Auction on Wednesday, May 27, '96, at 12 o'clock noon of said day at my sales rooms on Queen street, in Honolulu (unless sooner disposed of at private sale) the following described property, namely:

A tract of land of about 2,300 acres in fee simple situate at Kolo and Ololeomona 1 in South Kona, Island of Hawaii, about eight miles by a good road from Hoonaka, one of the largest villages in Kona. There is an excellent landing on the land itself from where the coffee and other produce could be shipped and a good site for a mill near the landing. Fifty acres of land are in coffee. Roughly estimated there is about seven hundred acres of splendid coffee land lying all on one block on both sides of the Government Road. Eight hundred acres lying above and to the East of the seven hundred acres above mentioned is also excellent land and although at a higher altitude is no doubt also well adapted for coffee culture. The lower land below the coffee belt is suitable for pineapples and sisal. There is a drying house, store and work rooms, a Gordon's Pulper, laborers' quarters and water tanks at the plantation, and the land is partly walled. There has never been any blight on this land, although coffee was planted a great many years ago. Old residents of Kona like the late D. H. Kahina, J. W. Kuaimoku and others have testified to this fact. There is a sea fishery appurtenant to Ololeomona 1.

Terms cash or part of the purchase price can remain on mortgage at eight per cent per annum. Deeds and stamps at the expense of purchaser.

A map of the property can be seen and further particulars obtained at my sales rooms.

What with riots among people of one nationality and legislative action on the evils ensuing from the immorality of the females of another race and the sinfulness of people who persist in shooting at targets within the three mile limit, moral Honolulu has been thrown into such a pretty kettle of fish that is a question if even an extra session of the Legislature can pull us out of it.

Who would have thought that this Paradise of the Pacific could have been so suddenly turned into a modern Sodom and Gomorrah? If this keeps up the people will fall short of the time necessary to look at the bargains we offer in Table Glassware.

We carry six distinct stock patterns of engraved and cut glasses or dozens may be had at any time. The sets range from the petite liquor glass to a finger bowl, and the price varies from fifty cents a dozen up to that which most pleases the economical woman.

Bedroom Suits Galore

Sideboards.

A dining room is never complete unless there is a Sideboard to match the rest of your dining room Furniture. This piece of furniture used to be a luxury on account of the high prices, but of late years the price for a good Oak Sideboard carved in pretty designs, is in the reach of the ordinary man. Come early and avoid the rush.

In Oak, Birch, Curly Maple and other woods that are up to the Standard in every particular. Imported direct from the Factory by Furniture Dealers who are always up-to-date and thoroughly NEXT to themselves on everything pertaining to house furnishing. You don't make any mistake when you buy Bedroom Sets from us, and whisper, the price will be within your reach.

China Closets.

Fine dinner sets and the collecting of odd pieces of pretty China is a fad that most people in Honolulu are guilty of. Perhaps you have such a collection stowed away in your pantry. If so don't you want to display them to your friends? This you can do properly in one way only, to wit: by investing a few dollars in a China Closet. We present to your notice an Oak Frame with an Oval Glass that is the proper thing, and whisper again, the price will suit you as well as us.

Chiffonier.

Nothing sets a lady's room off as well as a Chiffonier. The one we present above has a fine French plate Bevel Mirror and several drawers. This piece of furniture is highly polished and makes a very desirable piece of furniture indeed. We have them in different woods. Birch and Oak, however, are the most popular. Now, don't forget that, besides the articles enumerated above our stock is complete in other branches of House Furnishing. For instance, we have a stock of Portier Curtains to select from that are up to the limit. Table and Stand Covers that will harmonize with your wall paper and carpets, Patent Curtain Poles and Shades that are warranted to work properly.

Secretary Book Cases.

Now, we are going to tell you about a handsome piece of furniture. Not only is this Secretary Book Case pretty, but it is useful as well. On one side you have adjustable shelves that can be made to fit any size book. At the top of the other side is a fine French Plate Bevel Mirror, below this is a complete Writing Desk fitted out with holes, drawers and other accessories necessary to a well-ordered desk and completed with a folding shelf that can be let down when writing and closed and locked afterward. Below the desk are three drawers that come in very handy for holding writing material and odds and ends that accumulate about a piece of furniture of this description.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH.

Proceedings at the Regular Meeting Yesterday Afternoon.

At the meeting of the Board of Health yesterday, Senators Baldwin and Horner and Representatives Bond, Rycroft, Richardson and Robertson were present in addition to the officials of the Board.

The usual reports under the Act to Mitigate, from the veterinary surgeon and fish inspector were received and filed.

Superintendent R. W. Meyer of the Leper Settlement made a verbal report of the affairs there and made several recommendations.

A petition to have C. A. Brown appointed a member of the Board of Health, vice J. T. Waterhouse, deceased, was read and referred for consideration in executive session.

Resignation of George Smithies as inspector under the Board was read and accepted and C. N. Rose appointed to the vacancy.

A petition was received from the Medical Society asking that the bacteriological station be placed in a position more accessible to the medical profession than the present one, and referred to a committee.

The Board then went into executive session, during which the Act to Mitigate was discussed at length, the conclusions reached being that the provisions of the Act should be made more strict and examination more frequent.

THE Y. M. C. A. ORCHESTRA.

The First Concert Takes Place This Evening at 8 o'clock.

The long-expected concert of the Y. M. C. A. orchestra comes off this evening, and the good effects of recent numerous rehearsals will surely be apparent in the performance of the numbers selected.

In addition to various orchestral numbers, Mrs. Charles Turner will sing a soprano solo, Professor Ingalls will render a selection and the string quartette will play one selection. Music lovers have a treat in store for them this evening.

Following is the full program:

- (a) Grand March.....
- (b) Musical Dream.....Isenmatt Orchestra.
- String Quartette in G major.....Gomer
- First violin, H A Isenberg; second violin, W A Love; viola, W M Keogh; cello, Wray Taylor.
- Jewel Song, from Faust.....Gounod
- Miss Annis Montague [Mrs Chas Turner.]
- Overture—Bridal Rose.....Lavalle Orchestra.
- Song—Lovely Spring.....Prof. A B Ingalls.
- Violin Solo—Sonata in D.....Haydn W A Love.
- Selection—Fanchon.....Blyer Orchestra.
- Song—I Was Dreaming.....Juncker Miss Annis Montague.
- Clarinet Solo.....Mattel W M Keogh.
- Dramatic Overture.....Tobanie
- Y M C A O March.....Wray Taylor Orchestra.

THE NATIONAL ENSIGN.

A Correspondent Claims the Constitution Fixes Its Size.

EDITOR BULLETIN: Concerning the National Ensign! What is Congress meddling with it for? We have one and when other countries ask for our national flag, we have one provided by the very highest authority, the "Constitution," and it has been seen and recognized and honored in many foreign ports. When the new pattern was displayed to Congress on the 28th ult., no wonder one minister exclaimed, "it will look like thunder." Senator Lyman was in the other House, or he could have reminded them that it tasted and felt like thunder—"was thunder"—and unconstitutional. However, it is well the weary law-makers have some recreation from the weighty questions of appropriations, registration and the design for the great seal.

A LOVELY LAND.

A Stalwart Race Inhabits the Vast Forests that Cover Portions of Guiana.

Wm. E. Curtis, in writing in the Chicago Record concerning Guiana, says that aside from the mining camps, the scattered inhabitants of the interior are Indians, chiefly Caribs and a few half-breeds of Carib and negro blood, called Cobungrus. They retain the many good qualities of the aborigines, adding to them the physique and strength of the West India negro. They are industrious, intelligent, docile and always hospitable to strangers. They love the open air and hate to work in the mines. Their houses consist of four posts supporting a roof of palm leaves and rushes.

The men are usually naked except for a loin cloth of dark blue cotton, and ornaments of alligators' teeth, monkeys' teeth, snake rattles and other trophies of the chase. The women wear a single cotton gown, cut low at the top and high at the bottom, quantities of beads around their necks and arms, earrings and other ornaments. They are large framed, stalwart creatures, capable of any degree of endurance, and they spend most of their lives in the open air. They swim like fishes, shoot with guns and bows with equal facility, handle boats as well as the men, and the visitor might easily imagine regiments of Amazons such as the early voyagers described. In their wars, which have been infrequent since the sixteenth century, the women have fought side by side with the men, but they have never provoked hostilities. They are as civil and as peaceable as any people in the world. They sleep in hammocks made of grass fibers, handsomely ornamented with feathers and skins of birds and snakes.

The foliage in the forests is marvelous. The colors are intense and the flowering plants are almost infinite in number and variety. The contrast between the bright scarlet of some of the blossoms, the vivid green of the leaves and the huge, dark brown pods of the wild chocolate tree is very striking. The air is always full of the cries of animals, insects and birds. There is no place on earth where vegetable and animal life thrive so luxuriously. The Indians partake so much of the nature of the animal kingdom that they understand by instinct the nature and habits of insects, reptiles, birds and beasts, and they tame and train them without the slightest difficulty. They consider tame animals as legal tender in trade, with which they purchase what they want from their neighbors. They have no use for money. They spin the wild cotton and work up various fiber plants with great skill. They weave exquisite hammocks and handsome robes for ceremonial occasions. They make good pottery and decorate it with the same designs that are found among the Incas of Peru.

Germany's Customs Duties.

The German Reichstag on March 20 took up the discussion of the customs estimates. Count Von Kanitz, the Agrarian leader, attacked the Commercial treaties and declared that the receipts from corn duties had decreased 42,000,000 marks, while the reduction in the duties on luxuries had entailed a loss to the revenues of 60,000,000 to 70,000,000 marks. Home industries, he added, had not profited proportionately. Herr Aschenborn said that the customs receipts for the current year had reached their highest point, and the revenue from the corn duties had been virtually unchanged.

IN THE HIGHER COURTS.

MR. HUTCHINSON THE SCULPTOR CARRIES HIS APPEAL.

Mrs. Defries Barred by Statute of Special Limitations—A Guardian's Accounts.

The Supreme Court has rendered a decision in the assumpsit suit of W. King vs. A. Hutchinson on the following contract:

"Studio, Nuuanu Avenue, Honolulu, March 21, '91.

"I agree to pay Mr. William King two hundred dollars on receiving the commission to execute a statue for Kalakaua Monument Committee or as soon as moneys for said statue are paid into my hands.

"ALLEN HUTCHINSON."

Judge Whiting writes the decision of the Court, which is concurred in by Chief Justice Judd and Justice Frear. In the District Court of Honolulu judgment was rendered in favor of the plaintiff, King, and defendant appealed on the following points of law:

"1. The agreement is illegal being made by one whose duty it was to obtain the best contract without favoring any person, the appellee, W. King, being a member of the Kalakaua Monument Association.

"The agreement has not been performed (a) by obtaining (if that had been done) a contract for a statue, and (b) because such contract for a statue was not obtained."

The law of the case is stated as follows:

"H., a sculptor, agreed to pay K. if K. obtained a commission from an association for a 'statue.' No commission for a 'statue' was obtained, but after three years a commission for a 'bust' was obtained from the association. Held, that H. is not liable to K. on the agreement to obtain a commission for a 'statue.' 'Statue' construed not to mean or include a 'bust.'"

Accordingly the court decides as follows: "It is unnecessary to consider the first point raised. The appeal is sustained, judgment reversed and the case remanded to the District Magistrate to enter judgment for defendant." P. Neumann for plaintiff; J. M. Monsarrat for defendant.

Judge Whiting is author of a unanimous decision of the Supreme Court in the case of Emma Defries vs. Bruce Cartwright and H. E. McIntyre, executors of the will of G. Trousseau. The plaintiff brought an action against the defendants upon a promissory note of the late Dr. Trousseau, and produced evidence that showed that the claim was presented on February 25, 1895, and on February 26, 1895, was rejected by the defendants, and on April 27, 1895, the plaintiff began her action and summons issued. The Circuit Court decided that suit was not brought within the two months required by the law relating to claims in probate. This decision is affirmed by the Supreme Court, which holds that the statute of non-claim or special limitations need not be specially pleaded like the statute of limitations in personal actions. P. Neumann for plaintiff; C. Brown for defendants.

W. R. Castle, attorney for plaintiff, has filed a discontinuance of the bill for injunction of Jas. B. Castle vs. W. R. Farrington and others, officers of the Hawaiian Gazette Company.

John Pae, guardian of Kealo-haokalani, a minor, has accounted for receipts of $218.95 and payments of $42.05, leaving a balance of $176.90.

believe that any fresh move was desirable.

Minister Damon said that under existing friction with the United States it was undesirable to tinker with any tariff, tax or license which would affect citizens or corporations of the United States.

Senator Schmidt said there was trouble between the United States and Germany right now over the same proposition.

The section was passed as read, the amendment receiving but two votes.

Section 20 providing for returns from insurance agents passed.

Sections 21, 22, 23, 24, 25 and 26 were passed as read.

Section 27, relating to taxes on mortgaged property, was referred to the Finance committee.

Sections 28 and 29, providing for 10 per cent additional for delinquent taxes, passed.

Section 30 passed. It exempts diplomatic agents and their attaches, clergymen and volunteer soldiers in active service.

Section 31 exempts infirm and indigent persons in the discretion of the assessor.

TO SUPPRESS INDECENT EVIDENCE.

Bill Before the British Parliament for the Purpose.

Much interest is manifested in legal and other circles, says a late London dispatch, at the bill introduced at the instance of the Lord Chancellor, Lord Halsbury, for the suppression of indecent evidence. This measure was read for the second time in the House of Lords yesterday, and by its provisions, a Judge is empowered to order evidence, which he thinks would be prejudicial to the public morals, not to be published. The Lord Chief Justice, Baron Russell of Killowen, is known to be opposed to the bill, and it is quoted that the Master of the Rolls, Baron Esper, President of the Divorce Court, is of the same opinion, namely, that the law is already strong enough, and if the proposed measure becomes law, it will practically establish a censorship of the press. Lord Glenshek, proprietor of the Morning Post, contended that the tendency of the press was quite against the publication of such details, and asserted that he had read more offensive things in novels than had ever been found in newspapers. Although the bill has been read for the second time in the House of Lords, it is doubtful if it will be adopted by the House of Commons.

To Study the Labor Question.

Robert P. Porter, ex-Supervising Inspector of the United States Census and formerly a member of the Tariff Commission, is now on his way to Japan to study the labor question and the effect of competition of Japanese goods on the American market.

Mr. Porter was the founder of the New York Press, which he conducted till about a year ago, when he sold it and bought the Cleveland World. This he yet owns. Mr. Porter has traveled extensively in Europe hitherto in the investigation of economical questions. In 1882 he went abroad for the New York Tribune, and prior to that he had made investigations of his own.

In Agony

15 Years With Salt Rheum

Hood's Sarsaparilla Gave a Perfect Cure.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass. Hood's Sarsaparilla is an excellent medicine. I had eczema in my left leg for fifteen years. Part of the time my leg was one mass of scabs, and about every week corruption would gather under the skin and the scabs would slough off.

The Itching and Burning sensation made me suffer indescribable agonies. I spent a great deal of money for different remedies but did not get relief. About a year ago, leading physicians advised me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. I did so and have taken five bottles.

Knell of Royalty.

The great bell of St. Paul's was not tolled for Prince Henry of Battenberg, because he was not in the line of descent from any English sovereign, says the Westminster Gazette. This honor is paid only to a member of the royal family who could under any conceivable circumstances succeed to the throne; though it may be doubted whether the bell would toll for a royal infant not in the direct line of succession. This rule does not apply to the consort of the sovereign, or the heir apparent, or of a Prince or Princess on the steps of the throne. The booming of the great bell of St. Paul's was the first intimation which the citizens of London received of the death of the Prince Consort, which occurred at 11 o'clock on the night of Saturday, December 14, 1861.

Outside the royal family the only persons for whom the bell tolls are the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Bishop of London, the Dean of St. Paul's and the Lord Mayor of London dying in his year of office. The bell tolled is not "Great Paul," but the old great bell on which the hours are struck. On the occurrence of a death in the royal family the Home Secretary at once communicates with the Lord Mayor desiring him to convey news to the Dean of St. Paul's, with a request that the great bell may be tolled. The bell is then tolled at intervals of a minute for an hour. The last occasion was on the death of the Duke of Clarence, on January 14, 1892. The Duke died at 9:15 a.m., and the bell was tolled from 11 till 12. At the funeral of Canon Liddon, in September, 1890, "Great Paul," which is much the deeper and more sonorous bell of the two, was made available, as by the rules the old great bell could not be used.

Why Have You

Been stricken with disease while your neighbor escaped, or vice-versa? Both were alike exposed, but in one case the disease germs found lodgment in the impure blood and weakened system, while in the other the blood was kept pure by Hood's Sarsaparilla, and the body was in a condition of good health.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable and do not purge, pain or grip. Sold by all druggists.

The Singer received 54 first awards for Sewing Machines and embroidery work at the Worlds' Fair, Chicago, Ill., being the largest number of awards obtained by any exhibitor, and more than double the number given to all other Sewing Machines. B. BERGERSON, Agent. Bethel street, Honolulu.

OUR SHIPPING NEWS

THE STEAMER MIKAHALA FROM THE GARDEN ISLE.

Vessels Loading and Discharging—Island Steamers In and Out—Other Marine Matters.

A dull day on the waterfront. There are 17 foreign vessels in port. The S S Gaelic from the Orient is due tomorrow. The W G Hall sails for Maui and Hawaii at 10 tomorrow. The steamer Kinau is due from Hawaii and Maui tomorrow afternoon. On April 3, the Hawaiian ship Roderick Dhu arrived at Hilo from San Francisco. The ship C F Sargent hauled in from the stream to Fort street wharf this morning. Tomorrow, Friday—High tide large 2:44 am; high tide small, 2:44 pm; low tide large, 8:00 am; low tide small, 8:38 pm. The bark Albatross hauled alongside the Mikahala this morning to receive sugar. She will likely get away sometime next week. The schooner Mol Wahine arrived this morning with sugar for T H Davies & Co, which was put into the bark R P Rittner at Kinau wharf. Buenos Ayres, March 21.—It is reported here that Chili has just bought one of the ironclads built by the Armstrongs of Newcastle for the Japanese government. This ironclad has a displacement of 2,000 tons. The price paid is said to have been $5,000,000. The tonnage of Canadian sailing vessels and steamers 20 years ago was a million tons. It is not so much today, the tonnage at the close of 1894 being placed by the Government Blue Book at 869,234 tons, represented by 7,245 vessels. Of this total number, which is by no means small, 1,640 are steam craft, with a tonnage of 240,906 tons. The reason for this decline, according to the Toronto Monetary Times, is largely supplied by the fact that the wooden ships, which were so freely built in the Maritime Provinces and carried Canadian products to every foreign country, are being superseded by those of iron and steel construction, built on the Clyde and on the Tyne.
