CIRCUIT COURT MAY CLOSE UP

JUDGES CONSULT BUT FIND NO WAY TO KEEP UP THE TERM.

CHIEF JUSTICE FREAK ASKED FOR ADVICE.

Judge Hardy of Kauai Writes to the Governor For Money For September Term.

After calling the jury this morning in the Circuit Court, Judge Gear took a recess, to hold a consultation with the other judges on ways and means of running the court without funds.

Judges Gear and Robinson held a consultation, after Gear had declared a recess. Then both went to Chief Justice Freak and spent a good deal of time talking with him.

When Gear took the bench again, he announced an adjournment till tomorrow at 10 o'clock. A jury had been selected and sworn in to try the case of Alea, charged with assault and battery.

Deputy Attorney General John V. Cathcart wanted to know what would become of the grand jury. He was told that the court would say tomorrow what should be done.

This afternoon the judges held another conference, and an appeal was made to Governor Dole. The matter of the court's predicament was called to his attention, and his advice was asked.

CHINESE WOMEN TO BE RETURNED TO ORIENT

United States Commissioner Gill this morning decided the cases of the Chinese women Ah Sue and Ah Gnan, holding that there had been an attempt to impose upon the immigration laws when they were brought here, and ordering both returned to China at once.

Section 2 of the Act of Congress of November 3, 1903, provides that Chinese merchants seeking to re-enter the United States must establish the fact that he is a merchant by at least two credible white witnesses, and it would seem to the court that a wife of such a merchant should be required to prove that she is a merchant's wife.

The courts have repeatedly held that although the testimony of a Chinese seeking admission to the United States is corroborated by other Chinese witnesses, and uncontradicted, that their testimony may be discredited if the court is not satisfied that the witnesses told the truth.

Torch May Have Been Applied

Some Seventy thousand dollars worth of property in that part of Chinatown on Hotel street, between the intersection of the block and the intersection of the block, was destroyed early this morning by fire.

The property burned is located as follows: On the block bordered by River and Maunakea streets on the west end and by Pauahi and North Hotel on the east end, a Chinese planing mill, carrying out the former if it should be attempted.

The flames also leapt across Hotel street and attacked a small triangular plot bordered by Hotel, King and Kekaulike streets.

The fire was stopped by the most strenuous efforts. How hard the department worked is evidenced by the buildings that were saved with their outer planking scorched to a crisp.

M'CALLY TRACT ORDERED SOLD

NEW COMPANY MAY SUCCEED WAIKIKI LAND AND LOAN ASSOCIATION.

COMMISSIONER NAMED TO SELL THE TRACT.

Judge Robinson Says An Agreement Not To Bid On Public Contracts Is Void.

A decree by Judge Humphreys was filed this morning ordering the sale of the McCully tract under foreclosure proceedings by the Queen's Hospital, and appointing Miss Kathryn Widdifield commissioner to make the sale.

The decree orders that from the proceeds of the sale the sum of $17,371.71 be paid to the Queen's Hospital, and a fee of $100 to the commissioner. The balance, if any there is, is to go to the Waiikiki Land and Loan Association.

In the case of John Crawford et al vs. Henry Bryant et al Judge Robinson this morning rendered a decision awarding $17,373 damages to the plaintiff, for a breach of contract.

William S. Fleming's report as commissioner in the case of Kahalaenuhu vs. Pereira et al was approved, and a judgment for the plaintiff was entered in accordance with the report.

CHANGED HIS MIND.

"Jim" Bilson was drunk yesterday. He was hilarious over the glorious condition of the country, and the prosperity of its people. He shook hands with everybody and remarked what a pleasure it was to live in a country like this. This morning he came down with his face streaked up as if he were smelling something very disagreeable, and had a bad taste in his mouth, and was looking at a sight that made him ill. A friend stopped him and said: "I was much interested in your glowing talk about our great country yesterday." "Ain't nothing in it," said Bilson. "Country's gone to hell."

CHINESE "HIRED MEN"

DO NOT ASSIMILATE WITH FARM LABOR.

Always Want to Work in Gangs And Do Not Like Domestic Animals.

A correspondent of the Rural New Yorker who says he was born and raised on a Connecticut farm, writes from Island county, Wash., on the Chinese as "hired men": I have had no experience with Chinese as farm hands, nor do I think you can find many farmers on Puget sound who have. In nearly 40 years residence on this coast I do not think I have known where they have been employed in the capacity of "hired man." I have been conversant with their ways and manner of working this time, both here and in California, and have observed that most of their farming consists in market gardening near cities or large towns, where all their work is practically done by hand labor. I have seen hundreds of them at work but do not remember ever seeing a single one by himself—always in gangs. Even where they rent land of farmers to put in potatoes, as has been done quite extensively on this island, the land is rented by a boss Chinaman, and he hires a gang to do the hand labor, while the terms of contract are always such that the owner or occupant of the land does all the heavy work by white hired help if he is not able to do it personally, such as plowing and harrowing the land, sometimes using cultivator an agreed number of times on the crop, and hauling the crop to market, at a specified sum per diem. This system used by farmers to fill up gaps at harvest or thrashing time when help is often quite scarce, and even Indians are made to do duty. They do not seem to take a liking to domestic animals of any kind; are never used as milkers or teamsters, or go out to work by the day at any kind of farm labor. In this part of the country farmers want their own men, for they are of the family, eating at the same table having access to papers and books, going to church on Sunday, and behaving generally like "white folks." With Chinamen you can't do this, for they prepare their own foods, cooked and eaten in their own way by themselves. I have never yet seen one of them eating at a white man's table. Of course as house servants they eat in the house coming to the second table, or oftener in the kitchen, eating food cooked for their own special use. I don't think I am prejudiced against them, for they are all right in their own way and place, being economical, fairly truthful, and usually quite industrious, but I very much doubt (and I was born and raised in a Connecticut farm and so know something of farm wants) whether the Chinaman will ever be utilized to any extent as a "hired man," either here or at the East.

Horrible symptoms. Sympathized With The Sad, Sad Case.

A little man recently walked into a dry goods store and said: "I do not know how to use the telephone. Will you please call up this number? Thank you."

"Here is the number. What shall I say to the doctor?"

"Tell him that his paralyzed patient is walking around this morning."

"Yes."

"That I think there is hope for his recovery. I cut the hair and put fourteen dry blisters on him last night. I found that his appetite is fine, but he won't touch that raw meat. One of his ears fell off during the night, and I think he is blind in one eye. I find that there is no use in giving him medicine. It makes him howl. His tongue looks as if it had been put through a ringing machine. What does he want me to do?"

"He says to let the patient alone until he gets downtown. By the way, Mr. Blank, I don't know your patient, but it must be a sad case."

"Yes," said the little man as if looking for sympathy. "I think that he was at one time the finest colic that ever cracked a bone."

IRISH PLAYWRIGHTS.

Mr. Whitebread, manager of the Queen's theater in Dublin, has offered a prize of £100 for the best Irish drama written by an Irishman.

A YOUNG LADY'S LIFE SAVED.

At Panama, Colombia, by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Dr. Charles H. Utter, a prominent physician of Panama, Colombia, in a recent letter states: "Last March I had as a patient a young lady sixteen years of age, who had a very bad attack of dysentery. Everything I prescribed for her proved ineffectual and she was growing worse every hour. Her parents were sure she would die. She had become so weak that she could not turn over in bed. What to do at this critical moment was a study for me, but I thought of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and as a last resort prescribed it. The most wonderful result was effected. Within eight hours she was feeling much better; inside of three days she was upon her feet and at the end of one week was entirely well." For sale by all druggists, Benson, Smith & Co., general agents.

Overworked Nerves
and wasting vitality make their presence known through headaches, dizziness, inability to sleep, loss of appetite and a general run-down condition of the system. These signs are sometimes accompanied by neuritis, hysteria, rheumatism or nervous prostration in some other form. To remove these troubles, cure the nerves. They need feeding, strengthening and building up, and nothing will do this so quickly and so surely as Dr. Miles' Nerve. This truly remarkable medicine is gaining hundreds of new friends every day. Here is a surgeon from Decatur, Ind., Mr. G. E. McKean, who writes: "A chronic stomach trouble, which my physician was unable to overcome, so wore on my nervous system that I broke down with nervous prostration. I could not sleep day or night except in fitful naps; could scarcely eat any kind of food and wasted away to a mere shadow. After spending over $500.00 in a vain search for relief, I was prevailed upon to try Dr. Miles' Nerve. Relief came immediately. I took six bottles and today am a well man."
Dr. Miles' Nerve is sold at all druggists on a positive guarantee. Write for free advice and booklet to Dr. Miles Medical Co., Litchfield, Ind.

THE CAMPANILE ON BELL TOWER

The campanile, or bell tower, of St. Mark's at Venice, which collapsed recently, was one of the finest specimens of that form of Italian architecture, as it was also one of the oldest. Its erection was begun about the beginning of the tenth, and completed up to the belfry about the middle of the twelfth century. The belfry was added by Bartolomeo Bruno in 1317. The materials used in its construction were brick and marble.
The campanile is a feature peculiar to Christian architecture, Christians alone using the bell to summon the people to worship. For its introduction and development we have to thank the Lombard architects of the north of Italy.
The tallest campanile is the one at Cremona, which is 396 feet high. The finest one is that designed by Giotto in 1334 for the cathedral at Florence. It is entirely veneered with black, red and white marble, and is divided into five stages. Other good examples of church campanile are found at Verona, Modena, Cremona, Parma and Pisa. The one at the last named place is probably the most widely known of any, being the far-famed "leaning tower of Pisa." This was begun in 1174, and its inclined portion, although not anticipated, was seen to be inevitable after it had been built up but thirty-five feet, one side having settled. As the work progressed, however, the levels were altered, so that the center of gravity was kept within the base. There are several other campanile that incline to one side from the same cause, two of the most noticeable ones being the Garisendi and Asinelli towers at Bologna.
The campanile in design is very tall and thin in proportion to its height. It never has buttresses, is usually square in plan and in most cases rises from base to summit without break. The faces are divided vertically by flat pilasters and horizontally by string courses, arcades or windows. The openings generally increase in number with the height of the stage. Many of the finest examples have openings at the top only.—Syracuse Herald.

A BRICK WALL.
It is recorded that when Woodrow Wilson, the new president of Princeton, was a new professor he was interrupted during one of his lectures by a student who kept tapping on the floor with a fire brick. When he ordered the culprit to bring the contraband article to his desk, 50 students arose, each armed with a fire brick and built a wall in front of him that shut him out of sight of the class.
DIDN'T FOLLOW CUSTOM.
A man from Avalon, Mo., went to bed in a hotel at Chillicothe the other night with $95 in cash and $600 in notes under his pillow. He forgot them when he left the room the next morning, and when he rushed back a few minutes later, they were gone. The Kansas City Journal says that if he had followed the popular Missouri custom, and left his roll in his sock, and left the sock on, this would not have happened.

KAMEHAMEHAS WIN

COLLEGIANS GO TO PIECES IN THE EIGHTH.
League Loses Its Empire—Punahou Had Game Picketed in First, But Grew Careless.

The Kamehamehas won from the Punahou on Saturday although the latter had no business to lose the game. Marcellino at short stop was responsible for the failure although Johnny Soper was unable to connect at several important moments.
The Wela Ka Haos, versus a collection of W. H. A. C. ranks occupied the diamond before the regular game and spoiled the freshly lined out field. They played five innings and a half at the end of which the score stood 5-2 in favor of the Wela Ka Haos. Cunha umpired.
Some delay was occasioned over the lack of an umpire for the league match. Lieutenant Newton, though present at the game, was not available as he had sent a written resignation to the league early in the week. He will not umpire again until the league is minus the best umpire that has ever officiated at local games through the discourtesy of one of the league officials and the biased accounts of the transaction which appeared in certain press columns. Cunha applied the game giving good satisfaction. Next Saturday, when the H. A. C.'s play, the league will have to provide some one else.
The Punahou started out to win in the first, scoring three. A Marcellino seemed to have his batting eye with him though he muffed at fielding except one gallery catch. He came home on a failure of Yannatta at second base to annex the ball. For the next few innings good sound ball was played with but few errors. In the second of the third inning Cunha fumbled and left an opening for a home run later. In the second of the sixth, Kekuewa batted one into right field at just the right time and Lemon came home. Reuter came later and left the score 4-3 in the college favor.
In the eighth the collegians went to pieces. Kekuewa sent another to the right field. Marcellino needed two extra hands to pick up a ball from Koki. J. Marcellino dropped a ball from Yannatta's bat and the score rose to seven for Kamehamehas. The collegians failed to score in the ninth.
The score by innings reads as follows:
P. A. C. 3 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 —4
Kams 0 0 1 0 0 2 0 4 —7
The Kamehamehas now stand third in the league thermometer and the Punahou have dropped into the lull.

MAUI BOYS PLAY BALL

MAUI CORRESPONDENT THINKS THEY'RE ALRIGHT.
Six Runs Presented to Honolulu Team. Outside of Two Glaring Errors, Game Was Even Enough.
PAIA, Maui, August 16.—August 22th Maui's gala day has just gone. The Honolulu race horse also came and the Maui horses have gone under. Likewise also the crack baseball team from Honolulu came and the Maui team went. However, of the two, the most interesting, and in spite of the score was a game that the Maui boys need not be ashamed of. It is 4 to 4 it was but it should have been no more than 5 to 4, for six runs were presented to the Honolulu team by two of the most glaring errors that at any other time would not have occurred. In the second inning two men were out and no runs, when the next batter up hit a short fly ball, that went direct to the short stop, but just as he was about to gain it in the second baseman ran straight in to him, in an effort to corner the ball, and of course neither of them got it. After this with two out, the Maui boys seemed to go to pieces for a time, and the Honolulu's got in but of form and was a very good game with Honolulu at the bat, two men were out and two on bases. The runner on third base played away off down the line, to try to draw the ball to third. Maui's first baseman, who had just put the second man out, hit the ball and threw the ball in great haste down to third, the ball struck low, and the third baseman missed it, and two runs was the result. The next throw of the ball the batter flew out. But for that wild throw to third two runs would have been saved to the Maui boys. In justice to the Maui team this statement of the game should be made, for outside of these two bad plays, the game was even enough. As far as fielding work went, with the one exception of the Maui's third baseman, who has not played for some time, the Maui boys put up as good a game as the Honolulu's, and with a little more experience in the fine tactics of the game will give the Honolulu team all that they want. Jackson was out of form and was a very good game after he had changed places with Jackson. Searle was a little wild, but has speed and curves, and will be heard from yet. The Maui boys were able to hit Jay quite freely, some of the hits being good long ones, and a two bagger made by George Cummins in the ninth inning, and a two bagger by Garcia in the same inning. The Honolulu contingent say of course that Jay was not doing his best, he was putting in straight balls most of the time. This is the old story, but of course it may be all right; however the boys hit him very freely and made the game a most interesting one, and but for the two fukes made the game would have been a most exciting one. As it was it was good ball. George Cummins was the particular star of the Maui team, and can put up as good ball as can be asked for.
The races during the early part of the day were not much to far as racing goes. There was nothing on the track that could stay any where near to Molly Connors, Amario or Sambo, and it was amusing to see the jockeys hold these horses in so as to give the events a semblance of a race and not a procession. It was a beautiful day however, and the crowd was in good humor, so that every body had a good time. A good sized crowd was present, and the receipts were as large as could be expected, so taken altogether the day was a most successful one. The balloon ascension failed to accent for some reason or other, although about $100 was collected for the event. It is the intention of the balloonist to do his ascending act later so as to give the people their moneys worth.

Scotland outplayed the World Saturday at golf. The score was as follows, Scotland winning by six holes.
Scotland: D. W. Anderson, 6; M. R. Jamieson, 9; R. Anderson, 7; J. Cockburn, 6; D. McIntyre 6. Total 25.
World: R. Cook, 9; H. B. Sinclair, 9; Harold Giffard, 7; C. A. Brown, 6; C. P. Dole, 7; W. M. Giffard, 6. Total 44.

HE WAS A WONDER.
Until He Encountered a Totally Inexperienced Rival.
"As to how it was done," said the man with the broken nose, "it comes about as a natural result. On the day that I had taken my fiftieth boxing lesson and the professor had observed that we were not twenty men in the United States who could stand before me I cocked my hat on my ear and took a stroll around town to find a fellow who'd dare knock the chip off my shoulder. By and by a young farmer bumped into me and refused to apologize. It was by golden opportunity. I squared off and shot out my left—" "And put him to sleep, of course," remarked one of the listeners.
"Not a bit of it. He ducked and grabbed me by the body and threw me over his head and when I came down he piled on to me and licked me into the hospital. I was battered almost to a pulp."
"But I thought you said you were a graduate in the manly art?"
"So I did, and so I was, but the professor had forgotten to caution me never to tackle a man who didn't know anything about the game and so I naturally got walloped!"

WIRELESS VS. CABLE.

The success of wireless telegraphy cannot be considered as assured. It has by no means fulfilled its promise...

That wireless telegraphy is not regarded as a success, though it has a measure of success, is proved by the fact that it does not make its way with the rapidity which it should.

Marconi, within the last year made a series of experiments which went to show that the system might be applied to great distances, as from the coast of North America to that of Europe...

ASPIRANTS.

Everyone seems busy choosing delegates. That there are many able men in the Territory who are fitted for the position of delegate cannot be denied.

Of the names which have cropped up, and there is quite a list, there are ample personal supporters, but what is wanted is not a man with a personal following, but one who commands united support from Haena to Ka Lae.

COURTS NOT TERRITORY BANKRUPT

It is utterly incorrect to describe the financial condition of the present courts as due to a shortage of Territorial funds. There might be millions in the treasury and not a dollar could be paid for court expenses...

Under the salary appropriation not more than one twenty-fourth of the whole sum appropriated can be drawn. Thus if the salary voted for an office be $9,000 for the biennial period, the incumbent of the office can only draw $400 for each month...

But in the case for general expenses it is different. If say $1000 has been voted for a particular purpose, the $1000 could be drawn during the first few months, and then no further payment could be made.

The sale of a large portion of the land and leased brought a good price on Saturday. A couple of years ago a much higher price might have been realized according to some of the experts on values, but others think ble as a dream. It has always been a matter of discussion why Marconi did not devote his attention to the perfecting of his short distance system, before attempting his long distance work.

Lord Kelvin, one of the leading scientific thinkers of the day, is recently reported to have said to the secretary of the Anglo-American Telegraph Company: "I have given careful consideration to this subject and I do not believe the shareholders of your company need be alarmed at the prospect of wireless telegraphy."

Of course in the case of the secretary of the Anglo-American Company the wish is father to the thought, but in the case of Lord Kelvin the opinion is entirely unbiased. We may be thankful for what we have in wireless communication between the islands, but we can also be satisfied that if the system is not improved, we have not a perfect system by any means, and are not ahead of the old cable system.

total of the other islands was 5769. There were 457 more votes cast in Oahu than there were on all the other islands put together, yet the latter beat Oahu on the election.

A man with purely a local reputation even on Oahu would be by no means a sure winner, and the same would be still more emphasized upon the other islands. We have therefore to seek for a man who will have the loyal support of the voters throughout the Territory.

The qualifications of candidates will be discussed at the Territorial convention. When that is settled, or in the way of being settled, there will be much to say and our representatives know what to say. The Star is satisfied with the make-up of the Territorial convention, and thinks that the delegate question is in able hands.

ings and so forth, but where dealing with appropriations for special expenses which run through the whole period the heads of Departments expend the money at the rate of so much a month, so as to make it last over the whole period. It is spending money with foresight.

In the case of the courts this has not been done. So much has been voted by the Legislature for court expenses, there is no head in charge of the court expenses, each judge draws for the expenses of the court without reference to the other judges.

the result which was to be anticipated, has taken place. The appropriation for the court expenses has been bankrupted but the treasury has not been bankrupted by any means. The treasury will continue to pay salaries and unexpended appropriations, but as has been said before, it might have millions stored up and would be unable to pay a cent for court expenses.

SIMS AND McCANTS STEWART MAKE UP.

From Being Deadly Political Enemies They Have Apparently Become Warm Friends.

W. R. Sims, the well-known politician of Kailhi, appeared before Judge Wilcox last Saturday to answer to a charge of profanity. T. McCants Stewart, the same well-known politician, the same politician, appeared as attorney for Mr. Sims and asked for continuance, which was granted. This morning J. Bergin, a conductor on one of the electric cars, was before Judge Wilcox to answer to a charge of assault and battery on Mr. Sims. This case was continued until August 25.

Although occupying a somewhat insignificant position in politics, Mr. Bergin may unbeknown to himself, be the means of healing what was supposed to be the widest and deepest political breach that has ever existed in Hawaiian politics. It appears that last week Sims was going on an electric car to his home in Kailhi. It was quite late, Sims is accused of having used profane and improper language. Bergin is alleged to have tried to eject Sims from the car and in so doing, committed the assault and battery for which he is to be tried next week.

When Sims found himself called upon to face a charge of profanity he looked among his many friends for an attorney. Whether his friends were late, or whether he decided he did not care for them can not be stated. In any event, a big surprise was caused in the police court when T. McCants Stewart appeared in behalf of Sims. It was at first thought that perhaps Stewart had come to assist in the prosecution. But this surmise was incorrect. Mr. Stewart's political soul carries its flight far higher than the mere satisfaction of "getting back," and like Deacon Jasper's son, Stewart's soul did move too and he consented if not to bury the hatchet, to at least lie down with his late political rival in the presence of the court and try to acquit Sims of the charge of profanity.

Political prophets are forced to confess themselves entirely at sea over what may be a new political alliance between the rival Republican factions of Kailhi. When the prophets see how lamblike the pair appear to be towards each other, and then the vision of that strenuous night in the reform school at Palama at the Republican primaries when Sims figured so prominently as an anti-Stewartite is recalled, they shake their heads and wonder what it is going to happen next.

RESCUE CRACK ENGINE OF THE DEPARTMENT.

Captain Kanoe Rescues Chinese Woman in Dramatic Fashion—Police Handle Crowds in Efficient Manner.

The police distinguished themselves this morning at the big fire on H-66 and River streets. All seemed to be lost that came to their net for they saved every thing from chicken to a fire engine. The most creditable work done by the police department was the rescue of the crack engine of the fire department. The engine was caught on the fire plug in Hotel street and for a time did splendid service. It is the new engine and is the most powerful apparatus in the fire department. The fire had gotten too big a start however and the firemen were helpless to cope with the flames. Suddenly the flames leaped across Hotel street and set fire to the building on the opposite side. To their dismay, the crew of the fire engine discovered that they were hemmed in by flames from both sides. The heat increased every instant and it soon became evident that the engine men could not remain there any longer and if the engine was not gotten out, the experience of the big plague fire when one of the engines was caught in a similar fashion and destroyed, would be repeated.

In vain did the driver try to force his horses to enter the street and he hitched to the engine. The heat was so intense and the flames so bright, that the horse broke away in terror. Some of those near the engine were driven from the place. The engineer stood by his engine. Several police officers saw that the only way the engine could be saved was to pull it away by hand power. Some of the stalwart members of the police force took hold of the engine, and aided by some firemen and one civilian dragged the machine out of danger. Four hundred feet of hose was burned however.

Police Captain John Kanoe effected quite a dramatic rescue of a Chinese woman. Shut off by the flames below from escape through the lower portion of the building, she was seen at a second story window, shrieking for help. Captain Kanoe saw her danger, climbed up a telegraph pole, leaped across the sidewalk to the window and placing the woman on his back brought her safely down the telegraph pole amid the cheers of the crowd.

Officer McDuffie effected fully as heroic a deed, although his bravery was wasted. He saw a dog in the second story window and climbing a telegraph pole like Captain Kanoe, effected fully as thrilling a rescue. The dog was so frightened however, that it ran a mile about and finally jumped into the Nuuanu stream and was drowned.

Officer Sam Leslie rescued a chicken, while Chester Doyle busied himself with wrenching off the Gamewell Fire Alarm boxes from the telephone poles in the immediate vicinity of the fire as this valuable apparatus had to be saved.

Large crowds were attracted to the scene of the fire and for a time the police had to work hard handling the people. Deputy High Sheriff Chillingworth was on hand promptly, and High Sheriff Brown soon arrived on the scene so that the polling of the spectators was conducted splendidly, the firemen being given all the room they desired in which to do their work.

WENT TO SLEEP BY A RAILROAD TRACK.

Game of Polo Played at Sunnyside—Dance and Social at Paunene—Social Happenings on Island of Maui.

PAIA, Maui, August 16.—On Monday evening last, the 11th Inst., the boys of Paunene gave a most delightful dance and social at the Kaula, the clubhouse at Paunene. The club house had been very prettily decorated with flags, bunting and greens, and presented a very pleasing appearance. Besides dancing, ping-pong and billiards were kept going most of the time. The music was furnished by the Waialeale string orchestra, and was all right. The large ping-pong room was used for dancing, and the veranda for promenade and resting. About midnight excellent refreshment of coffee, sandwiches, ice cream and cake were served, while lemonade and soda waters were on tap all of the time. A very large number were in attendance, so much so in fact that up to about 1 o'clock dancing was rather much of a crush, with the biggest man having the advantage. After one, however, the dancing was most excellent, and it was after 3 a. m. before the lights were put out. The affair was a great success, and thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

Tuesday morning early, as the train from the dance at Paunene was on its way through Kailhi, going towards Waialuku, an Hawaiian boy was run over, and one of his arms cut off. It seems that the boy had been out with some friends serenading, and had a little more gin than he could carry, and had laid down by the track and gone to sleep with one arm thrown over the rail, and there he was when the train came along and took off his arm.

A most interesting game of polo was played last Saturday afternoon on the Sunnyside field of the Makawao Polo Club, between the Baldwin boys and a team of the Makawao Club. The teams were F. F. Baldwin, H. A. Baldwin, A. D. Baldwin and Sam Baldwin, and L. von Tempelky, George W. Wilbur, S. E. Kalamant and W. O. Aiken. Four periods of ten minutes each were played. During the first period L. von Tempelky's team scored two goals, and the Baldwin boys one, which was the final score as neither team was able to score during the remaining three periods. The play was fast and sharp and very interesting. A good crowd was out, and was repaid for coming.

The S. S. Gaelic is scheduled to arrive Wednesday from the Orient. She may arrive tomorrow afternoon, but this is hardly probable as she left Yokohama a day late, and it is thought more likely that she will not arrive until Wednesday afternoon at the earliest. ## WATER IN HER HOLD.

Schooner Rob Roy Has An Exciting Experience.

The little schooner Rob Roy had an exciting experience last week while trying to make Kaunakakai. That she did not go to the bottom was a surprise to many people on the water front, who heard of the trouble that beset the boat.

The vessel is owned by Japanese who wanted her sent to Kaunakakai for a load of fire wood. She started last Tuesday but struck heavy weather and lost her job in the channel. The native captain put about and returned to this port. After securing a new job he resumed the voyage. The boat got off Moloai point but could not beat any further. She is reported to have shipped so much water that she had three feet of water in her hold. The captain, when about three miles to leeward of the point, put the boat about and returned to Honolulu arriving here late Saturday afternoon.

Now that the weather has subsided, the vessel will sail tomorrow for Kaunakakai after a load of fire wood.

NO ARRESTS FOR MURDER.

High Sheriff Brown received a letter from Sheriff Coney of the Island of Kauai this week regarding the progress made by the police in the murder recently committed near Lihue. Sheriff Coney says that he has not secured information on which will warrant his making an arrest, but he has secured an excellent clue which may lead to the apprehension of the criminals.

FAME.

This definition of fame was given by ex-Speaker Ross at the Bowdoin commencement dinner. "Fame," said he, "is largely a matter of accident. Being in the right place at the right time, and doing the right thing, or, better still, making people think you are doing the right thing, is about all there is to fame."

QUICK PROGRESS.

"This is a pretty fine town, isn't it?" remarked the eastern tourist. "You bet it is!" replied the native. "We've got the biggest cemetery in Arizona, an' it's still growin'!"

WEDAY WINS FIGHT POLITICS ON MAUI ISLAND

BOXING EXHIBITION SATISFIES EVERYBODY.

Kaminsky Lasted Five Rounds—Fought Gately To the Finish—Preliminary Bout Fair.

Boxing exhibitions may be said to have been fairly revived by the affair on Saturday night at the Orpheum when Weday put out Kaminsky in the fifth. There was no suspicion of a fake and everyone got their money's worth. There was a genuine knockout, a practical knockout and another bout that could have ended the same way if Harris had wanted to settle the matter.

The preliminary bouts were neither better nor worse than the usual affairs. Williams of Honolulu, a white boy, appeared against Williams of New York, colored. Honolulu Williams was groggy before he started and seemed to have been bracing himself up too much in the afternoon. The two wrestled and fell over each other like playful pups in a barn. The bout was called a draw by Billy Woods, who acted as referee for the prelims.

Clydes Harris had little difficulty in staying off the latter's attacks. Snow wanted to quit, but the crowd jollied him along the four rounds. Harris got the decision, though he fouled Snow in the second.

Spider Jackson had matters simplified for him by his opponent Jack Edwards, and apparent him right and left unmercifully. In the third Edwards was finally rushed through the ropes where he sat while Woods counted him out.

The Weday-Kaminsky contest was announced for ten rounds. Referee Ryan told the men tersely that unless they fought fair he would declare it no contest, throw them both out of the ring and they would go home penniless. To the crowd he said: "This is to be a ten round contest. There will be a decision and I will see that there is no monkey business. That's all." The crowd appreciates referees of Ryan's calibre.

Weday looked in shape, but Kaminsky was fat and a long way from training perfection. Both were willing and Kaminsky game to the finish. He lacks prize ring experience in knowledge of dangerous blows and generalship. Weday was cool throughout.

Kaminsky went to work on Weday's head, a useless proceeding in view of Weday's well-known capacity for punishment in that direction. He landed one or two body blows in clinches, but they were misplaced and non-effective. Weday started work with a right arm lead that goes over the left shoulder, comes round in a hook and lands at the of his opponent's neck. This he repeated continually. The disposition is for the opponent to clinch and the whole fight was a succession of clinches in which, however, there was big punishment given and taken. Weday took life easily in the first, but started the aggressive in the second, getting to the soldier's heart and continuing the damaging hooks. Kaminsky put in all he knew in the third and pushed Weday's head back several times. Weday bored away at the body.

In the fourth slugging was the order of the round. Every pound of beef went behind the blows. The hooks on the soldier's neck began to depress him and a terrific punch over the kidneys settled the business.

At the fifth gong Kaminsky rallied for all that he had left. Weday floored him with a right jab in the ribs followed by a left on the jaw. He got up an instant and rushed. Both fell. Kaminsky was rapidly out, and an other smash on the side of the head sent him down again. Five times he went down and rose till a last one on the neck left him down and out. Weday seemed perfectly fresh after the fight. Kaminsky was dazed with the hooks and complained of his head. The crowd was satisfied and no kicks were heard. The best man had won.

EXTRA GUARDS EMPLOYED. Extra guards have been employed at the jail to prevent the escape of the prisoners confined there.—Hilo Herald.

HILO HOTEL PAU. The guests of the Hilo Hotel have been notified that the hotel will close on or about the 29th of August. This means that Hilo will be without a hotel unless a company comes to the front and takes up the proposition.—Hilo Tribune.

WILL RETURN TO KAUAL. Mr. H. D. Wishard, who had accepted the position of book-keeper at the Waialuku plantation, has received a more favorable offer on Kauai, for which place he will leave in a couple of weeks. His successor has not yet been announced.—Maui News.

PEANUTS BY THE PECK. Patrick T. Kenneally believes himself to be the oldest peanut vender among New England summer resorts. He celebrated the 25th anniversary of his beginning business at Salem Willows, and during that time he has sold 15,000 bushels of peanuts in pint bags, making 900,000 bags in all. He is totally blind, yet he measures out and ties up his peanuts in bags without aid, and he makes change with accuracy.

If you want to buy or sell anything, place a classified ad in the Star. Three lines three times for 25 cents.

PALA, MAUI, August 16, 1902.—Maui will this year be the scene of a very active political combat, and if the Republican party do not win out it will not be from lack of work. W. F. Pogue, as chairman of the district and executive committee, will give his whole time to the work and see that every corner of the field is well covered. He is at present in Lahaina, and will next week make a tour of East Maui. The executive committee intend to go at the matter systematically and thoroughly, and with a ticket composed of men who are well known for integrity, and who are popular throughout the district, have complete success as their ultimate goal. It is their aim now to create such a sentiment that only men of ability and known integrity will be put on the ticket, and that pretty personal ambitions must give way to the best interests of the country.

Republican headquarters have been established in Waialuku, in the main corner room of the Maui Hotel, and here Sam Kellum, as clerk of the executive committee, can be found at any time, ready to attend to any and all matters that may come up. This situation is the most central that could have been found in Waialuku, and any one is welcome to drop in at any time to write letters, get information, look up figures and statistics, and in fact to make themselves at home. A telephone is in the office, so that the headquarters are in communication with all parts of the island. That each part of the district might have its representation and choice, the district committee divided the district up into six divisions and before they meet for the nomination of representatives, expect each division to recommend its choice for their candidates for representative. While the committee has not bound itself to stick to these recommendations, it will most likely be done. In this way each part of the district is given a hearing, and a representative. It is to be seen from this that the Republican believes in the principle of home rule, and in allowing the people to have almost a direct say in the choice of candidates for the legislature. Hon. C. H. Dickey seems to be the universal choice of all Republicans in this district, and he will without doubt get the nomination. No other name has so far been mentioned. For representatives the names of A. H. Hays, of Lahaina; S. E. Kalamas of Makawao; W. P. Hais of Hana, and L. von Tempky of Makawao are spoken of, besides many others.

HILO REPUBLICANS. Convention Held and a Platform Adopted.

HILO, August 14.—The district convention of Hilo Republicans was held last Friday morning and a platform was adopted. The delegates gathered with the intention of making nominations for the legislature, but it was found that the rules of the party provide that this shall be done later. The platform adopted declares for more speedy harbor improvements, assistance to diversified industries, employment of only citizens on public works, opposition to trusts and a reform in taxation systems. It also contains the following: "We favor the establishment of county and municipal governments as soon as practicable." "We approve of the use of the Hawaiian language in legislative debates." The convention elected P. Peck chairman, J. E. Gray vice-chairman, W. S. McLean secretary and W. J. Vierra treasurer. The following were chosen to constitute the executive committee: J. D. Lewis, E. W. Barnard, W. C. Cook, W. Kamaui, J. G. Jones, M. V. Holmes, A. Lydgate, J. K. Dillon.

AVOID THE ALLIGATOR. Ven Der Vaallding By Hand Vas Goot.

He was evidently from the country, this little old German, and as his eyes rested on the elevator, undoubtedly for the first time, his sense of the ridiculous was touched. "For a few minutes he stood in wonderment and then, laughing softly to himself, he stopped the first person he chanced to see, who happened to be the janitor, and fired this at him: "Vat was dot leedle box 'ting vat walks people opp der stairs stooeden still?" "Oh, that's the elevator," was the answer.

"Why Herbert was a nit. "Herbert has a lovely disposition," said Ethel. "Yes," answered Ethel's father, "Herbert's disposition is too lovely. I shouldn't like to trust your future to his hands. He is the sort of person who will be imposed on without resenting it. I have known him to go to a ball game and not want to fight the umpire when he gave an unjust decision against the home team."—Washington Star.

Melcher's Shower Bath Yoke

ASK YOUR PHYSICIAN ABOUT THE USE OF SHOWER BATHS.

A SHOWER AFTER YOUR TUB BATH is a need, and no bath is complete without it. It rinses the body thoroughly, closes the pores of the skin and prevents taking cold. The exhilarating and tonic effects are wonderful. These effects can not be gained by the use of a Sponge or Spray, as the whole body must be covered.

PHYSICAL CULTURE, universally advises the use of the cold, quick shower after all exercises. Melcher's Shower Yoke alone provides these features, it doubles the benefit of the exercise. Melcher's Shower Yoke is endorsed by all the leading scientists on the use of the Shower. It alone embodies all the scientific features in the use of a Shower Bath for either health or sanitary purposes.

MOLOKAI DEER SHY

RETURNING HUNTERS GET FEW SKINS.

Eight Young Men Pass Ten Days on American Sugar Company's Property and Find Hunting Difficult.

As the result of E. Renkin's effort in slaying the deer on the American Sugar Company's property on Molokai last year, hunters are likely to find that the sport of deer shooting much more difficult than formerly. The deer on that island have been diminished considerably by reason of the wholesale slaughter and, in addition, they have become wild and one has to work hours to get any place near them where once a shot was a comparatively easy thing.

A party of young men returned last Saturday on the steamer Lehua from a ten days hunt on Molokai. The party was composed of E. Renkin, F. B. Damon, H. F. Damon, W. A. Walker, W. G. Walker, Allison Jordan, M. A. Robinson and H. Johnson. Although the party devoted most of the time to deer hunting, they secured only 20 skins which is a small showing. "Billy" Walker made the biggest record, getting about a dozen skins. The party passed most of their time at the Maunahihi house. The rain was falling during a good part of their visit.

Some of the party went hunting wild goats. The goats are sufficiently wild to make the sport exciting, and several fine specimens were secured.

MILITARY PING-PONG. The Officers' Club ping-pong tournament will commence tomorrow afternoon. The entries close this afternoon at four o'clock. The tournament is not limited to members of the club and all those who have entered their names so far, about twenty five in all, who are non-members have been issued cards granting them fifteen day privileges at the Bungalow. H. E. Plicker is in charge of the entries. Two tables and a complete outfit are on hand at the club and everything has been arranged for the convenience of the players. The same rules that regulated the Eric's tournament will hold good in this, the principal points being the server keeping one foot perforce behind a chalk line drawn three feet behind the tables and the rule about serving below the waist. When a ball passes the table's edge without touching it counts as a point against the batter whatever move his opponent may make. The tournament will terminate with a smoking concert.
