

Hawaiian Gazette

VOL. VI, NO. 120.

HONOLULU, HAWAII TERRITORY, TUESDAY, MAY 6, 1913.—SEMI WEEKLY.

WHOLE NUMBER 3811

MIKADO CONFERS OVER LAND BILL

America's Friends Are Consulted As to Protests.

Johnson Tells Wilson He Will Sign Bill on May 12

TOKIO, May 6.—(Associated Press Cable)—Emperor Yoshihito yesterday held a long conference with Viscount Kaneko, president of the America's Friends Society of Japan, who was the official representative of Japan at Washington during the Russo-Japanese war. The conference was at the request of the Emperor, who wished to talk over the California situation and the general attitude of Americans towards the Japanese nation.

It is understood that the Emperor discussed with the former minister the advisability of Japanese nonparticipation in the Panama Exposition in 1915. Viscount Kaneko was chairman of the Japan Grand Exposition commission, which was to have been held last year and which the Katsura cabinet postponed until 1917, and is in a good position to advise the Emperor as to what influence upon Californians a threat of the withdrawal of Japan and China from the San Francisco Exposition will have.

"GRAVE EVENTUALITY" ALL THAT WILL STOP IT

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) SACRAMENTO, May 5.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Only a grave eventuality or a referendum movement by the people of the State will prevent the Webb Anti-Asian Land Bill from going on the statute books of California, according to administration leaders at the Capitol today.

WILSON MARKING TIME UNTIL BRYAN REPORTS

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) WASHINGTON, May 5.—(Special to The Advertiser)—The Administration is marking time until the return of Secretary Bryan, before commencing on the Anti-Asian Land Bill passed by the California legislature.

Governor Johnson has informed the President that he will not sign the bill until May 12, and the President expects to wire his attitude to California's Governor immediately after Secretary Bryan's return.

Japan has not formally protested against the Land Bill, but it is expected such action will be taken soon. The administration will not reply to Japan's representation until Bryan's return.

JAPAN CONTRACTS FOR THREE DREADNAUGHTS

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) TOKIO, May 5.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Contracts have been placed for the construction in Japan yards of three dreadnaughts. They will be sister ships to the Fuso, the displacement of which is 39,000 tons.

DREADNAUGHTS NOT TO ASSIST THE PROTEST

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) WASHINGTON, May 5.—(Special to The Advertiser)—In some apprehension that an effort might be made to connect with the present California situation the placing of orders for three dreadnaughts, the Japanese embassy officials today declared these vessels were appropriated for by the last diet, before the land legislation began in California, and that placing orders at this time is simply in execution of plans to cover a period of years in naval development.

ARIZONA HAS TO BE PROMINENT SOMEHOW

PHOENIX, Arizona, May 5.—(By Associated Press Cable to the Star-Bulletin)—The assembly today passed an anti-Asian land ownership bill even more drastic than that now passing the California legislature and which has aroused bitter Japanese protest. The Arizona bill bars ownership of land by those who are ineligible to become citizens and all eligibles who have not declared their intention of becoming citizens.

Young Ruler Concerned Over California Bill

SCUTARI ABANDONED; NICHOLAS DESPAIRS

His Cabinet Resigns and His Abdication May Come. In Near Future.

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) LONDON, May 5.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Final submission to the demands of the Powers by King Nicholas of Montenegro and the consequent evacuation of Scutari was announced by Premier Aspritch in the commons this evening.

Aspritch declared that during the afternoon Montenegro had cabled its willingness now to evacuate the daily-brought fortress and to leave its disposal to the Powers.

BEATEN BY DIPLOMACY NICHOLAS WILL STEP OUT

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) LONDON, May 5.—(Associated Press Cable)—It is rumored here that King Nicholas, disheartened at being forced to relinquish the city of Scutari, captured at such cost to his nation, will abdicate within a few days.

FIRE AT HAKODATE DOES BIG DAMAGE

The Hawaii Hochi yesterday received the following special news cables from Japan:

YOKOHAMA, May 5.—A big fire at Hakodate yesterday caused the destruction of 2000 houses.

TOKIO, May 5.—In honor of Admiral Bayo Enomoto, founder of the first Japanese navy, a monument was unveiled today at Mukojima. A coincidence is that his first battle was fought at Hakodate, where there was a great fire yesterday.

KIOTO, May 5.—Takaishi, an aviator, was killed here on May 3 in a fall from his machine.

COAST GRAFT PROBE REACHES TO ROME

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) SAN FRANCISCO, May 5.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Announcement was made today by District Attorney Fickert that a witness is being brought from Rome, Italy, a victim of bunco men, to corroborate testimony of swindlers that police officers worked hand-in-hand with the Italian gang. It caused consternation among the accused police. The witness will be one of the most important yet examined by the grand jury.

MORE TIME FOR THE UNSCRAMBLING

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) WASHINGTON, May 5.—(Special to The Advertiser)—The United States Supreme Court today granted the application of Southern Pacific and Union Pacific Railroads to extend the time set for the dissolution of their merger. The court gave the railroads until July 1 to comply with the dissolution order.

VOTE ON TARIFF BILL IN HOUSE DUE TOMORROW

 (By Federal Wireless Telegraph)  WASHINGTON, May 5.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Debate on the Underwood Tariff Bill was renewed in the house today. Chairman Underwood, leader of the house majority, predicted its passage Wednesday. The final paragraphs of sundry schedules were considered first today. The income tax paragraph comes up tomorrow. The Republican minority is prepared to attack the clause placing agricultural implements on the free list, asserting it is merely intended as a "sop" to the farmers for slashing the duties on wheat and flour. *****

NOW IT'S PINKHAM WHOM RUMOR NAMES

Nobody Knows Who Is to Be Governor, But Everyone Willing to Guess.

Further interest, as well as increased uncertainty, was added to the gubernatorial situation in Hawaii yesterday by the report which came out of the air that L. E. Pinkham is being mentioned as among those who are aspiring for the position now held by Governor Frear. Mr. Pinkham, formerly at the head of the board of health, but for the past few years employed by the sugar planters in securing Filipino laborers at Manila for work on the island plantations, arrived here from the Orient about one month ago. He has had but little to say since his return, and so far as could be learned yesterday has not discussed politics. If he turns out to be among the many other unexpected Democrats it will surprise many.

If only a few of the many reports which were current in Honolulu yesterday are true, at least three Governors have been appointed to preside over the destiny of this Territory. However, not one rumor has been verified. The Federal Wireless and Associated Press dispatches from the national Capitol do not carry even a brief mention of what President Wilson contemplates and as much uncertainty prevailed in the camps of the different gubernatorial aspirants as at the first of the year.

Another report now is that a former well known resident of Honolulu now residing at San Francisco has been urged to accept the appointment. He is said to retain his citizenship here, and was a faithful worker on the Coast for Democratic success last fall. His name is not given.

E. M. Watson continues to be looked upon as a strong candidate, though it was rumored yesterday that he has agreed to step out of the fight to accept an appointment on the supreme bench to succeed Justice Perry, whose term expires today.

It is claimed that Judge A. A. Wilder is now slated for the position occupied by Governor Frear. On "excellent authority" it was reported yesterday that news has come to the territorial capital that Wilder is the man.

Those who claim to be in "know" say that the selection will be announced this week.

There are others who also claim to be in possession of "inside" information to the effect that no action will be taken until after the tariff fight is settled in congress.

LOST TWENTY-DOLLAR NOTE IS RECOVERED

Detective Olson yesterday returned a twenty-dollar silver certificate to a thankful guest at the Vida Villa. The money, in an addressed envelope was dropped on the street last week. The owner, having only slight hopes of finding the bill, asked the police to aid. Olson was put on the case, learned where a boy had picked up the bill and showed it to a companion. The youngster was told that the officer was searching for the note and immediately turned it over to the police department.

STAY TO BE BRIEF

But a few hours will be spent in Honolulu by the Hon. James Bryce, formerly His Britannic Majesty's ambassador to Washington and famous lecturer, according to advices received yesterday by British Consul John B. Rentiers. Governor Frear will personally see to Mr. Bryce's entertainment while here, as Secretary of the Territory Mott-Smith will leave on a ten-day vacation before the arrival of the distinguished guest.

SUFFRAGETTE PICKETS AT ENTRANCE TO HOUSE OF COMMONS WHEN THE MAIN SUFFRAGE BILL WAS UP—A SIMILAR LOBBY AND SHOW OF POLICE IS BEING CONDUCTED TODAY.

CANADIAN PEACE DELEGATES WELCOMED

Plans to Celebrate Century of Goodwill Are Now Taking Definite Shape.

NEW YORK, May 6.—(Associated Press Cable)—The delegates nominated by Premier Borden to represent the Dominion of Canada at the conference to be held here with the delegates representing the United States to discuss the plans and scope of the international celebration to mark the close of a century of peace between the two North American nations, arrived yesterday and were given an enthusiastic greeting by New Yorkers.

WHALEY SAYS KILLING WAS AN ACCIDENT

Alleged Murderer was Cleaning Weapon When It Exploded, He Tells McDuffie.

Frank W. Whaley, who shot and killed his wife in the Mutual Telephone Building, Adams Lane, Sunday night, is being held at the police station pending a charge of murder and an investigation by a coroner's jury.

The police are not interested in the crime as the man admits his guilt and only the formal process is awaited in his case. He will be allowed to give his side of the gruesome story at the inquest this afternoon.

The only statement that he has cared to make so far was to Chief McDuffie. To him he said that he had been cleaning his gun and that it went off when she made a grab for it. The police treat that feature of it dubiously.

The autopsy on the body of his victim was performed yesterday morning, the investigation showing that death had been instantaneous. The bullet had followed a strange course, making a clean-cut wound to the back of the head and flattening against the back of the skull.

SOCIETY TURNS OUT TO GREET BISPHAM

Society with the biggest S in its alphabet turned out last night to the final concert of David Bispham, the fame of whose first concert last Saturday at the Opera House had gone abroad in the island. The Opera House was well packed with an appreciative audience that needed no coaxing to respond handsomely to the concertist's efforts.

The first part of Bispham's program last night was devoted to song in European tongues, though he reverted back to his favorite English afterwards. Among Harry Gilbert's piano solos was a waltz de concert of his own composing which won instant acclaim.

Komoto Hans, a Japanese woman was taken into custody yesterday afternoon by the police following suspicious actions which led her relatives to believe that she was insane.

RIFLE MUSIC FOR HAYTIAN ELECTION

Serious Disorder During the Funeral of President General August.

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) PORT AU PRINCE, Hayti, May 5.—(Special to The Advertiser)—The Haytian congress elected yesterday Michel Oreste, as President of the Republic, who died Friday night. Oreste was a senator.

Before and after the election serious disorders occurred, in which there was rifle firing.

Trouble began at the services at the funeral of General August, which were held at the Cathedral. Several fusillades were fired in different parts of town and a panic ensued among the great assemblage in the church.

Many women and children were trampled and seriously injured in the rush from the cathedral. Troops, held in readiness for such an emergency, were called out and temporarily re-established order. Firing ceased for a time and the funeral ceremony continued without further incident.

EMPLOYES OF PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT FACE A SALARY DEFICIENCY

Because of the fact that the late legislature passed an appropriation of $30,000 for the water and sewer departments of the public works department with the proviso that the money shall not become available until July 1 next, employees of those departments are beginning to figure where their salaries will come from for the next month or more. It was intended to have the appropriation become immediately available, but in their haste to finish up the work the lawmakers forgot to make the necessary amendment.

This is one of the problems now facing Superintendent Caldwell. It is understood that there is practically no money available to meet current salaries unless necessary improvements and repairs to the sewer and water system are deferred until the $30,000 becomes available two months hence.

YOUNG KOREAN HAD BUT A SHORT TIME TO LIVE

Death, which came to King Chun, a Korean, in an auto accident Sunday, was anticipated by but a few days, according to the doctors who yesterday performed the autopsy on the body of the victim of Henry Aki's automobile.

The man's lungs and heart were in such a condition it is stated, that his life was numbered by days at the time the auto struck him.

Death was shown to have been caused by three fractured ribs on the right side, one of which had lacerated the liver, causing an internal hemorrhage.

The inquest will be held at ten o'clock this morning.

J. J. Eussen was arrested by Officer Sismore yesterday for extreme cruelty to his horse and will appear this morning to answer to the charge in Judge Monsarrat's court.

WORKS FLAYS THE MONEIED CLASSES

Government Should Step In and Regulate Prices, Hours and Wages.

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) WASHINGTON, May 5.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Discussing today before the United States senate the power of the Trusts in the senate, Senator John D. Works of California asserted that the responsibility for the popular unrest lies with the Nation's lawmakers for allowing the masses to remain in a miserable condition.

"The ruling class in America," said Works, "is the moneied class. Wealth, power and position are arrayed against men and women laboring for a livelihood. They regard themselves as superior to what they call the lower classes."

"The effective way to overcome the evil is to elevate the station of wage earners and to curb the powers of the employers' class. No better way to accomplish this, it occurs to me, so far as law making is concerned, can be conceived than to regulate prices and the wages and hours of labor."

The trial of "General" Mrs. Flora Drummond and Miss Annie Kenney and other militant suffragettes on charges of conspiracy was resumed here today. The court was packed with militants and their sympathizers.

WILSON TO DEVELOP TRADE, BUT NOT BY DOLLAR DIPLOMACY

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) WASHINGTON, May 5.—(Special to The Advertiser)—President Wilson proposes to make the department of commerce a substitute for "dollar diplomacy." He intends to broaden its scope, develop American trade abroad and remove suspicions that the department is a political adjunct.

The President made this plain at today's conference with newspaper correspondents.

ANOTHER HEAVIER THAN AIR RIDER IS KILLED

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) AKRON, OHIO, May 5.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Charles Carlson, a Milwaukee aviator, was killed today while biplaning near Silver Lake. He ascended one hundred feet when the biplane's engine stopped suddenly. Carlson was thrown from the machine, striking the ground head first. Death was instantaneous.

HIGH CREDIT FOR FORMER HONOLULUAN

The recently issued February Bulletin of the Pan-American Union pays this tribute to the exploration work of a Honolulu:

"Many additional facts relative to the Empire of the Incas and to the high state of their culture have been unearthed by Prof. Hiram Bingham and others since Bander's last explorations, and Peru and the Bolivian plateau continue to be the most interesting hunting grounds for our archeologists. Very valuable collections were made during 1912 by Professor Bingham, of which we await an account with much interest."

SUFFRAGE VOTE IN COMMONS TONIGHT

Women Have Chance to Secure Part of What They Fight For.

Dastardly Attempt at Wholesale Murder May Kill Bill.

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) LONDON, May 5.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Another crucial vote on woman's suffrage the fourth in four years, is in sight in the house of commons. Two days' general debate began this afternoon on the compromise measure introduced early in the present session of parliament by W. H. Dickinson. It grants the franchise to all women over twenty-five years of age who are either householders in their own names or the wives of householders, an aggregate of about six million voters.

The vote, which is scheduled to take place at eleven o'clock tomorrow night, is on the second reading of the bill. If there should be a majority in its favor it will be subject to amendment in committee and possible defeat on the third reading, but it is the general opinion that if there is an adverse vote on the second reading this would mean the death of woman franchise so far as the present parliament is concerned.

There is an active woman's lobby at work and members are being canvassed.

READY TO MURDER BY WHOLESAL NOW

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) LONDON, May 5.—(Special to The Advertiser)—The lives of 200 men and women were jeopardized here today when Nitroglycerine bombs were found among parcels in the Southeastern Post-office. Militant suffragettes were suspected. The bombs were discovered by mail sorters. They were filled with enough nitro glycerine to have blown the building to atoms.

The trial of "General" Mrs. Flora Drummond and Miss Annie Kenney and other militant suffragettes on charges of conspiracy was resumed here today. The court was packed with militants and their sympathizers.

JAIL SENTENCE FOR GOMPERS AFFIRMED

John Mitchell, Just Chosen By Governor Sulzer for Office, Is Fined.

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) WASHINGTON, May 5.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Contempt charges against Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor; John Mitchell, its vice-president, whom Governor Sulzer of New York has just nominated as State commissioner of labor; and Frank Morrison, its secretary, were upheld here today by the district court of appeals. It held that Gompers should serve thirty days in jail and that Mitchell and Morrison should pay $500 fines.

The case arose out of criticism of Judge Daniel Thew Wright of the supreme court of the District of Columbia, as an outcome for the famous boycott against the Buck Stove Company of St. Louis.

WORDS OF DYING MAN ARE DOUBTED

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) SAN FRANCISCO, May 5.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Herman Saxe, aged forty-two, a diamond broker with offices in the Whitney Building, was shot over the heart this afternoon, according to Saxe's dying statement, by a robber, who escaped with $4000 worth of diamonds, $450 in coin and $1135 in currency.

Percuss in the building who heard the shot fired and were on the spot almost immediately saw no one leave the place, and the police say Saxe attempted suicide.

ANTHAR, THE MONTENEGRIN PORT WHICH THE FLEET OF THE POWERS HAS BEEN BLOCKADING AND WHERE AUSTRIAN TROOPS WILL LAND. BELOW - BARON KONRAD VON HOTZENBORG, AUSTRIAN CHIEF OF STAFF, STUDYING A WAR MAP OF THE BALKANS.

JOHNSON DENIES ANY BACK DOWN

California Did What She Set Out to Do—Afraid of No One.

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) SACRAMENTO, May 4.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Governor Johnson, discussing the Anti-alien Land Bill today, said: "We have accomplished the big thing. There has not been an inch of recession by the senate or the administration on alien legislation. The three-year leasing clause which has been included was done in the interests of our own people, to give them time to adjust their affairs and to readjust themselves to the new conditions."

JAPAN'S PROTEST TO BE PRESENTED TODAY

WASHINGTON, May 5.—(By Associated Press Cable)—It is reported that Ambassador Chinda has received instructions from Tokio to formally present Japan's protest against the California Anti-alien Land Law about to come into effect. This will bring the matter squarely up to President Wilson and his cabinet and the administration will be forced to declare itself "formally" on the international issue.

BILL NOW ON DESK OF GOVERNOR JOHNSON

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) SACRAMENTO, May 4.—(Special to The Advertiser)—The assembly passed the Webb senate Anti-alien Land Bill late last night by a vote of 72 to 3. The bill which prohibits ownership of land in California by aliens ineligible to citizenship, was sent to Governor Johnson from the assembly and now awaits only his signature before it shall become a law.

LANE HAS NOT YET MADE HIS CHOICE, HE SAYS

Replies to The Advertiser That He Is Not Through Considering.

Up until midnight last night the question of the governorship of Hawaii had not been settled, according to direct word to The Advertiser from Secretary of the Interior Lane. Early yesterday a cable request for definite information was sent to The Advertiser's Washington representative, who took the request to the secretary. Last night the answer came:

WASHINGTON, May 4.—Secretary Lane says he is still considering the question of the governorship and has not made up his mind as to a recommendation.—WALKER.

Dark Horse Favorite. The appointment of the dark horse, Judge A. A. Wilder, is expected by many and expected soon, however. It is now known that his name has been suggested to the secretary of the interior and that some strong work in his behalf is being done.

DAVID STARR JORDAN AGAINST THE MEASURE. ST. LOUIS, May 3.—President David Starr Jordan of Leland Stanford University, in a statement made to the press conference today, declared that the California anti-alien land legislation is unconstitutional. He says that the people in California who oppose it will appeal to the referendum to kill the law, or test the validity of the act in the Supreme Court.

granted now that McAdams is out of the running, while the delay in making up his mind on the part of Secretary Lane is thought to be decidedly unfavorable to Walker.

What those most interested in the governorship question are asking is: "How can the secretary reconcile an appointment of a dark horse with his definite announcement that he would recommend no candidate until he had personally interviewed him?"

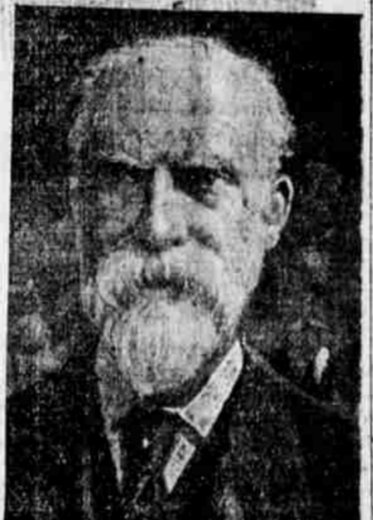

CAPITAL SOCIETY IS BUYING NEW GOWNS

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) WASHINGTON, May 4.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Mrs. Wilson, wife of the President, will give the first of the White House garden parties on Friday, and already the women who expect to be invited to one of the series of three have set about getting up stunning costumes for them.

BRAZILIAN CONGRESS WOULD BE FRIENDLY

RIO DE JANEIRO, May 4.—(Special to The Advertiser)—The Brazilian congress opened yesterday. The President, Marshal Hermes Fonseca, in his message expressed gratification at the invitation extended to Doctor Lauro Muller to visit the United States, to which country he will proceed in a few days with the hope of strengthening relations.

Author-Diplomat Sails From Coast For the Orient

RT. HON. JAMES BRYCE. GALVESTON, Texas, May 2.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Blood-curdling stories of brutal murders of Americans in Mexico were told here today by fourteen Americans and Englishmen, who have just arrived here on the steamer Beryl. Nine women and six men made up the party, several of the women having left the bodies of their murdered husbands in Mexican soil.

SACRAMENTO, May 4.—(By Associated Press Cable)—By a vote of seventy-three to two, the assembly last night accepted the senate substitute to the Birkhall Anti-alien Land Bill.

While the vote was practically unanimous, the debate on the measure took up the greater part of the day. From one o'clock until the six o'clock adjournment, the assembly argued the difference of opinion being so much as to the advisability of passing an anti-alien measure as to the exact form that measure should take.

JOHNSON WILL SIGN IN REASONABLE TIME

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) SACRAMENTO, May 3.—(Special to The Advertiser)—The Webb substitute for the Birkhall Anti-alien Land Bill, prohibiting the holding of lands in California by Japanese and Chinese, passed the senate early this morning.

Governor Hiram Johnson has announced that he will sign the bill within a reasonable time. The Webb Bill passed by a vote of 36 to 2 in the senate. Senators Wright and Cartwright casting the two votes against it after more than nine hours of debate.

Bryan's Amendment. An amendment, submitted by Senator Boynton after a long conference with Secretary Bryan, permits the leasing of land by aliens ineligible to ownership for a period of three years.

JAPAN WOULD TAKE QUESTION TO THE HAGUE

WASHINGTON, May 3.—(By Associated Press Cable to Star-Bulletin)—The Japanese government is not at all satisfied with the Webb Bill as California now proposes to pass it, and the protest from Tokio is being voiced diplomatically but firmly here by Ambassador Chinda.

There is a strong suggestion, which may develop into a note from Tokio, that the entire matter should be submitted to the Hague for settlement by the highest international tribunal.

DAVID STARR JORDAN AGAINST THE MEASURE

ST. LOUIS, May 3.—President David Starr Jordan of Leland Stanford University, in a statement made to the press conference today, declared that the California anti-alien land legislation is unconstitutional. He says that the people in California who oppose it will appeal to the referendum to kill the law, or test the validity of the act in the Supreme Court.

MORE WAR TALK IN TOKIO

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) TOKIO, May 2.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Flat warning to California that war may follow the passage there of any land bill discriminating against the Japanese was sounded here today at a mass meeting of thousands of young men.

At the close of the meeting, the young men served notice that unless California modifies its attitude towards the Mikado's subjects the growing irritation of the Japanese may get beyond restraint.

Commercial Leaders Warn.

Not only will the commercial leaders of Japan refuse to exhibit at the Panama Pacific Exposition in San Francisco, but, irrespective of the government's attitude, an embargo will be placed by them on all California ports, should the Anti-Alien Land Bill be passed, according to an announcement made here today.

SENATORS PASS WEBB BILL AFTER ALL-DAY SESSION AND LONG-DRAWN-OUT DEBATE

SACRAMENTO, May 3.—(Associated Press Cable)—After a bitter debate, in which the Democratic members of the state senate led in warning advice to the majority to proceed with caution in whatever might be done in the matter of anti-alien legislation, the Webb Anti-Alien Land Bill, somewhat amended, was passed this morning (Saturday) at a quarter to one o'clock.

The debate on the measure, which had been adopted by the Progressive majority as a substitute for the Birdsall Bill, lasted practically throughout the entire day's session and there were several occasions on which the members excitedly demanded State rights and denounced the efforts being made to coerce the California legislature, by Washington and by Tokio.

BILL PROVIDES FOR SHORT TERM LEASES, PROVIDED FOR IN YESTERDAY'S AMENDMENT

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) SACRAMENTO, May 2.—(Special to The Advertiser)—By a vote of twenty-five to thirteen, the California senate today adopted an amendment to the Anti-Alien Land Bill, providing that aliens not eligible to citizenship may lease lands in the state for a period of three years.

The amendment was introduced by Senator Boynton, Progressive floor leader, and was adopted after a long debate, in which extreme caution in the passage of the anti-alien land legislation was urged by a number of senators.

Bryan in Conference.

A long executive conference of Secretary Bryan with Governor Johnson, Attorney General Webb and Senator Boynton, administration leader, preceded the action of the senate.

MEXICANS ARE MUDDERING GRINGOES

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) GALVESTON, Texas, May 2.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Blood-curdling stories of brutal murders of Americans in Mexico were told here today by fourteen Americans and Englishmen, who have just arrived here on the steamer Beryl. Nine women and six men made up the party, several of the women having left the bodies of their murdered husbands in Mexican soil.

Settlement against Americans in Mexico, the refugees declared, is worse under the Huerta regime than under the Madero government. Hundreds of other refugees, it was stated, were at Tampico and other ports, unable to escape.

CHIHUAHUA THREATENED BY INSURGENT ARMY

EL PASO, Texas, May 2.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Chihuahua City, in the State of Chihuahua, Mexico, is facing capture by a big insurgent army, according to reports received here today. Three thousand Federals are rushing from the south to the defense of the city.

GENERAL IN COAHUILA WILL DESERT HUERTA

EAGLE PASS, Texas, May 2.—(Associated Press Cable to The Star-Bulletin)—Partially authenticated reports have been received here to the effect that Generals Tracy, D'Aubert and Rabago have decided to desert General Huerta and join the forces and fortunes of Governor Carranza of the State of Coahuila.

AMERICAN VESSELS ARE ORDERED TO MAZATLAN

WASHINGTON, May 2.—The Annapolis and Glacier have been ordered to steam at once for Mazatlan and thus afford moral support to Americans and other foreigners who may be in that section.

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) LONDON, May 2.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Representatives of the Powers attending the conference of ambassadors, speaking unofficially, announced that the danger of war between Austria and the Balkan Allies, while still existing, is by no means as threatening today as it has been at any time during the past week.

Austria is inclined to adopt a less peremptory tone towards Montenegro and Serbia, which nations, on their part, are evincing more of a disposition to see if some way cannot be found for a satisfactory compromise of the questions at issue.

The withdrawal of the main Montenegrin army from Scutari helped to revive the feelings of the Austrians to a considerable extent, although the Black Mountain standard still flies from the Scutari fortress. The concentration of Austrian troops on the Montenegrin and Serbian frontiers has been checked and no forward move has been made by the Allies, although it is known that

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) BIRMINGHAM, Washington, May 2.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Pointing out that the Oregon is the only battleship on the Pacific Coast today, the Pacific Naval Monthly, published here, which unofficially voices the wishes of the officers and men of the fleet, says: "The Oregon is in its May number, on the government to maintain a battleship fleet in the Pacific."

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) WASHINGTON, May 2.—(Special to The Advertiser)—All amendments offered by California congressmen to effect the proposed sweeping reductions in the customs tariff have been voted down to overwhelming defeat in the house today.

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) NEW YORK, May 3.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Thirty thousand women participated this afternoon in the biggest suffragette parade in New York's history. Incidentally they applied the "You Don't Count" treatment to mere men in real frapped form.

Just before the parade started at three o'clock this order was issued: "Now, the marchers were told, 'for get for a couple of hours that such a creature as man ever existed. He does not matter today. Keep your eyes to the front and shoulders erect and don't even nod to your mother.'"

BRITISH VOTE SEEKERS APPLY TORCH AGAIN

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) LONDON, May 3.—(Special to The Advertiser)—The Midland Railway depot at Bradford was burned early today. The loss is estimated at five hundred thousand dollars. The suffragettes are blamed for the fire.

Dismissal of the cases against Miss Annie Kenney and Mrs. Drummond, who were charged with inciting violence by inflammatory speeches, was ordered in the courts here today.

The case against George Lansbury, the male suffragette, who was similarly charged, was sentenced to three months in Holloway prison for inciting the malicious destruction of property. He was later released on a promise of good behavior and a bail security provided by Joseph Fels, the millionaire American soap manufacturer.

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) PATTERSON, New Jersey, May 3.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Completion of paralyzing the silk industry of Northern New Jersey, ten thousand workers in the mills about this city started a strike today in sympathy with the silk strikers from the mills of the city proper.

I. W. W. leaders called a strike when they learned that the local factory owners were having their silk manufactured elsewhere. Every silk plant in Hudson county is shut down.

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) LONDON, May 3.—(Special to The Advertiser)—Forty-five ponies, valued at one hundred thousand dollars, for the use of the British polo team in its attempt to win the international polo cup at Meadowbrook, Rhode Island, in June, were loaded safely on the S. S. Minneapolis for New York today.

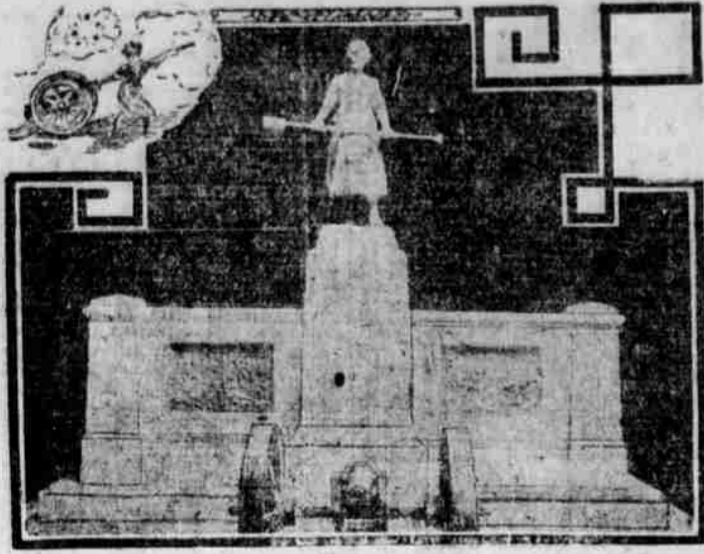

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) TOULON, France, May 3.—(Special to The Advertiser)—There is consternation in naval circles here over the publication in a foreign review of the full technical details of an invention to which the greatest importance attaches.

A prominent naval officer had been engaged in perfecting the invention here in secret. It is said that the leaking out of the secret coincides with the stay of a foreign officer in Toulon. The maritime prefect has ordered a strict inquiry.

(By Federal Wireless Telegraph.) VIENNA, May 3.—(Special to The Advertiser)—It is reported today that the ministerial council has decided that military action against Montenegro shall begin Tuesday.

Advertisement for Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne. The text describes it as 'The ORIGINAL and ONLY GENUINE' and lists ailments it treats: DIARRHOEA, CHOLERA, DYSENTERY, FEVER, CROUP, AGUE, COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS. It also includes a small illustration of a medicine bottle and a circular logo with the word 'Chlorodyne'.

MEMORIAL PROPOSED FOR MOLLY PITCHER

CARLISLE, Pennsylvania, April 24.—Patriotic citizens and officers are manifesting much interest in the project of erecting a fitting memorial in Carlisle to Molly Pitcher, heroine of the Battle of Monmouth...

Great pains have been taken by the sculptor to make the likeness as perfect as possible. Five female descendants of Molly now living in Carlisle were used as models for the statue...

ANOTHER DREADNOUGHT FOR AUSTRALIA'S NAVY

MELBOURNE, April 14.—An important consideration in support of the proposal to lay down a second super-dreadnought for the Australian navy is the present extreme weakness of the Royal Navy Pacific fleet...

The 1911 Naval Conference amended the Empire naval stations so that New Zealand was removed from the sphere of the Australian fleet. It was arranged that on the completion of the Australian naval unit the Royal Navy ships should be sent to New Zealand waters...

This means that the Admiralty intends to take on practically the whole responsibility for South Pacific local defence. This view is strengthened by the fact that the Auckland naval base is a poorly equipped establishment...

Beautiful Arcadia Thrown Open by Governor and Mrs. Walter F. Frear; Hundreds of Friends at What Will Probably Be Last Public Reception

HOME OF GOVERNOR AND MRS. FREAR.

Many Express Regret at Prospect of Close of an Efficient Administration.

A large gathering of kaunimani and tourists thronged to "Arcadia" yesterday afternoon at what may possibly be the last reception at which Governor Walter F. Frear and his charming wife will appear officially...

The Governor's mansion was beautifully though simply decorated for the occasion. Friends who have visited "Arcadia" at private and public functions during the Governor's administration were most kind on this occasion and sent quantities of flowers to Mrs. Frear...

Many Visitors.

It was impossible to secure a complete list of the visitors. Among those who called during the afternoon were: Mr. and Mrs. L. Tenney Peck, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Newton Locke, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Dillingham, Major and Mrs. Neville, Miss Snow, Judge and Mrs. Antonio Perry, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Dillingham, Miss Maud Fischer, Captain and Mrs. Cochran, Miss Frances Coe, Mr. and Mrs. Giles H. Gere, Mrs. Richard B. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Warren, Miss Florence M. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Perley Horne, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Faltner, Mrs. Margaret Macdonald, Mrs. Walter H. Jones, Mrs. L. B. Coon, Mr. and Mrs. John Guild, Miss Dorothy Guild, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. McGregor, Mr. and Mrs. M. Church, Dr. and Mrs. George B. Graham, Mrs. Alfred Hocking, Mrs. Florence Hoffman, Miss Drummond, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gilman, Miss Lyons, Miss Katherine Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Boardman, Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Dillingham, Miss Evelyn Maillet, Mr. Ralph Hosmer, Miss Dean, Miss Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Eckhart, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Wood, Mr. and Mrs. John Lennox, Mr. and Mrs. Byron E. Noble, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Smith, Mrs. Clinton H. Medford, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wilder, Mrs. C. H. Jackland, Mrs. S. E. Halstead, Miss Macdonald, Mrs. Elsa C. Howard, Miss Devereaux, Miss Elizabeth Mather, Miss Schuur, Mrs. Lewis T. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Carlen, Mrs. S. J. Stone, Dr. and Mrs. J. M. White, Mrs. C. F. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Smith, Mrs. Chiro Williams, Miss Williams, Miss Agnes Buchanan, Miss Castle, Miss Knapp, Miss Marlow, Mrs. M. J. D. Fraser, Mrs. D. L. Austin, Miss I. G. Macdonald, Miss Clait...

ONOMATOPOEIC.

A French musician in the Opera House orchestra, in the gloomy month of November, felt an inclination for a nap after dinner in his apartments, and for the purpose lay on the bed for an hour's repose...

CALIFORNIA'S LITERARY OUTPUT

Jack London is said to have made engagements with publishers for works which will bring him in the comfortable sum of $44,000 during the year 1913. At the rate of fifteen cents a word, which may be presumed to be about what Mr. London receives, his contracts mean, says the San Francisco Post, that he will have to turn out 293,000 words during the year...

MORE RESPECTFUL.

A story about Charles M. Schwab has been going the rounds of Wall street. Mr. Schwab, who is very fond of farce comedy, one day bade his secretary get him two tickets for "Charlie's Aunt."

YESTERDAY AND TODAY.

There is a difference between yesterday and today. Yesterday the sun was in the sky, and today it is in the clouds. Yesterday the water was clear, and today it is muddy. Yesterday the air was fresh, and today it is stale.

AD ASTRA PER REPORTE.

"All right," said Charlie, as he gathered himself together after his father had thrown him out of the house. "I'll have you indicted for this."

SCARED.

Old Mother Hubbard went out and rubbeder. To see what the fashions might be. But when she got there. The ladies were bare. Which caused Mother Hubbard to flee.

ITS EFFECT.

"Was the letter of introduction I gave you of any service when you were hunting a situation?" "I should say so. It caused the man I handed it to to say, 'No, sir, instead of plain 'No, sir.'"

ALL SCRATCHED UP.

The busy hen comes down the pile. Persuades your fence to yield. And makes your garden plot look like A Turkish battle field.

BABY CLOTHES FOR DOG.

ST. PAUL, April 19.—Candy, a full-blooded, "high-brow" Boston terrier, aided and abetted by his mistress, Mrs. Ada Gregory, has hit upon a plan of swindling the street car companies' rules against carrying dogs on the cars.

QUITE SO.

In reporting another motor "bus accident" in which a workman was the victim a daily paper says: "The wheels passed over his dinner-pan and for a few minutes he was stunned." We only wonder that he was not killed outright from injuries to so vital a part.—Tattler.

JUST SO.

Anybody can be poor and proud, but you've got to have money to have haunter.—Kansas City Journal.

MUCH PREPARATION FOR "CHIMES OF NORMANDY"

On Friday and Saturday evenings of this week the "Chimes of Normandy" will be presented by the Oahu College Glee and Dramatic clubs.

"HE AIN'T NO DUCK"

During the recent heavy rains, a teacher in one of the Columbus schools noticed one of her pupils was absent. The boy gave no satisfactory excuse when he appeared the next day so the teacher wrote a note to his mother, asking why Willie had been out of school. In the afternoon the boy brought back the following reply: "Didn't you know it rained yesterday? Willie ain't no duck."—Indianapolis News.

"ALL IN THE NAME"

A kindergarten teacher, in the Italian district, was teaching her class a Christmas song in which appeared the line: "Dear old Santa, full of cheer." The mothers had gathered to hear their babies sing their Christmas songs and the teacher was horrified when the children, as of one voice, sang: "Dear old Santa, full of beer."—Indianapolis News.

PANAMA HYMN.

Lord of the sundering land and deep, From whom of old, to suage thy wrath, The floods stood upright as a heap, To shape thy host a dry-shod path. Lo, now, from tide to sundered tide, Thy hand, outstretched in glad release, Hath torn the eternal hills aside To blaze a liquid path for Peace. Thy hand, enlaid in flaming steel, Hath clutched the demons of the soil And made their forge-fires roar and reel To serve thy seraphim in toil; While round their pits the nations, bowed, Have watched their awful enginery Compel, through thunderbolt and cloud, The demigods to slave for thee.

THE DEFERRING OF MARRIAGE

Look ahead to marriage—and I should almost say, the sooner the better, advised President Eliot in a speech to Harvard Freshmen. It is the fashion nowadays among educated young men to wait many years before they marry. That is the place where the life of the highly educated man is inferior to the life of the mechanic, farmer or farm hand. Postponed marriage is a great modern evil in educated society. You will hear some young men say, "I cannot invite a girl who has been brought up to do nothing for herself, and to have every gratification and every luxury provided for her, to marry me until I can earn an income which will enable her to live with me in that way."

SOCIETY WILL TURN OUT IN FORCE FOR THE GIFFORD RECITAL

From the way in which the tickets for the John Gifford recital are selling, it is expected that the pavilion in the Young Hotel will be well filled tonight. The young fellow is talented and has received much praise from local musicians as well as violinists on the mainland. That Maud Powell felt him worthy of praise, however, is perhaps the best recommendation he has had. Except for the fact that he began his violin training at the age of six she found no fault with him. She thought he should have taken his first lessons a few years younger. When he played at a concert here some time ago his rendition of Beethoven's Minuet astounded the audience. There have been a number of requests that he shall play the selection tonight and it may be given as an encore. Little need be said for Mrs. George Taubert, who appears on the program as soloist. One of her numbers will be "Lo, 'Tis the Hour," a selection she sang in the "Tourist." Mrs. Taubert has a splendid voice and is known as one of the best contraltos in Honolulu. Having his residence in Honolulu young Gifford has been the pupil of Mrs. A. B. Ingram, who has aided him materially in the preparation for this recital. He has ruined thousands of lives, says a Boston physiologist whose stomach was probably ruined by beans and not by pie at all.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

FOR A LAME BACK.

When you have pains or lameness in the back bathe the parts with Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice a day, massaging with the palm of the hand for five minutes at each application. Then dampen a piece of flannel slightly with the liniment and bind it on over the seat of pain. For sale by Benson, South & Co., Ltd., Agents for Hawaii.—advertisement.

How the Canal Looks from the Atlantic Ocean

View of Link Connecting the Great Oceans, ninety per cent completed.

Hawaiian Gazette

RODERICK O. MATHERSON EDITOR
TUESDAY MAY 6

THE PULPIT AND THE "NEW DANCES."

The dance craze, notes the Literary Digest, has awakened the denunciations of the pulpit, and only a week or two ago the historic rostrum of Henry Ward Beecher, as well as Catholic pulpits in Brooklyn and Montclair, heard these dances condemned.

That the dance craze, notes the Literary Digest, has awakened the denunciations of the pulpit, and only a week or two ago the historic rostrum of Henry Ward Beecher, as well as Catholic pulpits in Brooklyn and Montclair, heard these dances condemned.

Let the seemingly incredible protestations that innocence and virtue may indulge in these excesses without realization of their origin and meaning be accepted. Politeness and optimism dictate this insult to intelligence.

Preserved through all the ages by the habitues of low resorts, by strumpets and their patrons, these dances have never lost their original reason for existence or been deprived of their appeal to the profane and the debauched.

PHARES W. RIDER.

Practical Christianity in Honolulu lost one of its foremost exponents yesterday when Phares W. Rider died in harness, surrounded by those for whose sake he had labored for the past ten years in Kakaako.

THE WOMEN AND THE BILLBOARDS.

The Advertiser takes pleasure this morning in publishing an announcement by the Ladies' Outdoor Circle of its intentions concerning billboards in Honolulu.

The ladies propose to put Honolulu on the map, from a billboard—or rather an anti-billboard—standpoint, and are pursuing the unique method of editing and issuing an edition of The Advertiser, next Saturday, May 10, to be especially devoted to the subject.

A special feature of the edition will be advertisements by the business houses of Honolulu who do not use billboards, all the profits of which will go toward payment of the expenses of the Circle in its general work.

Now is the time for those who believe in a "Honolulu Beautiful" to show that they mean what they say, and get in and help.

CONQUERING THE SCOURGE OF MAN.

One by one are surrounding the disease foes of mankind, while those which have as yet defied the sanitarian, the bacteriologist, the medical searcher after the cause and the medical combatant of the effect, are close-

The Billboard Must Go!

The Ladies of the Outdoor Circle of Honolulu make the following announcement:

Some time ago, they decided that so far as they could bring about such a result, "The Billboard Must Go." Collectively they have urged advertisers to keep off the boards, and individually they have warned patrons of the boards that they would not buy commodities advertised in this way.

Not only have local advertisers stopped billboard advertising, but a constantly growing list of national advertisers, who began using the boards in Honolulu, have withdrawn therefrom.

The ladies of the Circle base their opposition to billboards solely upon the fact that they are working to make Honolulu more beautiful, and the billboards interfere with this work.

The constant argument which they present is: "We are trying to make Honolulu a better place to live in, by making it a more beautiful place to live in. Won't you help us?"

The success achieved has convinced the ladies that all that is necessary to eliminate billboards entirely from Honolulu, is to bring home to the people who use this means of advertising these two facts, viz:

- 1. That the people of Honolulu do not want billboards in their city; and
2. That so large a number of people in Honolulu refuse to buy goods advertised on billboards that this kind of advertising not only does not promote sales, but positively prevents them.

As a means of accomplishing this object, the ladies of the Circle have arranged with The Advertiser to publish a special "Anti-Billboard Edition," focusing therein all of the evidence bearing upon the subject.

ly besieged, with the forces of science growing stronger and more aggressive year by year.

In Honolulu it is being carried on a systematic campaign against the most baffling of all the foes known to medical science, the force of leprosy, and against it have been made in Honolulu and at Kalaupapa greater advances during the past two or three years than have been accomplished in all the centuries that have gone before.

Another physician, who is devoting his life to work among lepers and who has, according to report, reached that point in his work where he is able to announce material progress, is Dr. W. J. Goodhue, of Molokai.

Some day, and that day may be soon, there will be added to the list of names that includes Jenner, Lister, Pasteur, Kitaseo, Loeffler, Koch, Carrol, Agramonts—perhaps Fleishmann—the name of one of the several earnest searchers after the preventative and the cure for leprosy.

Writing in Leslie's Weekly on diseases that have been conquerer, Edgar Allen Forbes summarizes the following as having been robbed of their terrors:

Smallpox was undermined a little more than a hundred years ago, on the day when Jenner inoculated his little son with the virus and proved that vaccination would prevent smallpox.

Typhus or "spotted fever" used to be one of the world's terrible epidemics and every large city in Europe trembled at the mention of the name. Today the name has almost disappeared.

Appendicitis, which has existed under various names as long as the appendix itself, is no longer to be feared. While, like a sharpshooter, it occasionally picks off a victim, its onslaughts are readily checked.

Hydrophobia has also been robbed of its terrors by the Pasteur Institute and its branches throughout the world.

Diphtheria has ravaged the earth since the day of the Babylonian Talmud and longer. But a patient man named Klebs and another man named Loeffler finally identified the bacillus, and a third investigator (Behring) produced the first antitoxin in 1895.

Yellow fever is a conquest of the medical department of the United States Army. It has a frightful record, with a mortality reaching eighty-five per cent.

Cerebro-spinal meningitis has been conquered by Dr. Simon Flexner, of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research. Guinea pigs and monkeys were first inoculated with the disease and then cured with the serum that had been worked out.

It is pleasant to be reminded of the fact that there is still an America's Friends' Society doing business in Tokio.

First—A statement of what the aims and objects of the Outdoor Circle are; who compose it and how they accomplish their work.

Second—A statement of why the Outdoor Circle opposes billboard advertising.

Third—The story of billboard advertising in Honolulu, how it has grown; the increasing opposition thereto and what the result has been.

There will be compiled and published a complete list of local advertisers who are using billboards in Honolulu.

A list of local advertisers who have tried billboard advertising in Honolulu and given it up.

A list of non-resident advertisers who are using billboards in Honolulu, with their addresses.

A list of non-resident advertisers who have tried billboard advertising in Honolulu and withdrawn therefrom.

Resolutions which have been adopted by public organizations of Honolulu opposing billboard advertising, will be reprinted.

Coupon forms will be printed in the paper to be filled in and mailed, asking for the assistance of the addressee in abolishing billboards from Honolulu.

The success achieved has convinced the ladies that all that is necessary to eliminate billboards entirely from Honolulu, is to bring home to the people who use this means of advertising these two facts, viz:

- 1. That the people of Honolulu do not want billboards in their city; and
2. That so large a number of people in Honolulu refuse to buy goods advertised on billboards that this kind of advertising not only does not promote sales, but positively prevents them.

As a means of accomplishing this object, the ladies of the Circle have arranged with The Advertiser to publish a special "Anti-Billboard Edition," focusing therein all of the evidence bearing upon the subject.

ly besieged, with the forces of science growing stronger and more aggressive year by year.

In Honolulu it is being carried on a systematic campaign against the most baffling of all the foes known to medical science, the force of leprosy, and against it have been made in Honolulu and at Kalaupapa greater advances during the past two or three years than have been accomplished in all the centuries that have gone before.

Another physician, who is devoting his life to work among lepers and who has, according to report, reached that point in his work where he is able to announce material progress, is Dr. W. J. Goodhue, of Molokai.

Some day, and that day may be soon, there will be added to the list of names that includes Jenner, Lister, Pasteur, Kitaseo, Loeffler, Koch, Carrol, Agramonts—perhaps Fleishmann—the name of one of the several earnest searchers after the preventative and the cure for leprosy.

Writing in Leslie's Weekly on diseases that have been conquerer, Edgar Allen Forbes summarizes the following as having been robbed of their terrors:

Smallpox was undermined a little more than a hundred years ago, on the day when Jenner inoculated his little son with the virus and proved that vaccination would prevent smallpox.

Typhus or "spotted fever" used to be one of the world's terrible epidemics and every large city in Europe trembled at the mention of the name. Today the name has almost disappeared.

Appendicitis, which has existed under various names as long as the appendix itself, is no longer to be feared. While, like a sharpshooter, it occasionally picks off a victim, its onslaughts are readily checked.

Hydrophobia has also been robbed of its terrors by the Pasteur Institute and its branches throughout the world.

Diphtheria has ravaged the earth since the day of the Babylonian Talmud and longer. But a patient man named Klebs and another man named Loeffler finally identified the bacillus, and a third investigator (Behring) produced the first antitoxin in 1895.

Yellow fever is a conquest of the medical department of the United States Army. It has a frightful record, with a mortality reaching eighty-five per cent.

Cerebro-spinal meningitis has been conquered by Dr. Simon Flexner, of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research. Guinea pigs and monkeys were first inoculated with the disease and then cured with the serum that had been worked out.

It is pleasant to be reminded of the fact that there is still an America's Friends' Society doing business in Tokio.

NEW COLONEL PLEASED AT SHOWING OF GUARDS

Several young fellows who are proud of long, curly forelocks, carefully saw that these protruded over their fore-heads and from beneath their hats. The latter frequently blew off and in the endeavor to keep the headgear on, the owners were unable to drill properly.

"I like the way Col. Sam Johnson once did before a competitive drill," said the old timer. "He brought a barber to the drill, and every man's hair was cut evenly in the back, and forelocks clipped. As a result every hat was planted firmly on every man's head. The result was just as he figured, for the men stood in line with heads erect and the line of the back of the heads was absolutely even. That company got the prize."

The new shoes, recently issued were a source of annoyance to some of the men and leaces were unfastened when the companies were at ease waiting their turn for inspection.

The regiment was in many ways a credit to its officers, each of whom has shown unswerving loyalty to the drill up to a standard which would look well to the man most feared—the regular army inspector.

One of the most interested spectators at the inspection was a tall, good looking Japanese in a white suit. He hovered close to the companies and every movement of the troops was keenly watched by the son of Nippon. He lost no opportunity to keep an eye on the inspector.

SEWALL SAFE IN KAHULUI HARBOR

Altogether unharmed, the big white American ship Edward Sewall, which lodged on the reef at the entrance to Kahului harbor Saturday morning, was pulled off the coral yesterday afternoon about three o'clock, when the tide was at the full, and is now safe inside the breakwater.

Four steamers are reported to have assisted in getting the ship off its dangerous pinnacle. Two others were under orders to proceed to the scene to aid in the salvage of the vessels, when news reached Honolulu that their services were not needed.

The wireless was kept busy all during the forenoon and the night before, arranging for means to drag the vessel into deep water, and all the time steamers were hovering about the vessel or en route at full speed to help, a fleet consisting of the United States naval tug Navajo, the United States navigation tug Intrepid and the Inter-island steamers Claudine and Wailie, floating around the vessel when the critical full-tide hour arrived. The oil tank steamer Lanning may have remained standing by, although Alexander & Baldwin, agents for the vessel, were not apprised of this yesterday.

Kukui Under Way.

Just at four o'clock yesterday a wireless was received by Alexander & Baldwin announcing the safety of the Edward Sewall. Just a short time before the United States lighthouse tender Kukui left the harbor for Kahului, Lighthouse Inspector Edredge and Captain Warrenner of the Kukui yesterday offered the services of the tender to save the unlucky sailing ship, and the offer was accepted. A wireless was sent to Kahului asking whether the Kukui would be needed. The reply came that the vessel could be used and at half-past three o'clock the vessel steamed out under a full head of steam.

In the Molokai channel a wireless from Alexander & Baldwin reached Captain Warrenner that the Sewall was safe in Kahului harbor and the Kukui was immediately turned about and started for this port, arriving last night.

Yesterday morning the local agents were informed that the captains of the vessels standing by the Sewall had decided not to make an attempt to float the vessel until afternoon.

Lurline Notified.

That the position of the Sewall was regarded as extremely perilous is evidenced by the fact that Alexander & Baldwin had a conference with the local agents of the Matson line, following which a full report of the Sewall's predicament was wireless out to Captain Weedon of the steamship Lurline, Saturday night. Shipping Manager Drew of Castle & Cooke informed Captain Weedon that if the vessel was not afloat by last evening, he would be directed to wireless, to divert his vessel to Kahului, and to the assistance of the stranded ship. The Lurline is a large, powerful vessel and it was expected that in the event of the combined horse power of the four smaller steamers being insufficient, the Lurline's engines, in addition, would bring the vessel off the reef.

Captain Weedon was notified last night that the Sewall was safe and that there would be no need to go to Kahului. The Lurline, therefore, will arrive here on time tomorrow morning.

No Particulars Come.

"We have received no particulars as to how the Edward Sewall got on the reef," said John Guild, of Alexander & Baldwin, yesterday. "However, it is presumed that the vessel was discharging ballast in deep water, not being allowed to land in the harbor, and when the lighthouse work was completed, started in toward the harbor. Probably during this maneuver the wind freshened and the vessel struck the reef. The Sewall arrived at Kahului last Tuesday from the Coast."

A survey will be held to ascertain the condition of the Sewall before any sugar is loaded in. The vessel will take a cargo of about 6000 tons of sugar to New York, via Cape Horn.

Captain Quizzed the Men.

Major Williams scanned the faces of the men, asked them questions as to how long they had been in the regiment, and obtained, considerable first hand, data as to its personnel. The veterans answered briskly, the recruits slowly. He came to a small man with keen eyes and an erect form.

"Have you drilled before?" asked the major.

"Umph," answered the man as he held his rifle at the port.

"Know what soldiering is?" was asked.

"Umph."

"You've been in the Philippine Scouts?"

"Yes, sir," answered the militiaman, who was a Filipino and a veteran.

Then came the drilling of the companies by the captains, first, then by the lieutenants and finally corporals who were given squads. Not until E Company began its drill was there a display of real drilling. Captain Cowter, whose drill master in former years was Col. Sam Johnson, one of the finest Hawaiian regiment, put his company through like regulars. There was applause from other companies and by spectators.

Captain Hopkins, another Colonel Johnson pupil, put Company F through its paces and they marched and did the manual of arms like seasoned army men. Captain Kane, who also saw service under the same drill master, put Company G through a performance which elicited praise. There was just the semblance of a praise-smit upon Major Williams' lips as these three companies drilled.

The other companies did well, too, but with depleted ranks they were unable to make the showing of the larger companies.

Lep the Love Locks.

"These citizen soldiers must learn one thing," said an oldtime militia officer, as he watched a few men in the ranks who had difficulty keeping their

COL. ARTHUR COYNE, N. G. H., Who has faith in the future of the Hawaiian National Guard.

(From Monday Advertiser)

A marked increase in efficiency and numbers was noted at the inspection of the First Regiment, National Guard of Hawaii, at Kapiolani Park yesterday forenoon, when Maj. H. O. Williams, Second Infantry, U. S. A., inspected the troops.

Under a hot sun the two hundred men who turned out in the new olive drab uniforms were kept in the field from nine until noon by the regular army officer, after which they were permitted to seek the shade of the algaroba trees under which the cooks had laid out a tempting lunch of beans, frankfurters, cast-iron coffee and thick slices of bread.

Under command of Col. Arthur Coyne, recently promoted from second in command, the troops left the drill hall in town and rode out to the park in trolley cars. At nine o'clock the two battalions of the regiment marched out upon the polo field. They were halted and immediately subjected to the searching eye of the inspector.

Ranks Filling Up.

The companies were not in line with full ranks, and there were many in uniform who are yet scarcely used to wearing the "kiki" or of handling a rifle. The former skeletonized companies have not yet attained their required strength, but recruiting is progressing slowly and Colonel Coyne hopes to have a good-sized and well-drilled regiment out for another inspection this fall.

"A day's work out in the field, once a month, even, is worth several months' work in a month," said Colonel Coyne yesterday as he watched a rooky awkwardly endeavor to simulate the movement of his comrades.

Every State has troops when they take to the field for work such as our troops are doing today. California appropriates so much a month for each company for the pay of the men. This stimulates attendance and I believe the money is well spent as far as results in a military way go. Pay the men a dollar a day for field work here as they do on the mainland, and the results will show for themselves.

"We are working up the strength of the regiment, but we are handicapped, as former inspections brought out very few men and the small numerical showing had its natural effect on the federal allowances for Hawaii's militia. For each man not in line, it really costs us about $18 a year. So we have a shortened allowance for the coming season, which makes all the more work now to get a full regiment and a larger allowance. I have faith in the future of the regiment, however."

Conservation of existing forests, the replanting of denuded forest areas, the opening of better channels for the passage of flood waters, the impounding of these waters where this is feasible, the diversion of headwaters into natural or artificial reservoirs—all these are first steps, and they can all be taken together. There is a sacred moral obligation involved in the taking of them. What is called civilization has pillaged the land, mostly through ignorance, whether ignorantly or wantonly, however, the time has now come for restitution. If the nation again fail of its duty in this regard, there seems to be no question that it will be awakened to it again. It would better not trifle any longer with so serious a condition as that which is revealed by the recurrent inundations.

But the fact of present importance is that the forests over wide tracts have gone, and that reforestation should be the work of the community, the State and the Nation. Tree planting should be general during the next twenty years, and those who plant trees should receive every encouragement possible. Legislation that will lighten the taxes upon timber land is called for, everywhere, as one of the earliest of the steps to be taken. Then there should be legislation that shall safeguard the young timber at every stage and from every peril.

Conservation of existing forests, the replanting of denuded forest areas, the opening of better channels for the passage of flood waters, the impounding of these waters where this is feasible, the diversion of headwaters into natural or artificial reservoirs—all these are first steps, and they can all be taken together. There is a sacred moral obligation involved in the taking of them. What is called civilization has pillaged the land, mostly through ignorance, whether ignorantly or wantonly, however, the time has now come for restitution. If the nation again fail of its duty in this regard, there seems to be no question that it will be awakened to it again. It would better not trifle any longer with so serious a condition as that which is revealed by the recurrent inundations.

But the fact of present importance is that the forests over wide tracts have gone, and that reforestation should be the work of the community, the State and the Nation. Tree planting should be general during the next twenty years, and those who plant trees should receive every encouragement possible. Legislation that will lighten the taxes upon timber land is called for, everywhere, as one of the earliest of the steps to be taken. Then there should be legislation that shall safeguard the young timber at every stage and from every peril.

Conservation of existing forests, the replanting of denuded forest areas, the opening of better channels for the passage of flood waters, the impounding of these waters where this is feasible, the diversion of headwaters into natural or artificial reservoirs—all these are first steps, and they can all be taken together. There is a sacred moral obligation involved in the taking of them. What is called civilization has pillaged the land, mostly through ignorance, whether ignorantly or wantonly, however, the time has now come for restitution. If the nation again fail of its duty in this regard, there seems to be no question that it will be awakened to it again. It would better not trifle any longer with so serious a condition as that which is revealed by the recurrent inundations.

But the fact of present importance is that the forests over wide tracts have gone, and that reforestation should be the work of the community, the State and the Nation. Tree planting should be general during the next twenty years, and those who plant trees should receive every encouragement possible. Legislation that will lighten the taxes upon timber land is called for, everywhere, as one of the earliest of the steps to be taken. Then there should be legislation that shall safeguard the young timber at every stage and from every peril.

Conservation of existing forests, the replanting of denuded forest areas, the opening of better channels for the passage of flood waters, the impounding of these waters where this is feasible, the diversion of headwaters into natural or artificial reservoirs—all these are first steps, and they can all be taken together. There is a sacred moral obligation involved in the taking of them. What is called civilization has pillaged the land, mostly through ignorance, whether ignorantly or wantonly, however, the time has now come for restitution. If the nation again fail of its duty in this regard, there seems to be no question that it will be awakened to it again. It would better not trifle any longer with so serious a condition as that which is revealed by the recurrent inundations.

But the fact of present importance is that the forests over wide tracts have gone, and that reforestation should be the work of the community, the State and the Nation. Tree planting should be general during the next twenty years, and those who plant trees should receive every encouragement possible. Legislation that will lighten the taxes upon timber land is called for, everywhere, as one of the earliest of the steps to be taken. Then there should be legislation that shall safeguard the young timber at every stage and from every peril.

Conservation of existing forests, the replanting of denuded forest areas, the opening of better channels for the passage of flood waters, the impounding of these waters where this is feasible, the diversion of headwaters into natural or artificial reservoirs—all these are first steps, and they can all be taken together. There is a sacred moral obligation involved in the taking of them. What is called civilization has pillaged the land, mostly through ignorance, whether ignorantly or wantonly, however, the time has now come for restitution. If the nation again fail of its duty in this regard, there seems to be no question that it will be awakened to it again. It would better not trifle any longer with so serious a condition as that which is revealed by the recurrent inundations.

But the fact of present importance is that the forests over wide tracts have gone, and that reforestation should be the work of the community, the State and the Nation. Tree planting should be general during the next twenty years, and those who plant trees should receive every encouragement possible. Legislation that will lighten the taxes upon timber land is called for, everywhere, as one of the earliest of the steps to be taken. Then there should be legislation that shall safeguard the young timber at every stage and from every peril.

Conservation of existing forests, the replanting of denuded forest areas, the opening of better channels for the passage of flood waters, the impounding of these waters where this is feasible, the diversion of headwaters into natural or artificial reservoirs—all these are first steps, and they can all be taken together. There is a sacred moral obligation involved in the taking of them. What is called civilization has pillaged the land, mostly through ignorance, whether ignorantly or wantonly, however, the time has now come for restitution. If the nation again fail of its duty in this regard, there seems to be no question that it will be awakened to it again. It would better not trifle any longer with so serious a condition as that which is revealed by the recurrent inundations.

But the fact of present importance is that the forests over wide tracts have gone, and that reforestation should be the work of the community, the State and the Nation. Tree planting should be general during the next twenty years, and those who plant trees should receive every encouragement possible. Legislation that will lighten the taxes upon timber land is called for, everywhere, as one of the earliest of the steps to be taken. Then there should be legislation that shall safeguard the young timber at every stage and from every peril.

Conservation of existing forests, the replanting of denuded forest areas, the opening of better channels for the passage of flood waters, the impounding of these waters where this is feasible, the diversion of headwaters into natural or artificial reservoirs—all these are first steps, and they can all be taken together. There is a sacred moral obligation involved in the taking of them. What is called civilization has pillaged the land, mostly through ignorance, whether ignorantly or wantonly, however, the time has now come for restitution. If the nation again fail of its duty in this regard, there seems to be no question that it will be awakened to it again. It would better not trifle any longer with so serious a condition as that which is revealed by the recurrent inundations.

But the fact of present importance is that the forests over wide tracts have gone, and that reforestation should be the work of the community, the State and the Nation. Tree planting should be general during the next twenty years, and those who plant trees should receive every encouragement possible. Legislation that will lighten the taxes upon timber land is called for, everywhere, as one of the earliest of the steps to be taken. Then there should be legislation that shall safeguard the young timber at every stage and from every peril.

Conservation of existing forests, the replanting of denuded forest areas, the opening of better channels for the passage of flood waters, the impounding of these waters where this is feasible, the diversion of headwaters into natural or artificial reservoirs—all these are first steps, and they can all be taken together. There is a sacred moral obligation involved in the taking of them. What is called civilization has pillaged the land, mostly through ignorance, whether ignorantly or wantonly, however, the time has now come for restitution. If the nation again fail of its duty in this regard, there seems to be no question that it will be awakened to it again. It would better not trifle any longer with so serious a condition as that which is revealed by the recurrent inundations.

But the fact of present importance is that the forests over wide tracts have gone, and that reforestation should be the work of the community, the State and the Nation. Tree planting should be general during the next twenty years, and those who plant trees should receive every encouragement possible. Legislation that will lighten the taxes upon timber land is called for, everywhere, as one of the earliest of the steps to be taken. Then there should be legislation that shall safeguard the young timber at every stage and from every peril.

Conservation of existing forests, the replanting of denuded forest areas, the opening of better channels for the passage of flood waters, the impounding of these waters where this is feasible, the diversion of headwaters into natural or artificial reservoirs—all these are first steps, and they can all be taken together. There is a sacred moral obligation involved in the taking of them. What is called civilization has pillaged the land, mostly through ignorance, whether ignorantly or wantonly, however, the time has now come for restitution. If the nation again fail of its duty in this regard, there seems to be no question that it will be awakened to it again. It would better not trifle any longer with so serious a condition as that which is revealed by the recurrent inundations.

But the fact of present importance is that the forests over wide tracts have gone, and that reforestation should be the work of the community, the State and the Nation. Tree planting should be general during the next twenty years, and those who plant trees should receive every encouragement possible. Legislation that will lighten the taxes upon timber land is called for, everywhere, as one of the earliest of the steps to be taken. Then there should be legislation that shall safeguard the young timber at every stage and from every peril.

Conservation of existing forests, the replanting of denuded forest areas, the opening of better channels for the passage of flood waters, the impounding of these waters where this is feasible, the diversion of headwaters into natural or artificial reservoirs—all these are first steps, and they can all be taken together. There is a sacred moral obligation involved in the taking of them. What is called civilization has pillaged the land, mostly through ignorance, whether ignorantly or wantonly, however, the time has now come for restitution. If the nation again fail of its duty in this regard, there seems to be no question that it will be awakened to it again. It would better not trifle any longer with so serious a condition as that which is revealed by the recurrent inundations.

MAGUIRE MUST FACE MORE CHARGES

Ruling by Judge Parsons Said to Insure Thorough Inquiry.

'Ali Baba' Breckons Piling Up Evidence for Prosecution.

(Mail Special to The Advertiser.)

HILO, May 4.—'Ali Baba' Breckons returned last Thursday from Honolulu. He is now busy with his investigation of various county records, warrants and the bank accounts of various county officials, comparing, sorting and drawing deductions. He is getting ready to make some additional charges before the grand jury, which meets during the end of the present month. There will be further charges against Auditor Maguire. Whether there will be charges brought against others is a matter which Breckons is not discussing at present.

The ruling of Judge Parsons, made last week, to the effect that the county auditor is charged, within the meaning of the statute relating to the embezzlement of government funds by officials, with the disbursement of county moneys, has placed the work of the prosecution on a far more definite basis than it has enjoyed heretofore. Breckons can now accumulate evidence and bring charges with full knowledge of the applicability of the statute.

More Charges Contemplated.

Now that the question of the auditor's being charged with the disbursement of county funds has been settled, it is expected that more charges against Maguire will be brought. They will probably be brought before the grand jury this month.

Now that the demurrers have been overruled, the next step is the entering of a plea by Maguire. His attorney, C. W. Smith, says that he will plead not guilty, and will consequently stand trial. The trial jury convenes June 2, and shortly after that the Maguire trial will probably take place.

There has been some talk that a change of venue may be necessary, owing to the fact that the Maguire cases have been so extensively discussed. Breckons says, however, that so far as the prosecution is concerned, it is perfectly satisfied to stand trial in Hilo, as he has every faith and confidence in the general integrity of this community. C. W. Smith said that it was a matter of little moment what the prosecution had to say on the proposition, as it had no chance of securing a change of venue. As far as the defense was concerned, said C. W. Smith, the question had never been considered at all, and he was therefore unable to make any statement in regard thereto at present.

Breckons continues to amuse himself with discovering oddities and peculiarities in the records and warrants which he keeps about him in great batches. Every time he finds something that looks out of the ordinary, he looks into the whole transaction from alpha to omega, not neglecting to trace it to the bank accounts in case the warrant involved finally found its way there.

Old accounts covered by warrants drawn without authorization as, for instance, $119.00, are particularly fascinating to the investigators, as they are more easily traced than those where some round number is involved which may refer to various instances.

In many cases the bookkeeping is humorous, as for instance where it gives the month of September, 1909, thirty-one days, which is, however, more amusing than significant.

Checking Up Warrants.

The commission is busy checking up warrants and accounts, and is making notes of whatever apparent irregularities it runs across. It is not likely that it will have any public meetings for the next few days. It is, however, quite likely that the commission will sooner or later, go to Kau to hold a session there. The names of five police officers which recur continuously on the notes and warrants, are those of Kau men, and the commission will probably find it necessary to put them through an examination. It is likely that it will be cheaper for the commissioners to go to Kau than it will be to pay for the transportation and expenses of the witnesses, if they have to be brought to Hilo, and in such case the commission will go to Kau. There is also a possibility that the commission will go to Kona for reasons somewhat similar to those relating to the Kau trip.

A phase of the investigation which is interesting those concerned greatly, is that relating to the possibility of the county recovering by civil suit the amounts which it has lost. One of the most important points in this connection was brought up in the matter of the Maguire demurrer, namely, whether the bondsmen of the treasurer would be likely to have to pay for any illegal warrants issued by the treasurer. Carl Smith and Breckons agreed that, if the court decided that the treasurer had discretion in the matter of paying warrants, that is, if it was held that the treasurer had a right to refuse to pay warrants if he thought such were illegally issued, then the treasurer's bondsmen might be sued civilly for the recovery of the money thus paid out by the treasurer on warrants which he

Loses Race for Century Mark

'Will Live to Be a Hundred,' Said F. F. Lopez; Dies at Ninety-eight.

Within the shadow of the century mark which he had often said he would reach before he died, Francisco Faria Lopez passed away at his home near the Mollili baseball grounds Sunday morning. He was aged ninety-eight years and a native of Portugal. Years ago he came to Hawaii raised a family of children and proved himself a good citizen.

PETRIE FIXING BLAME FOR BURSTED PIPES

Supervisor Conducting Investigation Preparatory to Submitting Report to Board.

An investigation was started yesterday by chairman Petrie to determine at whose door shall be laid the blame for the caving in of portions of the King street sewer pipe which was recently laid, between Fort and Bethel. Considerable damage has been done through the pipe breaking at different points and this is claimed to have been caused by the weight of the steam roller which was used over the section lately when the street was repaved.

The point to be made is whether contractor J. A. Gilman is responsible for the damage or whether the blame shall be charged to the board of supervisors in the event of it being shown that the pipe was not buried at a proper depth.

The supervisors are scheduled to meet at seven-thirty o'clock tonight. The question of responsibility for the breaking of the pipe will probably be discussed at that time. In the meantime business men along King street, between Fort and Bethel, complained yesterday of the inconvenience being caused by the constant tearing up of the street in that block.

Supervisors Pacheco and Wolter are also expected to renew their fight for the removal of City Engineer Whitehouse.

ASCOT IS BRINGING MANY LABORERS

The steamer Ascot, with another load of immigrants, is expected at Punta Arenas either today or tomorrow and due to arrive in Honolulu May 30 or 31. The boat is bringing 1343 Spanish immigrants, this being the second and last batch secured by Raymond C. Brown during his recent visit to Portugal and Spain.

M. A. Silva of the territorial immigration station leaves this evening for a lengthy stay on the island of Kauai. He does not expect to return before the end of the month.

While on the Garden Island, Silva will visit all the plantations and make a close investigation of the condition of the European laborers who have come to Hawaii under the auspices of the board of immigration and more particularly those recently arrived by the Wilkesden.

PLAN TO CAMPAIGN TO CHECK JEWISH BURLESQUE

CHICAGO, April 25.—A nation-wide campaign for the abolition of offensive burlesques of Jewish characters on the stage was planned at a meeting here attended by representatives of all Jewish civic, social, philanthropic and religious societies in the city. A committee of nine will be named to call a meeting in the near future, when a definite organization and a plan of procedure will be decided upon. The mode of procedure now planned is to place a boycott on all theaters which continue offensive burlesques after being requested to eliminate such productions.

CHARLEY ROSS' BROTHER TO WED

NEW YORK, April 25.—Henry A. Ross of Philadelphia, brother of Charley Ross, who was kidnaped thirty-eight years ago, and whose fate was never learned, is to marry Miss Jessie Lloyd Gifford, well known in settlement work of New York. Miss Gifford is the daughter of the late R. Swain Gifford, the landscape and marine painter.

ALL FEARS OF DESHA ARE SET AT REST

Official Records Show That Senator Frank Wood Filed Expense Account.

(Mail Special to The Advertiser.) HILO, May 5.—Rev. Stephen Desha, who polled the second highest vote in the contest for the seat in the senate left vacant by the death of Senator Hewitt, claims there is something wrong with the official election expense accounts filed for the campaign of Frank Woods, the successful candidate. Last Thursday a news item from the Honolulu papers reached Hilo in the following form: "Twenty-two dollars and fifty cents is the amount named in the campaign expense account for the election of J. Frank Woods, A. G. Correa, chairman of the Democratic campaign committee, has certified to this amount in an affidavit filed at the office of the territorial secretary. Stephen L. Desha states the election cost him $93."

"I don't see how it is possible for the Woods account to be correct," said Desha the following day. "As a matter of fact, the nomination fee alone is twenty-five dollars, so that cannot be contained in the amount mentioned. I am, furthermore, in a position to know that Woods' expenses were greatly in excess of the amount named," continued Desha. "As a matter of fact, I have with my own eyes seen a check for $149 drawn in favor of the Low brothers' 72 automobile hire around the island, and I have also seen a check for forty or sixty dollars, I forget the exact amount, which was drawn in favor of the Low brothers for similar purposes."

"You should remember," added Desha, significantly, "these accounts are in an affidavit; they are made under oath."

O. T. Shipman, who acted as Woods' campaign manager, was told that Desha had what appeared as a pretty serious charge to make. Shipman explained that the account filed by Correa was all right. Correa had filed that to show what the Democratic party organization had spent on the Woods campaign. It was perfectly correct, for the party had spent only $22.50.

On the other hand, said Shipman, Desha was quite right in his contention that the $22.50 was far from covering the total expense of the Woods campaign. To the contrary, Shipman had issued, in the name of Woods, checks for something like $255 for automobile hire to the Low brothers, and it was likely that this was what Desha was driving at.

The amounts in question were covered by an expense account filed by Woods, personally, and the whole thing was in shipshape and in full accord with the provisions of the law, said Shipman.

The campaign expense affidavits filed with the secretary of the Territory, in accordance with the election laws, show the expenses of the several candidates to have been as follows: S. L. Desha, $93; Koomoo, $59.90; F. F. Woods, $379.50. Another statement filed with Secretary E. A. Mott-Smith shows that the Hawaii Democratic committee also expended $22.50 on behalf of the election of their successful candidate, Senator Woods.

It was over the last mentioned item Hilo now seems so much agitated, but the thing is fully explained away when it is shown Senator Woods filed his own expense account which, as stated above, amounted to $339.50.

SHOULD WIND UP THE LABOR SNATCHING CASES

What will probably be the last of the action for damages brought against Circuit Judge Whitney, former Attorney General Lindsay, Sheriff Jarrett, E. Faxon Bishop and the late William Probenbauer by Liberto Gomez, representing the score or so of Filipino witnesses who were held from departing California and kept to testify against Labor Agent Craig and others, was handed down in a supreme court decision yesterday, in which it was decided that the plaintiffs have no case and that the judgment of the circuit court stating so must be sustained.

DEATH OF SAMUEL KAH.

Samuel Kah, a resident of Waianae Oahu, died in Honolulu yesterday. He was fifty-two years of age and a member of the Waianae branch of the Hui Owi, the big Hawaiian mutual benefit society. The funeral will take place this morning at ten o'clock from the Silva undertaking parlors.

Mother's Day, May 11th.

Mrs. Taylor, florist, will attend to your orders for the above. Tel. 2239, opposite Young safe-advertisement.

Phares W. Rider Stricken With Heart Trouble, Dies in the Arms of His Wife

Beloved and Mourned by Lowly and Poor of Kakaako.

Succumbing to a second stroke of heart failure Phares W. Rider, superintendent of the Kakaako Mission, died last night shortly before eight o'clock. Peacefully ending a day filled with its usual labor, and closing a life that has been filled with much of it, the Mayor of Kakaako, surrounded by his noisy flock of ragged parishioners who knew of the better things of life only as he had taught them, passed away, three minutes after warning of his approaching end had come.

Yesterday morning and afternoon, the superintendent, still apparently as sturdy as during the stirring days of the early sixties when he marched to the Union drum beats of the Rebellion, he visited the police station, chatted and joked with his friends, and invited attendance upon his mission.

Last night he made plans to go to the G. A. R. meeting, where with the remaining men of the Last Company, he reviewed the old days and commented on the new. He was then told that the meeting had been postponed until today.

"That is good," he laughed, patting his wife's hand as they sat on their lanai at the mission on South street. "I will not leave you tonight."

A few minutes later, he leaned suddenly forward.

"Something's happening," he exclaimed. "My sight's gone."

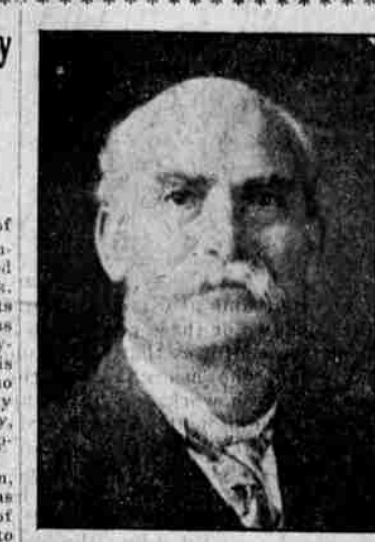

He placed his head in his wife's lap and she fanned him. Then he suddenly stiffened. Alarmed she carried him into the mission and laid him on the floor. He died as his head sank to the pillow.

He had left her, after all. For the past eleven years Mr. Rider had been one of the few good angels which that Providence-forgotten hole of "humanities" has known. Only of late years, leavened by the gentler ingredients of life which he introduced to its impoverished inhabitants, has that district been fit for men to live in. Much of this improvement for the better was brought about by this good man.

Humanity's Friend. For the past nine years, the Kakaako Mission had been housed in new and bright quarters supplied and maintained by the Atherton Estate. For the two years prior to that Mr. Rider lived as few missionaries to heathen lands have cared to live.

He had just passed his sixty-fifth year. Born in Delphis, Ohio, his boyhood was spent in the East, and his early manhood in the defense of his country. During the latter part of his life, before he came to Honolulu, he resided in the East, and left Mexico, California, for his labors in Hawaii. Had he lived until June first he would have celebrated the fourteenth anniversary of his arrival on these shores.

He was a deacon of the Central Union Church, prominent in all fields of religion, not so much by his preachings or his brilliance, but by his steadfast adherence to the mainly again appearing, he went to the physicians and still again yesterday he sought medical aid. He was told that he was in bad condition, and might expect trouble. To his friends he breathed no word of the doom that hung over him, but as cheerfulness ever, went his way among men and died reconciled in fate which visited him so gently last night.

The late Phares W. Rider, and the latest photograph of the Kakaako Mission Sunday School, over which he presided for many years.

Tributes From Heart. "I have been in the liquor business off and on, for many years, a part of the time in this district," said M. Medeiros (Alhau, last night, "and when I was informed a little while ago that 'old man' was gone I was shocked and grieved."

"Kakaako had a terrible reputation for hoodlumism, but since he was in charge of the Mission here the place gradually grew better, until today it is comparatively decent. Many people here owe a good deal to Mr. Rider's good work and his helping hand worked miracles among the needy and destitute."

Albert Schaefer, who has lived thirty-nine years in the Islands had known "Kakaako" Rider, as he was familiarly called, the past eleven years. "I was sitting with Mr. Rider and his wife on the steps of the Mission shortly after seven o'clock this evening when death claimed my old friend," he said. "Mr. Rider was a father to many and I, for one, stand as a witness to his noble work here. More than once, when I have been in need and up against the world, his was the helping hand which stretched out to save me. Kakaako has lost its best friend through his death."

On the other hand, it is stated the man got off lightly when he escaped the hangman's noose.

LECTURING VEGETARIANS. Here is a paragraph from the Denver News is getting credit for, but Old Bent Marlock of Kansas wrote it, say the Kansas City Journal.

"No man who lives on meat was ever known to kick his wife or ask for a divorce. Adam got into a row right off because he had no hog meat, but he or black bass. Napoleon lost Waterloo because the allied forces had bacon for breakfast the morning of the fight. The French had vegetable soup. No war can be successfully waged without hog meat. Americans are the most frisky people on earth because they eat the most hog meat. A vegetable diet woman is as cold and clumsy and unlovable as a turnip. If you wish to put roses in the cheeks of your girls, vitality in their every motion and brains in their heads, feed them meat. If you want your boy to get a job and hold it, go to the frum and amount to something, give him lard, grease, ham fat and tallow three times a day. The world is full of cranks who are always getting up some new feed about hay, corn or corn fodder too."

A BAD FAD. "My husband sees king elephants when he drinks."

HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS' WORTH OF STAMPS FOR EXHIBIT

Preparations are now almost complete for the first pretentious philatelic exhibit in Hawaii by the Hawaiian Philatelic Society, which is planned for Thursday next.

The numbers of the club, the value of whose aggregate collection is estimated to run over the hundred thousand dollar mark, are planning to put the choicest parts of these collections on exhibition. It is estimated that the display will equal where no exceeding any exhibit of the kind held this side of Chicago in years.

SEEKS TO ESCAPE LIFE IMPRISONMENT

Attorney General Thayer placed before the Governor yesterday the petition for commutation of sentence made on behalf of George Borges, who was convicted about two months ago for having illicit relations with a niece claimed to have been less than ten years of age.

I typed the petition over to the Governor today without making any recommendation whatever," stated Attorney General Thayer, yesterday afternoon. "The man was sentenced to life imprisonment and has been in prison about two months. The petition asking for a commutation of sentence was signed by a large number of representatives and several senators. It seems to be the purpose of those asking clemency for the convict that his sentence be commuted to a definite number of years and in this manner to later ask for further commutation."

The petition goes on to recite, "We are informed that his conviction was based on Borges' confession, which confession, we are told, is not the truth being made with the hopes of being discharged."

On the other hand, it is stated the man got off lightly when he escaped the hangman's noose.

WOMAN'S BOARD TO MEET THIS AFTERNOON

The Woman's Board of Missions will meet in the chapel of Central Union Church this afternoon at two-thirty o'clock.

PREPARING FOR RIFLE CONTEST

For the purpose of selecting competitors for place on the Hawaiian rifle team, which is to be sent to the National competition this year, Col. Arthur Coyne of the First Regiment, National Guard of Hawaii yesterday, is sending orders for local competitions to be held in Honolulu, Hilo, Wailuku and Lahaina, between May 11 and June 8.

COILS TIGHTEN ON SUSPECTED MURDERER

Revolver Owned by Dead Chinese Found in Filipino's Tent.

Weapon Is Identified by Register Number With City Clerk.

What the police say is the conclusive item of evidence that will send Domingo Rodrigues to the gallows that await the fiendish murderers of the Chinese storekeeper and his family at Kahaunui last Wednesday, is now in the possession of Chief of Detectives McDuffie.

It is a small automatic revolver and was discovered by the chief, accompanied by Sergeant Kellett and City Engineer Whitehouse yesterday morning under the temporary floor of the tenthouse occupied by the Filipino at Fort Shafter. Up to the night of the murder the gun was the possession of Lim Ah Kee, the victim.

Accidental Discovery. The discovery was made almost accidentally. Whitehouse, for whom the dead Chinaman had been storekeeper when the contractor was working on the Nuuanu Dam, asked the chief yesterday if he had found such a gun in the Chinaman's store.

The chief, accompanied by the engineer and his sergeant, went to the "Murder Store" at once where an empty holster the chief remembered was again found. They then went to the Filipino's room and found the automatic. It was fitted in the holster carefully and the corroborations that had been made by the gun it had contained fitted the marks on this one.

Identified by Register. The officers then went to the city clerk and looked up the registry of the gun. The documents show that this same weapon the number and description being identical, had been registered by the Chinaman in 1906. This in itself, being the police, will convict the man outside of the mass of other evidence they have discovered.

Progress on the case is now rapid and the other suspects now held will either be released or their guilt proved to the satisfaction of the police within a few days.

Three arrests of suspects were made by Kellett last night.

MOTHER AND SON ARE LAID AT REST

A large number of friends attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Anna Mueller and Ernest Mueller, mother and son, yesterday afternoon. Interment was in Nuuanu cemetery.

The funeral services were conducted at the Silva undertaking parlors, Rev. W. Felmy, pastor of the German Evangelical Lutheran Church, officiating.

The funeral was an unusual one and attracted considerable attention, it being seldom when two of the kind are seen in one funeral and still more seldom, as in the case, where mother and son are buried at the same time.

REMEMBER H M?

What has become of the old fashioned dentist who used to give you the tooth to take home with you?—Kansas City Journal.

DEMOCRATIC HARMONY THICK BUT HOW LONG WILL IT LAST

By Ernest G. Walker. (Mail Special to The Advertiser.) WASHINGTON, April 29.—There is much Democratic dancing around, all because of a handshake. One might infer there had been some wonderful doings, all because the Honorable Champ Clark, speaker of the house, and the Honorable William Jennings Bryan, secretary of state, met at a luncheon, said a few cordial words to one another and issued statements that they were friends again. It was all very nicely staged (on a Friday afternoon in Washington) and likewise nicely advertised. No pains were spared to let the country know that Bryan had renounced his confidence in Clark and that Clark had forgotten Bryan for putting a brand under the saddle of the trick mule that Clark was trying to ride at Baltimore.

But Democrats are very glad. They are having high old times these days anyhow—going ahead so fast and so pleasantly that they are thinking about four glorious years without troubles. Of course a few months will dispel all those illusions. Splendid organization at Washington and splendid teamwork between the President and congress and between the two branches of congress, are all very fine. They count for progress and for the admiration of the country, but do not mean that the country will ultimately approve of Democratic politics. However, the Bryan-Clark episode is part of the really excellent work Democrats are doing in getting together and staying together.

Some things are back of this reconciliation. It was the work of ex-Representative Theodore A. Bell, of California, who is an attorney for some Alaskan interests. He is also trying to get back into political power in California. He came here, in some measure for that purpose, but has also been much while here with his wealthy client, L. L. James, of Alaska, who formerly lived at Napa, California, which is Bell's home town. Bell was temporary chairman of the Denver national convention of 1908 that nominated Bryan for President and, as chairman, he led the California delegation to the Baltimore convention for Speaker Clark. At that convention Bell "broke" with Bryan and Bryan "broke" with Clark, and there has been strained relations between them ever since. Bell made the best of William's nomination and supported him cordially during the campaign, but other Democrats tried to seize the organization in California and it looked as though Bell would speedily find himself out in the political cold.

The Olive Branch. A Northern California friend, Ed Locke, editor of the Woodland Democrat, came to Washington on a mission pertaining to the (Bryan) House yard. He came to see Bryan and suggested that Bell come around to the state department, which Bell did. There were explanations and disclosures by Bell, including disclosures that he had had with him a number of party men from California. The whole was that Bell and Bryan made up, and it looks as though everything was lovely between the two. But Bell, as the friend of Speaker Clark, got busy immediately on a reconciliation between Clark and Bryan. For some days he labored to bring the two together, but without success. He is a Californian. Bell wants to be on friendly terms with Lema, the while he regains political fame in his home State.

A Mighty Precedent. But this reconciliation, which had so much California politics, and possibly Alaskan politics, in the background, has certainly set Washington tongues rattling. Every Democrat, big and little, is running around with comment about the big quarrel between Clark and Bryan being at an end. And every little Democratic wrangle is in danger of being smoothed out because Clark and Bryan, you know, have made up. It is funny, indeed, to see how much is being made of this reconciliation. Presidents and speakers have been at odds many a time and oft, but at no previous time has there been such a notable quarrel between a speaker and a secretary of state. Reed, while speaker, was offish with McKinley, and Cannon, while on more cordial terms with Taft, never was any more enthusiastic about him than Reed was about McKinley. These strained relations were sometimes more or less embarrassing to the White House. President Wilson, however, had kept aloof from the Bryan-Clark row. It required much tact to do so, for Bryan had been Wilson's very close personal and political friend. At the same time the President sought to stay on friendly terms with the speaker. All these men were coming together every now and then and the possibilities of trouble could not be ignored. For instance, on the day of the inauguration at the Capitol, Bryan and Clark were both on the same small platform with the President, but were unable to see one another.

Chorus of Harmony. Now all that will pass, such as the relief of everyone's mind, is being given. The speaker has said that he will not forget the incident at Baltimore, where he had a majority of the delegates on one ballot and where Bryan jumped in for Wilson and undoubtedly turned the tide for the man who is now President. But there will be no more ado of one another. A chorus of harmony is being heard within the Democratic camp, and the big row at Baltimore, which has in fact become historic, tapers off into a gentle understanding. A Californian takes much of the credit and presumably will get back into high favor himself because of his services.

One of Many Marvies. Bryan, secretary of state, is by no means the least of the marvels of the administration. Troublemaker in politics for many years, uncompromising, intel-

A LOOK BACK AT HOUSE PERSONNEL

Just-ended Session—Some Good Men.

Discussing the personnel of the recent legislature and more particularly that of the house, one Honolulu politician, who was a frequent visitor at the sittings of the two lawmaking bodies, is of the opinion that in the house especially the new material failed to develop any real floor leader; that the old hands because of former experience, carried things pretty much as they wished and to suit themselves, while the numerically healthy Democratic minority proved a high fizzle.

Considering the old members, and by this I mean those who were returned at the recent election, it is stated that the members, especially from the floor, were of the opinion that in the house especially the new material failed to develop any real floor leader; that the old hands because of former experience, carried things pretty much as they wished and to suit themselves, while the numerically healthy Democratic minority proved a high fizzle.

Want Facts Regarding Moore. The sensation in cabinet circles of recent days is the secretary of agriculture. His vigorous ouster of Willis Moore, chief of the weather bureau, for a long while, has made Washington take notice. Of course he had the full cooperation of President Wilson. There is an impression that very summary action was taken there. Although Willis Moore has his faults, as Washington generally knows, a high good opinion of him has been very prevalent. This can be taken as an upon evidence, Secretary of Agriculture Houston simply will have to produce the evidence that will stand scrutiny or suffer in the estimation of people, whose opinions are not to be despised. There is an idea abroad here that it was Secretary Houston, quite as much as President Wilson who dismissed Moore's official head.

The Word Artist. Radical governmental times these, when the race is to the swift and the battle to the strong. In which contest there is no such idea as losing the election. One instance, at least, is known where he turned down a claim for legal services for the sum of a thousand dollars, claiming two hundred and fifty dollars would amply pay for the work.

Jack Coley of Kauai, as chairman of the health and police committee, was a hard-worked man all through the session and even if he slipped up on the Red Light Bill he held his committee in a firm grasp on many occasions. One instance, at least, is known where he turned down a claim for legal services for the sum of a thousand dollars, claiming two hundred and fifty dollars would amply pay for the work.

Let it not be thought that the Vice-President is a freak. He isn't. He seems in a fair way to make a pretty good presiding officer of the senate. For a while he was tremendously new. The old Republican senators sneered at his rulings in a polite but decidedly disagreeable manner that elder senators have with a new Vice-President. There are plenty of old parliamentary heads at the clerk's desk in front of him, to coach him in an undertone and before long Vice-President Marshall will be able to go it alone. The senate likes him. The Vice-President is a good fellow.

There Was a Reason. Julia P., age five, was an excited witness of the attack by a dog on a little girl of her neighborhood, who had run screaming to her home with the dog leaping on her and growling either angrily or playfully. After fully ten minutes' silence, during which Julia appeared to be in deep thought, she remarked: "Mamma, I know why that dog jumped on Ruth that way. It was because she looked so cute in her new raincoat."—Indianapolis News.

A LOOK BACK AT HOUSE PERSONNEL

Just-ended Session—Some Good Men.

Discussing the personnel of the recent legislature and more particularly that of the house, one Honolulu politician, who was a frequent visitor at the sittings of the two lawmaking bodies, is of the opinion that in the house especially the new material failed to develop any real floor leader; that the old hands because of former experience, carried things pretty much as they wished and to suit themselves, while the numerically healthy Democratic minority proved a high fizzle.

Considering the old members, and by this I mean those who were returned at the recent election, it is stated that the members, especially from the floor, were of the opinion that in the house especially the new material failed to develop any real floor leader; that the old hands because of former experience, carried things pretty much as they wished and to suit themselves, while the numerically healthy Democratic minority proved a high fizzle.

Want Facts Regarding Moore. The sensation in cabinet circles of recent days is the secretary of agriculture. His vigorous ouster of Willis Moore, chief of the weather bureau, for a long while, has made Washington take notice. Of course he had the full cooperation of President Wilson. There is an impression that very summary action was taken there. Although Willis Moore has his faults, as Washington generally knows, a high good opinion of him has been very prevalent. This can be taken as an upon evidence, Secretary of Agriculture Houston simply will have to produce the evidence that will stand scrutiny or suffer in the estimation of people, whose opinions are not to be despised. There is an idea abroad here that it was Secretary Houston, quite as much as President Wilson who dismissed Moore's official head.

The Word Artist. Radical governmental times these, when the race is to the swift and the battle to the strong. In which contest there is no such idea as losing the election. One instance, at least, is known where he turned down a claim for legal services for the sum of a thousand dollars, claiming two hundred and fifty dollars would amply pay for the work.

Jack Coley of Kauai, as chairman of the health and police committee, was a hard-worked man all through the session and even if he slipped up on the Red Light Bill he held his committee in a firm grasp on many occasions. One instance, at least, is known where he turned down a claim for legal services for the sum of a thousand dollars, claiming two hundred and fifty dollars would amply pay for the work.

Let it not be thought that the Vice-President is a freak. He isn't. He seems in a fair way to make a pretty good presiding officer of the senate. For a while he was tremendously new. The old Republican senators sneered at his rulings in a polite but decidedly disagreeable manner that elder senators have with a new Vice-President. There are plenty of old parliamentary heads at the clerk's desk in front of him, to coach him in an undertone and before long Vice-President Marshall will be able to go it alone. The senate likes him. The Vice-President is a good fellow.

There Was a Reason. Julia P., age five, was an excited witness of the attack by a dog on a little girl of her neighborhood, who had run screaming to her home with the dog leaping on her and growling either angrily or playfully. After fully ten minutes' silence, during which Julia appeared to be in deep thought, she remarked: "Mamma, I know why that dog jumped on Ruth that way. It was because she looked so cute in her new raincoat."—Indianapolis News.

By Authority

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE THIRD JUDICIAL TERRITORY OF HAWAII. AT CHAMBERS—IN PROBATE.

In the Matter of the Estate of William F. J. ROY, late of Kaimali, North Kona, Deceased. Order for Notice of Hearing Petition for Probate of Will.

A document purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of William F. J. Roy, deceased, having on the 23rd day of March, A. D. 1913 been presented to said Probate Court, and a Petition for the Probate thereof, and for the issuance of Letters Testamentary to John D. Paris, Frank R. Greenwell and Robert Wallace, having been filed by them;

It is Hereby Ordered, That Wednesday, the 30th day of April, A. D. 1913 at 10 o'clock a. m. of said Court, at Kailua, North Kona Hawaii, T. H., be and the same herein is appointed the time and place for proving said Will and hearing said application.

It is Further Ordered, That notice thereof be given, by publication, once a week for three successive weeks, in the Hawaiian Gazette, a newspaper published in Honolulu, T. H., the last publication to be not less than ten days previous to the time therein appointed for hearing.

Dated at Kukuhiwai, North Kona Hawaii, March 25th, 1913. JOHN ALBERT MATTHEWMA Judge, Third Circuit Court.

E. M. MULLER Clerk, Third Circuit Court. (SEAL, Third Circuit Court) C. H. McEldrie, Honolulu, T. H., atorney for petitioners. April 1, 8, 15.

SENATOR WORKS WOULD PROTECT REPORTERS

Shudders to Think of Things They See and Places They Must Visit. WASHINGTON, April 24.—Senator Works, of California, turned his attention today to uplifting the press. He judged in a good deal of speculation as to who was responsible for the depraved taste of the public in the matter of news reports, and said when so much space was devoted to the Healy rifle murder case in Virginia and the details of the Titanic disaster it was time for newspaper publishers to seriously question themselves.

Senator Works said he shuddered to think of the lives of newspaper reporters who must serve up in attractive guises the gruesome details of tragedies for the delectation of the curious public. "What a life this is for any man to lead!" he exclaimed. "It makes me shudder to think of it and most of the men who are instrumental in this wholesale poisoning of the minds of our people are young men, often more boys than men, who are not fit to be in a school of vice, falsehood and the violation of the sacred rights of others."

By Authority

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE THIRD JUDICIAL TERRITORY OF HAWAII. AT CHAMBERS—IN PROBATE.

In the Matter of the Estate of William F. J. ROY, late of Kaimali, North Kona, Deceased. Order for Notice of Hearing Petition for Probate of Will.

A document purporting to be the Last Will and Testament of William F. J. Roy, deceased, having on the 23rd day of March, A. D. 1913 been presented to said Probate Court, and a Petition for the Probate thereof, and for the issuance of Letters Testamentary to John D. Paris, Frank R. Greenwell and Robert Wallace, having been filed by them;

It is Hereby Ordered, That Wednesday, the 30th day of April, A. D. 1913 at 10 o'clock a. m. of said Court, at Kailua, North Kona Hawaii, T. H., be and the same herein is appointed the time and place for proving said Will and hearing said application.

It is Further Ordered, That notice thereof be given, by publication, once a week for three successive weeks, in the Hawaiian Gazette, a newspaper published in Honolulu, T. H., the last publication to be not less than ten days previous to the time therein appointed for hearing.

Dated at Kukuhiwai, North Kona Hawaii, March 25th, 1913. JOHN ALBERT MATTHEWMA Judge, Third Circuit Court.

E. M. MULLER Clerk, Third Circuit Court. (SEAL, Third Circuit Court) C. H. McEldrie, Honolulu, T. H., atorney for petitioners. April 1, 8, 15.

WOMAN KILLED IN "TROUBLE ROOM"

"Shoot me, shoot me!" screamed a woman's voice from the Mutual Telephone Company's building, Adams lane, at half-past eight last night. Then a shot rang out. Immediately afterwards, from an upstairs window, a man called to passersby to send for the police because he had just killed his wife.

Harassed, nagged and badgered, he declared, until driven to desperation, Frank Whaley, night "trouble man" at the telephone office, accepted his wife's challenge and fired a steel bullet from a magazine revolver into her brain. The bullet entered the head at the corner of the left eye and emerged from the back of the skull, falling to the floor where it was found by a police officer.

ASK FOR THE Gaviota Brand Fertilizers

It is of no particular interest to you—

To know that we have been making Fertilizers for all kinds of crops for the last twenty years, but it is of your interest to get the proper Fertilizer for the crop that you grow. We know what Fertilizer has been found most suited to that crop and can supply you with it.

Pacific Guano & Fertilizer Co. Honolulu and Hilo, Hawaii. SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.

CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY

"EMPRESS LINE OF STEAMERS" FROM QUEBEC TO LIVERPOOL via the CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY the Famous Tourist Route of the World

In connection with the Canadian Australasian Royal Mail Line For tickets and general information apply to THEO. H. DAVIES & CO., LTD. General Agents. Canadian Pacific Ry. Co.

Castle & Cooke Co., Ltd. Commission Merchants

Sugar Factors Ewa Plantation Co. Waiuku Agricultural Co., Ltd. Apolau Sugar Co., Ltd. Fulton Hen Works of St. Louis. Blake Steam Pump. Western's Condensers. Babcock & Wilcox Boilers. Green's Fuel Economizer. Marsh Steam Pumps. Matson Navigation Co. Planters Line Shipping Co. Kohala Sugar Co.

Bank of Hawaii

INCORPORATED UNDER THE LAWS OF THE TERRITORY OF HAWAII. PAID-UP CAPITAL $600,000.00 SURPLUS 105,000.00 UNDIVIDED PROFITS 157,592.92 OFFICERS: C. H. Cooke, President. K. D. Tenney, Vice-President. F. B. Damon, Cashier. G. U. Fuller, Assistant Cashier. R. McCarrison, Assistant Cashier. DIRECTORS: C. H. Cooke, E. D. Tenney, A. Lewis, Jr., R. E. Hooper, W. W. Macfarlane, J. A. Macfarlane, C. H. Atherton, Geo. R. Carter, F. B. Damon, F. C. Atherton, R. A. Cooke. COMMERCIAL AND BANKING DEPARTMENTS. Strict attention given to all branches of Banking. JUDD BLDG., FORT ST.

Castle & Cooke Co., Ltd. Life and Fire Insurance Agents

General Insurance Agents, representing New England Mutual Life Insurance Company of Boston. Actna Fire Insurance Co. ATTENTION: We have just accepted the Agency for the —and— The Protector Underwriters of the Phoenix of Hartford. These are also among the Roll or GROUP.

THE POPE'S TITLES

The word pope, the ecclesiastical title used to designate the head of the Roman Catholic church, was in the fourth and fifth centuries frequently used in the west of Europe of any bishop, but gradually came to be reserved to St. Peter, becoming his official title. In the east, on the other hand, only the bishop of Alexandria seems to have used it as a title. In the Greek church and in Russia all the priests are called "pappas," which is also translated pope.

ASK FOR THE Gaviota Brand Fertilizers

It is of no particular interest to you—

To know that we have been making Fertilizers for all kinds of crops for the last twenty years, but it is of your interest to get the proper Fertilizer for the crop that you grow. We know what Fertilizer has been found most suited to that crop and can supply you with it.

Pacific Guano & Fertilizer Co. Honolulu and Hilo, Hawaii. SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.

CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY

"EMPRESS LINE OF STEAMERS" FROM QUEBEC TO LIVERPOOL via the CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY the Famous Tourist Route of the World

In connection with the Canadian Australasian Royal Mail Line For tickets and general information apply to THEO. H. DAVIES & CO., LTD. General Agents. Canadian Pacific Ry. Co.

Castle & Cooke Co., Ltd. Commission Merchants

Sugar Factors Ewa Plantation Co. Waiuku Agricultural Co., Ltd. Apolau Sugar Co., Ltd. Fulton Hen Works of St. Louis. Blake Steam Pump. Western's Condensers. Babcock & Wilcox Boilers. Green's Fuel Economizer. Marsh Steam Pumps. Matson Navigation Co. Planters Line Shipping Co. Kohala Sugar Co.

Bank of Hawaii

INCORPORATED UNDER THE LAWS OF THE TERRITORY OF HAWAII. PAID-UP CAPITAL $600,000.00 SURPLUS 105,000.00 UNDIVIDED PROFITS 157,592.92 OFFICERS: C. H. Cooke, President. K. D. Tenney, Vice-President. F. B. Damon, Cashier. G. U. Fuller, Assistant Cashier. R. McCarrison, Assistant Cashier. DIRECTORS: C. H. Cooke, E. D. Tenney, A. Lewis, Jr., R. E. Hooper, W. W. Macfarlane, J. A. Macfarlane, C. H. Atherton, Geo. R. Carter, F. B. Damon, F. C. Atherton, R. A. Cooke. COMMERCIAL AND BANKING DEPARTMENTS. Strict attention given to all branches of Banking. JUDD BLDG., FORT ST.

Castle & Cooke Co., Ltd. Life and Fire Insurance Agents

General Insurance Agents, representing New England Mutual Life Insurance Company of Boston. Actna Fire Insurance Co. ATTENTION: We have just accepted the Agency for the —and— The Protector Underwriters of the Phoenix of Hartford. These are also among the Roll or GROUP.

THE POPE'S TITLES

The word pope, the ecclesiastical title used to designate the head of the Roman Catholic church, was in the fourth and fifth centuries frequently used in the west of Europe of any bishop, but gradually came to be reserved to St. Peter, becoming his official title. In the east, on the other hand, only the bishop of Alexandria seems to have used it as a title. In the Greek church and in Russia all the priests are called "pappas," which is also translated pope.

TO CURE A GOLD IN ONE DAY

Take Laxative Bromo Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. ARIS MEDICINE CO., 25 LEXA ST. & C.

